Mom and Dad Honored on Campus

Pres. Dykstra To Give Honors At Convocation

Pres. C. A. Dykstra will preside at the honors convocation honoring senior men and women with outstanding scholastic ranking at 10:45 this morning in the Union theater.

Guest speaker of the event will be Dr. Edward Elliott, president of Purdue university, who was formerly at Wisconsin, whose topic will be "Leveling of Learning." Howard Boorman, who is also cochairman of the honors convocation committee, will speak as the representative of the senior class.

National honor societies cooperating with the convocation program are Alpha Omega Alpha, medical honorary; Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary; Beta Gamma Sigma, commerce honorary; Omicron Nu, home economics honorary; Order of the Coif, law honorary; Phi Beta Kappa, liberal arts honorary; Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honor society; Pi Lambda Theta, educational honorary; Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary; and Sigma Delta Chi, journalism honorary.

Members of the senior class who will be honored include (Based on a minimum grade-point average of 2.25 beyond the sophomore year):

COLLEGE OF LETTERS AND SCIENCE

Louise Theresa Bachhuber, Sturges Williams Bailey, Kathryn Helene Baldwin, Joseph Roland Barnett, Marylin Margaret Beardslee, Barney Bernard Becker, Robert Howard Berkley, Robert Wilson Bird, Evelyn Irene Blackford, Rosalind Louise Boettiger, Howard Lyon Boorman, Hassie Francena Booth, Joseph Crane Bradley, Margery Clarice Bridgman, Victor Henry Bringe, Lloyd Vernon Brovald, John Louis Bruemmer, Nick Frank Calabrese, Clarence Peter Christ, Roger Morris Christenson, George Charles Colovos, Lucille Elizabeth Dwyer, Lee George Eby.

Present Annual Dance Recital

The 23rd annual recital of Orchestras, campus dance groups, will be a highlight of this year's Parents' weekend. The first performance was given last night. A second recital will take place this afternoon at 3:30 in the Union theater.

Over 40 students take part in one of the most novel recitals which has ever been presented for Parents' weekend. The recital covers something to suit every mood and taste, for it ranges in theme from the gay satire, "Mat Dance," to the serious "Religious Mood."

A three act drama, being produced by Minsa Craig as her master's thesis, is the chief feature of the recital. It will be presented in seven scenes, with poetry and music to accompany the mood of the dance.

Other dances which will be presented are "Three Pages from a Diary," solo suite narrating love, marriage, and motherhood; "Scaramouche," humorous group number using a puppet; "Waltz"; "Frolie"; "The Life of a Buck Private," a self-explanatory solo depicting army life and the "tortures" endured by a new draftee.

'Octy' News Reels Show in Play Circle

All afternoon today, in the Play Circle, parents will have a chance to see a film about the campus life in general. There will be color shots of students in all sports, from football to ski jumping, social highlights like prom and Mil ball, and the run of the ordinary day in the Wisconsin Union. Lasting about half an hour, the film promises to give an interesting picture of student life.

The shots will be taken out of the "Octy" news reels which the Octopus, Wisconsin humor magazine, has been taking all year around.

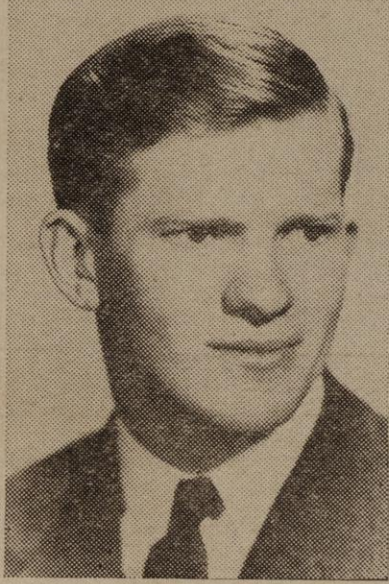

Co-chairmen Extend Welcome to Parents

MILDRED SCHIFF

The students of the university have been looking forward to this weekend on which to hold a campus-wide open house in honor of their parents. Preparations for the 1941 open house have been going on for the last month or more to make May 23, 24, and 25 as complete and interesting as possible.

We have tried to include in our program the events that will be of most interest to you and will give you an accurate picture of the university. We hope that you will have an opportunity to see the entire program.

JOSEPH BARNETT

We are very happy to have you with us and we are eager to meet you personally. We hope that when it is over, you will feel yourselves really a part of the university.

So, for all the students of the university, and particularly all the members of the Parents' weekend committees, we welcome you parents and hope you'll return next year.

Mildred Schiff

Perlman, Stokes Will Talk At Round-Table Discussion

An opportunity to hear typical lectures of the "hill" presented by prominent professors will be offered parents this morning from 9:30 to 10:30 in the Memorial Union Play Circle theater as a special feature of Parents' weekend.

Called the "Parents' Forum," it will be headed by Prof. Selig Perlman of the economics department and Prof. Harold Stokes of the political science department and assistant dean of the Graduate school.

Professor Perlman will discuss labor problems, the ever-imposing issue in our present economic system. The title of his talk is "Should labor strikes in defense industries be illegal?"

Professor Stokes, on the other hand, will discuss the economic, social, and political ways in which this country *will need to make adjustments. "Adjusting ourselves for war" is the title of his discourse.

Both speakers, well versed in their respective fields, will analyze their cases for approximately 25 minutes. The remaining portion of the hour will be devoted to discussion and questions of the parents.

University radio station WHA has been contacted to broadcast the speeches of the professors. Students may attend the session with their parents, and no admission charge will be made.

The forum is under the auspices of the program committee headed by the cochairmanship of Arthur Voss and Margaret Jacobi. The plans for the forum, however, were formulated and carried out by Harold Plous and Joan McAdams.

150 Co-eds Present Traditional Randall Green Festival

Approximately 150 Wisconsin women will take part in the Randall Green festival, the annual physical education department demonstration of sports which will be held this afternoon at 1:30 at Camp Randall.

The program is a demonstration of all sports participated in by women in the physical education classes, including fencing, archery, horseback riding, folk dancing, rope jumping, stunts and tumbling, badminton, volleyball, and baseball.

The committees and their chairmen are: Events, Rebecca Lamson, chairman, Margaret Knapke, Theodora Bock, Ruth Armstrong, Marion Laue, Louise Erlicher, Ruth Brown, Margery Mitchell, and Jeannette Bersenbrugge. Amplifying system, Joanne Goldberger, chairman, Betty Schroedal, and Jean Reed.

Equipment, Emma Grunewald, chairman, Dorothy Robarge, Kathryn Liebold, Esther Ried, Ethyl Larsen, Winnifred Warne, and Alice Zell. Programs and publicity, Virginia Gunther, chairman, Alice Holmes, Charlotte Schuette, Nancy Taylor, and Ruth Neubert.

This afternoon at 5:30 several of Wisconsin's crews will stage races on Lake Mendota for the parents. The crews are coached by Allen Walz, who is completing his first year here.

At 1:30 Northwestern and Wisconsin tennis teams will play on the university courts.

Graduating Seniors Watch Final Review Of ROTC Commands

Seventy-one seniors in the University of Wisconsin Reserve Officers' Training corps will come forward to watch their commands pass in review for the last time, when the call "Officers front and center," is given for the last time this year at the Camp Randall stadium, tomorrow afternoon.

