1903 BADGER BOARD

ELECTED AT CLASSMEETING
YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Pro Rata Plan of Representation Adhered to Except in the Case of the Women.

The sophomore class held a meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing a board to edit next year's Badger. There were cabals and political combinations galore, and the "ward heeler" of the class was in his element. A pro rata representation plan was adopted, which made the ratio one to eleven members of the board members of the class. There is a total of 286 sophomores, of which 120 are male students in the literary courses, and 98 are engineers, by the above ratio they were given 10 and 9 representatives respectively. The young ladies seemed to have an understanding with the engineers, and were able to depart from the rule. There are only 68 girls in the class but they elected eight representatives to the board.

The hill students elected the following ten men:

Ezra T. Otfellie of Madison is a representative of Hesperia.

Lyman A. Libby of New Richmond is an Hesperian, and was mentioned for the joint debate.

Chester Lloyd-Jones of Hillside is also an Hesperian. He is well known as a debater.

Willis E. Brindley hails from La Crosse, and has done considerable newspaper work. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Richard H. Hollen, of Eau Claire; is a member of Athenae and has an excellent record as a newspaper man. He is a member of Phi Rho Beta.

Harry C. Johnson, of Evansville; is also a member of Athenae and a Delta U man. He has been prominently indented with the Haresfoot Club.

Jacob Primakow, of Milwaukee is a leading Philomathian and has a reputation for forensic and dramatic ability.

Henry H. Otjen is also a Philomathian and a Milwaukee boy. His fraternity is Theta Delta Chi.

Carl T. Madsen of Centralia has been connected with the Alumni magazine for some time.

Robert P. Kraus of Marshfield is known as an artist of considerable ability.

The feminine contingent made the following selections:

Gertrude M. Bossard of South Kaukauna.

Mae P. Telford of Mason City, Iowa, is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Grace S. Dixon, of Milwaukee, is a Tri Delta.

Mary P. Coleman of Chippewa Falls is an artist of unusual ability.

Mary F. Cunningham, of Chippewa Falls, has written considerable for the Sphinx. She is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority.

Mabel Loddard of Freeport, Ill., is a member of Castalia.

Beulah Post of Dubuque, Iowa, has had experience on a high school paper in her home town, and is a member of the Self Government Association board.

The engineers will not make their nominations until next Monday, but it is generally understood that they will choose three from each of the courses, electrical, civil and mechanical.

FOOTBALL MEN OUT

Spring Practice With Pigskin is Well Under Way.

Spring football practice which has been going on for the last few days at Camp Randall will now be continued on the campus. The new and inexperienced men are not taking advantage of this spring practice as well as they might. This is shown by their non-attendance at these practices. Some, however, are taking advantage of the opportunity and bettering their chances to make the team next fall.

The objects of the spring practice are to give the old men some spring training, to instruct the new men in the various kinds of plays and become handy with the ball. Of course no real football playing is done in this practice, but the theory is obtained which is not impracticable by any means. It is hoped that the practice will continue long enough so that all the new men who have the interest, can be given instruction in the various positions.

Among the old men who are out this spring are Riordan, I. G.; Larson, R. H.; Chamberlain, I. T.; Curtis, R. T.; Driver, F. B.; Skow, C.; and Marshall, I. H. Chamberlain, Curtis and Riordan are doing most of the coaching this spring and quite hopeful that in the new men some good material available for the team next fall will be found.

There are three of last year's Varsity players who will not play next fall, and perhaps more.

The practice this spring is not hard, it consists simply of kicking the ball and learning the rudiments of the game.

It is the custom, especially with the eastern colleges, to have the spring practice, and it is all the more necessary for those colleges who support no freshmen team.

The interest which will result from the gift by Mrs. Thos. Gill of Milwaukee of a loving cup for a prize to the best all-around football kicker, is not known yet as the donation has only been recently announced, but it is thought that this will increase the roll of enthusiasts of foot ball to a noticeable degree. Any student enrolled in the University can take part in the contest for this loving cup which will be held sometime in the middle of May.

GERMAN PLAY.

Will be Given by Local Talent for City Hospital Fund.

Next Thursday evening at Fuller Opera house a German play will be presented by local German dramatic talent for the benefit of the city hospital fund. The play which will be enacted is entitled "A Celebrated Case" and the scene is laid in the time of Louis XV. of France. The piece abounds in thrilling dramatic scenes and some spectacular features will be attempted.

The musical part will be unusually attractive. Professor Charles Nitschke has made arrangements to considerably enlarge his orchestra for the occasion.

The play is a musical-military drama. The orchestra plays almost continually throughout the performance. About twenty members of the Governor's Guard are to take part in the battle scenes. Gustav Fritsche of the University Regiment is among the number. Elaborate costumes are being made by a Milwaukee firm.

—Arthur C. Greaves has returned from his trip to his home in Spencer, Iowa, where he was called by the critical illness of his father.

RANDOLPH AND WASSON

CAPTURE FIRST HONORS IN FRESHMAN DEC.

