GAME THANKSGIVING

MILWAUKEE-MEDICS VS. 'VARSITY SCRUBS AT MILWAUKEE.

Banquet to the Team To-night—Madison—S. S. Milwaukee Championship Game Here Thursday.

A football game has been arranged for Thanksgiving day at Milwaukee between the Milwaukee Medical school team and a team picked from the 'Varsity and scrubs. The regular 'Varsity team cannot go because several of the men have agreed to act as officials at various other college games on that day. The game will be called at eleven o'clock in the morning so as not to interfere with the turkey-and-cranberry functions which will be held in every home in the afternoon.

Banquet to the Team.

A banquet will be given to the members of this year's football team to-night at the Capitol house. A sumptuous feast will be served which will be all the more enjoyed because of the long period of abstinence which the men have had during the training season. After full justice has been done to the dinner a series of toasts will be responded to by the coaches and players in which many amusing incidents of the season just closed will be recounted.

Team has Pictures Taken.

This afternoon the team, coaches, trainers and managers met at Fred Curtis' photograph studio and had their pictures taken.

Madison-South-Side Game.

The attraction in Madison on Thanksgiving day will be the championship contest at Camp Randall between the South-Side Milwaukee team and the Madison High School eleven. Both teams play a high quality of the game and a strong rivalry exists between them insuring a good game.

MANAGERS ELECTED.

Track, Crew and Baseball Positions Filled Last Night.

The meeting of the athletic board was held last evening at the gymnasium. Although the attendance was very small considerable business of importance was transacted. The following officers were elected: E. E. Haskin, '01, vice-commodore last year, was elected commodore to succeed Hayes Murphy, Harry W. Cole, '02, takes his place as vice-commodore. M. J. Cleary, law, '01, was chosen to succeed J. T. S. Lyle as manager of the track team. No assistant manager was elected.

T. A. Leahy, law, '01, formerly assistant manager was chosen manager of the baseball team with T. T. Jones, '03, as his assistant.

Phi Delta Theta Convention.

The following named members of the University of Wisconsin chapter of Phi Delta Theta left for Louisville, Ky., Saturday afternoon to attend the annual fraternity convention: As delegate, Mr. C. F. Geilfuss, '01; as visitors, Messrs. B. H. Stebbins, '01, T. F. Frawley, '02, Mark Banta, '03, A. W. Fairchild, '01; as alumni, Mr. W. A. Curtis, '98, G. P. Hardgrove, '93, E. R. MacDonald, '93, G. K. Tallman, '98. The convention was organized Nov. 26th, and will continue until Friday. Letters received this morning state that it is the largest fraternity convention ever held.

HUNTING WITH A CAMERA.

A Sportsman of the New School Will Lecture Tomorrow.

Every genuine sportsman and all students of nature will be glad of the opportunity to hear Ernest Seton-Thompson this week. He is an earnest advocate of the new art of hunting without a gun, and as a lecturer with but few equals, he makes a strong plea. Mr. Thompson combines in an unusual degree the keen hunter and the literary artist. In his lectures he deals with the wild animals of forest and prairie in that delightful fashion which makes us at once at home with them. His success lies quite largely in the subtle sympathy for the wild life he has met and has learned to know so intimately. In his lectures he impresses one with his remarkable insight into the ways and thoughts of such animals as the prairie wolf, the fox and the grizzly bear. Even the despised crow and the insignificant rabbit come to have a real human interest for us under the marvelous touch of this hunter-artist.

The most important lesson for us in Mr. Thompson's work lies in the emphasis he lays upon the new hunting, the pursuit of game with a camera. The hunter-photographer returns from a day's tramp not loaded down with the game he has killed, but carrying merely a dozen or more negatives, which will later appear in the form of plates or slides for illustrative material of a permanent kind. Such hunting does not waste the rich resources of nature nor does it tend to brutalize those who take part in it. In view of the alarming decrease of big game in the West and the entire extermination of many species common enough a few years ago, Mr. Thompson's lectures have an unusual significance.

Natural History Slides.

