THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

The University of Wisconsin System started its twenty-second anniversary in the fall of 1992. The system was chartered in October 1877 by a law granting all of the state's public university campuses under a single board of Regents. The system is composed of 12 universities and 11 two-year technical colleges, and encompasses nearly 100,000 students, 100,000 employees, 100,000 acres of land, and 100,000 buildings. The system is the largest state university system in the nation and has played a leading role in developing advanced and high quality programs and activities in a wide range of fields.

1993-94

Twenty-Seventh Edition

The 27th edition of the Wisconsin State University Conference RECORDS BOOK is dedicated to retiring Commissioner Max R. Sparger, who guided the nine-school league for the past 22 years. It is presented as a means of informing the educators, writers, broadcasters and staff of the excellence of athletic competition displayed by teams and individual student-athletes of member institutions. This booklet is published annually to provide a record of all sports in the Conference-sponsored program.

It is the function of the Wisconsin State University Conference to encourage intercollegiate athletics on an amateur basis, with institutional control, and under the instruction of coaches who have faculty status, in order to assure maximum educational benefit from intercollegiate athletic contests among the member institutions.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

The University of Wisconsin System marked its twenty-second anniversary in the fall of 1993. The UW System was created in October 1971 by a law placing all of the state's public university campuses under a single Board of Regents. The UW System is composed of 13 universities and 13 two-year UW Centers, and UW-Extension which provides outreach services from offices in every county. Although only 22 years old, the UW System was one of the first statewide higher educational systems in the nation and has pioneered in developing coordinated and high quality programs and services on a statewide basis. System administrative offices are in Madison.

Universities are at Eau Claire, Green Bay, La Crosse, Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Kenosha (Parkside), Platteville, River Falls, Stevens Point, Menomonie (Stout), Superior and Whitewater. Centers are at Baraboo, Fond du Lac, Janesville, Manitowoc, Marinette, Marshfield, Menasha, Rice Lake, Richland Center, Sheboygan, Waukesha, Wausau, and West Bend.

MAX R. SPARGER, RETIRING COMMISSIONER OF ATHLETICS

Max R. Sparger was named athletic commissioner of the Wisconsin State University Conference in July of 1971, succeeding Fred Jacoby. He announced his retirement in March of 1993, effective July 15, 1993.

Sparger has experienced a varied and successful career in athletics as a participant, coach, administrator and official.

A native of Wichita Falls, Texas, Sparger was a member of the UW-Stout athletic staff from 1959 to 1971, and athletic director his last two years there.

The Commissioner grew up in St. Paul Park, Minnesota, graduating from high school there in 1952. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1956 from Dubuque (Iowa) University, where he played football and wrestled during his college career.

Following graduation from college, Sparger coached high school and junior college sports in Fort Dodge, Iowa, leaving to join the Stout staff as assistant football and basketball coach in 1959. He received his master's degree in education from Macalester College, St. Paul, Minnesota, in 1961, and since then has done advanced work at the University of Minnesota.

He became head football coach in 1963, and was selected to receive an award for "Outstanding Teaching" during that year. He guided Stout to a Conference championship in 1965, after which he was named "Coach of the Year" in N.A.I.A. District 14. He gave up his football coaching duties after becoming athletic director in 1969.

Sparger was inducted into the UW-Stout "Hall of Fame" in 1980, and into the NAIA District 14 "Hall of Fame" in 1985.

Don Page, SUPERVISOR OF WSUC OFFICIALS

Don Page retired as UW-River Falls athletic director in 1992 following a varied career in athletics as a player, coach, administrator and official. The Madison native starred in five sports at West High School (football, basketball, tennis, track and volleyball) and went on to win letters in basketball and tennis at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

He earned All-Big Eight Conference honors in football and basketball twice when the Regents won titles in each sport both years. He won the conference basketball scoring championship twice and sparked West to the WIAA state basketball championship in 1945. He also won the Big Eight tennis singles championship twice.

Page earned his Bachelor's degree from the UW-Madison in 1950 and his Master's from there in 1953. While an undergraduate he was a regular forward on the 1949-50 Badger basketball team that compiled a 17-5 record and finished second in the Big Ten Conference.

Following coaching stints at Edgerton and Madison West High Schools, Page was head basketball, baseball and tennis coach at UW-River Falls and served as the university's athletic director from 1970 to 1992.

Page has been an active football official from 1949 to the present time and officiated a basketball from 1949 until 1982. He taught two officiating classes at UW-River Falls for 30 years and served as an official observer of football and basketball officials in the WSUC for 22 years.

He developed the "Football Course Outline" for the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association and is a member of the National Federation Interscholastic Officials Association. He recently received "Distinguished Service Awards" from the Wisconsin High School Football Coaches Association, the National Federation of Interscholastic Coaches Association, and the Pierce/St. Croix Officials Association. He was inducted into the Madison Sports Hall of Fame in 1988.

Page is probably the only person in Wisconsin history to play (1945 champions), coach (1957 runnerup) and officiate (1968, '70, '72, '73, '74) in the WIAA State High School Boys Basketball Tournament.

He also officiated the first WIAA Class A Girls Basketball Championship game in 1976 and has worked Shrine All-Star and State High School Football Playoffs.

