The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Dear Sir

I am in want of a woolin wheel and wish to make have one with an iron axeltree as those you made for me before I wish to have it as soon as you can make it, & likewise two spindles with whorls on them for our other wheel in so doing you will much oblige your friend