It may interest the readers of the Cardinal to know that the Madison Audubon Society is preparing a collection of lantern slides from photographs of living animals in this vicinity and elsewhere. A set of squirrel slides will be secured from the numerous pet squirrels in the city. It is planned also to secure a number of slides from Robert Hegner of Iowa who with Mr. Lennon of our University, spent last summer in photographing birds and nests. These slides with a set of seventy colored slides recently purchased in New York, will be sent throughout the state to any school complying with the regulations adopted by the Society. In this way it is hoped that the new hunting will find favor everywhere and win its way among the school children of the entire state.

Skating on the Bay.

Lovers of this wintery sport are jubilant, for Monona Bay has become the paradise of skaters. The ice may best be approached from the west at the foot of Murray street.

—Allen W. John, '04, has been forced, because of various circumstances, to be temporarily absent from the University. He will return next semester.

—Mr. C. A. Marshall, '04, has been obliged to withdraw from the University on account of the ill-health of his father.

—Mr. Norli, graduate student in English and Norse has gone to La-Crosse to accept a temporary position in the English department of the High School.

CHRISTMAS STORY

CARDINAL ASSOCIATION OFFERS PRIZE FOR ONE.

Will be a Feature of the Souvenir Xmas Number—Terms of Competition.

The Cardinal desires to announce a special Christmas souvenir edition, which is to be issued about December 20. It will have an artistic cover design and twenty pages of literary matter and illustration, printed on special paper.

One of the extra features will be a Christmas story. For such a story the Cardinal offers a prize of five dollars, reserving the right to use or reject all stories submitted. It is desired that the story be one of student life and not exceeding twenty-five hundred words. Stories should be in by December 10. There will also be interesting write-ups of various college institutions, articles by students and faculty and other valuable matter.

GRAND BENEFIT MATINEE.

Will be Given Nov. 30th for the General Hospital.

An opportunity will be given to Madison people and students of the University to help a most worthy charity, in a very easy way. A Grand Benefit Matinee will be given at the Fuller Opera House on Friday afternoon, November the thirtieth, at two o'clock p. m. The program will consist of two parts. The first will be the dainty little operetta "The Flower Queen" already given with success, by sixty school children, under the direction of Mrs. E. C. De Moe. The children will be costumed as flowers. The second part will consist of vaudeville specialties stereopticon views, legerdemain, a one-act farce comedy and a pantomime rendition of "The Three Bears." It is hoped that the hospital may have the compliment of a packed house, and a cordial invitation is extended to all students who may be detained in town during the Thanksgiving intermission. The latter half of the entertainment is most kindly furnished by University students. An admission of 15 cents for children, 25 cents for adults and 50 cents for box seats, will be charged. The proceeds of the Benefit Matinee are to be used for the present expenses of the General Hospital. Mr. Hjalmar Anderson will also favor the audience with a mandolin solo, that has never yet been played before a Madison audience.

Dean Henry has received a letter from F. W. Atkinson, who is the superintendent of Public Instruction at Manila, asking him to recommend three young men to teach agriculture in the Philippines. They are to be taken to the islands at once if appointed and will be under the supervision of the government Bureau of Education. Dean Henry has recommended two former students in his departments, who will probably be appointed. They are C. E. Lee, a post-graduate in agriculture, who lives in Monticello, Ia., and C. N. McDougall, '99, a dairy student.

The total number of scholarships available for students in Harvard is 213, and the number of endowed fellowships, 30. The annual income of all together is $63,730.

High School Department.

High School Championship.

At Marinette Saturday the High school team of that place put the Whitewater High school team out of the race for the state championship by a score of 17 to 6.

If in the game here Thursday, the Madison eleven defeats the South Side Milwaukee team the championship will undoubtedly rest with the Marinette team on the merits of Saturday's game and comparative scores, Whitewater having played a tie game with Madison early in the season.

Sparta.

At the beginning of the term, the pupils started to plan for a Lecture Course, but were unsuccessful in obtaining the proper support. The citizens of Sparta, not wishing to see it a failure, promised their aid. A committee of business men was appointed to co-operate with a committee from the school. Fifty of the prominent men of Sparta pledged themselves to the extent of three dollars each, if necessary. With this aid we succeeded, and the first lecture was given by Elbert Hubbard on November 17, in the Opera House. This lecture was such a success that it is evident the receipts will be sufficient to pay for the course. This will release the business men from their pledge.

