WHAT THEY THINK OF THE BADGER

FACULTY OPINIONS ON THE FORTHCOMING ANNUAL.

Announcement of Prizes for Literary,
Art and Humorous Work—Book on Sale Tomorrow.

Acting President Birge.

"This year's Badger deserves praise for its fine class of illustrations and literary material. Every feature of the book is first class. The excellent quality of the paper shows the half tones to the best effect. The annual reflects great credit upon the class and board."

E. A. Birge.

Professor Frankenburg.

"All the work on the new Badger has been admirably done. The literary work and the art work is of a very high order. It is a great credit to the University and the junior class."

D. B. Frankenburg.

Professor Slaughter.

"The 1902 Badger is fully up to the standard set by previous annuals. The cover of the book is superior in design and color to any junior annual I have ever seen. The special feature of the book is the excellent illustrations, particularly the photogravures, the marginal half tone sketches and the many single pen and ink sketches. In matter no less than in illustration the annual is a grand success."

M. S. Slaughter.

Assistant Professor Pyre.

"The 1902 Badger is a splendid number of its series. The binding is very handsome and impressive, the illustrations far better than usual and, as nearly as I can judge by a hasty examination, the literary work is above the average. The 'grinds' are pointed and at the same time moderate and in good taste. The tone of the book is very pleasing."

J. F. A. Pyre.

Tomorrow morning at seven o'clock at Library Hall the new Badger will be put on sale. Favorable comment has been heard from all who have had the privilege of seeing the annual. The price this year will be a dollar and a half, but the book promises to be well worth the raise in price as it is the largest college annual ever published in the west.

The literary and art committees have announced the winners of the prizes for the Badger competition as follows:

Prizes for literary contributions:

I. Best short story of college life at Wisconsin. First prize of $6.00 awarded to Alfred E. Kundert, '01, for story entitled "A Reminiscence." Second prize, morocco bound Badger, Neeley Pardee, '01, story entitled "An Episode of the 1901 Junior Prom." Third prize, 1902 Badger, Lawrence C. Burke, '01, story entitled "Her Eyes."

II. For best full page illustrated joke, Stephen Stuntz, morocco bound Badger.

III. Best collection of class room joshes, jokes, etc., Lawrence C. Burke, first prize, subscription to any $3.00 magazine. Second prize, Alfred E. Kundert, 1902 Badger.

CHICAGO SATURDAY

VARSITY PLAYERS WILL MEET PROTEGES OF STAGG.

Midway Team Has Percentage of 500
—Defeated by Minnesota and Illinois this Week.

Coach Stagg will pit his team of colts against the Varsity nine next Saturday afternoon at Camp Randall. The recent record of the Chicago team is two defeats, one each at the hands of Minnesota and Illinois. In the Minnesota game the Midway team made more hits than the Gophers but their stick work was less timely than that of their opponents, consequently they lost the game. It should be remembered, however, that in this game Chicago used two entirely inexperienced pitchers saving Smith for bigger games.

Yesterday at Champaign, Chicago lost to Illinois by a score of 17 to 6, Smith for Chicago and Iundgren and Falkenburg of Illinois supplying the pitching force. Smith came to grief in the first two innings, the Illini harvesting eight runs from his delivery. From this showing it would appear that Smith is poor but those familiar with the national game know that Smith was having a "day off."

These two defeats bring Chicago's percentage down to 500 while the Badgers still have a clean record in the inter-collegiate race.

Saturday's game will be a representative meeting between Cardinal and Maroon with all the enthusiastic rooting that characterizes these contests.

The annual Glee and Mandolin club concert takes place Thursday night at the Fuller Opera House.

Athenae's Blowout Tonight.

Tonight the freshman blowout of the Athenaeon society will take place in society hall. The questions to be debated are the subsidizing of our merchant marine and the initiative and referendum for Wisconsin. The present renewed agitation of the shipping problem makes the subsidy question a most timely one. Owing to the large amount of material available on the question it will be handled very thoroughly. Arnold and Marquissee lead this debate and Trump and Blackman lead for the second one.

