NINTH ANNUAL MILITARY BALL HELD TONIGHT

Capitol is Scene of Yearly
Function of Cadet Corps

Promptly at 7:45 Miss Pearl Stewart, ball queen, will press an electric button in the state capitol which will fire nine shots at two-second intervals from a French 75mm field piece placed on the lower campus, and start Wisconsin's most noteworthy military ball.

Remarkable in the point of decorations and arrangements, the ninth annual military ball promises to eclipse any social function that has been seen at Wisconsin in the last decade. All committees under the direction of J. Calvin Wolfe have completed their work and nothing has been left undone in the effort to achieve this goal.

Decorations will consist chiefly in American flags, and vari-colored lights thrown from the balcony will play throughout the evening. Something unusual is promised in the way of moonlight effects.

Music by Wireless

Two orchestras and a 60-piece band will furnish the music. The First Regimental band will play during the reception, and at 8:45 a special 16-piece Thompson's orchestra, under the personal direction of "Al" Thompson, will strike up "On Wisconsin," and the grand march will commence.

Later in the evening, Conway's orchestra, Washington, D. C., will provide music for one entire novelty dance via the wireless telephone. A receiving set has been installed in the capitol, and several experiments in both music and voice transmission have proven successful. A

SYGMUND IS BEST IN FROSH "DEC"

Abraham Sygmund won first place in the annual freshman declamatory contest held in room 165 Bascom hall yesterday afternoon. Second honors went to Maurice Perstein, while third place was taken by Harold J. Bentson.

The freshman "dec" is the only all-university forensic contest open to the yearlings, and a place in the final trial is considered a singular platform achievement.

Seven contestants were entered in the finals, and the competition which resulted was unusually keen.

Prof. J. M. O'Neill who acted as one of the judges pronounced the contest the best freshman declamation that he had ever heard. As a result, future inter-collegiate debate teams can rely on considerable very promising material.

Other judges were: Miss M. M. McCarthy, Prof. A. T. Weaver, and Robert Williams, all of the department of speech.

He was editor and business manager of his preparatory school paper.

As a member of Edwin Booth dramatic society McCandless has taken an active part in dramatics and was stage manager of this year's pre-Prom play. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and of chairman of the serate joint government committee. He is on the varsity track team.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS KOHL PRESIDENT

Other Officers Are Elected
For the Coming Year

Leo H. Kohl '23 was elected president of the university Y.M.C.A. at a meeting of the members last night at the "Y" replacing "Red" Weston who graduates in June.

Other juniors elected to offices are Fred Brewer, vice-president, Wilson Trueblood, secretary, and James Buxton, treasurer. The trustees elected are Prof. E. A. Birge, Mr. Emerson Ely, Mr. Carl Johnson, and Prof. E. B. Van Vleck. Mr. Vroman Mason and professors D. W. Mead, Karl Young, J. H. Matthews, and V. C. Finch were elected directors of the association.

W. A. Scott, director of the Commerce course spoke at the banquet given just before the election and congratulated the members of the "Y" on the work they have done during the past year.

"Dad" Wolf spoke urging as many as possible to attend the Y.M.C.A. conference at Lake Geneva next June.

FILES PETITION FOR BOARD OF CONTROL

Madeline Johnson '23, Madison, has filed her petition as a candidate for the Daily Cardinal Board of Control. She is running independently and is not connected with any ticket. EXPOSITION IS DESCRIBED AT MASS MEETING

Speakers Urge Students to Bring Parents Here
April 21-22

"Talk the exposition here and at home," urged William B. Florea at the all-university convocation held yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium.

"Now is your opportunity to do all in your power to put Wisconsin in her proper light. The exposition will be a model university in itself with 75 distinct departments and displays representing a summary of all of the work done at Wisconsin."

Florea spoke on "Facts about the Exposition." Other speakers were Pres. E. A. Birge, who gave the introduction, Frances Ellen Tucker '21, who spoke on "What You Can Do," and Prof. W. A. Scott on "Why an Exposition?" Wesley Travers '21, presided over the meeting and "Bill" Pickard led the cheers and songs.

Chemistry Exhibit

Describing the larger exhibits, Florea mentioned the exhibit of the Chemistry department with its poisonous gas and gas mask displays, the model cottage containing a tea room, a kitchen, a living room and a laundry of the Home Economics department and the wireless telephone of the Physics department.

"Something will be going on all the time," declared Florea. "Entertainment of various kinds will be continuous. A rest room has been planned for the comfort of visitors."

