A. O. PI TOPS LIST AS DRIVE COMES TO END

Campaign Closes Friday With Stiff Fight to Decide Winners

Alpha Omicron Pi is still leading in the Badger circulation contest with a total of 501 subscriptions; Kappa Alpha Theta is second with 443 subscriptions; and Chadbourn is third with 306. A close race is expected between Gamma Phi Beta and Achoth for fourth and fifth places. Their scores at present are 275 and 270 respectively.

"The Badger circulation campaign will not be over until 12 o'clock Friday night," said Earl Carpenter, circulation manager, last night. "The winning of prizes depends greatly on the last day's work. All girls working on the campaign are urged to make a complete canvass of the rooming houses on the last two days."

The standings of the several sororities at present is as follows: Alpha Omicron Pi, 501; Kappa Alpha Theta, 443; Chadbourn, 306; Gamma Phi Beta, 275; Achoth, 270; Sigma Kappa, 239; Alpha Chi Omega, 235; Barnard, 200; Delta Zeta, 185; Alpha Xi Delta, 182; Delta Delta Delta, 178; Alpha Gamma Delta, 177; Pi Beta Phi, 107; Alpha Phi, 95; Delta Gamma, 90; Phi Mu, 79; Kappa Delta, 61.

U. S. AND ENGLAND ALIKE SAYS FISH

"The basic views of England and those of the United States are very much alike," said Dr. Carl Russell Fish at the meeting of the Anglo-American club at the A. T. O. house last night.

"England and America are equally strong; and if they could work together all disputes with other countries could be easily settled," he continued. "In proof of this is the Japanese situation in California in which the United States was greatly aided by action of the English. The anti-English campaigns coming so soon after this would be most humorous if they were not so serious."

Topics for the next meetings were discussed and it was decided that one evening would be devoted to all important subjects with which the members desire to acquaint themselves.

CUB FROLIC TICKETS TO BE SOLD TODAY

Tickets for the "Frolic of the Cubs," the journalistic mixer which is to be held in the concert room of Lathrop hall, Friday evening at 8:30, are on sale today by different members of Press club.

In order that the refreshment committee may plan its part of the program more accurately, it has been urged by the committee in charge that as many as possible will buy their tickets beforehand. In case this is inconvenient, tickets will be sold at the door Friday evening. Press club is especially anxious that the new students in the course of journalism will turn out for the affair.

Music for the dancing is being arranged for by I. Arnold Perstein, and will consist of a first class four-piece orchestra.

Prom Candidate Will Run Alone

J. BON DAVIS

J. Bon Davis is the second junior to announce his candidacy for Prom chairman, and the first candidate to run independently.

Davis has served on various class committees, among them the sophomore dance committee and the sophomore commission. He was coxswain of the Letters and Science crews for two years and took part in the University circus.

Davis was recently appointed sales organizer and instructor for a large brush concern which markets its product through college students.

He is a member of Phi Beta Pi medical fraternity.

BOWLING TEAMS TO START TILT

Inter-fraternity League to Open Season Tuesday at Wisconsin Alleys

Drawing for places in the two divisions into which the inter-fraternity bowling league has been divided were made at a meeting of captains at the Phi Delta Theta house yesterday afternoon. It was decided to open the season at the Wisconsin alleys next Tuesday night.

Because the number of fraternities entered in the league this year is larger than ever before, the two division method was hit upon as an easy way of shortening the schedule. Each division has 14 fraternities entered. Teams in Division 1 will bowl on Tuesday nights; and those in Division 2 will meet on Thursday. The drawings for divisions resulted as follows:

Division 1—Phi Delta Theta, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Gamma Tau Beta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Phi Sigma Kappa, Chi Phi, Phi Alpha Delta, Zeta Psi, Theta Delta Chi, Alpha Sigma Phi, Theta Chi, and Phi Delta Phi.

COMMERCE STAFF TO IMPROVE BOOK

Strope Tells Plans For Better Magazine With New Features

"A new Commerce magazine will replace the old magazine of last year," according to Loyd Strope, this year's editor. "The new Mag will be an improvement in every way over the old one published by the Commerce student last year. It will be considerably larger for one thing, giving plenty of room for a fine new art cover, and getting away from the appearance of being cramped."

"We have undertaken many innovations as regards departments, such as starting a commerce funny department and a 'morgue,' where interesting incidents in the lives of prominent men will be brought to light. There will be a large 'personal' department, which every Commerce man and woman is expected to help fill. Cartoons will brighten the Mag for the first time, and the composition will be of the highest type."

"The staff already has a fine line of feature articles for this fall. Among them is a second article by Michael Cudahy, president of the Cudahy Packing Co., one of the 'big five' meat packers; one by a high official of Swift & Co., another 'big five' concern; another by President Shedd, of Marshall Field and Co.; and one by William R. Moss, a prominent lawyer, on the 'Conceit of the College Man.'"

ARTS AND CRAFTS HAS BIG MEETING

Fifty people attended the meeting of the Arts and Crafts club last night. R. S. Griffith, the new head of the Fine Arts department, told of his interest in the club.

