QUARTERS FOR GRADS TO BE SECURED SOON

Committee to Arrange for Rooms for Alumni During Stay

Although more people are expected back for Homecoming, November 12 and 13, than last year, alumni need have no fear of not securing accommodations for the committee in charge is securing lists of available rooms from the two "Y" associations, the deans' offices, and the Madison association of commerce, and will establish an information booth at the Northwestern station.

Registration of alumni will take place at a booth placed on the east side of the library on State street

Any person having rooms or knowing of rooms available for alumni call or write Kenneth Ede, 625 N. Henry street, or B. 197, stating the number of people that can be accommodated and the price.

and will continue Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, and at the reception at Lathrop parlors after the game. A "registration dance" with Jean Juster playing around the book will be a feature of the Homecoming ball in the evening.

Plans have been made for the annual Alumni board meeting at Alumni headquarters, State street and Sterling court, at 9:30 a. m., Saturday, and the Alumni council at the Y. M. C. A., 10:30 a. m.

"LEARN TO ORGANIZE WORK"—KIEKHOFFER

First of Series of Lectures to Freshmen on "How to Study" Given

"Study to understand thought, to organize thought, to express thought and to supply thought," was the advice of Prof. W. H. Kiekhofer to a large audience of freshmen and upperclassmen which crowded Music hall yesterday afternoon.

Professor Kiekhofer's address was a general consideration of "The Art of Study," in preparation for a series of lectures to freshmen on how to study, to be conducted by individual departments of the College of Letters and Science.

"Study to understand thought," urged Professor Kiekhofer. "I believe that understanding of thought is the sine qua non of all successful study. The greatest curse of the University of Wisconsin is that students are contented with vague, hazy, half-born ideas. Make use of

BUSINESS OFFICE TO GET LOST ARTICLES

When a diamond-set platinum pin is lost, hereafter, or a student discovers, a day before a quiz, that his notes on political science are missing, all he will have to do will be to identify his property at the administration building in order to regain it.

A new system has been instituted whereby all lost articles will be brought to the bursar's office by the janitors of the different buildings. In this way everything, from fishing tackle and fraternity pins to spectacles and text books will eventually find its way back to its rightful owner.

PACKED CONCERT HALL TO GREET FRITZ KREISLER

All Seats for Performance of Noted Artist in Gym Are Sold

Demands for 750 tickets for the Fritz Kreisler concert which will be given tonight in the gymnasium could not be filled. Every seat in the house was sold out by mail order, the number totaling 1,848.

"Fritz Kreisler is undoubtedly the greatest figure in the violin world and one of the greatest in the musical world," stated Prof. W. Von Geltsch, of the School of Music. "In New York where he gives six or seven concerts a year, Carnegie hall which seats 3,000 people is always crowded to the limit. About 800 are accommodated on the stage in order to provide room. Mr. Kreisler plays every season practically all types of music written for the violin and demanding every variety of technique."

Had Brilliant Boyhood

When only 10 years old, the noted musician graduated from the Vienna conservatory and took the highest honors in a class of forty. It was at Vienna that he was born in 1875. At the age of 12 he graduated from the conservatory at Paris, and took the first prize. Two years later he made a tour of America, accompanied by the greatest pianist at that time, Morice Rosenthal.

The period of ten years following his trip to the United States, Mr. Kreisler devoted to the study of literature and arts at Rome and Paris and spent very little time with his music. Later he took up concertizing again and began composing.

"He is the only violinist contributing anything worth while at the present time for the violin," accord-

FINAL CALL ISSUED FOR OCTOPUS HUMOR

Anything at all in the line of humor is asked for by the Octopus editors, for the next issue, which will appear the last week in November. All material must be in by Saturday, and there is plenty of room for many contributions as yet. Poetry, prose, and pictures are all acceptable.

"If you can't be funny, at least be original," says the editor. "Nothing will be accepted that has ever been sprung before."

All Aboard For Minnesota!