What the student body can do as pointed out by Frances Ellen Tucker is to "Boost Wisconsin, and tell Mother and Dad to pack their grips and come back to the exposition with you." All who could do work at home during spring recess such as talking in high schools, or interviewing the editor of the town paper were asked to leave their names at the close of the meeting or notify William B. Florea.

"Few students know about departments outside of the ones in which they happen to be particularly interested," declared Prof. W. A. Scott, speaking on "Why an Exposition?" "This exposition is one means of educating the students themselves to the varied opportunities offered here and also of educating the rest of the state in regard to the university, its courses, departments and opportunities."

SECOND BALL GAME TODAY

Team Plays Milton College at Randall at 2:30

The second baseball game of the preliminary series will be played against Milton college at Camp Randall this afternoon. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

Coach Lowman has shifted the infield about somewhat in an effort to determine what combination will be the most effective on the training trip next week. Farrington will be used at shortstop, Elliott at second base, and either Lyman or Rudeger at third base. "Jack" Williams and "Al" Davey will continue to play in their former positions.

Either Miller or Hoffman will do the mound work this afternoon. There is little to choose between them, as both are men of ability as well as experience.

Williams, Hardell, Ceaser, and Snow will take care of the outfield positions. Other men who are liable to be used for a portion of the time are: Christensen, Barry, Vanderhoff, and Pickford.

Milton College has exactly the same lineup that held Wisconsin to a two to nothing score last year. This assures a hardfought contest, one which will undoubtedly prove to be the best home game of the preliminary schedule.

On Saturday afternoon Paddock will start the game against Beloit college. Paddock was the star hurler of last year's freshmen squad, and local fans are anxiously waiting to witness his initial varsity performance.

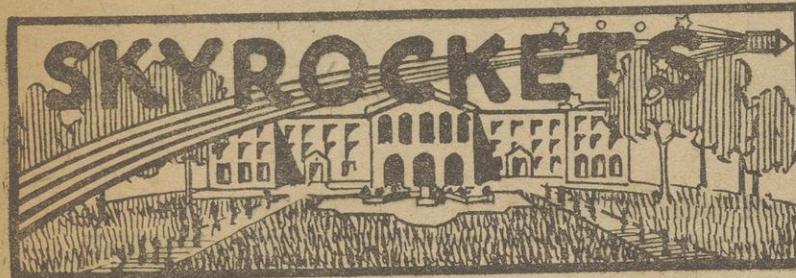

BODDEN RETIRES AS S. G. A. HEAD

Impressive ceremonies marked the installation of the newly elected S. G. A. officers at 7 o'clock last night at a meeting of all university women in Lathrop parlors. In accordance with a traditional custom which started simultaneously with the organization, each retiring officer installed her successor.

The new officers are: Ellen Correll, president; Francis Beecher, vice-president; Dorothy Ware, secretary; Catherine Ely, treasurer and Isabel Capps, census chairman. The retiring officers are: Maria Bodden, Marguerite Crosky, Marion Strassburger, Esther Haven and Ruth Reid.

ELECTION NOTICE

The elections committee of the Student senate announces that petitions for nominations in the approaching election must be filed in the office of the Dean of Men not later than Friday, April 8, at 5:30 p. m.

HAVE you seen that sign on Lawrence's cash register yet? No? Well, here it is: "No Checks Cashed for Strangers, Unless Personally Known."

YES, we know it's hard to believe, so go and look for yourself.

AND here is some more local color. The history prof. was discussing Napoleon:

"And what was the first institution that Napoleon established?"

Brilliant stude waking up: "The Bank of Wisconsin."

THE FUSSER'S LAMENT
The coin I spent on thee, dear heart,
I wish it would return to me,
I ponder over and lament
My bankruptcy, my bankruptcy.

You left me when my dough was gone;
And now you fuss that Alfa Delt.
The worst thing I can wish you
Is bankruptcy, just bankruptcy.

HOT WHOIE tells us that Mrs. Bonnett has a millinery store in Baraboo and that Bunn is a baker in the same town. Also, he adds that Mr. Boyschou owns a shoe store in Beloit and that Shrive and Croak are automobile men in Fox Lake.

BUT we have something just as good in our own little student directory. Therein in it says that the Goo Goo girls of Hawaii are completing their education at this here university.

FRESHMAN NINE IS PRACTICING DAILY

Infield Showing Well, But Pitching Staff Not Strong

The Freshmen baseball squad is practicing daily at Camp Randall in preparation for workouts against the Varsity after spring vacation. Coach Meinert has cut the squad 70 to 45 men, and a further reduction will be made before spring vacation.

