"A TRIP TO CHINATOWN"

ACT I.

-----ball that's the point.

(Enter at finish take last line. Flirt follows you and stands at L.C back---Song & chprus)

W 11. here I am.

----Cur chaperone.

That will do young ladies. Flirt, take my satchel. (HANDS IT)

(Go to Rash. R. C)
Rashleigh, why did you not answer my note?

Dian't get it? How stupid of you?

-----those black looks.

Excuse me I don't dispense with balck for 29 days. You must remember I'm a widow in mourning.

-----the d ar departed?

(X, to table R) Bitterix, I shall wear a black masque at the ball. Rash don't forget That in ordering the masques.

----about her mourning.

Sir L. of R. Table)

Indeed I have. For the first six months I read only novels by Black and drank only black tea. (Laugh from all)

----see Hiss Tony. (All guying) Oh. Tony

-----be a goat. (All laugh)

-----one man short. Care to? I just wouldn_t. (Closs to lounge L. and sit) (Omnes guying) Good morning, Fillie.

----here isn't there? Why yes, did you want a quiet tete-a-tete, with Tony?

----here a bit.

----go to the ball. (All) -h! (Coldly without looking at him) Good morning, sir. (Turn to Isabelle) ----just the same. (Rise surprised and X in front of Ben to R. Looking at him in amazement, then turn, look at him again) ----All right. (Look then suddenly goes into a fit of laughter and go up Stage to bay window untied, becken Willie to come and tie it) (Willie does so. YOU and he converse) ----Fly woman. (Come down stage) -----my favorite quintette. (L.C. looking through L. arch) ----anthing to oblige. (Ben takes your hand and leads you do n to lounge L.) ----appointment to-night? (On lounge) Most surely? Wiy?

4.

----only for that. You flatter me --- what ails the man? up to Amidon ----help us out. (Rise, X. back of Ben to 0) -----could talk to her-(L. of table) Merryou sing again. (All look at Ben) (Seated L. of table) That's nice. (All turn back to him) start out out ----cab to go home. (Aside) This man has had to much liquor, and so early in the morning. (Ben sees you and stops) Now I must run home and get rested for to-night. (Wp stage C) Good bye all. -----Everything is O.K. (L.C) I hope so. ----but no Flirt. Certainly Dank ----all over Chinatown.

-----Ask the Widow.

What? How to get you out of this new scrape?

Just met your uncle in the hall-he told me this Mr. Strong would go with us to Chinatown so 7 need have no sompunctions about not going. I don't know what he means by insisting so much that I needn't go, and another thing I don't understand-he winked at me.

Heither can I -- and I'm a widow. (LAUGH)

Take him along.

Bo, to the ball.

But don't tell him where he's going. Just take im along.

Then he'll have to tell on bimself too. I don't know this Mr. Strong, but if he isn't as deep in this scrape as we are, before we get home then may I always remain a widow.

-----manage two beaus.

(Turn to Tony) I think somebody will prove squal to the emergeny. (Go to chair L. of table R. and sir) ----of fun with him. He's got an exciting evening before him. ----Widow, Mrs. Guyer. (Rise and go to Strong) I am bonored. ----- widow and a woman. Those afflictions usually go together. -----unsided and alone. Yes. But there's no law against her marrying again. (Go down stage) want for Original (R.C) Mr. Strong is your visit to San Francisco for pleasure? -----came here to die. (All look aghast) ----go off bang.

-----before your eyes.

(Screen fall in chair L. of table)

(All laugh)

Rice X (C) the ball?

Yes indeed, and have lots of fun with him.

Only in moderation, your behavious must be most discreet, remember, I'm your chaperone.

Song & Chorus after which explosion off stage L.

R.E)

He's gone off.
(Fall in chair L. of table R)

guess you do stangt ------Gay, this is your room! (Enter with others, all laugh and talk ad lib) (All start up stage) -----cold in no time . (All lough) ----anyway. Come on. (Start up C) ----ord r for supper? (0) Thy champagne of course. (FXIT R.S.E) ----Yes I see. (Enter R.S) ----me a cocktail. Mr. Strong, you a man with lung trouble smoking a cigarette. ----killing anybody? Oh yes, Richard thr Third died of a Richmond Straight put. (He gives you his seat) ---- a lively vall.

