PREFACE.

The purpose of a work of this order needs no explanation, its every page being an example of its general utility and business importance. It is, as it were, an index to the great ledger of the community; every party representing a family or business avocation, is found correctly numbered in its pages.

That the compilation of a directory is not unattended with obstacles to its perfect completion may be easily imagined, but a practical experiment is needed to test fully the difficulties to be encountered.

When it is remembered that the copy for publication passes through the hands of the canvasser, the assorter or classifier, the compositor, the printer and the proof-reader, the wonder is, not that some errors and omissions are detected, but that so few are to be discerned.

With this defender as a ward against the shafts of the critic, the book is presented to the Public with a hope that it will prove worthy, and receive the patronage of the inhabitants, with the assurance that the succeeding biennial issue shall be found more accurate in all its details.

In closing, it is but a matter of justice to those who have kindly tendered information, for the publishers to recognize, with many thanks, the obligation due.

Respectfully,
SMITH, DU MOULIN & CO.

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN, BOOK AND JOB PRINTERS, 205 and 207, East Water Street, Milwaukee.

CHURCHES, RIPON.

Baptist Church, Fond du Lac street, bet Blackburn and Broadway. Organized 1853. Dedicated December, 1857. Members 56. Pastor Rev. Cyrus T. Tucker.

Congregational Church, Ransom street bet Blossom and State Pastor Rev. B. B. Parsons.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Union e Park. Dedicated about 1851. Members about 75. Pastor Rev. James M. S. Mayon,

The following is an item from the Records: "Nov. 21st, 1850, pursuant to previous notice, a meeting was held at the Mapes Hotel, for the purpose of considering the propriety of Organizing a Church."

The Rev. D. Clary, Home Missionary Agent, was moderator. The Rev. J. H. Kasson, was the scribe.

The Church was formed consisting of eleven members, and the Rev. F. G. Sherill, was invited to Pastorate over the Church. His labors continued until 1854, when the Rev. J. W.
Walcott, then and now the President of the College, assumed the responsibilities of the Pulpit. In 1855, the Rev. H. M.
Chapin, was ordained and installed as Pastor, and in 1856, the present incumbent the Rev. B. B. Parsons, was employed as stated supply.

The increase has been as follows: There were added in 1851, 6; in 1852, 5; in 1853, 9; in 1854, 13; in 1855, 13; in 1856, 20; in 1857, 43.

The present membership is something more than a hundred.
They have a House of Worship, which has been for many months, and is quite too small for the demand of the Congregation. The Church in its growth has kept quite equal pace with the growth of the City.