Not much can be told of the present time as to the ability of the candidates. Several of the men handle the ball well, however, and a good infield can probably be developed. Booth, who played on the Oklahoma university team, Combacker, formerly of Hamlin university, Foye, O'Brian, and Hoar are the most likely looking candidates for the infield positions.

The pitching staff does not appear to be particularly strong, but may develop as the season progresses. E. Smith, Bosworth, Engelberger, all of whom are lefthanders, Ritchie, Iwen, and Sykes are the only sound aspirants who show much promise.

Lamer, Whitten, and Flageti are being tried out behind the bat.

Poull, Giles, Livingston, Flugstad, and Beach are being used in the outfield. They all possess some ability in fielding and hitting.

Coach Meinert is not satisfied with the number of men who have tried out for the team. He desires that any men who possess ability present themselves at practice within the next few days, as the final cut will be made directly after vacation.

LIBRARY WILL BE OPEN FOR VACATION

For the accommodation of students who wish to remain in Madison during the spring vacation next week the library will be open during the recess from 9:00 a.m. until 5 p.m. every day except Saturday, when it will close at 4 p.m.

EXPO GUESTS WILL HEAR FAMOUS TALK

"Snow Flakes" Lecture to Be Given Twice During Week-end

Prof. Benjamin Snow will give his famous lecture on "Snow Flakes," Thursday and Friday afternoons of the exposition week at 3:30 in the Physics-Economics building auditorium.

Earle Hardy '21, chairman of the information committee, is responsible for securing the lectures for exposition visitors. He has also arranged for personally conducted tours of the exposition features not shown in the gymnasium and for information booths for the guidance of visitors. He has a committee of seven working with him.

The personally conducted tours will be under the guidance of Inner Gate members. Three each afternoon will start from the gymnasium at 1:00, 2:00, and 3:00 o'clock and will take in the library, Engineering school, Agricultural school and other places where exhibits impossible to be moved into the gymnasium will be shown. Experiments will be going on at all times to demonstrate the work of each department. The course covered by these tours will be such as to give the visitor a general idea of the university.

General information will be given out at special booths. Where to find rooms, where to locate lost and found articles, and train schedules are only a few of the things that may be learned at these booths. Booths will be located at the Park hotel, at each depot, on the main floor of the gymnasium and between the gymnasium and the Y. M. C. A. All trains will be met by members of the committee.

RELIEF WORKER IN WAR SAYS ORPHAN NEEDS ARE URGENT

French war orphans are still in need of the interest and assistance of American individuals who befriended them during the war, even though the American branch of the relief organization has been discontinued," declared Miss Helen B. Smith, yesterday. French instructor, who spent last winter at the Ecole Normale Supérieure, Sevres, French, and who was at the head of the French war orphan relief work at the university during the war.

While in France Miss Smith met many of the children who have been helped by Wisconsin students. They showed deep appreciation for what has been done for them, she reports, with their friendship and little gifts of flowers. Even now grateful letters continue to come from children who are still receiving payments from the French relief organization.

Miss Smith says that many of the children are the victims of the economic pressure of the war. The high price of clothes is causing them to suffer from being under-fed and physicians say that it will take money and care to keep them from contracting tuberculosis.

"Students who made friends with the orphans during the war can still render a great service," Miss Smith declared, "by keeping in touch with them, giving encouragement and material help."

'24 TRACK SQUAD TO MEET VARSITY

The first outdoor track meet of the 1921 season will be held on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 when the varsity squad engages the freshmen track team in the annual Varsity-freshmen handicap meet. The Camp Randall running track has been newly cindered, the turns have been banked, and the field put in excellent condition for the initial meet of the season.

Members of Star and Arrow, honorary athletic fraternity, will meet at 7 o'clock tonight in the gymnasium to consider plans for holding the annual Interscholastic track meet on May 28. High schools and normal schools from all parts of the state will be entered in this junior track carnival.

GRIPPING GIRLS

Physical Eds to Tset Hand Shake at University Expo

"Has your hand an iron grip? Come in and have its strength measured," a white-middled physical girl may invitingly beg you from her booth at the exposition. Nor, alas, will she test it by means of her own firm grasp, but rather with a machine built just for that purpose.

Your weight, if you are unashamed, and your lung capacity too, she will ascertain to a hair's breadth for you. Then she will proudly conduct you about her booth.

Tiny dolls dressed in fashionable array will by their posture show that fine feathers do not make the fine birds. Small children may have their postures taken here. The wrong and right shoes to wear will be carefully displayed with charts and pictures showing the before and after effects.

A model of Camp Randall with figures dotted in showing the various games played out there will be the special exhibit of W. A. A. and Outing club.

