DEBATERS TO FACE GOPHERS AT 8 TONIGHT

One Team Debates Minnesota
Here While Another Trio
Meets Northwestern

QUESTION IS INDUSTRIAL

The last big forensic event of the year will take place tonight when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet in debate at 8 o'clock in 165 Bascom hall. An admission price of 25 cents will be charged.

Another Wisconsin team at the same time will take the floor against Northwestern at Evanston.

Perstein to Preside

Prof. G. N. Merry, University of Iowa, will be judge and critic of the debate. The chairman will be I. Arnold Perstein '21 former Wisconsin debater who is now an instructor in public speaking at the University of California.

The question under discussion is "Resolved: that the several states of the United States should adopt the Kansas Industrial Court plan for the adjudication of disputes between capital and labor."

Affirmative Team Here

Wisconsin's affirmative team meets Minnesota here, and the negative team debates Northwestern. The Gophers will face a team composed of Wayne Morse '23, who will open the debate, Clyde W. Gleason '23, and Hasley Kraege '22, closer. Melbourne Bergerman '22 will close for Wisconsin's negative team in the argument at Evanston. The other two members of the team are Arthur Inman '3 and Leo H. Kohl '22.

The Minnesota debating team, which will arrive at 8 o'clock this morning, is staying at the Park hotel.

Prof. J. M. O'Neil, chairman of the speech department, in referring to the debate said, "The Kansas court question has been very popular for debates; it has been used by universities all over the country during the last year."

PLANS MADE FOR '24 SWING-OUT

Crab apple blossoms, bridal wreath, and evergreen will form the flower chair carried by the juniors in honor of the seniors at senior Swing-out May 26 at 6:30 on the upper campus. The flowers are being obtained by freshmen under the leadership of Elizabeth Thorkelson '23 from the Horticultural building.

The torch ceremony will take place as the senior class marches around the pillars when Irma Winchell, president of Blue Dragon, hands the burning torch of knowledge on to the new president of next year's senior class.

"It is the responsibility and privilege of every girl to turn out for this final farewell to the Senior class," urged Elizabeth Kirk '23, general chairman of the Senior Swing-out, "It is only through co-operation and class spirit that we can carry this affair out effectively."

NO-CUT RULE NOT TO APPLY BEFORE EXAMS

Final exams are to begin June 1 and end June 9. May 30 will be a holiday, but May 31 will be a regular school-day. The no-cut rule does not apply before exams, but there will be no parties other than those already granted by the university during the week-end preceding exams.

CHICAGO ALUMNI TO RAISE FUNDS

Open Drive For Memorial Union; Goodnight, Baker, and Gardner Attend

Dean Scott H. Goodnight, Prof. E. A. Gardner, and Loyal S. Baker left Wednesday for Chicago to take part in the opening of the alumni campaign for the Memorial Union. "On Wisconsin," a play in four acts representing various epochs of Wisconsin history is being put on by the Chicago Alumni association to raise funds for the Memorial Union. The play is in charge of R. F. Schuchardt '97 and Israel Shrimski, '88 ex-president of the Chicago alumni association.

This is the second drive that has been conducted in Chicago, and it is intended to last a week. After the Chicago drive is completed the Memorial Union committee will open an alumni campaign in the Fox River valley.

ROSS TO STUDY MEXICAN PEOPLE

Will Leave Here June 11 to Determine Reactions of Revolution

Prof. E. A. Ross will leave for Mexico June 11 to study the present economical and social conditions of the people resulting from the Mexican revolution. He will make a careful study of the plain class of people to determine what they have obtained from the reactionary period.

"This trip, and period of investigation, will be a continuation of my study of revolutions, which I began a few years back," said Professor Ross. "It will be an endeavor to size up the situation and possibly anticipate something concerning the future."

Professor Ross will stop over at the Kansas State Normal for several days, to deliver some lectures. He is scheduled to arrive in Mexico City on June 21, where he will spend three or four weeks making plans and obtaining advice as to the typical Mexican localities.

Dr. Kraemer, of New York who is a distinguished expert in mental diseases, will accompany Professor Ross on the trip. It is expected that it will take eleven weeks.

On his return, Prof. Ross will publish some articles in Harper's Magazine and The New Republic revealing new facts, which it is hoped the investigation will bring to light.

FAKE ALARM BOOMS SOFT DRINK BUSINESS

Langdon and Lake street roomers turned out en masse at 9:45 last night to watch the fire company answer a call at the box in front of the gym. Pens, books, theses, topics were pushed aside when the clanging of the ladder wagon lured the hard-working student from the realm of study.

The University pharmacy and a hot tamale vender did a rushing business as the crowd drifted back to respective homes somewhat disappointed but glad of a chance to take the air.

GREEN BUTTON TO HOLD BANQUET AT LATHROP

Green Button, freshman girl's organization, will hold a banquet Monday, May 15 in Lathrop parlors. Miss Lydia Brown, dean of freshman women, will give an address. Mary Devine, chairman of arrangements, will be toastmistress and will greet the guests. Marion Streng '25 will respond.

Scholarship First, Is Dean's Opinion

"Make your advisees realize that scholarship comes first in their college careers," said Mrs. C. B. Flett last night in an address to the members of the Freshman advisory council. "Women coming to the university for the first time frequently do not know how to take care of their money. I should advise that every girl make a budget each month in order to keep track of her allowance."

"The choice of friends is a thing to be stressed among the newcomers. The physical condition of freshmen should be watched for a woman cannot stay in the university who is not in good health. With the clinic here there is no excuse for a girl allowing herself to get into a rundown condition."

Three hundred junior women will act as advisors to freshmen and new upperclass women coming to the university next year. Each junior will be given two advisees and she will write to them during the summer and look after them during next year.

With the co-operation of the Dean of women it is planned to make the registration days and the entire first year less difficult for the women entering Wisconsin next year.

Crowds Gather As Neophytes Perform

Traffic was stopped in various places in the Latin quarter last night between the hours of seven and eight while Haresfoot neophytes amused the crowds of spectators with all sorts of antics, aesthetic dancing, and drama.

The first stop was made at the corner of Langdon and Henry streets, where Sammy Becker '22, was much in prominence as chief official of the initiation. He called for a dance from Karl Maier '23, who was dressed scantily in the role of Mae Murray and bore a sign saying "Fascination now showing on the drive."

"Heinie" Hall, made up realistically in a monkey outfit, scared the small boys of the audience.

After Russell Irish, '24, told the crowd how he won the beauty contest, a quartette, and later an orchestra, rendered some tantalizing music.

Crucible Initiates Candidates Elected

Initiation of the newly elected candidates of Crucible was held at a banquet given last night at the Woman's building. The following girls were initiated:

Esther Bilstad, Margaret Callsen, Jeanet Cummings, Anita Haven, Rosalind Knolte, Margaret Murray, Arleen Klug, Catherine O'Shay, Jeanette Kennan, Helen Kingsford, Harriett Green, Lois Jacobs, Nina Ferris, Marion Metcalf, Ellen Harris, Elinore Day, and Gertrude Slocum.

WALTERS WILL SPEAK ABOUT PRINTING TODAY

"Type, Paper, Illustration," is the subject of the fourth, of a series of speeches on the subject of printing given by Frank Walters at the library school at 8:30 this morning. At 11:30 Mr. Walters will speak on "Economy in Re-binding Books."

SENIORS MUST ORDER INVITATIONS BY FRIDAY

Orders for Senior invitations close tomorrow, and those who wish to place orders must do so early in the day. Six thousand have been ordered.

STUDENT EYE DIRECTED TO CAP-WEARING

Senate Centers Opinion On Fresh Not Upholding
Traditions

SOPHOMORES IN ACCORD

A motion directing student attention toward those freshmen who do not uphold the Wisconsin traditions concerning the green cap was passed by the Student Senate last night.

The motion passed is as follows: "All freshmen shall wear the green cap in accordance with section I, Article I of the student regulations." The substance of this article as presented to the senate by Ralph Axley, chairman of the legislation committee is as follows:

Seek Class Loyalty

"All freshmen shall wear the green cap prescribed by the student senate in loyalty to their class and honor to the school from the time of the Varsity welcome until Nov. 1 and from Easter Sunday until cap night celebration, the date of which shall be set by the Student Senate."

The regulation passed continues: "Freshmen who do not wear the green cap shall be liable to be brought before the student court for censure. Such censure to include the publication in the Daily Cardinal of the names of freshmen found guilty."

