TOMORROW'S GREAT STRUGGLE

THE MEN WHO WILL PLAY IN THE GAME.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE CONTEST.

Officials Not Decided—A Close Contest Expected.

Tomorrow afternoon the football teams of the universities of Wisconsin and Minnesota will line up for the greatest game of football that will be played this year west of Philadelphia. Great preparations have been made for the game. At Minneapolis the men have been practicing every evening by the aid of electric lights. The practice at Madison has been secret for the last two weeks and so the improvement can only be guessed at. Both elevens, however, will play a much finer game than any that they have shown before.

The lower campus has been put in as good condition as was possible, considering the weather. The accommodations for the spectators are especially good. A grand stand extending along the entire south side of the field has been erected. Admission to the grand stand seats will be twenty-five cents extra. The north side of the field will be given up to carriages and spectators who do not care to go in the grand stand. The general admission has been placed at fifty cents.

The attendance cannot be estimated at present, but the crowd will undoubtedly be the largest that ever witnessed a game in Madison. On account of the cheap rates there will be many excursions from different parts of the state and many of the alumni will be on hand to cheer for Wisconsin. Minnesota will not be friendless as a large delegation will accompany the team and lend their enthusiasm to aid their university.

Frank Gould, of Amherst, will be one of the officials tomorrow. A. A. Stagg cannot come. Darby, of Grinnell, telegraphed that he cannot come and suggested Stipp, of Grinnell, for an official. If he proves satisfactory to Minnesota he will be chosen.

The make-up of the Wisconsin team has not been decided but the following men will probably be on the field either on the team or as substitutes: Lyman, Richards, Nelson, Karel, Kull, Bunge, Ryan, Sheldon, Major, Dickinson, Alexander, Trautman, Bolzendahl, and Cochems.

Capt. Lyman has played on the team for three years. He had some football experience before coming to Wisconsin as he played on the Grinnell team for some time. He took the two years' law course and graduated last spring, returning this year for graduate work in law and economics. He has captained the team for the last two years and it is in his rare judgment as well as in his playing that his strength as a player lies. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

J. C. Karel is playing his third year at half-back. He is now a senior law having entered the law school at the end of his sophomore year. He is a swift runner and quick dodger and makes brilliant gains. He played on the nine last spring and pitched in several games.

O. M. Nelson is a sophomore in the engineering college. He made the team last year and played in all the important games. He is a strong runner and one of the best ground gainers who has ever played for Wisconsin.

John Richards, who has been playing full back for the last two years, is one of the best all-around athletes on the team. He has represented the university on its track team and holds the university record for both the high and low hurdles. He rowed No. 5 on the 'Varsity eight last spring in its race against the Minnesota boat club. During his freshman year he played end on the eleven but last fall went to full back where he has played since. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Fred Kull has played center since his sophomore year. He is now a junior in the law school. He is the heaviest man on the team but is very quick and handles his weight well. He won the hammer throw in the field day this fall.

Bunge is playing his second year on the team. He entered the law school after graduating from Beloit, where he played on the football team. He has been playing at left guard for two years. He is good in the interference and plays his position well in defense. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

John Ryan, who may take Jacobs place at guard has been substitute on the team for two years. He played in some of the minor games last year. He is a senior in the civic-historic course.

Walter Sheldon has played on the team ever since he entered college, two years ago. He plays his position of end well and is one of the quickest men on the team. He is a member of Sigma Chi.

J. Major, who is also a candidate for end, has entered the junior law class this year. He rowed on the 'Varsity eight last year. He is a strong player and is especially good at interference. He is quick and plays well in defensive. This is the first year he has played.

H. E. Dickinson played end on the team all last year. He plays hard and tackles well. He is a member of the junior law class. His fraternity is Phi Delta Theta.

Walter Alexander played substitute on the team last fall. He has been playing tackle in some of the games this year. He breaks through the line well and is strong in tackling and defensive work.

G. H. Trautman has been playing substitute quarter this year. He played during the first half of the Beloit game and showed up well. He passes the ball quickly and gets into all the plays. He is a senior in the engineering course. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

F. W. Bolzendahl is playing his first year on the team. He is a senior law student. He has been playing tackle for some time.

