"OEDIPUS KING" ON PROGRAM OF GREEK DANCER

Vassos Kanellos Trains
Cast of 30 for Union
Board Production

For the first time in America since 1886, the tragedy "Oedipus King" of Sophocles will be presented Monday night as part of the program of Vassos Kanellos, Grecian dancer and actor, who will appear under the auspices of the Union board.

Over 30 university students are being trained by Mr. Kanellos to assist in the presentation of the tragedy, which he has choreographed from the original of Sophocles.

The true Athenian dialect of the tragic poets, not the Erasmian method taught in schools, will be used in the play, Mr. Kanellos in the role of Oedipus, doing practically all of the speaking.

The cast of the tragedy follows: Oedipus King, Vassos Kanellos; Jocasta (queen), Julia Hanks '21; Antigone (princess), Charlotte M. Kanellos; second princess, Elizabeth Sehon '22; Creon (brother of queen), Foster Strong '21; Tiresias (blind-seer), Donald Marvin '22; messenger, Adrian Dornbush '23; high priest, Ralph Scheinpflug '23.

Chorus of women and noblemen: Eleanor Riley '21, Charlotte MacEwan '21, Carol Goodyear '23, Agnes Samuels '21, Dorothy Dwight '22, Lillian Stupp, grad, Janet Epstein '21, Dorothy Ware '22, Mary Parkinson '21, Marjorie Boesch '23, Francis Ellen Tucker '21, Mira Bowles '23, Walter Schwinn '22, Howard M. Dodge '21, George B. Stolley '22, Lee McCandless '23, David Mahoney '22, William K. Collins '23, John Warren '22, Kenneth Fagg '23, Philip S. McConnell '23.

CARDINAL EDITORS TO JUDGE PAPERS

Representatives from the Cardinal staff will be judges of other college papers of the state in the contest which will be a feature of the convention of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Press association to be held in Milwaukee Friday and Saturday. The judges for the magazine contest have not yet been chosen.

All delegates will meet at Marquette university Friday afternoon and begin a tour of the larger newspaper plants of the city. The convention convenes formally Friday evening. Saturday morning a round table conference for editors and business managers will be held. Saturday luncheon will be served at Downer college. Saturday afternoon the final session will be held and a theater party is scheduled for the evening.

Corrington Gill '22, assistant business manager of the Cardinal, will leave with the other ten Wisconsin delegates Friday noon.

Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity, announces the election of the following men:

FOLLIES GUESTS TO BE GUARDED FROM THIEVERY

Check Room Provided by Haresfoot Insures Safety

Guarding against the ravage of the light-fingered clan that has been having a good time at the university this fall with student coats and wraps, the Haresfoot club has taken precaution to keep such articles of the guests safe from thieves tomorrow evening at the annual Haresfoot Follies dance to be given at Lathrop gymnasium and Concert room.

The Haresfoot club is one of the first organizations on the Campus to start cooperation with the university faculty to stop the thievery that has been taking place on the campus this season. A check room will be established at the entrance of Lathrop gym, and those leaving their wraps can be assured that they will not be disturbed while the feature acts of the club and the dance are taking place.

There are only a few tickets left for the annual follies and those who postpone the duty of purchasing their tickets will find it impossible to obtain admission. The only remaining tickets are in the hands of "Shorty" Fee, and may be secured from him at 627 North Lake street.

FACULTY ASKED TO AID IN REMEDYING SEAT SALE TROUBLE

That the athletic department had violated its contract with coupon book holders and had given preference to outsiders in the sale of football tickets this fall was the substance of the report submitted to the student senate Wednesday night by the committee which had been instructed to investigate the situation. The same committee has been asked to petition the faculty committee on student life and interest to take steps toward remedying the difficulty which caused so much student criticism this fall.

The committee was also instructed to petition the faculty committee to investigate the illegal scalping of tickets which was so common this year and to investigate methods used in other schools to eliminate scalping.

The problem of thievery in the university was taken up, and the senate recommends that the faculty provide some means by which coats can be kept in class rooms, since the private detective and the enlarged janitor plan have proved ineffective.

A committee was appointed by the senate to frame a petition to the Board of Regents asking for larger dormitories than those proposed. The proposed dormitories make provision for one dormitory for men with a capacity of 150, which is not considered large enough for the present need.