Only 130 students have signed up to go in the four special cars which will leave here tonight at 10:30 for Minnesota. Others wishing to make the trip should make reservations at the gym today.

Even though there is plenty of room, many students, besides those going by auto, are planning means, it is rumored, to outwit the Pullman conductors.

"Four men already have asked me if they could sleep under my berth," remarked the mainstay of the Cardinal circulation department, "and I know two men who are practicing every night so they can use the same berth and travel on one ticket. All the space under the berths is going to be occupied, and there are going to be three in every bunk."

"Of course, these are fairly safe and sane methods of travel," the scribe returned. "Many brave spirits have reserved the bumpers to ride on. There are to be two extra freight trains run, it is alleged in the Octopus office, to accommodate those who are going to 'bum their way.'"

"Women in my house are selling

GALAXY O' STARS AND STUNTS IN MINSTREL SHOW

Engineers First to Introduce Popular Danish Song in America

The famous Danish popular song, "Dukke Lise," which in English means "A Lullaby to the Doll, Elizabeth," will be publicly presented in America for the first time at the Engineers' Minstrel show, November 12 and 13.

The popularity of the song abroad has achieved continental fame, for Miss Ingeborg Bruhn-Berthelson, who sings the lullaby in the comic opera, "Tivoli Revuen," is now playing a nine-month run at the Tivoli theater, Copenhagen. European dance orchestras and leading cafes also are featuring the song.

"Hap" Davies, one of Thompson's best banjoists will be the man who will start "Dukke Lise" on its tour of American popularity, when he will present the melody as a banjo solo in the minstrel show.

The banjo solo is only one of the many features which are to be presented by the end men in this production. "From Melody to Jazz," two numbers played in two extremes, are to be rendered by a saxophone quartet composed of Don Bohn, Jesse Cohen, Merrill Taft, and Reeve Strock, all of whom have reputations as musicians, both locally and professionally. Bohn, particularly, has had a large amount of professional experience. Among other things, he played with the "Birth of a Nation" orchestra. Taft was a member of the Municipal Pier Navy band in Chicago, and the other two men are in the university band.

A yodeling number by John B. Holmes, and a hard shoe dance by Melvin Pierce are two other features.

PLANS FOR UNION VODVIL ABANDONED

"Wisconsin probably won't have Union Vodvil this year," said Jack Bigler, Vodvil production manager, last night.

"It has been found impossible to secure any date at the Fuller theater during the first semester, or between semesters in February. Since the faculty of the university is opposed to producing it in the second semester, all plans have had to be abandoned."

clothes to scrape up the cash to go," whistled a blonde stenographer. "I bought the grandest scarf today for a dollar and a half, and besides, lots of houses are having pots of money and drawing for them."

"Huh, they're all slow," said one of those Octopus persons, who had drifted in to try to borrow a typewriter. "I know some fellows who rode all the way to Ohio on top of a Pullman, and they're going to Minnesota, too."

"And 'Pat' Dennis is going to run up. He's going to put his suitcase on the train, and then he'll have to keep right behind the train so as not to lose his suitcase."

After the Octopus person had been properly ejected, the lanky youth who had been sitting watching the fracas with a bored air, yawned and arose to go.

"I guess I've got it as good as anyone," he gurgled, "I'm in the band, and we have a special car all to ourselves."

"Toot away, you win," said the scribe, calculatingly, and then hastened off in the direction of his roommate who owes him six bits.

STUDENT BODY GIVES BADGERS BIG SEND-OFF

Gridiron and Cross-country Men Entrain For Minneapolis Last Night

More than 1,000 students assembled on lower campus last night and marched to the Northwestern station to give the teams a royal send-off.

Led by Cheer Leader "Bill" Pickard, the crowd threatened to blow the roof off the platform with repeated "skyrockets." The cross-country team rated a close second in enthusiasm and Coach John E. Richards, as well as every member of the football team, received his full quota of cheers.

After constant reiteration of "We want 'Red'!" Captain Weston came to the platform and said a few words of assurance. "Scotty" appeared in response to repeated yells and stated that the team was going to "bring home the bacon."