A Glee Club has been organized for the coming year, and has a membership of about twenty-five. The young people show great interest in this department.

We have a strong Young Men's Debating Club, consisting of about twenty members. Good work is being done, and a joint-debate with Reedsburg is expected in the near future.

The Inter-Se, a club of young ladies, organized for the purpose of literary work, has a membership of about twenty-five. Their aim is to study and thoroughly review the works of some of the later writers.

The girls are much interested in Basket Ball. On the evening of November 24, they played their first game with the Tomah High school. They lost the game, but at least upheld our credit as a school. The girls have had, yet, very little practice, and we hope that in the near future they will win greater laurels.

Local and Personal.

—James W. Mutch, '00, entered the University today. He has been delayed on account of sickness.

—Mr. John Gregg of Milwaukee, the famous quarter on the '96 and '97 'Varsity football teams was here Saturday to see the Wisconsin-Illinois game.

—Attorney John L. Fisher of Janesville the former University graduate football manager, was in the city Saturday to see the game.

—Professor Frederick J. Turner and family, who are absent for a year's travel in Europe, were in Switzerland recently, but it is thought are now in Italy where they will spend the winter.

—E. J. Stephenson, '04, is recovering from a week's severe illness, which confined him to his room, and is now able to be about once more.

—The University Library has received as a gift from the publisher, Mr. A. C. Hoppmann, a copy of the "University; its History and its Alumni." This is the volume published early in the present year, edited by Secretary R. G. Thwaites of the Wisconsin Historical Society.

A New Song.

The 1902 Badger Board is doing a laudable act in attempting to secure a new University hymn for their annual. Wisconsin has long felt the lack of such a song. We have athletic songs galore as well as more dignified productions but nothing that can serve as a real hymn to be sung upon every occasion that college spirit enters into. We have nothing in the singing of which a crowd of students will burst spontaneously when they wish to evince a loyalty to their alma mater. Now if we can have something which will have the same effect upon general occasions that "Hot Time" does at times of athletic enthusiasm it will, in the words of the poet, "fill a long-felt want."

That an institution of the age, size and standing of the University of Wisconsin should not have already produced such a hymn is a matter of wonder. Surely our college spirit requires some such expression of itself. The offering of a prize is the most natural method of securing the song but it should be a labor of love also. The man who can produce a song that will take the student heart will win an enduring place in University history. To be the author of the Varsity hymn should surely be an incentive sufficient to bring forth the best that can be had. We want this song and want it badly—let the right man get to work and give it to us!

Vandalism In Library.

In spite of the earnest request of the custodians of the new library building, kleptomania (alias souvenir-grabbing) and destructive spirit still run rife among a certain class of students. Half a dozen elegant brass elevator signs have disappeared followed by a host of less expensive but equally necessary wooden and paper signs posted about the building. These signs are provided for use by the general public and not for oramental use by a favored few. Souvenir hunters do not stop to consider that taking one of those signs is as much an offense in the eyes of the law as stealing money and that they lay themselves liable to prosecutions by so doing. We are advised that unless these depredations cease extreme measures will be taken to stop them.

Another matter that is occasioning great annoyance is the scatching and marking of tables in the reading room. A large share of this is doubtless done unconsciously, but a little effort on the part of the students will prevent further damage.

The state has shown great courtesy by extending the privileges of the library to students and such conduct shows utter lack of appreciation on their part. In case the demand for these signs continues it is deemed advisable to lay in a special stock to be parcelled out at the librarian's desk for a nominal sum. Then all may have.

COMMUNICATION.

Saturday's Attendance no Criterion.