THIRD GRAD DANCE HELD FRIDAY NIGHT

Graduate students will frolic at their dance next Friday night at Lathrop hall. This will be the third dance given this year, and is the last one to be held before the Christmas recess. There are 547 graduate students now attending the university, and the committee hopes that almost every one will be present.

Some amusing special stunts have been planned which will be held during a social hour starting at 8:15. At 9 o'clock the dancing will begin.

The dances are held once a month. Admission is 35 cents.

ALL BUT TWO

Forty-six States Represented
Here With Twenty-two Foreign Countries

Forty-six stars in the star spangled banner are represented among the 7,004 students at the University of Wisconsin this year. Nevada and Rhode Island are the only states in the Union from which no students are enrolled, but the District of Columbia boasts of 23. Wisconsin supplies 4,998 of the total enrollment.

From the Pacific coast come 31 students, while from the Atlantic seaboard there are 145, of which 46 are from the state of New York. From the land of cotton there are 118 students and from Texas alone 21 are registered. North Carolina and Maine each supply one student.

The bulk of the university enrollment comes from the central states. Illinois claims 559, Iowa 198 and Indiana 157. Minnesota has sent 115 and Michigan 108.

From the west come 88, of which 28 are from Montana.

Our 114 foreign students come from 22 countries and every hemisphere in the world. Of these 98 are men and 16 are women.

200 SENIORS HAND IN SUMMARIES ON DEAD LINE DAY

The Badger office was the scene of a near stampede Wednesday when nearly 200 seniors decided to hand in their senior summaries at the last minute before the dead line.

Those in charge of the summaries have been working steadily at getting them filed and counted, but a full count has not yet been made and it will probably be several days before they can make an estimate of the number of summaries the Badger will have.

About two dozen seniors have sent in summaries without their pictures, because they failed to return their proofs to the photographer.

"No further effort will be made to reach these people," said Margaret Chambers, who has charge of the summaries. "If they will return their proofs to the photographer immediately, he will forward the prints to us early enough so that we will be able to use them."

STATE IS NOT ASKED TO FILL TOTAL BUDGET

Officials Say Only 78 Per Cent of $15,000,000 Requested From State

To say that the University of Wisconsin is asking the state for $15,000,000 for the next two years is a misstatement, according to university officials.

The university is asking the state for about 78 per cent of that amount. Almost $3,250,000, or 22 per cent, of the total amount that was recently announced as the biennial estimates for 1921-23 will be earned by the university or received from other sources than the state. Of the remainder, 35 per cent, or about $4,000,000, is for building construction.

In other words, the total biennial budget of $14,587,155 includes $1,921,000 to be received from student fees, $722,625 received from sales of farm products, dormitory room rent and board, sales of athletic tickets, fees for special services, and other sources, $427,360 from the federal government, $76,000 from interest, $2,000 from counties, and $30,000 from gifts. Under the system of revolving funds, all of those funds from other sources are paid into the state treasury and must be appropriated out for university use.

The proportion of university income to be derived from the state will of course be unusually large to meet the estimates submitted for the next biennium. This is mainly due to the large building program and is a return to the proportions of former years before construction was curtailed by war conditions. Back in 1912-13, the state's share of university support was about 72 per cent because more than half a million a year was spent on new buildings. In succeeding years the state's share was gradually reduced, with smaller building programs, until in 1919-20, it was only 52 per cent, because but $66,000 was spent on buildings. The state hospital appropriation brought it back up to 71 per cent last year.

COAL PRODUCTION IS SUBJECT FOR PEABODY LECTURE

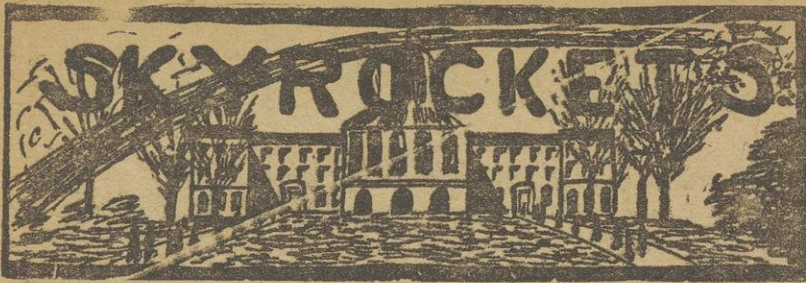

Francis S. Peabody, president of the Peabody Coal company, will speak today at 10:00 a. m. in the auditorium of the engineering building on the subject of "Economy in Coal Production."