Plan "Red Lettering"

"The student court may in its discretion recommend that a star or other discriminatory mark be placed in the student directory opposite the names of freshmen who are found guilty of continued infraction of the green cap traditions."

After the motion had been passed, Robert Hesse chairman of the sophomore tradition committee, said that if he had felt that the motion was for the compulsory wearing of green caps, he would have opposed it, but since he felt that it was not, he was thoroughly in sympathy with it.

Hesse also said that if the voluntary wearing of the green cap were given a fair trial, public sentiment would be established which would demand the wearing of the cap as a sign of loyalty and honor to the class and the school.

ANNUAL SUPPER GIVEN TONIGHT

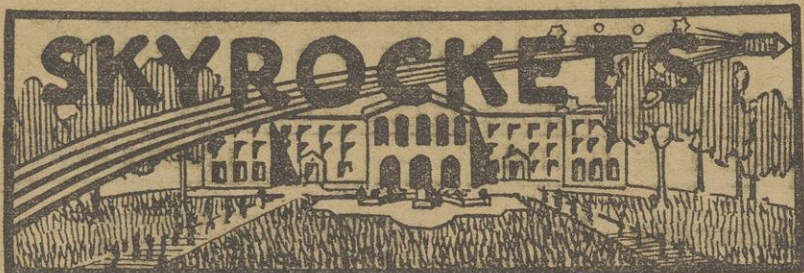

The annual Mortar Board supper followed by dancing, will be given at 5:30 tonight in the court of Barnard hall. Tables in the dining room will also be used.

Dancing will begin at 6:30 and will last until 7:30. Special permission from the Dean has been obtained for the mid-week party. Regular dinner will not be served at fraternity and sorority houses, so that the members may attend the supper.

The orchestra, which will play both during the supper and for the dancing, will be directed by Cecil Brodt '22, with Walter Kidder '23, Williams Engelhardt '22, and Graham Battles, and Walter Pfister '23 among its members.

Stunts by Henry Rubel '23 and Porter Butts '24 will be given between dances.

The proceeds from the dance will go toward a $100 scholarship fund which Mortar Board, honorary senior women's organization, maintains. Tickets may be obtained at Barnard or from any member of Mortar board.

SPRING has come. There is no doubt. Three men almost drowned last night. Russ Irish, the boy with the serenade voice is on the job again and things are getting back to normality.

We got a rather personal inquiry from the registrar the other day. It asked if we were a candidate for a degree in June. What does he expect. The only thing that's worrying us is the election.

LOTS'A fun at the Haresfoot initiation. Sammy Becker knows his stuff. It's lucky they didn't include any "Rough Stuff." What could be more college than Chan Osborn, Cully Maier and company offering a dance specialty on the asphalt?

Kraege Will Close Gopher Debate

HALSEY KRAEGE

Halsey Kraege '22 has had a varied experience as a debater. He has represented the Hesperian Literary society as a sophomore debater and as a joint debater, and last year he was a member of the team which defeated the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis. Kraege is a senior in the College of Letters and Science and a first year law student. He is a member of the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity, and of Artus and Delta Sigma Rho honorary fraternities.

Everything is Going Up These Days

"Higher-higher-higher!"
"What's higher now—the length of skirts, the rents, the height of the hill, the cost of malteds or what? That's what people living near certain sorority houses are wondering when they hear a man's voice booming out those words after hours from the living room of the sorority house every night, and also at ungodly hours in the morning.

Queer little tunes, shrill giggles, sharp thumps, muffled comments, dull thuds, pauses—but above all is the loud voice of that man which seems to go on for ever and ever.

"Up-down-up-down-up-down." What's up? The curtains never are! What's down? Those same curtains always are, if they weren't people wouldn't be so curious, tho they might still be interested.

For twenty minutes every night, and early every morning this man holds forth. Silly jingling tunes, sternly complacent man's voice, snickerings, titterings—all mingle in producing the queer, mystifying result.

"Higher-higher-up-down-up-down-higher!"—the Wallace Reducing records have certainly taken a strong hold upon the co-eds of this university!

GUN AND BLADE SENDS DELEGATE TO CHICAGO

The bi-monthly meeting of Gun and Blade will be held this evening in the university Y. M. C. A. at 7:15. A delegate will be chosen at this time which will represent the organization at the national convention of Gun and Blade Chapters to be held in Chicago next week.

