A Union Member's Guide to Upcoming Events

Celebrating Sixty-five Years of Service to the University Community.

On October 5, 1928 the doors of the Memorial Union swung open to begin a tradition of service to students, faculty, alumni and community members. In these sixty-five years much has changed – like cars and trees and bicycle racks – but the Wisconsin Union continues as the University's social, recreational & cultural center.

A commemorative poster "Memorial Union – The Early Years" featuring this photo is available in the ESSENTIALS store at Memorial Union.

Break Away!

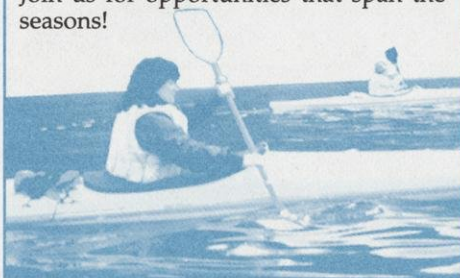

...with Mini Courses

The winter and spring seasons are the perfect time to sample Wisconsin Union Mini Courses. It is the time of the year when Mini Courses offers everything from Snowboarding and Sailboarding to Soups & Stews and Birds & Their Environment. Over 350 different opportunities in short, fun and informative non-credit courses begin soon and continue through early June.

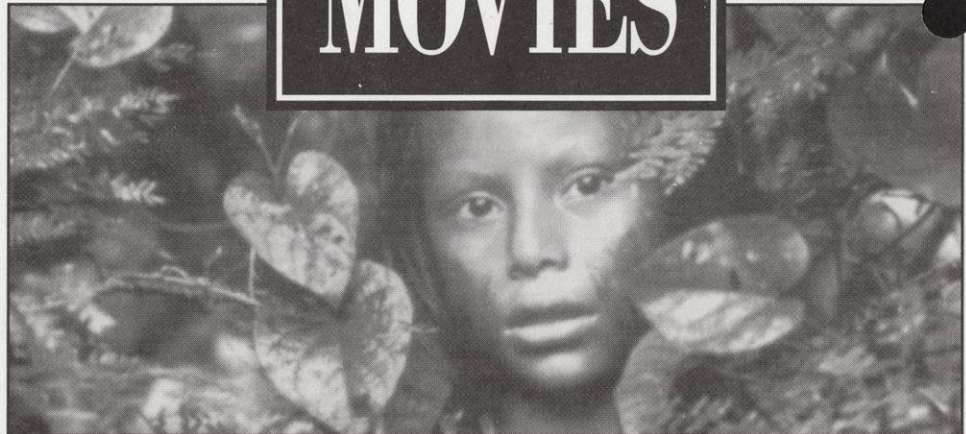

If you are an indoor type, personal and professional development classes may be for you. From Overcoming The Fear Of Public Speaking and Computer Spreadsheets, to Self Defense and More To Love Than Sex, Mini Courses can help make you a better person. You may be interested in our popular Glass and Gas - Introduction to Neon where you can learn how neon works and build your own neon light. Or you could try The Magic of Mustard and learn how to make and to cook with this sauce.

If you are an outdoor type, try our Rock Climbing series for both the novice and the expert or Basic Camping or Wilderness Travel.

The winter term begins February 7 and the spring term begins March 14. If you have not received a Winter/Spring Mini Course Catalog call (608) 262-3156 today. Join us for opportunities that span the seasons!

MAKE IT YOUR SUMMER TO SAIL!

Now is the time to explore a new opportunity. Find out about one of Madison's great treasures... sail Lake Mendota with the Hoofer Sailing Club.

