

LIBRARIES

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

The Wisconsin alumni magazine. Volume 22, Number 2 Dec. 1920

[s.l.]: [s.n.], Dec. 1920

<https://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/QGZB5COYM65WR83>

Based on date of publication, this material is presumed to be in the public domain.

For information on re-use, see

<http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/Copyright>

The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

U38AL

The Wisconsin Alumni Magazine

Vol. 22—No. 2

$2.00 Per Year

CO-EDUCATION

(Continued)

December, 1920

25 Cents Per Copy

Income Tax Easily Figured

When you use our Investor's Record Book for listing your securities and security income.

Ask for your copy today so you can get it entered up before tax time comes.

We shall be glad to send it to you free of charge.

MORRIS F. FOX & Co.
INVESTMENT SECURITIES
425 East Water St. MILWAUKEE, WIS.

ALUMNI PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

A Reliable Guide to and for Wisconsin Graduates

LAWYERS

California—FRANK CORNISH, '96, Underwood Bldg., San Francisco.

WILLIAM F. ADAMS, '00, L '03, 1109 Title Ins. Bldg., Los Angeles.

EDWIN H. GROBE, '08, 923-24 Story Bldg., Los Angeles.

Colorado—CYRUS M. DOLPH, '96, 311 Bennett Bldg., Colorado Springs.

JOHN H. GABRIEL, '87, L '89, 712-13 Kiltredge Bldg., Denver.

Illinois—FRED D. SILBER, '94, (SILBER, ISAACS, SILBER & WOLEY) Corporation and Commercial Practice, 614 Home Ins. Bldg., Chicago.

GEORGE I. HAIGHT, '99, W. H. HAIGHT '03, (HAIGHT, ADCOCK, HAIGHT & HARRIS) General and Patent Law, 625-31 The Rookery, Chicago.

GLEN E. SMITH, '09, L '13, (SHERIDAN, SHERIDAN & SMITH) Counsellors at Law, Patent Causes, Marquette Bldg., Chicago.

Minnesota—EUGENE C. NOYES, '98, 822 Security Bldg., Minneapolis.

CLARK R. FLETCHER, '11, (ALLEN & FLETCHER) 936 Andrus Bldg., Minneapolis.

Montana—THOMAS J. MATHEWS, '92, Roundup.

North Dakota—G. S. WOOLEDGE, '04, (GREENLEAF, WOOLEDGE & LESK) Minot.

Oregon—CONRAD P. OLSON, '09, 529 Chamber of Comm., Portland.

Ohio—JOE G. FOGG, '04, (CALFEE & FOGG) 1608-10 Williamson Bldg., Cleveland.

Washington—ARTHUR REMINGTON, '87, 921-22 Fidelity Bldg., Tacoma.

Wisconsin—E. J. B. SCHUBRING, '01, Badger Blk., Madison.

M. B. OLBRICH, '04, HAROLD P. JANISCH, '15, TIMOTHY BROWN, '11, LEE L. SIEBECKER, '15, (AYLWARD & OLBRICH) Madison.

LEON P. LAMFROM, '05, 1010 Majestic Bldg., Milwaukee.

RICHARD B. RUNKE, '00, Stange Bldg., Merrill.

R. G. HARVEY, '03, (THOMPSON & HARVEY) Osgood Bldg., Racine.

J. W. COLLINS, '97, W. B. COLLINS, '01, L '09, (COLLINS & COLLINS) York Bldg., Sheboygan.

FOREIGN FREIGHT FORWARDING

New York—THOMAS S. BURNS, '15, Vice-Pres. ACME TRANSPORT Co., Inc., 15-25 Whitehall St., N. Y. City.

CONS. AGRI. ENGINEER AND ARCHITECT
Ohio—FREDERICK W. IVES, '09, 57 Brighton Rd., Columbus.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Alumni Headquarters: 821 State Street, Madison
Robert S. Crawford, '03 General Secretary

ALUMNI BOARD

ISRAEL SHRIMSKI, ex'88 President
ROBERT McMYNN, L'94 V-President
HELEN B. SMITH, '19 Recording Sec.
CHARLES N. BROWN, L'81 Treasurer
MRS. T. E. BRITTINGHAM, '89

L. F. VAN HAGAN, '04
VICTOR FALK, '11
STUART W. REID, '15
F. H. CLAUSEN, '97
J. E. McCONNELL, '87

The Wisconsin Alumni Magazine

ROBERT S. CRAWFORD, EDITOR

"A Magazine Aiming to Preserve and Strengthen the Bond of Interest and Reverence of the Wisconsin Graduate for His Alma Mater."

Table of Contents for December, 1920

The Medical School—By C. R. Bardeen
News and Comment	29
University Women—By Miss F. L. Nardin	32
Co-Education—By Mrs. W. P. Lyon	33
Council and Board Meetings	34
Alumni Clubs	34
Alumni News	36
Athletics—By T. E. Jones	38
Book Notes	47
Campus Notes	48

THE WISCONSIN ALUMNI MAGAZINE is published monthly during the School Year (November to August, inclusive) at the University of Wisconsin.
ALUMNI DUES—Incl. $1.25 subscription to The Alumni Magazine—$2.00 a year, "payable on or before July 1 of each year for the fiscal year beginning May 1 next preceding."
SUBSCRIPTION to the Wisconsin Alumni Magazine alone, without the privileges of membership: $2.50 a year; foreign postage 50 cents extra.
CHANGE OF ADDRESS must be reported before the 21st of the month to insure prompt delivery at the new address.
REMITTANCES should be made payable to The Wisconsin Alumni Association and may be by check, draft, express or postal money order; personal checks should be drawn "Payable in exchange." All mail should be addressed to
THE WISCONSIN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, 821 State Street, MADISON. Entered at the Post Office, Madison, Wis., as second class mail matter.

REGISTRATION in the Medical School this fall is larger than ever before in spite of increased severity in entrance requirements. Students now must not only meet the requirement of two years of pre-medical college work in specified subjects but also must present evidence of good scholarship in the pre-medical work. A considerable number of students were thus excluded, but the increased requirements were necessitated by lack of space and equipment for caring adequately for a greater number of students than are at present in attendance.

Dr. C. R. Bardeen

Last year the sudden large increase in the number of medical students which followed the close of the war made it difficult for the short-handed teaching staff to give adequate instruction. This year the staff has been increased so as to meet better the demands for teaching and research.

Several of the departments find that the present quarters for the work of the first two years in Science Hall are not sufficient to meet legitimate demands for space but all members of the faculty are willing to undergo personal inconvenience and hardships in order that such funds as are immediately available for Medical School expansion may go into the development of the clinical part of the medical course. The present facilities in this country for giving first class clinical instruction are inadequate to meet either public demands or the demands of medical students. The large number of students throughout the country taking up medical study at the close of the war made it evident that in spite of the enviable record made by our students at other institutions these institutions can no longer accept to advanced standing as many students as heretofore. On the other hand the increase in number of pre-medical and medical students at Wisconsin made it evident that the demands for clinical training will soon be far greater instead of less than hitherto. To meet these demands it was necessary to take immediate steps to complete the medical course at the State University so that clinical training can be given here. Only in this way can the State insure for itself a good supply of well trained physicians. For the clinical part of the medical course a large hospital under University control is essential. A central State general hospital is needed in Wisconsin used not only for this purpose, but also for the sake of giving medical care to many individuals, both children and adults, at present unable to secure this care. State general hospitals of this kind are liberally supported in the neighboring states of Iowa and Michigan. In both states they are looked upon as most beneficent institutions and are widely popular. These facts were presented at the recent special session of the legislature, at which laws were enacted providing for the erection of a Wisconsin General Hospital at Madison and for care of indigent patients. The site selected for the hospital buildings is the territory bounded by Charter street on the east, Lorch street on the west, Linden drive on the north and University avenue on the south. All of this territory between Charter and Warren streets not already owned by the University has been purchased with the exception of one small lot. Orchard street will be closed and the center of the new hospital building will lie somewhat south of the center of the present street, south of the Bradley Memorial Hospital and to the south east of the Student Infirmary. These buildings will ultimately be connected by corridors with the new building. The main wings will extend east and west of the center, a service wing to the south of the center. The building will be a basement and five stories high and will contain about 300 beds. Bids for excavation and foundation have been let and work already is under way. In order to make room for the new building several houses had to be removed.

This new hospital will be the central teaching hospital for clinical instruction. It is planned to give the first part of the clinical instruction here, but, it is hoped that arrangements may be made with existing hospitals and hospitals that may be subsequently erected in Madison and elsewhere in the State whereby a part of the clinical teaching may be given to small groups of students while acting as clinical clerks. In developing the clinical part of the medical course we believe that we shall do the most good to medical education and medical practice in the State if we utilize to the utmost all practical available resources not at present utilized.

The Wisconsin Alumni Magazine

"... on the one hand, the ultra-radicals and visionaries, on the other hand, the reactionaries and 'standpatters'. The two extremes are alike destructive. Without knowing it they are allies. But in the long run we must believe that the sanity of the founders of the Republic will triumph."

Volume XXII

Madison, Wis., December, 1920

Number 2

The major committees, aside from the executive committee of governing boards of many universities, have been divided in a way that often tends to make some members of such committees sort of specialists interested in the advancement of the particular college in which their principal committee activity is devoted.

Organization

At Wisconsin, for example, our regents have committees for each college. To claim that this disintegration plan of committee organization is without points of commendable strength would be far from the facts. It is, however, interesting to note that our sister institution at Michigan has recently discarded the organization of committees by colleges, and has adopted a plan which so divides the functions of the regents as to place the whole university under the purview of the members of all committees, claiming that it promises to bring "the interest of the members of the board to center upon problems of the university considered as a whole rather than upon separate divisions in which perforce the members of the board hitherto have been particularly interested."

Under the new plan the committees are as follows:—Executive, Finance, Salaries, Buildings and Grounds, Library, Educational Policies, Promotion of Research, and Student Welfare, instead of committees for the College of Letters and Science, College of Law, College of Medicine, and so forth.

Our own administrative officers will without doubt hold an open-minded attitude toward the interesting plan of reorganization now in force at Ann Arbor, of which the Michigan Alumnus enthusiastically says "to anyone who is familiar with the administrative problems of the university the new arrangement will seem obvious."

While in 1919 our University enrolled two thousand more students than we enrolled here in 1914, yet our relative position among thirty American institutions did not change. We occupied 8th position in enrollment in 1914, and the same position in 1919.

Cost and Numbers

Increased enrollment is neither a local nor a temporary matter. During the same period Michigan moved from 4th to 3rd place, Illinois from 6th to 5th, Minnesota from 12th to 6th, Northwestern from 11th to 9th, Chicago from 13th to 12th, Nebraska from 17th to 14th, and Texas from 20th to 15th.

Mere numbers are, however, no great handicap if sufficient means are provided to care for the increased numbers. Indeed, the relative per capita cost will undoubtedly be less for the same high grade education of ten thousand students in one locality than could be given five thousand students under the same conditions, and certainly it should be much less in one locality than scattered about in several.

Decentralized higher education will always cost more money for the same quality than will centralized higher education.

"The University is socialistic, therefore I cannot support it," said one capitalist, and on the same day a socialist wrote, "The failure of the University to give due consideration to our policy makes it impossible for me to use my influence in its behalf."

Tweedl-dee vs. Tweedle-dum At a meeting of conservatives there were lamentations over the fact that the radical ideas of the University were harming the institution and at another meeting where no capitalists were present there were statements to the effect that the capitalistic domination of the University policies was taking the control away from the people. There was no evidence that the socialists and the capitalists were insincere in their statements. Both had, however, made the mistake of crediting the expression of some single individual connected with the University as an avowed and unanimous policy of the institution itself. Even among fair-minded graduates of the University it is not to be expected that there will be unanimous approval of every thought, word, and deed which bears the name of the University, to say nothing of the differences of opinion that will arise when each University employee exerts his inherent right of expressing his individual opinion on any public question.

All who are interested in our great State University, consciously or unconsciously, form a high spiritual ideal of what that University should be. Such lofty ideals aid the constant growth and untrammelled progress of the institution. Occasionally, however, we all forget that the working out of these ideals rests with human agents whose hands and minds are skilled and trained, but still human, and therefore prone to make mistakes in the carrying out even of lofty purposes. While to correct all such errors is a very proper desire of all and while to secure such corrections we sometimes need to extend kind advice and at other times firm admonitions, we must at all times temper such expressions with human charity if our criticism is to remain constructive and not descend to mere fault finding.

Those experienced in responsible public positions know full well that a university professorship is of itself no guarantee of immunity from public criticism. Patience, good nature, and human interest, as well as technical training and firm purpose, were essential to the success of Henry in firmly establishing our great College of Agriculture. Babcock's unmeasured beneficence to the great dairy industry was scoffed at in its infancy. Ravenel found by no means united support when he placed before our citizens the truth about the white plague. Ely, Commons, and Ross have never had a squad of traffic policemen to clear the way of all objectors while they told the truth, as they saw it, about wages, labor, and living conditions. Our great engineers, teachers, historians, and scientists, who have labored successfully in their search for and in their exposition of truth have always been heckled by extremists both among the ultra-conservative and the ultra-radical.