THE TIPPING STARTS

THE annual outdoor sport of canoe tipping is getting under way early. Pessimists will say that the casualty list will be showing up soon, as it generally does in the spring. When it does, the students will upbraid the life-saving station (as they should do when it is inefficient) and flood the Daily Cardinal with communications telling what ought to be done.

It is early enough now to begin with the pounce of prevention. It is assumed that the life-saving station is in a position to function effectively, else canoes would be kept off the lake altogether. The other side of the problem is in the hands of the students. They must exercise common sense and caution, without which all the efforts of the station will be futile.

THE FORENSIC SEASON CLOSES

THE forensic season this year formally closes tonight with debate clashes with the University of Minnesota and with Northwestern. The contest with Minnesota will be fought out here. The negative team goes to Evanston.

Although this debate is being held late in the year when the fancy of students turns in other directions, there should be a good turnout at 165 Bascom hall tonight.

Wisconsin must win both these debates to even up the scores piled up against her by Michigan and Illinois. The debaters have worked hard and they will put up an interesting scrap.

Support the last forensic event of the year.

CALIFORNIA COMMENT

THE editors of the Wisconsin Agriculturist quote a significant statement by a member of the educational commission sent by California to study the University of Wisconsin and some of the other leading universities of the land. In the current issue of this publication, which has a wide circulation throughout the farming districts of Wisconsin, appears the editorial about the university, which follows:

"California is about to spend a large sum of money in building a new agricultural college and experiment station. But before spending the money the Golden State sent a committee of five to Wisconsin to study first hand just how economically our own university is managed.

"In California agriculture is extremely diversified. There are valleys, plateaus, mountains, deserts and regions of heavy rainfall. Under such conditions every crop is grown from dates to wheat. How can agriculture best be studied and taught under such conditions? Should there be more than one experiment station and agricultural college? And should the agricultural college be united in management and instructional force with the academic college?

"To answer these questions, Governor Stewart of California appointed a commission of seven men to study the different types of agricultural college management and organization. This commission is non-political and is made up of men who have had much experience in agriculture, education and business organization.

"They came to Wisconsin's university. They talked with the public, the regents, the president, the deans, the professors, the instructors, and the student body. They were shown the university inside and out and they found many things that convinced them that our university was a model after which they could well pattern their new institutions.

"They found the agricultural college and academic colleges all working harmoniously under one directing body, thus saving expense. They found where the union of all the colleges saves building and instructional expense. But most important in their findings was that of seeing the boy and girl from the farm studying their problems elbow to elbow with the young man and woman from the city.

"They found that this has meant much to the State of Wisconsin. A member of the commission said: 'Our study of your university has solved one of our most perplexing problems, and that was the one of why your state should lead all others agriculturally. The answer is, your university organization. Let me explain what I mean.

"Here your institution is old enough so that its graduates have gone out into every walk of life in your great state. They learned something of the problems of each other while they were students, but they learned above all other things that good fellowship, sympathy and co-operation is the three horse team that moves an underfed, unorganized, unprofitable commonwealth into the ranks of our leading states agriculturally and industrially. Your position among the states never would have come so rapidly had it not been for your university unity and the foresightedness of its organizers.'"

ENVY AND LIMITATION

Emerson, in one of his essays, says: "There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide."

How many students have arrived at that point in their education? Far too few. How often do you hear some student talking enviously of another's success? How common a sight it is to see a younger student aping the mannerisms of some successful upperclassman!

And if you are trying to make something of yourself, do not imitate another. Imitation may be the sincerest form of flattery, but it brings no good to the imitator. Go about the matter with your own methods and you will probably be more successful and come nearer your goal than if you tried the other person's tactics.—Ohio State Lantern.

Lost Anything? Try Registrar's Office

If you have lost your umbrella, you might inquire at the registrar's office for it. Latest reports from the 'lost and found' office show that five umbrellas are waiting for the owner. Other articles which desire rightful possessors are: keys, scarfs, jewelry, pencils, one fountain pen and a large collection of books of every description.

Beautiful Women In Orph Picture

The press agent for "Foolish Wives" said that the leading lady of this production was one of the most beautiful stars of the screen and the cub thought he said this because he couldn't think of anything else. Last night's crowds at the Orpheum, where the picture is in the midst of a week's engagement, were so enthusiastic about Miss du Pont's charms that one can't refrain from giving credit when it's due.