The professional work of the school will be shown by a map of the United States graphically marking places where graduates of the course in physical education are teaching, and in addition designating the various salaries that they are drawing.

The proposed stadium will be shown by a plaster model set up in the adjacent booth occupied by the men's physical education department. This model will cost approximately $300 and will measure 4 feet 5 inches by 5 feet 6 inches.

"W" sweaters and all other emblems together with the explanation regarding the way they can be won will be shown to the visitors. A racing shell will be suspended over the entire exhibit.

The development of the department from 1912 up to date, the standing of various colleges in mural sports, the Nelson trophy, and an automatic machine showing pictures of athletic events will be among the other displays of this department.

J. S. Hamblin '21, Franklin, Ind., is chairman of the Utilities committee for the university exposition.

With his committee of five men he has worked out a system of supplying the exhibits of the exposition which require water, compressed air and gas and high and low pressure steam. This has involved putting in a system of pipes in the men's gym.

Hamblin is a member of the Chi Phi fraternity. He has served on the Y. M. C. A. cabinet for four years and was president of the Y. M. C. A. dormitory in his sophomore year. He is a member of the Engineer's club and is business manager of the Wisconsin Engineer this year. He is also a member of Scabbard and Blade.

ST. OLAF CHOIR WELL RECEIVED

Admirers of choral music were given a rare display of its possibilities last evening at the gymnasium when the St. Olaf Lutheran choir presented a program of church chorales and metets. The program was entirely of a religious nature with the possible exception of the last number, an eighteenth century Christmas song which had some of the unefulness and lilt that the remaining more contrapuntal numbers lacked.

Although the audience did not completely fill up the gym, they were appreciative and applauded roundly. The "Motet for Advent Season" was one of the most striking offerings because of its powerful climaxes and opportunities for abundant tone shading. Another work of distinction was "The Morning Star" by Philip Nicolai which was perhaps the biggest number presented.

In all the work of the choir, there was the greatest ease in following their director, F. Melius Christiansen, who brought out all the fine tone shadings and sweeping climaxes that were possible. The choir was capable of beautiful pianoissimo passages and at the same time of a sturdy fortissimo which at no time appeared to be the limit of their volume.

The fact that the choir is a mixed one affords certain possibilities of range, variance and tone which cannot be acquired in a male glee club. All the depth of tone coming from the deep voices of the men singers combined with the clear sopranos of the women were blended together producing all the effects which might be derived from a pipe organ.

TALKS ON WORK OF SANITARY ENGINEER

State sanitary engineer, C. M. Baker, addressed the members of the American Association of Engineers on "The Science of Sanitary Engineering" last night at 7:30 in the auditorium of the Engineering building.

He told of the work of a sanitary engineer as compared to that of a medical doctor. About 40 per cent of the work carried on to prevent the spread of disease is done by the sanitary engineer.

A Ford Educational film "A Mile in the Sky" was shown before the address.

Who Woes Wickedly

PAPRIKA
—Courtesy Photoart

Wooing the Mexican vamp, Paprika, with picturesque tales of the glory that is Chicago's, Ralph Waldo Emerson Smith persuades her to renounce the love of the Mexican general Ferdinand, in the Haresfoot production, "Miss 'Quita", which appears here Friday and Saturday April 22 and 23, with the formal performance Friday night.

The role of Paprika is taken by Hubert Townsend '23 and that of Waldo by Reginald Garstang '22. "Each Pretty Miss", a clever lyrical comment on the ways of woman, whether she be Mexican or American, is sung as a duet by the two in the final act. Paprika sings "My Lady Nicotine" as a solo in the first act, with a chorus of oriental girls, and has a specialty dance which she does to a sinuous Spanish rhythm written especially for the act by Earl Carpenter '21. In the second act laid in the camp of the rebel army in the Mexican mountains, she leads the soldiers in "Mexican Musketeers."

Box office sale for the three performances opens at the Fuller theatre April 12. Open sale starts April 18. Prices range from $2.00 down.

THE MILITARY BALL

THE preliminaries have all been run and the stage is set for Wisconsin's greatest military ball.

At the stroke of nine tonight the social sceptre will hold sway over the entire campus for a few fleeting hours. Fleeting though they may be, they will be hours brimful of significance, marking for each milestone new standards, new achievements, new conceptions, and new ideals.

The military ball has occupied a deservedly high place among university social functions since its inception nine years ago. Its place in the hall of worthy university events has never been challenged. Against it has never been levelled the charge of excessive expenditures. Its desirable features have never been eclipsed in the minds of some observers by practices to which they object—objectionable practices have never found a place in the makeup of a Wisconsin Military Ball.