Plans for a banquet to be given for Wisconsin rooters tonight at Minnesota are being made by the Wisconsin alumni in Minneapolis. Coach John Richards and Coach "Tom" Jones as well as more than 400 students will be guests. Plans are under the direction of Philip Tate.

Richards sent his men through their final work-out at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon, but no scrimmage was held. The coach spent considerable time on instructing his defense in breaking up "Doc" Williams' famous Minnesota shift, which has baffled many coaches in past years. Every man was out running through signals, and all with the possible exception of Tebell, are ready to enter the game tomorrow.

Signal Drill Today

The Badgers will go through some limbering-up exercises on Minnesota's field this afternoon and spend some little time in running signals. The dope favors Wisconsin even though the Gopher aggregation is due to win, having lost every conference game this season. Also, it has always been Williams' hope to trim the Badgers, and he has been pointing for this contest for several weeks. The Gophers will face Wisconsin tomorrow with their strongest lineup.

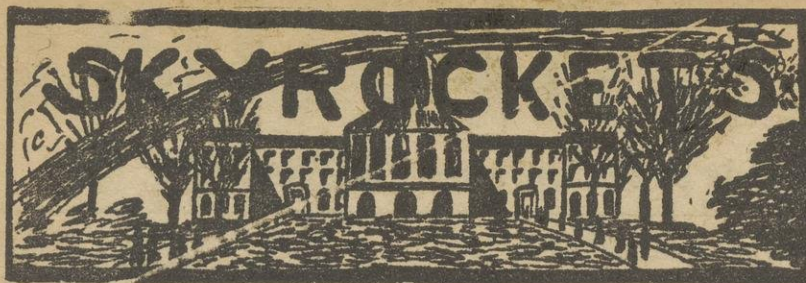

In case the Cardinal eleven does gain a comfortable lead, Richards will send his substitutes into the game. He will have every eligible man on the side-lines, since the entire squad made the trip. The following men left last night: Coach Richards, Captain Weston, Barr, Brader, Boning, Buckingham, Bunge, Barnes, Collins, Christianson, Davey, Elliott, Eggebrecht, Gibson, Gude, Holmes, Hipke, Knapp, Lishovec, Margoles, Nelson, Platten, Rankin, Stark, Sundt, Scott, Williams, Woods, Tebell, Scherneck, and

Equipment of Military Department is Worth
$500,000

In comparison with $20,000 worth of antiquated Krag-Jorgenson rifles, belts, and bayonets—the total army equipment provided for the student cadets before the war, the military department of the University of Wisconsin has now been supplied by the war department with about $500,000 worth of the latest models of guns and other army equipments.

More than 1,500 United States magazine rifles, caliber 30, model 1903, accompanied by bayonets, belts, packs, and scabbards, have recently been acquired. In addition, the department now has a supply of hand grenades; a Browning automatic machine gun; a Browning automatic rifle; a Stokes mortar; a full field artillery equipment with two caterpillar tractors to handle it; four 3-inch American field pieces, complete with carriages; three 75 mm. guns of French, American, and British make; two large motor transport trucks; two motorcycles and side cars; two reconnoiter trucks; a full signal unit with wireless and radio equipment; one 55 mm. short, and one long gun. One entire barrack, built during the S. A. T. C. period, is required to house the equipment.

Two years ago, the department was manned by one officer and one non-commissioned officer of the regular army. Now there are six officers and 11 non-commissioned officers. The student corps contains about 1,500 men this year, of which a number are working for commissions as reserve officers. In addition to infantry drill, the students may now be trained for artillery, engineer corps, or signal corps.

THE STUDENT SENATE

WITH the class elections over the Student Senate has resumed its activities for the year. It is understood that the organization plans a program of constructive measures that will establish a record for self-government at Wisconsin.

No organization on the campus seems to be so little understood as the Senate. To many students it is regarded as a body that meddles into school affairs and gets fussy with little or no provocation. To some students the Senate seems to be lacking in the capacity to achieve. These attitudes, of course, are unjust and unreasonable. They have grown out of the fact that the Senate has not been popularized in the past as it should have been. Aloofness always makes for misunderstanding.