The following new members were taken into the club: Antoinette Fee, Mildred Cribnow, Eleanor Devine, Grace Myers, Bernice Rowland, Esther Zarling, Edna Gapin, Harold Gunderson, John Schaub, Grace Worth, Julia Ross, Mildred Guinzel, Lucille Curtis, Eloise Schaefer, Edgar Davidson, Carmen White, Aline Martin, and Muriel Martenstein.

TWO SOPHOMORES ON COMMISSION

Young Woman's Christian Association sophomore commission elected two new members at its regular meeting Wednesday. They are Alma Fenn and Irene Clayton.

Josephine Walters was appointed chairman of the picnic committee and it was decided to have a picnic next Tuesday.

A committee was appointed to report on a system of study of national Y. W. C. A. Marjorie Severance is to act as chairman. When the plan is completed sophomore commission will devote part of its time to this study.

SWIMMING TEAM BEGINS PRACTICE

Badger swimmers have already taken to the water, and serious competition for places on the varsity and frosh squads of water dogs is under way. Time trials for men working out on the varsity squad will be held next Monday evening, and thirty men have signified their intention of competing for a position on the Wisconsin swimming team.

Freshman time trials will take place Tuesday night, and some speedy swimming is expected from the 60 yearlings signed up for the indoor sport. Coach Joe Steinauer will pay especial attention to the first year men this season in hopes of developing some of the more promising candidates into sure fire varsity material.

BIG MEETING TO PUT FIGHT INTO BADGERS

Students to Boost Team at Pep Session Friday Night

Thousands of students of the university will assemble in the gymnasium next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock to pay honor to the Badger football men and their coach on the eve of the battle against Northwestern on Randall field Saturday afternoon.

The spirit of the big massmeeting will be furnished by Boyd's original Candy Shop orchestra. This musical troupe was placed at the disposal of the massmeeting committee through the offer of James Boyd, manager.

Band Out

The massmeeting will officially commence at 6:30 o'clock when the full university band will parade through the Latin quarter gathering the student body on their march. The parade will continue through the principle university sections and every Wisconsin man and woman is urged to join the procession.

Sharply at 7 o'clock the band and students will adjourn to the gymnasium where organized cheering will led by varsity cheerleader "Bill" Pickard. Headed by Captain "Red" Weston the team will take their places on the platform at 7:30 and a short program will follow.

Prominent among the list of speakers will be Prof. "Sunny" Pyre, who won a reputation as a football player wearing a Badger uniform on the same team with Coach John Richards. Professor Pyre will act as chairman of the massmeeting.

Weston to Speak

"Red" Weston will give a short talk expressing the sentiment of the team, and Coach Richards will also say a few words. Several other members of the varsity team will talk and Dean Sellery will give a short speech.

Ticket orders from Evanston indicate that the Purple team is going to invade Madison with 1,000 supporters who are confident that their team is going to win. The victory which Northwestern gained over Minnesota last Saturday has inspired them with early season hopes of championship honors and they can be depended upon to put up the battle of their lives here Saturday.

The Badgers will be outweighed in the line, but they will have the advantage in speed and experience and the game promises to be close and closely contested.

LETTER IS AWARD IN MINOR SPORTS

The official insignia for participation in minor sports for all men who have earned a letter since July 15, 1920, will be in the form of a five-inch "W" on a V-neck sweater. Those who earned letters before that date will receive the six-inch "W" which was previously awarded for participation in minor sports. This was decided at a meeting of the Athletic board yesterday noon.

Lothrop Follett, chairman of Homecoming, reported the progress of his committee, and announced that the services of an airplane had been secured as one of the novelties of the program.

WE took Grant Showerman's little suggestion about using the elevator to the fourth floor of the Libe, and there found, besides several excellent water colors, Dody Seaton—sketching!

A HEBREW ILIAD

Three brave men and they went to sea,
Irish, Swede, and Yid,
And they sailed along quite merrily
Oh, great were the things they did.

But then one night there came a crash
That rent the salty air,
The Irishman was on his knees a flash,
The Swede began to swear.

And down went the ship with all on board
But Isaac, who reached the shore,
And he swam the whole of a hundred miles,
Though he never could swim before.

And when they said, "What a marvelous feat,"
The angry Yid replied,
"No, not my feet, if I trusted to them
I surely would have died."

"I talk and I talk and I talk all day,
Yust like I sell a lot,
And my hands just bring me back to shore,

Not my feet but my hands, thank Gott."

Guernsey Breeders Exchange Cattle at Meet in Stock Pavilion

The second annual state sale of the Western Guernsey Breeders' association was held in the university stock pavilion yesterday from 10:30 a. m. until late in the afternoon.