There is no reason to believe that the selfish capitalist is any more fit to dominate public affairs than is the selfish bolshevist. Wisconsin, the best democracy in America, can be trusted to give its educational servants fair treatment, just pay, and independence of thought and action. To them we look for leadership and guidance. It is the duty of Wisconsin graduates to do more than "hope and trust." Upon us, to a large extent, rests the responsibility of disseminating information about the "greatest State University." Real knowledge of the purposes, ideals, and the accomplishments of our wonderful institution invariably procures a feeling of solicitous interest and fair-minded treatment. Many a citizen who has come in direct contact with the University has not been aware of its full benefits to him, and many who have had no personal contact with the institution have received manifold benefits of which they have not been aware. Through local U. W. clubs, through cooperation with extension centers, by words of encouragement to the agricultural agent in your county, by commending your local editor for printing real news about the University—in these and in a score of other ways alumni can be of great assistance to Alma Mater.

The University belongs to all the people and is a part of all the communities of Wisconsin. Those who have the greatest opportunity to enjoy its largest blessings are those who attend. To the farm, to the factory, to the shop, and to the home, to every phase of life in Wisconsin, the University extends its ever-lengthening arm. "Benefits forgot" by those who have had the privilege of being at Madison are more deplorable than benefits unrealized conferred upon those who knew not the real benefactors. No county and few communities of Wisconsin are without men and women who can and do help in the work of educating others to the real value of our great institution. The steady growth of past years has suddenly been unexpectedly accelerated in the matter of University enrollment. New conditions make new problems—housing needs for students, social activities for the many. Wisconsin students want to be democratic. We alumni must keep in touch with things as they are in Madison and see that our University continues as the central headquarters of our own community's educational life. The grade schools are necessarily closest to the home. The upper grades are somewhat more centralized. High schools of necessity serve still larger geographic areas. The state normal schools and the University are after all important parts of the local public school system of Wisconsin. They deserve local pride and require local sacrifice. The teacher of your children at the University or at any state normal school is entitled to as fair consideration in the matter of salary as the teacher of your children at home. The conditions under which your boy must live at Madison are your problems. Dormitories and commons are the real regulators of these matters. There no longer exists such a thing as competition among landlords here. On the whole rooms are supplied at a figure not exorbitant. In many instances these rooms are supplied by people who feel it temporarily their duty to help meet the situation. The real solution of the problem rests, not primarily in the City of Madison, but in the State at large, and consequently one of the grave responsibilities resting upon each member of the State Legislature is to know the needs and basic problems of the State educational system. To the graduates and friends of the University there comes a special responsibility to see that fair treatment is afforded the University. A real knowledge of the University is all that is necessary to secure such fair treatment. No political party is "after" the University. It belongs to all parties and to no party. It serves all sections of Wisconsin and no special section.

To say that the University is socialistic because some member of the faculty happens to be socialistic or to say that it is capitalistic because some other member happens to be wealthy is not more logical than to say that the University is wet because some professor (name unknown) may have wine in his cellar or another says secret prayers for the soul of old John Barleycorn.

Tweedle-dee and Tweedle-dum look very much alike when viewed at long range with a telescope, or when carefully examined close at hand under a microscope.

The following favorable comments on Wisconsin's loyal sons and daughters are taken from a recent issue of the Washington Alumnus:—
 " . . . the Alumni of the University
As Others See Us of Wisconsin believe their Alma Mater gave them something worth while.

"Like good sports they make it their business to give something in return. That something is a loyalty that is alive and kicking. It is a loyalty that seeks a chance to boost. It does not await suggestion."

University Women

THE DEAN'S PAGE

BY MISS F. L. NARDIN

THE staff of the Dean of Women has undergone two changes in personnel. Miss Robson, Mistress of Barnard Hall, resigned to accept a position which will combine teaching and administration in South America under the auspices of the Mission Board of the Methodist Church. Her place has been filled by the appointment of Miss C. Augusta Adams, who comes to our University from the University of Illinois, where she organized the social life in the new Residence Hall. She is a native of New York, and her graduate work was done at Cornell.

Dean Nardin

A. Cornelia Anderson, '09, Assistant Dean 1916-20, accepted the position of Dean of Women at the University of South Dakota. The Department at Wisconsin congratulates itself upon being able to announce that Miss Anderson's place has been taken by Mrs. Maud Hamilton Mendenhall, Ph. D. '20. As Miss Hamilton she was a teacher of history in the University High School. In addition to her services as assistant to the Dean of Women she will assist in the Department of Ancient History.

Margaret McGilvary, '14, during a recent visit with her parents, gave the first University lecture of this year on the subject "War-trapped in Syria." She has since returned to her work in Syria.

Another young alumna who spent last year in weaving threads of international understanding, Helen B. Smith, '19, recently talked to an audience of University students at the Badger Club. She spoke on her relations to the French community where she studied, and her acquaintance with some of the French orphans who had been wards of the University for three years. Miss Smith spent last year at the Normal School in Sevres, France. She returns to her University as a graduate student and a member of the faculty in Romance languages.

Rose Bracher, the second young woman to hold the Rose Sidgwick Memorial Scholarship, has chosen the University as her place of study, where she will pursue research work in plant pathology. Last year she was a graduate student and assistant instructor in botany at the University of London. Her previous study had been done at Bristol University. Miss Bracher was appointed by a committee acting under the International Association of College Women.

Julia Turnbull, '19, and Janet Durrie, '20, were awarded scholarships for study in France. They were chosen in competition open to all college women in the United States. The appointment was made by the Committee on Scholarships for the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. They will study in Paris.

The College Club of Kenosha entertained the senior class of the Kenosha High Schools and Academy, October 9th. The University, having been invited to send a young woman who would represent in herself and in her address to the girls the ideal of education at this University, selected Frances Tucker, '21. A young woman from Smith represented the eastern college life.

THE EARLY YEARS OF CO-EDUCATION AT WISCONSIN

BY MRS. ELLEN CHYNOWETH LYON, '70

(Continued from Nov.)

Under the new conditions Paul Ansel Chadbourne, a professor from Williams College, accepted the Presidency and began his regime in the fall of '67. He had the old New England idea of woman's sphere and carried it out conscientiously in his administration. He was a man of strong character, honorable and of high ideals and unchangeable in his creed on religion and women. In proof of this statement I will digress to recount that although a strong Congregationalist, without hesitancy he severed his relations with that church in Madison and made his church home with the Episcopalians because the Congregational pastor, the Rev. Charles H. Richards, to whom he had a strong personal attachment, had the temerity to say that he did not think that all parts of the scripture were equally inspired. Dr. Chadbourne said that he had made up his mind irrevocably on the question twenty-five years before and therefore to him there was an impassable chasm between them. Even so it was with his views on co-education. It was an unnecessary perverse innovation. Was it strange that in such an atmosphere co-education did not flourish and gain a strong foothold? However, he was a wonderful instructor, genial and kind in his relation with us women, and charming withal. He knew no subterfuge and we knew his attitude on this subject perfectly. Personally I have never regretted that in my possession is one of the few University of Wisconsin diplomas bearing the signature of this man who was unswervingly loyal to his opinions.

Naturally President Chadbourne did not approve of mixed class work so the faculty members came to the women's part of Bascom (University) Hall, or under the safe guidance of Miss Earle, the lovable preceptress of the female department, we marched sedately into some one of the mens' lecture halls, apparently unsafe for unchaperoned girls. Here ensconced in a corner by ourselves we absorbed what notes and knowledge we could—when not otherwise occupied. We were never quizzed in joint session, possibly on the theological ground that women should keep silent before men as well as in the church, so the lecturer came to our recitation room and examined us to discover how much we had been able to retain of the information given us under the distracting surroundings of the presence of the men. However, we enjoyed the experience and subordinated whatever unpleasantness might have been mingled with it, to our desire to get the highest education that the State offered us.

In those years when the women of the University were known as the "Normal School" the men students were obliged to invade our realm to attend some of the recitations. We took especial delight in seeing them file down our study room and chapel and enter a recitation room opening off from it and recite with us, sometimes to a woman instructor. Need I say that this was not in President Chadbourne's day? We were not always so demure as external appearances registered, and many passages of wit and ludicrous happenings enlivened our usual class room seriousness. One young man who came to our recitation room wore his glossy, black locks trailing down his neck a little further than women thought becoming to his sex, so they generously but delicately hinted at a change by sending him a hair net and the necessary hair pins. The next morning with true sportmanlike spirit he marched demurely through our long study room into the class room with his hair neatly confined in the net. With an unsmiling face and the utmost dignity he wrote on the blackboard as he went to his seat the single expressive word "Thanks." The women with chagrin agreed that the score was heavily in his favor.

The year 1865 saw the first women graduated from the University of Wisconsin. These as those also of '66 and '67 were classified as normal graduates. The graduating exercises of these classes were held in the old Congregational Chapel on the Tuesday afternoon preceding the regular commencement exercises of Wednesday morning held in the State Capitol. The women of '68 and '69 were allowed to hold their commencement program in the State Capitol but on Tuesday afternoon while the men held theirs at the same place at nine o'clock of the following morning. The lone woman of '70, by President Chadbourne's request to her, graduated with the men of her class on Wednesday morning. The women of the three succeeding classes '71, '72, and '73 returned to the former custom of holding their separate exercises in the Capitol on Tuesday afternoon. Beginning with the class of '74 the women and men received their diplomas at the same time and place, and co-education in the University of Wisconsin ceased to be a theory and became a reality.

Although the early history of co-education was a stormy and at times a humiliating experience, now that the storm clouds have cleared away and women have gained their rightful place in Wisconsin's great University, indeed are an inseparable part of it, we will always remember with some pride and more gratitude that Wisconsin men were among the first in the world to grant to women equal educational opportunities with men. Was it that they builded better than they knew? We would fain believe that they had the clear vision to know that only as men and women work together side by side, each in his or her own way, equipped with the best mental and spiritual development attainable, can they solve aright life's troublous problems and bring to humanity its highest good.

COUNCIL AND BOARD MEETINGS

AS copy for this issue had to be at the printing office on November 10 we are unable to publish the official report of the Alumni Council and Alumni Board meetings before next month. However, the printer has consented to insert in this number the following notice which is taken from The Cardinal of November 14:

Israel Shrimski, vice-president of Bauer and Black, Chicago, who attended the University in the '80's, was elected president of the Alumni Association, at the regular meeting of the Alumni Council on November 13. He succeeds F. H. Clausen, '97, president of the Van Brunt Manufacturing Co., Horicon.

Robert McMynn, '94, a former member of the Alumni Board, was elected vice-president of the Association, to succeed J. E. McConnell, '87. Mr. Clausen and Mr. McConnell, although retiring from office, will continue to act as members of the Board.

Helen B. Smith, '19, daughter of Leonard Smith, '90, of the College of Engineering, was elected recording secretary, to succeed Lillian Taylor, '05.

H. J. Thorkelson, '98, business manager of the University, and W. H. Dudley, of the visual education department of the University Extension Division, addressed the Council.

The Council consists of a representative from each class and one from each club,— of the latter of which there are about fifty. The meeting was very well attended, there being representatives present of classes all the way from the '70's to the present. The extremes in distance from which these members came are: north, Twin Cities; south, Chattanooga, Tenn.; east, New York City; and west, Los Angeles.

The council meeting was held immediately following a regular meeting of the Alumni Board, at which only the general routine of business was transacted.

The Alumni Association has at present a total membership of over 5,500, of which a few hundred are life members.

WISCONSIN ALUMNI CLUBS

"Sit together, listen together, sing together, eat together, and you'll work together."

AKRON

By MRS. GEORGE BECKER, '19, Sec'y

THE Akron Wisconsin Alumni held the first meeting of the year on Saturday, Oct. 16, at the University Club. Those attending the meeting were: W. H. Juve, '13, F. F. Householder, '16, C. C. Waterhouse, Lester Smith, ex'16, R. V. Albright, '17, F. T. Tucker, '18, J. M. Gillett, '15, E. C. Noyes, '13, R. B. North, ex'16, Mr. and Mrs. Dye, Mr. and Mrs. Georger Becker (Lorena Schwebs) '17 and '19.

After the report of the retiring officers the following officers for the coming year were elected: Lester Smith, president; F. F. Householder, vice-president; Mrs. George Becker, secretary and treasurer.

The alumni who attended the Wisconsin-Ohio game are enthusiastic over Wisconsin's chances in the big Homecoming game, and it is the intention of the club to arrange ticker service for that game.