The program will not be as long as blowout programs usually are and all of the time of the meeting will be confined to the debates: The freshmen have all been rehearsing their debates for the past few days and are hopeful of making a very good showing. Both the Hesperian and Philomathian freshmen will attend according to custom. An invitation is extended to any others who may wish to hear the debates.

TO ARGUE ON CANAL

WISCONSIN MEETS IOWA IN DEBATE TO-MORROW NIGHT.

Professor Gregory to Preside—Congressman Mann and Professors Bogart and Whigmore, Jury.

Arrangements are now completed for the Wisconsin-Iowa debate to be held to-morrow evening at Library Hall. The Hawkeye debaters will arrive to-morrow morning and they with the judges will stop at the Park hotel. Professor Charles Noble Gregory will preside at the debate.

A generous attendance on the part of the students is necessary to cheer the Wisconsin men on. The Oratorical Association is incurring great expense in holding the debate here as all the expenses of the debaters and judges are paid by the association. Consequently if the support is not enough there will be a financial loss which will have to be made up by the different literary societies.

The question for the debate, "Should the United States Construct the Nicaragua Canal," is not a new one to Iowa. The same question was debated in their annual joint debate and they considered with it among themselves fully a month before sub-

Another Badger.

The long-awaited 1902 Badger will be on sale tomorrow with the attendant rush for copies, the chuckling over other peoples' roasts, and the demure, "Well I never thought they'd put that in," at our own scorplings. From a preliminary examination the book seems to justify all the good things that have been said about it. Its mechanical makeup is most attractive and the literary department superior to anything for the last few years. The book is assured of a large sale in spite of the increase in price, one increase that finds ample justification in the increased attractiveness of the book as a whole. An attractive cover, an increase of a third in illustrations, fifty additional pages, with half-tones of unusual excellence make up an aggregate a book that every Wisconsin student ought to have in his possession.

ADOPT CAP AND GOWN.

Juniors Will Wear Uniform Throughout the Year.

Yesterday afternoon the class of 1902 held a meeting to make plans for next year. After a long discussion it was voted to adopt caps and gowns and to have the annual senior Swing-out in the fall instead of later in the year as it is usually held. The caps and gowns are to be worn on all state occasions throughout the year instead of only in the spring. W. F. Moffatt was elected pipe custodian of the class. No other business was transacted at the meeting.

1903 BADGER COMMITTEES.

Chairman Hollen Announces His Appointments for Next Year's Book.

The newly elected 1903 Badger Board was called together yesterday for the first time by Chairman Hollen. Mr. Hollen's committee appointments were announced as follows: Harry C. Johnson was chosen to head the literary committee. Chester Lloyd-Jones was appointed chairman of the chronicle committee and George R. Keachie of the business committee. The chairman of the art committee will be Miss Mary F. Cunningham. Irving Seaman heads the photograph committee.

The chairmen chosen are all well qualified for the work and the appointments show careful selection. The committees in full are as follows:

Literary committee: Harry C. Johnson, Willis E. Brindley, Martin W. Torkelson, Mary F. Cunningham, Lyman A. Libby, Irving Seaman, Beulah C. Post, Jennie F. Bishop, Frank P. Woy, Mary P. Coleman, Grace G. Goddard, J. Arthur Armstrong.

Business committee: George R. Keachie, Frank P. Woy, Willis E. Brindley, Ezra T. Otfelie, J. Arthur Armstrong, Jacob Primakow, Carl T. Madsen, John Pugh.

Art committee: Mary F. Cunningham, Mary P. Coleman, Robert P. Kraus, Beulah C. Post, Gertrude M. Bosshard, John L. Savage, Lyman A. Libby, James G. Zimmerman.

Photograph committee: Irving Seaman, Robert P. Kraus, Grace L. Dixon, Henry H. Otjen, John Pugh, Jennie F. Bishop, Mae P. Telford, Gustave W. Garvens.

Senior Class Meeting.