TOM BUTLER, SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR

Tom Butler joined the WSUC staff part-time May 1, 1967, to assist the Commissioner with the dissemination of sports information. The Madison native graduated from East High School in 1942.

Following three years in the Navy during World War II, he received a B.A. degree in journalism from the UW-Madison in January of 1950. After working as sports editor of the Stevens Point Daily Journal and the Daily Jefferson County Union (Fort Atkinson), Butler joined the Wisconsin State Journal as a sports writer February 1, 1953. He retired from the State Journal June 30, 1987. He covered practically every Badger athletic team at one time or another and wrote a regular sports column for 26 years.

Butler is the author of "The Badger Game," a reflection on UW-Madison football from Mickey McGuire to Al Toon. The book recounts highlights from some 55 years of Badger football and includes stories about many of the great teams and players during that span. Butler covered Badger football as his principal "beat" at the State Journal for 25 years.

Fall Scholar-Athletes

La Crosse's Brad Bayer and Eau Claire's Steve Rohrscheib were named Wisconsin State University Conference Scholar-Athletes at the completion of the fall sports season. Bayer, a senior from La Crosse (Central), was honored among conference cross country runners, and Rohrscheib, a senior from Mondovi, was chosen from football nominees. Rohrscheib, a Blugold quarterback, then signed a free agent contract with the Green Bay Packers in April.

Harring, Christensen Honored

La Crosse's Roger Harring and Roland Christensen, who guided the Eagles to the WSUC and NCAA Division III football championships in 1992, shared the conference football coach of the year award voted by their peers. Christensen replaced Harring after the latter underwent heart surgery early in the season.

Jason Janke Most Valuable Gridder

La Crosse split end Jason Janke was named the Wisconsin State University Conference's football most valuable player for 1992. He was accorded that honor by the Milwaukee Journal and WSUC football coaches. The Eagles won the WSUC and NCAA Division III championships.

Besides leading the conference in pass receiving, the 6-foot, 185-pound senior from Black River Falls exhibited outstanding leadership as team captain while earning a 3.4 grad point average out of 4.0 as a secondary education major. He used his speed, quickness and exceptional hands to catch 46 passes in seven conference games, scoring seven touchdowns and averaging 15.5 yards for each reception.

Eagles Win National Championship

Wisconsin State University Conference champion La Crosse capped its most successful football season in 39 years by defeating Washington & Jefferson (Pa.), 16-12, Dec. 12, 1992, for the NCAA Division III National Championship. The Eagles completed a 12-0-1 season with their victory in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl at Bradenton, Fla. It was La Crosse's first national football title since winning the NAIA Division II championship in 1985, when the Eagles defeated Pacific Lutheran, 24-7, in the title game.

PREVIEW OF 1993 WSUC FOOTBALL SEASON

Wisconsin State University Conference football coaches find it difficult to project any team but defending champion La Crosse as the favorite heading into the 1993 season.

The Eagles rolled up a 12-0-1 record on the way to the NCAA Division III national championship last December. They defeated Washington & Jefferson, 16-12, in the Stag Bowl at Bradenton, Fla., for the title. The only blemish on their record was a 21-21 tie with River Falls, a tough conference rival.

Three reasons La Crosse looks strong at the outset can be found on last fall's all-conference team--quarterback Jason Gonnion, fullback John Janke and offensive center Dave Bauer. All three will be seniors this year. Gonnion, from Beaver Dam, completed 104 of 177 passes for 1,650 yards and 15 touchdowns with only four interceptions in seven conference games.

Janke, from Black River Falls, averaged 71 yards a game and 5.9 yards a carry rushing last season, while Bauer, from Marshfield, anchored a line that enabled the Eagles to average 432 yards total offense a game, best in the conference.

Rich Schaaf of Janesville, a 6-5, 265-pound all-conference defensive lineman, is scheduled to return and spearhead that side of the football for the Eagles. Numerous backups also return to shore up a defense that ranked third in the conference last fall.

La Crosse head coach Roger Harring missed most of last season following heart surgery. His chief assistant, Roland Christensen, stepped in and the pair shared conference "coach-of-the-year" honors. They will form a strong tandem again this season. Harring is expected back in charge with Christensen more than carrying his share of the load again.

Coaching changes could have a major impact on the conference. Chief aide Jim Kinder took the reins at Platteville after George Chryst's death shocked the conference and state last December. Stout's fortunes will be under the direction of Ed Meierkort, former Southwest (MN) State mentor, following the departure of Rich Lawrence.

Greg Polnasek starts his second year at the Eau Claire helm and other returning coaches are Oshkosh's Ron Cardo, River Falls' John O'Grady, Stevens Point's John Miech and Whitewater's Bob Berezowitz. Superior dropped football after playing only two non-conference games last season, so the WSUC will be operating with eight teams again this year. Most teams have hustled around to land a third non-conference game to fill the void left in their schedules by the departure of Superior.

Whitewater finished second to La Crosse last season with a 5-2 record, 8-2 overall, and the Warhawks should challenge the Eagles again. Berezowitz again can call upon junior Spencer Johnson of Madison (Memorial), the WSUC's leading rusher last year, as well as defenders Talmadge Kimmons of Chicago and Tim DeForest of Cambridge.