Woolledge and Miss Miller Awarded
Second Places—A Remarkably Good Contest—Criticism of Speakers.

Francis Randolph and Charlotte Wasson took first honors in the annual freshman declamatory contest last night at Library Hall and for doing so each received a five dollar gold piece donated by Alexander Kornhauser, the public spirited Madison merchant.

The contest was the most successful one of all the ten years of its history. There was not a weak number on the entire program, and Walton Pyre, who presided at the contest, said it was the finest Freshman "Dec." he had ever listened to. An innovation was made this year by dividing the contest into two sections, one in forensic and the other in dramatic selections. The new arrangement proved entirely satisfactory, as it is both helpful to the judges and more just to the speakers themselves.

In the first department, the judges of the evening, Rev. E. G. Updike, Rev. B. B. Bigler and Judge Winslow, awarded first prize to Mr. Francis Randolph, and second prize to Mr. Gaius S. Woolledge. In the dramatic selections first place was won by Miss Charlotte Wasson, and second place by Miss Marie Miller. The decision was received with great favor and enthusiasm.

Mr. Randolph, who took the prize in oratorical work, clearly won his honors with his selection from James Blain's "Denunciation of Jefferson Davis." Mr. Randolph is a strongly built man with a powerful and pleasing voice, and he gave the stirring accusation of Davis for his cruelty at Andersonville with a fire and earnestness that won the favor of both judges and audience. Mr. Randolph is a member of Athenae.

Mr. Woolledge, also of Athenae, took the second prize with the selection, "Vindication of Treason." It is the reply of the Irish patriot when asked if he has anything to say before being condemned for treason. Although Mr. Woolledge was troubled with a slight hoarseness, he overcame it and gave the answer with strong sympathetic feeling and expression.

Mr. Leo Ludlow quoted from Senator Thurston's speech in congress on "Affairs in Cuba." His delivery was natural and unaffected, and filled with an earnestness that made his number, the opening one, very pleasing and powerful.

Mr. William Cowell gave Wendell Phillip's familiar "Toussaint L'Ouverture." He has a clear, pleasant voice and he did the famous oration ample justice. Mr. Loren Blackman was also to have spoken in this contest, but was unfortunately too ill to appear.

In the dramatic section Miss Wasson, winner of the first prize, showed remarkable ability in impersonation. Her selection, "The Set of Turquoise" is a little melodrama involving three characters, a jealous count, his wife and her maid, all of whom Miss Wasson impersonated with a naturalness and grace of bearing that gave evidence of considerable dramatic talent.

Miss Miller won second place with the thrilling Arena scene from Quo Vadis. She made a very attractive appearance and in her selection pictured the story of Ursus and the aurochs with a vigor and freedom from stiffness that made her declamation most enjoyable.

Mr. Charles Lyman was very powerful and dramatic in "The Soldier of the Empire." The scene where the old soldier stops the deserter fleeing from the battle and finds him to be his own son, was a bit of strong acting.

Miss Bessie Owen kept the audience laughing with her droll and clever impersonation of "Aunt Melissa" and her troubles with the turkeys and the dreadful boy Hezekiah.

Mr. McEachron gave "The Debating Society" and captured the audience completely with his imitation of the various remarkable orators in the meeting called in the backwoods to see about "suppressin' the press which was bee-comin' so-a-hem!—oppressive."

In the intermission between the sections of the program Mr. F. P. Bowen sang "Happy Days" with a flute obligato by Mr. Stewart Washburn, and before the announcement of the decision Mr. E. R. Williams sang a solo. Both selections were liberally applauded, but the contest itself was so long that no encores were given.

Prizes for those winning the second places were donated by Mr. Joseph Kaiser of the Fair.

DUAL MEET WITH CHICAGO.

Kilpatrick Trying to Arrange One for Interscholastic Day.

Coach Kilpatrick has been trying to make arrangements changing the date of the annual interscholastic meet from June first to May twenty-fifth, and hopes that this date may be obtained for the meet.

The annual conference college meet occurs in Chicago on June first. The same date had been arranged for the interscholastic. The Chicago and Wisconsin dual meet was scheduled for May twenty-fifth.

In order that the conference and interscholastic meets might not conflict Mr. Kilpatrick tried to make arrangements to have the interscholastic the twenty-fifth and the dual meet at Chicago the twenty-fourth, but Stagg objected to this arrangement for financial reasons. It is now proposed to hold both the interscholastic and the dual meet here on the twenty-fifth, the dual meet in the morning and the interscholastic in the afternoon, and it is hoped that this arrangement may be carried out. Such a plan would assure good attendance for both meets, thus insuring the financial success of the undertaking. Large numbers of high school students from all over the state will be here on that date and will patronize both meets. Coach Stagg has not yet been heard from but it is thought he will give his sanction to the plan. The arrangements for the interscholastic are going on very favorably and this meet both in number of contestants and the quality of the material promises to eclipse all former meets. A circular letter has been sent to all the high schools in the state, and a number of new schools have signified their intention of sending representatives.

"John Day" Launched.