Two regiments of more than 1,500 men will parade before the reviewing stand to present a colorful spectacle for the parents and other visitors. Last year this ceremony drew more than 1,000 spectators.

Special honor will be given to the parents of the graduating seniors by allowing them to sit in a reserved section of the stadium.

Forty-seven of these seniors are in the infantry, 17 of them are in the engineer corps, and seven of them are members of the signal corps. These seniors have completed four years of training and will receive their commissions as second lieutenants in the United States army reserve. Many of them are expected to be called into active service this summer.

The ROTC graduation parade will take place from 3 to 5. Other events which will be held tomorrow afternoon to conclude the week's festivities are the concert in the Union theater, Hoofers' horse show at the stock pavilion, boat trips, and open houses at the dormitories.

Full Program Shows Parents Life of Campus

A full schedule of events for today will get under way this morning with open classes for parents between 8 and 10 o'clock. From 10 to 12 and from 2 to 4 this afternoon parents may tour the campus either by bus or on leisurely walking tours, guided by students.

"Parents' Forum," a faculty-parents' round table discussion, will be held at 9:30 this morning, giving parents an opportunity to hear two well-known university lecturers, Prof. Selig Perlman and Prof. Harold Stokes.

Seniors who have done outstanding scholastic work during their four years at the university will be honored at the honors convocation at 10:45 this morning in the Union theater. Dr. Edward Elliott, president of Purdue university, and President Dykstra will speak.

The Randall Green festival of the women's physical education department will be put on at 1:30. Men's tennis matches between Northwestern and Wisconsin will be played on the university courts at 1:30.

An hour of relaxation has been planned for parents at the Union from 3:30 to 4:30 where refreshments will be served and parents may meet the faculty informally.

This evening, following the president's reception, the annual Parents' weekend banquet will be held in Great hall. Orchestral dance drama will be presented this afternoon. The final performance of "Dark Victory" will be given tonight after the banquet.

Student churches have planned special services for parents tomorrow morning. (A complete schedule is printed on an inside page.)

Sunday afternoon the university symphony orchestra and combined men's and women's choruses will present a concert in the theater at 4:15. At 3 the ROTC corps will hold its graduation parade at Camp Randall.

Parents Take Campus Tours

John Steuart Curry, for the first time since becoming Wisconsin's artist in residence, will open his studio tomorrow morning from 10 to 12, a special highlight for Parents' weekend. Mr. Curry, renowned American painter, will greet visiting parents at his studio.

Also, bus tours are planned to leave the Memorial Union every 10 minutes from 10 to 12 this morning, and from 1:30 to 3 in the afternoon. Highspots, besides the campus, will include the Forest Products laboratory, radio station WHA, geological museum, botany greenhouses, and the crime detection laboratory.

Walking tours conducted by student guides are also planned. Conducted tours of the Union will be featured from 10 to 12 Sunday morning. This year's basketball trophies will be on exhibition.

Hour boat trips around Lake Mendota will be held tomorrow afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30.

An information booth in front of the Union will be maintained where parents may register and receive a special Parents' weekend souvenir program. Campus guides will be posted for the parents' convenience.

'Parents' Punch' Will Cool, Rest the Folks

After two days of sight-seeing, parents will have a chance to relax in the congenial atmosphere of the Union at "Parents' Punch" from 3:30 to 4:30 this afternoon.

This social hour, designed along the same lines as the weekly coffee hours that are held in the Union throughout the year, will serve as a breathing spell during which faculty, parents, and students may mingle and get better acquainted.

Students and faculty will be hosts and hostesses in the Council room and the rathskeller, toward which the male contingency will probably drift to meet the coaches.

Dykstra, Heil Speak at Annual Banquet Today

Gathering in Great hall tonight for the high spot of the entire Parents' weekend program, the annual banquet, parents and students will hear Pres. C. A. Dykstra and Gov. Julius P. Heil and witness the awarding of honors to outstanding students on the campus.

Toastmaster for the occasion will be Joseph Barnett, general co-chairman of the weekend. Selected to deliver the response for parents are Mrs. C. F. Butcher, Milwaukee, and Fred Hoeher, Chicago. Both speakers have daughters attending the university, Betty Butcher and Caroline Hoeher.

At the speakers' table will be President Dykstra, Governor Heil, Mrs. Butcher, Mr. Hoeher, Joseph Barnett, and Mildred Schiff.

Separate tables have been reserved for an expected 135 special guests, among whom are members of the board of regents, the board of visitors, and deans of the university.

Preceding the banquet at 4:30 p.m. in the main gallery of the Union will be President Dykstra's reception.

The awards to be presented at the banquet are: the Herfurth efficiency award, won by Elwin Fuller, College of Agriculture, given annually to the senior man who has made the best all-around showing in ability, resourcefulness, scholarship, and personality; the Kenneth Sterling Day award, won by Raymond Black, Rich- (Continued on Page 9)

Groups Unite To Give Concert

Featuring the combined university symphony orchestra and chorus, the Sunday afternoon concert in the Union theater, with more than 300 students participating, will climax the annual Parents' weekend program.

The concert will consist of two parts, the orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Carl Bricken, head of the Music school, presenting half of the program, a Brahms symphony, and the chorus joining in the presentation of the second part, a concert version of Purcell's beautiful opera, "Dido and Aeneas," under the direction of Prof. E. Earl Swinney and Paul Jones, choir directors.

The concert, considered to be one of the outstanding musical events given in Wisconsin each year, will be held tomorrow afternoon in the Union theater. It will officially bring to a close the Parents' weekend, which is held annually at Wisconsin in honor of the mothers and fathers of university students.

Parents Meet Prexy

PRES. C. A. DYKSTRA

Preceding the banquet, at 4:30 in the main gallery of the Union, President Dykstra's reception will be held, giving parents an opportunity to meet the faculty informally. Included in the reception line will be Mrs. Dykstra, Dean and Mrs. Goodnight, Dean Louise T. Greeley, and Arthur J. Glover, president of the board of regents.

Winners of Spring Festival Song Tourney Announced

A chilled but determined audience heard and applauded the 15 choral groups in the Tourney of Song finals last night, sung from the Union balcony.

Winners were:
SORORITIES—Gamma Phi Beta, first; Kappa Kappa Gamma, second; INDEPENDENT WOMEN—Chadbourne hall; FRATERNITIES—Phi Delta Theta, first; Psi Upsilon, second, and INDEPENDENT MEN—Wesley Men of Song.

Competitors, listed in their order of appearance, were Chadbourne hall, Elizabeth Waters hall, Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Phi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Chi Omega, Men's Halls, Wesley Men of Song, Alpha Delta Phi, Psi Upsilon, Delta Upsilon, Beta Theta Pi, and Phi Delta Theta.

The winning Gamma Phi Betas, directed by Jean Crowder, sang "It Ain't Necessarily So" and "Romeo." Kappa Kappa Gamma, under Marjorie Shearer's direction, sang "One Alone," "The Desert Song," and "Sisters, Let Us Sing Again."