The poor attendance at the game last Saturday has caused the announcement that "Madison would see no more big games." But the students are not entirely to blame for their non-attendance at the game. To say nothing of the condition of the weather, there are two other good reasons for the poor attendance. The Illinois team has not been playing in championship form this season, and no one expected a hard game. Every one conceded Wisconsin the victory by a large score, and hence the game in itself was no especial drawing-card. Then, the charges were unreasonable, considering the importance of the game. No student last year objected to paying two dollars or a dollar and a half for the Chicago game, because he was certain the game would be worth it, and because it was a deciding game. But the game Saturday was not a deciding game, and hence the charges were placed too high. The students have gone out of town twice this year to see big games, and it is unfair to them to say that they do not support the team. When the game is sure to be a good one, and is a deciding one then the students can be relied upon to support the team and pay whatever is asked. But it is very unfair, to say the least, to threaten to have no more big games here, because the students did not pay an unreasonable price to see a second-rate game. The "rooter" has always stood by the team, loyally and he will always do so, when necessary.

Communication.

Editor of the Cardinal:

I wish to call attention of students to the fact that various signs are disappearing from the new library building. Four well finished signs, to be hung up when the passenger elevator is not running, were provided at considerable expense. Two of these signs have already disappeared and in self defense, it is now necessary to remove the remaining signs and to use rough manila paper notices, quite out of keeping with the general style of the building. However, we hourly expect even these rough temporary notices to be stolen. There has been considerable delay in equipping the electric light tablets with doors and these tablets all over the building were provided with danger signs, some of wood and some of paper. All of the wooden signs have disappeared and part of the paper signs. The persons who have stolen these signs from the tablets do not perhaps realize that their action has exposed to danger from the open tablets their fellow-students and others. Various other signs about the building have also been taken.

Of course students may not be responsible for these outrages, but as students constitute over 95 per cent. of the frequenters of the building, the management cannot but suppose that some lawless students are guilty of these thefts—for thefts such actions are and the fact is not to be disguised by the use of the euphonious word, "swiping." To anyone familiar with student quarters, it seems highly probable that these missing signs now serve as a supposed decoration of some students' rooms.

This beautiful building, fully equipped, is provided for all by the generosity of the State. In the privileges here offered, University students naturally have a larger share than do any other body of citizens. In a very real sense, the students of the University are responsible for the appearance and condition of this building. What impression then will be made on the legislature and the people of the State in general, if word goes abroad in the press that students of the University carry off portable property and otherwise mutilate this new state library building?

Again I wish to appeal to students to be careful in the use of fountain pens. Tables and doors already show many ugly ink stains. Even young women have been observed to deliberately shake ink from their pens on the cork carpet. If this continues, only one course is possible, viz., ruling out pens and ink in all forms from the reading and seminary rooms. Whether this course becomes necessary, depends entirely on the students of the University. A plea has already been made for care in the use of furniture, and the matter has repeatedly been emphasized in the editorial columns of The Cardinal; yet I regret to report that within a week a student has been found guilty of scratching his initials on the polished top of one of the mahogany tables in the reading room. It is hard to realize that our student body contains such vandals.

The table in the southwest corner of the main reading room has been reserved for the consultation of atlases and dictionaries, as a sign on the lamp directs. Students are urgently requested to respect this sign and to use this table only for the purpose indicated. By so doing, the convenience of all will be increased in the use of the atlases and English dictionaries which will be found on this table and in the adjoining wall cases.

In regard to the stolen signs, we appeal to the honor and pride of those who have taken them. It is hoped that the offenders will realize the true nature of their acts and return these signs quietly to the places whence they took them; by so doing they will greatly please all who care for the good name of Wisconsin students. If library signs are absolutely essential for the proper adornment of student rooms, it will per-

It may be possible to have a quantity made and sell the same at the delivery desk, to students at cost, but the signs now in use about the building belong to the State of Wisconsin, and not to the students nor even to the University itself. If the missing signs are not returned and if other signs disappear, it will be necessary for the management to resort to drastic measures to protect the property of the state.

A great many students are finding that a typewriter is almost a necessity. When we remember that one can get through with from three to ten times as much work on a typewriter as with a pen it does not seem strange that they are coming into almost universal use.

The Madison Cycle Co. at 113 State street rents all makes at very reasonable rates and also carries a full line of typewriter supplies.