Tonight the true significance of the event is realized by allotting to it the privilege of using the capitol. The Cardinal cannot reconcile itself to the opinion of those who hold that the capitol should be reserved for the Prom as the one outstanding social function of the school year. The Military Ball makes no attempt to outdistance Prom, but the grandeur and rich beauty of the finest state capitol in the world can do much to make it an occasion of note.

When the battle scarred and chair worn uniforms are brought forth from their closeted confinement to be again worn with all the dignity and poise that characterized their appearance during the war every attendant and every onlooker will adequately realize that nothing is too good for the Military Ball.

Tonight of all nights no one wants to recall the hard realities of the war. They want to "trip to the light fantastic," pat an old pal on the back, rehash the good old army jokes, call a sergeant a general, and forget, for the time being, the troubles of an unhappy world in the travail of reconstruction.

The educational value of attending the ball needs but to be mentioned to be understood. The university is training men and women not merely for law, business, medicine, or agriculture; it is preparing them for life. Social experience of the sort given the Military Ball is of real and lasting value. It constitutes a part of our goal, a well rounded education, in supplying which the Military Ball is rendering a service in addition to the wholesome enjoyment it affords.

Those of us who are going to be on hand tonight can temporarily dismiss from our minds what should ordinarily be uppermost therein; namely, all thoughts of studies. Let no forthcoming mid-semester exam, or no setback in one recently attempted, in any way mar the enjoyment of the festivities. But in true military fashion students should get back to their work tomorrow morning with all the speed and precision characteristic of real Wisconsinites.

Put on your Sunday serge, Buddy, your Alma Mater extends congratulations on the splendid party you're putting on, and expresses the hope that the net result will be the superlative degree of hearty enjoyment.

The Coffer-Miller players come completely equipped with scenery and properties which will enable them to adapt themselves to stage conditions.

M. E. McCaffery, secretary of the regents, in commenting yesterday on the purpose of the play, said: "The loan fund for which the proceeds from the presentation of the play next Saturday will go is a very satisfactory piece of business from the view point of the administrative board of the university."

Last year 207 loans were made to the amount of $11,141, and they averaged $53 per person. The students pay back the loans very well and little loss is incurred. The small amount that is lost is covered by the interest gained from the loans.

A student orchestra has been engaged to play. Members of the Outing club will usher at the afternoon performance.

SENATE PLANS TO REORGANIZE ITS PERSONNEL

Athletics, Traditions, Elec- tions, and Ticket Sales Also Discussed

Proposed radical reorganization of self-government, plans for attracting strong athletic material to the university, and prompt and effective punishment of freshmen who violate traditions were the issues discussed at the regular meeting of the Student senate Wednesday night.

Senator Thomas Coxon, chairman of the executive committee, presented the proposal for the reorganization of student self-government in the form of amendments to the present constitution of the Senate. They were approved by the Senate and will be put up to a referendum of the male electors of the student body at the coming spring elections. The outstanding features of his proposal are as follows:

The Athletic board, the Forensic board, and the Union board are to be represented on the Senate by the presidents of these respective boards instead of any member of each board.

Cardinal Editor on Senate
The managing editor of the Daily Cardinal is recommended as the representative of the Cardinal Board of Control instead of a member of that body.

The purpose of proposing the change in board representation is to effect a greater centralization of control and to co-ordinate the work of the boards with the Senate.

The purpose of proposing the managing editor of the Daily Cardinal as a member of the Senate is to enable this man to be in closer touch with the administrative policies of the Senate and to link up the student publication more intimately with the work of the Senate.

The proposals were formulated after a series of conferences between Senators David Lacey, president of the Senate, Milton Borman, former president, Thomas Coxon, and Sterling Tracy, members of the executive committee.

Ralph Scott '21 appeared before the Senate last night and offered a program for attracting promising athletic material to the university. His plans include the establishment of a loan fund to be raised by popular subscription and an organization to reach out in the entire state and the surrounding territory to interest athletics in coming to Wisconsin.

The Senate endorsed "Scotty's" plan, named him general chairman of a committee to perfect the arrangements, and selected the following to serve with him: Prof. Warner Taylor, Clyde Nash, president of Star and Arrow, Senator Howard Brant, Senator Thomas Coxon, and Senator George Stolley.