(AII) Sh! -----great professional dancers ---(ALL) Sh! ------way to Chinatown? (All wink. You all to girls) I do believe he's athoroughbred. (Aloud) If they want sensational dancing my maid Flirt ought to be (Call) Fiirti show us how high you can kick. Rose -----Yes, madam. TRACE-just so high. That's a little idea of my own. Don't you like it? Att -----you were married? (Still seated) Only six months. ----a blowing up. Yes -- excursion boat. Dear boy. He was insured for $50.000.

(Rise)

You charming man. (Take Strong's arm and both walk up stage then to piano)

-----pay the bill?

(ALL)

Yes. Willie.

(At piano. Seated at piano stool)

----a little fun.

(Drum on piano)

Certainly not.

(SING)

(If a body kiss a body need a body cry". (Stop Strong gently)

-----think flirting wicked '? Oh, I hope it is, a little spice of wickedness makes it all the more fun.

(Look at Strong, sing) -----feel a draught. after Inal

(Still seated on piano stool) Mr. Strong, have you a wife?

----Oh no. I thought you were a jolly bachelor?

----not a bachelor.

Th pardon me, if I have wounded your feelings. You are a widower?

-----not a widower.

(Rise and go to Ben C)

Well, if you're not a single man nor a married nor a widower what are you?

----a divorced man.

(Down 0)

How stupid of me not to guess. Don't say a word. They don't know it --- I'm divorced too!

(Shake hands R. open locket) Don't you want to see his protrait?

This is the picture that is turned toward the wall.

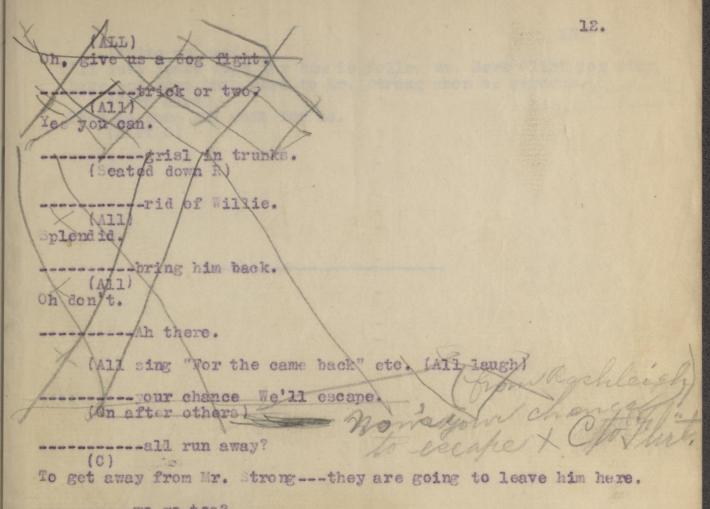

(Lock at Strong, then go back to piano stool and sing locking at him)

"Come, let us kiss!"

(Run off C. from behind screen)

(Enter with others R.2.8% Down & Letroem Jony)
we're all ready. But where are the boys?

Did you put Mr. Strong to sleep? Well your take it.

Yes I do-I don't like it, but if I don't go it will break up the party and make a row. The easiest way is the best.

-:- "WIDOW" -:- ACT Prol phreson. -the beach below. From Willia (Enter with others R. S. See men waving handkerchiefs) There they are. (Go up and take a man by the ear. (To Willie C) (Bring him down stage) What's all this waving of handkerchiefs. ----forgive us. (All embrace. Advance, aside) The innocence is not all some out of the world yet. (ALOUD) Oh, dosen't this sea eir fell good after that hot ball room. -----the carriages up. And landlord --- the sea breeze is just a bit strong. Can't you give to a screen to break it. It was only black costume in the lot. of its no short. (Lauch) -----carriages are gone. (A11) Gone? ----here an hour. (C. aside) It wall give Mr. Strong time to get here.

Just time for breakfast! Landlord, breakfast for the party. in a private room. Landthe dancers. on that's much better. X wh C to screw -----you didn't. (All rise, greatly surprised and gather round Strong) out here. (All Laugh) ----all this mean? (Blurt out R.C) Girls, we may as well throw aside all attempt at concealment. ------ engt concectment. (Bus) Mr. Strong, I might as well tell you my story. Inseste of going to Chinatown, we've been to the ball. Hence these dresses & How am I as a Harlesuin? But if Uncle Ben know of it we'd be in an awful scrape. So we rely on your generosity not tell him. ----At the Riche. (All astonished) ----- Too the fight, was he there brothing for us

Was he there looking for us. ----you Ars. Guyer. Waiting for me? What for? --- ball with him. this morning. Absurd. ----------de rold boy . (Grab letter R. C) Why that's the letter I wrote you Rashleigh. -----meant for me. Why of course. ----like a B. (Take letter look at it) Somebody has evidently changed it. (Give it to trong) in ----to Uncle Ben. That's just it. I understand now his behaviour this morning. he thought that note was for him and went at to the Riche to meet me. ----for home, quick.