CHICAGO

By C. L. BYRON, '08

On Oct. 15, the alumni and alumnae of Chicago had their first meeting of the year at the City Club of Chicago. Major Dalrymple, the Federal Dry-Act Agent, was supposed to have addressed us on the enforcing of the Volstead Act, and also on his experience in stamping out the drug and narcotic traffic in the Philippine Islands. Major Dalrymple, however, was detained out of town, but nothing like that worries Wisconsin people for instead of having one speaker, we had several. H. J. Schmidt acted as chairman. Bishop Fallows, '59, apropos of the general subject, spoke first, on wine and on women, and undoubtedly he had a song in his heart for surely his usual beaming face indicated it. Jessie Shepherd, '95, president of the Chicago Alumnae Association, spoke, and, among other things, called to the men's attention that in union there is strength. We all agree with her that to make a men's organization a real success women must play a part, and, as suggested by Dr. J. M. Dodson, '80, equal suffrage, which has been delayed far too long, certainly was indicative of the fact that the joint meetings are to be encouraged. Professor Cole, of Michigan University, who has just returned from China, spoke interestingly on some of his impressions of that great Eastern country. Israel Shrimski, ex'88, a bachelor of long standing, was asked to say a few words to the ladies, and again he crowned himself with glory. Catherine Cleveland, '94, concluded the speaking by saying, in behalf of the ladies, that they were glad to be present. The meeting was then adjourned, all looking forward to the next joint meeting.

On Oct. 29, Honorable Judge Hugo Pam spoke to us in connection with one phase of the criminal problem, namely, the juvenile, bringing out strongly the fact that corrective measures are to be encouraged to a greater extent where provision is at all possible, instead of punishment.

The other meetings of the past month were of a general good fellowship nature, without any special speakers. Football naturally was the main subject of all talk. Here's to continued success to our noble football team.

NEW YORK

By A. R. TAYLOR, '14, Sec'y

On Friday evening, Oct. 29, at 6:30, the New York Alumni Association had a "get-together" meeting at the Masonic Club, 19th floor of 46 W. 24th St. The dinner was followed by dancing. Ninety-eight Wisconsinites were present. The Association passed the following resolution:

Whereas: Under the present system the football teams of the University of Wisconsin are at a disadvantage in competition with schools which employ a football coach for the whole collegiate year; Be it

Resolved: that future contracts for football coach at the University of Wisconsin should provide for his residence at the University on duty during the full collegiate year—September to June.

Billy Richardson had attended the Ohio State game the week before and he told us the interesting though sad story.

We were fortunate in having with us Dr. E. A. Ross who is writing a history of the Russian Revolution. He gave us a very interesting talk on the present economic and social tendencies arising out of the world war. N. B. Luncheon every Tuesday, 12:30, at Stewart's Restaurant on Park Place.

POCATELLO

By F. C. MCGOWAN, '01, Sec'y

Wisconsin alumni of Pocatello, Idaho, met at Dutch lunch at the Bannock Hotel, Monday noon, Oct. 18, and had a most enjoyable time. Those present were H. R. Holmes, '00, president, Mrs. H. E. Ray (Alice Olmstead, ex'11), Mrs. W. G. Phoenix (Ethel Godwin, '06), Eva Kasiski, '10, Helen McDougall, '19, Mrs. Irene Milner (Irene Hayes, ex'17), and F. C. McGowan, '01. The secretary was instructed to take up with the Salt Lake City alumni the question of securing better reports of football games by the Salt Lake Tribune of that city, so that more than the simple scores would be printed.

RACINE

By W. A. NEVIN, '17, Sec'y

On Oct. 25, a large gathering of former Wisconsin students entertained Dr. Paul Reinsch, '92, recently United States ambassador to China, at a dinner in the green room of the Racine Elks Club. The same Wisconsin spirit which marks all such occasions was very prevalent. After the dinner, the singing of Wisconsin songs carried those present back to the happy days spent on the campus. Doctor Reinsch responded to the call of the chairman of the evening, Judge E. B. Belden, '86, with a most interesting talk on China and Japan.

The Wisconsin alumni in Racine are planning to make this winter a very active one in Wisconsin festivities.

U. W. TEACHERS CLUB

By FLORA HEISE, '19

With B. E. McCormick, '04, newly elected president of The Wisconsin Teacher's Association, as chairman, with Pres. E. A. Birge as honorary guest, with Asa Royce, '04, as official singer and singing master, with a professional impromptu quartette in service, with a half dozen "short and snappy" after dinner speakers, and with about a hundred more or less distinguished alumni in attendance, the annual meeting of the U. W. Teachers' Club, held in the Badger Room of the Hotel Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Friday noon, Nov. 5, was a genuine success. How any full-blooded teacher with a full-blooded Wisconsin heritage could have stayed away is inexplicable. The whole Badger room should not be too large for the annual meeting next year. Elizabeth Waters, '85, was elected president for next year, and C. A. Rubado, '17, was elected secretary.

The following were among those present: Wilhelmine Johannes, '11, Nora Mullowney, '17, Esther Lehmann, '11, Katherine Lehmann, '11, Edith Pryor, '13, Eleanor Hatton, '20, Edna Hartman, '18, Marjorie Jacques, '15, Irene Webb, '15, Ella Duggan, '15, B. B. Burling, '06, Estelle Stone, '20, Fannie Miller, '20, Esther Shapiro, '15, Frances Ellman, '13, Flora Heise, '19, Martha Neprud, '07, Catherine Fleming, '19, Letha Haskins, Lilly Koehler, '17, C. A. Hollister, '14, Susan Porter, '96, H. G. Lee, '14, Arno Froehlich, '12, B. E. McCormick, '04, Asa Royce, '04, Ida Bollenbeck, '19, Alice Kirk, '20, Florence Ziegler, '13, Eleanor Raymond, '14, Mabel Fernald, '19, Mary Henry, '17, Grace Barry, '19, B. A. Stevens, '14, L. R. Creutz, '05, W. L. Smithyman, '96, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bishop, '15, J. F. Powers, '02, Hazel Brown, '14, Edna Mae Harris, '13, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Landgraf, '12, Fern Hackett, '01, E. G. Doudna, '17, Mae Metcalfe, '11, Gladys Wheeler, '14, Nettalie Boucher, '18, Rachel White, '15, Marguerite Davis, '17, Fannie Birch, Elizabeth Waters, '85, Marion Mulick, '06, Ida Sims, Thomas Lloyd Jones, '96, C. C. Bishop, '06, R. S. Crawford, '03, Alice Green, '05.

ALUMNI NEWS

Alumni please keep in touch with the MAGAZINE and with your Class Secretary

BIRTHS

- 1908 To Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Schwenker, Lebanon, O., a son, Philip James, Oct. 7.
- 1908 To Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McMahon, Milwaukee, a son, Edward Gray, Sept. 4.
- 1910 To Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Erickson (Gretchen Ruedebusch) Oak Park, Ill., a son, Robert Sholberg, Oct. 31.
- 1911 To Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Abbott (Helen Hood) Downer's Grove, Ill., twins, John Hood and Margaret, Oct. 9.
- 1911 To Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pick (Mabelle Bredette) West Bend, a son, Alan Edward, April 19.
- 1912 To Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wile, Chicago, a son, Richard Frankel, July 29.
- 1913 To Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zinke (Dorothy Dudley) Chicago, a son, John Alden, Nov. 2.
- ex'15 To Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Haner (Martha Gaffron) Sun Prairie, a daughter, Jean Elizabeth.
- 1914 To Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brainerd (Vera Parke) Madison, a daughter, Janet Louise, Oct. 11.
- 1917 To Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Schustedt (Helen Haner) Madison, a daughter, Mary Josephine.
- 1918 To Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Erlanson, Washington, D. C., a son, Paul McKillop, Oct. 27.
- 1913 Mary Ryan, Sun Prairie, to J. W. Daly. Mr. and Mrs. Daly are living at 1208 Jenifer St., Madison.
- 1914 Emily Wangard, Milwaukee, to A. J. Thomann, Oct. 9. They are at home at 1341 Morrison St., Madison.
- 1914 Jane Idelle Swan, Mazomanie, to E. B. Huntington, Oct. 9.
- 1915 Miss Emily C. Smith, Duluth, Minn., to T. M. Langley, Superior, Oct. 20. The ceremony was performed by Archdeacon W. F. Hood, '07, of Superior.
- 1916 Miss Florence M. Schuette, Manitowoc, to A. O. Ayres. Mr. Ayres is manager of the Eau Claire Sand and Gravel Co.
- 1916 Margaret Wahl to Capt. H. A. Barber, 9th Infantry, U. S. Army, Aug. 14.
- 1916 Mildred Starr, Denver, Colo., to Paul Meyers, Nov. 6, in New York City.
- ex'20 Miss A. Josephine Miller, Davenport, Ia., to Ward Shaw, also of Davenport, Oct. 30.
- ex'16 Miss Margaret H. Jeffris, Janesville, to A. W. Dunwiddie Nov. 6. They will live in Janesville.
- 1917 Marian L. Mooney to L. W. Sager, Chicago, June 9. They are living at 3936 N. Marshfield Ave., Chicago.
- 1917 Verna Blanche Sweetman, Indianapolis, Ind., to W. W. Mendenhall, Oct. 20. They are at home at 284 Burgess Ave., Indianapolis.
- ex'17 Miss Doris Amerpohl, Janesville, to Dr. Stanley Metcalf, Oct. 23. They will live in Janesville.
- 1917 May Kendall Westcott to A. M. Hayes, June 16. They will make their home at 3016 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, Md.
- 1917 Miss Anna I. Bierman to J. L. Fellman. Mr. and Mrs. Fellman will live at 704 Maryland Ave., Milwaukee.
- 1918 Vera Clarke to M. F. Browne, Sept. 4. They are living at 189 Adams St., Twin Falls, Idaho.
- ex'18 Marjorie J. Morey, Racine, to Dr. J. R. Latham, Casper, Wyo., Oct. 11.
- 1918 Estelle J. Sawyer, Racine, to Chester Grobben, Milwaukee. They are at home at 1248 Maryland Ave., Milwaukee.
- 1918 Miss Leona Post, Edgerton, to L. J. Whittet, Madison, Nov. 4.
- ex'19 Florence F. Rilling, Milwaukee, to M. E. Curle, Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2. They will live at 4320 Guilford Ave., Indianapolis.
- 1919 Marjorie J. Sexton, Marshfield, to Dr. D. M. Howell, Oct. 27. They will make their home in Grayling, Mich.
- 1920 Carol W. Munro, to P. B. Sheldon, Sept. 4. Mr. Sheldon was graduated from Oberlin in 1917.
- 1920 Abbie Parmalee to W. F. Ferger, June 4.
- 1919 Ellen O. Moore, Appleton, to Arthur Mory, Oct. 22. They will live in Appleton.
- 1920 Helen D. Golder, River Forest, Ill., to K. C. King, Chicago, Oct. 9. Mr. and Mrs. King will live in Oak Park, Ill.
- ex'20 Florence Gerken, Madison, to Howard Fuller, Madison, Oct. 6.
- 1920 Eleanor A. Gaik, South Bend, Ind., to W. E. Green, Milwaukee, Aug. 29. They will make their home in Detroit.
- 1920 Esther Brunkow, Monroe, to F. D. Fritz.
- ex'21 Miss Ingrid Monson, Chicago, to Stuart Pond, Sharon. Mr. Pond is connected with the Bird-Skyes Co., Michigan Ave., Chicago.

ENGAGEMENTS

- 1913 Miss Margaret Ward, Battle Creek, Mich., to F. R. Wahl.
- 1915 Miss Sibyl White, Madison, to R. R. Confer, Chicago.
- 1916 Miss Margaret Furness, Evanston, Ill., to Crawford Wheeler, Tulsa, Okla.
- 1917 Miss Florence Warner, Oconomowoc, to E. B. Kurtz. Mr. Kurtz is assistant professor of electrical engineering at Iowa State College, Ames.
- 1917 Edna T. Herrington, Madison, to J. E. Casserley, Rockford, Ill.
- 1918 Luella Voigt to Curtis Jacobs Jr., both of Oconomowoc.
- ex'19 Margaret Race, De Pere, to Leslie Ross. The wedding will occur on Dec. 4.
- 1919 Lulu Saul, Douglas, Wyo., to H. B. Coffey.
- 1920 Miss Carol Karger, Milwaukee, to Harold Braun, Madison.
- 1920 Mabel M. Smith, Chicago, to Philip Reed, Chicago.
- 1921 Mary Alice Newton, Washington, D. C., to Ronald Drake, Madison.
- ex'23 Mary Ellen Nolan, Madison, to E. E. Reichert, also of Madison. Mr. Reichert is connected with the Board of Public Affairs of the State.

MARRIAGES

- 1907 Miss Jessie I. Paynter, Fond du Lac, to C. A. Madison, Denver, Colo., Sept. 11. Mr. Madison is western manager of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
- 1911 Miss Olive Netzow, Milwaukee, to E. J. Dohmen, Oct. 23. They will make their home at 990 41st St., Milwaukee.
- 1912 Miss Minnie Alice Allen, East Boston, Mass., to J. B. Hubbard, formerly of Madison. Mr. Hubbard is connected with the Tariff Commission, Washington, D. C.
- 1912 Miss Katherine Donelson, Chicago, to Gaylord Case, Nov. 10.

- ex'22 Ella Hull, Oshkosh, to Dr. Charles Ewens. They will live in Atlantic City.
 ex'23 Isabel J. Camp, Chicago, to E. H. Myrland, Mauston, Sept. 28.

FACULTY

Miss Genevieve Moran to Frank Fischer, instructor at Wisconsin, Oct. 27.
 Miss Jeanne Romillat, Cosnes, France, to Prof. F. A. Ernst (M. A. '11) assistant professor of Romance languages at Wisconsin, August 5.

DEATHS

HENRY C. NOYES, husband of Annie Taylor Noyes, '65, died in San Francisco on Oct. 15. Mr. and Mrs. Noyes recently sold their home in Madison and moved to California.

STEPHEN STRONG GREGORY, B. A. '70, LL. B. '71, M. A. '74, died on Oct. 24, of heart disease. Mr. Gregory was born in Unadilla, N. Y., on Nov. 16, 1849, the eldest son of the late Jared Comstock Gregory, well known early lawyer and citizen of Madison. After graduating from the University Mr. Gregory began the practice of law in Chicago, and at the time of his death was a member of the firm, Gregory & McNab. In 1911 he was chosen president of the American Bar Association. He was married to Janet M. Tappan, ex'80, of Madison, and was the father of three children, Charlotte, Arthur, and Stephen Strong Jr., '13.

JUDGE ARTHUR L. SANBORN, '80, of the United States District Court, died at his home in Madison, on Oct. 18, after a lingering illness. Judge Sangorn was born in Brasher Falls, N. Y., on Nov. 17, 1850. His parents moved to Wisconsin when he was a small boy. After graduating from the Law School he practiced law in Madison until 1905 when he was elevated to the federal bench. Besides his widow, Judge Sanborn leaves four children, John B., '96, Mrs. C. E. Blake (Katherine Sanborn, '02), Eugene, ex'07 and Philip, '19.

Word has been received of the death of ETHEL LEWIS RIGNEY, wife of S. J. Rigney, '10, of Cut Bank, Montana. Her death followed several day's illness with pneumonia. Mrs Rigney was born in Stevens Point, and was graduated from the State Normal School there. She is a sister of Thomas Lewis, '08.

MRS. KEITH BALDWIN HUBBARD (Marie E. Wilcoxon, ex'20) died in August.

CLASS NEWS

1858

THEODORE KANOUSE (ex) is actively engaged in business in Los Angeles, Calif.

1869

MRS. W. C. DAMON (Amelia Bailey, ex) of Hartford, Conn., visited in Madison recently.

1870

PATRICK O'MEARA is county judge of Washington County having filled the position since 1902.

1875

Sec'y—MRS. F. W. WILLIAMS, Milwaukee 117 Farwell Ave.

E. W. CHAFIN, Long Beach, Calif., recently announced the marriage of his daughter, Desdemona, to James C. Hoffman.

1881

Sec'y—EMMA GATTIKER, Baraboo

F. S. WHITE, 5308 Hyde Park Blvd., Chicago, has already started work on the reunion of the Class of '81, in June 1921.

1886

Sec'y—MRS. L. S. PEASE, Wauwatosa

ELSEY BRISTOL is in Near East Relief work in Talas, Turkey, Asia.

1887

Sec'y—KATHERINE ALLEN, Madison 228 Langdon St.

ARTHUR WEST, reputed to be the foremost gas engine expert of the United States, has invented a type of marine Deisel engine which represents, according to the N. Y. Tribune, a far greater advance of the oil burning steamship than the latter is over the coal fired steamship. After trial for nearly a year as part of the power plant at Bethlehem the engine was installed on the ore carrying vessel, the Cubore. This ship has already made a number of non-stop passages, one having been from Baltimore to Havana with a cargo of coal. Inasmuch as the Cubore consumes less than one-third the oil ordinarily used in an ocean going freighter, the Boston Post expresses the opinion that this new engine designed by an American, built by Americans, and operated on an American ship by an American company "is expected to revolutionize engine building in the American ship building industry."—MRS. CHARLES CARPENTER (Imogene Hand) and family are living in Madison at 16 Langdon St.

1888

Sec'y—P. H. MCGOVERN, Milwaukee 1201 Majestic Bldg.

DR. BERTRAM SIPPY and Mrs. Sippy (Mabel Lamerson, ex'98) held open house at their home at 5616 Woodlawn Ave., Chicago, for Wisconsin alumni after the Chicago-Wisconsin game.

1890

Sec'y—W. N. PARKER, Madison 1908 Jefferson St.

E. E. BROWNE has been reelected to Congress from the eighth congressional district of Wisconsin by a majority of 19,845 over Lippert, Socialist, and 27,346 over Pasternacki, Democrat. Congressman Browne carried every county in his district over his opponents by large majorities. He is just completing his eighth year in Congress where he holds an important position on the Foreign Affairs Committee.

1891

Sec'y—MRS. F. S. BALDWIN, West Allis 6805 National Ave.

C. B. CHAPMAN (ex) was recently elected president of the Madison Association of Commerce.

*First Row—Rankin, Stark, Boning, Hipke, Scott, Christianson, Gude, Liskovec, Eggebrecht, Platten, Knap
Third Row—Gibson, Williams, Ba*

AT the time this article goes to press the air is heavily charged with the bustle and excitement of Homecoming, for the University—like all good mothers—is bending every effort to welcome home her sons and daughters with the biggest demonstration that the school has ever known.

Naturally a great deal of the excitement centers around the Athletic Department because of the Illinois-Wisconsin football game which is to be the chief attraction of the homecoming program. When this article reaches the hands of the readers, they will be in possession of the knowledge that a great many of us would give a good deal to have right now. Speculation as to the respective merit of the teams is rife and no one feels at all like attempting to forecast the results. Both teams have a three to nothing victory over the last opponent and both are reported to be in the best of shape.

Wisconsin has put behind her three of nine Conference games with two victories and a defeat marked on her record. The Northwestern win of October 23 was followed by a defeat from Ohio on the following Saturday. It is always easier to tell how we won a game rather than how we lost one, and we are still wondering ourselves how it happened. It is a bitter disappointment to us all but we have no time to waste in regrets or "might have beens". The Minnesota game of November 6 was a battle royal, such as we may always expect from our old time enemy no matter how poor their previous showing. They are bound to fight all that is in them and over the nam. Second Row—Brader, Sundt, Margoles, Elliott, Collins, Perrin, Holmes, Scherneck, Bunge, Nelson.

QUAD

(Capt.), Davey, Barnes, Tebell.

Photoart

ads, if necessary, when the Badgers trot on to the field, and the victory over them is always something very much to our credit and means everything that it implies.

Win or lose, we are for our team and we repeat our former statement, that we have a good one.

CROSS COUNTRY

Our Cross Country team started the season auspiciously on October 30 with a decided win over Chicago, Mark Wall for Wisconsin finishing early 200 yards ahead of his nearest competitor. Unfortunately he received a slight injury to his foot which prevented him from taking part in the race against Minnesota a week later. The team performed very creditably in spite of the handicap of Wall's loss but lost the race by three points. We are looking forward to the Conference Race as a test that will show up the real merit of our team, which we think will measure up to former teams that have carried honors for us many times in this event. Winning the Cross Country Championship has become almost a habit with Wisconsin, but we are not unmindful that there are nine other schools in the Big Ten who would be more than willing to acquire this habit.

Chicago 0

The Badgers staged a wonderful comeback in football during the second half of the Homecoming game and with the fastest and most baffling forward pass attack ever seen on Camp Randall they defeated the powerful Illinois team 14 to 9.—The Cardinal.

(Details in next issue)

1893

Sec'y—MRS. LOUIS KAHLBERG,
234 Lathrop St., Madison

SUPERIOR JUDGE L. W. MYERS, who has served ably and well as a superior judge of Los Angeles County, California, for several years, was a candidate for re-election to that office.—L. H. FALES resigned his commission in the Army and entered the Public Health Service last February. His present address is Whipple Barracks, Ariz.—CLARA SCHUSTER is teaching in Chicago. Her residence address is 5842 W. Erie St.

1894

Sec'y—H. L. EKERN, Chicago
208 S. La Salle St.

HELEN KELLOGG, formerly of Madison, has accepted a position as instructor of French and English at Macalester College, St. Paul, Minn.

1895

Sec'y—G. A. CARHART, Milwaukee
774 Summit Ave.

AMELIA McMINN has recently moved to 906 Hackett Ave., Milwaukee.

1896

Sec'y—G. F. THOMPSON, Chicago
154 N. Parkside St.

CHARLES O'NEILL (ex) has been elected treasurer of the Madison Association of Commerce for the coming year.

1897

Sec'y—MRS. W. A. SCOTT, Madison
627 Mendota Ct.

C. K. LEITH, professor of geology at Wisconsin, has written a memorial to the late President Charles Richard Van Hise.

1899

Sec'y—MRS. J. W. McMILLAN, Milwaukee
740 Frederick Ave.

While MRS. JOHN McMILLAN (Lucretia Hinckley), who accepted a request to run as an Independent candidate for the

Mrs. J. W. McMillan

Assembly from the 18th Assembly District was defeated by the regular Republican candidate, she received the compliment of 3000 votes and has the distinction of being the first woman in Wisconsin to be a candidate for the legislature.

—J. B. EMERSON has resigned as inspection engineer of the United Alloy Steel Corp., Canton, Ohio, and is reopening an office as consulting engineer in St. Louis.—DR. G. W. FUNCK has offices at 1412-25 E. Washington St., Chicago.

1900

Sec'y—JOS. KOFFEND JR., Appleton
864 Prospect Ave.

H. R. HOLMES, president of the U. W. Club of Pocatello, Idaho, wrote us recently: "Frequently fellows from U. of W. go through Pocatello and we do not know about it until we hear of their leaving. If you have any tab on U. W. men who come through and would let me know we would be mighty pleased to afford a little entertainment for them; at least we could make the visit shorter in case they had to lay over between trains. Bradley (Arthur I think) was through here about two weeks ago and the first we knew of it was in the evening paper announcing that he had left. Some of our members knew him back at school and would have been awfully glad to have met him again. Can't you get better action on the Associated Press? They give a fairly good account of the eastern games in our Rocky Mountain papers but only the bare scores of the middle west games. Still we probably have eight times as many graduates from the middle west as we do from the far east out in this country. I look for U. W. to win in both football and track this year. I hope my son delivers the goods in case he gets into any of the big games."—E. R. WOLCOTT, research engineer, lives at 917 Crenshaw Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.—J. J. COYLE, lawyer of Minot, N. D., is at present on a trip to the West coast.—MRS. P. S. REINSCH (Alma Moser) may be addressed at 2212 "R" St. N. W., Washington, D. C.—M. B. STONE, structural engineer, has offices at 916 N. Y. Life Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

1901

Sec'y—MRS. R. B. HARTMANN,
Milwaukee
4001 Highland Blvd.

MRS. A. P. THOMAS (Florence Kuechenmeister) is secretary of the Washington County chapter of the A. R. C., at West Bend, doing active work for ex-service men and home relief.—M. J. CLEARY, vice-president of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Milwaukee, has been appointed a member of the insurance committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce.—L. D. ROWELL is associate professor of electrical engineering at Purdue University.—M. W. McARDLE, 800 Eastwood Ave., Chicago, is vice-president and general manager of the Chicago Flexible Shaft Co.

1902

Sec'y—LELIA BASCOM, Madison
419 Sterling Pl.

L. P. ROSENHEIMER is in general merchandise and implement business at Kewaskum.—STEPHEN GARDNER, 662 W. Roosevelt Rd., Chicago, is secretary and treasurer of the Greenlee Foundry Co.—F. S. HYMAN is vice-president of the Chicago Motor Truck Co., Inc., 335 W. 28th Place, Chicago.

1903

Sec'y—W. H. HEIN,
788 Euclid Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

JAMES WALKER (ex) lives at 703 Main St. W., Twin Falls, Idaho.—A. J. QUIGLEY is connected with the Seattle (Wash.) office of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.—DR. W. A. WALTERS (ex) lives at 2301 S. Grammercy Pl., Los Angeles, Calif.

1904

Sec'y—MRS. W. B. BENNETT, Madison
322 S. Hamilton St.