Sing Lee Claims Honor As First To Don "Straw"

Sing Lee, Madison Chinaman, claims that he was the first man in this city to appear on the streets in a straw hat, having two weeks advantage over G. K. Anderson of Keeley and Neckerman, who appeared yesterday. Sing Lee, commonly known as "Yep," conducts a hand laundry at 801 University ave. He appeared on the streets about two weeks ago in a large panama.

French Credited By Cestre For Origin Of Equality Idea

"The idea of equality is essentially French," declared Professor Cestre in his lecture at 4:30 yesterday. "But," he continued, "their view of it is the general idea that society has the right to control the conduct of individuals."

Professor Cestre explained that many of the rational social plans which are universally accepted today are of French origin. Among these are the system of taxation which originated in France shortly after the revolution, and their distribution of land permitting the tillers of the soil to own the land.

"True equality of today means the application of all the laws of justice," he said in his discussion of present day affairs. "The influence of America is very strong in its effect by bringing us the idea of equality from the abstract to the concrete."

"However," Professor Cestre explained, "both liberty and equality if left to themselves, will lead to anarchy. The only true basis of socialism is based on the indestructible plan of co-operation. When everyone is indispensable to the community and each feels the worth of others, socialism will be a success."

Cap Question Acted On At Senate Meet

Commends Sophomores

The date of cap night which was set as May 20 at the last meeting of the Senate was found to be in conflict with the military review, thereby making it impossible for freshmen to pile rubbish on the campus until after 5:30. The setting of a new date was then put into the hands of the athletic board.

The following clubs were formally recognized by the student senate: Hoosier club, Pentagon club, Country club, Rocky Mountain club, and the Fencer's club.

The Senate also voted to commend the sophomore class on its attitude toward the wearing of the green cap.

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

BADGERS ARE PREPARED FOR ILLINOIS NINE

Wisconsin Invades Urbana for Stiff Game on Saturday

The Wisconsin baseball team returned yesterday morning from Minneapolis where it routed the Minnesota nine by a 12 to 2 score. The Badgers will step into the spangles again today for a sharp battle before the Illinois contest to be played at Urbana, Ill., on Saturday.

"Phi" Hoffman held the Gophers away from the plat and stopped them when hits meant runs although they touched him for 7 solid swats. It is doubtful if more than one or two pitchers in the Big Ten can stop the Wisconsin batting outfit which pounded out 12 bingles against two Minnesota pitchers.

Lead by "Rowdy" Elliott, the Conference Bambino, Wisconsin swatsmiths are connecting with the offerings of every hurler they meet. Dixon, Michigan ace, appears to be the only man who has the ability to stop them, but Jackson, of Illinois, is a hard man to beat when conditions favor him.

First Game Easy

Whether the Badgers can defeat Illinois in their second meeting is a difficult problem. The first game was a smooth exhibition of college baseball with both teams flashing consistently. The Illini could not get to Paddock in their last contest, but they may be able to stop the Badger captain if he starts at Urbana.

Christianson, Pickford, and Hoffman are the other possibilities for the pitcher's job. Christianson is a fast ball hurler, which is what the Illinois sluggers want. Hoffman's deceptive delivery or the assortment of curves handed out by Capt. Paddock seem to be Wisconsin's two best bets to beat Illinois.

Lowman Announces Ball League Card

Coach Guy S. Lowman has issued schedules covering the complete list of games to be played by teams in the Independent baseball league. St. Francis club has replaced the Do Dads in the card.

May 11—Johnson street vs. Square club, Varsity field; Mills street vs. Gun and Blade, frosh field; Y. M. C. A. vs. St. Francis, Lower campus; Toggery shop vs. Lutheran brotherhood, 2nd Varsity field.

May 15—St. Francis vs. Gun and Blade, Varsity field; Johnson street vs. Toggery shop, frosh field; Lutheran brotherhood vs. Mills street, Lower campus; Square club vs. Y. M. C. A., 2nd Varsity field.

May 19—Mills street vs. Toggery shop, Varsity field; Square club vs. St. Francis, Frosh field; Johnson street vs. Lutheran brotherhood, second Varsity field; Gun and Blade vs. Y. M. C. A., lower campus.

