The Future

familiar hands

Today's world must have all hands geared toward creating the future. The problems of this day and age will be a concern to everyone in his own time. Will the moon be reached? Will there be room to live and food to eat in one hundred years? Will there ever be peace throughout the world? Will something be done about air pollution and water pollution? Will...??? Waterford High School is training these hands for a better future. Maybe someday these hands will answer the increasing questions of tomorrow.

The person on the right is taller and stands behind the person on the left, who is resting their chin on their hand. Bookshelves filled with books are visible on both sides of the window. ## The School Board

It is difficult to put in a few words my feeling as a member of the board of education. Serving my district, I have received much more than I can give in return. It is truly a challenge to meet with our administration and my fellow board members in the operation and business affairs of our high school. One asks God for guidance in the many decisions that must be made.

Our first concern is to provide the very best education for our students with a faculty dedicated to providing a quality curriculum geared to the needs of all students. Secondly, we look forward to the improvement of our school with the new athletic and physical education fields which will be ready for use this year with a formal dedication to be held in the coming fall.

Much in our school is sometimes taken for granted and I believe the transportation of our students is one. I want to commend Mr. Verne Stalbaum and his drivers for the safe and efficient transportation of our students. Let us pray that this will always be true.

On behalf of the board of education I wish to congratulate the Class of 1968 and wish them continued success in the future. Let us all continue to move forward in love, kindness, and understanding in everything we do.

Eugene Gunderson, President.

MISS CRUMP

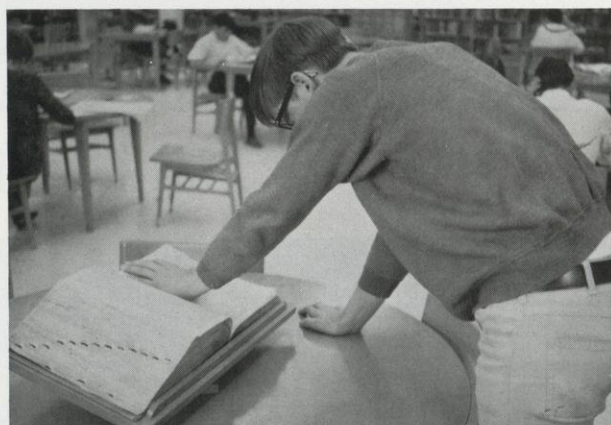

Miss Crump explains the correct way to write a newspaper article to her Journalism class.

Reading Offers Enjoyment And Knowledge

This year Miss Crump offered a new subject to students. Besides teaching English and Developmental Reading, she also taught Journalism. The Journalism class studied all aspects of newspaper work and gained practical experience. The English course, Communications, emphasized the basic skills related to communications.

Miss Handran supervised the library this year with the help of various teachers during study halls. She was also the advisor for the Library Club, in which students were able to work in the library.

Students with a desire for quiet study and research find our modern library very helpful.

MRS. ALBRIGHT

Guidance Lends A Helping Hand

Guidance anyone? In the Guidance Department this year Mrs. Albright was in charge of the juniors and seniors. She scheduled conferences for these students and prepared them for their college life.

The freshmen and sophomores were guided by Mr. Edwards. He arranged their subjects for the remaining years and changed their class schedule if it was necessary. He also visited the freshmen of next year and gave them tips about high school.

Mrs. Jackson taught a class of special education which was very helpful to exceptional students.

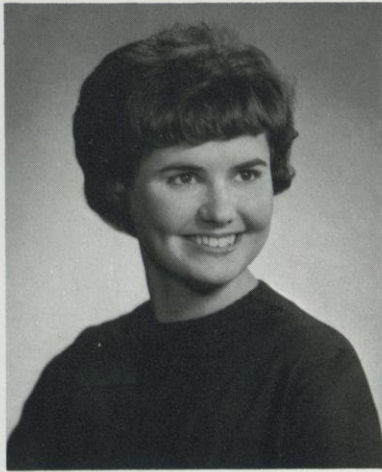

MRS. JACKSON

MR. EDWARDS

MRS. COOLEY

MRS. PETERSON

Updated English Curriculum

Expansion was the English department's big project this year. Mrs. Cooley taught the seniors English Literature, which included the language and literature of England from the Anglo-Saxon period to the twentieth century. Mrs. Cooley taught the freshmen the short story, paragraph composition, a Dickens' novel, and a Shakespearian play.

Mrs. Cooley explained Anglo-Saxon literature to the seniors.

Mrs. Peterson traced the chronological development of American Literature with the juniors. They also worked on verbal and written expression. The rest of the juniors took Practical English. They studied careers, the mass-media, personal record keeping, business English, reading improvement, and the paperback.