MARY L. NELSON has changed her address from Tacoma, Wash., to 1403 Kane St., La Crosse.—L. R. DAVIES has accepted the position of supervisor of agricultural education for the State of Colorado, and may be addressed in care of the Department of Agricultural Education, Colorado A. & M. College, Ft. Collins, Colo.—GEORGE KEMMERER is assistant professor of chemistry at Wisconsin.—WINIFRED E. HALE is a teacher in Milwaukee-Downer College, Milwaukee.—NORMA HALBACH is teaching in Nome, Alaska.—MAURICE MOE, formerly with the Biblical Alliance of Madison, has accepted a position as instructor of English in the West Division high school of Milwaukee.—B. E. MCCORMICK, superintendent of schools at La Crosse, has been elected president of the Wisconsin State Teachers' Association.

1905

Sec'y—LILLIAN TAYLOR, Madison
352 W. Wilson St.

JOHN BERG is state engineer of South Dakota.—REX WELTON was elected president of the Madison Automotive Dealers Association recently.

1906

Sec'y—MRS. JAMES D. ROBERTSON,
1422 Irving St. N. E., Washington, D. C.

D. E. MOWRY recently won first prize, a gold medal, for the best essay on the subject of "The Commercial Organization and Community Progress" at the annual meeting of the N. A. of C. O. Secretaries. Mr. Mowry is secretary of the Madison Association of Commerce.—S. I. GILPATRICK (ex), owner of the Hotel Gilpatrick, Milwaukee, is president of the Milwaukee and Wisconsin State Hotel Association.—CUDWORTH BEYE has moved from Riverdale, Md., to 1223 Evarts St. N. E., Washington, D. C.—F. A. TODD (ex) is a dealer in retail lumber at 18 S. May St., Aurora, Ill.—ADA WILKE, who is a social worker with the American Red Cross, lives at 236 Oneida St., Milwaukee.—C. W. WRIGHT is with the legal department of the C. M. & St. P. Ry. Co., with headquarters at Minneapolis, Minn.

1907

Sec'y—RALPH GUGLER, Milwaukee
694 Broadway

W. J. MORGAN (ex) was recently elected attorney-general of Wisconsin.—WILLIAM KNOELK is in Milwaukee representing the Great Northern Life Insurance Co.

1908

Sec'y—F. H. ELWELL, Madison
2025 Chadbourne Ave.

H. B. LEEDOM (ex) is in the insurance business in the Mitchell Bldg., Milwaukee.—S. J. WILLIAMS, engineer, lives at 2609 Lincoln St., Evanston, Ill.—LYDIA E. FADNER is physical director for high school girls in Chisholm, Minn.—MRS. E. C. WALKER (Delgracia Gay) lives in Vero, Fla.—ELIZABETH JOSLIN's address is 1327 Hammond Ave., Superior.—J. E. GILLESPIE, engineer in charge of equipment and day labor jobs of the Wisconsin Highway Commission, has resigned his position, and has accepted a position as assistant to the president of the Marquette Mfg. Co., Chicago.

1909

Sec'y—CORNELIA ANDERSON,
U. of S. D., Vermilion, S. D.

C. R. STEINFELDT is a physician and surgeon at the public health service hospital No. 2, 47th & Drexel Blyds., Chicago.—L. G. BURGESS (ex), 2667 Lothrop Ave., Detroit, Mich., is head of the Manual Training Department at the Northwestern High School.—A. J. CUNNINGHAM (ex), lawyer, has offices at 319 Hart-Albin Bldg., Billings, Mont.—A. R. GARNOCK is president of the Universal Engineering Co., Eau Claire.—T. P. STAIR (ex) secretary-treasurer of The Kenyon Co., Inc., map publishers lives at 303 Grand Ave., Des Moines, Ia.—T. H. SCHOENWETTER is head of the Commercial Department of the high school at Santa Monica, Calif.—Mr. and Mrs. P. C. MERRILL (Clara Cronin) are located at Sterlington, N. Y., where Mr. Merrill is a mining engineer with the Ramapo Ore Co. Mr. Merrill writes that the few graduates located at Sterlington are talking of forming a local U. W. Club.—L. B. ORR, 5806 Prairie Ave., Chicago, is a consulting electrical engineer.

1910

Sec'y—W. J. MEUER, Madison
113 N. Butler St.

GRACE GRIFFEN may be addressed at 421 Lawrence St., Helena, Mont.—L. J. HOLLISTER is superintendent of schools at Windom, Minn.—W. W. ZUEHLKE is a certified public accountant with Arthur Anderson & Co., 1814 Harris Trust Bldg., Chicago.—IRVING HEWITT lives at 646 "I" St. S. W., Washington, D. C.—MRS. F. D. ST. CLAIR (Gertrude Sellery) is residing in Saltsburg, Pa.—S. P. HALL is vice-president of the Universal Engineering Co., Eau Claire.—GEORGIANA CLARK may be addressed in care of the State School of Science, Wahpeton, N. D.—M. A. JENCKS lives at 716 Paseo St., Colorado Springs, Colo.—H. H. FORCE writes that he has accepted a position as chief engineer with the Continental Motors Corp., Muskegon, Mich.—SPENCER PEASE, formerly president of the Western Advertising Agency, Racine, has become associated with the Clum Manufacturing Co., 421 National Ave., Milwaukee.—R. N. MORRISON has recently moved to 1620 E. 6th St., Duluth, Minn.—HELEN DAVIS is an assistant in the Geology Department at Wisconsin.—Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD RUEDEBUSCH are planning to spend the holidays in the United States. At present they are in The Hague, Holland, where Mr. Ruedebusch is foreign representative of the Rueping Leather Co. of Fond du Lac.

Morning Glories and the Elephant

By W. D. RICHARDSON, ex'10

"Wisconsin's mile relay team did not compete because of the ineligibility of one member of the quartette who wrote off a 'con' examination the morning of the meet."—THE ALUMNI MAGAZINE.

The foregoing note appeared in one of the issues of the MAGAZINE last spring and referred to the Drake relays.

How natural it sounds! The old nigger is still haunting the wood-pile, isn't he? The rules are still being interpreted to the third decimal point, aren't they? It only goes to prove a point which requires no proof and a condition I have always maintained and that is that Wisconsin's eligibility standards are more strict—I should say "more strictly interpreted"—than those of any other member of the "Big Ten."

W. D. RICHARDSON

During the regime of G. W. Ehler as director of athletics, I had occasion to investigate the eligibility rules of the other conference colleges and a comparison with those in effect at Wisconsin proved conclusively that it is more difficult for a man to participate in athletics at the University of Wisconsin than it is at Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, Minnesota or Ohio State—and that goes for other extra-curricular activities also!

Since I can remember—and my memory dates back to—well, we'll say 1904, because if I went beyond that period I'd be admitting things that one hates to admit after reaching the one-score-and-ten—Wisconsin's athletics have been maintained under greater handicaps than are evident at rival institutions. I could cite many instances where chances for championships have been tossed away as a result of the ineligibility of one man. And I don't mean hopeless cases, either, but cases which allowed a choice of either liberal or exact interpretation of the rules.

And what, I hear someone in the faculty asking, do championships mean? Well, nothing at all—if you look at it that way. And yet I believe that they mean a great deal. At Wisconsin, excepting, perhaps, athletics only, we are educated primarily to be successful. That, I believe, is the ultimate aim of education—to show men and women the way to success. And so, if we are going to have athletics at all—and there are some distinguished members of the faculty who still question the value of athletics—let's have successful athletics and let's go the limit to make them successful. For—and I want to emphasize this point—successful athletics do more to keep alive alumni interest than anything else. To some, I know, that will represent a deplorable condition of affairs but it is true just the same.

But I've digressed from the main line. I was speaking about the numerous times when the ineligibility of one man meant the difference between a championship team and a mediocre one. I do not mean to infer that because a man happens to be an athletic "star" he should be lifted over all the rough spots. He doesn't deserve one whit more consideration than someone else not so gifted but, at least, his athletic prowess should not prove a barrier to him. I have known cases where the mere fact that a man possessed great athletic ability made it all the more difficult for him to remain or become eligible. The services of such men have frequently been lost through some technicality that could easily have been avoided without stepping backward into the dark ages. But, at Wisconsin, there seems to be no middle course. It's either "on your nose" or "on the back of your head." We have always tried to keep our skirts so blamed clean that it was easy for others to see through them.

(Continued in January issue)

1911

Sec'y—E. D. STEINHAGEN, Milwaukee
721-51st St.

A. H. HEIDNER is practicing medicine and surgery at West Bend.—ROY PHIPPS represents the Allis-Chalmers Co. in Tokio, Japan.—AIMEE ZILLMER is spending the year in Boston, taking an intensive course in social service work. She is also doing work at the Elizabeth Peabody House, where she lives.—L. I. SHAW is connected with the Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.—K. F. DICKINSON (ex) is assistant engineer with Kelsey-Brewer & Co., 1101 Grand Rapids Savings Bank Bldg., Grand Rapids, Mich.—H. G. ABENDROTH, accountant, lives at 830 Wentworth Ave., Milwaukee.—G. H. NICKELL may be addressed at the Y. M. C. A., Aurora, Ill.—WALTER WIED is raising pure bred Holsteins at R. F. D. 2. Almond.—MRS. W. W. WITMER (Mary Louise Wright) resides at Du Pont, Wash., where her husband is assistant superintendent of the Du Pont Powder Co.—MRS. W. S. HAMPTON (Lisette Woemer) lives at 2064 Eastern Parkway, Louisville, Ky.

1912

Sec'y—H. J. WIEDENBECK, Pittsburgh, Pa.
208 So. St. Clair St.

G. E. BENNETT is professor of accounting and director of the Department of Accounting at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y.—G. S. MEARS, salesman for the Ludowici-Celadon Co., may be addressed at P. O. Box 1024, Jacksonville, Fla.—M. K. WHYTE is practicing law with Glicksman, Gold & Conigan, 5625 Caswell Blk., Milwaukee.—E. F. WEEK, mechanical engineer, is with the Briquetting Co. of Illinois, at Winton Place, Cincinnati, O.—HILDA RAETZMAN is teaching in Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill.—GEORGE LUHMAN is practicing law with Miller, Mack & Fairchild, 1504 First Wisconsin Natl. Bk. Bldg., Milwaukee.—W. J. ENDERS, 3524 Cullom Ave., Chicago, is chief clerk in the commercial engineering department of the Chicago Telephone Co.—MRS. M. R. LAIRD (Helen Connor) lives at 1333 35th St., Omaha, Nebr.—K. E. FELLOWS is in the electrical business at 113 4th St., Baraboo.

1913

Sec'y—RAY SWEETMAN, Nanking, China
Y. M. C. A.

A. D. BULLERJAHN, 50 S. Howell St., Hillsdale, Mich., is assistant works manager for the Alamo Farm Light Co.—MRS. W. V. KRZANOWSKY (Irma Estell) lives at 1901 Knox Ave., Bellingham, Wash.—LAURA L. GILMAN writes: "Will you please change my address to 11 Summit Court, St. Paul, Minn.? I am still in charge of the Clinical Laboratory of The Beebe Laboratories, Inc., St. Paul."—DR. M. E. ROSE lives at 134 W. Prairie Ave., Decatur, Ill.—MRS. CARROLL SWEET (Pauline Buell), whose husband is in the British Foreign Service in India, may be addressed at Dehra Dun, India.—J. R. MANEGOLD is an engineer with the Dings Magnetic Separator Co., Milwaukee.—RICHARD BOISSARD has just returned to his home at 608 E. Gorham St., Madison, after a three-months trip to Europe.—Eighteen months in jail was the sentence meted out to E. M. PRICE (ex) for the slaying of a negro porter in a Pittsburgh hotel, July 7.—MR. and MRS. V. H. VOLQUARTS (Henriette Rissmann, '12) live at 1201 Armstrong Ave., Bartlesville, Okla.—E. D. WEIL is in the wholesale tailoring business at 1028 W. Van Buren St., Chicago.

1914

Sec'y—NORMAN BASSETT, Madison
227 Langdon St.

W. L. TIERNAN writes that his address is Austin High School, Chicago.—H. R. LISTER may be addressed at 1455 E. 67th Place, Chicago.—ARTHUR MYRLAND is president of the Red Arrow Flying Corp., Madison, a company which specializes in exhibition work and passenger carrying in aeroplanes.—J. T. GALLAGHER, assistant superintendent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee, writes: "I have your letter of Oct. 1, in regard to the exasperating conditions that have interfered with the publication of the new alumni directory. It is apparent that you have done everything possible to expedite issuance of the directory. Your letter is greatly appreciated, as is the promise to send me a copy just as soon as the 'powers that be' see fit to furnish proof and follow the volume through."—LAURA TOWNE is connected with the Department of Modern Languages of the Iowa State College, Ames, Ia.—ALLEN WILMOT and his wife (Ada Hopkins, '12) have moved from Vancouver Canada, to 16 Devonshire Ave., Brantford, Ont., where Mr. Wilmot has been made production manager of the Pratt & Letchworth Co. of that city.—A recent issue of the Wisconsin Farm contains an article telling of the work of E. H. HOPPRT, extension specialist in horticulture in Nebraska. Mr. Hoppert, whose work consists of largely in giving demonstrations in pruning, spraying, picking, packing and cultivating fruit, has been very successful.—B. L. ROBINSON writes: "I have recently finished, the medical course at the U. of Minnesota and now have charge of the Hygiene Department established here last year under grant of the United States Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board. I am enjoying the work and the people here very much."—ROBERT WAHL owns and operates a dairy farm at Sturgeon Bay, specializing in Holstein Friesian cattle.—CHARLES JONES may be addressed at 1814 Harris Trust Bldg., Chicago.