The coaching launch "John Day" was launched today. The launch has been repainted and thoroughly overhauled and presents a very beautiful appearance.

—At the meeting of the athletic board last evening, L. S. Bergstrom, '02, was elected vice commodore of the navy to take the place of H. W. Cole, '02, resigned.

Errors.

In the discussion now going on in legislative and other circles concerning the advisability of appropriations for the University and its attendant work there is a note of discord often sounded that should rally all of the friends of the institution to its support. This emanates from those who charge that university professors are lobbying unduly for summer outings at the expense of the state. This criticism has been mainly directed towards the State Geological Survey and a more unfair presentation of the case has seldom been made. The work done by this and numerous other investigations auxiliary to the University is of untold benefit to the state and he who fails to appreciate that fact must be blind indeed. If any member of the faculty sees fit to urge the furtherance of such aims as these among the legislators it should be a matter of congratulation and not of denunciation. Certainly these public spirited men who are doing their best to give Wisconsin a leading place in scientific research should not be classed with the brazen lobbyist, the sinuous representative of private interests. True statesmen in our legislative halls are quick to discern the difference in motives and it is only just and right that the intelligent people of the state should frown upon this carping criticism that is being poured forth from a few enemies of progress.

Mr. Wm. J. Parker of Chicago, who has been announced to address the men of the University tomorrow afternoon in the Law building is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, class of '97. In an efficient way Mr. Parker managed the business end of the "97 Gopher" which is conceded to be the most elaborate annual ever published in the University of Minnesota. Mr. Parker is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. During his senior year he served as the General Secretary of the university association. After doing some work for the International Committee he accepted a call from the student department of the Chicago Associations. Comments on Gregory at Iowa.

The Vidette-Reporter prints a large cut of Professor Gregory in Saturday's issue and says editorially: "President G. E. McLean is receiving letters and congratulations on every hand upon the appointment of Charles Noble Gregory to the deanship of the college of law. It was generally believed that the president and regents would be unable to induce this eminent teacher and jurist to leave the University of Wisconsin, his alma mater and the scene of his activities since graduation."

The Quill says: "The announcement by President McLean of Charles N. Gregory's acceptance of the deanship was received with cheers and yells from the class Monday. Students believe that the school will fare well under his management and his selection meets with the approval of both alumni and students."

and Published Monthly.The management of "The Municipality" is making a splendid offer to energetic young men of the University for employment during the summer vacation. The management has decided to give two free trips to the Buffalo Pan-American Exposition to the two young men who will procure the highest number of subscribers for the "Municipality."The "Municipality" is a bi-monthly devoted to the consideration of state and municipal problems with special reference to Wisconsin. It is edited by Dr. Sparling, instructor in administration, who has devoted special attention to problems of municipal government. Among those contributing during the coming year will be leading public officials and others giving special attention to state and municipal government in its various phases. The general aim is to promote good government and it ought to receive the liberal support of all who are interested in civic advancement both in Wisconsin and in her neighboring states. The magazine will appear as a monthly in the future
instead of bi-monthly as at present.
It will also take on a new and more extended form by increasing its attractiveness in general appearance
and also its size and general make up.
It is the desire to greatly increase the circulation, and the commissions and prizes offered makes the opportunity offered an excellent one for students for summer employment.
Mr. Solomon Huebner and L. G.
Lohr have charge of this department.Engineers' Club.The Engineers' Club held a meeting at the new engineering building last evening, and it was very well attended. Mr. Stiler read a paper on the "Nearst Electric Lamp." Mr. J. Z.
Zimmerman discussed "Carborundum
—Its Manufacture and Properties," and Mr. Atkinson read a paper "Fan Motors and Electric Meters." Mr.
Garvens reviewed the recent periodicals. The program was an interesting one, as the papers were well prepared and each one was opened to discussion by members and visitors.In three weeks the club intends to have a Freshman Blowout in which all of the members initiated this year are to take part.Columbia to Banquet.Columbia debated last evening, the benefits of a national divorce law. H.
G. Kemp led the affirmative and H.
R. Lea the negative. The decision was for the affirmative. Officers were elected as follows: president, Wm.
P. Boynton, '01; vice president, W.
E. Smith, '03; secretary, H. R. Lea,
'03; treasurer, R. A. Kaftan, '02; censor, J. M. Kelley, '01; assistant censor, C. H. Abercromie, '03. It was decided to hold the annual banquet at the Avenue Hotel on next Friday evening at nine o'clock. Toasts will be given by each of the seniors. J.
W. Hicks, '01, will be toastmaster.
Committees were appointed as follows: Arrangements, J. C. McKesson, H. G. Kemp and F. Wetzler.
Toasts: J. M. Kelly, R. N. Nelson and
J. R. Shields.—The Y. M. C. A. in securing Mr.
Wm. J. Parker of Chicago to address the Sunday meeting has provided a strong man. His talk on "The Claims of the Young Men's Christian Association upon College Men" promises to be of great interest. A large crowd should welcome him tomorrow.J. M. Clifford, real estate broker.Wait for the opening of Waltz-