The present Senate has an excellent opportunity to clear the atmosphere on these points. The members must show that the organization has a more significant purpose than mere meddling. The business of the Senate is to administer self-government on the campus. In the realm of student activities the Senate is supreme. Its power is granted from the faculty and regents of the university and all their strength is thrown behind the actions of the Senate. It is the function of the Senate to guide student opinion in all matters pertaining to school life. It is the function of the Senate to decide upon policies and to enforce these policies with firmness.

With such powers and responsibilities as these the Student Senate holds undisputed first place among student organizations. This fact should serve to make sound and careful judgment the basis of all actions by the Senate and should command the respect and support of all the students.

In the coming weeks the Senate members and the students whom they represent should get better acquainted with each other. The meetings are all open to everybody. Nothing smacking of "senatorial oligarchy" clings about our Senate and any student has the privilege of presenting his views to the Senate through the proper channels.

The opportunity ahead of the present Senate is a matter of encouragement, but a matter of challenge also.

FIX THE SEATS

WHILE looking about for ways of improving the campus, authorities should not overlook the buildings. A glaring example of a place in need of immediate attention is the auditorium of Agricultural hall.

Approximately 95 per cent of the desk attachments on the seats in this room are either missing entirely, misplaced, or broken. The resulting inconvenience to the students who crowd the room is not hard to estimate. They are greatly handicapped in taking notes on lectures. When an exam is being conducted it is far from humorous to watch students attempt to imitate professional contortionists. What can be less conducive to doing one's best?

The question is one that cannot afford postponement. If it is impossible to get enough buildings to comfortably house all classes, certainly those already on the campus ought to be kept in good repair.

BULLETIN BOARD

TICKETS FOR BIG FORENSIC DINNER ARE GOING FAST

Affair Planned as Send-off For the Inter-collegiate Debating Season

Reservations for the all-university forensic dinner at the Belmont hotel November 16 at 6 o'clock have been far in advance of expectations. With only a limited number of places remaining, the forensic board urges all who plan on attending to notify Prof. J. M. O'Neill's office, in the public speaking department, today or Monday between the hours of 1:30 and 2:30.

The impression that the dinner is limited only to members of the forensic board and literary societies is entirely erroneous, according to the committee in charge. It is intended primarily as a send-off for the intercollegiate debating season, which will start with preliminary tryouts about ten days after the dinner, and any student interested, whether or not he intends to try for the teams, is invited to attend.

In past years preliminary tryouts were seldom preceded by a dinner. The public speaking department, the forensic board, and Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity, realize that an appreciable amount of potential debating material is lost to the teams every year because interest in the activity is permitted to wane.

The committee feels that this potential material will come to the front this year largely because of the dinner. Prof. O'Neill will outline plans for the season and indicate the greater opportunity to make the squad because more debates have been scheduled. Clyde Emery, president of the board, will preside as toastmaster. Short speeches will be given by Prof. A. P. Haake, '14, former intercollegiate and joint debater; Gladys Borchers, winner of second place in last year's Northern Oratorical League contest, and Arnold Perstein, a member of last year's intercollegiate team.

GRADUATE CLUB TO HOLD PARTY

The Graduate club party to be held Saturday evening in Lathrop concert room will be minus stunts, and dancing will be the main form of entertainment.

The committee in charge of the last dance cogitated long and heavily on the subject of appropriate amusement for the grads. Nothing strenuous but something bright which would satisfy the ever present longing of the grad for mental exercise was concocted. The stunts were successful but the effort to induce the grads to stop dancing to indulge was such as to destroy the popular conception of stiff knees usually associated with those who have departed from the realm of the undergraduate.

Admission price will be 35 cents which will cover the cost of refreshments. Graduates who are not members of the club are urged to attend and to become members by the payment of the 50 cent dues.

