Eastern Teams Win Swim Meet—Badger Women Place

(Special to the Cardinal)
BY MARION STRASSBURGER
Bloomington, Ind.—The next national conference of the Athletic Conference of American College Women will be held at Berkeley, California in 1924, it was decided in the final session of the conference here Saturday. The conference closed with a dance drama "The Dream Garden" presented by the pupils in dancing at the University of Indiana and coached by Gertrude Noetzel, '20, head of dancing at Wisconsin last year and at present on the faculty of Indiana.

The swimming meet resulted in a victory for the eastern team, composed of Ohio schools, Indiana, Wesley, Brown, Cornell, Wells, and Chicago. All other teams were placed in the western team. This sectional division was made to avoid any strictly intercollegiate competition, which is forbidden by the conference. Mabel Winter won the 180-foot breast stroke with a time of 1 and 4-5 minutes, and got third in the straight diving. Marguerite Croskey won second in the fancy diving. Dixon, Chicago, established a record plunge of 57 feet.

21 Badgers Present

The number of Wisconsin delegates and alumni rose to 21 when Margaret Wagner, '20 arrived from Duluth, Minn. The conference endorsed and recommended the use of Spalding's rules for women's basketball, as the result of a debate and discussion. Sentiment was expressed for the modification of guarding rules and for intercollegiate competition.

All swimming, track and field records will hereafter be sent to the chairman of the news letter for incorporation in the pamphlet which will be circulated among all conference schools. Northwestern will edit next year's letter.

A directory of all conference schools, publishing information about the athletic associations, will be edited by the national recording secretary each year. Western college, Ogden, O., was elected recording secretary for the next three years.

The classification of schools according to enrollment of women, which was passed at the midwest sectional conference last year, was not endorsed, and it was ruled that all conference schools be given full value for standard points provided the candidate transferring prove her worth at the new school within her first year there.

Pres. W. L. Bryan, Indiana, spoke on the necessity of good health and

Six Win Varsity Title Honors in Each of Sports

The champion boxers and wrestlers of the university were determined yesterday at the all-university boxing and wrestling tournament held at 2:45 on the third floor of the gymnasium.

Those who earned the title of champion in boxing are: F. G. Lupton '23, featherweight; J. T. Dawson '23, lightweight; F. G. Kojis, '23, welter-weight; Freddie Johns '24, middle-weight; J. L. Murdock '24, light heavy-weight; and M. E. Strain '24, heavy-weight. The wrestlers who are now title-holders are: E. J. Doepler '24, bantam-weight; D. O. Fehrend '24, lightweight; W. H. Klass, welter-weight; G. V. Gregory '24, middle-weight; L. G. Barry '22, light heavy-weight; and W. J. Hever '22, heavyweight. Gold medals were awarded the victors.

Elect Peterman Captain

Following the matches the members of the varsity wrestling team, with the new men eligible for the team next year gathered in the trophy room of the gym and elected I. H. Peterman, welterweight, captain for 1922.

Peterman, who is a junior this year, has been filling the position of sub-captain since the ineligibility of Glenn Culver, regular captain for this season. He has won all of his dual matches, and took third in the All-Western conference meet out of a field of ten entries in his class, making a record of three matches won and one lost for the year. G. W. Prideaux was elected sub-captain. This is the second season for both these men, each having been varsity men last year.

300 Watch Tourney

Three hundred university fight fans crowded around the ring and applauded enthusiastically each clever feint or fast fall. The afternoon's program was featured by an exhibition wrestling match between Captain Peterman of the varsity squad and E. H. Templin, also of the varsity. Peterman, who weighs 145 pounds, by fast and spectacular work floored Templin, who weighs 158, several times, while the latter also showed well.

