Cal and Ida Langholff No. Robert St. F.A.
June 22, 1992 Cal remembers L. as being very shy, quiet - a bookworm type. She was not a mingler - a loner - sensitive. Worked at Hoard's as a proof reader and office worker. Ida felt sorry for her because she was often in tears and had Ida call for someone to come get her.

Geraldine Moore Talcott Ave., F.A.
June 30, 1992 Geraldine remembers Lorine when she would stop in at Healthway Dairy to wait for her neighbor, Mary McAllister, who also lived on BlackHawk Isl., for a ride home. This would have been in the early fifties. (Lorine at Hoards until June 1950.) Geraldine knew that Mary McAllister was married, but she could not recall her married name. (Mary McAllister had married Joseph Mackovic; she lived on BlackHawk Isl. She died Feb. 10, 1994 while a patient at Countryside Home in Jefferson,)

Joan Beaver (Wm.J.) 563-2028
