BADGER EDITORS

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS ELECTS ITS BOARD.

THE MEMBERS GO ON WITH A RUSH.

Arranged Beforehand—Six Ballots Necessary.

Last Saturday afternoon the loyal sons of '97 gathered in the Chemical lecture room to elect their Badger board for the coming year. The meeting was a fairly representative one, about 150 persons being present. It was decided to have twenty-two members on the board, two more than the usual number. The voting was carried on much after the manner of last year's election; each person voted for four candidates at a time, and the four receiving the highest number of votes on each ballot were declared elected. This necessitated the taking of six ballots.

The sophomores of the literary and engineering societies had previously elected candidates for their respective associations, and by skilfully combining their forces preparatory to the meeting, succeeded in electing all their nominees within the first five ballots. The voting took comparatively little time as the prepared tickets were elected with no chance of resistance. Who was to fill the two remaining places on the sixth ballot was for some time uncertain, as a number of independent candidates were in the field, and two ballots had to be taken before the result could be announced.

Following are the names of the fortunate ones, with the number of votes cast for each:

First ballot—

B. H. Petley, 103.
C. J. Luby, 91.
J. J. Graham, 88
W. S. Gannon, 87.

Second ballot—

J. K. Lynch, 121.
A. E. Broenniman, 115.
J. J. Rogers, 115.
R. C. Smelker, 114.

Third ballot—

Miss Caroline Spence, 132.
Clinton McDonald, 117.
C. S. Greenwood, 107.
Miss Elizabeth King, 107.

Fourth ballot—

B. A. Monahan, 117.
C. B. Rider, 110.
Clarence Edwards, 110.
Guy Nash, 109.

Fifth ballot—

Miss Mollie Bertels, 119.
J. S. Allen, 113.
G. F. Downer, 103.
R. P. Atwell, 101.

Sixth ballot—

A. W. Fairchild, 70.
Miss Edna Smith, 64.

The first step to be taken by the board in its journey to literary fame will be the election of a chairman. Their action will be watched with great interest, as rumors of many possible and impossible combinations for the election of favorites are already afloat.

UNIVERSITY WHEELMEN.

They Organize a Cycling Club—Plans of the Organization.

About sixteen university wheelmen met in the military lecture room Saturday afternoon to organize a Bicycle club. O. B. Zimmerman, '96, was elected temporary chairman. A motion was carried to have a committee of three draft a constitution with by-laws. The committee consists of O. B. Zimmerman, '96, Prof. Elsom and Mr. Thomas. Mr. Reed was appointed secretary and all those who contemplate joining the club should hand their names to him or Mr. Elsom. An invitation is extended to the young ladies to join. Prof. Elsom informed the members that arrangements will be made whereby the bicycles may be stored in the military lecture room. A meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, April 16, to hear the report of the committee and arrange a run, possibly for Saturday. All interested in cycling should be present tomorrow.

ST. JOHNS WINS

UNIVERSITY NINE LOSES ITS FIRST GAME.

THE SCORE WAS FOUR TO NOTHING.

Costly Errors did it—The Team Needs Practice.

The university baseball team played its first game on Saturday with the St. John's Military academy team at Delafield and were defeated by a score of 4 to 0. The game was well played and only won by the Delafield team by costly errors. Fowle dropped a drive liner in center field, which let in two runs, and he and McCabe ran into each other when after another fly, while one passed ball let in a run. The Wisconsin boys played against hard luck. Kummel, who reached third on a three base hit was caught by a double play when Falk hit a grounder to the third baseman. The two errors in the field were made at critical moments hence they were costly. The hits on both sides were few. Kimmel, Falk and Wheelihan made the four safe hits for the University team. The Delafield's made only 5 safe hits. Falk struck out six men and the Delafield pitcher ten. The game was interesting throughout the four runs being made in the first and third inning after that both sides were shut out without a run. The men play a good game. Falk pitched a good game and Gregg supported him well behind the bat. Wheelihan and Carroll both played well in their positions. Fowle redeemed himself and played an excellent game at center. The team had had only four days practice out on the field and were taken on to strange grounds; it is not surprising they were defeated. Beloit will play here on Saturday; Delafield defeated them by a score of 16 to 5 about two weeks ago.

The teams played as follows:

University.	Position.	St. Johns's.
Gregg,	catcher	Kiel.
Falk,	pitcher	Davis.
Kummel,	shortstop	Choninard.
Wheelihan,	first base	Stephenson.
Carrue,	second base	Raddell.
Freeman,	third base	Kemper.
McCabe,	left field	Wackler.
Fowle,	center field	Curran.
Ford,	right field	Kersing.

Score by innings:

Wisconsin, 000000000—0.
St. John's, 202000000—4.

CORNELL LETTER.

Ithaca: April 12th, 1895.

On March 28th, the Faculty of Cornell university lost one of their most beloved members by the death of James Edward Oliver, senior Professor of Mathematics. Prof. Oliver graduated from Harvard in 1849, making a special study of mathematics during his college course. He was called to Cornell in 1871 as an assistant professor and was soon after promoted to full professorship, which position he held until his death. Prof. Oliver gained much of his reputation by the series of mathematical works of which he was the author.

The position of acting professor of Greek for next year, made vacant by Prof. Wheeler's acceptance of the directorship of the American school at Athens has been filled by the appointment of Mr. Louis Dyer, who is now connected with Oxford university. Dr. Francis Allison has been recently appointed to take the place of Prof. Elmer, Asst. Professor of Latin, who is also to be abroad next year.

The general athletic prospects at Cornell are especially promising. Although the weather has prevented much out door practice, nevertheless, the base ball team has begun work in good earnest. Harry Taylor, captain of the '93 team, has been back coaching for the past week and several other old players are expected back to aid him. Mr. Taylor spoke very favorably of the outlook for the team and said that the material is as good or better than it ever has been before. The work of the men so far has been fly batting. Cobb, assisted by Hinman, will officiate behind the bat, Priest and Smith will do most of the twirling.

In the track events a few unexpected candidates have appeared. Capt. Rulison states that at least 10 good men are training for the dashes and four of these run the 100 yards in 10 2-5.

All of the men are working in better form since the appearance of our popular trainer, Mr. Robertson. He is very well pleased with the showing of the men and prophesies a successful season.

The crew matters are also very encouraging. So encouraging in fact, that the athletic authorities have decided definitely to send a crew to England. The crew was entered in the Henley races and will leave New York on the Paris, May 29th. Sixteen men in all will go, 12 regular oarsmen, a coxswain, coach Courtney and manager Hastings. At present 45 men are in training for the crews. In spite of the fact that the weather has been unfavorable, the crews have been on the water since March 23d. A freshman race will undoubtedly be arranged and also a triangular Varsity race between Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania, but the exact dates have not yet been decided. The accounts in the various newspapers as to who will and will not row are all false. Mr. Courtney has expressed no opinion whatever and "none is sure of his seat."

Much to the delight of the admirers of football, Marshall Newell has again been secured as coach. He will come to Ithaca on September 16th, and will remain until November 9th. Ex-Capt. Warner and several other old players are expected to help in the coaching.

The lacrosse team is hard at work each day, on Percy Field. Several old men are out and the chances for a good team are excellent.

Miss E. H. Blair will read a paper on Early American Journalism to the Press club at the regular meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in rooms of the State Historical society in the capitol. All interested are invited.

"Well begun is half done" is evidently not the motto of the base ball team.

Woman's rights are evidently not making much progress in the sophomore class—only four young women were honored with places on next year's Badger board. This is a problem for the Woman's league.

We take pleasure in announcing that by special arrangement with the Cornell Sun we are enabled to publish a bi-weekly letter from Cornell. It is also expected that in the near future similar arrangements will be made with other universities, so that the readers will be brought into closer relations with the large universities of the east and west.

The Press club meeting to be held in the State Historical rooms on Wednesday will be one of the most interesting of the year. The subject of the paper to be read being "Old Newspapers" is of special interest inasmuch as it will give an insight into the early journalism of America. Much additional interest will result from having the old files open for inspection. The members of the club extend an invitation to all.

The plan adopted by the baseball management of issuing season tickets for the home games is meeting with great success. The games to be played here are all with strong teams and the decided discount to be obtained by the purchase of a season ticket is appreciated by the baseball loving public.

This advance sale already assures a large attendance at the opening game with Beloit next Saturday. It has been decided that ladies are to be admitted free of charge to the game with Beloit. The continuance of this policy depends upon the interest which may be shown, by the fair sex, at this,
the first game of the season, on the home grounds.

On next Friday occurs the joint meeting of the five "hill" debating societies. Being the first public meeting at which all the societies are represented it is expected that an unusual interest will be manifested by all students interested in this line of work.
Those appointed to appear on the program have been devoting considerable time to preparation. Besides this the entertainment promises a peculiar interest because those appointed are representing their respective societies between which there has always been a friendly rivalry. One of the strongest reasons why this innovation in debating society work should be premanently established is the fact that by a light change in arrangement this exhibition debate may serve as a preliminary contest for the selection of intercollegiate debaters. Much dissatisfaction has been expressed with the present method of election of intercollegiate representations and the preliminary contest suggested as a substitute. By holding the joint society meeting earlier in the year and receiving representatives from the law school societies it could easily serve this purpose.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY

remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.
Yours very truly,