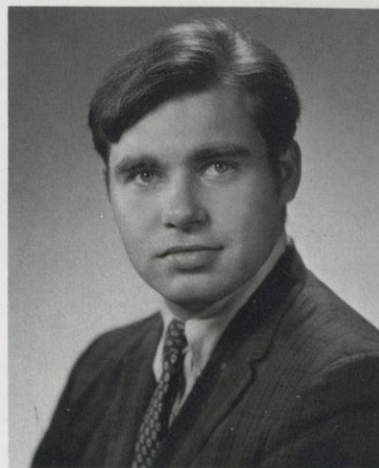

Mrs. Peterson smiled as the juniors discussed Irving's 'Icabod Crane.

MRS. LACKEY

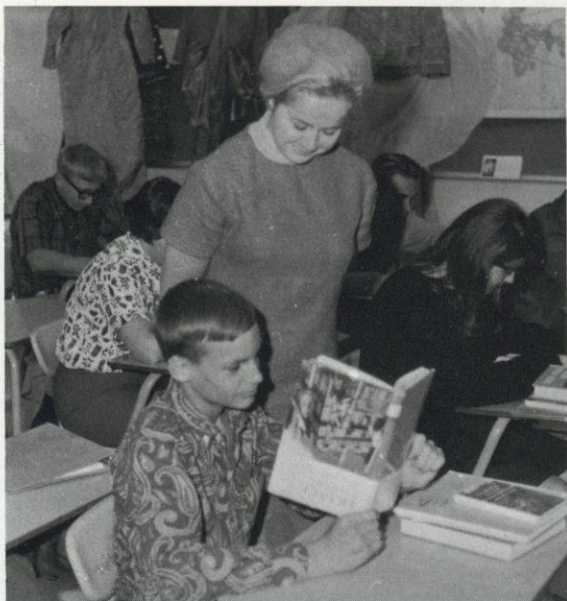

MR. MOLTHEN

Offers Variety Of Interests

Mr. Molthen and Mrs. Lackey taught drama, a one semester course. The students learned about play production, acting, and the literary aspects of a play.

Mr. Molthen also taught the one semester course of basic speech. The students learned how to give informal speeches with the use of manners, telephone, interviews, and conversation. They also studied interpretive readings, speeches, parliamentary procedure, radio, and television.

Mrs. Lackey taught the sophomores English with the emphasis on world literature and culture. They studied the short story, non-fiction, composition, drama, poetry, and a novel.

Pam Rupert and Stevie Kordus work on stage for the musical, The King and I.

MRS. ISAACSON

I came, I saw, I conquered. Mrs. I. helps her students make this statement come true.

Language Broadens Horizons

Waterford High School offers its students elective courses in French and Latin. French, a four year course, deals mainly with the study of conversation, French Literature, and grammar. Latin students study mainly grammar. Students find that a foreign language is a big help in understanding English. It also stimulates interests in many other fields. The Latin classes were taught by Mrs. Isaacson and the French classes were taught by Mr. Frisk.

As students labor over conversation tapes, Mr. Frisk has fun playing with the master controls.

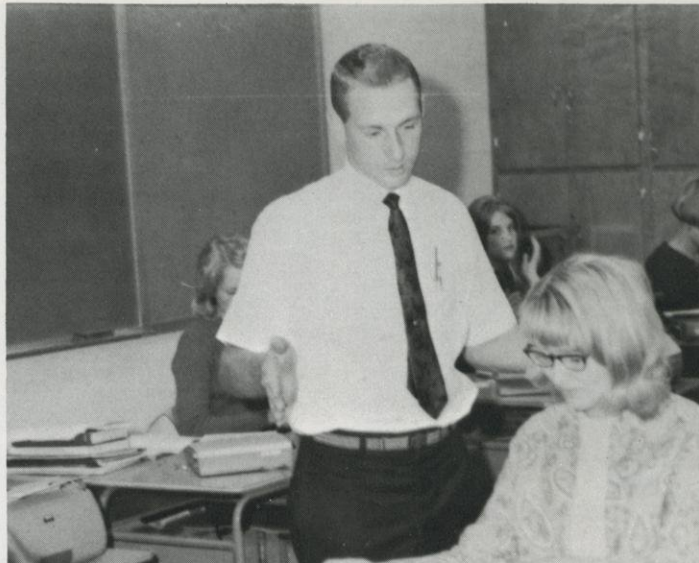

MR. FRISK

MR. WILLSON

Mr. Willson instructs Sharon Peper in the do's and don'ts in Office Practice.

Opportunities In Business Education

MRS. BAYER

This year students planning on a business career after high school were trained by Mrs. Bayer and Mr. Willson. Shorthand I and II, and the Vocational Typing classes were taught by Mrs. Bayer. Mr. Willson handled bookkeeping and Office Practice. He also had Personal Typing, a semester course. Typing this year was really a big help for book reports, essays, and gum-chewing themes.