Guernsey cattle of all kinds were sold, and cattle men from all parts of the state bought, while agricultural students showed an active interest in the auction. The highest priced animal, a nine year old bull consigned by O. R. Schwalen of Roberts, Wis., sold for $1,775. A cow brought $1,025, and the average price for all the animals was about $475. Another sale will be held by the southern Wisconsin association in Janesville today and Friday. The Western Guernsey Breeders' association is composed of breeders in several states, and at the annual sale, members consign cattle to be sold. Yesterday saw some of Wisconsin's finest Guernseys represented at the auction, and also some from Illinois and other states. A cow consigned by Dale Rundell, of Livingston, Wis., brought $1,025, the highest price for a cow and one consigned by O. R. Schwalen sold for $900.

At a meeting of the breeders at the Park hotel Tuesday night, decisive steps were taken for the appointment of a field man to work with the members of the association throughout the state.

SUFFRAGE LEAGUE MEETS

In telling of the various phases of engineering, he emphasized the value of correct and concise English, and urged that students train themselves in public speaking.

He declared that opportunities for engineers were never better, and called attention to the fact that during the past year, the money available for highway construction was four times greater than the most ever spent before for five years of railroad construction in the United States.

What is Happening as She

"Do I hear 500? Who'll make it 50? Who'll make it 50? Six hundred bid, 600. Quarter, the quarter. Six-fifty. Going at six-fifty. Let's hear 60. Ah! 60. She's sold at six-sixty." So barked the husky-voiced auctioneer at the Guernsey cattle sale out at the stock pavilion yesterday afternoon.

While all this was going on, Belle of Forest Lodge, a good looking Guernsey cow, was standing before a large audience wondering what was going on. Belle was sold for $660, and was promptly led out to make way for a frisky heifer who was next on the program. She had a rather disgruntled look in her eye as the Agric who was leading her jerked at her rope. Just to think! Belle of Forest Lodge of the far famed family of Billy the Val and Leone's Starlight, to get sold for a paltry six hundred and sixty! But she didn't stop to think that she was five years old, and cattle men are rather particular.

And so all day long, young calves, hefty bulls, gentle cows, and capricious heifers were sold to Wisconsin cattle breeders by the Western Guernsey Breeders' association, at an average price of $475, one bull bringing $1,775.

HOWARD BEAVER OPENS MEETINGS AT Y. M. C. A. TODAY

Has Spent Six Years in Relief Work in Mesopotamia and the Orient

Howard Beaver, who has recently returned to America after spending six years in relief work in Mesopotamia, will open a series of meetings at the University Y. M. C. A. this morning at 7 o'clock, when he will speak to the student volunteers.

This evening Mr. Beaver will deliver an address at the membership banquet to be held at the "Y" at 6 o'clock. As the demand for plates is unusually large those expecting to attend are urged to make their reservations at once at the office of Secretary Wolf.

Mr. Beaver will speak Friday and Saturday morning at the "Y" and it is hoped that a large number of students interested in the world wide movement for a revival of religion will hear him at these meetings.

Thoroughly familiar with conditions in the Far East, he recently made a tour through India, China, and Japan. While in China he met Jack Childs, who has cared the best of Wisconsin traditions to the young republic of the East.

He is a forceful speaker and will be heard with interest by the students. Mr. Beaver's home is in Wisconsin.

RIFLE INSTRUCTION WILL BE OFFERED

Because of the number of competitions scheduled this year for the rifle team, all men of rifle experience in the R. O. T. C. will report at the Scabbard and Blade room, third floor of the armory, Thursday night, at 7:30. This applies also to men who have not handed in their names but desire the training connected with this work.

Special courses of instruction will be given for the development of a good team and there is room for those interested in developing themselves into good shots. Thursday evening preliminary instructions will be given and schedules made out to begin firing next week. The new rifles are ready for use and enough ammunition is on hand for everybody.

That university training is highly regarded in Japan is evidenced by the fact that the government schools of college grade here have for the past few years been unable to accept more than two-thirds of the applicants. The University of London has 53 constituent colleges.

UNION BOARD STAGES CONCERTS

Top row: Moore, Brindley, Hatton, Merrick, Kinnan.
Bottom row: Bigler, Florea, Tyrell, Draper, Ramsey.

The Wisconsin Union board provides means of social recreation for men of the university. It does this by giving all - university mixers, Union Vodvil, alumni smokers, and by scheduling band concerts and various other events which are of interest to all the students at the university.

For this season the Union board has scheduled a series of three musical concerts. It has booked three of the world's greatest artists and made it possible for every student and citizen of Madison to hear these three artists for much less than the usual price. These artists are May Peterson, Fritz Kreisler, and Renno Moeseiwitsch.

May Peterson, Metropolitan Grand Opera star, will sing at the university gymnasium on October 22. Fritz Kreisler, world famed violinist, will play there on November 5. Renno Moeseiwitsch, Russian pianist, who is hailed as the successor of Paderewski, will give his popular concert on January 11.

Season tickets may still be obtained at Hook Bros. music store and at the bursar's office. Those who have already purchased tickets should mail the May Peterson coupon to the university bursar before October 15. After that coupons can be exchanged for reserved seats by calling in person at the bursar's office, at the corner of State and Park.