Discuss Traditions
The Senate then took up the matter of handling freshmen violators of traditions. It was the general opinion that the problem has reached such proportions that effective action is called for. The plan, proposed by Senator Tracy, that a court be set up by the Senate to be in session five days a week at the noon hour to try freshmen who are caught in the act of violating major traditions was approved. This court will include two men whose powers will be defined by the executive committee of the Senate, and who will be empowered to pronounce immediate sentence upon freshmen who are caught in the act of violating the major traditions. It is thought this plan will eliminate much of the red tape that now surrounds the enforcement of the traditions and at the same time prevent any temptation to revive promiscuous hazing which the Senate and the faculty have both doomed.

Ticket Question Settled
It was announced at the meeting that Coach Jones had favorably received the suggestions of the Senate relative to the reorganization of ticket sales next year. These suggestions include the abolition of coupon books, the sale of tickets to students, one apiece, at the rate of 50 cents each, upon the presentation of a personal fee card. Definite cheering sections will be allotted to men and to women.

The election committee reported that a voting booth would be placed in Science hall at the next election for the convenience of medical students.

The Polygon society, an engineering club, was granted temporary recognition.

In the absence of President Lacey, who is attending a student self-government conference at the University of Missouri, Senator Bolender presided over the meeting.

BRUNS DISCUSSES WORK OF KLINGER

An illustrated talk on Max Klinger, and the work of the great German sculptor who died in Liepsig last summer, was given in 112 Bascom hall Wednesday afternoon by Prof. Frederic Bruns. Professor Bruns gave a brief history of the life and work of the great artist and explained the pictures of his masterpieces. Some of the best known of these are Cassandra, Salome, and Beethoven. There were several cycles shown, one humorous one being the tale of a glove and the others somewhat tragical and symbolical.

GIRLS' ABILITY IN BASKET GAME IS MUCH HANDICAPPED

—MEANWELL

Varsity Coach Suggests Rule Changes to Physical Education Club

"Girls' basket ball has not improved in the same extent that girls' ability has," declared "Doc" Meanwell last night in his talk to the girls' Physical Education club, in which he condemned the present girls' rules as artificial and non-co-ordinative.

"Only the forwards get the real coordination of shooting baskets. The game is too specialized and too limited as it is now played. There is no possibility of real teamwork.

Suggests Changes

"My suggestion for new rules," said Coach Meanwell, "consists of lengthwise playing on the field. Divide the field into quarters. The right forward and right guard occupy the right half of the field. The centers play in the respective north and south halves. This gives all players alike intensive guarding, shooting, and feeding.

"Plate-glass guarding in the present game is atrocious. The guard should be permitted to slap the ball with one hand, but should not touch any part of the girl opponent except her hand.

"I have taught basket ball to girls for four years," added Meanwell, "and once they play with the new rules, they won't go back to the old style game for love, money, or marbles!"

Alice Oakes was elected president of the clt for next year, Dorothy Sumption, vice-president, and Margaret Murray, secretary and treasurer. Installation of the officers took place after the elections.

Six new members were received into the organization: Edna Muehleberger, Louise Fritsche, Alice Legare, Mildred Paine, Beatrice Boswell, and Marjorie Ruff.

Announcement has been made of the arrangement of the entrances of the capitol, and the committee in charge hopes that all ball goers will cooperate by noting carefully the proper means of entrance. Persons holding the $3.50 tickets may enter either by way of the south or west doors. Spectators will be permitted to enter only through the north door, and the east door will be locked. There will be no entrance for taxis.

Those going to the ball are also asked to notice the arrangement of the boxes published in yesterday's Cardinal in order to cause the least possible confusion during the evening. Military orderlies will be present to act as ushers.

Reception at 8:15

The reception will be held in the governor's office and reception room at the capitol at 8:15. Governor John J. Blaine and other prominent state and university officials, as well as the ball chairman and his assistants, will be in the receiving line. All honorary guests, honor guests and patrons and patronesses, and all persons attending the ball are most cordially invited.

At 6 p.m. preceding the reception, the cadet officers will hold their annual formal dinner dance at the studio. The menu for the banquet is as follows: fruit cocktail, cream soup, fish entree, chicken patties, creamed peas, mashed potatoes, combination salad, ice cream, individual cakes, and coffee.

Smooth tan leather folios containing a place for a photograph will constitute the girl's program, and a bill fold made of the same material will be used for the men. The entire program will convey a distinct military spirit, and the specially prepared design on the outside is one of the features. The names of all of the most important battles of the world war will be introduced in a novel way as a part of the dance program.

