SENIOR PLEDGES FOR UNION NOW CLOSE TO $50,000

Subscriptions For Present
Campaign Climb to $22,025
on Second Day

The senior subscriptions to the Memorial union climbed from $17,100 on the first day of the campaign to $22,025 yesterday.

Filled with the determination of bringing the grand total of subscriptions among members of the class to the half century mark the solicitors began their work with redoubled efforts early yesterday morning, and when a check-up was made in the evening the total of $42,075 had been reached. This amount includes $20,050 which had been subscribed by seniors previous to the opening of the campaign Wednesday.

Are 100 Per Cent

The seniors in four more fraternities, Lambda Chi Alpha, Theta Delta Chi, Alpha Kappa Lambda, and Kappa Sigma and in an equal number of sororities, Delta Delta Delta, Coranto, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Gamma Phi Beta, reported 100 per cent life memberships among the members of their class. These houses are in addition to the 22 fraternities and 10 sororities reported 100 per cent in The Cardinal yesterday.

Life subscriptions among the commerce women total 69 per cent and 90 per cent among the chemical engineering students. The percentage of subscriptions in the other schools and departments could not be obtained last night, but more details will be published as soon as full reports are turned into the Union board office at 752 Langdon street.

Total Reaches 416

This week's campaign has raised the total of memberships in the senior class from 280 to 696, an increase of 416. This number is expected to be augmented considerably when more of the solicitors have reported at campaign headquarters.

The Chi Psi fraternity is 100 per cent in life membership, it was reported last night. Although the campaign is being conducted entirely among the members of the senior class, many others have turned in subscriptions. Miss Alice Rog-

MARITIME EXPERT LECTURES TODAY

Harvard Exchange Professor
Will Talk on "Recent International Adjustments"

"Recent International Adjustments" is the subject of the lecture to be delivered by Prof. George Crafton Wilson, Harvard exchange professor of political science at Grinnell college, Iowa, at 4:30 o'clock today in 165 Bascom hall.

Professor Wilson is the editor of the American Journal of International Law, and is an expert on questions of maritime efficiency.

As an expert on questions with which American naval officers have to deal, Professor Wilson is particularly well versed on such problems as, submarine cables, recognition of insurgency, the law of aerial navigation, and the law of territorial waters.

"Professor Wilson is a man with a delicious sense of humor on commenting on public events," Professor Potter of the political science department, said, "and is a keen observer of the people with whom he comes in contact. He is acting this semester as western exchange professor of international law for California, Colorado, Iowa, and other western states, but, in spite of his teaching duties, he engages in active public business to a great extent."

He will speak to the Harvard club Saturday night on "American Post War Adjustments," with which he has been intimately con-

Dance Drama to Be Held May 29; Cast Announced

The traditional dance drama will be held at 8:15 o'clock, May 29, in the open air theatre behind Bascom hall. A large cast, which has been carefully drilled, will present the drama.

The following members will take part:

Edith Boys, '26, Mona Brown '24, Margaret Calsen '24, Janet Cummings '24, Reinette Douglas '24, Esther Fowler '25, Maurine Hall '24, Blance Hays '26, Carolyn Hinsdale '26, Josephine Jung '24, Elaine Mabely '24, Margaret Murry '24, Elma Mygdal '26, Ida Rappspott '25, Edna Rassmussen '25, Catherine Rice '25, Helen Robinson '25, Esther Rosenberg '26, Lucille Salentine '25, Eleanor Sikes '24, Dorothy Simpson '24, Dorothy Sutor '24, Doris Taylor '27, Rhea Wahle, grad, and Doris Lingenfelder '24.

Tickets will be on sale in a few days, at places which will be announced later. Admission will be one dollar.

AIR SERVICE UNIT IS PLANNED HERE

Interest Must Be Shown Before War Department Will Grant Request

An air service unit may be established in connection with the Reserve Officers' Training corps, according to A. H. Wait, instructor in the mathematics department and an officer in the R. O. T. C.

"If sufficient interest is shown by the students here and if the war department grants the request, this new branch of the service will become a reality at the university next fall," Mr. Wait said.

Men are asked to sign up with the instructor at his office in 404 North hall on Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. The deadline for registration is Saturday noon. Men who sign up need not be members of the R. O. T. C. at present, Mr. Wait said.

Then men will undoubtedly have to pass a medical examination before entering the course here.

Major O. L. Brunzell will take the proposition up with the examining board when it makes its annual inspection this year.

While the present plans are indefinite, the ground work will probably be given at the university. Further instructions will be given at summer camps.

Other universities that have the air service branch are the University of Illinois, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, University of Texas, and Georgia Technical school.