SHIVELY SPEAKS ON LEAGUE ISSUE

Indiana Senator Replaces R. B. Mahaney at Gymnasium Wednesday

"The whole world is neighbor and the sorrows of one are the sorrows and stings of the other," said State Senator Bernard Shively of Indiana who was sent by the National Democratic Speakers' bureau to speak at the armory last night. Senator Shively spoke in place of Roland B. Mahaney, the present assistant secretary of labor who was unexpectedly called to Washington because of sickness.

Deplores Attacks

Senator Shively said that he was "not a rabid partisan". "To get the right point of view," he said, "we must divorce ourselves from partisanship and think matters out for ourselves." He deplored the personal attacks against President Wilson. "Hate never won a battle," he declared, "and hate never will settle the question. Slurs at the sick man in the White House will not help matters any. The Republicans want you to forget the 71,000 graves on Flanders fields. They want you to turn your heart on the great constructive heart of the Wilson administration. They want you to forget the great things that happened during Wilson's first administration, the federal reserve act, the farm loan bill, and the tariff commission. Wilson, first a teacher at Princeton was called to teach the state of New Jersey after which as President of the United States he became eventually the teacher of the world."

Favors Cox

"But he is not the candidate and he is not the issue," continued Senator Shively, "we have a candidate—we have a forward looking man in the Honorable Jimmy Cox, governor of the state of Ohio. I am inclined to compare him with Teddy Roosevelt," he said, "it is essential that we have a man of decision, we want a man of force—we don't want a wiggler. Governor Cox," maintained Senator Shively "is a progressive against the most reactionary element that has tried to get control of our government for the last 16 years."

Speaking of the league, Senator Shively said that "the league of nations was simply the natural outgrowth of the spirit of the times. The league of nations is to humanity what the Star of the East was to the three wise men of ancient times." He declared that the league was not a Wilsonian product but that it was rather the property of the greatest minds of the world during the last decade. Taft, Root, and Hughes all made suggestions to the president that were incorporated into the covenant as it now stands. Article ten was described by Senator Shively as nothing more than a broader application of the Monroe Doctrine to include the entire world. He maintained that nothing in the covenant could be construed as compelling the nation to send troops to Europe. "The league," he said, "has no power to compel, it can only advise."

SWEET WOMEN AT OHIO STATE CHARM SOUTH AMERICANS

COLUMBUS, Ohio—"Why did you come to Ohio State university?" asked the instructor in the class in English for foreign students.

Each member of the class responded, the object being mainly to aid in the use of conversational English. Some of them said they came because they had heard of the fame of the course in mechanical engineering. Others had heard of the other colleges and the opportunities they offered. Then came a student whose home is in South America.

"I came here because I heard about the sweet girls," he said. Then smilingly he added: "And I am not disappointed."

MICHIGAN REPORTS 11,000 ENROLLMENT

That the enrollment of the University of Michigan will near the 11,000 mark is estimated. This will place the total registration at about 1,000 more students than were enrolled last year. It is expected that there will be fewer students in the freshman class than last year due to the circulation of reports that the rooming situation was desperate and that in addition to this the university was intending to turn away freshmen. Fewer women were registered in the freshman class this year.

LET THE BOYS IN

IN all our excitement about the game Saturday and our enthusiasm for a large crowd full of pep we should not overlook one element that has had little consideration in the past. This element is the group of boys of grammar school age. They are always on hand by the score. A few of them have the price of admission, but the majority are kept out because they do not have the gate fee.

The only recourse the lads have is to sneak in and take a chance on the officers or else stay on the outside and imagine what is going on within. Anyone who understands the working of a boy's mind knows how he feels when deprived of a chance to see a big conference game. It is a plain case of injustice, and injustice is never more blameworthy than when directed against a boy.

Some provision ought to be made for these boys. They should be admitted at a nominal fee of about 25 cents. Special bleachers can be provided for them and they can buy their tickets at a special box so that they will not "annoy" their big brothers in the regular line.

Who knows but what some of the youthful fans turned away from the gate may be future stars on Wisconsin's team? As a matter of policy it will pay to foster their enthusiasm for football.

Let the boys in.

VARSITY OUT!

A "PEP" session for the purpose of helping beat Northwestern in Saturday's game will be held in the Armory next Friday evening.

Such a session prior to this game is not an ill-conceived meeting, for Northwestern since her last week's achievement is looming up as one of the most powerful contenders for the Conference championship. Indeed, any team that succeeds in drubbing a Minnesota eleven as effectually as Northwestern did, is an opponent worthy of very serious consideration. The early season talk of the Purple's weakness has given way, and now every effort is being put forth to gain a Badger victory.

It is with this in mind that the "pep" session next Friday has been called. In order to win, our team must have not only football prowess, it must have also the confidence that comes from united student support—the assurance that it is fighting not merely for a touchdown, but for the glory of the entire university. The team must feel that the entire student body is pulling for it and with it.