Mr. Peabody graduated from Yale university in 1881. He entered the coal business this same year, building up the Peabody Coal company, of which he is now president. This company is the largest coal producing concern in the Middle West. In 1917 Mr. Peabody was appointed chairman of the coal production committee of the national council of defense, in which capacity he served until the end of the war.

All juniors and senior engineering students are excused from classes in technical subjects at the hour named for the purpose of attending this lecture.

The lecture is open to the public.

A Plea for Fair Play

Dear Skyrocket Editor,
Everybody knows that the Gamma Phis stand for fair play. In our relations with other sororities or with men we always strive to be just. We appeal to you, Mr. Editor for justice. Now we are mighty proud of our big catch, Dorothy Frank, and we are glad to see her make such a big impression here.
But to be frank with you, we don't think that it is fair to give her all the publicity in your column. We wish that you would tell this guy
Razzberry who runs the Social Science Weekly, that Dorothy isn't our only high card. Tell him about
Mary Farnum and Julia and Dot
Shaner. If any girl in our chapter deserves your helpful publicity it is Carol Goodyear. Mention of Carol in your column would add to her social prestige.

Yours in the name of justice to all.

OFFICERS OF LEGION POST ARE ELECTED

Brann Chosen Post Commander—Faculty Members Hold Positions

Lester W. Brann '23 Baileys Harbor, was elected post commander of the University Post No. 246, at the regular meeting held last night at Music hall.

Other officers chosen at the meeting are: Idrys O. Hughes '21, vice-commander; Edison M. Boerke, '21, adjutant; Joel Swensen '23, finance officer; Victor R. Kutzback '24, master at arms; Dr. George S. Bryan, chaplain; and Prof. Frederic L. Paxson, historian.

Faculty Members Serve

Prof. James H. Walton, of the chemistry department; Dr. George W. Keitt, associate professor of plant pathology, and Malvin H. Teige, counselor for federal bonus students, were elected to serve as faculty members of the executive committee. Four officers of the post also serve on the committee of seven.

A membership drive to increase the number of members in the university post will be started soon, according to plans adopted. The present membership is 400. Boxing and wrestling matches are being considered for future events.

Dues Are Fixed

Annual dues were fixed at $2.50, the local dues being increased from 75 cents to $1, and the state dues from 25 to 50 cents. The balance goes to national dues, which includes the annual subscription for the American Legion Weekly, the official paper of the organization.

Only 60 former service men have applied through the local post for the Victory Medal. All service men who desire them are urged to secure application blanks from Edison M. Boerke, adjutant.

STUDENTS WILL HOLD COUNTY FAIR FROLIC

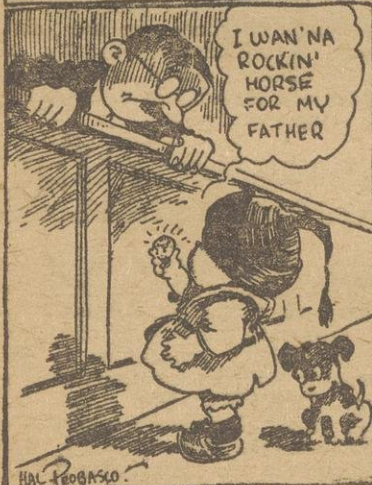

A green goose and Duke Wickanaku, a native of the island of Minato in the South Seas, who is said to be the smallest student who has ever attended the university, are advertised as the leading attractions at the "County Fair," which will be given by students in the Presbyterian house, 731 State street, from 4 to 11 o'clock Saturday.

Hot dogs, pie a la mode, pink lemonade, candy and ice cream cones will be on sale, and even the traditional balloonist will be on hand to dispose of his wares. Stunts and exhibits will feature the occasion, and the committee in charge of arrangements promises an elaborate program.