H. F. Cochems has been substitute half-back this fall. He played in the Chicago Athletic game and against Iowa. He won the shot put at the field day last spring and was on the athletic team which went to Chicago.

E. P. Harding, the captain, plays

FOLLOWERS OF JOURNALISM

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS CLUB MEETS.

BEGINNING OF A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

Officers for the Year—Plans for Work.

The Press Club of the university held its first meeting for the year yesterday evening. The attendance was large and all those present seemed interested in the work of the club and enthusiastic in regard to the prospects for the year. A number of new members and the different university publications were well represented.

After the choice of W. G. Bleyer for president pro tem, and E. S. Hanson for secretary, the constitution of the club was read for the benefit of those who were present for the first time, and the regular order of business followed.

In the absence of a quorum a motion was carried suspending the rules and allowing those present who wished to become members of the club to become such by sending their names to the secretary. The following persons joined: Misses Florence Robinson, Anna Scribner, Zona Gale and Jessie Craig, and Messrs. C. A. Phelps, Le Roy Thomas, A. R. Hager, A. Barton, A. C. Shong, Ernest W. Eddy, J. J. Rogers, Norman Widale, T. H. Grosvenor, Winter Everett and David Atwood.

A general discussion on the work of the society brought out many valuable suggestions. It was thought best to continue the program of last year and secure local and outside newspaper men to give practical talks to the club, and the executive committee. No regular time was set for the meeting, but most of those present seemed in favor of Monday evening. The time of the next meeting was left to the executive committee.

The following officers were elected for the year:

President, W. G. Bleyer; vice president, Miss Jessie Craig; corresponding secretary, Zona Gale; recording secretary, E. S. Hanson; treasurer, A. R. Hager; librarian, C. A. Phelps; executive committee, president (ex-officio), J. B. Sanborn, W. T. Arndt and Miss Florence Robinson.

UNIVERSITY BAND.

The band had another good practice last night, for the first time in their new room at the gymnasium. There was a full attendance and great improvement is being made. The faculty now recognize it as a department of the institution and all the players get a credit of one fifth for the work. They will parade around the city Saturday afternoon before the game and on their return will take seats in the middle of the grand stand and play during the intermission. Next spring and summer they will give open air concerts in the evening at the boathouse and on the campus.

BADGER BOYS.

(Air—"Sweet Marie.")
I.

Listen to the songs we sing, Badger Boys,
Listen to our war cry ring, Badger Boys,
You must win the game today,
Show the Gophers how to play,
Minnesota's had her day, Badger Boys.

Chorus.

Watch the ball and tackle low
While the horns for victory blow,
The Maroon is trailing low, Badger Boys.
O'er the North Star's fading light
Shines the Cardinal so bright.
Oh, we'll paint things red tonight,
Badger Boys.

They have said we couldn't score,
Badger Boys,
But we've done it oft before, Badger Boys.
And we'll show them here today
That we know just how to play,
And we'll rub them in the clay, Badger Boys.

HOLD THE BALL.

(Air—"Hold the Fort.")

Now Wisconsin, here comes Lyman
Calling signals loud.
Kull invincible is standing,
Loudly cheers the crowd.

Chorus.

Hold the ball, for Ikey's coming;
Lyman signals still;
Richards goes right through their center;
Win we must and will.

See Wisconsin's line advancing,
Nelson leading on;
Minnesota cannot hold them,
Badger brain and brawn.

Chorus.

Pyre and Bunge, Walter Sheldon,
All Wisconsin's pride;
Major, Bolzendahl and Ryan
Trusted, true and tried.

CAN'T LOSE US, MINNIE!