(Allrush up to 3.8. Turn to them) top: Do nothing of the sort. tay here and ----

----get caught. - (C-III Ho catch him. Ald Greer. Greet. We'll have it the talk of the town. U -----breakfast is served. (ALL) Come on. (Exit at 1 F 4.E. laughing) chacant takes dumb. (Sneak on R. and go behind screen) (Advance) frank C. planly. ---- so have I. (Advance to C. quick)
To have I. I know who your charmer is -- my maid Flirt. (Snatch off her mask)

----- Great Scoot. (0)

So young lady, you are the high kicker who hascaptured all our beaus from us. Who taught you to go to masquerade balls on the aniet?

-------mistress---Good Then I forgive you ! ! On the whole I'm glad you're here. I want you to re-tie my shoe's. Go in that room.

(X. to R. Laughing)
Gentlemen I congratulate you on your conquest of my maid.

(Exit R. 2 laughing)

Enter R.9E

they ore taking p. strong down to the bar. I don't understand it. they can't want to put him to sleep and leave him there. Well, there's no canger of their doing it, even if they dry.

-- Just what Iwant.

(Enter R. J. E. and A. to C. up stage)

-----very fine woman.

(Advance, motion flirt to leave and resume rubbing his temples. Back of him, imitate Flirt)
You think my mistress charming?

(Rub hard r)
You enow her society?

You could devote yourself to her?

And some day you might marry her ,

-----and orecious stones.

come down R. 19. tap his face to C. C. That's what a woman gets for being a good fellow. It's all right for the time being, but they've no use for you after ards. (Sit on steamer chair and coy) -----why those tears. Tou ercol men. You've broke my heart. Am I so very bad? Out (X to him) You said you wouldn't marry me for gold or precious stones. -----one sweet self. (R. C. Pause) Mr. Strong, is this airy persiflage, or do you mean business? ----life but at's-- Mean What? -----come to breakfast. (0) Yes. (To Strong) That reminds me. I've got to get them out of their scrape, and old Mr. Gay may get there at any moment. (Call) Landlord, Landlord. Have you another private dining room?

It's mine. And I want you to prepare breakfast for two. And I want it served out here on the piazza. And when the gentleman arrives show him in there.

Perhaps not any. But her's anice looking old gentleman with grey side whiskers.

-----he be dressed.

(Look at Strong's clothing.

Good heavens.

(Turn back to audience)

I hadn't thought of that. If he isn't properpy dressed, don't let him in.

(To Strong)

Now I'll go and wait the coming of Mr. Gay. And you must keep away till it's all over.

(Exit h. . E.)

Look out from That's it.

-----hide behind this screen.

(Outside L.K.E)

Why, Mr. Gay.

(Run out L. R. Go up to front of screen C)

------dear We. Owner.

(Run out L. 2. E. Ge up to fromyt of screen C)

Mr. Gay I'm astonished that you'd do such a thing.

Not before the fish was served.

Then swear you won't do it again.

Yes, Or I'll go home this minute. Kneel. And look up.

----at the Cliff House.

(Cr)

You eatch us? Pardon me -- we Catch you.

(Aside to others)

then to --what do you call it? Got away with our bluff.

(Turn to Ben!

Mr. Gay I may as well tell you the joke --- I have won a bet.

I wagered Toney a breakfast that any half way pretty woman could get you out on a racket. Then I wrote you to meet me at the Riche.

(Asid)

Heaven forgive the story.

(Aloud)

Haven't you been to the Riche and all over town after me?

---an old man.

Old men shouldn't run after young girls.

(All laugh)

That's just it. Hereafter when the young folks want a little fun, don't appose it.

(All hurrah)

-----landlord some champagne.
(All hurrah---all laugh)

(Scream) (Then laugh when you recognice Strong)

-----they're your clothes. (All scream)

(C) to be done?

Have a bird and a bottle and go home:
