The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

The Oneidas' Religion

The Christian religion of the Oneidas has been going for a long time now. It must be a hundred and sixteen years that it's been going here in Oneida. It must be about nine miles from the town of Green Bay, Wisconsin on highway 54. It's included in the Diocese of Fond du Lac. Here there is a building set on the hill. It's a beautiful building - a church made of stone and its name is Holy Apostles.