"Now Rick," says Mrs. Bayer, "remember to keep your wrists low, and fingers arched."

MR. STONEK

Past, Present, And Future

History class this year. This course is required for all Juniors. The election for Junior Class officers was held in history in order that students could see how elections are held.

All Seniors must take two one-semester courses, Economics and Social Problems. Economics is the study of the United States economic system compared to that of other countries such as Russia. The students participated in a sample of free enterprise. They operated a business called Corporation '68 which ran for one week. Social Problems is the study of modern society and the problems that face every person with emphasis on problems facing young adults upon completion of high school. The entire class took a trip to Southern Colony in the spring. World History and Geography were the two electives.

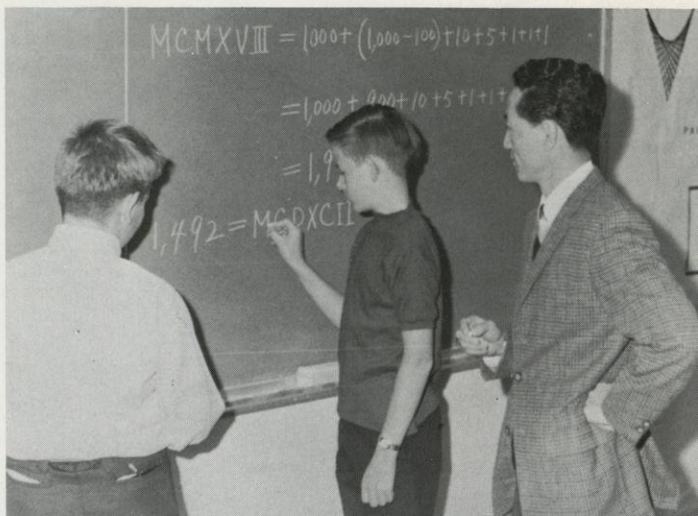

The major differences between communism and capitalism are explained by Mr. Baas.

MR. CHAI

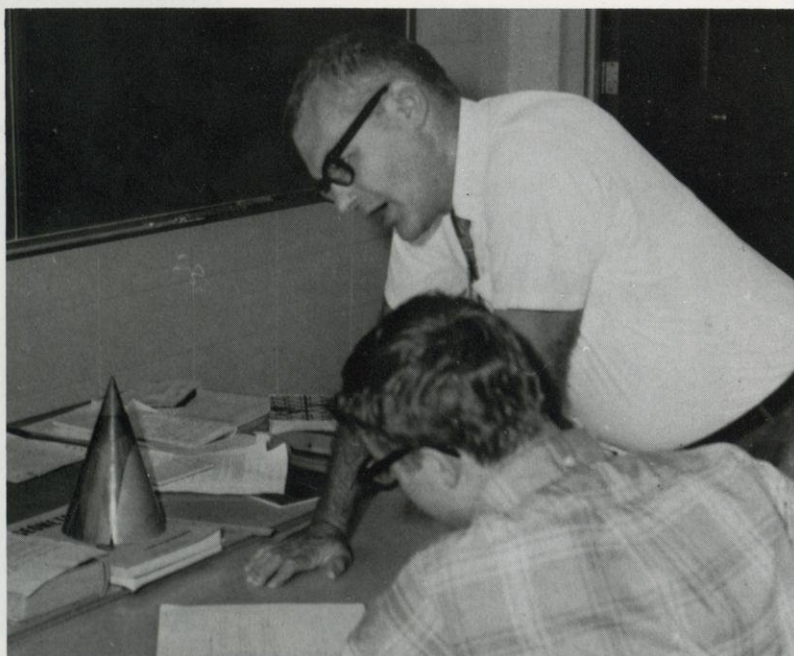

Mr. Chai, a new teacher at W. H. S., explains to his students, the Roman Numeral System.

Two And Two Makes For

A great many persons think of mathematics as a dry, dull, difficult subject. They believe it has interest only for the select few. But there is a lighter side to mathematics. Our mathematic teachers at Waterford High School have convinced many students that it is not so dull and dreary after all! Mathematics offers many vocational opportunities. There are many positions open for teaching mathematics in elementary schools, high schools, and colleges. There are also opportunities to do research and to prepare for some business vocations.

The methods of using a slide rule are explained in Advanced math.