"Men in the engineering mathematics classes have been signing up with me for the last two days. So far more than 50 men have registered. We will need four or five times that many for the war department to consider our request," Mr. Wait, said.

A. C. F. CANDIDATES MUST FILE PETITIONS

All candidates for Agricultural College Federation board must file their petitions containing names of 25 qualified voters with Miss Summers in Dean James' office by tomorrow noon, John C. Read '24, chairman of the elections committee of the A. C. F. board, announced last night.

Two men and two women are to be elected to the board by the voters of the Agricultural college at the election which will be held May 23. Those elected will serve for a one year term.

The Agricultural College Federation board is a governing body for all agric and home-ec activities and serves to unify and coordinate all extra-curricular work of the college.

Due to an oversight the credit line under a picture of Alice Drews '25 was omitted last Sunday. De Longe studio made the photo.

FREE LANTERNS FOR CANOES ON VENETIAN NIGHT

500 Lights and 1,000 Candles
Promised By Decorations
Committee

Five hundred Japanese lanterns and a thousand candles will be furnished free for decorative purposes on Venetian night, May 31, it was announced last night by Marion Telford '26, chairman of the decorations committee.

Each canoe that goes on the lake Venetian night will be given a Japanese lantern and two candles with which the canoe can be decorated. In former years many canoes were not decorated and so the committee this year is going to have the canoes decorated so that every craft on the lake will have a part in making Venetian night a success.

Lights Add to Beauty
With every canoe carrying a lighted lantern, the lake will be turned into a myriad of moving lights, which will add to the color and interest of the occasion. The lights, reflecting in the waters of Lake Mendota, will cast their rays over the entire lake front and will add to the spectacle produced by the lights of the floats and the piers.

New Prizes Offered
The university boat house and city boat house will each give a prize to the best decorated canoe from their places of business. This is the first time that prizes will be given to canoes that are decorated and not entered with the floats.

The committee that is working on decoration with Miss Telford is Alice Drought '24, Lorraine Cheeseman '26, John Brenneche '26, and Vern Carrier '27.

DECORATIONS FEATURE MORTAR BOARD SUPPER

Swinging rows of Japanese lanterns, little Japanese parasols, hundreds of crimson tissue-paper flowers climbing up the three stone walls, and as many living flowers in vases and flower-boxes decorated Barnard court at the annual Mortar board supper last night.

The Phi Sigma Delta and the Sigma Nu orchestra played for the dancers in the court. Robert Tally '25, sang the Haresfoot song "Maid of the Milky Way" and "Hero of My Story", and Byron Rivers '26 and Gordon Brine '26, danced to "Wink at the Stars When I Kiss You" and were showered with applause from the dormitory windows and roofs.

The dining rooms and the lawn, were crowded with men and women. Approximately 425 tickets were sold which netted more than $100 for the Mortar board scholarship fund.

UNION BOARD CANCELS BERNARD PARK DANCES

Due to the fact that the estate of John L. Boyd is tied up in court, no administrator having been appointed as yet, Union board is unable to make any contracts for orchestras and the proposed plan to hold the board dances at Bernard's park has had to be abandoned.

"After June 1 we hope to be able to make contracts for holding the dances across the lake," Sam Thompson '24, chairman of the dances said yesterday.

"The plan certainly will be carried through for summer school," he stated.

CARDINAL AD STAFF

An important meeting of The Cardinal advertising staff will be held at 12:45 o'clock today in the office in the Union building.

STORY OF POSEPNY CASE TOLD BRIEFLY

Monday night — About 11 o'clock, Officer Powers shot Peter M. Posepny '25, at 414 North Lake street. Powers claimed that Posepny was coming off of his back porch, and he called to him to "halt," but Posepny did not, so he fired up in the air. Posepny died instantly.

Tuesday — Governor Blaine ordered Julius Krug, sheriff of Dane county, to make an investigation for the state. Posepny's father from Two Rivers, came to Madison to take care of the body. Dr. Gill and Bunting performed an autopsy on the body to determine the angle at which the bullet entered the head.

Wednesday — Coroner's jury found that "Posepny came to his death unwarranted and unlawfully from a pistol shot fired by Powers."

Thursday — Powers arraigned before Judge O. A. Stolen, pleaded not guilty and furnished bond of $2,500.

May 23 — Preliminary hearing before Judge O. A. Stolen. Attorney Frank L. Gilbert representing Powers.

PLAYERS TO END SEASON TONIGHT

Three Comedies on Program of Annual Event at Lathrop

The University Players make their last formal appearance of the year tonight when they present three one-act plays at 8 o'clock in the Lathrop concert room in what is known as the annual comedy night. The three plays have been picked from the best of the comedies which are apt to appeal to student interest.

