My dear old home fond child-hoods home And the riv-ers rip-pling flow, A gain well sing the songs we sang In the twilight long a-go.

The old beech grove upon the bank
 Still lends its grateful shade,
 A trysting place for lovers yet,
 There first our vows we made.
 There first began life's lesson love
 There whispering soft and low
 We told the old old story love
 In the twilight long ago.

Lifes golden hour so happy love
 Down by the dear old stream
 The many haunts of other days
 Come o'er me like a dream
 And backward turns the wheel of time
 Once more I'd gladly know
 I'm with the dear ones once again
 In the twilight long ago.