LIT SOCIETIES HOLD MEETINGS

The regular meeting of Phythia Literary society will be held tonight at 7. Carol E. Conlee will give a short sketch of the life of Frances Leveridge. Helene Wilson and Margaret O'Keefe will also give short talks.

Twenty-two members have been elected. They are: Bertha Rose, Evelyn Shaw, Marie Salm, Sara Philipson, Laura Hamilton, Mildred Repplinger, Genevieve Morgan, Louise Thompson, Catherine Hanitch, Ella Boyce, Grace Dill, M. Hayes, Bernice Elver, Blanche Field, Ella Biggs, Irma Borchers, Catherine Heise, Majorie Capron, Maysie Evans, Dorothy Anderson, and L. Desimval.

Timely Debate Listed

The regular meeting of Athenae will be held tonight at 7:30 p. m. in 401 Bascom hall. The question for debate will be: "Resolved, that the United States should adopt the plan of proportional representation." The affirmative will be taken by W. Batten, B. Monfried, E. Koppe. The negative by M. Halverston, H. B. Engelhard and T. Thompson.

Hesperia will meet tonight at 7:30 in 451 Bascom hall. H. O. Walther will give a talk on this winter's domestic coal supply. "Resolved, that the Commerce course of the university be established as a separate college," will be discussed on the affirmative by Sabin, Moutain and Tangney, and the negative by Ebert, Risser and Pearson.

Philomathia will meet at 7:30 tonight in 220 Bascom hall. H. Seering will give the initiation speech; S. Tracy will give a talk on the "Significance of the Elections;" while C. Emory will speak on "Evidence in Argumentation." The debate of the evening will be: "Resolved, that Japanese, residents in United States, be given citizenship." L. Cohen, O. Anderson, and H. Brooks will take the affirmative; the negative will be taken by W. Frautschi, M. LaPorte, and J. Abbot.

BADGER TEAMS GIVEN SEND-OFF

Coach Jones, Berg, Manager Ellis and Assistant Manager Stavrum.

Track Men Leave

Coach Bresnahan's cross-country team accompanied the football men on their northern trip. The Badger and Gopher distance men will meet in their annual cross-country run tomorrow morning. Due to Wisconsin's overwhelming defeat of the Maroons here last Saturday, they loom up as contenders for the conference title, and should win tomorrow's meet with Minnesota. The following made the trip: Captain Brothers, Dayton, Dennis, Noble, Wade and Wall.

PROFESSOR SUMNER WILL SPEAK SUNDAY

Professor Sumner, of the agriculture economics department, will speak to members of the Agric triangle next Sunday. Then plans for a typical community program to be put on some time in the near future will be discussed.

At the meeting the subject for the debate between the freshmen and sophomores of Ag triangle will be announced.

There Is More Than One String To Our Bow---

For the past 12 years on and off we have been drumming—harping—and playing up VALUE.

That's because we think the men of Madison are more interested in receiving the full worth of their money than they are in any other single thing that enters into the purchase of a man's wearing apparel.

In selling the lines of merchandise we do there are hundreds of other things we could talk about—Style—Fit—Quality—Finish—but all these desirable things don't amount to a hill of beans unless there is VALUE represented in the underpinning.

Down deep in your heart you want VALUE for every dollar you spend. You'll get it here—for down deep in our hearts we want your business.

We sell good clothes for Men and Boys—and nothing else.

Are You Glad to Get Your Shoes Off?

At the end of the day do you feel that your shoes have helped you or hurt you? Do you look forward to the relief of getting them off?

Then you should wear Cantilever Shoes. They help you to walk or stand on your feet for long hours without tiring.

In Cantilever Shoes your feet look well and feel comfortable. You stand and walk correctly poised. Ordinary shoes, which turn the toes outward, throw the weight on the inside of the foot where the arch is weakest. But the Cantilever Shoe has a natural inner sole line. The toes point straight ahead in their proper position. The weight is distributed without strain over the heel, the ball, and the outside of the foot.