The plays call for the acting of 15 students, while a number of the club is directing each play. Since the stage setting is also being handled by students, comedy night will be an all-student production.

The three plays are "The Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington, "The Constant Lovers" by St. John Hankin, and "The Crimson Cocoonut," by Ian Hay.

Hazel Kaiser '25, took a prominent role in the pre-prom play this year, has a lead in the first comedy, "The Trysting Place". Here is the light comedy part of a young widow. Thomas McLean '24 who took the chief comedy role in "Twinkle Twinkle" also has a lead in "The Trysting Place."

KERR '26 WILL DANCE AT SOPHOMORE PARTY

A soft shoe dance by Howard Kerr '26, will be one of the features at the annual sophomore class dance to be held tonight at the Candy shop. A spotlight dance and other features are promised.

The sophomore class invites all university students and faculty members to join the affair, according to John M. Souerby '26, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Jesse Cohen's orchestra will furnish the music for the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Meyers will chaperon.

HORSE SHOW POSTER CONTEST POSTPONED

The Poster contest for the Horse show and Style show has been postponed until Monday noon when all entries must be in the hands of John A. Bailey '26, according to an announcement made last night by Austin A. Cooper '25, publicity chairman. Judging of the posters will take place Monday afternoon and the exhibits will be placed in campus store windows Tuesday.

POWERS HEARING SET FOR MAY 23 BEFORE O. STOLEN

Policeman Pleads Not Guilty;
Is Released on $2,500
Bond

At 9 o'clock May 23, Officer Patrick Powers will have a preliminary hearing before Judge O. A. Stolen in Superior court to determine whether he shall be tried on the charge of manslaughter for the killing of Peter M. Posepny '25, last Monday night.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock Powers voluntarily gave himself up, and was arraigned in Judge Stolen's court. He pleaded not guilty, and was released when he furnished the bond which was set at $2,500.

Jury Blames Officer

The coroner's jury arrived at the verdict that "Posepny came to his death unwarranted and unlawfully from a pistol shot fired by Powers" after a few minutes' deliberation late Tuesday afternoon, following the examination of five witnesses. The witnesses were Officer and Mrs. Powers, Francis Martell '27, supposed to be the last person who was with Posepny before his death, and Drs. Bunting and Gill, who performed the autopsy.

Julius Krug, sheriff of Dane county, who was making an investigation of the case for Governor Blaine, sent in his report to the governor which was similar to the verdict arrived at by the coroner's jury. Probably the governor will assign Attorney Messerschmidt to assist the prosecuting attorney at the preliminary hearing, and to look after the interests of the state, Krug indicated yesterday afternoon.

Goes to High Court

Since the coroner's jury has reached the decision from the evidence submitted that Powers is responsible for the killing of Posepny, and should be brought to trial, the case goes to Superior court where it will be decided whether the evidence submitted then is sufficient to warrant a trial.

Attorney Frank L. Gilbert will be in charge of Power's end of the case while Phil Sanborn, assistant district attorney, possibly assisted

SORORITIES PICK RIDERS FOR SHOW

Sixteen Groups Announce
Their Entries in Annual Riding Contest

After several months of almost daily practice, the best riders in each of 16 sororities have been selected to represent their organizations in the inter-sorority riding contest of the Spring Horse show.

Each sorority has discovered many good riders within its group and consequently the contestants who are entered in the show will include the best riders in the university. Much interest has been aroused among the sororities in an effort to win the prizes and stiff competition will be presented in this event, it was stated.

Four more sororities are entered this year than last. The sororities which will be represented and their riders are as follows:

Pi Beta Phi, Charlotte Logeman '26; Gamma Phi Beta, Mary Pidecoe '26; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Elysbeth Gilmore '27; Kappa Theta, Joan Crowley '27; Alpha Phi, Anna Fox '25; Chi Omega, Helen Posthuma '27; Alpha Chi Omega, Alice Cockrell '25; Sigma Kappa, Alice Drews '26; Kappa Delta, Dorothy Dodge '24; Alpha Xi Delta, Pauline Dexter '25; Delta Delta Delta, Suzanne Hadley '27; Alpha Omicron Pi, Marion Lynch '24; Delta Zeta, Lois Barry '25; Phi Mu, Clara Klosterman '24; Alpha Epsilon Phi, Helen Labowitch '27; Delta Gamma, Elaine Mabley '24.

LYMAN TO LEAD ANNUAL REVIEW

Student Officers to Take Charge of Infantry, Artillery and Signal Corps

During the war department inspection and review of the R. O. T. C. units May 19 and 20, student officers Colonel H. B. Lyman '24, Majors C. J. Randall '24, H. W. Klos '26, W. N. Wentworth '26 and Lieutenant L. B. Rutte '24 will be in command in the infantry; Major B. K. Breed '24 in charge of the field artillery; and Major O. J. Trenary '25 of the signal corps.

"Chances are good for winning the honor rating awarded this R. O. T. C. organization in previous years. The men have been working hard to win the award, and the different units are in excellent shape," Major O. L. Brunzell said yesterday.

The review will begin at 1 o'clock Tuesday after inspection of all work given the units during the year, according to Major Brunzell. The infantry, signal corps, field artillery and ordnance unit will be drawn up in formation facing the Library building with the band on the right.

The inspection preceding the final review is to cover all instruction given the four units of the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior R. O. T. C. classes. Work in hygiene, first aid, close and extended order drill, care of field equipment, scouting, patrolling, topography, exercises with the bayonet and rifle, the use of a one

Outposts Communicate With Trenches in Military Practice

"Communications were established between the trenches guarding the gymnasium and the outposts on the lower campus yesterday afternoon."

Juniors and sophomores in the military department worked on different kinds of communications and built a model trench beside the gymnasium. They will give a demonstration after the annual inspection of the university corps by pounder gun, a light trench mortar, 75, 155, and 4.7 millimeter cannons, field engineering, communication engineering which includes telegraphy and wireless communication, ordnance engineering, leadership, and horsemanship. This inspection is to occupy the army inspectors until 1 o'clock.

The review will be followed by command system drill, formal guard mounting with the President's guard, and individual and company competitive drill.

ATHLETICS IN THE COLLEGIATE WORLDTRACKSTERS PICKED,
DETAILS COMPLETED
FOR QUADRANGULARBadger and Buckeye Entries in; 150 Men Are Competing Saturday

With the selection of the Wisconsin tracksters who will compete in the quadrangular meet at Camp Randall Saturday, May 17, and the receipt of the entries in the track and field events of Ohio State, final arrangements have been completed, according to information given at the gymnasium yesterday afternoon.

The entries from Chicago and Northwestern were received early in the week, while tryouts for the Badger squad were held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons. More than 150 athletes will participate.

Run One-Mile Relay

In addition to the regular events of the meet, a one-mile relay race will be held. In the indoor quadrangular meet which was held in Evanston shortly after the opening of the indoor season, a one-mile relay race was run, and officials decided to have this race as a regular part of the meet at Madison.

Buckeye Entries

The entries from Ohio State and Wisconsin follow:

FAVILLE NAMED
SPORTING EDITOR

Harry W. Faville '25, was appointed sport editor of The Cardinal by the board of control in its regular meeting this week.

Faville will hold this position, directing the gathering of all Cardinal sport news, for the remainder of the year. Faville has served during the greater part of the year on The Cardinal sport staff, covering major athletic events. He succeeds Harry P. Barsantee '25, who resigned as sport editor at the end of the first semester.

The Sling Shot

Minnesota sport writers could not help but mention Wisconsin's snappy infield work in the Wis.-Minn. ball game. No wonder, the Badgers made two double plays in successive innings.

Seems like the Minnesota ball team should have toured Japan this spring as it was rumored that they planned to. They hadn't been on the diamond for eight days when they played Wisconsin. And it RAINED.

Ye melancholy columnist furtively watched the girls out at Randall in archery practice. From a distance this is how it does. Once, out of 20 arrows shot four hit the target, next, out of 19 two landed in the target, then out of 20, two found the target, and finally they must have seen us and gotten fussed; for out of 24 arrows only one hit the target. There was one near bull's eye in all these shots.

The Isabel had a little mishap yesterday afternoon when the crew cut in a little short around Picnic Point and drove it to the rocks. Damage slight.

Luke says: The baseball team got back today, but didn't get out on the field for practice this afternoon, excepting Eddie Aschenbrenner who can't stand it out of a uniform long enough to attend classes.

Dear Ken: Look out for that backstop at the library end of the lower campus. Maybe some kind soul will go out some night and steal some chicken wire to put on it?

JIMMY G.

We're afraid that the sporting public isn't going to take this new sport of walking seriously. The track men still wear a broad grin when they see somebody going it; used to it as they are.

As near as we can see there is one thing necessary for success at the sport. You must have a swivel joint connecting your hips to your body, then just oscillate.

KEN.

HEARING ON POWERS
CASE SET FOR MAY 23

by Mr. Messerschmidt, will represent the county and the state.

The story of the shooting as told at the corner's jury on Wednesday and as it will stand until the preliminary hearing next week is as follows:

Witnesses Tell Story

On Monday evening Posepny and Martell went to the performance of "The Cat and Canary" at the Orpheum theater. After the show, about 11 o'clock, they walked around the square, down State street and parted on the south-west corner of North Lake and State street, as it started to rain.

At about 11 o'clock Mrs. Powers, at 414 North Lake street, noticed a man standing in front of her home and watched his actions as he jumped behind a tree when her son

SMOOTH LAKE AND WARM WEATHER
HELPS CREWMENCrew Will Probably Leave For Poughkeepsie June 2;
Train There

The varsity crew spent an hour and a half on the lake yesterday afternoon in the new shell taking advantage of the warm weather and smooth lake. Condition is the watchword of "Dad" Vail, coach, and all workouts are planned for that purpose.

One change has been made in the lineup, Schuman '24 taking Jax's oar which was number five on the port side of the first shell. Other changes may be made from time to time, according to Coach Vail. Competition for places in the first eight has stiffened since the announcement that the crew would go to Poughkeepsie.

"We will probably leave for Poughkeepsie June 2," "Dad" Vail said in spaking of the trip. "The two weeks spent there before the regatta June 17 will do the crew more good than the four weeks remaining to be spent here. There we will have a training table which will do the men untold good. Conference ruling prevents our running a training table here, else we should do it."

HUMOR FEATURES
PROGRAM BY RICEReader Shows Ability in Interpretation of "The Younger Generation"

By I. N.

Full of sparkling humor, vivid characterization, and real artistry, was Phidelah Rice's interpretation of Stanley Houghton's "The Younger Generation" which was presented before an enthusiastic audience at Bascom hall last night under the auspices of the Forensic board.

With admirable skill and subtlety of expression, Mr. Rice impersonated in turn the bigoted and narrow-minded Mr. Kennion with his perverted sense of responsibility; Uncle Tom, the good natured, understanding peacemaker; Grandmother Kennion, the stern unyielding Puritan who was of the opinion that "it's best to see only one side of the question if you wish to have your own way"; and Grace, Reggie and Arthur Kennion, the younger generation chafing under the restraints and false notions of a society that misunderstood and distrusted them.

"The Younger Generation" is a picture of the conflict between the smug, self-satisfied and easily shocked older generation and the younger generation retaliating with the most "shocking conduct" as a symbol of revolt.

Mr. Rice concluded the program with a description of a summer storm in the Rocky mountains and one of Mark Twain's stories. Prof. A. T. Weaver of the speech department introduced the reader.

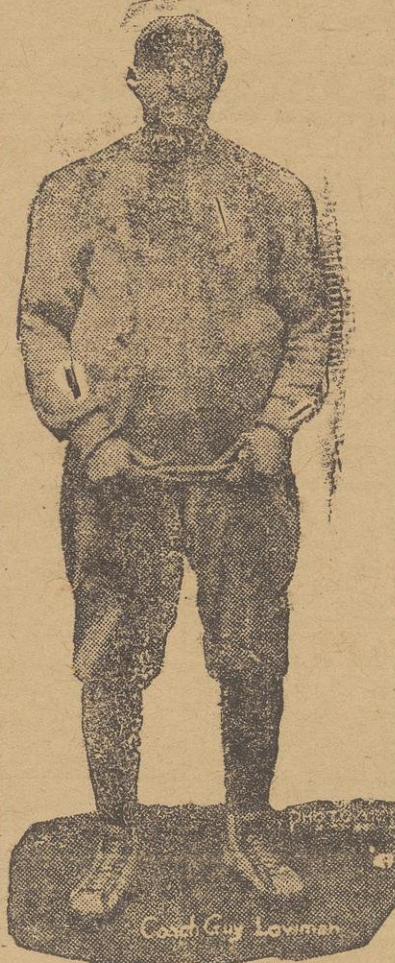

came up. As the stranger walked around the side of the house she called to her husband who went out in front to investigate with his police revolver. Powers was traffic policeman on the square by the Park hotel, and was off duty Monday night.

Posepny Buried today

Powers went around back of the house, and saw a man coming off the porch, and said he called "Halt." The man did not halt and Powers shot up in the air to scare him, but struck him in the head killing him instantly. At the corner's inquest Dr. Bunting stated that the bullet entered the rear of the head and came out near the left temple, which is opposite to the testimony furnished by Dr. Gill.

The body has been taken to Two Rivers, Wis., the boy's home, but it may be brought back to Madison for the hearing if the testimony of the two doctors who made the autopsy is at variance then. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at Two Rivers.

They're Climbing

GUY S. LOWMAN

Coach Lowman is sending his proteges through hard practices this week to improve their play for the hard games to come. After the victories over Michigan and Minnesota the stock of Lowman's nine has gone up considerably and the Badgers are becoming real contenders for the Big Ten diamond championship.