Every match of the tourney was spirited and fast, and each contestant fought doggedly to the finish. The boxing bouts consisted of three rounds of two minutes each, and the wrestling matches of three five minute periods. Decisions were rendered by Bob Duncan and J. W. Pidcoe. Coach Mitcheock and Robert Quick refereed, and Dad Vail and Bob Duncan served as time keepers. The contestants and winners of each match are as follows:

Had the school suddenly turned Irish? Well, at least it had yesterday in sympathy with the joyous Engineers who in green gala array formed the long parade that started from the hill and wound its way up around the Capitol and back to the foot of the library steps where St. Patrick himself entertained all his loyal followers.

With street sweepers clearing the way, a large green snake made its sinuous journey up State street. Small children, terrified at its contortions and convolutions ran shrieking to their mothers who told them of the good St. Patrick who

FROLIC FOR ALL IS KEYNOTE PLAN OF CHARITY BALL MIXER

Dance for Social Welfare Work
Will be Held on April 2

The first all-university function to be held after Lent is the big Charity Ball mixer, which will take place in the men's gymnasium on April 2. The ball is to be in the nature of a general frolic for everybody—dancers and those who don't dance.

In order that the dancers may not be crowded, the floor committee is planning to use the entire building instead of only the main gym. The various booths and side-shows will be located in the corridors and extra hallways. The slogan of the floor committee is "as slick a floor as that at last year's military ball."

Partners for All

Blue tickets will be sold to women only. Men's tickets are to be yellow, and only the same number of each will be sold, so that there will be a partner for everyone. The members of the mixing committee will be in costume.

The purpose of the ball is to help the social welfare work throughout the state. An appropriation of only $5,000 has been made, and unless more money is obtained, many of the active community workers will have to be dropped from the payroll. The quota for Madison is $500, and it is expected that half of this amount may be raised from the proceeds of the ball. Tickets are 50 cents apiece and are on sale at Morgan's and the University Pharmacy.

ARTICLE BY DEFREES LEADS IN NEW ISSUE OF COMMERCE MAG

With a special article by Joseph Defrees, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States as its leading feature for the issue, the March number of the Commerce magazine will be on the campus Monday morning. Short and entirely non-technical, Mr. Defrees' article on "Problems America Faces in Returning to Normal Business" is a complete general summary of the industrial and commercial situation as it is seen today by one of the foremost men in the organized business field.

There are two other main articles, one by Mr. Walter Distelhorst of the First Wisconsin National Bank of Milwaukee on "Measuring Yourself for Success", and the other by S. W. Cunningham, advertising manager of the Jacobsen Publishing company, on "Advertising That Reaches Your Buyer". These last articles are excellently written, and of special interest to commerce students.

Illinois Repeats Win With 45 Points—Michigan Second

(Special to the Cardinal)
BY C. J. LEWIN

Evanston, Ill.—One record was broken and one tied in the eleventh annual conference track and field meet which Illinois, the 1920 victor, captured. Illinois scored 45 points, Michigan 25 1-2, and Wisconsin 23. Third in the shot put would have given Wisconsin second place. Other points made by the Cardinals were scattered.

Illinois and Wisconsin counted in eight of ten events but the Badgers won only two firsts. Michigan won three first places.

David Alberts, Illinois, jumper, shattered Bob Wahl's high jump mark of 6 feet one-half inch when he did 6 feet 4 1-8 inches.

Knollin Indoor Point Winner

Al Knollin gathered individual honors in the indoor class with seven points. He finished first in the hurdles, equalling the 7 3-5 seconds record of Cool Johnson, Michigan, made last year. Tired from competing in preliminary trials of hurdles he gained third place in the dash after a close finish with Loesch, Wolverine.

In the two mile run, Illinois scored all of the first three positions, placing Wharton, Allman, and Dusenberry. Gaumity, Minnesota unknown, finished fourth. A remarkable burst of speed at the finish won for the Illinois man. Alberts, Illinois, easily broke the six foot one half inch record of Wahl, Wisconsin, when he leaped six feet four and one eighth inches. Osborne, his teammate, finished second over Hoffman and Pierce. Two Badgers, Wilder and Merrick, tied for first place in the pole vault at the height of 12 feet. Westbrook, Michigan star, and McGregor, Illinois, tied for second. Nash, Wisconsin, scored third place in half mile run which two Illinois men captured.

The Badgers took fourth in the one mile relay, Illinois winning over Michigan and Chicago. The time one fifth second slower than the conference record.

Knollin tied the conference record of 7 3-5 seconds in the hurdles, the second event of the evening in which he placed. Wallace, Illinois, and Sargent, Michigan, closely pressed the speedy Badger.

Butler, Michigan star, came within one second of conference record time in the quarter mile. Illinois swept second and third, Kaiser, Wisconsin, being nosed out for third at the tape.

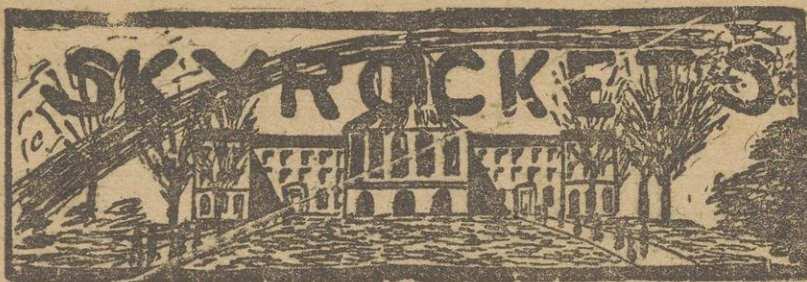

Knollin and Mattox placed in the trial heats of the fifty yard dash and Knollin finished third in the final which Michigan won with Simmons and Loesch. After leading for the first half of the mile run, Wall took the second position. Sweitzer, Minnesota, captured first

To Think That Pants Could Sing! Dear Sir:

I was looking over my last summer's clothes, figuring on digging out a light suit, when I discovered a pair of pants that was so much moth eaten as to be unwearable. On examining the holes, however, I found that they were arranged in a very mechanical and orderly manner. So I placed the pants in a player piano, and much to my surprise they rendered two verses of "Home Sweet Home."

FIRST SNAPSHOTS OF FACULTY PUT ON SALE MONDAY

Snapshot pictures of members of the faculty of the university will be placed on sale in the office of the Y. W. C. A. tomorrow morning. The faculty members whose pictures are now ready are Pres. E. A. Birge, Deans G. C. Sellery, F. W. Roke, F. E. Turneure, H. L. Russell, and H. S. Richards, and Profs. T. E. Jones, B. W. Snow, J. H. Mathews, W. G. Bleyer, A. B. Hall, W. H. Kiekhof, A. P. Haake, J. Jastrow, J. R. Commons, S. W. Gilman, and Joseph Steinauer, instructor in physical education, and Miss Mary Anderson, secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

Pictures are being taken daily and the list will be increased from day to day. Members of Y. W. C. A. board in each organized women's boarding house, will take orders for the pictures, on and after Tuesday, March 22.

Pictures will also be on sale at a table in Bascom hall in several days.

The pictures, the dimensions of which are 2 1-2 inches by 4 3-4 inches, are suitable for memory books. They will be sold at 10 cents each.

the conference endorsed all measures safeguarding the health of women in sports. Special interest attached to the posture requirements in many of the associations represented.

No difference will be made in the standard system for awards for teams made in first, second, or upper classes, and each class team made will be worth 100 points in transference. The Wisconsin system of awarding less to the girls who make the same team a second time was discarded.

APROPOS of the Engineer's parade yesterday we are reminded of the story of the Englishman and the New York Irish policeman. The Englishman, hearing of the sugar shortage in this country, had brought over a package of lump sugar for his own use, which he carried about with him most of the time. Several times the same Irish policeman had stopped him and asked him about the contents of the package, and each time the Englishman had answered:

"Why, I have to have my sugar. I couldn't get along without it, two lumps for my coffee and two lumps for my tea."

The answer always exasperated the copper, and finally after the Englishman started to tell him, for about the tenth time, "Two lumps for my coffee, and two lumps for my tea—", the policeman cracked him a couple of times over the head with his club, saying, "And there's two lumps for your cocoa!"

The Englishman came to, laughing, "Haw, haw, I say, what a ripping joke on the policeman. Why, you know, I don't drink cocoa!"

THE movie force may think that the front of the Libe looks like a Venetian palace—although us, after a semester of fine arts, knows better—but they can't say that the Grand Canal looked like anything else than a barnyard on a rainy day.

BUDS AND BUDDIES TO JOIN IN SECOND LEGION GATHERING

"Eats and Good Time" is Bill for Tuesday's Entertainment

Legionaires and legionettes are to put on their second big service man's get-together Tuesday evening in the Engineering auditorium with a special program of "eats and a good time" similar to the one held two weeks ago.

So successful was the last one, when over 700 ex-service men rallied to enjoy an evening with their old "buddies", that an even more extensive program is being planned for this time.

Professor "Steve" Gilman is to be the speaker of the evening and, although he has not as yet announced his subject, his reputation on the campus promises that he will have something worth while to present.

Kolb's orchestra is to furnish music and the Glee club quartet has agreed to sing.

William Tannewitz, '23, has promised to present one of his monologues to add a touch of humor to the occasion and Bill Pickard, '21, will lead the cheering.

The eight legionettes, recruits since the last meeting, are in charge of the refreshment and pledge themselves to care for the needs of the "inner man" besides furnishing appropriate decorations.

LEGISLATORS GIVEN PASSES TO MOVIE

Through the courtesy of the Grand tickets have been given to each member of the legislature, good for any performance at that theater. The tickets were secured for the legislators by the All-Madison Entertainment committee, which is staging various functions for them from time to time. Any organization staging events, which it desires listed on this schedule for the legislature, should get in touch with the assistant secretary at the Association of Commerce.

Now that the Bolshevik government has been overthrown again and is back again, we can go on with the usual order of business.

SEAPLANES END RECORD 6,500-MILE FLIGHT

The F-5-L No. 5 arriving at San Diego bay at end of journey, and Lieut. F. L. Burke, section leader, aboard No. 5 (left), and Ensign Andrew Crinkley, first pilot of No. 5.

Eleven of the fourteen seaplanes of the Pacific air force, which started a 6,500-mile round-trip flight to Balboa, Canal Zone, from San Diego, Cal., last December, recently landed in safety at San Diego bay. The flight was a record one in aviation records. The other three planes, including the two large NC planes, were lost en route. The men were saved, however. The F-5-L No. 5, which was the first to take off last December, was the first plane to complete the trip, alighting in the bay sixteen minutes ahead of the F-5-L No. 4, the flagship of the fleet.

Today Holds Record

For Warm March 19

Today is the warmest March 19th in the records of the weather bureau, according to Forecaster Eric R. Miller. At 2:20 this afternoon, the thermometer registered 72 degrees. On March 17, 40 years ago Wisconsin lay under eight feet of snow. The coldest March 19 recorded by the bureau was in 1875, when the mercury dropped to two degrees above zero.

The March 19, on which the thermometer most nearly reached the record set by this year was 1910, when it registered 69 degrees.

THE NEW WRAPS

Usher In the Mode Magnificent

Superb with decorative motifs of tinsel, silk or wool, the season's wraps are causing a sensation in the world of fashion. Wraps of Orlando, Marnella, Florizella, Boliva in new Spring shades—aquamarine, pewter, ostrich, moufflon and navy blue. Silk lined throughout with pussy willow taffeta in appropriate shades.

One especially stunning wrap of Florizella material is in the beautiful aquamarine shade. It is lined with pearl grey pussy willow taffeta, size 38; price $115.

Coats of Golflex, Polo and Covert are also included in our complete stock.

$18.50 to $125

DIRECTOIRE SUITS

Tricotine, twill cord, Poiret twill, in navy, black, grey or tan shades, are developed into the Directoire suit for the slender or stout figure—from the tailleur to the embroidered box flare suit with bell sleeves and sashes; all are correctly tailored and reasonably priced, $22.50 to $125.

TRICOLETTE DRESSES

FOR SPORT OR AFTERNOON WEAR

There are no dresses that give the satisfactory long wear that tricolette dresses do. They are especially adapted for sport clothes because they don't wrinkle or look mussed. Styles are widely divergent and colors, too—Navy, jade, black, grey, flesh, white, bisque, beige and maize. Extraordinary dresses at $45.

B. L. T. Writes Finis; Death Ends Career

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO—Bert Leston Taylor, noted humorist, and conductor of the column in the Chicago Tribune, "A Line O'Type or Two," died of pneumonia at his home here early today, after an illness of two weeks. The widow and two daughters survive.

He was born in Goshen, Mass., in 1866 and received his early newspaper training on a paper in Plainsfield, N. H. In 1896 he came west to edit the Duluth, Minn., News Tribune, where he remained for three years coming to Chicago in 1899 and working on the Chicago Journal. He remained for two years when his bent from the humorous side of journalism led him to start the column for which he became famous in the Chicago Tribune as "B. L. T." Among his better known writings are "The Pipe-Smoke Carry," "The Charlatans," "Motley Measures," and "A Line O' Verse or Two."

Many Are Injured As Irish Ambush Police

DUBLIN—A police patrol was ambushed by 150 men last night in Castletownroche. A constable was mortally wounded and some of the attacking party also were wounded. A police and military patrol was ambushed near Dungarvan and a fight lasting five hours ensued. One constable was killed and a police sergeant is missing. Several of the attackers are believed to have been killed.

GRAY STITCHING TRIMS THIS NAVY TRICOTINE SUIT

The smart tailleur is favored everywhere this spring and there was a noticeable predominance of tailored suits in the recent fashion show held in New York. Here is one dashing tailored model made of navy tricotine with gray stitching trimming the edges of both skirt and coat. Several rows of the stitching trim the collar, but a single row is used on the rest of the suit.

STRAND CALENDAR

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday—Pauline Frederick in "Roads of Destiny." Also Mack Sennett comedy.
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday—Bryant Washburn in "Burglar Proof." Also Buster Keaton in "The Scarecrow."

AT THE STRAND

Pauline Frederick in "Roads of Destiny" will be shown at the Strand Theatre for three days starting today. It is an adaptation of the famous novel by O. Henry, scenario by Channing Pollock, and it has made a truly wonderful picture. In all his stories, O. Henry wrote around a deep thought which has been visualized without losing the essence or any value of the author's effort.

Originally the story centered around a male character, but in the adaptation, Pauline Frederick has been put in the lead and her ability to portray the emotions that O. Henry registered in his character will be immediately recognized. It is a drama of destiny and in it a girl, Pauline Frederick, has her fate worked out to its conclusion in four different ways, purporting what awaited her on the four roads, north, east, south, and west. It reveals how strongly two individuals can be linked together by fate and how impossible it is in some cases for circumstances to separate them. Love is the theme of the plot and "Roads of Destiny" reveals how strong the passion is with people blessed with that sincerity of mind so superb and against which deceit and shallowness only tend to accentuate its real beauty.

Mack Sennett's "Don't Weaken", his latest all star comedy will be the added feature attraction.

THE COMING WEEK AT THE GRAND

Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday—William Russell in "The Challenge of the Law."
Wednesday and Thursday—Shirley Mason in "Merely Mary Ann."
Friday—closed, Good Friday.
Saturday—George Walsh in "Om Now On."

AT THE GRAND

At the Grand Theatre, beginning today, "The Challenge of the Law," will be shown. The popular William Russell is the star, and E. Lloyd Sheldon wrote the story.

"The Challenge of the Law" is described as a smashing dramatic production, filled to the brim with suspense and heart interest which holds the spectator to the very end. As a Captain of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, Russell cleans up a fur smuggling exchange single-handed, pursues a band of desperadoes across the desert, runs down the murderer of his pal, and of course wins the girl he loves.

This picture can be well recommended as one of the really worthwhile productions of the season, because of the clean and wholesome atmosphere throughout, and because it is a vivid story interestingly told.

THE COMMERCE MAGAZINE

THE Commerce Magazine, enterprising publication of the students in the course in commerce, will be on sale on the campus tomorrow. The present issue of the magazine contains an especially timely article by the president of the United States Chamber of Commerce. In addition it carries a number of interesting and helpful articles and special features of interest not only to the student of the science of business administration, but to every Wisconsin student who should be acquainted with the work of various courses and colleges of the university. Read the Commerce Mag. It is well worth your while.

CAMPUS BEAUTIFUL

CAMPUS cutting seems to be one of the outdoor sports of the university that many are indulging in this time. When the campus is covered with snow, this petty offense can be tolerated, but it is no longer open season for this sort of jay-walking.

It might be suggested that every student who wishes the campus to be kept beautiful should consider himself as a police officer to patrol the highways and byways on the hill. Let's cut out campus crossing.

Please!

A CLOSED BOOK

THE three Wisconsin and the three Illinois debaters, who worked for months on the material available on the question of the recognition of Soviet Russia, told the audience at Music hall many things about that great country that is not generally known.

Yet it was patent that not one of the speakers was absolutely sure of his ground. One may have read what one investigator in Russia found, only to find that another equally reliable authority found conditions to be entirely different.

Professor Woolbert, who presided at the debate, summed up the Russian situation about as well as anyone when he, after the debate, said that much light had been shed upon Russia during the course of the discussion, but the more light that was turned on, the darker the present Russian situation seemed.

To most of us Russia is a closed book.

YELLOW JOURNALISM

THE Wisconsin News, the Hearst newspaper published in Milwaukee and circulated throughout the state, scored another exclusive scoop.

The Hearst correspondent in these parts, whoever he is, had 200 co-eds of Chadbourne and Barnard poisoned, and the journalistic pervert who presides over the news department of The News spilled a lot of ink on screaming headlines which told of the agonizing near-deaths of a flock of 200 co-eds!

The story sent out from here and doctored up in Milwaukee was absolutely untrue. The co-eds are all doing nicely today, thank you, and were surprised to hear about the dire things that are alleged to have occurred.

If such a story had been printed in a newspaper that has the confidence of its readers, immeasurable mischief would have been wrought. But the mere fact that it was published in the yellow sheet was enough to discredit it.

Some of the foolish and silly stuff concerning the university, that has been sent out under a Madison date line by the "infant class in journalism" has been stopped, but there seems to be no way to combat the mischief wrought by some "professionals" who prowl about on the campus looking for "scoops."

THE CHINA AND JAPAN QUESTION

After hearing Mr. F. C. Moore's speech on "The Problem of Japan in China and Siberia" at Bascom hall last Friday, I, to represent the Chinese at Madison, cannot help expressing a few words, through this column of the Cardinal, to correct the misinformation about China then given, which might otherwise deceive the intelligent students of the university.

The speaker said China was hopeless because of incapacity, political corruption and economic difficulty. This statement I, like anybody else, can never confirm. The conditions of France before the Revolution were probably worse than those of China at present; but France had never been hopeless. Not ing, the number of schools in China were increased from 87,000 to 3,000,000 from 1912 to 1916, and the mileage of railways from 4700 to 6835 with 2000 under construction.

Ten years ago, there was only a handful of Chinese students in this country, but today the number is between 4,000 and 5,000. Other vital problems are being tackled. These facts do not indicate that China has reached the apex of modern civilization, but they do show that her development during recent years is simply surprising. With her accumulative policy, China is trying to work out her own salvation, regenerate itself, and make one of the newest republics out of the oldest nation.