Stevens Point and River Falls also expect to challenge. The Pointers have quarterback Roger Hauri of Richmond, Ill., and running back Jimmy Henderson of Milwaukee to lead their offense. O'Grady faces huge problems replacing some key performers at River Falls.

Polnasek got a big lift last season when his Bugolds upset Whitewater, 35-13, and he hopes to build on that optimistic high from a year ago. Cardo still is searching for the key to regain Oshkosh's glory years, while Platteville under Kinder figures to continue Chryst's wing-T as its major offense.

Stevens Point's attack, with Henderson, should keep the Pointers up with the chief contenders but Miech must fill some holes in the defense. Meierkort will be battling the usual numbers game at Stout while he builds the Blue Devils back to respectability.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

Coach Greg Polnasek's first Blugold squad last fall produced a 4-5 record, 3-4 in the conference. The highlight came in the seventh game when the Blugolds whipped Whitewater, 35-13. "We had an improved season over the year before but I think we're really a program that will continue to improve," Polnasek contends.

The loss of eight lettermen might hurt slightly, but a solid returning group will be a key asset for the Blugolds. "We lost five quality starters and leaders," Polnasek said. "Our biggest challenge is to have this senior class come in, work hard and play well." Eddie Bray, Mike Mitra and Pete Khanna are among those returning seniors on offense.

Bray doubles as a wide receiver and punter/kicker. Mitra is a four-year starter at offensive guard. Khanna returns as a two-year starter at tight end. "They are big play people and are all leaders," the coach added. Competition will be the key at quarterback. Steve Rohrscheib, a second-team all-conference performer who signed a free-agent contract with the Green Bay Packers, is expected to be replaced by Derek Schutz, who saw limited action last fall.

Returning junior Matt Annis, a two-year starter, is expected to fill the void left by graduated Aaron Meixner. Reserves Rick Crutchley and Jim Gabriel will move up and backups figure to be sophomores Terry Martin, Chad Buss, Andy Mikkelsen and Chris Matlock.

Returning seniors on defense include Chris Gennrich, Tyler Glaser, Todd Hoytink and Craig Jilek. The latter returns after sitting out last year with an injury. "We look for their leadership to put us in a position to win," Polnasek said.

"We'll have to be a mature team coming out of the preseason because of the number of road games that start the season. Our attitude has grown. We do know how hard you have to play and prepare to be competitive."

Since the Blugolds have a number of road games early, coming out of the preseason will be important. Polnasek looks to the season with much optimism. "We've got another step to take and I know we will work hard toward doing this," he concluded.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

Carrying the favorite tag is "old hat" for La Crosse football teams. This year is no exception, particularly with the Eagles coming off their second straight WSUC title as well as being defending NCAA Division III champions. The fact that coach Roger Harring possesses an experienced squad loaded with talent accentuates the positive. Harring is starting his 25th year as Eagles head coach and he would like to make this another memorable season.

Start with the offense, which returns seven starters, including the proverbial strength down the middle featuring center Dave Bauer, quarterback Jason Gonnion and running back John Janke. All three earned first-team all-conference recognition last season.

Gonnion ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency last fall, completing 127 of 219 passes for 1,904 yards and 17 touchdown with just five interceptions. He also was named to the Football Gazette All-America second team. His backups will be John Donahue and Craig Kuskic.

Janke led the Eagles in rushing for the third straight season with 692 yards on 123 carries, including 10 touchdowns. He currently ranks fifth on La Crosse's all-time career rushing list with 2,437 yards and third with 29 rushing touchdowns. He also plays another key role catching passes out of the backfield and ranks third on the school's receiving list with 94 catches.

Janke won't be alone in the running department. Sophomore Ben Murray possesses the quickness and speed to run outside and could be the Eagles' "big play" running back. The receiving corps, particularly Derek Schaefer and Paul Kling, must pick up the slack after the departure of Jason Janke, the WSUC's most valuable player last year.

Bauer will anchor an offensive line that features veteran tackles Andy Kohlhoff and Rich Jacquemart. The defense has five starters back, including 6-5, 265-pound tackle Rick Schaaf, a three year letterwinner, and cornerback Scott Amond.

"Being a national champion is certainly going to step up the motivation level of other teams," Harring conceded, "but that doesn't change anything for us. Each year we're one of the top teams in the league and the motivation to beat La Crosse is always high. We will have to counter that by playing our best."

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

The Titans experienced a season last year coach Ron Cardo would prefer to forget. They failed to win a conference game and their only victory came in the opener against St. Norbert, 20-14. Everything went down the drain after that as seven conference opponents outscored them, 232-98.

Cardo has some shaking up to do, particularly on defense where Stout was the only team to yield more yards and points than Oshkosh. Six starters return on defense and they will form the nucleus around whom to rebuild. These are end Todd Breuer, tackle Pat Fee, linebackers Tim Gilkey and Rick Grable and backs Tom Loper and Tim Zima.

Offensively on paper the Titans should field a respectable attacking unit that features quarterback Greg DePagter, wide receiver Rodd Reineking and running back Jason Tarkowski. Reineking, a 6-2, 180-pound senior, is the only Titan to receive all-conference recognition last year and he made the second offensive team. Punter Rick Grable, linebacker Mark Meyer and DePagter made honorable mention. Grable will be back to punt this fall but Meyer has graduated.

