The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Dr. Brother

New York, September 27th 1829

I sent by sloop regulator on Friday last a button and tapes as requested in your last letter the price of a pair of Holsters varies from three to five dollars and a pair of good pistols with iron barrels can be purchased for five dollars.

I shall endeavour to be at Huntington on the afternoon of the 8th October next, and if you wish, can bring any articles with me that you may desire.

I have nothing new to commu-
-nicate and am