It will be better understood, if I quote the words of Mr. J. Arnold, American Commercial Attache at Peking, "The West need not fear for the future of China so long as the West adopts an attitude of patient, kindly, helpful sympathy and establishes its relations in such a way that the principles of the open door and of equal opportunity become an actuality."

With regard to Manchuria, the speaker brought out the justification of Japanese encroachment on the land because Japan guaranteed the security of life and property, for which he gave no statistics. In the first place, the speaker should know that Manchuria is still under China's control, although Japanese immigration is allowed. In the second place, Japan has never guaranteed the security of life and property for, just last year, in the Hungchun Outrage, Japan destroyed millions of families and thousands of lives.

The most ridiculous statement made by the speaker was that China played the intrigue of making other countries to war, and that she employed persons to spread a propaganda of making America hate Japan. The following questions will suffice to prove his absurdity. Did China cause the last World War? Were the world diplomats, such as Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau, so weak as to be influenced by China to enter the War? In speaking about the propaganda, where is the organization, and who are the people carrying out such a mean thing in this country? While discussing the Shantung question in the Senate, the honorable Lodge and Johnson and many others all spoke for China against Japanese aggression. Did the speaker mean that these senators were paid by the Chinese?

In conclusion, I will not refute that there is a little truth, however exaggerated, in Mr. Moore's speech. For his errors, I am perfectly ready to excuse him because of his ignorance about Chinese affairs, as I never expect him to know as thoroughly as I do. I am also satisfied with his praise for Japan. What I do not understand is why he should give a one-sided picture of China, not from the point of justice, but merely for the sake of Japan, and what his purpose and intention is of imposing such a deliberate insult on China, which might disturb the good feeling long created between the United States and China.

For several years past it has been the custom for the freshman class to wear distinctive caps, but the idea has spread to the upperclassmen.

TWO ARTISTS OF MUSIC SCHOOL IN JOINT RECITAL

Miss Josephine Jones and Mr.
Leon Iltis Offer Voice and Piano Program

Prominent on the music calendar of this week is a concert of song and piano music that will be presented by Miss Josephine Jones, contralto, and Mr. Leon L. Iltis, pianist, members of the faculty of the School of Music. The program will be heard at Music hall at 8:15 Thursday evening.

It is not often that members of Music School faculties can find time from their appointed studio duties for the presentation of their own programs; and it is with keen interest, therefore, that many musical friends of these two artists anticipate their appearance.

Well Known in City

Miss Jones is a member of the quartet at Christ Presbyterian church. Through her singing there, and at various other occasions, she has earned an enviable place among Madison musicians. Among the songs Miss Jones is to sing are several of uncommon beauty.

Of Mr. Iltis' piano playing the city already knows much. He has appeared frequently in solo work, and his accompaniments to numerous programs of vocal and violin music, have established him as a thorough musician. Among his numbers is a Chopin Fantasia which has been given first place among all of that composer's many informal piano works. This number is well fitted to Mr. Iltis' pianistic ideals.

The program is as follows:

FRESH WOMEN HAVE VARIETY STUNTS AT COMMISSION PARTY

Almost 200 freshman women turned out for the freshman commission party at Chadbourne hall yesterday afternoon. A pantomime entitled "Mellow Drama" was presented by members from the hall. Arline Klug read "Innocents Abroad", and responded to encores with two short readings, "Bill Says" and "1492."

Freshman cheers were led by Nina Farris after the program. She announced a basketball game between the frosh and juniors Tuesday evening, and urged everyone to attend. Dancing, for which Thompson's orchestra played, completed the program. Punch was served by members of freshman commission.

Those taking part in the pantomime were; Helen Keeney, Anna Langholff, Esther Bilstead, Arline McKeller, Helen Wheeler, Louise Beebe, Alice Martens, Dorothy Dean, Clara Klosterman, Ruth Mink, and Ruth Stetson.