RYAN PRESCRIBES
STIFF WORKOUTS
FOR GRID SQUADPractice Going Harder With Advent of Good Weather;
New Men Out

The spring football squad has been having long workouts the last two days to make up for the rest over the week-end. The rainy weather has slowed up the practice the first part of the week and the squad is working extra hard to make up for it.

Wednesday the men went through a stiff practice in blocking. Blocking with the dummy for the first time this year, took up most of the afternoon. The hard head-on shoulder block was practiced first. After that, body blocks from both sides were tried several times. A snappy drill in calisthenics finished the practice.

Practice Punting

Last night was devoted to practice in receiving and running down punts. It was good practice for the backs in side-stepping and dodging. The line men ran down and tackled the receivers. A long kicking drill preceded the punting work, with plenty of passing and a little signal work.

Fabera Out

Fabera, member of last year's all-American squad, was out for the first time tonight with several other new men. There is room for a few more who may need the training in preparation for next fall. Kascica is a new man out there that is working hard. Hoffman, Mc Masters, Strouble, and Fabera are working in the line. The brunt of the passing has been done by Wilke, an Ag frosh. At end Blackman, Brooks, Solbraa, Larson, have been going good. The backs out are D. Harmon, Muegge, Kreuz and Lytle.

FROSH GOLFERS MEET
TO PLAN TEAM TODAY

A meeting will be held at 1 o'clock today in the trophy room of the gym for those interested in freshman golf. In order to form a team it will be necessary to have at least sixteen aspirants. Blackhawk course looks mighty good—lets get going freshmen.

A RAY OF HOPE

In these days when universities and colleges are being criticised for everything under the sun by every one from the minister to the boot-black, it is gratifying to see that some one has enough faith in present educational institutions to give one of them in his will a not inconsiderable sum of money in trust fund. It makes those other few who do have some confidence in the worthiness of a state university feel good all over, as though they were not insane after all and were going to get to some worth-while goal in the end.

The character of the man who left the gift makes those who have hopes for institutions of higher learning even more confident. It is quite unnecessary to go into the personality of Mr. Thomas E. Brittingham; suffice it to say that he was one of the finest men who ever made this state his home. He knew the university well, and because of that knowledge and because of his good judgement he must have known just what it meant for him to will the institution the sum of money.

That sum of money, furthermore, will be useful beyond measure to the university, although just what will be done with it is not now generally known. Always a firm friend of the university and the state, Mr. Brittingham's last act in their regard was characteristic of his attitude.

THE OTHER FELLOW'S SIDE

The stand of the conscientious objector took a jump in the estimation of some bellicose people last night when a graduate of the university showed how there is some similarity between the man who does think he is doing right by his country when he goes to war and the man who thinks he is doing equally right by his country when he stays out of war as a conscientious objector. Surely the aims of the two are identical, both of them for the good of the country, if the methods of carrying out those aims are different.

The speaker turned the tide in his favor when a number of the audience started to hiss him. Before he had finished, those who came filled with antagonism were applauding him. It is ridiculous for any one to say that the conscientious objector is a coward. He may not go through the physical hell of war, but he goes through a mental hell which may be worse. Certain persons may not approve of his actions, but they can not call him a coward.

The fact that the speaker succeeded in drawing some ray of sympathy from all his audience shows that perhaps the crazy war mania is subsiding and that we are beginning to be able to see the other fellow's side of a question.

EDUCATING THE HOME FOLKS

The special article which ran in the editorial column of The Cardinal yesterday is illuminating to say the least. It sheds a deal of light upon the building situation at Wisconsin, tells of the difficulties connected with erecting new structures and reconstructing old ones. And the heart of these difficulties? It is finances. Wills such as Mr. Brittingham's help to relieve the situation, but they can not do all. State appropriations are the only reliable source of income for building improvements.

No one knows better than the student just how inadequate the buildings on the campus are; no one knows better than he that the study rooms in the buildings are insufficient both in size and number, that Bascom hall is in dire need of real fire escapes and safe doors, that student coats eventually find their resting places on the floor instead of on a hook. The average tax payer does not know these things—trifles, perhaps some of them might be considered. It is therefore up to him who knows to tell him who is ignorant. Only in that way can the tax payers and the legislature be made to realize that the university must have more money.

This summer students will have an excellent opportunity to educate the home folks.

It cost an Oxford student in the middle ages less to live per day than it costs the modern young man for his carfare to the office in the morning. Even allowing for the appreciable difference in money value, we are assured that the youth of olden times must have lived very frugally. Here are his expenditures according to a new book "The Older Universities of England" published by Houghton Mifflin.