After the reception at 8:45 o'clock Cadet Col. J. Calvin Wolfe, ball chairman, and Miss Pearl Stewart will lead the grand march, assisted by Lieut. Col. Joe R. Sherr and Miss Ida Mantell, Maj. Evrard C. Caluwaert and Miss Frieda Rummel Maj. C. M. Russell and Miss Mary Craven, and Maj. and Mrs. Blandford Jennings. The marchers will wend their way around the capitol, and, when they are assembled on the first floor around the balcony, Governor Blaine will deliver his address of welcome.

The official ball picture will be taken immediately after the governor's speech of welcome, and moving pictures of the affair will be taken at various times throughout the evening.

The special features will be held at 11:15 and will be furnished by the President's guard. A display of pictures of the chairman of the ball committees has been placed in the window of the Photoart house. A few ball tickets and spectator tickets may still be obtained in the military office.

The outfit is designed primarily for doctors, enabling them to keep in touch with their offices while on calls.

City Attorney William Ryan, instructed by the common council, appeared against the granting of the application. The company was represented by Dudley Montgomery and E. J. B. Schubring.

Expectations of an increase in traffic next winter and a claim that it was necessary to replace the old cars with new ones, were the reasons given for the purchase. Each car will cost approximately $7,000.

Mr. Ryan argued that the one-man car has not proved satisfactory to the majority of people. Ald. George E. Gill spoke in favor of the new type of car.

Y. M. GHOSTS

Ring Fire Bell During Night at Dormitory

Ghosts prowled in the university Y. M. C. A. last week and kept the more superstitious boys living there frightened, the more nervous ones awake nights, and everybody wondering for several days.

The fire bell rang one morning between midnight and dawn causing every sleepy person to bound out of bed. It was an awful feeling, but after much scurrying and hurrying about the building it was discovered that there was no fire and that nobody knew who had rung the bell. A conclave was held and the pajama-clad folk decided that somebody was joking. A "word" poor joke it was too—they agreed.

During that day and through the next night the bell continued to ring at irregular intervals. This was carrying a joke too far. The residents of the "Y. M." organized and systematically watched every place where the bell could be rung. But the ringing continued. Spooks were in the house.

Finally, when everybody's patience had been exhausted, the entire bell wiring system was investigated and the ghosts were found. They were four-legged, long-tailed, sleek-skinned, sharp-eyed rats. The bell wire ran before one of their basement holes. In making the hole they had gnawed its insulation off and, now, every time they passed back and forth through that hole they made a connection and rang the bell. The voltage, however, was not strong enough to hurt the rats, any so the trouble could have continued indefinitely had its cause not been discovered.

"All sorts of material will be welcome, as long as it is original."

Augustus J. Fehrenbach '22, as a member of the Press club from before the war, having been absent from the university for three years, gave a toast, and Sterling Tracy '22 responded for the initiates.

The Press club luncheon for the high school editors who come here during the University Exposition, at which Gov. John J. Blaine will speak, was discussed by the president, and Charles MacInnis '22 told about the arrangements.

"Pi Nite," which will be held on April 23, was also taken up by the president, and the progress of the musical comedy, "Dear Darling," was reported on.

COLLEGE WOMEN CALL ON MRS. HARDING

Mrs. Harding with the group of college women before the White House.

Comstock, dean of Smith college; Mrs. Philip North Moore, president National Council of Women; Mrs. G. S. Martin, executive secretary of Association of College Alumnae; Mrs. M. A. Rosenberry, president Association of College Alumnae; Mrs. Harding, Miss M. L. Harkness, president Southern Association of College Women, and Miss Ellen Pendleton, president of Wellesley.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE IS BEGUN

Coach "Keg" Driver held the first football meeting of the season Tuesday evening in the gymnasium. Most of the members of last fall's freshman squad were present, in addition to the men who will return from the varsity squad.

Coach Driver outlined the work that is to be carried on at the spring practices, which will continue for one month following April 21. The fundamentals of the game will be taught and the candidates for the various positions will be grouped and placed under the supervision of former varsity men.

Prof. Warner Taylor, who has been appointed faculty football advisor, talked on the scholastic duties and requirements of athletes, and Coach T. E. Jones spoke of the value of spring practice. He stressed the fact that the fall training period is not of sufficient length to teach the fundamentals.

"Red" Weston, "Jim" Brader, and Ralph Scott will assist Coach Driver with the spring work.

FORESAW ENTRY OF MRS. HARDING TO WHITE HOUSE

Madame Marcia.

Madame Marcia, Washington astrologer, predicted some years ago that Mrs. Wilson—then Mrs. Galt—would some day be first lady of the U. S. Some time before the last presidential campaign she predicted that Mrs. Harding would succeed Mrs. Wilson as first lady.