Dorothy Stritsky headed the independent women's winners, Chadbourne hall, who sang "Cradle Song" and Mozart's "Alphabet."

The Phi Delta Thetas who placed first sang "Beautiful Dreamer" and "Sovereign Forever." Hendrick de Hartog directed the group. Psi Upsilon, headed by Phil Arveson, presented "After the Battle" and "Evensong."

Religious Students Regard U. Churches Their 'Second Home'

University men and women at Wisconsin often find a second home in the student churches near the campus, where they carry on their religious work and develop leadership, it has been shown.

Led by energetic pastors interested in the students, they do much of the planning of activities in the churches. Beside the regular church services on Sunday, forum and discussion groups are held where the principles of Christianity are applied to personal and social life of the students.

Activities continue through the day on Sunday with many groups ending the day with cost suppers and entertainment provided through skits and community singing.

During the week, other discussion groups, teas, and parties contribute to the university program of the university student.

WAR HITS CAMPUS In ROTC Sham Battle

Dive bombers and gas warfare, land mines, machine guns, and barbed wire entanglements—these are only a few destructive devices of modern warfare that will see action this morning in the first large scale battle ever staged by a university cadet corps.

Even though none of these combat weapons will be real, or unguarded enough to do any real harm, the Red army and the Blue army, together comprising 850 cadets, will face each other under actual battle conditions, and any man who exposes himself at close range for more than three seconds will be considered a "casualty."

The hostilities are supposed to be a result of an invasion of Blue territory by the Red forces. After the Blue army has defended its land on the year, the Wesley Men of Song will retain the first place cup in the independent men's division. With Marv Fennema directing, they gave "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride" and "Wesley Hymn."

Other group directors were Kay Meng, Alice Gauer, Jean Kolb, Harriet Kuehne, Betty Schlingen, John Gilbert, Ben Park, and Ray Black.

Co-chairmen for the tourney were Charlotte Adams and Robert Woolen, who also did the announcing and awarding of the cups. Mrs. Leon L. Itis, former vocal teacher, Miss Helen

ROTC Seniors Commissioned In U. S. Army

Eighteen advanced Reserve Officers' Training corps seniors, all of them infantry, will report to active duty within two weeks after their graduation this June, Lt. Col. Herbert H. Lewis, ROTC commandant here, announced yesterday.

These infantry graduates were selected for their military department ratings of "superior" or "excellent" and their availability on the dates on which they will be required to report.

Twelve of the cadets have been assigned to active duty at the infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga., and have been directed to report there either June 29 or 30. The other six graduates have been ordered to arrive at Fort Custer, Mich., on or about July 7, and report to troops of the fifth division there.

ASSIGNED TO INFANTRY

Graduates assigned to the infantry school at Fort Benning are:

Assigned to troops of the fifth division at Fort Custer are:

Matt A. Britten, Marshfield; George P. Henry, Appleton; Edward W. Jones, Madison; Kenneth F. Klinkert, Menomonee Falls; Norman G. Nelson, Madison; and John L. Rahmlow, Madison.

THOMAS WILL SPEAK IN UNION SUNDAY NIGHT

NORMAN THOMAS

Norman Thomas, America's foremost Socialist and a firm isolationist, will speak under the auspices of the Union forum committee tomorrow evening on "How to Save Democracy." Before the address, Mr. Thomas will attend a dinner with members of the committee, and John Spindler, chairman.

Mr. Thomas is the head of the Socialist party in the United States and has been his party's candidate for president for the past four elections. He ran for governor of New York state in 1924 and for mayor of New York city on two occasions. He is the author of several books pertaining to Socialism, and war and peace. His latest work, which appeared last year, was entitled "Keep America Out of War—a Program." His topic is in keeping with his ideas of making democracy work in its own back yard.

The address, which will begin at 8 o'clock in the Union theater, is the latest in the series of Union forums which the committee has been presenting.

Men's Residence Halls to Award Prizes Sunday

The presentation of scholastic, service, and athletic awards will be the main part of tomorrow afternoon's Parents' weekend program at the men's residence halls, Carl Westring, chairman of the men's halls Parents' weekend committee, announced yesterday.

RECOGNIZE MEN

In recognition of their services to the men's halls, eight residents, recently initiated into Delta Epsilon, honorary dormitory fraternity, will receive service keys. The new initiates are Harry Hinchliffe, Ochser; Nathan Heffernan, Chamberlin; Bob Bittner, Conover; Erik Hensen, High; Garret Duel, Botkin; Edward Due, Frankenburger; Darrell McCrory, Turner; and Larry Halle, La Follette.

Plaques will be presented to the houses having the highest grade point average in the Adams, Tripp, and Kronshage units, and trophies will be awarded to the championship teams of the intramural sports program.

Awards will be made by a co-ed court of honor chosen from Barnard, Chadbourne, and Elizabeth Waters halls. Members of the court are being selected by the men's halls

'Dark Victory' Returns Tonight

"Dark Victory," one of the most compelling dramas the Wisconsin Players have ever staged, returns to the Memorial Union theater tonight for its final performance at 8:45. J. Russell Lane directs the production, dramatic highlight of Spring festival.

Last week at its premiere, the critics called the show a remarkably creditable job of acting and direction, a play that called forth the best acting the student theater has seen this season.

Weather--

Fair and warmer.

Awards Granted Two Students At Med Banquet

A banquet in Tripp commons last night ended the annual medical field day sponsored by Sigma Sigma, honorary freshman medical fraternity. Dr. Hans Reese of the Wisconsin General hospital staff addressed the group of more than 250 medical students and faculty on "Dancing Mania."

Student research papers were read in the morning session. Dr. William W. Bauer, a Wisconsin School of Medicine alumnus, now director of the American Medical association's bureau of health education, spoke on "Adventures in Health Education" in the afternoon.

AWARDS GIVEN

Awards went to Arthur Hoessel, second year medical student from Milwaukee, and John K. Fulton, second year medical from Madison. Hoessel won the Alumni Research foundation award which is $600 for a year of independent research after two years of medical school. Phi Delta Epsilon medical fraternity presented the Bardeen award of $25 for the best freshman work in anatomy to Fulton.

Robert Gavin, general chairman of the field day, was toastmaster. It was his painful duty to announce that a new tradition had been added to field day: the faculty won the faculty, junior-senior baseball game that afternoon.

DYKSTRA DETAINED

Dr. Reese's speech, which considered the historical manifestations of St. Vitus dance in connection with past world upheavals, was followed by a backward look into some of the faculty private lives by the third year class. Also on the program was a quartet consisting of Stan Custer, Bill Gilmore, Miles Smith, and Bruce Douglas.

Pres. Clarence A. Dykstra, who was scheduled to speak, was unable to attend because he was called on a special mediation board in Washington.

An exhibit of student projects was on display at the Memorial institute. For the first time a display of student-faculty hobbies was included. Leather hand work, photographs, stamps, and a radio set were among the Medical school's leisure time amusements.

LOUIS BEATS 'BUDDY' BAER

Joe Louis retained his world's heavyweight championship last night in Washington, D. C., when "Buddy" Baer, 17th challenger of Louis' title, failed to come back on the canvas when the seventh round bell rang.