The program was arranged by Janet Marshall, '24. The chaperons included Mrs. C. W. Haswell, Mrs. P. E. Smith, Miss C. M. Wesson, Miss Clara Williams, Miss Lucy Wallrich, and Miss Mary Anderson.

INTERESTING POINTS IN LEADERSHIP OF MEN

Frederick E. Wolf, secretary of the university Y. M. C. A., speaking at the 4C college Friday in his lecture on leadership said:

"If we surrounded ourselves with beautiful things, our whole life would be uplifted. I believe in the unconscious influence. I wonder if you realize how many university people take their training and afterward are not successful? Many times the help on farms are graduates of the agricultural college here in the university. They are not managers or owners, but merely help. The common run of people is all right, but don't stay like that. Everyone wants to be successful. The person who is successful is the person who his initiative. Initiative is not only going ahead doing what you are told to do, but it is that quality in the man or woman to do things without being told to."

ST. OLAF LUTHERAN
CHOIR TO SING HERE

The St. Olaf Lutheran choir, which will give a concert April 7 under Union board auspices, will present a program of the very highest type, according to Dale Merrick, '22, special chairman. The great choral masterpieces of Bach, Hadyn, and Handel will be given.

Receiving high praises of eastern critics in New York, Boston, Washington, Brooklyn and Philadelphia where the organization gave concerts last year, the St. Olaf choir is declared to be one of the best in the Middle-West. This year's tour will not take the organization east of Chicago, although the requests for return engagements have been numerous.

The ticket sale for the concert will begin at Smith Brothers' Music stores 10 days before the performance. There will be no mail order sale.

BASEBALL MEN IN SCRIMMAGE OF SIX INNINGS

No "First Team" Picked Yet—All Players Perform Well

The most successful baseball practice of the season was held yesterday afternoon on the lower campus. Coach Lowman's men were performing in good style and prospects for the coming season look fairly bright.

The Varsity squad was divided into two teams, and a six inning scrimmage game was held. Neither team can be said to constitute a "first team", as numerous changes were made.

Mound Men Look Good

The pitching staff performed very well and, with a few weeks of practice should aid in placing the Badgers among the conference leaders. Christensen, Paddock, Miller and Hoffman, are the men who will probably do the mound work during the season.

The other men who were used in various positions were as follows: catchers: Vanderhaaf and Prokop; first basemen: J. Williams and Pickard; second basemen: Lyman, Hardell and Skafe; third basemen: Elliot and Ruediger; short stops: Farrington and Pigot; outfielders: Christensen, Caesar, Snow, Tebell, Brann, and Halverson.

GRAHAM TAYLOR HEADS GROUP TO STUDY CHICAGO

Recruits Wanted for Student Body to Carry on Industrial Research

Graham Taylor, of the "Commons," Chicago, is to take charge of the work and organization of the student industrial research group, which will study the Chicago field next summer.

The committee taking general care of the work is to be composed of Professor James Mullenbach, who is now employed by Hart Schaffner and Marx, Earl Dean Howard, Professor Todd of the University of Minnesota, and Mr. Hotchkiss. There is a possibility that the students undertaking the work will live at the "Commons" during their stay.

The project of sending a group of Wisconsin students to Chicago was put before the university by Sherwood Eddy, when he was here for the Religious conference, and received the hearty approval of Professor John Commons. Any students who wish to enter the group which is now forming are asked to see Secretary F. E. Wolf at the university Y. M. C. A.

FORMER MADISON BUSINESS MAN IN NEW FIELD

C. H. Colton, a former business man of Madison and owner of the Madison Tea Co. for 16 years, was in the city yesterday on business. He has returned from the south where he spent the winter opening up the sale of a new automatic heater, meeting with remarkable success. The company has given him control of the gulf states and Cuba, with headquarters in New Orleans. Mrs. Colton is in Chicago preparing for a trip to Los Angeles, Calif., for a few weeks, and later will join her husband in the south where they will make their home.
