The Sixty Books Project is a collaborative book arts, writing and journaling project for the people of south central Wisconsin, hosted by the South Central Library System (SCLS), and produced by the Bone Folders' Guild (BFG), a book arts group based in Madison. This project is supported by a Madison CitiARTS grant.

The BFG book artists have created sixty hand made blank books. One of these books will be catalogued into each of the sixty libraries in the South Central Library System. Unlike other library books, patrons are invited to write, draw, paint or collage in the books. Subsequent patrons will add their own stories, drawings, and so forth, creating community-wide collaborative works of art. After the launch of the project these books will be available for checkout by library patrons until August 15, 2006.

At the close of the circulation period, the 60 books will be removed from the SCLS collections and brought together for a traveling exhibit. This exhibit will have its debut in Madison as part of the Fifth Annual Wisconsin Book Festival (October 18-22, 2006).

Instructions

- Check out this book as you would any other library book for a two-week period. Be sure to return it in the protective wrapper provided.
- Write a poem. Make a journal entry. Write political thoughts. Compose a short story. Collage. Paint a page. Be creative.
- Be respectful of these books. They are hand bound and bear delicate musings on the pages.
- Be aware of what has been done on the other side of the page that you are working on. For example, don't "sew" onto someone else's work.
- When you are gluing or painting put a piece of wax paper under the page you are working on. This will protect the other pages of created art.
- Before closing the book, be sure your page is dry.
- We encourage you to sign and date your work.
- Please, no perishables on the pages.
- Be advised that SCLS and BFG reserve the right to remove and/or delete any questionable material. Please be nice.
- Warning: You will incur a $125.00 library fine if this book is not returned!

MANY YEARS AGO MY ANCESTORS CAME TO WISCONSIN'S HILLS AND VALLEYS FROM ACROSS THE FAR SEAS YEARS before my PARENTS and I were TO be...

Tilling, Plowing and Building... The land so quietly...

Making a country home, prepared for me...