Cantilevers have a snug-fitting instep which is drawn up, when you pull the laces, to hug the arch and render restful support. The shank does not bind the muscles as do metal appliances, or rigid-soled shoes. It flexes with the foot, allowing the muscles freedom to exercise. Cantilevers correct and prevent fallen arches by helping the foot grow strong from use.

A graceful boot in black kid, dark tan calf, Havana brown kid and white Egyptian cloth.

In order to introduce Cantilever shoes we are giving a reduction of $2.00 per pair.

At The Theaters

NEW BILL AT THE ORPHEUM TONIGHT

Davigneau's Celestials, a trio of Chinese entertainers, and Grace De Mar, a winsome comedienne, will share honors as the headliners on the new vaudeville program which opened with two performances last night, and continues for the balance of the week, including the three shows on Sunday. The Chinese act includes Borromeo, a real pianist and expert at jazzing, Miss Toy, dancer and Shun Tok Sethe, who has a cultivated tenor voice and knows how to use it; these three people present an original conception of Pianistic, singing, dancing, and jazz features. Bill as presenting The Eternal Feminine Miss Grace De Mar, appears in a cycle of character studies, including an incident in a telephone booth, a flirtation on the 20th century train and an occurrence on a street car. These three happenings of course are of humorous viewpoint, and Miss De Mar's rendition will be found delightful. The balance of this bill will include Bruce Morgan and Franklyn Gates in an absurdity entitled "The Personification of Nonsense," featuring eccentric dancing and singing, with plenty of comedy. In the playlet "Air Castles Kate," Jessie Hayward, supported by Vida Walker, Leon Hahn and others will be seen, the action of the story taking place in the dressing room of a theater, in a small town. In an offering called "Story Songs," Miss Bobby Folsom will appear and the Gebbert Duo, America's ingenious athletes complete the acts. Kinogram pictures will also be shown.

Singer's Midgits

With a company numbering 42 people, including the 30 Singer Midgits, tiny men and women, three midgit elephants, 27 ponies, one midgit lion, one deer, 30 dogs, one monkey, one pig, one cow, three canary birds and other animals, Madison theatergoers and lovers of the vaudeville form of amusement are assured of the treat of the season, when this act appears for the week of November 15. Two sleepers and three baggage cars are required to transport company, animals, scenery and attendants over the Orpheum circuit. Mail orders are now being received for the local engagement, and daily matinees will be the rule that week, with the usual two performances nightly.

AT THE STRAND

A spirited boxing mill is a feature of "The Fourteenth Man," the picture attraction which is now showing at the Strand theater. Robert Warwick and Norman Selby, who used to be known in his prize ring days as Kid McCoy, are the principals. According to the story, Warwick is a romantic adventurer. He and Selby are rivals for the same girl and, learning that Selby is entered in an amateur boxing contest, Warwick persuades the people in charge to match him against the professional. Warwick donned the gloves well equipped to give the Kid the battle of his life—and does so. Babe Daniels is the leading woman in "The Fourteenth Man" and the cast also includes Viora Daniel, Sylvia Ashton, and Walter Hiers. Joseph Henabrey directed and the picture is a Paramount Art-craft.

As a special added feature Booth Tarkington's Edgar and the Teacher's Pet will also be shown.

AT THE FULLER

"Humoresque," now enjoying its fifth day run at the Fuller, has set a new attendance mark at that playhouse. Instead of the crowds getting smaller as the run continues, as has been the case with past attractions, the crowds are getting larger each day. Several hundreds were unable to gain admission Wednesday and Thursday night and the management urges its patrons to kindly purchase tickets in advance to avoid delays at the boxoffice. ## VARSITY TANK MEN SWAMP FROSH IN MEET

Win All But Two Events— Frosh Show Considerable Promise

The Varsity swimming team had their first meet last night at the gym tank, and found little opposition in the Frosh, except in the relay event and the 100 yard swim. The yearlings showed considerable promise. Coach Steinauer stated that the meet was for the purpose of lining up the candidates. The first scheduled meet will take place November 19, at the city Y. M. C. A.