Noble Experiment Tried By Orchesis - - It's Noble

By CHESTER S. GOLDSTEIN
(Cardinal Review Editor)

Orchesis, the student dance organization, presented last night a noble experiment in dance drama at the Union theater. But despite the fact that it was a noble experiment, it remained nevertheless an experiment—interesting but not particularly accomplished.

USE CHOREOGRAPHY

The innovation in choreographic technique came in the number entitled "The Green Question" and consisted of combining the poetry of Howard Moss with the dance movements worked out by members of the group. Taken separately, each constituent of the drama would have been considered as a rather good specimen of the respective art. But put together, they somehow detracted from the effectiveness of each other.

The audience found it difficult to listen to the lines of Mr. Moss' rather abstruse poetry and concentrate on the symbolism of the dancing. Such a combination has

Recognize Exceptional Women for Activities

With colorful class procession, and the music of the university band as a background, senior women were bidden farewell and junior, sophomore, and freshman honors were announced at the annual Senior Swingout on Lincoln terrace last night.

About 600 students and parents watched the ceremony, the first event of the Parents' weekend program, and close to 400 co-eds participated.

While the late afternoon sun slanted on the procession, two long rows of white-clad graduating women marched down the hill, led by eight prominent seniors, walked through the traditional arch, and up the hill again, where they took their places and listened to the announcement of new Mortar Board and Crucible members, and the awarding of fellowships and scholarships.

The members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, led the procession up the hill, garbed in caps and gowns, while the juniors, in pastel colors, carrying the daisy chain, and the freshmen and sophomores, also in pastel, lined up on the lower part of the hill.

A highlight of the ceremony was the traditional passing of a flaming torch from past WSGA president Lois Warfield to Betty Biart, incoming president, who walked up the hill to receive it and to be welcomed into Mortar Board membership by Kath-

Honor Society Initiates Eligible Seniors Soon

When new members are initiated into Iron Cross, senior men's honorary society, soon they will join the ranks of an elite group of University of Wisconsin men. Since its founding almost 40 years ago, the secret fraternity with its hallowed traditions has brought honor to a select group of senior men annually.

Inscribed on the rolls of Iron Cross are such names as the following:

HOAN, BUTTS

Daniel Webster Hoan, for many years Milwaukee's perennial mayor, 1905; Prof. O. L. Kowalke, 1906; W. J. Aberg, prominent Madison attorney and conservationist, 1912; Judge Alvin C. Reis, 1913; Alfred P. Haake, legendary activities man and father of Alicia Haake, now a senior, 1914; Arlie Mucks, football great, 1916; A. C. Nielsen, father of the present A. C. Nielsen, 1918; Prof. Harold M. Groves, 1919; Coach Guy Sundt, 1922.

Porter Butts, now head of the Memorial Union, 1924; L. C. Eklund, familiar "by-line" writer for the Milwaukee Journal, 1927; Harry Thoma, editor of The Wisconsin Alumnus and

TO OUR PARENTS:

The staff of the Daily Cardinal extends its heartiest welcome to you and adds its effort to that of the entire campus to make your visit here an enjoyable one.

We are glad to have you here this weekend, because we want you to see exactly what life is on the university campus. We want you to join us in our activities and participate with us in some of the fun that we have at school.

You are probably more interested than anyone else in what goes on in Madison, because you have your sons and daughters here, and we are certain that what you will see and do here will please you. When you return home at the end of your visit, you will be sure that the University of Wisconsin offers opportunities to your son and daughter that no other educational institution approaches.

We of the Cardinal will be glad to welcome you at our business and editorial offices at 823

SCENE ON THE CAMPUS . . .

Ben Logan, journalism student, getting a C from his instructor on a story he had sold to "This Week" magazine for $50 . . . Real live Indians selling baskets on the first floor of the library . . . Law students emerging from their 11 o'clock classes with free ice cream that had been distributed . . . The Democrat Printing company doing the printing for the ultra-Republican Wisconsin legislature . . . The wagon-like popcorn stand being towed home along the sidewalk from its customary location at Park and University . . . Carl Adam, student board reporter, accusing a man of taking his hat, and then blushing violently when the accused turned around and placed the hat on pint-sized Adam's head. It came down over his ears . . . Tom McKern, sophomore crew star, recovering from the measles in time to come down with glandular fever, and then getting over the fever just in time to catch bronchial pneumonia . . . The maid at Spooner house giving Alex Dworkin's pet turtle its morning ration of ant eggs . . . Some Tripp hall boys wondering why, and others knowing why, the friendly "Ruth" was replaced by another woman at the gatehouse switchboard . . . Freshman Frank Thatcher getting three (3) dates for the dormitory formal, and then being turned down by all of them.

NEXT WEEK'S DIVERSION . . .

Top cinema attractions this coming week will be William Powell in "Love Crazy" at the Orpheum, Walt Disney's "Fantasia" at the Parkway beginning Wednesday, and "Meet John Doe," which is scheduled for the Capitol next weekend. Among the second runs are "Waterloo Bridge" at the Madison Monday and Tuesday, and "Brigham Young" at the Majestic Monday.

The only live show will be the WHA Variety Show in the Union theater next Saturday afternoon. This truly professional show will feature a parade of campus entertainers ranging from Dean Goodnight to Al Beaumont.

FROM THE CARDINAL FILES . . .

One Year Ago This Week: Gene Englund won the Walter Alexander scholastic scholarship for athletes. . . The mock GOP convention broke up in a riot after dormites attempted to nominate "Honest Jake from Georgia." Robert Taft was endorsed in a sober session the following night.

Two Years Ago This Week: Coach John Walsh was married . . . Ted Lewis and Gene Krupa played the Orpheum . . . "Fuzzy" Douglas resigned as baseball coach . . . The ULLA and ASU merged.

Three Years Ago This Week: A "silver shirt" scare hit Madison and The Daily Cardinal was accused of furthering Nazism by encouraging anti-semitism . . . "Dusty" Rhodes, playing at the Orpheum, declared "swing is dead."

MADISON TRAVELOGUE . . .

The Memorial Union building is 200 feet high (five stories), and 320 feet long . . . Seventeen sets of plans were drawn before it was built . . . 334,830 people have attended functions in the building so far this year . . . Every billiard table is in play about eight hours a day—more than any others in the country . . . The 295 rooms in the building were reserved a total of 4,564 times so far this year . . . The building site is worth $150,000 . . . At meal times the refectory serves 700 people an hour . . . The porter who shines shoes in the barber shop helped to build the place . . . TO THE MILITARY DEPARTMENT:

The ROTC sham battle today marks a new high in the teaching of practical military operations. It places ROTC on a par with units whose training, although shorter in duration, is more concentrated. In these times, parades and drill are secondary. Combat and field practice are vital. Mud and dirt take the tin out of "tin" soldiers; long marches bring an honest appreciation of the seriousness of military training.

There is no longer any room for perfunctory training in the Reserve Officers' Corps. War is close to us—too close for comfort—and effective training now means better preparation later. This year's war is a new kind, and this year's soldiers must be trained in new techniques. They can only get that valuable training in an actual approximation of war conditions.

