The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Since 1948, Direct Relief International has assisted people in need—both in poor regions of the world and wherever disaster has struck—by providing essential resources to locally-run health programs.

In 2003, Direct Relief International provided more than $90 million in material assistance in 61 countries—enough provisions to offer care to an estimated 10 million people. To learn more, visit www.directrelief.org.

Partners in disaster relief

Natural and man-made disasters take an alarming toll on their victims. Those who survive often are left tragically devastated. Helping them requires compassion and teamwork to ensure that the necessary medical and humanitarian supplies are distributed quickly to all those who desperately need them.

With the aid of BD and other donors, Direct Relief International has delivered emergency medical supplies and health services to millions from refugees displaced by war to victims of hurricanes and earthquakes. These efforts provide the poor, sick, and needy with the care they require and the hope they need.

Helping all people live healthy lives

BD donates syringes, surgical instruments, blood collection devices, and other medical supplies in support of these efforts.

BD is a medical technology company serving some of the greatest needs of the global community. Healthcare institutions, life sciences researchers, clinical laboratories, industry, and the general public all rely on BD products every day.

BD is privileged to partner with Direct Relief International and organizations like it to protect life by addressing fundamental healthcare issues in every corner of the world.