We's got a heap o' trouble now here
ob late,
Let ol' Minnesota win three games
straight;
Now we's a-shoutin' dat we's gwine to

Gwine to pile up de score an' put Wis-

The day before a big intercollegiate football match is full of suppressed excitement and the following from the last "University Courier" gives a good idea of the real circumstances at such times: "The eve of a great battle is, in many ways more interesting, more intense than the succeeding night of victory. On the night before, both sides are expectant, hopeful, enjoying perhaps the exultations of confidence. Splendid pictures of triumphal scenes hang mistily in the imagination—each chosen combatant is a great hero in anticipation, (on the morrow he cannot be a greater, though perchance he may dwindle into none at all). There is buoyancy and exuberance among the adherents of two rival parties; when the next night falls the friends of one must find their spirits heavy and depressed. After the gallant fight is over there will be a superb waving of banners, there will be wild, inspiring songs of triumph, there will be warm, frenzied enthusiasm—but it will be all by one faction: a gloomy pall will hang over the other; a bitter disappointment, strong and abiding, has dulled the energies of those grim supporters of defeat."

We cannot be positive of victory. The most sanguine cannot but feel great doubt over the outcome but what we can do is to hope and do all in our power by our presence and cheering at tomorrow's game to make it a victory.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be played in Madison what promises to be one of the most scientific and important games of football ever witnessed in the west. The citizens of Madison and the student body should give the visitors as well as the two contesting teams the rousing reception that the occasion certainly warrants. This is not merely a contest between twenty-two young men trained to play a game. It is a contest between two great universities, not simply to show supremacy in muscular development but to show the interest, the pluck, endurance, and the determination of one university to succeed over the other to place their own institution above that of their competitors.

What department of a university does as much to advertise and to push forward the institution as the football team? They deny themselves everything, even to the good things we all like to eat; they endure hardships, of every description, are bruised and injured—merely for the glory of seeing their college in the foremost rank. The glory does not repay these men for their hard labor, it is simply their own conscience of having done the best that they possibly could do and if success is theirs they are repaid, if defeated they must rely on their training to bear them up and go ahead hoping for success in the future—herein is shown the benefit of the training that is developed in our American game of college football and in no other game—a game that is kept out of professionalism purely on this account.

The University of Wisconsin will tomorrow send a team onto the field that is thoroughly representative of this great university, the men have been carefully selected for their peculiar fitness for their positions, they have worked hard and conscientiously, they should be encouraged in every way. Houses should be decorated, the citizens and students should patronize the game and cheer the men on to victory. Remember it is the university you are aiding, not the men. Their only reward is the praise of the people and the thought that they are promoting interest in their university and are receiving a training that will benefit them in after life.

The men who have played in the second eleven deserve the praise and thanks of every one. They have done their duty nobly and are hardly known, but they will see their work rewarded in the splendid team which goes on the field tomorrow, every man in prime condition, physically perfect, and mentally happy and confident of success. For the past week they have been in secret practice and have improved wonderfully. Captain Lyman and Coach Stickney have reason to be proud of the playing ability of their men. The team work is pronounced by competent judges almost perfect. These two men have worked assiduously and from what looked to be a crippled team have brought forward such a team as was never seen in the west before.

The game to be played is a hard one and will be stubbornly contested. The team should be encouraged throughout the entire game. Remember a victory is not won until the call of time for the last half.

Remember it is your duty to attend the game and cheer your team on to victory.

right guard. He is the largest man on the team, being 6 feet 2 inches in height and weighing 210 pounds. He graduated from the scientific course last spring and is now doing advanced work. He has played four years on the team and during that time has always played in his present position. He comes from Waseca, Minn. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta.

The other guard, A. T. Larson, is lighter than Harding, weighing 176 pounds. He also has played four years on the team. Although he is light he plays his position well, using his head and plays a plucky game. He is in the law school and comes from Alexandria, Minn.

At center it was necessary to find a new man, as Madigan did not return this year. G. A. E. Finlayson is now playing in this position. He is six feet in height and weighs 180 pounds. He is quick and puts the ball in play well and the center is a hard place for the other side to go through. His home is at Crookston, Minn.

Willis J. Walker is playing right tackle this year. He was catcher on the nine last spring. He holds his man well and is quick in getting into the plays. He was a substitute last year. He is 5 feet 10 inches in height and weighs 170 pounds.