The most effective means of giving the team this desired assurance is for every man and woman to attend this meeting next Friday night. The team has worked hard and persistently, and a powerful eleven has been built up. All that now remains to be had is the unmitigated support of every student. Will the students give the team the confidence and support it so truly merits? Or will they, through their indifference, make victory harder to attain? Let the students' answer be their attendance at the meeting. At least 5,000 students in the Armory next Friday night will give the team the fighting spirit that will push the ball across Northwestern's line. It is but fair and just to the team and the university that this number come out.

While the Northwestern game is the immediate object of the pep session, such a meeting will serve another purpose. It will test the truth of the ever-current statement that the Wisconsin spirit is on the wane.

This is the first meeting of the year. It is the opportunity for a good start. It is a chance to show the students and the country that the Wisconsin spirit is just as much alive and just as potent a factor in the university life as it ever was. It is an occasion which no student can justly cast aside.

When you meet your friends on the street, tell him that you expect to see him at the Armory next Friday night at 7 o'clock. An hour at the "pep" session will be well spent. Talk it up!

This is truly a case of Varsity Out. Beat Northwestern! Show the true Wisconsin colors!

REJECT HONOR PLAN AT BELOIT COLLEGE

The faculty at Beloit college has rejected the plan for an honor system during examinations as proposed by the students. Individual instructors will be held responsible for cheating in examinations.

The plan, as submitted, provided that cheating be reported by the students and that offenders be tried before a committee of students.

A similar plan, which is working very well at the University of Virginia, is the basis of the faculty report. It was found that at this university there is a feeling of mutual confidence and respect between instructor and student; that there is an almost unanimous sense of honor among students which makes the system merely a codification of student sentiment; and that a psychic preparation for such a system is made in almost all of the secondary schools from which students are drawn by a general use of honor systems. The committee reported that there was an entire lack of such a background at Beloit, and that such a plan would be impracticable there.

FARMERS TURN TO PRESIDENT

Protest Against Currency Deflation Policy of U. S.

BULLETIN

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—"General bankruptcy and ruin are inevitable," unless some immediate remedy is found to relieve the present price situation as it affects the farmer, says a report submitted to the agricultural conference here today by a general committee appointed to study the situation.

The committee blames the federal reserve system for present prices, charging that it "has arbitrarily withheld from assisting the basic industry of this country to maintain a level of prices which would at least equal the cost of production."

The committee says: "It is wrong as a matter of policy artificially to press down prices of commodities and it is particularly wrong to begin with the raw commodities for such a program inevitably forces upon the producer the heaviest burden of reconstruction and readjustment."

The report of the committee said the situation was brought about by the following official acts:

"Restriction of credits.

"Raising the rate of discount on farm products.

"Discontinuance of the war finance corporation.

"The statements given out by the secretary of the treasury, the governor of the federal boards and the federal reserve banks have been construed to the effect that commodity prices, particularly the price of farm products were too high and that prewar or an approximation of a pre-war basis of prices must be reached within a short time. The consequent effect of these utterances on member banks of the federal reserve systems and the banking industry of the country generally was to cause them to withhold accommodation because of the fear that the security taken would necessarily decline."

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — Representatives of agricultural interests meeting here to devise means of checking the downward trend of prices of farm products were hopeful today that Pres. Wilson would give an audience during the day to a committee which planned to protest to him against the currency deflation policy of the treasury department.

Agricultural representatives gathered here declare that the farmers of the country will lose billions of dollars unless the slump in prices is checked. A committee composed of representatives of each agricultural organization attending is drafting a statement to the public presenting the plight of the growers under present conditions.

BOOK EXCHANGE IS PLANNED BY S. G. A.

At the regular meeting of S. G. A. executive council Wednesday, a report was made in regard to the S. G. A. book exchange. This was an innovation tried out by S. G. A. with the purpose of establishing a means whereby students might both buy and sell books second hand. It is felt that the lack of success in this undertaking is due to insufficient advertising and its out-of-the-way location in the basement of the Physics building. An attempt is to be made to establish it in a more central place for next semester.

It was announced that the S. G. A. costume party would take place this year the evening of October 30. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes.

Three new members were elected to the judiciary committee. Ethel Stockdale and Dorothy Ware were chosen from the junior class, and Margaret Emmerling from the sophomore class.

BADGER TO APPEAR EARLIER THIS YEAR

The 1922 Badger will make its appearance on the campus five weeks earlier this year than last, the bulk of the book being completed by April 1.

Mr. Meyer, president of the Meyer Rotter Printing company, publishers of this year's book, has assured his personal supervision over each detail of the work.

One of the secrets contributing to the improvement of the 1922 Badger over previous years can be revealed at this time. "A new 'font of type,' a different and more artistic style of lettering than any college annual has yet displayed, has been selected, which, besides being an artistic asset, lends itself to a more compact and unified page development," says Tom Coxon, editor of this year's book.

Warren's Lustre Enameled paper will be used. A $5,000 supply of paper has been secured, which precludes the possibility of delay due to paper shortage as in previous years. With this obstacle removed, the editor can guarantee that the 1922 Badger will be ready for distribution at an early date.