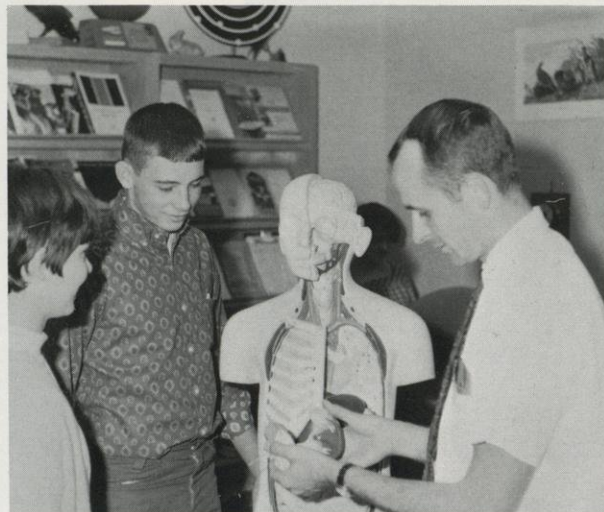

Algebra I students go through the procedure of finding and determining the end product.

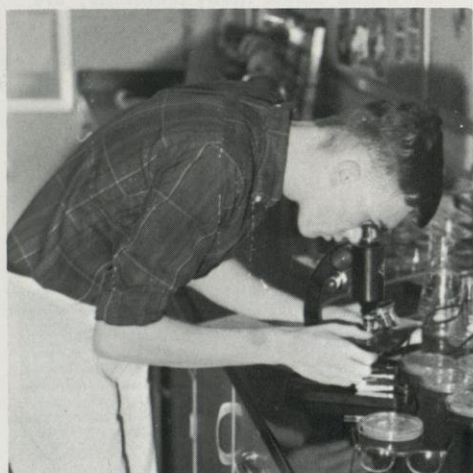

MR. BIXLER

Mr. Bixler explains the function of the heart to Kay Jones and Gary Schmidt.

Science Is The

Waterfords Science department offers five courses. They are General Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Seminar. Each course stresses lab orientated classes. Freshmen may take Biology and can follow the program through four years to Seminar. The Science department desires its students to gain experience in scientific methods and appreciate the contribution of science to modern living standards.

General Science is designed as a prerequisite for high school Biology, Chemistry and Physics courses. It also serves as a basic course for those not interested in continuing in Science. Chemistry is recommended to all those who intend to engage in scientific chemical or related vocations. Physics is a study of energy, with the five fundamental forms (mechanics, heat, sound, light, and electricity) receiving major emphasis. A course for science-minded seniors who have completed Biology, Chemistry, and Physics.

tools, equipment, and materials used in home repairs? Why know about working with copper, silver, and other materials? What are the advantages of knowing how to read the ruler, architect scale, micrometer, vernier caliper, etcetera? Why know the basic soils, or how to grow farm crops? Many boys and even girls strived to answer these questions and many more in the Industrial Arts department at WHS. Although these classes were designed for boys, some girls have found that they also want to know the answers to some of these questions. This course many benefit one a lot in his future.

All the boys in Woodworking learned to glue up stock for the lathe.

Dennis Bolles is learning the turning skills on a wood lathe by making a wooden bowl.

MR. FLANAGAN

MRS. SABATINO

W.H.S. Offers A

New changes were made in the art curriculum taught by Mrs. Sabatino. Art was offered on the semester basis with each semester covering one specific area.

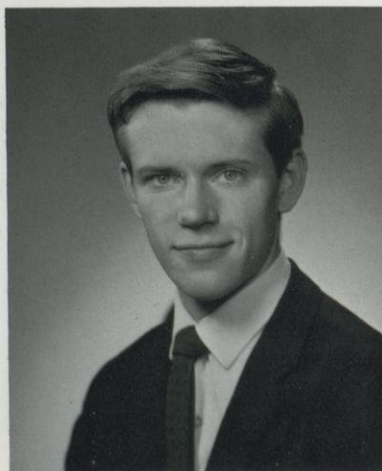

Marc Smolensky glazes a pot, and Randy Zimmer smooths the finish of a vase.

Mitzi Linder builds a multi-spouted pot to be used as a decoration.

Mr. Hargrave helps choir members learn the new type of song that is spoken.

MR. HARGRAVE

Variety Of Arts

Students could take more than one art course at a time.

Basis drawing and Creative design were the courses offered for students who had had no art before. The students who had had Arts and Crafts could take design, textiles, ceramics, or art metal.

Left, right, left, right! These were the sounds heard by the Band during the fall and spring. Mr. Davison, our Band director, wanted to make sure everyone was in step. This was the first year that the Solo and Ensemble Contests were in Burlington. It was quite a change from going to Whitewater.

The Chorus members were surprised to find a new music folder rack and new folders for each member. The Chorus, directed by Mr. Hargrave, did a new type of song that is completely spoken. This type of song proved to be a success at the Choral Concert.

Jim Beardmore and Dave Reesman practice for the fall choral concert.

MR. GETTRUST

"Just a little farther, Glen," said Mr. Gettrust. Chinning oneself is an exercise done in appartus.

Fun And Fitness!?!

Hair cuts were "in" this year. Mr. Gettrust, the new Physical Education teacher, was very popular in enforcing this short style. His military drills has also kept the boys physically fit.

What are we doing in Phy. Ed. (gym!) class? This is one of the questions the girls asked the new Physical Education teacher, Miss Schuster. With her southern drawl, she stated, "Yo' all will learn many new things this year, from tennis to modern dancing.

Besides getting you physically fit, Phy. Ed. teaches the skills and rules in many different sports. It is also an hour in which you can relax and have fun with your other classmates.

Now yo' all hold the racket like this and swing. But be sure to hit the ball. Okay!

MISS SCHUSTER

MRS. NOLTNER

Clothing construction is always something the girls in Home Ec. look forward to.

Home Economics: A Science And An Art

Along with learning the basics about food preparation, clothing construction and home management, the students delved into the studies of personality problems, relationships with the family, preparation for marriage, child care and money management. Many students have satisfied their needs to be creative through the various projects such as interior decorating, floral arrangements, and especially clothing construction and selection. The students are prepared for the many fields of home economics, either a career or simply being a good homemaker.

The freshmen and sophomores were taught by Mrs. Noltner, while Mrs. Marta taught the juniors and seniors.

These girls will have the pleasure of eating the dinner they are preparing; or will it be a pleasure?

MRS. MARTA

Special Services

Mrs. Becker did all the secretarial and clerical work in the main office.

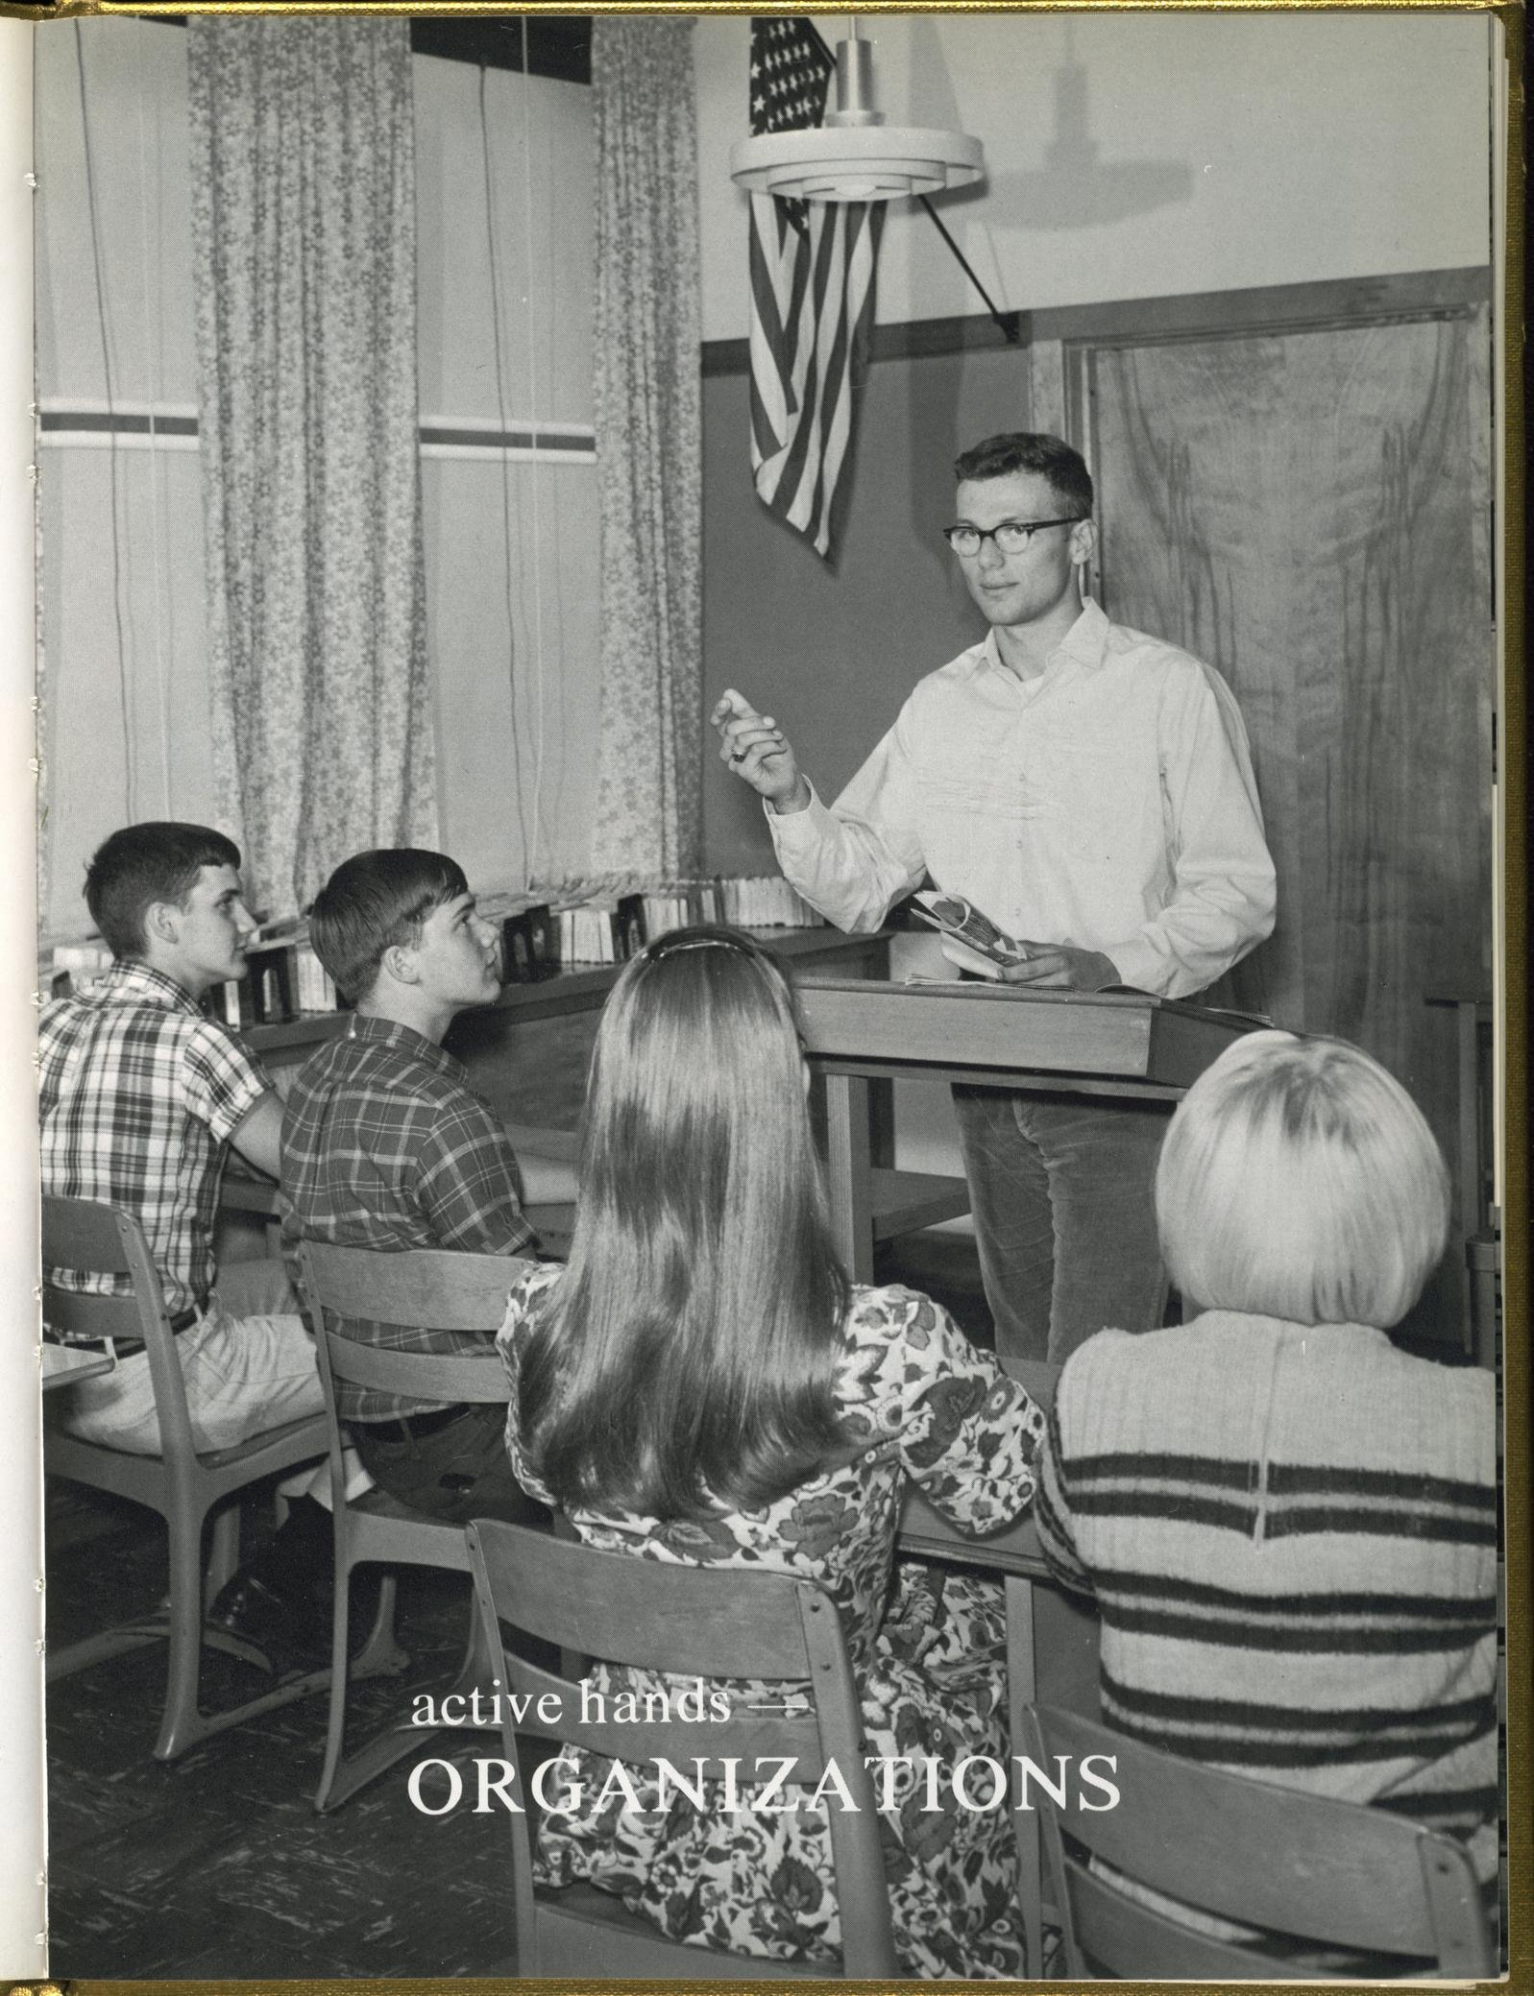

Miss Kegley took care of the financial and bookkeeping aspects of the school.

All of the files in the Guidance Office were kept in order by Mrs. Yemm.

The students best friends this year were Mrs. Favell, Mrs. Callen and Mrs. Healy.

Waterford High School has the Athena Chapter of the National Honor Society. Athena, for whom the chapter is named, was the Greek goddess of wisdom. Only three percent of the sophomore class are eligible for probationary membership. If they maintain the grade requirements, they may become full-fledged members in their junior year. Ten percent of the junior class and fifteen percent of the senior class are eligible for membership. The installation of new members takes place in February at an all school assembly. Members are selected for membership by a faculty committee in accordance with the national requirements. Election to membership is highly selective since it requires a unanimous vote of the faculty committee.

"Will the meeting of the Student Council come to order." This is the initial statement spoken by Mayor Don Paynter at every Student Council meeting. These meetings were held twice during the course of the month. This year, a few changes took place in the organization. For one thing, Mr. Edwards was our new advisor. Also parliamentary procedure was used more extensively. Student Council representatives voice the opinions of the whole student body. They also organized such projects as the Candy Sale, Clothing Drive, collecting Christmas presents for Southern Colony, an All School Assembly, and a Computer Dance.

The WHS Newspaper was published under the direction of the co-editors Barb Jordan and Mitzi Linder. Assisting them were section editors who worked together to get the paper out approximately once a month. A variety of news items were included to make the Echo more interesting: announcements, student opinion, polls, guidance news, editorials, pictures, and cartoons. The newspaper was printed by the Waterford Post, making it more attractive and more interesting to the reader. Page editors: Betty Joehnk, Barb Hegemen, Linda Krueger, and Pat Fiebelkorn. Dummies, layout, masters, copy, names, pictures, indexes, cropping, . . . are only a FEW of the things the Emerald Annual staff learned this year. To help pay for the additional costs, the staff sponsored a dance. The selling of portfolios and plastic covers were other money making projects. This year GRA has been an enjoyable pastime for girls who like sports. Besides the regular volleyball, basketball, bowling, and softball activities, members were able to participate in swimming, tobaggoning, movies and parties. GRA made money by sponsoring a dance and managing the concession stand at a football game. GRA meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month. GRA is based on a point system, girls receive points for their participation. These points go toward the winning of gold bars, a letter, and a sweater. Miss Schuster, girls Physical Education teacher, served as GRA advisor.

The Drama Club is the largest club in the school with 172 members, all of whom contribute greatly to the productions. This work includes set designing and construction, lighting, stage crews, costumes, rehearsals of cast and pit band, and make-up. The club's advisor, Mr. David Molthen, teaches Drama and Speech along with directing and producing all the productions at Waterford High School. This fall's musical "The King and I" was received with unexpected acclamation. Other activities to complete Mr. Molthen's last year of teaching at Waterford High School are a musical review and an all-school dramatic play in the spring of 1968.

Waterford's Top Wolverines

The privilege of participating in the W-Club activities is extended to all boys who have earned a major letter in a varsity sport, provided they are willing to assume certain responsibilities.

1. Display high standards of social behavior.
2. Display proper respect for those in authority, including teachers, coaches, and officials.
3. Display a real spirit of cooperation.
4. Wear the letter earned proudly; respect and live up to the standards it sets for behavior.

This year the W-Club's big projects were sponsoring the 1967 Homecoming, the Waterford Wrestling Invitational Tournament, and a basketball game between the Harlem Satellites and the Waterford coaches. Another endeavor was working to improve the High School Athletic Code.

After a year of vacation, the French club resumes their activities. This year the French club raised money by sponsoring a Halloween Dance. The decorations for the dance were very original. The black cats, witches, haystack, and pumpkins provided a bewitching atmosphere. Another money making project was a candy sale. Candy sales are always a good money making project at WHS. The French Club is planning to buy a French film with their profits. Their advisor was Mr. Frisk.

Richard Rodgers' and Oscar Hammerstein's musical THE KING AND I was performed this fall at Waterford High School. The magnificent staging, acting, and technical aspects of the play were the combined efforts of the Drama Club, Music Department, drama classes, and student body. This wonderfully received and colorful epic could not have become a success without the aid and instruction given by Mr. Molthen, Mrs. Lackey, Mr. Davidson, Mr. Hargrave, and Mr. Frisk. We hope next fall's musical will be as great.

Is Dynamite!

Happy days are here again as Mike Sullivan shows speed which won last years championship.

Our Waterford Wolverines are showing a lot of spirit if not a lot of wins this season. They seemed to have had problems recovering from the loss of six lettermen. But we did not despair, because our Wolverines kept fighting till the very last game. Led by co-captains Dale Roanhouse and Dave Rogalski were seniors Mike Sullivan, Doug Noble, and Randy Gilbertson. Some great prospects for next year are Rick Jaspersen, who played varsity this year, Mike Schnieder, Dick Amundson, Jeff Zahn, and Al Jaspersen. Congratulations, Mr. Christiansen, for your second great year as a coach.

St. Mary's No. 51 believes that a hex on Waterford will prevent another Wolverine basket. Better luck next year No. 51!

The boys had hopes of a tie for first place until we were defeated by Kettle Moraine. The team had a couple of great sophomores working for them this year. Dick Amundson made two touchdowns. In the area of team awards, the boys nominated Doug Kintop, senior captain, the offense award, and Randy Gilbertson, senior, the defense award. On the all conference team, Randy Gilbertson, Doug Kintop, Mike Sullivan, and Jerry Guth were nominated for awards.

1967 Waterford Harriers

Waterford's Cross Country Team was coached by Mr. Zuelsdorf. The team had a mediocre season. Their hopes were brightened by the fact that all but one member on the team will return for next year's season. The 1967 season ended with a 2-3 dual meet record. WHS placed ninth in a field of seventeen teams at the sectionals meet.

Jim McFadden placed third in the 1967 Conference Cross Country Meet. He ran a distance of 2.25 miles in twelve minutes and eighteen seconds. The results of the conference meet were as follows:

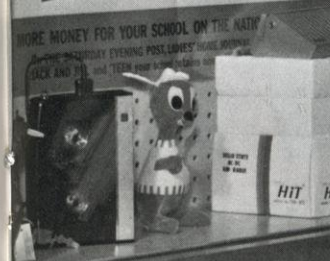

| School         | Points |
|----------------|--------|
| Union Grove    | 40     |
| Arrowhead      | 52     |

| Salem          | 86     |
| Kettle Moraine | 89     |
| St. Marys      | 160    |

Jim McFadden set a new record for Waterford High School at 11:37.

Pride was the word for the Junior Class this year. Pam Rupert was crowned Queen to reign over the 1967 Homecoming festivities. Two of the leading roles in the annual school musical were played by Juniors. Pattie Eder portrayed Tuptim, and John Gendrich had the role of the king of Siam. The Juniors were represented on the varsity cheerleading squad by Dianne Hadley, Debi Steinke, and Sandy Sloan. They were advised by Mr. Davison and Mr. Flanagan. The Juniors feel confident that next year will be just as successful as this one has been.

Corporation '68 heads proudly announced that the stockholders received twenty-five cents profit on their investments.

It's into the future for the class of 1968. It's very hard to believe that it's over. The past four years have gone by so quickly, but they will not be forgotten, for there are many things that we will remember. Painstaking time and effort was spent on our junior prom, Night in Tahiti, as was homecoming, Autumn Memories. These were some of the best moments of the four years we have spent here. Of course, we won't forget our dedicated teachers, Corporation '68, or all the good times we've had. The past has memories but the future has opportunities.

Makers Orchestra. King Dave Rogalski and Queen Jane Skarie reigned over the prom entitled "Night in Tahiti." The evening was pleasantly ended by Post Prom at Cerami's.