Games are regularly scheduled at six o'clock. Postponed games may be played at Vilas park or on girls' field.

EXPRESS DESIRE FOR TERRACE IMPROVEMENT

Desire that Breeze terrace be paved was expressed by the Athletic council which met Tuesday afternoon to consider plans for continuing the enlargement of the Camp Randall stadium.

If the street bordering on Camp Randall is paved, it will greatly facilitate the handling of huge crowds which flock to Wisconsin football games. The council also took up the matter of disposing of the old wooden grandstand which will be replaced by concrete stands.

Badger Pistol Team Loses to Alabama

The Badger pistol team lost a telegraphic meet to Alabama Polytechnic by 34 points out of a possible 2800. Alabama was one of the two schools that defeated the Badgers last year. They scored 2502 hits.

Although the Wisconsin team ordinarily consists of five men, rules of the Alabama meet called for 10 contestants on each team and the Badgers were forced to recruit inexperienced men.

H. N. Toftoy, manager of the squad, was high man, scoring 270 out of a possible 280. R. B. Cussell, captain, scored 263, and J. Jones closely followed him with 262.

Wisconsin has meets scheduled with Yale, Harvard, Princeton, West Point, Perdue, and several western colleges.

Inter-Class Ball Series Will Open

The first game of the inter-class baseball series will be played this afternoon at 4:30 on the lower campus field. The seniors and juniors will stack up in the first tilt this time.

Captains of the four teams have been chosen, Cy Peterman for the seniors, E. Hume for the juniors, Earl Cornwell for the sophomores. Men will report to them.

The regular freshmen team will represent the class of 1925. The next game will be between the sophomores and freshmen, at a date announced later by Director Borgelt.

George Sisler, super-player and brilliant first baseman of the Browns is playing at his usual pace this year. Even Ken Williams' home run hitting hasn't crowded the former Michigan U. star out of the spotlight.

ON LAST ROUND OF FRAT BALL PRELIMINARIES

Acacia, Phi Betas, and S. A. E. Are Victors in Yesterday's Games

The Acacias, Phi Beta Pi's, and S. A. E.'s were victors in the interfraternity baseball games played yesterday. These games were in the last round of the preliminary series.

The Phi Beta Pi nine easily copped off their game from the Chi Phis by a score of 16 to 2. Hess of the winning team made a home run on the first ball pitched to him by Hawks. Minert, and McCormick limited the number of times that the Chi Phis crossed the home plate to two. The batteries were: Chi Phi, Hawks and Heuston; Phi Beta Pi, McCormick and Shoults.

The S. A. E.-Pi K. A. game was the cleverest of the three. The S. A. E.'s won 4 to 2. They obtained a two point lead in the first inning, and held their opponents scoreless until the third frame.

Pederson featured with a home run. Batteries were: S. A. E., Murry and Hume; Pi K. A. Mercer, and Graves and Fellows.

The Acacias outclassed the Alpha Deltas all around on 8-2 victory. Whitford and Pederson were the batteries for the winners, and Gage and Hazen for the losers. The Delta Psi U. game was postponed until today.

The third round of the Interfraternity baseball schedule as announced by George Stolley, follows:

CHICAGO AND BADGERS TO BATTLE HERE

Improved Track Team Will Fight Hard Saturday

Badger track and field men are getting into prime condition for the meet with the University of Chicago which will be held here on Saturday afternoon. The warm weather has enabled them to iron out kinks in their muscles and to loosen up sore joints.

Although Chicago is not reputed to be strong on the cinderpath, the Maroons have been steadily improving and expect to battle for points in every event. The Brickman brothers are point-winners in the dashes hurdles, and middle runs. A. Brickman does the high and low hurdles, the 100 yard and 200 yard dashes, while C. Brickman has been successful in the 440 yard and half-mile runs.

Veterans to Compete

Krogh, a long distance man with several years of Big Ten competition behind him, should pick up some counters in his events, the one and two-miles runs. Pyott is a good man in the middle distances. He played halfback on the Maroon football team and his speed in gridiron togs was almost equal to that attained by him in a track suit.

"Charlie" Redmon, weight man, is sure to push Guy Sundt in the shot put, and to win with the hammer throw. He is one of the few outstanding Chicago stars.