LARGE ENROLLMENT AT BELOIT COLLEGE

Beloit college this year has a record enrollment of 529 students with still some to register. This number is 62 more than there were at any one time last year, or an increase of approximately 13 per cent which is very favorable considering the fact that other colleges have reported decreases instead of increases in enrollment. Of the total, 242 are freshmen of which there are 50 per cent more men than women. The other classes are as follows: 140 sophomores, 79 juniors, 62 seniors and 6 unclassified.

MISS ANDREWS LIBRARY HEAD

State Association Honors Marinette Woman

Miss Gladys Andrews of Marinette is president of the Wisconsin library association for the ensuing year, as the result of election of officers held last evening by the association. She succeeds Frances A. Hannum of Racine. Other officers are: Edith Van Emmons, Oshkosh, vice president; S. J. Carter, Milwaukee, secretary; Miss M. E. Ryan Chippewa Falls, treasurer; and Caroline W. Speakers last evening were Prof. F. L. Paxson, H. H. Fuller and Henry Churchill King, president of Oberlin.

The main event of the session was the report of the committee on certifications, given by Miss Mary A. Smith, librarian of the Madison Public library. The Wisconsin certification plan for public libraries was presented to the association for approval, from where it is likely to be sent to the state for legislation. After a reading of the plan, by the acting secretary, Ada J. McCarthy, a motion was made and carried to approve the report, and defer final action on it until the business meeting the same evening. The plan is that there is to be a certification board consisting of five members; two appointed by the governor from nominees selected by the association; one library trustee, appointed by the governor; one member from the Wisconsin Commission staff; and one member from the faculty of the university, nominated by the president of the university. There were four grades of certification decided upon.

Much discussion ensued when it was mentioned that the certifications were for life. This was led by M. S. Dudgeon, librarian of the Milwaukee Public library.

ON CHEERING

Last Saturday's football game was characterized by comparatively indifferent cheering. The most prominent defect at many recent games has been the lack of co-operation between sections of the stadium; a lack which discouraged many rooters. It repeatedly occurs that one cheer leader calls forth a "sky-rocket" while the adjacent section is in the midst of a "locomotive," and as a result neither of the yells develop its full strength. At some games our cheering has been allowed to become demoralized whenever the rival team made a successful play or a score. Wisconsin spirit should be indicated by whole-hearted cheers throughout the game, whether the team is winning or losing. The players need the support of the rooters at all times, and especially when they are fighting odds. Spirited and unified yelling will help the team, impress the visitors, enliven the alumnus, and call forth the loyalty and pride of every student.

In order to effect a more unified system of yells the cheer leading staff should employ new methods. Here is one suggestion: Have the varsity cheer leader occupy a position in front of the center of the stadium near the side lines, and have the assistants stationed at the foot of the stand, each taking charge of a convenient section. The assistants can, at the signal of the chief, arouse the crowd, notify them of the yell, and direct their attention to the leader himself. All sections of the stadium will be able to follow the motions of the varsity cheer-leading in a simultaneous yell.

Announcing each song by the same system would bring out every voice in the crowd, and it would be possible to start the song in time with the first notes of the band. The sheet of printed songs and yells, as handed out at Saturday's game, will also help to unify the singing of the entire stadium.

Perhaps it would be possible to announce for the benefit of the entire crowd the names of substitutes, of players in successful plays, and other details of the game. It would be much easier, then, to give a player his well-earned "skyrocket."

Our band is an important feature at every football game, but some arrangement should be made to co-operate with the visitor's band whenever there is one. We know it is a good effort to "send the band" to other fields; visiting bands will be appreciated here, and should have a real place on the program. Alternate playing would not be hard to arrange; it would be more enjoyable than simultaneous competition. At every game the visitor's favorite song should have a part in the ceremony between halves; if there are two bands it would be possible to arrange a formal parade with a part for each. The ceremony might well be closed with the playing of the National Anthem, both bands participating.

Last year's Homecoming game was a matter of discomfort to many people, because the staff of ushers allowed people with rush tickets to take reserved seats. Many alumni were unable to get to the seats they had reserved. Adequate provision must be made to handle the crowds at important games. Better entrances, fences, and supervised ushering are necessary.

At practically every game the crowd begins to leave the stands ten minutes before the end of the game, obstructing the view of spectators, and causing undue commotion. During the last quarter the field is lined with kids and people who have left the stands. These defects would be greatly improved if a fence were built between the stadium parkway and the gridiron, and if the aisles and front of the concrete stand were properly enclosed until the end of the game.

Most of the conditions mentioned in this article can be corrected immediately; an effort should be made to manage all details of the Northwestern game more successfully. The cheer leading staff and the rooters, as well as the band, should prepare for the Homecoming game by organizing their efforts at Saturday's encounter. It will, then, be possible to exhibit to the alumni and visitors at the Homecoming game the true spirit of this university.