1915

Sec'y—N. P. BIART, Madison
1123 Elizabeth St.

HARRY KOCH, who recently became a member of the Alumni Association, is with the Asia Banking Corp., Hong Kong, China.—ARTHUR POTT may be addressed at 123 Newhall Ave., Waukesha.—M. W. GARDNER, plant pathologist at the Purdue Agricultural Experiment Station, lives at 521 State St., Lafayette, Ind.—W. W. INNES, civil engineer, lives at 3631 Morris Pl., Cincinnati, O.—GRACE PUGH, who is working for the Minimum Wage Commission, in Boston, Mass., has been granted a leave of absence and is now on a trip abroad.—MARIE SCHMIDT's address for the school year is Jefferson St., Mendota, Ill.—MRS. C. C. EDMONDS (Olive Thauer) may be addressed at 727 Packard St., Ann Arbor, Mich.—Mail will reach FANNIE FULLER if addressed to her at 608 W. Madison St., Danville, Ill.—MYRON CORNISH is connected with the Dayton Fan & Motor Co., Dayton, O., in the engineering department.—MRS. ROBERT SEYBOLD (Ottillie Turnbull) formerly of the Public Speaking Department at Wisconsin, is now connected with the U. of California.—J. T. STEUER is engaged in the industrial real estate business at 30 N. La Salle St., Chicago.—EWALD KLUMB is a representative of Peabody Houghteling & Co. in Milwaukee and Eastern Wisconsin, with offices in the First Wisconsin National Bank Bldg., Milwaukee.—F. G. Bishop is superintendent of schools at Two Rivers.—CHARLES JEWETT JR., cafeteria manager at the Plaza Hotel, Chicago, recently became a life member of the Alumni Association.

1916

Sec'y—RUTH E. DILLMAN, New York City
15 E. 38th St.

H. E. BENEDICT had charge of the Wisconsin section of the division of college men and women in the Harding-Coolidge parade held in New York, Oct. 28.—A. E. MURPHY may be addressed at the Hotel Nelson, Rockford, Ill.—R. E. WILLIAMS is connected with the Midwest Refining Co., at Parkerton, Wyo.—C. B. DUNN, attorney has offices at 517 Beacon Bldg., Wichita, Kan.—ALBERTINE E. Metzner is on the faculty of the Illinois Woman's College, Jacksonville, Ill.—N. D. BARNETT's address is 1519 Hollywood Ave., Chicago.—MRS. STEWART MAHAN (Arline Perry, ex) lives in Follansbee, W. Va.—H. V. PLATE is with W. A. Baehr, consulting engineer, 2013 Peoples Gas Bldg., Chicago.—FRED HALL is connected with the Northwestern Casualty and Surety Co., Madison.—H. P. MELNIKOW is on the faculty of the Berkeley (Calif.) high school in the Physical Education Department.—MARION O'NEIL teaches in Appleton.—D. W. FLICKINGER, 4211 Broadway, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I attended the National Association of Life Underwriters at Boston, Mass., last month, as a delegate to the 31st annual convention there. I met two Wisconsin men that far away from home. I certainly am looking forward to our five-year reunion next spring."—WINFIELD SMITH, who is with the Department of Agriculture of the State of Washington, writes: "I am stationed at Kennewick for the present with territory of thirty miles surrounding Kennewick to look after."—MARTIN KLOSER, University Club, State College, Pa., writes: "My three younger brothers, one sophomore and two freshmen, keep me fairly well informed regarding University news, yet I find myself neglecting my meals when the ALUMNI MAGAZINE comes. Yours for a big reunion in June."

1917

Sec'y—WILFRED EVANS, El Paso, Texas
Wallace Annex Apt., Randolph St.

KATHERINE WHITNEY (ex) is secretary-treasurer of the U. W. Club of St. Louis. Her address is 5539 Page Blvd., St. Louis.—MRS. P. B. SHELDON (Carol Munro) lives at 4333 Laclede Ave., St. Louis, Mo.—E. T. HAWKINS is superintendent of schools at Prescott.—I. A. MIELENZ is connected with Pawling & Marnischfeger, Milwaukee.—An excerpt from a letter from ETHEL MYGRANT reads: "I am in the Botany Department of the U. of Minnesota this year. Minnesota has a wonderful school but it doesn't equal Wisconsin."—RUTH MYRLAND is attending Columbia University, New York City.—P. S. TAYLOR is an assistant in the Economics Department at the U. of California, and is working for his doctor's degree.—F. A. HOMANN is connected with the Thermal Appliance Co., 125 E. 46th St., New York City.—PAUL NORTON JR. gives his address as 56 S. 18th St., Columbus, O.

1918

Sec'y—HOWARD HANCOCK, Owen

C. L. WARNER writes: "My present address is Cresson, Pa., where I am connected with the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Co. and Carbonization Co., Ltd., having left Flushing, L. I., about the middle of September."—HELEN EATON may be addressed at 430 Washington St., Oshkosh.—MATHILDE SCHWERT is a teacher in the high school at White Sulphur Springs, Mont.—H. A. POLLACK, 16 Oxford St., Cambridge, Mass., is enrolled in the graduate school of business administration at Harvard.—H. A. CAMLIN (ex) is an assistant highway engineer for the Division of Highways, State of Illinois, New Clifton Hotel Bldg., Ottawa, Ill.—E. G. SHALKHAUSER has accepted a position as assistant in the Department of Physics at Bradley Polytechnic Institute, Peoria, Ill.—H. H. FULLER is an instructor in electrical engineering at Wisconsin.—J. G. CONLEY may be addressed in care of the Burke Electric Co., Erie, Pa.—ANDREW BRANN is running a big potato farm at Ellison Bay.—MARIE LOTTES is an assistant in agricultural bacteriology at Wisconsin.—MRS. H. H. HARRIS (Mary Vose), 434 W. 120th St., New York City, writes that she is at present attending Columbia University.

Mr. Harris, who attended Wisconsin as an adult special in 1917 is at present general sales manager of the Swedish Crucible Steel Co. of Detroit, Mich., and manager of the Metals Division of the Quigley Furnace Specialties Co. of New York City.—DOROTHY BRINKER is doing psychiatric social work at Psychopathic Hospital, 74 Fenwood Rd., Boston, Mass.—RUTH TUFTS is teaching history in Eau Claire.—FLORENCE KRIEGER writes that she is teaching mathematics in her home high school at Langford, S. D.—MRS. J. E. GRANT (Alice Mooney) lives at 3936 N. Marshfield Ave., Chicago.

1919

Sec'y—VELMA REID, Hurley

WALTER MALZAHN is accountant for the West Bend Aluminum Co., West Bend.—H. H. WILLISTON may be addressed at 3003 Dodge St., Omaha, Nebr.—JOHN TILLEMANN, JAMES GOUGH, and J. F. SHIMPA are attending Rush Medical School, Chicago.—L. P. WORKS is with the Peninsular Service Co., 506 Wilner Bldg., Green Bay.—O. H. MARSHALL JR. lives at 112 W. Temple St., Washington Court House, Ohio.—G. D. ADAMS' address is 6013 Franklin Ave., Cleveland, O.—HAROLD GROVES is attending Harvard Law School.—W. E. GREEN is a student in the Detroit School of Medicine. His address is 62 Pearl Ave.—MRS. GEORGE FULLER (Helen Uzzell) lives in Ames, Iowa.—WIRTH FERGER, 530 Vine St., Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he and Mrs. Ferger (Abbie Parmalee, '20) expect to sail early in 1921 for India to do educational work there.—FLORENCE WHITBECK holds a fellowship in the Department of Geography and Geology at Wisconsin.—ALICE VAN HISE is taking graduate work in short story writing at Columbia.—RUTH VAN DEURSEN is teaching English in St. Charles, Ill.—HELEN SKINNER is teaching chemistry at Lewis Institute, Chicago.—MILDRED RUFVOLD is art supervisor in the schools of Mesa, Ariz.—ELIZABETH NYSTROM is doing geographical work for A. J. Nystrom & Co., Chicago.—MILDRED PEDERSON, 31 Arthur Ave., S. E., Minneapolis, Minn., states that a group of alumnae in Minneapolis and St. Paul are contemplating forming a local U. W. Alumnae Club.—MAVIS CHUBB is acting as instructor in French and dramatics at the Madison Day School.—DAVID WEISS, 1932 Home St., Berkeley, Calif., writes: "I am registered as a graduate student in the Economics Department at the U. of California. There are a considerable number of Wisconsin alumni registered in the graduate school here this semester. It is planned to organize a Wisconsin chapter very soon."—HELEN C. BROWNE, Waupaca, has just returned from a four months' trip to the Orient, visiting the Philippines, Hawaii, Japan, and China. Accompanied by her mother she was one of the Congressional Party.

She will spend the coming winter with her parents in Washington, D. C.

1920

Sec'y—PHYLLIS B. HAMILTON, Madison
433 W. Gilman St.

If you have any items of interest concerning other members of the class, do not fail to send them into the secretary or to the Alumni Headquarters, for we want to know what each and every member of the class is doing.

HERMAN HUBER, who is attending Rush Medical College, Chicago, writes that other members of 1920 studying at Rush are DAN WERBA, SVERRE QUILSING, VERNON HITTNER, GEORGE COON, ORRIN OVERTON, SIMON LUBAN, and WILLIAM STERN.—C. E. BACH is attending the U. of Pennsylvania Medical School.—R. E. SMITH has been appointed first assistant state engineer of South Dakota.—R. A. BAXTER, 45 Jackson, Long Branch, N. J., is a life member of the Association.—E. L. PERKINS is with the Gundlach Advertising Agency, 122 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago.—MARGARET WAGNER, 333 N. 59th Ave., W., Duluth, Minn., has just joined the Alumni Association.—J. E. GRANT is an accountant for the Universal Carloading and Distributing Co., Chicago.—LUCILE DREWRY is on the staff of The Journal Chronicle, Owatonna, Minn.—R. K. IRVINE, 3805 Spruce St., Philadelphia, Pa., is a medical student at the U. of Pennsylvania.—HOMER KESTEN is a graduate student at Wisconsin.—CHARLES DREWRY may be addressed at 617 Remington St., Ft. Collins, Colo.—SARAH LOUISE PROCTOR writes: "Please send the ALUMNI MAGAZINE to me at 89 Pinckney St., Boston, Mass., as I am located in Boston for the winter doing research work with the Women's Educational and Industrial Union. I've run across a number of Badgers in the short time that I've been here."—MALCOLM SHARP, FLETCHER COHN and BARON MEYER are attending the Harvard Law School.—GRACE STAFFORD may be addressed at the Woman's Bldg., Stillwater, Okla.—S. R. McCANDLESS, who is a student at Harvard, lives at 1727 Cambridge St., Cambridge, Mass.—HAROLD ALBRECHT is an A. R. O. tester with headquarters at Monticello.—BEATRICE BEAL is executive secretary of the Red Cross at Morris, Ill.—DOROTHY BRIDGE is teaching Latin and English in the Oregon high school.—HELEN BURCH is in Madison this year teaching music.—ANITA BURNAM is assistant leader of the Boys' and Girls' Club of Kentucky with headquarters at Lexington.—CLARK CARROLL is with the Brandt Mfg. Co. of New York, manufacturers of cash machines.—BRUCE CARTER is on his farm near Black River Falls.—CAROL COATES is in Grand Forks, N. D., teaching home economics in the high school.—DANIEL CASS is doing county agent work.