Duke Wickanaku will appear for the first time in Madison in a native song and dance. The green goose will be on exhibition every minute of the time, it is promised. Admission to the fair is free.

WHO HAS THE POWER?

MANY students are at loss to know just which of the various bodies in our self-governing organizations have the power to act on a given occasion. To clarify the situation, an explanation of the organization of our student government and the powers of the various bodies in it is offered in these columns.

In regard to men's self government, the Student Senate is the supreme governing body. According to the charter granted by the faculty, the Student Senate is "the only general representative and legislative body of the male students of the University of Wisconsin." The senate authorizes and regulates the various administrative boards in student life. The senate supervises the financial operations of student groups. It conducts student elections. It recognizes student organizations. It ascertains and expresses student sentiment. It maintains order in the student body. It co-operates with the faculty and the regents in matters of student welfare. The senate, in short, is the official spokesman of all the male students.

To facilitate the administration of student affairs, the senate, under its power to "authorize and regulate" administrative bodies, has authorized the following administrative bodies: the Union board, the Athletic board, the Badger board, the Cardinal board, and the Forensic board. The names of these boards are self-explanatory, with the possible exception of the Union board. This board was authorized for the purpose of administering to the social needs of the male students. The Union board's powers and field of activity is set by the senate, though the senate does not interfere with the details of administrative work.

In regard to women's self-government, practically all of the power is lodged in the Self Government association. The administrative work is, for the most part, carried on by committees of this body.

On matters of joint interest to men and women, the senate, or one of the administrative bodies authorized by it, co-operates with the S. G. A.

Knowledge of our self government is as much a student duty as knowledge of our federal, our state, and our municipal government is a citizenship duty. Know the organization, know the powers of our student government.

THE SENATE MINUTES

THERE are several agencies which bring the student into intimate knowledge of student life. Unfortunately, however, one of the most potent agencies in this regard is too frequently neglected—the minutes of the Student Senate.

These minutes are available to all the students. They are posted on the bulletin board in the main hall of the library.

Every student should read the minutes. They are the records of endeavors to solve the problems of student life—problems that vitally affect every student in the university. For example, consider a few of the problems dealt with at the past two meetings of the senate: the Homecoming ticket sale, ticket scalping, thievery in the university, the recognition of locality clubs, and dormitories for men.

A solution of these various problems and of many others must be had. Your representatives in the Student Senate are endeavoring to find such a solution. Do you know what they are doing?

The minutes of the senate should be read intelligently. They should be read with the idea that perhaps you can make a valuable suggestion or a constructive criticism to your representative on the Student Senate. Let the senate know what you think of the problems it is facing.

The surest way to know what's what, the surest way to have a good sound opinion on student affairs, is to read the senate's minutes in the library.

DOLPHIN CLUB OFFERS FREE SWIM EVENTS

Public Invited to Second Annual Exhibition in Lathrop, Dec. 9

"Who was the girl that Wisconsin sent to Lake Geneva last summer that had the marvelous breast stroke?" was the question asked by a Chicago co-ed at the luncheon at Ida Noyes gymnasium in honor of Wisconsin W. A. A. girls the noon of the Wisconsin-Chicago football game.

The public will be given the opportunity of seeing this same swimmer and many others of equal fame when Dolphin club gives its second annual exhibition in the Lathrop pool, Thursday, December 9, at 8 o'clock. Final arrangements were completed at the meeting in the pool last evening, and the entire meet promises to be one of exceptional merit and interest.

Each one of the 44 members of Dolphin club will participate in the exhibition, and the program will be opened with a seal dive into the pool by everyone, followed by a snake dance in the water ending by spelling out the word "Dolphin". Other events in the program will consist of form swimming, races, life saving, speed swimming, fancy strokes, and fancy dives.

Special attention will be given to the decorating of the pool. The exhibition is open to everyone, but men who wish to go are requested to get tickets from some member of the club. There is no charge for admission.

APPLE SHOW TO BE ARRANGED BY GRAFTERS' CLUB

"Ag" School Will Have Exhibition Next Wednesday

Final arrangements for the "Apple Show" to be held Wednesday, December 8, were made at the regular meeting of the Grafters Club Wednesday evening.