WORLD SERIES
NETS $564,800

CLEVELAND—Figures for this year's world series, given out today by John E. Bruce, secretary of the national commission, show that neither the attendance nor the gate receipts were as great as in last year's contests. They place the 1920 well toward the top in the records for all years, however. The approximate figures for 1919 and 1920 follow:

	1920 (7 games)	1919 (8 games)
Total attendance	178,737	236,928
Total receipts	$564,800	$722,414
National commission's share	56,480	72,241
Each club's share	146,718	194,911
Players' share (5 games)	214,932	260,349
Winning team's share	96,697	117,157
Losing team's share	64,465	78,104
Each winning player's share	4,204	4,881
Each losing player's share	2,387	3,254
Purse for second and third place teams of each league	53,770	65,097

The figures still are subject to correction, Mr. Bruce said. The National commission pointed out that the league and club officials lost at least $100,000 because the series did not go nine games, as the Brooklyn club already had sold tickets to that amount for the two unplayed contests and will have to refund the money.

Only in 1911, 1912, 1917 and 1919 were the attendance figures for the series exceeded while only in 1919 were the receipts greater than this year.

Seventeen world series now have been played in modern baseball and the total attendance was 2,431,579. The total receipts were $4,766,935.

MICHIGAN STUDENTS
CONTROL ACTIVITIES

That the students of the University of Michigan should have control of their activities as far as possible is one of the things for which the new administration will strive, said President Marion L. Burton, the new president of the university, commenting on the policies of the administration. So long as the students conduct their affairs properly they will not be interfered with as the president hopes to reduce outside pressure on student activities to a minimum.

TURNER OUSTED BY SOCIALISTS

Madison Man Expelled Because of Connection With N. P. League

Glen P. Turner received a notice this morning from the socialist party at Milwaukee informing him that he has been expelled from the party on account of his connection with the Nonpartisan league.

Several weeks ago charges were preferred against him by Roy Weaver of Dodge county, who was recently the socialist candidate for governor.

Mr. Turner was given notice of the charges against him some time ago and has twice appeared in his defense in Milwaukee, and also submitted a brief.

The notice informs Mr. Turner that after a long discussion his expulsion was decided upon. One of the charges against Mr. Turner was that at a meeting in Dodge county he commended the candidates endorsed by the Nonpartisan league for support at the recent primary election.

Mr. Turner was some time ago notified that if he would sever his connection with the league his expulsion might be avoided. Mr. Turner during the recent primary campaign had charge of the speakers' bureau at Madison.

Similar charges to those preferred against Mr. Turner were preferred against Senator W. C. Zumach. He was treated more tenderly than Mr. Turner and was permitted to resign his membership in the socialist party in order to avoid expulsion.

Dr. Gill in Refusal To Affirm Report

The rumor that Dr. W. W. Gill, member of the police commission, will resign following the appointment of Mrs. H. W. Chynoweth, was neither affirmed nor denied by Dr. Gill this afternoon.

"I have nothing to say at the present time," he declared, and declined to say anything further. It is understood that most of the four members of the commission preferred to have the vacancy left by the resignation of Frank L. Gilbert filled by a man.

Philipp Cuts Term Of Milwaukee Man

Of the eleven pardon cases which were before Gov. Philipp for consideration Wednesday, only three had been considered at noon. Gov. Philipp commuted the sentence of Mike Mermunsch, convicted on Dec. 10, 1919, in the Municipal court of Milwaukee county, of the crime of assault with intent to kill and murder, and sentenced to the Milwaukee county house of correction for three years. Sentence was cut to two years. The governor held open for further consideration the case of Paul Jones, of Shawano county and August Ruff of Trempealeau county.

DISGUISED AS LONGSHOREMEN WOMEN PICKETS SCATTER IRISH PROPAGANDA

Miss Catherine Garland and Miss Helen Merriam in their longshoremen disguise.

Disguised as longshoremen, two American women pickets evaded dock detectives and boarded the steamship Imperator before sailing time a few days ago in New York. They distributed Irish propaganda among the workers, urging them to quit in protest against the imprisonment of Terence MacSwiney, the hunger striking lord mayor of Cork. The women are shown smiling over their escapade.

CHADBOURNE GIRLS INITIATE FRESHMEN

Take Oath to "Honor and Obey" Their Superiors

As the clock struck ten Monday night, onlookers might have perceived masked figures quietly stealing up to closed doors, tapping lightly, and then leading blindfolded freshmen from attic to basement, where they were made to get on their knees before their superiors, the upperclassmen and take the oath to honor and obey the mighty sophs. This was the Chadbourne hall initiation.

Each frosh was allotted some stunt and visitors need not be surprised to see some young damsel cutting the grass with manicure scissors or crowing like a rooster. Activities lasted until almost 12 o'clock, for when the committee finished, the penalty committee rounded up the new girls and attempted to make them realize their ignominy.

STUDENTS NEED MENTAL CHANGE

O'Shea Says College Man Must Improve to Hold Job

"If the typical student were engaged in any industrial work and did not score higher in efficiency than he does in his studies, he would not last a week," said Prof. M. V. O'Shea before agricultural students recently. "The results of an extensive investigation of the mental habits of students in high schools and universities shows that they are extremely wasteful. The typical student works as though he thought there were no laws of mental action which ought to be observed. He does things by hit or miss as he pleases and never seems to inquire whether he is doing a thing the most economical way or not. If he were running a machine he would have to try to save waste or he would be fired on short notice."