Other Editors Say—

THE DEAN ACTS WISELY

Dean Goodnight of the University of Wisconsin has done well in refusing a campus charter to a group of youths which recently broke away from the Social Science club and started out to save the world by persuading young men and women to refuse to answer the call of their country's need. The dean makes a needed distinction between freedom of academic thought—which always must be preserved—and an organization founded for political activity to influence others to join in their pacifist movement.

This pacifist movement, which broke into the limelight at Northwestern universities, and now at Madison, is calculated to influence impressionable youth. But the part played in it by certain agitators who spent their time at Leavenworth while other young men took their places at the front, ought to be enough to set any red-blooded young man or young woman against it. Perhaps, after all, the best way is to let the pacifist talk—talk his head off—for he has nothing to offer and so will not cut a figure. But official recognition by an institution is quite another thing. An organization that will try to get young men to make a blanket declaration that they will not defend their country has no standing and ought to have no standing. Dean Goodnight is right. —Milwaukee Journal.

LET'S GO SENIORS

A class of go-getters. That's what the class of 1924 has been all through college.

Do you remember how we won both of our class rushes? Is it not quite well conceded that the determined opposition of the class of 1924 broke the backbone of discriminate hazing at Wisconsin?

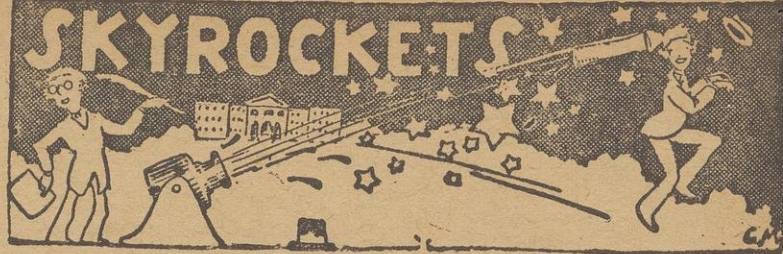

Our politics have been always clean, our interest in athletics intense, our participation in things which meant more for Wisconsin strong and commendable. Traditions have been built around things started by 24ers. The Senior Stag at the end of the basketball season promises to become an annual affair. We started that when we were hosts to the 1924 Champion Basketball Team.

In spite of all the good things the class has done, just one more job remains to be tackled and put across big. Having the welfare of Wisconsin so much at heart, we seniors cannot leave without doing our bit to help build a home for Wisconsin Spirit. We just can't do it, that's all.

Now what is the least any of us can do for the Memorial Union? A life membership costs only $50 if the pledge is made while the student is still in college. After graduating the amount is doubled. Surely we can give that much anyway, can't we? And then, the nice thing about the whole matter is that each one of us can have a beautiful button to wear which tells the whole world that we are a member of the Wisconsin Union just as soon as $25 is paid.

Old Wisconsin has done a lot for us, fellow seniors. We owe her something that we can never repay. The best we can do to show our gratitude is to help build a great meeting place such as we would have liked when we were frosh.

This is our campaign, folks, so let's go out and clean up 100 per cent. Every senior for the Union, and the Union for every Senior. We can if we will, will we?—Wisconsin Country Magazine.

The Reader's Say-So

RETURNING AN ATTACK

Editor, The Cardinal:

Leslie Peard '26, in his attack on Carl Haessler who spoke last night in the gymnasium on "Resistance to War" announces to the world through the columns of The Cardinal that he would "rush to uphold the flag should the United States ever become involved in war again." He compares Carl Haessler '11 Rhodes scholar and conscientious objector, to Fatty Arbuckle and Ex-Gov. McCray!!! He says that America needs "men" not "jelly-fish" the inference being that "men" rush into war, "jelly-fish" are unwilling to rush or to be rushed into war. In these articles you well told how the "jelly-fish" type despised and neglected by the military mind from 1914 until the Armistice to construct livable ways of living out of the lives broken by the war machine and neglected by the armies called their protection.

Mr. Peard, read "The Conscientious Objector" by Norman Thomas and as a climax "Youth and the Singing Shadows" by Brent Dow Allinson, and then let us hope that never again will you call the conscientious objector a "jelly-fish" and in speaking of war you will say with Allison's "Youth."

"I have come back from that Hell with a vow—never to go again
We can resist and destroy it now,
I and the mothers of men."

A STUDENT.

WHAT CONSTITUTES

A PATRIOT

Editor, The Cardinal:

Mr. Leslie Peard '26, it seems, has some definite ideas about what constitutes a patriot. For his benefit will you print the following?—it will show him how some "patriots" are made and is offered as a striking confirmation that there is nothing new under the sun.