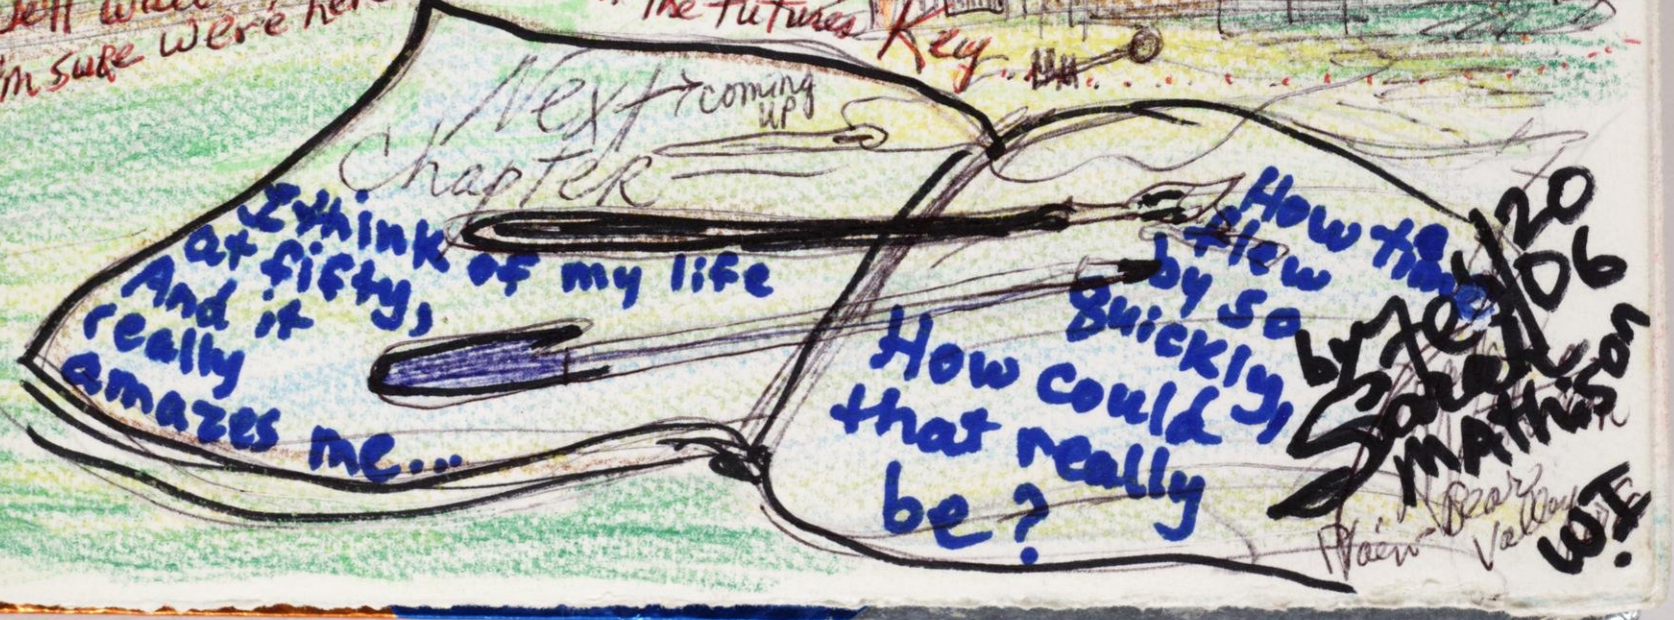

... We journeyed the years on a carpet of Dreams and Memories... I wonder what will come next?? We'll wait and see, But I'm sure we're here to pass on the future's Key...

I know you are still in here I see you in the mirror... I see you are near.

Then my husband and I had our own family - Two girls and a boy made three.

Next coming up Chapter - I think of my life at fifty, and it really amazes me...

How fast it flew by so quickly, How could that really be?
 by Sarah Mathison

"Mami you look pretty like apples on trees.
The best ones are at the top of the tree.
Most men don't want to reach for the good ones because they're afraid of falling and getting hurt. Instead, they just take the rotten apples from the ground that aren't as good but easy. The apples at the top think something's wrong with them, when in reality they're amazing. They just have to wait for the right man to come along, the one who's brave enough to climb all the way to the top of the tree!"
- I found that on the internet

Never say I love you if you don't really care
Never talk about your feelings
if they aren't really there Never hold my hand
if you're going to break my heart Never say you are going to
if you don't plan to start Never look into my eyes
if all you do is lie
Never say Hello
if you really mean goodbye
if you really mean forever

For richer or for poorer

I hate you...
for being so rich
for not being ^{at all} understanding of my problems
for looking down on the

LOWER Class

You will never understand what I go through Even though money can't buy you happiness

it sure as hell will fix most of them
problems that is...!
I hate the pain I go through
EVERY DAY!

Being black

being female

being a part of the working class
I hate you for being so rich
Do you know what it feels like to almost be homeless
to only have one parent barely getting by

to be scared b/c your home alone
five hours

each day after school

when you were only

5 years old

to always have less than the average kid your age

almost failing the first grade

Mom loved me more than life

itself

it's true

but

she didn't know how to take care of a child

being one herself

she did her best, but we're still poor

More problems more

more or less

I hate you for being so rich, not suffering $ problems, not having to worry about how your going to get by... day by day...

Never crying but feeling like dying

like, giving up, like you shouldn't be living in the 1st place

I hate you for being you

So why do you hate me?

... AND ZINES

CALIGRAPHY by LYMAN DRAPER (sic.)

*A bone folder is an essential tool for book makers.
It creases paper to a nice, crisp fold.*

Originating in Madison, Wisconsin, the Bone Folders' Guild is a group of people who share a love for the book as art. The Bone Folders' Guild was founded in February 2001 by a group of artists who desired to meet like-minded book artists to learn, support, and encourage each other artistically. We share a passion for creating books as a form of artistic expression.

Members of the Bone Folders' Guild who created the Sixty Books include:

Suzanne Berland, Susie Carlson, Carol Chase Bjerke, Nan Killoran, Laura Komai, Kathy Malkasian, Nancy Schoenherr, Tricia Schriefer, Karen Timm, Alexis Turner, Marilyn Wedberg, Carey Weiler, Kristin Yates.

The text block paper used in all books is Arches Cover White, 270 gsm., 35.25" x 24.75" 100% cotton, acid free paper. Cover paper, cloth and other original embellishments were chosen by the book artists.

The Bone Folders Guild would like to thank Alison Jones Chaim for her thoughtful guidance through this process. Huge thanks to the South Central Library System for their cooperation with this project. Also, we send a gracious thank you to Madison CitiARTS for its financial support.