DePagter passed for 1,080 yards and nine touchdowns in seven conference games last year and added 97 yards rushing. Reineking caught three of those scoring passes and grabbed 31 throws in seven outings. Joining Reineking on the other side of the line is Rob Stoltz, who caught 16 passes, including four for touchdowns. This pair gives DePagter two good targets at the outset.

Tarkowski was a workhorse in the backfield, running the ball more than any back in the conference. But, he needs help to provide the Titans with a more diversified ground attack. The 6-foot, 225-pound junior has the size, strength and speed to be one of the conference's premier running backs. Don Bianco, Mike Lindholm and Steve Yazawa figure to provide Tarkowski with some backup support this fall.

The Titans ranked fifth offensively in 1992, averaging 283 yards a game total offense. They must improve on that to move up among the conference contenders. A heavy burden falls on returning offensive linemen, who include tackles Erick Blaha, Nick DeLuca, Dan Goosherst and Ray Kortbein, guards Mike Bond and Paul Kordus and center Burke Griffin. Cardo also needs to build a strong reserve corps for backups in the grueling conference race ahead.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

Pioneer football entered a new era last winter when the torch was passed to Jim Kinder following the shocking death of veteran head coach George Chryst. Kinder welcomes 52 lettermen as he strives to improve on Platteville's streak of seven consecutive winning seasons. They were 5-5 last fall, 4-3 and tied for fourth in the WSUC.

"We have a good nucleus of starters returning, especially on defense," said Kinder. "We face a difficult schedule early and will rely on that defense to give our offense a chance to come together. Offensively we lost a lot of players but we also have some key people like Rob Dal Santo and Bill Altmann to build around."

The Pioneers return six starters on offense and will count heavily on junior fullback Dal Santo to lead the attack. He gained 829 yards rushing on 185 carries and scored six touchdowns in 1992. A durable back, Dal Santo collected 1,535 yards rushing in his first two seasons with the Pioneers.

Altmann started six games at quarterback last season before a knee injury sidelined him. He hopes to improve his passing this fall. He will be operating behind three experienced linemen in guards Pat Murphy and Mike Pitcel and center Jeff Bunch. Split end Russ Jacques and tight end Greg Robers give Altmann some experienced receivers.

Most of the key defenders return, led by linebacker John Witt, end Tom Witt, tackle Randy Tuthill and secondary veterans Eric Sacharski, Joel Dettwiler, Eric Wynn, Randy Kleinhans and Ryan Reed. Kinder also is assured of an experienced kicking game with punter Ken Seymour and placekicker Sacharski.

Platteville's defense ranked second in the conference against the rush with John Witt a major contributor. His 69 tackles ranked second among the Pioneers. The two other linebacker positions will be up for grabs with heated battles expected during preseason workouts.

Kinder almost certainly would have dreamed up a different scenario for his baptism as head coach other than the first four games against Dayton, River Falls, La Crosse and Whitewater. The opener at Dayton pits the Pioneers against a team which begins its first season as an NCAA Division 1-AA school.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

Riding on the success of the 1992 season, coach John O'Grady and his Falcons will try to accomplish even more during the coming campaign. The 1992 Falcons finished with a 6-2-1 overall record and were 4-2-1 in the WSUC, good for third place. Some 45 returning letterwinners should make O'Grady's job an easier one.

"One of our biggest strengths is the attitude of the players and coaches," O'Grady said, assessing the coming season. "If we can maintain that attitude this fall, anything can happen."

Six offensive and six defensive starters return. The coach believes the team's secondary, middle linebackers, wide receivers, offensive backfield, punters and kickers all all strengths in the overall picture of the Falcons.

Defensively, middle linebacker Steve Walker returns after leading the Falcons in tackles last year. Ryan Sinn also returns in the middle after a great rookie year. Shannon Humbert, Eddie Simes and Kurt Knuth will shore up the secondary.

In the offensive backfield fullback Kyle Scholz led the team in rushing. Halfback Chris Yerk returns after a fine performance a year ago. Quarterback Adam Kowles started a couple of games last year and will handle the Falcons wishbone attack in 1993. Center Rob Nutt, guard James Jackman and tackle Jon Smithback will anchor the line.

O'Grady must find replacements in the offensive and defensive lines and at outside linebacker. Placekicker Sam Dummer and punter Guy Osterfeld both return. Yerk will handle the majority of the punt and kickoff returns.

The Falcons picked up a 10th game at Alma College in Michigan on Sept. 25 to fill the gap left when Superior dropped football. The game will be played on astroturf, which will be new to the Falcons. "We hope to play well in our three non-conference games and then have a week off before entering the major portion of the WSUC schedule," O'Grady emphasized.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

A 5-4 record might look mediocre to most observers, but Pointer head coach John Miech realizes that his 1992 squad was a whisker away from winning the WSUC title and most likely earning a post-season berth. A two-point loss to eventual NCAA Division III champion La Crosse and a one-point defeat at the hands of league runnerup Whitewater on back-to-back weekends soured what seemed a very good season.

Bolstering Miech's hopes for 1993 is the return of several key individuals. On offense, leading rusher Jimmy Henderson is back to spearhead an attack that accounted for the program's highest rushing total since the 1970s. Behind Henderson is a backfield full of young talent, including Dave Schopf, Todd Schoenherr and Dustin Bussan.