TO THE STUDENT BOARD HOUSING COMMITTEE:

Student housing conditions may come under the scrutiny of the state industrial commission within the next few months, if the Wisconsin Senate concurs in a joint resolution which passed the assembly Thursday ordering the commission to investigate housing conditions throughout the state.

If the resolution passes the Senate and the commission begins a comprehensive investigation, you will have the chance you have been waiting for. Your committee has spent the past year investigating campus housing conditions and filing the data you have uncovered for use in just such a situation. By bringing your files up to date to present as complete a picture of existing campus housing evils as possible you may succeed in convincing the commission that something needs to be done.

" . . . Guard against panic and the passion and internal danger that walk with panic when strident voices call out to you during days that are dark. It may well be that only we will be left among the powerful peoples to guard what is left of a civilization. Let us hold fast the while, therefore, confident in the belief that if we can, the world will once more come to its senses led generously and with understanding by a great nation which, during a world crisis, made itself strong within itself even while it prepared against possible aggression from without."—President C. A. Dykstra, University of Wisconsin, 1940.

PAST - PRESENT - FUTURE

Drawn and cut by Ralph Rosenblum, Cardinal staff artist, this striking lineum block shows in graphic detail the past, present, and future of transportation. What will tomorrow mean for transportation? How will the man of the future travel? Perhaps the rocket-ship will be the answer.

EDUCATION— Is It Making Us Dumber?

Editor's Note—Concluded on this page, this out-spoken article written by a staff member of the California Daily Bruin says that taxpayers of America are spending more than two billions of dollars annually for the purpose of making their children duller. What do you think? The Cardinal welcomes comment pro or con on this question.

Education is the biggest industry in the United States. It has been a ten billion dollar plant, and is bigger than anything in the country except the national debt. The schools have an annual pay-roll of two and a half billion dollars. Now just picture to yourself America's biggest industry being devoted to making its people duller. Thirty million pupils, getting duller every day. The taxpayers of America are spending $2,500,000,000 annually for the (unsuspected) purpose of making their children duller. One of the kids suggested that the proper title for our glorious land is "United States of Stupidity."

The tax-payers and the children do not suspect that they are not getting much for their money, time, and effort. And the teachers and the school-administrators take care not to tell the pupils that the schools are injuring their minds and that they are getting duller and duller every day.

Why don't the adults provide us kids with a good, competent educational system? The answer is, they don't know how.

That being the case, it seems to us that we kids will have to depend upon ourselves. For our elders are helpless. Yes, helpless, dumb and incompetent. They put on great airs. They act very dignified. They adopt a pleasant, understanding (sales-) manner.

But inside,—there is a great void.

DULLER AND DULLER

No, we can't depend upon our elders. Why didn't they tell us the truth,—confess that they are helpless? Perhaps we could have helped them to solve the knotty problem. But no. They have ignored us and deceived us.

We are fed daily on what amounts to propaganda. For the whole appearance of a busy university, with its thousands of students, is impressive. It looks as though great things are being accomplished. They are. Just look at them numerically. The trouble is, the figures are on the wrong side of the decimal point. They are minus instead of plus.

So we kids find ourselves suddenly thrown upon our own resources. We find it desirable to reverse the national custom. Instead of growing duller and duller all the time, we would prefer to grow brighter and brighter all the time.

So, for the purpose of accomplishing this aim, we are forming an organization called

The Young Dumb-Clucks.

Editor, The Daily Cardinal:

I wish to express my high appreciation of your delivery service this year. Never during the years that I have been a subscriber to The Daily Cardinal have I had this morning paper delivered as satisfactorily in respect to the time of the morning, the care of placement at the doorstep, and so far as I know, without the omission of even a single issue during the entire year.

In view of this favorable experience with you, and furthermore in consideration of the much saner editorial policy and the better reporting service than in other years, there will be no question about my willingness to renew my subscription for the coming year.

Independents Hold Convo at Whitewater State This Weekend

Representatives of men's and women's lodging houses are attending the state convention of college independents held at Whitewater State Teachers' college this weekend. This is the first state-wide convention held in Wisconsin and has grown out of the national convention held in Texas early this spring.

Old and new members of the lodging house board are among those attending from this campus.

Pres. Frank Ecker appointed Melvin Schueller as chairman of the key men group for next year. A policy of seeking further cooperation between the men's and women's lodging house groups was brought to the attention of the board.

The next meeting of the board will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Union. All residents of lodging houses, ward chiefs, and officers are reminded that the meetings of the board are open to the public. They are invited to attend these meetings.

Gilman House Holds Banquet This Tuesday

Gilman house will hold its annual banquet Tuesday at 6:30 in the Old Madison room of the Union. Dick Phenon, social chairman, and Len Zedler, fellow, have obtained Mr. Howard Sanford, supervisor of health education and recreation, as guest speaker for the affair which is intended to honor the graduating seniors and also the numerous achievements made by Gilman residents during the past year.

Messrs. D. L. Halverson, Otto Mueller, Arnold Dammen, Lee Burns, and W. Norris Wentworth will also be present as guests of Gilman. Tom Current will act as master of ceremonies and the Gilman house quartet composed of Don Schmidt, Carl Olsen, Howie Schutz, and Bob Lystad will provide the musical entertainment.

Defending Champs Favored In Meet Today

When the 46th annual state high school track meet gets under way this morning at the stadium, the defending champions in all three classes will be favored to retain their titles.

Only the perennial class B champions, Whitefish Bay, are overwhelming favorites to repeat. In class A, Milwaukee Washington faces strong rivals in Milwaukee South, Madison West, Green Bay West, and possibly Kenosha. Soldiers Grove, which tied for the title with Weyauwega last year, is generally picked to edge out Horicon, North Fond du Lac, and New Holstein.

WASHINGTON BALANCED

Paced by Jerry Demeter, Milwaukee Washington will be out to snatch their third consecutive championship. Demeter has raced off the 100 in :10.1, the 200 in :19.9, and has leaped almost 22 feet in the broad jump. Added to these points the Purgolders can depend on boys in almost every event to come through. It is their excellent balance which makes them the favorites.

BEST BALANCE

This balance is something which individual stars from the other schools cannot match. Madison West has a top relay team and a good shot putter in Romano, plus several dash men, but little else. The same thing is true with almost every other class A contender: stars but no balance.

AFTER FIVE STRAIGHT

Coaches Chet Wangerin and Flo Caulkett have another fine team at Whitefish Bay, a team which will attempt to be the first school in any class to win five state championships in a row. With 17 men qualified in every event but the mile, the Bays should take their meet with little trouble. In Bill Vedder they have a star of the first magnitude. Vedder has topped six feet in the high jump, 21 feet in the broad jump, and has repeatedly broken the high hurdles record.

The class B title holder can boast of a trio of high hurdlers unbeaten this year. They all should place. Low hurdler Bob Albrecht has posted the best time in that event of any one in the state. Other Bay point winners who should help in breaking the 21-year-old scoring record of 49 points, made by Merrill, by quite a margin, include Jack Crabb, weights; Grant Gonyo, pole vaulter; and Jack Thompson and Jim Pflugrad, dash men.