also teaching in Woonsocket, S. D.—LOIS COTTRELL is teaching history, Rockford, Ill. high school.—ALICE DAY is teaching at Chippewa Falls.—MARY FERGUSON has been appointed assistant in the University Library.—ELIZABETH FITCH is home economics editor of Farm and Fireside, a publication of the Crowell Publishing Co., New York City.—ANNA GEBHARDT is teaching English at the Lodi high school.—AGATHA HAHN is teaching English in the high school at Wisconsin Rapids.—CLARENCE JOERNDT is with the National City Bank of New York City.—GARNET KLEVEN is staying at home this year at Mt. Horeb.—ELIZABETH KUNDERT is teaching in Hood College, Frederick, Md.—GEORGE LARSON is teaching agriculture in the high school at Waukesha.—ZELLA LOOMER is teaching Latin at Kewaunee.—CHRISTINE McLAY is teaching home economics at Marshfield.—RUPERT RASMUSSEN is county agent for Washburn County.—LUCILE SELK has been spending the summer in California.—WILLIAM STEMMLER is managing the Winkler and Golden farm of 140 acres near Hartland.—FRANCIS WHITNEY is with the Madison-Kipp Lubricating Co.—CATHERINE BUR may be addressed at 117 S. Van Buren St., Green Bay.—MRS. W. E. GREEN (Eleanor Gaik) is a physical education instructor in the Grayling School, Detroit.—HELEN RAMSEY, who is teaching at Marshfield, may be addressed at 408 E. 3d St.—KATHERINE STACKHOUSE lives at 216 N. 33d St., Philadelphia, Pa.—MABEL VERNON is residing at 1212 W. Dayton St., Madison.—ELIZABETH MCCOLLISTER is at home in Jerseyville, Ill.—DOROTHY WOODS' address is 474 Bradford Ave., Apt. F, Milwaukee.—MRS. HOWARD FULLER (Florence Gerken, ex) lives at 120 W. Wilson St., Madison.—Mail will reach LAURA LUND if addressed to her at Middleton.—HARLOW PEASE is an assistant in the Department of Commerce at Wisconsin.—VERNA CARLE is teaching in the English Department of the Ashland high school.—VERA WINCHELL holds a scholarship in chemistry at Wisconsin.—MARION HICKS is teaching in the high school at Janesville.—A. J. WERRBACH is connected with Ed. Schuster & Co., Third & Garfield Sts., Milwaukee.—GERTRUDE WEBER may be addressed at 121 W. Union St., Edwardsville, Ill.—MARION E. JAMES has charge of the welfare work at the Dayton Fan & Motor Co., Dayton, O. Her address is 556 W. Third St.—MARY CONVERSE is connected with the Milwaukee Journal.—WILLIAM BRANDON is teaching in South St. Paul, Minn.—R. M. BETHKE, J. H. JONES, and SAMUEL LEPKOVSKY are all connected with the Research Department in agricultural chemistry at Wisconsin.—E. M. TIFFANY has been appointed assistant professor of agricultural education at the University.—ALLEN BURR is an inspector with the Wisconsin Division of Markets.—HAROLD COLE is farming near Marshall.—A. J.

LONSDORF is county agent in Florence County, with headquarters at Florence.—E. A. STOKDYK is assistant leader of boys' and girls' club work with the Extension Division.—ERNEST RYALL, Friendship, is county agent for Adams County.—ANGELINE NAPIECINSKI teaches in the high school at Genoa Junction.—CATHERINE CLEVELAND is an instructor in home economics in the high school at Lockport, N. Y.—RUTH COFFMAN teaches in Milwaukee.—REGINA FEENEY is a teacher of sewing at the State Normal at River Falls.—HAZEL LEAVITT is assistant instructor in the Textile Department at the University.—MARIE GOWDY is on the faculty of the high school of Aurora, Ill.—MILDRED HUSSA is doing nutrition work in the Infant Welfare Society, Chicago.—CLEO LAMB and ISABEL WALKER are instructors at Frances Sheimer College, Mt. Carroll, Ill.—FRANCES MALM is dietitian pupil in the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.—ELIZABETH MILLER is instructor in home economics with the Extension Division.—STELLA PATTEN teaches in Madison high school.—HELEN PERKINS is secretary of the Business Woman's Club at Wausau.—META SCHROEDER has accepted a fellowship in bacteriology at Wisconsin.—VERA SKINNER is domestic science teacher of the Coal and Iron Co., Birmingham, Ala.—GLADYS SLINGER is in charge of the Household Management Department and also the practice cottage at Oklahoma State Agricultural College, Stillwater, Okla.—ELLEN TENNY teaches in Adrian, Minn.—MARY HUTTON has charge of the home economics and general science work at the Madison Day School and is also taking some graduate work at the University.—JOHN MCPHERLIN is with the Cincinnati, Ohio, office of the J. Walter Thompson Advertising Agency.—RUTH RUGGLES may be addressed at Kemper Hall, Kenosha.—L. E. EDWARDS writes that his address is now Room 626, Y. M. C. A., Detroit, Mich.—L. T. HAMMOND's address is 80 Center St., Wauwatosa.—FLORENCE HANNA is living at 1629 North Shore Ave., Chicago.—After January 1, C. L. AUSTIN's address will be 592 St. Clair Ave., Detroit, Mich.—E. D. MAURER is with the Lyon Metallic Mfg. Co., Aurora, Ill.—ELLA SCHULDT may be addressed at 127 W. Gilman St., Madison.—F. J. BACON is a pharmacognosist with Eli Lilly & Co., Indianapolis, Ind.—ELIZABETH ANDERSEN is in the State Tax Commission, Madison.—MARION ANDERSON has accepted a position as bacteriologist in St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago.—H. J. BRANT, who is taking graduate work in the College of Agriculture, has recently been elected graduate member of the Student Senate.—GRACE BREWSTER is secretary to the Dean of the Medical School.—PAUL CRANFIELD is with the Guardian Life Insurance Co.—DONALD DOHR is in the correspondence department of Montgomery Ward Co., Chicago.—JANET DUR-

RIE sailed for France on Sept. 23. She was one of the winners of a French university scholarship awarded at Wisconsin last June.—REBECCA VON GRUENINGEN is teaching English at Waukesha.—RAY HOLCOMBE is in the Public Speaking Department at Iowa State University.—FRED MANN is in the purchasing department of the Youngstown Pressed Steel Co., Warren, Ohio.—FRED OLDENBURG is with the Fort Wayne Corrugated Paper Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.—EINER OYAAS is with Ernst & Ernst, a firm of industrial engineers at Cleveland, O.—ROY PIEH is in the Nash Motor Works, Kenosha.—HAZEL MURPHY is teaching English in the high school at Tomah.—ELLA SCHULZ is on the staff of the Janesville Gazette.—FRED STUHLER is with the George Stuhler's Sons Co., Monticello Ia., a combination of retail stores doing an extensive business in Monticello and the adjoining country.

BOOK NOTES

First Steps in Child Training, a 12 mo. cloth volume of 284 pages (Drake & Co.), is the first of a series of four books written by Prof. M. V. O'Shea for the Parents' Library.

Five chapters deal with first steps in intellectual, health, ethics, social, and language training. Chapter six deals with first steps in training disposition, and chapter eight with first steps in home instruction, while chapter seven concerns itself with first toys and playthings, and chapter nine has selected from a large amount of literature dealing with child nature and education. A list of books modern in view point, concrete, simple, and attractive in method. "This book is designed for practitioners who are every hour face to face with childhood and youth in the concrete."

Traveling Publicity Campaigns, by Mary Swain Routzahn, '02, (Russell Sage Foundation) is a volume of about 150 pages, including nineteen illustrations, containing nine instructive chapters drawn from accounts of about seventy-five tours of trains, trucks, trolley cars, and other vehicles. The writer has obtained information from printed reports, letters, articles, replies to questionnaires, and interviews, as well as from observation and experience. The information, comments, and suggestions are especially useful to those who may be considering for the first time this method of promoting social programs; it is also of interest and value to any who, having employed this method, wish to compare their experiences with those of others.

Twenty Lessons in Citizenship is the title of a pamphlet of forty-eight pages recently published by D. L. Hennessey, '03, Director of Americanization and Assistant Superintendent of Schools at Berkeley, California. These Lessons are the outcome of nine years' experience in preparing candidates for citizenship. The language is commendably simple. While intended primarily for foreign-born adults, these Lessons are also valuable to grammar and high school students and teachers.

Comparison of Workmen's Compensation Laws of the U. S. and Canada up to June 1, 1920, by Carl Hookstadt, '10, is the title of Bulletin No. 275 of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, of the Labor Department.

This comprehensive work of 140 pages is a revision of a similar study made in 1917. Among new features added to the present volume are: occupation diseases, re-marriage of widows, second injuries, re-habilitation, inadequacy of partial disability schedules, relative severity of upper and lower limb injuries, contract doctors and hospitals, and hospital and medical fees.

Principal features of laws of each state are classified under twenty-three headings. Thus, salient points of comparison and difference can be quickly ascertained by reference to this valuable chart.

Elementary Lessons in English Idiom, by Lelia M. Bascom, '02, instructor in English at the University (D. Appleton and Co., N.Y.), is designed to aid students and business men who are handicapped by their lack of mastery of the English language, and who wish to perfect their knowledge.

Among the recent bulletins published by the University are:

Experiments in Farming (Bulletin 319 of the Agricultural Experiment Station) by H. L. Russell, '88, and F. B. Morrison, '11.

What Name for the Farm (Circular 130 of the Extension Division) by F. A. Aust and Gladys Baker.

Off-year Apple Bearing (Bulletin 317 of the Agricultural Experiment Station) by R. H. Roberts.

The Occurrence of Red Calves in Black Breeds of Cattle (Bulletin 313 of the Agricultural Experiment Station) by L. J. Cole and Sarah V. H. Jones, '16.

Farming Leasing Systems in Wisconsin (Bulletin 47 of the Agricultural Experiment Station) by B. H. Hibbard, '02, and J. D. Black.

PHOTOART FINISHING

SPECIAL MAIL SERVICE—We bring Photoart developing and printing to your door. It costs no more than does the ordinary kind.

Stick a 1c stamp on your next exposed roll and drop it in the nearest mail box.

THE PHOTOART HOUSE,
WM. J. MEUER, '10, Pres. Madison, Wis.

THE PARKER TEACHERS' AGENCY

A "State" agency licensed by and operating under bonds to the State of Wisconsin. The nation is our field. Ask for booklet descriptive of our work. Personally conducted by

WILLARD N. PARKER, U. W. '90
12 South Carroll Street Madison, Wis.

CAMPUS NOTES

S. M. Babcock

Babcock Day was celebrated at the University on October 22, in honor of the seventy-seventh birthday of Dr. Stephen Moulton Babcock, inventor of the test for determining the amount of butter fat in milk. The original tester, invented in 1890 and presented to the State by Doctor Babcock, was displayed, together with modern testers, in the corridor of the library. The exhibit also included a large painting in oils of Doctor Babcock, a letter from New Zealand dairymen paying a tribute for the discovery, and the medal awarded by the legislature in 1899 in recognition of his services.

Fellowships for French universities can be competed for by about two dozen graduates of American colleges, according to information received from I. L. Kandel, secretary of the S. for A. F. S. F. for F. U., 522 Fifth Ave., New York City, from whom further details may be secured.

The Department of Speech is the title recently given by the Regents to what was heretofore the Department of Public Speaking.

Prof. C. F. Smith is preparing a sketch of the life of President C. K. Adams.

About $39,000 was expended to carry on the 1920 summer session. Yet of this amount all but about $12,000 was received in the form of fees.

Golf has just become a recognized sport at the University by action of the athletic board. In making golf a Wisconsin sport, the athletic board has placed it in the class with hockey and skiing which are neither major nor minor sports and for which no letters can be awarded. G. A. Bauman, '22, is president of the club, and R. C. Gotfredson, '21, is secretary.

A Varsity Movie, a 2,000-foot feature film depicting an interesting story of student life, written, produced, and acted by students, is being planned by the Edwin Booth Dramatic Club.

Literary societies meet as usual on Friday evenings—Pythia and Castalia at 7 P. M. in Lathrop Hall, Athena, Hysperia and Philomathia at 8 P. M. in Bascom Hall.

About 50 underclassmen are working for army officers' commissions this year in the advanced section of the R. O. T. C. About 1,200 freshmen and sophomores, composing the underclass R. O. T. C., have been organized into one regiment of infantry, composed of twelve companies of 100 men each.

Thirty-four Chinese students at the University celebrated their native "Fourth of July" this fall, commemorating the ninth anniversary of the birth of the Chinese republic. Oriental programs and celebrations were carried out.

More than 2,390 former soldiers, sailors, marines, and nurses have taken advantage of the Wisconsin soldier bonus law to register for correspondence courses through the Extension Division.

Hamlin Garland, Badger novelist and dramatist, born in West Salem, spoke before students here in October.

President E. A. Birge made an address on "Present Day Problems," and Prof. D. D. Lescohier, of the Economics Department, spoke on "Citizenship," at a meeting of the Northwestern Wisconsin Teachers' Association held recently.

The University Aero Club, organized by a number of ex-army and navy aerial officers last spring, decided recently to begin raising money to buy an aeroplane for commercial purposes and to promote aviation. The end toward which they are working is to establish a flying department in the military organization here.

Two medals presented to J. F. Appleby, Wisconsin inventor of the grain binder, at the Paris Exposition, are now on exhibition in the State Historical museum.

A book containing several hundred pictures illustrating the experimental work done by the Forest Products laboratory, Madison, for the United States government during the war, was recently presented by the laboratory to the Regents of the University.

To promote the home reading circle of the federal home educational board, the Extension Division will cooperate with the State Department of Education and with the Federal Bureau of Education. Dean Reber is in charge of the work in the State.

W. L. Carlyle, at one time head of the Animal Husbandry Department of the University, is reported to have been chosen by Edward Albert, heir to the British throne, to act as manager and agent of the cattle ranch recently purchased by the Prince in the Canadian Northwest.

Church membership was declared by the majority of new students at the University this fall, according to a church census which was taken by the Campus Religious Council. Of the 2,797 new students, 2,313 reported church affiliation, and the majority of these are church members. The figures show that 435 students attend the Methodist church, 342 the Congregational church, 309 the Presbyterian, 304 the Catholic, 277 the Lutheran, 183 the Episcopal, 100 the Baptist, 69 the Christian Science, 40 Hebrew, 29 Evangelical, 19 Reformists, 19 Unitarian, 3 Universalist, 2 Moravian, 2 United Brethern. Six denominations maintain special pastors for the students at the University.

About 640 Wisconsin communities borrowed 9,207 packages of instructional material from the package library department of the Extension Division last year.

The Wesley Foundation has granted scholarships to ten rural ministers to enable them to take graduate study at the University.

Dean S. H. Goodnight was elected president of the Association of universities offering graduate work during summer school, at the last meeting held at Columbia university.

The Military Department has been supplied by the War Department with about $500,000 worth of the latest models of guns and other army equipment. One entire barrack, built during S. A. T. C. period, is required to house the supplies. There are now six officers and eleven non-commissioned officers of the regular army in charge of the work. The student corps contains about 1,500 men, of which a number are working for commissions as reserve officers. In addition to infantry drill, the students may now be trained for artillery, engineer corps, or signal corps.

Alpha Pi Delta, a new professional fraternity, consists solely of students in the Course in Commerce.

The sixty-seventh annual meeting of the Wisconsin Teachers' Association, held in Milwaukee on Nov. 4, 5, and 6, was addressed by several members of the University faculty and instructional staff. President E. A. Birge spoke at the banquet of the U. W. Teachers' Club and acted as chairman of the meeting during the first day of the convention. Prof. E. B. Gordon of the Extension Division, spoke on "The Rural Situation in Wisconsin;" Prof. V. A. C. Henmon conducted intelligence tests; Prof. R. H. Whitbeck talked on "The Content of Junior High School Geography." Prof. C. A. Smith was chairman of the history section discussion; Mrs. J. H. Greenleaf, of the Language Department, discussed "The Teaching of Pronunciation;" Miss M. H. Doubler and Dr. J. C. Elsom, professors of physical education, took part in the gymnasium class exhibitions; Miss Gertrude Johnson of the Public Speaking Department, was chairman of the discussion on speech training. Prof. E. M. Gilbert talked on "Present Day Problems in Biology;" Prof. W. F. Steve described "Methods of Improving the Teaching of High School Physics;" Prof. F. L. Clapp opened the discussion on educational methods; Prof. F. A. Manchester was chairman of the English section; and Prof. M. S. Slaughter read a paper on "The Latin Problem in the High School."

Twelve new curators were elected for the three-year term by the Wisconsin State Historical Society at the annual meeting held recently. They are: R. B. Anderson, '85, Madison, C. N. Brown, '81, Madison, H. E. Cole, Baraboo, W. A. Titus, ex'93, Fond du Lac, J. H. A. Lacher, Waukesha, John Luchsinger, Monroe, Most Rev. S. G. Messmer, Milwaukee, B. L. Parker, '95, Green Bay, J. B. Parkinson, '60, Madison, F. L. Paxson, Madison, W. A. Scott, Madison, E. B. Steensland, '81, Madison. To fill the unexpired term of W. A. P. Morris, Miss Deborah Martin, Green Bay, was elected. P. V. Lawson, '78, Menasha, was appointed to fill the term of late Chief Justice J. B. Winslow, '75.

A total of 79 degrees was granted by the Board of Regents in October to students who completed their courses since the close of Summer Session.

The big barn at the University Hill farm burned to the ground on the evening of November 1. Seven horses, two sheep, and one cow were burned to death, and only prompt work by farm attendants saved the entire herd from destruction. An automobile and a considerable quantity of farm machinery were destroyed by the flames, and the total loss was expected to run over the $25,000 mark. The barn was the largest possessed by the University, and was fitted up as a model barn.

Recently elected officers of the Class of 1921 are: Frank L. Weston, president; Winifred Titus, vice-president; Mary Parkinson, secretary; William Florea, treasurer and Allen Davey, sergeant-at-arms.

Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity, and the forensic board are outlining plans to make this the greatest year in forensic activities at Wisconsin. In search of a means to foster the interest manifested in the debates and the Northern Oratorical league contest last year, the forensic board is now carrying on correspondence which may result in five or more inter-collegiate debates being listed, the largest number ever conducted in one year.

Two dormitories, one for men and one for women will be included among the urgent building needs of the University as presented to the next session of the legislature.

Four Filipino students, who have devoted the last two years to study of library work in the Library School, returned this summer to their native islands to enter government service.

Commissioner P. P. Claxton of the U. S. Bureau of Education delivered two addresses at the first annual conference of the National Academy of Visual Instruction.

The zoology department is gathering data concerning possible ways of limiting the number of English sparrows, and concerning a flatworm infection which attacks the sparrow, and which, as far as is known, has been found in but two places in the United States, Madison and Boston.

The Extension Division is sending colored slides through the State showing the commercial activities of and geographic advantages of various large seaports of the world. These slides are for use among schools, clubs, and other organizations and are being sent out on regular circuits as requested.

Statistics from the military department show that 1,400 uniforms have been ordered for cadets. Twelve companies of infantry, with an average line-up of 100 men to a company, have been formed. Two artillery batteries have also been started.

The department of manual arts has incorporated a number of courses in advanced drawing, painting and commercial art in its curriculum for the coming year to meet the growing demand for instruction in vocational art. An instructor from the Art Institute of Chicago has been engaged.

The 1920 edition of Who's Who in America lists the names of 104 members of our faculty. Many of those listed are nationally known because of their publications or their work on governmental committees. Two women professors are listed.

Mrs. Genevieve J. Boughner, a graduate of the U. of Minnesota, has been appointed instructor in the course in journalism. Mrs. Boughner, who is an experienced newspaper woman, has been connected with St. Paul and Minneapolis newspapers for six years and has also done magazine and syndicate work. She will give a new course in departments of interest to women readers in newspapers and magazines.

Prof. Daniel Starch of the philosophy and educational department has recently resigned to accept the position of associate professor of psychology in the school of business administration at Harvard.

The first unit of the new Wisconsin State Hospital will be the largest structure on the campus of the University. The building will cost about $600,000 and its construction will begin as soon as the plans are approved. The completed hospital, as now planned, will include two groups of buildings, in addition to the group that is to be started this year, and when completed will have a capacity of about 1,000 beds. The entire project is now being planned with its own campus, drives, courts, and landscape effects. The State Hospital will be operated in co-operation with our Medical School, to provide treatment for citizens of the State, as is done by state hospitals in several nearby states. The care and cure of crippled and unfortunate children will be an important part of its work. The clinical facilities which it will provide and the presence of the experts who will carry on its work will enable the University to enlarge its two-year pre-medical course into a standard four-year medical school of the first class.

Prof. Pitman B. Potter of the U. of Illinois has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Wisconsin. His field is that of international organization.

The Wisconsin Historical Society is considering the marking of the Ella Wheeler Wilcox home in Westport and the erection of a statue of Senator William P. Vilas at the foot of the University campus.

An improvement of the acid Bessemer steel process which aims to reduce the cost of making steel and to decrease the possibility of low quality steel in the process, has recently been invented and patented by Prof. R. S. McCaffery, of the department of mining and metallurgy of our College of Engineering.

Clyde B. Emery of Kansas City, Mo., now a senior at the University, has been appointed Rhodes scholar to go to Oxford, England, in October, 1921. Mr. Emery is a member of the student senate and is an editorial writer on the Daily Cardinal. He has been prominent in forensics.

The war department has just detailed a regular army signal corps lieutenant to provide training in army signal corps work for students in the cadet regiment. Elementary electricity and practical work with the army wireless apparatus which the war department has sent to the University will constitute the work.

The freshmen won the annual rush on the lower campus on Oct. 2. Allan Davey, chief of police, ordered the rush stopped after five minutes of battling, and judges awarded the first year men the decision because sophomore started ahead of the gun. The second year students had captured nearly all the fifteen bags before the freshmen were fairly started, and they refused to begin the contest afresh. It is the first time in the memory of President Birge that a freshman-sophomore rush has been forfeited.

Mrs. Maud H. Mendenhall has been appointed assistant to the dean of women at Wisconsin to succeed Miss Cornelia A. Anderson, who is now dean of women at the U. of South Dakota.

More than 190 disabled soldiers, under the direction of the federal board of vocational education, have already enrolled at the University this fall.

The largest summer session student body ever enrolled at Wisconsin registered for classes at the opening of the session, the total being 3,600. The great growth is shown by the following statistics: 528 summer students enrolled in 1905; 1,128 in 1909; and 1,925 in 1915.

"Childhood and Youth Series" is the title of a new group of twelve volumes on education and child development now being written by authorities on the subject, under the editorship of Prof. M. V. O'Shea of the School of Education. "Being Well Born," a book on heredity, has been contributed to the series by Prof. M. F. Guyer, chairman of the zoology department. "Education for Character" was written by Prof. Frank C. Sharp of the department of philosophy. Other books in the series are being prepared by workers in juvenile courts and in child welfare societies, as well as by specialists in other universities.

The Regents made an inspection trip during August to various northern agricultural experiment stations conducted by the College of Agriculture.

Four sororities have changed residence. They are Phi Mu, 222 Langdon St., formerly 707 W. Johnson; Sigma Kappa, 430 Sterling Ct., formerly 508 N. Frances; Delta Zeta, 10 Langdon St., formerly 430 Sterling Ct.; Delta Delta Delta, 128 Langdon, formerly 28 E. Gilman.

Five fraternities changing residence are Pi Kappa Alpha, 131 Langdon St., formerly Delta Phi Epsilon, 630 Langdon; Theta Chi, 151 W. Gilman St., formerly 148 W. Gilman; Lambda Chi Alpha, 148 W. Gilman St., formerly 10 Langdon St.; Alpha Gamma Rho, 125 Spooner St., formerly 1530 University Ave.; Gamma Tau Beta, corner Gilman and Carroll Sts., formerly 428 N. Murray.

Prof. E. H. Gardner of the commerce school was elected vice-president of the National Association of Teachers of Advertising at the recent Indianapolis meeting.

Several members of our faculty read important research papers at the annual meeting of the American Chemical Society held in Chicago in September. Among those on the program were, Prof. A. S. Loevenhart and Prof. Louis Kahlenberg. E. C. Sherrard, G. W. Blanco, S. A. Mahood, and D. E. Cable, all of the Forest Products Laboratory, were also on the program.

... and at the La Salle Hotel
Chicago

A fact:

At the LaSalle, as well as the Edgewater Beach, Congress, Sherman and Auditorium hotels, Chicago, the sales of Fatima exceed those of any other cigarette.

FATIMA
CIGARETTES

The Novelist of the Rising Generation

F. SCOTT FITZGERALD

AUTHOR OF

THIS SIDE OF PARADISE

now in its NINTH EDITION comes to the fore again with

Flappers and Philosophers

A COLLECTION OF SHORT STORIES which the Chicago Post said "Fulfills the promise of 'This Side of Paradise.'"

IF YOU THINK the old place is decadent and things are absolutely different from
"when we were in college," read

This Side of Paradise

—a startling frankness of speech and ideas. The refreshing talk of real men —students at college—who think and act naturally and who talk as you talked.

On sale everywhere. $1.75 each

Get them at your own bookshop, or from the publishers, Charles Scribner's Sons, New York.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS
597 Fifth Ave., New York

Enclosed find $..... for which send..... copies of "This Side of Paradise" and..... copies of "Flappers and Philosophers."

Name

Address

Over 49% of the Insurance

Written in 1919 by

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company

Was Bought by Old Policyholders

Why don't you investigate the opportunity to represent a Company that has so large a number of "Repeat Orders".

Higgins'

Drawing Inks
Eternal Writing-Ink
Engrossing-Ink
Taurine Mucilage
Photo-Mounter Paste
Drawing-Board Paste
Liquid Paste
Office Paste
Vegetable Glue, Etc.

Are the finest and best inks and adhesives. Emancipate yourself from the use of corrosive and ill-smelling inks and adhesives, and adopt the Higgins Inks and Adhesives. They will be a revelation to you, they are so sweet, clean, well put up, and withal so efficient.

At Dealers Generally
CHAS. M. HIGGINS & CO.
Manufacturers
271 Ninth Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

American Contracting Company

Engineers and Contractors

for

General Building Construction

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

CONKLIN & SONS COMPANY (Established 1854)
Coal, Wood, Mendota Lake Ice, Cement, Stucco, White Lime, Hair and Sewer Pipe.
MAIN OFFICES: 24 E. MIFFLIN ST., MADISON