Professor O'Shea read answers from examinations in different subjects given to high school and college students, and most of them were weird guesses with no mentality behind them. He said that many students forget two-thirds of all they try to learn in the high school and even in colleges, but try to justify their wastefulness and utter inefficiency by saying that they get good mental training even though they forget most of what they should have learned.

Students excuse their inability to use anything they are supposed to learn by saying that knowledge is of no account, 'it is the training that is of value'. There is a lot of this mysticism and superstition afloat about mental training and mental power."

He declared that the first requirement for mental efficiency is to have a good physical mechanism, and showed by charts that habitual postures in study exert a good deal of influence on mental action. Eye strain will interfere with mental efficiency, and toxins, from whatever source they come, whether from the teeth or tonsils or the alimentary system, will slow down the whole mental machinery. A number of striking instances illustrating this were given. The student who will not adopt habits of life which will keep the system free from toxins will be working below his capacity.

Vacations Have Influence

Observations made upon students in a number of places show that after a vacation it requires three or four weeks to get the mental machinery in order. Over-indulgence at vacation time slows down the whole mechanism. Many students are on a kind of vacation all the time as far as keeping the system fit for work is concerned.

One of the most wasteful habits of students here is failure to observe rhythm in physical and mental activities. The human organism, mind and body, was designed to be run on a rhythmical program. When it is run on an irregular program there is waste and inefficiency. Investigations have shown that every organ operates with the least waste when it follows daily, weekly and even monthly rhythms. The brain and nervous system are no exception to the rule.

Warming Up

It requires from five to fifteen minutes for the organism, mind and body, to "warm up" to any mental task. When the warming up process is completed one ought to stick to his task until fatigue sets in, when he should relax or change his task. Many students never reach the peak of the "warming up" process even. They do not give more than five or ten minutes continuous attention to anything. They do not know what it means to work on a high level, and they never get beyond the lowest stages of efficiency in anything.

CADET CORPS HAS LARGE EXPANSION

Staff in Military Department
Now Includes Fifteen Regulars

No other department of the university has expanded so greatly in the past three years as has the Military department. In 1917 the university military corps was officially recognized by the government. At that time Major A. R. Kerwin, retired army officer, was the commandant, and Sergeant Atkins was his assistant. These two men comprised the whole instructional staff. Now Captain John S. Wood, as commandant, is assisted by three commissioned officers and eleven non-commissioned officers. Two more commissioned officers are also to be added to the force in the near future. This will raise the number in the department to seventeen, more than eight times as many as three years ago.

In 1917 there were eleven hundred cadets and a regimental band, which made up one infantry regiment. Now in the infantry alone are twelve hundred cadets, with a regimental band of nearly one hundred pieces. Besides this is the signal unit of fifty men, and two batteries of artillery with about seventy men in a battery. The students now number over fifteen hundred.

But it is in equipment that the military department has grown the most. The old rifles of the Spanish-American war model have been replaced by fifteen hundred rifles of the latest type, similar to those used by soldiers in action. The infantry is also equipped with a number of automatic rifles, Stokes mortars, and Browning machine guns. Four field guns with tractors for moving them, one 155 mm. field gun with a howitzer of the same type, a 4.7 field gun with howitzer, and all other equipment for artillery in action is now provided. Full field equipment such as telephones, flags, etc., are used by the signal unit.

Field maps, range-finders, and telescopes are also available for theoretical military instruction. The value of the material now used is approximately half a million dollars, while in 1917 it was worth twenty thousand dollars. There is now forty-five times as much equipment as in 1917, a phenomenal increase for such a short time. Last year the R. O. T. C. did so well that Wisconsin is now rated as an honor school, and there is no reason why it cannot remain so when the corps is again reviewed next spring.

SALVATION ARMY TO STAGE DRIVE

The Salvation Army plans to raise all of the funds needed to carry on its work through voluntary subscription campaigns. This means that the famous tambourine of the Army is a thing of the past.

The first campaign along this line is now being carried by the Salvation Army in order to raise $272,000 to build a maternity hospital. This hospital is to be placed in Milwaukee, the state headquarters of the Salvation Army.

Mr. Blakemore of the Association of Commerce has been appointed Dane county chairman for the drive. This noon Mr. Blakemore met several members of the student body in order to find out whether or not it would be possible to count on some degree of support from the university during the campaign. The consensus of opinion of all those present was to the effect that a tag day held some time next week would be the most satisfactory thing as far as the student body was concerned.

A joint committee was selected to make arrangements for a tag day, with Wesley Travers as chairman. Mildred Rogers is chairman for the women. The other members of the committee are Marguerite Crosky, Milton Borman, Carson Lyman, and Marguerite Shepard.

The committee will co-operate with the county committee in setting the tag day for Madison and the university.