FIGHT FOR SECOND

The fight for second place centers between Cudahy and Port Washington. Leading performers for the former include Quarter-miler Charlie Hosler and Defending Mile King Carl Deutsch. Port will be banking on State Champion Earl Horn in the high jump, broad jump, and century. Both teams have excellent relay outfits. Others of the 46 schools who figure to be right up there are Kaukauna, Hartland, and Menasha.

The class C squad of Soldiers Grove will bring to the stadium a group of top athletes in an effort to edge out Horicon, champions from 1937 to 1939. Star of the Grove squad is Bill McDowell, dash man and high jumper. He has the best 100 yard mark in class C, plus the best high jump mark. The defending champs will also be counting on Bailey in the 200 and broad jump for valuable points. However, it is their crack relay outfit which should win the meet for them, just as they did last year.

ONE MAN TEAM

Horicon will be banking on speedy Westmayer in the 440 and low hurdles, and Wagener in the low hurdles and 100 for a victory. They will be greatly handicapped by a lack of capable performers in the field events. If one is looking for a dark horse he might well choose North Fond du Lac. In Smoleske, half miler, and Beaster, low hurdler, they have two, likely winners; and if some of their other qualifiers can come through they may surprise.

A one man team is New Holstein's

Evanston, Ill., May 23—(By Special Wire to Cardinal)—The University of Wisconsin baseball team kept in the Big Ten baseball race by defeating their next place rivals, Northwestern, 6 to 3, in the first of a crucial two game series here today.

Going into the first of the seventh the score was 2 to 1 in favor of Coach Stan Klores' Wildcats, but the Badgers broke loose with a barrage of hits to score five runs in this inning. Up until this point in the game Bob Van Sickle and Bob Motl were having a tight pitching duel, with Motl having a slight edge.

SCHEIWE LEADS BATTERS

In this vital seventh inning bombardment, Englebreton opened the festivities by walking, and Wildling was hit by a pitched ball. The bases were loaded when Van Sickle stepped up to the plate for a sacrifice bunt, which did not develop as intended. Van Sickle beat out the bunt to score the tying run.

Successful singles by Lennie Sweet, right fielder, Ed Scheiwe, center fielder, and First Baseman Jack Forman accounted for the total of five tallies. Scheiwe led the Badgers in batting, pounding the ball for two hits in five trips to the plate. The most successful Wildcat hitter was Arnold, catcher, with three hits in four times at bat. No other player on either team was able to get more than one hit.

Van Sickle was the more effective of the two hurlers, allowing nine scattered hits, but striking out eight batters when they needed to be sent down swinging. Motl allowed eight hits, but could only trike out three Badgers.

He Helps the Cause

BOB VAN SICKLE

The two teams will meet again Saturday afternoon. A loss for Wisconsin would dispel any hopes for a shot at the Big Ten title, despite the win today.

Four Badgers To West Coast

On the basis of performances at the annual Big Ten track meet in Minneapolis last week, four University of Wisconsin track stars have been selected by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson, director of athletics at Northwestern university, as members of an all-star Western conference track squad to meet a similar Pacific coast squad in Los Angeles, June 17.

Howard Schoenike, two miler; Don Timmerman, high jumper; George Paskvan, shot put; and Lawrence Hadley, javelin, are the Badgers selected for the honors. These men will join with the representatives of seven other Big Ten schools in leaving Chicago June 10 for the coast.

Michigan, second in the Big Ten meet, placed eight on the all-star squad, while Indiana, the conference champion, will send its heralded group of seven trackmen.

Seven Get Varsity Wrestling Letters

Seven varsity wrestlers were awarded letters and ten freshmen were given numerals at the annual steak fry held last Thursday, according to Coach George Martin.

Men awarded letters include Capt. Johnny Roberts, Big Ten middle-weight champion and second ranking in the nationals; Earl Hager, athletic board representative and flashy 175 pounder; Bill Bennett, heavyweight; Erv Ritz, 145 pounder; Al Busch, 155 pounds; Roger Blackmore, scrappy 121 pounder; and Bill Beaumet, 135 pounds.

Freshman numerals were awarded to Frosh Capt. Ed Dzirik, 135 pounds; Sammy Muir, 165; Orrin Stearns, 155; Dan Freeman, 135; Jim Schneider, 175; Warren Schneider, 145; Ken Persion, 145; Cletus Beire, 155; Norm Ziechick, 128; and George Halazon, 155.

Michigan Frosh Hurls Javelin 196 Feet

Within a week after Wisconsin's Larry Hadley won the 1941 Big Ten individual javelin title with a throw of 187 feet 7 1/2 inches, Michigan's freshman record for the event was lifted to 196 feet 6 inches by Pete Wege, yearling from Grand Rapids.

Until Wege came along this spring to shatter the mark, the freshman javelin record at Michigan had stood at 190 feet since Phil Northrup had hurled the spear that distance in 1927. Only twice during practice this spring

ATOs Come Back With Two Wins Greek Softballers Work Overtime

The ATOs were really "hot" yesterday and played and won two games in convincing style as if to try to prove they are not yet "ex" champions. At noon they set back the Sig Eps 5-1. Arps allowed the Sig Eps only one hit and homers by Vogel and Froelich drove in all the ATO runs.

In the afternoon game, Bitnec's homer sent them off to a fine start and they defeated Phi Delta Theta 5-2. The Phi Delt's only hits were by Beers and Koch in the fourth inning, but they made them good for two runs. Biel led the ATOs with a double and single.

DUS LOSE TWO

Delta Upsilon also played two games yesterday, but failed to win either one of them and thus lost a chance to get in the playoffs. The DUs had the misfortune to meet up with Krueger, Delta Chi ace, who is undefeated this year. He fanned 10 and allowed only one hit. Ray Bolger pitched almost as good a game for the DUs, but lost a heartbreaker on a fifth inning error, 1-0.

No official report has come in on the second DU game, but it seems they also lost that by one run to the SAEs, 6-5. With two out in the last half of the fifth the score 6-4, a man on base, the tying run at bat. Buck

Notre Dame Sets Two Stadium Records; 5 Dual Marks Broken

By "RIP" PERUSSE

The "Fightin' Irish" of Notre Dame fought their way to victory over a gallant band of Badger tracksters at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon. The score was 76 to 55.

The Irish were really hot. They won 10 of the 15 events, slammed the low hurdles, and set two new Camp Randall records.

A smooth-striding sophomore sensation from Notre Dame, Oliver Hunter, clipped 7.2 seconds off the Camp Randall two mile mark of 9:29.3, set by Wally Mehl of Wisconsin two years ago. The small crowd—too small for what the show was worth—gave him a real round of applause.

SHOT PUT RECORD

The other new record was made in the shot put. Powerful Francis Delaney of Notre Dame, Penn relays shot put champion, threw the iron ball 50' 11". Prof. Arlie Mucks, head official for the event, was there to see his own 24-year-old mark of 49' 4 1/2" abolished.

Five meet records were broken and one was tied. Besides the two meet records which toppled incidentally with the Camp Randall marks, new marks were set in the 220 yard low hurdles, the high jump, the pole vault, the broad jump, and the discus, and the time for the 220 yard dash was equalled. Meet records were previously the results of a triangular match with Northwestern held last year.