The other tackle, John Dalrymple, is also a new man on the team although he has had considerable football experience. Before entering college he played on the St. Paul high school team, and for the last two years has been a substitute on the Varsity. So the position of left tackle will not be one of the vulnerable points of the team as his work in that position is very strong. He is a junior in the scientific course. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

At right end is William Dalrymple. He holds the university record for the 100 yards dash. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon. This is his senior year in college and he is taking the scientific course. He is 6 feet in height and weighs 175 pounds.

John Harrison, who takes Bisbee's place at left end, is a freshman. He comes from Minneapolis where he was captain of the Central high school. He is six feet in height and weighs 152 pounds.

Van Campen is back again and is playing at his old place at quarterback. He passes the ball quickly and seldom makes a fumble. His interference is also good. When the other side has the ball he plays a hard game and makes frequent tackles.

Walter Southworth is playing his second season at half back. His weight is 155 pounds and his height five feet eight inches. He is a senior law. He is one of the best ground gainers that Minnesota has ever had. His work is heady and his dodging is one of the features of Minnesota's game.

C. E. Adams is also playing his second year at half back. He is a junior in the classical course and is a member of Phi Delta Theta. He represented the university in the inter-collegiate debate held here last year. He is the shortest man on the team, being only five feet one inch, but his running is of the brilliant order. He weighs 160 pounds.

Harry Cutler, the full back, graduated from the university last spring and is doing advanced work. He is a good kicker, punting well and missing few goals. He also makes good gains when he has the ball. He comes from Red Wing. He is 6 feet in height and weighs 164 pounds.

MARCHING TO VICTORY.

(Air. Marching through Georgia.)

Lyman's sturdy Badger boys

Will never even score,

So the haughty Gopher's yelled

Until their throats were sore

But when the game is over

They will never say so more,

While we are marching to victory.

Chorus:

Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!

All honor to our brave

Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!

Long may our banners wave.

Bring your floral tributes, boys,

For Minnesota's grave,

While we are marching to victory.

Shout aloud our war cry, boys,

We're going to win today.

We'll beat the northern giants

In a most decisive way.

Beat them as they ne'er were beaten

Since they learned to play,

While we are marching to victory.

Chorus:

On account of the football game the meeting of the Mathematical club is postponed from tomorrow until Saturday, Nov. 24, at 2 p. m.

June 25, at Sheepshead Bay, match at one and one quarter miles for $5,000 a side and $5,000 added by the Coney Island Jockey Club. Salvator at 122 pounds ridden by Murphy, beat Tenney, 122 pounds, ridden by Garrison by a head in 2.05, the best time on record.

Jennie O'Neill Potter who is the star in tomorrow evening's monologue entertainment, made New York people see this great race over again on the occasion of her last appearance there.

The Rider and Driver said:—It would have required but a slight stretch of the imagination last evening at the Five A's concert at the Broadway theater, to have pictured that great audience in the grand stand at Sheepshead Bay. Many of them had seen the memorable match race of June 25, 1890, between Salvator and Tenney. A bright-faced, curly-headed little woman, in a gown of golden hue, was leaning out over the foot-lights, every nerve at a tension, her eyes flashing like electric sparks and both hands grasping the imaginary bridle reins that coaxed Salvator on to victory. "The first mile is covered!" she fairly shouts, and as her swaying body keeps time to the rhythm of the verse, the faces of the audience are a study. Some half rise in their seats as they fancy they see that great race over again. They even pull out their watches and time the piece. The race was run in 2.05.

More than a hundred times has Jennie O'Neill Potter told the story of how "Salvator Won" in two minutes, seven seconds, but never did she thrill her audience as she did on that night, when she told it in the same time as the race was run, and when with a half yell, half scream, the words, "I lift my horse by a nose past the grand stand," came out and she shot her pretty white arm straight over head, men and women alike burst into a storm of applause. They stamped, clapped and cheered. It was a treat for them and a triumph for the brave little woman from the west, who has won her way so honestly into eastern hearts.

We are pleased to announce that Mrs. Potter will, during the performance, recite "How Salvator Won," written by Miss Ella Wheeler Wilcox, at the Fuller Opera House Monday evening, Nov. 19, on the occasion of her rendition (for about the 100th time) of her comedy success, "Flirts and Matrons."