The results of last night's meet are as follows: Relay event, first, Freshmen (White, Levy, Gibson, and Aronberg); second, Varsity (Stolley, Sullivan, Esser, and Blume. Time 1:29 1-5. 40 yard dash, first, Storey, V.; second, Lederer, F.; third, Esser, V.; fourth, Aronberg, F. Time :22 1-5. 200 yard breast stroke, first, Peterson, V.; second, Lederer, F.; third, Rand, F. 220 yard swim, first, Paulus, V.; second, Rasmussen, F.; third, Nichols, V. Time 3:21. Plunge, first, Huebner, V.; McMurray, V.; third, Rubel, V. Back stroke, first, Czerwanky, V.; second, Potter, F.; third, Heller, V. Time 3:15 3-5. 100 yard swim, first, Levy F.; second, Peterson, V.; third, Taylor, F.; fourth, Butterfield, F. Time 1:06 1-5. 440 yard swim, first Lambole, V.; second, Logie, V.; third, Bloodgood, V. Time 6:17.

appealing mother-love stories ever filmed. It is different than the every day run of pictures. It is among the big photoplays of the year because it impresses one with its sincerity and intense heart appeal.

"Humoresque" was adapted from Fannie Hurst's novel of the same name. The chief characters are portrayed with rare understanding by Alma Rubens, Gaston Glass, Vera Gordon and Dore Davidson.

AT THE GRAND

Appearing as a political candidate Eugene O'Brien, starring in "The Figurehead," which began a three days showing at the Grand theater yesterday, sweeps all comers before him, whether it is love, fist-fighting, of winning the Mayoralty. Put up as a "figurehead" candidate by bosses who do not dream that this young "Willie" as they contemptuously dub him, can make any impression on the voters, the young man gives them surprise after surprise as he invades the "hard liquor" precinct and beats hardened ward-healers at their own game.

CLEF CLUB ELECTS 16 NEW MEMBERS

Tryouts for Clef club ended last night with the choosing of the following new members: Katherine Hullinger, Katherine Keene, Esther Vance, Frances Boburn, Alice Bates, Hildegard Maedje, Bertha Fillet, Helen Dickenson, Zirian Blish, and Lillian Hanan.

Six more new members have been taken in without trying out. These are Catherine Murry, Myra Sumpston, Martha Chandler, Marian Hull, Doris Wyatt, and Mary Tillotson.

They were admitted without trying out because the fact that all junior and senior majors in applied music are automatically members if they wish, and members of the Public School music class can be admitted upon the recommendation of the faculty.

DR. TITTLE SPEAKS AT Y. W. BANQUET

Dr. Ernest F. Tittle, of Evanston, Ill., again will address those present at the annual Y. W. C. A. banquet which has been postponed from Saturday, November 6 to Thursday, November 11. Announcements will be made at that time of the girls who were elected to the Freshman commission. It is expected that all Y. W. C. A. members and all those interested in Y.

W. C. A. work will attend the big event of the year.

The banquet will be held in the Woman's building at 6 o'clock, with places for 300. Tickets will be on sale Saturday at the Y. W. C. A. office in Lathrop hall and in all girl's rooming houses. The admission price is $1.

PYTHIA BOARD

Meeting at 12:45 today, first floor Lathrop hall. All officers and committee members are asked to be present.

FEWER DEFECTIVES IN UNIVERSITY NOW

"Fewer defective students are coming into the university now than ten years ago," according to Dr. S. I. Morris of the university clinic. The higher standards of the university and improved living conditions are responsible in part for the weeding out of the weaklings from the campus, according to Dr. Morris. The reports of the medical examinations are not yet complete, so no data is available to show definitely the physical condition of the incoming students.

AG.-HOME EC. MIXER

Tickets for the Agric-Home Ec. mixer to be held Saturday night, are now on sale at the Ag. school. Ags. and Home Ecs are urged to buy their tickets at once as there will be no ticket sale at the door. Students who do not wear their tag tickets at the mixer will be put off the floor.