Francis Sheets of Notre Dame was leading scorer with a double win for 10 points in the two dash events. Captain Schoenike of Wisconsin, Beierle of Wisconsin, Dillon of Notre Dame, and Maloney of Notre Dame all garnered eight points.

WOE TO MARQUETTE

The Wisconsin men had one big consolation. They did much better than Marquette against the powerful South Bend team. Notre Dame overwhelmed the Golden Avalanchers by 52 points last Saturday as compared to the 21 points by which they downed the Badgers yesterday. This spells trouble for the Hilltoppers when the men in cardinal move to Milwaukee next Thursday.

Undefeated St. John's Meets Badger Frosh '8' on Mendota Today

The St. John's Military academy's undefeated varsity crew will meet the Badger third string freshman eight at 5 o'clock this afternoon as a feature of Parents' weekend.

The race, to be held over a mile and five-sixteenths course on Lake Mendota, will begin in University bay just opposite Picnic point, and will end directly in front of the Memorial Union. The entire race will be visible from the Union terrace.

BET SHIRTS ON RACE

The first and second string freshman crews will meet the Culver Military academy varsity and junior varsity eights in their traditional "shirt" race at Culver, Ind., tomorrow. It has been an annual feature of this event for both squads to bet their crew shirts upon the outcome of the race. Wisconsin's exceptionally heavy and finely-trained crews are slight favorites to repeat last year's victory.

St. John's cadets have been undefeated in two previous matches and are "primed to take the Badgers into camp." Asst. Crew Coach Jack Gunning will be in charge of the affair. Wisconsin's rowers are determined to outdo last year's frosh as well as to show their merit against the cadets.

Congo Students Plan Welcome For Parents

Congregational students will give their parents a special welcome at their annual Parents' banquet. It will be held in the dining room of the First Congregational church, immediately after services there on Sunday morning.

Featured event of the banquet will be a description of the radio programs which the Congregational Student association members have been presenting over WHA throughout the second semester. This series, known as the Chapel of the Air, has attracted wide comment. Script writers and performers will be presented to the parents.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Swan will be honored guests at the banquet. Roger Robbins, president of the Congregational Student association, will be toastmaster. Officers for the new year will be introduced. They are headed by Miss Martha Lovell of Madison as president. The banquet will close with a talk by Rev. James C. Flint, minister to Congregational students.

Many reservations have already been accepted. An invitation is extended to all Congregational students and parents to attend.

The regular Bradford club meeting will be held in the late afternoon. All Congo students will meet at the church or the student house by 4:30. Cars will take them out to Verona for a picnic and outdoor meeting.

Parents' Weekend To Be Observed At Luther Memorial

Luther Memorial church will hold a special students' service at 10:45 Sunday morning in observance of Parents' weekend. The Rev. E. J. Blenker, pastor for students, will give the sermon, entitled "The Growth of God's Children."

Prof. Olaf A. Hungen, chairman of the university department of chemistry, also will speak.

Although the main service begins at 10:45, students and parents are invited to come at 10:30 to hear the organ recital which regularly precedes the main service.

In the afternoon there will be a picnic at Sunset point.

Miss Julia Wilkinson, executive secretary to President Dykstra, was made an honorary member of the organization.

Sophomore women elected to Crucible were announced by Ann Lawton. They are Helen Hall, Martha Wells, Margaret Schindler, Margaret (Jodi) Jacobi, Katherine Marshall, Joan Withington, Mary Jane Vroman, Cynthia Kersten, Betty Jean Querhamer, and Lea-Ruth Pearlman.

GLICKSMAN AWARD GIVEN

Dean of Women Louise T. Greeley presented the Edna Kerngood Glicksman award to Marie Grumann, the Sigma Alpha Iota music award to Harriet Kuehne, the Christine M. Steenbock fellowship to Mildred Muddock, and the Grace Hobbins Modie award to Katherine Ley.

Helen Rockwood received the Chi Omega sociology award from Elizabeth Hahn, and Florence White presented the WAA scholarship awards to Joanna Murray and Imogene Christensen.

Rose Janikian, Frances Johnson, and Lillian McGilvray were awarded Sigma Epsilon Sigma scholarships by Susan B. Davis, assistant dean of women, and Lois Warfield presented scholarships to the highest ranking houses in the dormitory, sorority, and lodging house division, as well as the freshman scholarship recognition awards.

THREE WOMEN HAVE 3.0

The latter went to Jane Herman, Doris Bower, and Emily Jane Graham, the only freshman women to maintain a three point average during their first semester at the university. Scholarship cups were won by Alpha Xi Delta, the Nurses' dormitory, and 1019 University avenue.

Jane Trowbridge was general chairman of the Swingout, assisted by Irma Rumizen. The senior leaders were Lois Warfield, Mickey Schiff, Dorothy Altfield, Eva Jollos, Mary Jane Astell, Claire Tiefenthaler, Eleanor Pfund, and Janet Bickler.

11 Barnard Women Honored at Farewell Ceremony Thursday

Eleven Barnard hall residents, candidates for graduation, were honored Thursday evening at the traditional Barnard hall spring Senior Swingout, annual farewell ceremony. Mrs. Carol Kime, former Barnard resident, was guest speaker at dinner.

In a candlelight ceremony retiring dormitory officers turned over their positions to recently elected undergraduates. Graduating president Carol White conducted the installation, in which the following girls took office for next year:

Margie Thompson, president; Barbara Jones, vice president; Annette Thompson, secretary; Martha Liesk, treasurer; Doris Roberts, WSGA representative; Evelyn Bump, assistant WSGA representative; Barbara Below, librarian; Angela Bewick, music chairman; Peggy Lybarger, social chairman; Joyce Kleckner, fire chief; Mary Manter, intramurals chairman; Carlita Murphy, senior representative on dormitories and commons; Jerry Tofson, junior and Elizabeth Roberts, sophomore.

present "godfather" of the society, 1928; Francis Xavier Cuisinier, who as "Bo" made football history, 1929; Coach Harold "Bud" Foster, 1930; Arnie Dammen, now connected with the U. W. dormitories, 1932; Willard Blaesser, present assistant dean of men, 1934.

In more recent times have come James Doyle, Wallace Drew, and Bob Blum, the great "liberals" of 1937; Robert Taylor, Jack Clifford, and Allen Jorgenson of 1938 political fame; the already legendary Howie Weiss in 1939; and last year, John Urschitz, Badger business manager now working for Schlitz, and George Robbins, senior class president, now a "selectee" at Ft. Sill, Okla.

WAR CASUALTIES

Perhaps the most interesting sign-nature in the whole Iron Cross roster is on the 1920 page where a senior by the name of Frederick McIntyre Bickel made his mark long before he became Fredric March of the movies.

Certainly the most significant pages are those of 1917 and 1918, when Lt. Guy Black sent his name from Camp

Custer, Mich., and Paul Meyers mailed his from "somewhere in France." Neither ever came back.

Present members of Iron Cross are Robert Schmitz, Gerald Quackenbush, Robert W. Henning, Hugh Jones, Arthur C. Nielsen, Jr., Clarence Schoenfeld, Gunther Heller, Robert Avery, and Richard Garner. The 1941 initiation dinner is set for early in June, when new names will be added to the society rolls of men who have "at any time during their course achieved distinction in scholarship, athletics, debating, oratory, journalism, business management, music, or any other recognized field of activity."