The senior class held a very poorly attended meeting yesterday afternoon in the Senior Law lecture room. The memorial committee reported their recommendation that the class give as its memorial a special chair to be used by the president of the University on state occasions. The report was referred back to the committee for further particulars. The arrangement committee reported that all the commencement appointments have not yet been definitely settled. The class play committee reported progress as previously published. The matter of a class tax was deferred until the next meeting.

HIGH SCHOOL DEC. CONTEST.

Prospects Excellent for Fine Program, June 1.

The prospects now are that the annual inter-scholastic declamation contest which will be held June first, will be of unusual excellence. Professor Frankenburg says that this year the inter-league contests have been of a very high order and this assures a good contest here. The speakers have appeared in three contests, the contest in their local high school lyceum, the lyceum league contest, and the lyceum district contest. Thus the speakers at the state contest are the pick of all the high schools of the state.

The contest will be held at Library Hall June 1, the day of the inter-scholastic meet. It will be held at three o'clock in the afternoon. Professor Frankenburg says that the hall will be darkened and the contest be given by electric light, just as if it were held in the evening. The hall will be appropriately decorated and every effort will be made to make it as attractive in appearance as possible.

The judges have not yet been selected and no definite arrangements made. There will be no prizes offered, the contestants preferring to contend without any further reward than the glory of winning.

Science Teachers to Meet.

Superintendent L. D. Harvey of the State Department of Education, and some of the Normal regents, are planning a gathering of the science teachers of the Normal schools of the state at Madison some time the latter part of June, to make the course uniform. A start in this work was made at the convention of Normal teachers at Oshkosh last December, but it was found that there was more work than could be attended to at that convention and another meeting will be held to complete the work. Mr. Harvey said that at present the science courses in the several schools lack uniformity and need to be brought up to a common standard.

—The University Boat house is enjoying a most profitable season. Mat Repplinger was secured as keeper and early in the season put the entire outfit in excellent order. This means a great deal from the fact that they have had longer time in which to prepare their debate and also they were able to reach authorities by correspondence who are not wont to answer a second letter on the same subject written by other parties.

The Wisconsin debaters will uphold the affirmative side of the question while the Iowans will do what they can to prove the negative. The Iowa debaters are Merriau, Converse and Moore, each of whom has had no little experience in debate and oratory. Merriau was appointed president of the Northern Oratorical League at their recent meeting. He was in the final oratorical contest, as was also Mr. Converse.

The Wisconsin debaters are A. V. Smith, P. Tscharnner and Wm. E. Smith. All three have been prominently connected in some way or other with debating in the University. A. V. Smith from Waukegan, Ill., is an Hesperian and a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity. He was on the Semi-public debate in his sophomore year and was on the Joint Debate last fall.

Peter Tscharnner, a senior law student, is from Alma, Wisconsin. Before coming to the University he attended the Normal school at River Falls and was connected with a public debate there with one of the other normals. He is a member of the Columbian literary society. Last fall he took an active part in the presidential campaign, making many speeches in the interest of the Republican party.

Wm. E. Smith is a Philomothian and a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. He was on the Semi-public debate and while attending the Madison High school he was interested in debate.

The judges who have been engaged are Congressman James R. Mann of Chicago, Professor Ernest L. Bogart of Oberlin college and Professor John H. Whigmore of the Northwestern law school of Chicago.

The Wisconsin debaters have certainly worked conscientiously on the question and have been painstaking in securing literature on the subject. They have corresponded with authorities and have succeeded in getting valuable material from Washington.

RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE.

In Affiliation with the Univ. of Chicago.

Organized 1837.

The academic year of Rush Medical College is divided into four quarters, corresponding with those recognized with the University of Chicago, beginning respectively the first of July, first of October, first of January and first of April, each continuing for twelve weeks. A recess of one week occurs between the end of each Quarter and the beginning of the next following.

The general course of instruction requires four years of study in residence with a minimum attendance upon three Quarters of each year. A student may begin his college work on the first day of any Quarter, and may continue in residence for as many successive Quarters as he desires. Credit will not be allowed, however, for more than three consecutive Quarters. At least 45 months must elapse between the date of a first matriculation and the date of graduation. For further information, address