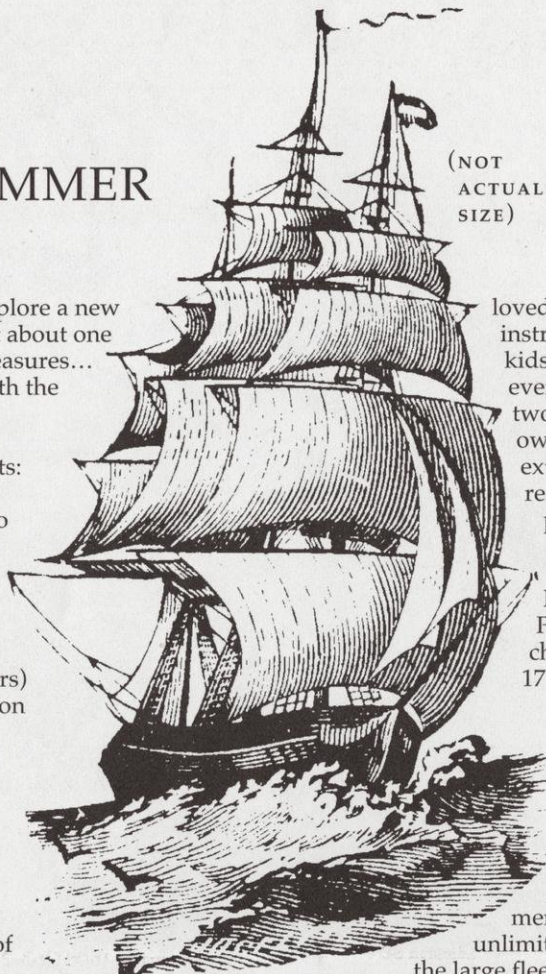

Three important points:

#1: The club is open to anyone who is a Wisconsin Union member (current UW-Madison students are automatically members) as well as UW-Madison faculty and staff.

#2: Both novice and experienced sailors are welcome. In fact, most new members have never sailed before but are able to sail solo after 3-days of lessons.

#3: You can choose the package that meets your needs: spring, summer, fall or annual membership. Early Annual membership allows you to sail through the fall for just $130, if you sign up by May 1.

Nancy Howard of UW-Madison's Center on Education and Work signed up last year so her kids could learn to sail. Howard notes: "My 10 and 11 year-olds loved it. The instructors had the kids on the water every single day for two weeks in their own boats. It is an extremely reasonable program for what you get." (The Youth Instruction

Program teaches children ages 10-17 to sail. Call (608) 262-1630

for more information.)

When asked why they joined, other Hoofer sailors mention the unlimited free lessons, the large fleet of sailboats and windsurfing boards, racing opportunities and the opportunity to meet other people, mingle and have a great time.

Whatever your reason for joining, you won't be disappointed. Unless, of course, you let another season go by... Why not call today for some no-obligation information, (608) 262-1630, or stop by the Hoofer Office, lower level, Memorial Union.

HOOFERS

The Hoofer Hotline allows you to receive updated Hoofer information on membership lessons, scheduled events, weather conditions etc. for each of the seven Hoofer clubs. Simply use a touch tone telephone, call the Hotline at (608)262-0156 and follow the phone instructions.

15th Annual Escape to Wabakimi

For the past 15 years Union members have been venturing through the pristine wilderness of Canada on the Travel Center's annual Escape to Wabakimi. The trips are designed to challenge beginners and experts alike; many participants return year after year. Each trip begins with a comfortable van ride from Madison to Armstrong, Ontario, and continues with a float plane ride into the Canadian wilds, Redmond Lake or Palisade River.

This year's trips cost $450 per person and include transportation, accommodations and equipment for ten days and nine nights. The four departure dates are July 22, 29 and August 5 and 12. Special private trips accommodating from four to ten people can also be arranged.

To learn more about Escapes to Wabakimi, call the Travel Center at (608)262-6200, stop by their office on the fourth floor of Memorial Union or attend an informational slide presentation on February 24, March 14 or April 19. All presentations begin at 7 p.m. in Memorial Union.

SMOKE-FREE OUTSIDE AREAS AT THE UNION

Three non-smoking areas will be established outside Memorial Union and Union South beginning next spring. The outside smoke-free areas will include: at Memorial Union, the plaza in front of the Union Theater at the western edge of the Terrace, and at Union South, the southeast corner of the plaza between the Union and the Wendt Library and the east end of the second-floor balcony off of the new Sports Cafe. Signs will designate these areas as smoke-free.

Art Fair on the Terrace

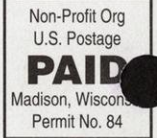

Artists from around the state return to the Terrace on Friday, May 6 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., exhibiting and selling their arts and crafts. Sponsored by the Wisconsin Union Craftshop, this is a perfect opportunity to enjoy the Terrace and see what's new in student and Wisconsin art.