Win One Match Wildcats Defeat Card Netmen

While the Wildcat baseball team was having its hands full with the Badger nine, S. Greenberg and tennis company came up to the Wisconsin varsity tennis courts and handed the Cardinal netmen an 8-1 lashing yesterday afternoon.

Wisconsin was saved from a complete whitewashing only through the combined efforts of Ed Koehl and Bob Negendank in the second doubles match. Koehl and Negendank handed Wildcats Hall and J. Shapiro two games in the first set and five in the second but were able to conclude the match in those two sets, 6-2, 7-5.

PLAYS 32 SETS

The Northwestern ace, Greenberg, considered one of the best collegiate tennis men in the Midwest, had an easy afternoon of it, being forced to play but 32 sets in two singles and two doubles matches. He beat Sherwood Gorenstein, 2-6, 2-6, in the singles and teamed up with Richards in the doubles to hand Gorenstein and Capt. Art Nielsen their defeat in the identical scores.

SUMMARIES (Wisconsin men first)

Gorenstein lost to Greenberg, 2-6, 2-6.
Nielsen lost to Richards, 1-6, 5-7.
Koehl lost to Hall, 7-9, 4-6.

Tudor Singers In Last Concert

The Tudor singers will present their final concert of the year Sunday evening at a supper musicale in Tripp commons at 6. Tickets still remain at the Union desk, Roland McKittrick, president, announces.

One of the longest-standing campus traditions, the present Tudor singers have invited alumni members of the group to the supper musicale, and both past and present singers will join in a group of madrigals.

Juniper boughs will decorate the dining room and a program of Negro spirituals, and songs from Russia, Finland, and various other countries, in addition to the madrigals, will be presented. Prof. E. B. Gordon leads the group.

Campus Chorus And Orchestra Present 'Dido'

"Dido and Aeneas" which the combined university chorus and symphony orchestra presents tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 in the Wisconsin Union theater, as the musical climax of Spring festival and Parents' weekend, has one of the most interesting backgrounds of any musical work. The chorus and orchestra will be directed by Carl Bricken. E. Earle Swinney and Paul Jones have rehearsed the chorus. Generally considered the first important English opera, "Dido and Aeneas" was first produced in 1689. Adaptation of the opera for concert presentation has a long historical precedent, according to Paul Jones.

CHORAL WORK

"For many years 'Dido and Aeneas' was thought to be a choral work. Not until some new manuscripts of the work were unearthed did musicians realize that the production had been originally an opera. Since that time it has been repeatedly revived as both an opera and a concert offering," Jones stated.

"The choruses are often quaint and have a charming variety of presentation," he added. "Dances and ballets in the original production will be played by the orchestra. These include a 'Sailor's Dance,' 'Dance of the Furies,' and several others."

The production was originally in three acts and four scenes. Dido's court, a witches' den, a clearing in the forest and a scene in a harbor are represented. Although the opera tells the old story of the queen of Carthage and the Trojan prince, which Virgil used in the "Aeneid," it has been adapted to suit early English standards. Witches, sorcerers, and evil demons help thicken the plot.

TEN SOLO PARTS

The production has ten solo parts with the queen and the prince sung by soprano and tenor.

Henry Purcell, who wrote this first English opera, which is preceded only by John Blow's "Venus and Adonis," was the greatest of English composers. He himself studied with Blow and later succeeded him as organist at Westminster Abbey.

Handel, during his stay in England, borrowed many passages from Purcell, as well as his broad treatment of massed chorus, and soon caused the English composer to be forgotten. Only in late years has interest in him been revived and his merit rediscovered, it is stated.

Over One Hundred Will Participate In Last Variety Show

More than 100 students and faculty members will be assembled on the stage of the Union theater to present the final broadcast of the year of the campus variety show on Saturday, May 31.

"We'll have the biggest and best array of campus entertainers ever gotten together in the university history for our last show of the year," declared Allan Beaumont, production manager of the variety shows. "Even Dean Goodnight has consented to appear on the air with us."

The Saturday broadcast will mark the conclusion of the second season of presentations on the air of a variety hour by university students. The show, prepared for broadcast and presented entirely by students, has become increasingly popular among students and parents and alumnae throughout Wisconsin.

Highlight of the show will be a rendition of the "Ballad for Americans" by a special choral group under the direction of Paul Jones of the School of Music.

In addition the most popular of the skits presented throughout the year will be reproduced by WHA Players for the gala finale of the variety shows. Four favorite campus vocalists, the popular bottle-blowers from the men's dormitories, and the serenaders, a male quartet, will provide musical entertainment.

Snow Rub Is Not Effective Remedy For Winter Frostbite

Medical authority today has reversed the age-old decision that frost-bitten ears, cheeks, and fingers should be rubbed with snow.

Condemning the fact that rubbing with snow or even ice frequently is used as a first aid measure in cases of frost-bite, the current issue of Michigan Public Health corroborated the findings of top-flight medical authority by recommending the use of body heat to renew circulation.

"Use of the warm hand or other sources of body heat has long been recognized by physicians as the proper treatment," the journal stated editorially. "Yet," it said, "the old popular notion of rubbing with snow or even with ice persists."

The journal quoted Dr. A. D. Aldrich, a member of the state council of health, as saying, "severe stroking of a frost-bitten part may rub off a portion of the skin. The advice is further supported by the Proceedings of the Mayo Clinic, which says that 'rubbing a part after freezing should

Hep Cats Losing Ground to Waltz

Jitterbugging took a back seat to the waltz, the two step, and the fox trot at Youngstown college last week.

"The college students have ruled jitterbugging out of style and are taking steps to curb it," Ralph Skerratt, president of the college council, announced.

In the future, there will be three slow dances to each fast one at college-sponsored dances, Skerratt explained. Jitterbugging has become "a nuisance" at crowded school proms, he added.

Injured Phi Gam Dog Loses Race To Speedy Gus

From his sick bed in the reception hall of the Phi Gam house where he has been confined since being hit by a car last week, Cop, Phi Gam's taunt Belgian Shepherd dog, moaned in anguished jealousy Thursday morning while one of the brothers read him a story from the Cardinal about his friend Kappa Sig Gus.

"Gus," he seemed to snarl, "that mongrel, he can only scare little cocker spaniels like Zip."

Zip is Cop's little cocker playmate who also lives at the Phi Gam house. Several weeks ago Gus, beer drinking Gus, made a pass at little Zip. Zip, with no discredit to one so small, howled and ran, leading Gus past the corner of the building where he knew his guardian angel, Cop, could be found sleeping.

Seeing his enemy of long standing picking on his little chum, Cop raised never be done, and rubbing with snow is especially contra-indicated."

up and entered the picture. Gus, presented with this changed situation, challenged by someone his own size, and without considering how unbecoming it was to the "leader of the campus dog pack," fled in the opposite direction with Cop on his tail. After several unsuccessful trips around Kennedy Manor in which Gus proved himself the fastest runner on Langdon street, Cop gave up in disgust to think that a dissipater like Gus could beat him in a race.

The Phi Gams comforted their hero by telling him the old adage, "Fear lends wings to the feet."