Wisconsin men are working out every day after their excellent showing against Illinois. The Badger track team gave Illinois the closest battle it has had. Wisconsin was weakened by the loss of Rossmessl in the distance runs. He was unable to enter because of illness.

TENNIS MEN SHOULD SIGN IN GYMNASIUM

All men who wish to compete in the inter-class tennis tournament should sign up in the gymnasium before Thursday night, May 11, according to Coach G. A. Linden.

Class numerals will be awarded to the contestant winning the singles and to the winners of the doubles.

Babe Ruth Out of Hospital After Operation

NEW YORK — Babe Ruth, the home-run king, left the hospital today where he has been confined for a week since having his tonsils removed. Mrs. Ruth, who underwent a serious operation at the same time, will remain at the hospital for ten more days at least.

World's Largest Liner Starts Maiden Trip

SOUTHAMPTON—Thousands of persons witnessed the departure today of the White Star Line's new 56,000 ton steamer Majestic, the world's largest liner, on her maiden voyage to New York. The steamer developed 25 knots an hour on her trial trips and is expected to make a speedy trip on her first Atlantic crossing.

Phi Pi Delta, Lower Campus, 4:30. Friday 12—Alpha Tau Omega vs. Alif Mim, Lower Campus, 6:00. Sunday 14—Gamma Tau Beta vs. Alif Mim, Varsity Field, 10:30. Wednesday 17—Alpha Tau Omega vs. Alpha Pi Delta, 6:00.

When no field is specified, the game may be played on the football field, or on the practice field near the barracks. The Girl's field is no longer available for fraternity games.

Gleason Will Speak Second Tonight

CLYDE W. GLEASON

Clyde W. Gleason '23 is second speaker on the Wisconsin affirmative team, which meets Minnesota here tonight. Gleason is an experienced debater, having represented Carroll college in the Carroll-Ripon debates. He is a member of Phi Alpha Tau forensic fraternity.

Saddle and Sirloin To Banquet Tonight

The third annual banquet of the Saddle and Sirloin club will be held in the Wesleyan chapel at 6 o'clock this evening.

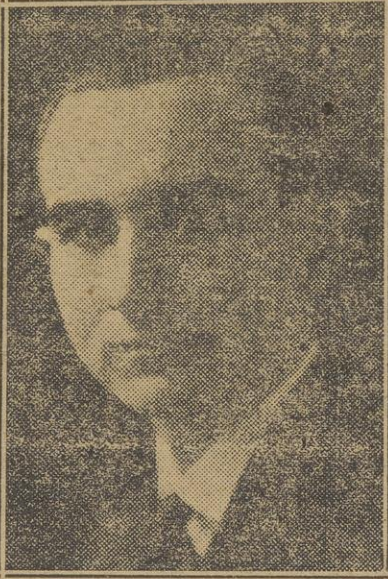

The dinner will be attended by prominent livestock men of Wisconsin, Agricultural faculty members, and students interested in livestock.

Prof. G. C. Humphrey will act as toastmaster. The principal address will be given by A. J. Glover, editor of Hoard's Dairyman. Other prominent livestock men will give short addresses.

Radio Fans Urged To Attend Meeting

Radio fans are invited to attend a meeting in the Cabinet room, Y. M. C. A. at 7:30 this evening, to hear W. A. Bell of the Wisconsin Radio Supply company, Kenosha, explain how radio sets can be sold this summer.

Morse Opens Against Minnesota

debate for Wisconsin tonight. Morse is a member of White Spades, Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha, Hesperian Literary society, and Forensic board. He has been active in forensic since he entered the university.

Morse participated in the sophomore semi-public debate last year and opened the Intercollegiate debate against Minnesota at Minneapolis.

The idea of coming to Madison and interesting university men in this work was suggested to Mr. Bell by Mr. J. Fletcher Harper of the Allys Chalmers company, Milwaukee, an alumnus of Wisconsin.

POULTRY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS AT MEETING

Officers for the coming semester were elected by the Badger Poultry club at the regular meeting of the organization, last night. William H. Searles '23, was elected president; William Fredericks '23, vice-president; O. A. Hanke '25, secretary; A. A. Dennerlein '24, chairman of executive committee; and E. W. Collenback '24, member of the A. C. F. board.

A report of the egg show was given at the meeting. The committee reported a large increase in the size of the show over the previous one.