Apples from the eight different states of Oregon, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, Michigan, West Virginia, Missouri, and Wisconsin will be exhibited and 56 different kinds of apples will be shown. As far as possible, comparisons will be made between the same varieties of fruit grown in different sections of the country.

This is the first time that this sort of show has been attempted here, but similar exhibitions are held in other agricultural colleges. It is the intention of the club to make the show an annual affair.

According to Prof. J. G. Moore, head of the department of horticulture, the object of the exhibition is to promote interest in good fruit and to demonstrate how apples vary when grown under different conditions.

The show will be open to the public, particularly to students, and there will be no admission fee. The following committee is in charge of the arrangements: Willard Dayton '21, Arthur Wileden '23, Fred Roewekamp '22, Albert Schraeder, and John Pinney '21.

CLEVER SINGERS
HEAD ORPHEUM
WEEK-END BILLHungarian Dancers Present
Artistic Act—Rest of Show Mediocre

Two clever singing comedians headline an Orpheum program that has snap and variety.

Ed Healy and Allen Cross sing some jingling jazzy tunes that are liked. Both have pleasing personalities.

With a series of descriptive Hungarian dances, W. Horlick and his two pretty assistants have an artistic act. Dance "Esclave" by Nid-jy Sarampa is perhaps, the most pleasing of the series.

While there is some comedy in the complications of the sketch, "Mrs. Wellington's Surprise", the act would "fall rather flat" were it not for the comical maid, Miss Jean Barrett.

Rinehart and Duff, two pretty girls, in old fashioned dress, sing some songs and do some quaint dances.

Wallace Galvin juggles cards and makes eggs disappear. Then he explains his tricks.

The program is opened by an exhibition of trained cats.

In Madison there will soon be a new, warm glow of kindness and a resurrected faith in human nature. Fiske O'Hara will do it, Fiske O'Hara in his latest success "Springtime in Mayo," which comes to the Fuller Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 9, 10, 11, with a matinee Saturday, under the direction of Augustus Pitou Inc. Enthusiastic audiences are everywhere crowding the theater and are said to applaud with persistent crescendo, both because they wish to show tribute to America's favorite actor-singer and his clever play, and because they derive from the presence of the characters on the stage a quiet joy and inspiration, which is too far from common in these days of spurious drama. "Springtime in Mayo" is termed an Irish melody drama, in three acts, and written by Anna Nichols Duffy. Endowed as he is with a rich sense of comedy values, Mr. O'Hara brings to the play a vitality and attractiveness it would not otherwise possess. The new songs which he will interpolate during the action of the comedy are said to display his pleasing tenor voice to unusual advantage.

LOCAL FANS LIKE

NEW O'BRIEN PLAY

Patrons of the Grand theatre found Eugene O'Brien, in "His Wife's Money," much to their liking when it was shown for the first time yesterday. The picture will continue as the attraction for the ensuing period ending Saturday.

"His Wife's Money" has a story which is absorbingly interesting. It sends everyone who sees it out of the theatre wondering what he would have done under the same circumstances. The production is adequate, and Mr. O'Brien and Zena Keefe, as Richard Flint and Marion

AT THE FULLER.

VIOLA DANA IN "BLACKMAIL"

Philips, respectively, give splendid performances.

All the red-blooded adventure that Jack London put into his famous novel, "The Sea Wolf," has been retained in the screen version, which is now showing at the Strand Theatre. In addition, the spectacular scenes which feature the story have been portrayed on the screen with a startling vividness that the printed page could never hope to attain.

The central figure in the picture is "Wolf" Larsen, brutal captain of the "The Ghost", a whaling schooner. He rules with a hand of iron, dominating his crew by his sheer physical strength. Yet at heart he is a philosopher, ready to prove with skillful arguments that "might makes right." A rich idler and a beautiful girl, picked up by the schooner after a crash at sea, some into contact with "Wolf." Their adventures on his ship form the plot of the story.

Noah Beery makes an ideal "Wolf," both physically and by reason of his considerable talent as an actor. Tom Forman, Mabel Julienne Scott, and Raymond Hatton are also in the cast. The picture is a George Melford production and a Paramount Artcraft.

A comedy cartoon and the latest news weekly will also be shown.
