In spite of its national affiliation, Anaesthesia is a truly international journal with a substantial circulation and contributions from medical centres throughout the world. Its object is to keep anaesthetists up to date with all aspects of the speciality by the publication of original articles, reports on cases and apparatus, book and audiovisual sections, correspondence, historical notes, a clinical forum, a literature list and news items of particular interest to anaesthetists. It has a leaning towards clinical aspects of anaesthesia and immediate and critical care but also caters for the more academic approach.

Anaesthesia is published ten times a year at £30.00 (U.K.), £36.00 (overseas), $75.00 (U.S.A. and Canada) per annum post free. Subscriptions and requests for specimen copies should be sent to the publishers at the address below.

Membership of the Association of Anaesthetists of Great Britain and Ireland includes a free subscription to Anaesthesia. Medically qualified anaesthetists in Great Britain, Ireland and throughout the world, whether established specialists or in training, are invited to apply for membership to The Secretary, Association of Anaesthetists of Great Britain and Ireland, Room 475, Tavistock House South, Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9LG or by completing the application form in any copy of Anaesthesia.