Henderson should finish his career as Stevens Point's No. 2 all-time rusher and break the school's rushing touchdown record. He has 18 heading into this season.

When not running the ball, the Pointers will look to three-year starter Roger Hauri at quarterback passing to the likes of all-American sprinter and former UW-Madison wideout Tim Ott and reliable Kevin O'Brien on the outside and rugged Scott Zwirschitz at tight end. The line also remains virtually intact.

Hauri has moved into the elite in Stevens Point's career passing statistics, ranking fifth in total offense yardage, passing yardage and touchdown passes.

On defense, all-American defensive back Randy Simpson leads the way with steady Mark Leidel and Clayt Birmingham filling out that corps. The Pointers lose the services of graduated Andy Chilcote at linebacker but return versatile Pete Deates and relentless Josh Schultz. Jerry Versteegen leads a young crew inside from his noseguard spot and is backed by defensive end Bret Hamner.

Losing to La Crosse and Whitewater by a total of three points naturally plagued the Pointers throughout the offseason, when they thought about what might have been. But, equally disturbing was the 44-24 setback at the hands of River Falls in the season finale. Miech and his assistants probably thought about that loss during the winter as much as the two squeakers. Keeping the Pointers focused on every game will be a priority for the coaches this year.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

Like Platteville, Stout's football program will labor under new "management" this year. Rich Lawrence was relieved of his coaching duties last November following the Blue Devils' 2-7 season, 1-6 in the conference.

In announcing Lawrence's termination Ed Biggerstaff, dean of the School of Education and Human Services, stated in part: "Football is an important element of UW-Stout's athletic program and, thus, requires a proper mix of leadership relative to the other team sports we support."

Stout's administration sought new leadership and decided on Ed Meierdort, a 10-year coaching veteran from Southwest (MN) State, to take the reins. The new mentor inherits a quarterback, Brian Anundsen, who has the potential to become a solid performer around whom to build the offense. He averaged 138 yards a game passing in the conference last fall, completing 106 of 212 throws.

Most difficult to replace for Meierkort will be running back Rich Vargas and offensive guard Jason Roettger, the latter a first-team all-conference performer. Injuries hobbled Vargas most of last season but he still averaged 77 yards a game rushing and gained over five yards a carry in each of his last three seasons.

Meierkort hopes some of the rushing slack can be picked up by Travis DeFlorian, who enjoyed a productive freshman season last year. Another promising spot in the offense could be at wide receiver, where senior Louis Quick returns after catching 30 passes in seven conference games last fall.

Defensively the Blue Devils are led by back Bill Wozney and linebacker Chris Lindner. Wozney led Stout with 49 tackles, including 38 solos, and four pass interceptions last season. Depth again will be a problem on defense as well as offense.

"We need to overcome early schedule woes and stay injury free to be a competitive team in the WSUC," Meierkort said. "If we can win an early game, we have a chance to win some games that we haven't in the past." Lawrence found that winning late games became a problem when injuries struck his usually thin ranks.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993

Last season was supposed to be a rebuilding year for the Warhawks, who had shared second place in 1991. Still, coach Bob Berezowitz guided his team to another runnerup finish, this time sole possession of that spot. The Warhawks lost to eventual champion La Crosse, 13-3, and was shocked by Eau Claire, 35-13, for their only conference setbacks.

The major strength for Whitewater is that the offense returns practically intact, headed by quarterback Bryan Pytleski, running back Spencer Johnson and tackle Dave Lang, a 6-3, 310-pound senior. Lang and Johnson were first-team all-conference selections last season.

Pytleski, a 6-4, 198-pounder, started every game as a sophomore a year ago. He completed 90 of 198 passes with nine touchdown throws and only six interceptions, while averaging 130.6 yards per game. Johnson led the conference in rushing last season, running for 646 yards and scoring six touchdowns in seven games. He gained over 1,000 yards in all games.

The defense features tackle Talmadge Kimmons, second team all-conference last season, and senior defensive backs Tim DeForest and John Forchette. DeForest received 123 defensive points in the Warhawk coaches' ratings last year, breaking up 11 passes and intercepting two. Forchette managed 124 points. He broke up five passes and had 34 solo tackles.

Top newcomers expected to help immediately this fall include junior college transfer guard Troy Hansen along with running back Chris McKinney, offensive lineman Joel Horbt and linebacker Derek Ripp, all reshirt freshmen.

The Warhawks start this season with three tough road games, two non-conference outings at Central Missouri and Upper Iowa and the WSUC opener at Stevens Point. Berezowitz considers major problems are to develop team depth and unity and to play at the same level for all 10 games. The latter undoubtedly alludes to the disaster at Eau Claire last fall. That loss was a major disappointment in an otherwise strong showing.

PREVIEW OF THE 1993-94 BASKETBALL SEASONWISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

An exciting basketball race looms in the Wisconsin State University Conference for a variety of reasons. First, there will be a considerable turnover of personnel. Many new players have a chance to emerge from the shadow of departing seniors such as Platteville's T.J. Van Wie and Stevens Point's Jack Lothian, who have been dominant performers the past three years.

Only three of the top 10 scorers in the WSUC last season return for the 1993-94 campaign. These are Whitewater's Ty Evans, Stout's Pete Binelas and La Crosse's John Wittmershaus. Among the missing, besides Van Wie and Lothian, is Oshkosh's Scott Pritzl, the conference's leading scorer with a 21.6-point average last season.

Nine of the second 10 leading scorers are back, though. So, these are the people who will have a big say in how their teams succeed or regress in the coming season. It's a fact, though, Eau Claire, Platteville and Whitewater, always among the WSUC elite, all have two of those returnees each in the second tier of scorers, the Bugolds with Billy Van Wie and Todd Stepanek, the Pioneers with Ernie Peavy and R.A. Caves and the Warhawks with Jay McGregory and Mike Janssen.

The three others in the second tier are River Falls' Brian Menzel, Stout's Randy Neve and Superior's Rick Carl. McGregory and Janssen, along with Evans, give Whitewater coach Dave Vander Meulen a leg up on the rest of the league and should propel them back into a contending role.

Stevens Point, defending co-champion with Platteville, appears at first glance to have suffered most from graduation. Don't buy that. Coach Bob Parker is convinced returnees and recruits will keep his Pointers among contenders with their new running game. Especially important is the return of guard Andy Boario, who should be back 100 percent after missing half of last season with a broken hand.

The Pointers have a regular season record of 45-5 over the last two seasons and need 17 victories to reach the 1,000 win mark in the history of the program, which began in 1897. Boario needs 42 points to become the 18th Pointer with 1,000 career points.

NCAA basketball rules changes, too, should add to the excitement in the conference this season, particularly reducing the time on the shot clock from 45 to 35 seconds. Proponents feel that 35 seconds on the shot clock will keep game action more continuous and at the same time allow more conservative teams to still use ball control.

The rules committee also voted to stop the game clock after made field goals in the last minutes of the game and the last minute of any overtime period. The rule prohibits substitute players from entering the game in this dead-ball situation. The committee also voted to delete the five-second dribbling violation while closely guarded, saying it was unnecessary due to the reduction of the shot clock.

Conference coaches still see Eau Claire, Platteville, Stevens Point and Whitewater dominating the first division with La Crosse, Oshkosh, River Falls, Stout and Superior again trying to crack that elite group. As La Crosse coach Charlie Gross said, "The rich stay rich and the poor try to fit in there."

Eau Claire has changed its affiliation from the NAIA to NCAA Division III, ending a long association that has seen the Bugolds make 15 trips to the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City in Ken Anderson's 25 years as head coach. This, too, should liven the drive for post-season berths. Stout coach John Muraski said, "I'm looking forward to another challenging year for our team. It should be a very balanced league this year and it will be interesting to see how the teams adjust to the new rules and, also, see how many teams from our league get invites to the Division III tourney."

Another fact of life in the WSUC will be repeated this season. The eventual conference champion will find the road through those 16 league games no cakewalk.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

The Bugolds lost only two seniors from last season's 19-7 squad, but both Willie Green and Mike Hatch were all-conference performers. "We had two seniors who played very well for us," veteran coach Ken Anderson said. "We'll have to pick up the slack, but we've got a sufficient amount of experience back."

The three returning starters are senior Todd Stepanek and juniors Jeremy Nicolet and Billy Van Wie. Stepanek averaged 9.8 points last season and had a 68.3 field goal percentage. He also grabbed 4.6 rebounds per game, second on the team to Hatch's 6.8. Nicolet scored 9.0 points a game and Van Wie 11.6, best among returnees.

Returning bench players, junior Steve Berchild and sophomores Jase Graber and Dennis James, figure to play major roles. Berchild, the Bugolds' second best three-pointer percentage shooter (40.3), is a leading guard candidate. Anderson is looking for someone to complement Berchild in the backcourt.

Important contributions are expected from healed transfer 6-11 sophomore John Schmiesing and freshmen Jeff LeClaire and Andy Bauschelt. Schmiesing sat out last year with an injury. LeClaire averaged 20 points a game during his career at La Crosse Aquinas High School, including 25.5 his senior year.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

La Crosse, a perennial football and track power in the WSUC and nationally, has not won a basketball championship since the teams of 1964 and '65 put titles back to back. Second-year coach Charlie Gross is trying to boost the basketball program up there with the gridders and thinclads.

The Eagles finished eighth in the conference last season with a 2-14 record and were 5-20 overall. Gross lost five lettermen from that squad, the most prominent being Theo Howard, Dave Shaw and Ryan Gannon. Howard averaged 9.2 points and 5.4 rebounds a game last season, Shaw 8.7 and 3.0 and Gannon 8.6 and 4.2.

John Wittmershaus, a 6-6, 230-pound junior forward, is the leading returnee. He was the most productive among the Eagles last season, averaging 14.3 points and 5.4 rebounds and earning all-conference honorable mention. He forms the nucleus around whom Gross hopes to build a more respectable contender this season.

A second year in Gross' system should help Wes Warren, Paul Gloudemans, Chris VandeVort, Sean Seeser, Dave Buchanan, Todd Stoffel and Duane Stich as well as Wittmershaus. Gross is constantly looking for size, experience, talent and depth that he knows are necessary for the Eagles to reach that next level in the always demanding WSUC.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

The Titans made a surprising surge last season behind the scoring of Scott Pritzl, finishing in a tie for fourth place with Whitewater at 10-6 in the conference. Coach Ted Van Dellen would like to rev up the Titans and reach the next level this season, but that could be a tall order without Pritzl.

Pritzl won the conference scoring title in 1992-93 with 346 points and a 21.6 average. He was the only one in the WSUC to score more than 300 points. He sparked the Titans with his long-range marksmanship, sinking 64 three-point shots in 16 conference games. The year before he averaged 12.7 points and finished 17th in scoring.

Van Dellen does have nine returning veterans who figure to keep Oshkosh in the hunt, including sophomores Dennis Ruedinger, Forrest Olson, Brent Nerat and Chris Braman, and seniors Morgan Burdette, Todd Hencsik, Andy Conrad, Glenn Engles and Derek Hamilton. Ruedinger had the best free throw percentage (.889) in the conference last season and Hamilton shared the assist lead with 4.2 dishes a game.

The Titans should be a good rebounding team again this season. They averaged 39.2 rebounds a game in 16 conference outings with Conrad picking off 6.1 a game. The key is finding someone to pick up the scoring slack left by Pritzl's departure. It might be Ruedinger, who should be much improved after his freshman year of adjustment.

Oshkosh, once a basketball power with three conference championships in the 1960s, has won but once since 1968 and that title came in 1978. Van Dellen hopes his Titans will build toward that goal this winter.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

Bo Ryan is starting the 10th season of his highly successful tenure as the Pioneers' head coach. Last season the Pioneers shared the conference championship with Stevens Point and just missed another trip to the NCAA Division III Final Four. Now Platteville returnees are anxious to get started because they're shooting for the stars again.

Seven lettermen will lead the pack, including three starters--forward Ernie Peavy, center R.A. Caves and guard Tim O'Connell. Peavy averaged 13 points a game in the conference in 1992-93, Caves 11.8 and O'Connell 9.2. Lettermen Andre Dalton, Aaron Lancaster, John Paulsen and Kevin Roddick are leading candidates for other starting assignments.

The biggest void was left by the departure of all-American point guard T.J. Van Wie. He was the fourth leading scorer in the conference last season, averaging 17.4 points a game, and was considered a coach on the floor for the Pioneers.

The tradition built by Ryan the past nine years, which features a relentless full-court pressure defense, is a major strength as the Pioneers open their title defense. Repeating that 24-4 record could be tough, but young recruits Erik Holmgren (Monona), Jamie Leifker (Cuba City) and Scott Borroughs (Verona) could be a big help in keeping Platteville's tradition alive.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

Coach Rick Bowen is facing a massive rebuilding program with the Falcons, who finished sixth in the conference with a 6-10 record last season and were 13-12 overall. He is looking for replacements to fill the void left by the departure of Chris Korba and John Quinn, who averaged 15.5 and 10.3 points, respectively, last season.

Brian Menzel, a 5-10 senior guard who averaged 12.2 points a game last season, is the most prominent of eight returning lettermen. Craig Mell, a 6-7 senior, has the first shot at center with Howard Crutcher, Jeff Berkhof, Rick Ehrman, Aaron Till, Justin Steivang and Greg Smith battling for the starting forward jobs.

Nobody but Menzel among the Falcons has any appreciable experience in the backcourt. So, Bowen's recruiting efforts probably will emphasize help at the guard spots. Crutcher and Ehrman have some experience in the backcourt and are the most likely candidates to team with Menzel among returning lettermen.

When asked for team strengths, Bowen said, "I'm not real sure we have any at this time." He based this assessment on the Falcons' major problems, which he listed as "lack of experience, depth and talent." He could become more optimistic by the opening tipoff if the right recruits show up for preseason practice.

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

The Pointers are looking for a third straight WSUC championship. They won the undisputed title in 1992 and shared the crown with Platteville last season. That's going to take a major rebuilding project because coach Bob Parker lost his three key people inside--Jack Lothian, Justin Freier and Scott Frye.

Lothian, 7-0, and Freier, 6-9, earned all-conference recognition last March. Lothian averaged 15.8 points and 8.1 rebounds a game. Freier averaged just 7.9 points and 4.4 rebounds, but he made over 70 percent of his field goal attempts, 56 of 79 shots. In their place Parker hopes will emerge a new Pointer style that takes advantage of talented backcourt players and small forwards.

Leading the way is Andy Boario, who missed half of last season with a broken hand. Boario has been and will continue to be the quarterback for the club. His is capable of hitting the long shot with consistency and driving the lane to create offense. Don Edwards brings exceptional athletic ability to the small forwards spot, while Gabe Miller and Tim Sennett are strong leaders noted for their all-out hustle.

"We are as strong, if not stronger, than any team in the league at the guard and small forward position," Parker said. "Our style will be markedly different from the past four seasons because our big men are gone and we've got people returning who like to take it up the court."

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

Coach John Muraski has six lettermen, including four starters, returning this season and he starts preseason with great optimism. The Blue Devils finished seventh in the conference last season with a 5-11 record and were 11-14 overall. The coach expects his experienced veterans and promising newcomers to move up in the race this season.

Returning starters are guards Zak Alwin and Randy Neve, forward Pete Binelas and center Matt Pelland. Binelas ranked third in conference scoring last season with 286 points and a 17.9 average and Pelland led the WSUC in rebounding, picking off 8.9 caroms a game. Neve averaged 10.6 points and Alwin 9.8. The missing starter, forward James Taylor, and his 14.2 points and 5.5 rebounds will be tough to replace.

But, Muraski said, "This is the first time we will have three quality seniors, who came through the program. They started all the games as freshmen. Our inside game with Binelas and Pelland would be good. I look for strong guard play also from Alwin and Neve. We have a lot of experience on this team."

Depth could be a problem for the Blue Devils but Murawki is confident his recruiting efforts should take care of the deficiency. He is looking for an extremely competitive season and said, "I'm looking forward to another challenging year for our team. It should be a very balanced league this year and it will be interesting to see how the teams adjust to the new rules."

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

This is the year coach Glenn Carlson hopes his Yellowjackets can make some waves in the WSUC basketball race. They managed only one victory in the conference last season and just two in a 25-game schedule, but there is cause for optimism for the coming campaign if the right things fall into place.

Lettermen Bob Bissell and Greg Breaux have graduated but four returning starters bring a wealth of experience. These include Rick Carl and Brian Larson. Carl averaged 10.6 points a game in the conference, turned in the most consistent performance game in and game out and was voted Superior's most valuable player.

Carlson is hoping his returning starters will be bolstered by three promising transfers. These are 6-6 Jeremy Hallstem from Esko, 6-0 Don Stahl from St. Croix Falls, and 6-6 Chris Dettman from Hibbing, Minn., "If our recruiting class delivers and we play well early, we will get someone this year," Carlson mused.

Superior returnees paid their dues in the rugged WSUC last season but they must show exceptional improvement to contend for the first division. "Our rebounding intensity must improve for us to be successful this year," Carlson emphasized. "And, our ability to score down the stretch has to improve."

PROSPECTS FOR 1993-94

The Warhawks are trying to recapture the championship flair that has been missing since the 1989 season. The 1992-93 campaign saw them tie for fourth place with a 10-6 record and finish 18-9 overall. Four starters return and coach Dave Vander Meulen hopes experience gained during 27 tough games last season proves valuable in the challenges ahead.

The only regular missing is Jeff Jones, a steady performer who averaged 11.9 points and 6.6 rebounds a game last season. Heading returnees is all-conference guard Ty Evans, who finished second in WSUC scoring with an 18.4 average. He joins 6-7 Jay McGregory, 6-5 Mike Janssen and 5-10 Felix Rogers as likely starters.

Whitewater led the conference in rebounding last season, picking off 44.7 caroms a game, and that should be one of the Warhawk strengths heading into the 1993-94 race. Evans and McGregory each averaged 5.9 rebounds a game last season, while Janssen accounted for 6.1. Junior Deon Mims, a 6-10 center, also should bolster the Warhawks off the glass.

Whitewater's chances of challenging Stevens Point, Platteville and Eau Claire this season probably hinge on production from redshirt freshmen who hold promise but must be tested under fire. This group includes guard Mike Dammen, forward Jeremy Hodges and center Trent Towne.

Stevens Point Wins NCAA Hockey Title

Stevens Point prevailed over Wisconsin State University Conference rival River Falls, 4-3, in overtime for the NCAA Division III hockey championship in March at Maplewood, Minn.

Rich Teece scored at the 3:51 mark of sudden death overtime to give the WSUC champion Pointers their fourth National Championship in five seasons. The Pointers also won the Northern Collegiate Hockey Association title in 1992-93.

Greg Christenson scored his second goal of the game at 14:52 of the third period as the Falcons broke a 2-2 tie. Then Point's Grant McDonald forced the overtime with a goal at 18:13, setting the stage for Teece's game-winner.

PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK

During each week of the season an outstanding player is chosen on his performance in games of that week. The coaching staff of each member institution nominates a Player-of-the-Week and the Conference Office selects a WSUC PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK. These players were chosen during the 1992-93 season:

November 10, 1992 - Todd Tretter, W, Stevens Point

La Crosse Enjoys Another Banner Track Season

La Crosse athletes won Wisconsin State University and NCAA Division III track and field championship both indoors and outdoors again in 1993. The Eagles captured their fourth straight conference title indoors and their 17th in the last 19 years.

The Eagles followed that title by successfully defending their Division III indoor crown, scoring 70 points to 48 for runnerup Lincoln University. St. Thomas (MN) finished third with 33. Eau Claire was seventh with 13 points. Other WSUC teams competing and their scores were Stevens Point 9, Platteville 8 and Oshkosh and Stout 6 each.

Versatile Bill Schroeder then sparked La Crosse to the outdoor title at Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, as the Sheboygan senior scored in five individual events. The Eagles won with 97 points to 76 for Lincoln and 61 for St. Thomas. Eau Claire, Stout and Platteville tied for 20th with 12 points each, while Stevens Point scored 11 points, Whitewater 8, River Falls 6 and Oshkosh 2.

Eau Claire's Jase Graber won the high jump title at 7-1, La Crosse's Ajamu Olanian won the triple jump (51-7) and Platteville's Paul Conlin the shot put (56-4).