GOOD BILL AT ORPH INCLUDES MILDRED ROGERS

"Step Lively," an artistic dance cycle with Miss Mildred Rogers and four men assistants, headlines a bill of unusual merit at the Orpheum this week.

Miss Rogers, a petite danseuse who possesses vivacity as well as technique, is ably assisted by Tommy McGuigan, Lou VanBlake, Jack Dorkin, Harry Young. The act might be called a dance revue because the quintet dance everything from a whirling, spiral eccentricity to the smooth and easy waltz. A good act.

In a farcical act, Miss Stella Tracy, a little woman with a big voice, and Carl McBride win lots of applause. The couple have some original patter pertaining to the delights of the newly divorced. Miss Tracy imitates Galli Cucini with as much fluency as she imitates the gawky girl in her first song recital. Mr. McBride has a genial smile and pleasing personality.

Never failing to win favor, Miss Jean Boydell is back with her grotesquely funny dances and eccentrically interpreted songs. Her version of Rebecca is her funniest.

Much better than the usual lingerie comedy "Shooping" affords Miss Ina Frederick and Howard Langford opportunity for much comedy.

Paul Nevins and Bob Mack, two "colored" men, spill some laugh-getting chatter and jig well.

The bill is opened by Frank and Eddie Monroe whose makeups are as funny as their bouncing antics.

It is raining in the Mississippi Valley and upper lake regions in a trough of low barometer. Partly cloudy and much colder weather follows the trough in the Missouri and Mississippi Valleys and on the plains.

At The Theaters

AT THE STRAND

"A Small Town Idol," one of the few six-reel Mack Sennett comedy dramas, is now being shown at the Strand theater. Ben Turpin is the village hero. Phyllis Haver is his small town ideal; Marie Prevost is the city-girl that befriends poor Ben when the home folks turn him down; Charlie Murray is the indefatigable constable; Jimmy Finlayson is the wretched villain who concocts all the trouble.

"A Small Town Idol" is an authentic story of a village youth, wrongfully accused, making good in the city and returning to find the villain espoused to his sweetheart and he (the hero) accused of murder. From all of which disasters the ingenuity of Mack Sennett and the skill of his players extricate Ben to the joyful clang of wedding bells.

"The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes," and Annette Kellerman in "The Art of Diving," will be the added attractions.

ENGINEERS SHOW GRAPHIC EXHIBIT

Many Electrical Tricks to Be Demonstrated at Expo

"A shop of wonders" might well be the sign hung outside the exhibit of the electrical engineers at the University Exposition. Many interesting tricks demonstrating the unique uses to which electricity can be put as well as the more serious and technical exhibits will be on display, according to R. E. Haubzsch chairman of that work.

A frying pan on a table and all one will have to do is put some eggs into it in order to have a fine breakfast, that is if you are an electrical engineer. This is one of the tricks planned for this exhibit. An electric light bulb set on the edge of an upright piece of plate glass and burning brightly with no wiring to be seen is another trick that will cause comment.

A large power plant which will supply the electricity for other exhibits as well as for this one is one of the chief demonstrations planned by this department. From four to five dynamo will generate the power and the plant itself will occupy 120 square feet.

From oil lamp to electric light will be shown in succeeding stages of development, the various parts of the electric light being shown in detail. The illumination display will also include a demonstration of the effect of various kinds of lights on colors.

What an ordinary telephone conversation looks like will be shown by throwing on the screen pictures of the sound waves produced. All parts of a telephone will be mounted on a panel and the workings explained, that people may understand just what happens when the telephone is used. Another educational demonstration will be of the electric meter which is commonly used in most houses today.

Map showing the development of hydraulic power in the state and the possibilities for future development, a relic of one of the first Edison dynamos, a telegraph display a model of one of the smallest dynamos in existence measuring one eighth of an inch and only able to be seen under a microscope, some very large dynamos, and figures showing the work done by the standards laboratory in standardizing electrical instrument used throughout the state are a few of the other exhibits to be included in this exhibit.

NO VACATION

Varsity Movie Cost to Work 15 Hours a day

Heroically giving up all sweet dreams of home and Morpheus the movie cast will work straight through vacation. From 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. every day the varsity stars will punch the time clock, working on a strictly professional basis. It is rumored that they will scarcely take time for the daily repast.

By working at top speed, the staff plans on having the picture finished by the end of vacation, and the film released here early in May. Interiors set in Belle's studio are being taken and will be "shot" during vacation. A few summer scenes are being held for foliage. It is now a matter of only a few weeks until the Wisconsin constellation will appear on the silver sheet—the first Varsity movie in the country.