MRS. E. C. HOEBEL.

Mrs. Hoebel's clipping follows:
"I can see a million years ahead, and this rule will never change in so many as half a dozen instances. The loud little handful—as usual—will shout for the war. The pulpit will—warily and cautiously—object—at first; the great, big, dull bulk of the nation will rub its sleepy eyes and try to make out why there should be a war, and will say, earnestly and indignantly, 'It is unjust and dishonorable, and there is no necessity for it.' Then the handful will shout louder. A few fair men on the other side will argue and reason against the war with speech and pen, and at first will have a hearing and be applauded; but it will not last long; those others will shout them, and presently the anti-war audiences will thin out and lose popularity. Before long you will see this curious thing; the speakers stoned from the platform, and free speech strangled by hordes of furious men who in their secret hearts are still at one with those stoned speakers—as earlier—but do not dare to say so. And now the whole nation—pulpit and all—will take up the war cry, and shout itself hoarse, and mob any honest man who ventures to open his mouth; and presently such mouths will cease to open. Next the statesmen will invent cheap lies, putting the blame upon the nation that is attacked, and very man will be glad of those conscience-soothing fables, and will diligently study them, and refuse to examine any refutations of them; and thus he will by and by convince himself that the war is just, and will thank God for the better sleep he enjoys after his process of grotesque self-deception."

SENIOR WOMEN MUST

PASS SWIMMING TEST

June 17 is the last date that senior women may pass their swimming test in order not to get an incomplete in physical education.

At present there are twenty-five junior and senior women who have not yet passed the test, which consists of swimming around the Lathrop tank in good form.

"Ten years ago," remarked Miss Mary A. Brownell of the physical education department, "a senior did not pass her test and received an incomplete. The university withheld her diploma until she took swimming lessons and passed the test."

STUDENTS MARCH ON MEMORIAL DAY

Large Place in City's Annual Program Taken By University

The university figures largely in the celebration of Memorial day by the city of Madison as the plans were outlined by Col. N. W. Schrantz, chairman, yesterday at a meeting of the general Memorial day committee at the Association of Commerce rooms.

School children will decorate the graves of the veterans of the three wars at 8 o'clock Friday morning. The woman's relief corps will hold services at 9 o'clock at "The Rest."

The university cadet corps will march in the parade up to the Lincoln terrace, which will be formed at 9:30 o'clock at Wisconsin avenue, as well as the national guard, the G. A. R. post, the Spanish war veterans, the American legion, and various societies. Ceremonies will take place at the Lincoln terrace at 10:50 o'clock.

An introductory speech will be given by President Birge followed by address from Michael B. Olbrich. A procession of wreath bearers, 140 girls dressed in white, will follow, escorted by the president's guard, and university cadets. A roll call of the veterans and taps will complete the program on the terrace.

Immediately following the ceremonies on the terrace, water services will be held at the foot of North Park street. These will be conducted by the women's relief corps, assisted by the naval reserve corps. The traditional Memorial day salute of 21 shots, one each minute, will be given by the Naval Reserve firing squad, immediately preceding the water services.

Music will be furnished by the university band, the high school band, and the Eagles' band.

Graduation Caps and Gowns Reflect History, Democracy

Seniors donning the cap and gown for the graduation day exercises, and those who watch the long lines so clad may well reflect that every fold and plait is replete with meaning.

On its historic and picturesque side, it reminds those who don it of the continuity and dignity of learning, and the honored roll of English-speaking university men.

On its democratic side it subdues the differences in taste, fashion, manners, wealth, and clothes all with the outward grace of equal fellowship.

The cap and gown is really a uniform. There are slight variations in the yoke, in the cording, and the make of the sleeve which distinguish those receiving the bachelors' degrees from those receiving the doctor's degrees. For the bachelors' degree, the sleeve is long and pointed. For the masters' degree, the sleeve is long and closed. For the doctors' degree, the sleeve is round and open.

The departments and colleges may be known by the color of the trimming on the exterior edge of the hood. The colors are as follows:

Letters and Science, white; theology, scarlet; law, purple; philosophy, blue; science, gold yellow; fine arts, brown; music, pink; and medicine, green.

Sophomore Dance
Included in the Parties Tonight

The annual sophomore class dance is one of the largest parties being given this evening about the campus. There is a pirate ship party and a cabaret party and a mandarin party also being planned. There are a number of unusual parties being given this spring, it seems, more than usual. Just plain formal and informals do get rather tiresome after all and it is a relief to have something different.

Sophomore Class

The annual dance of the sophomore class is to be held this evening at the Candy Shop. Other classes are invited to attend.

Phi Sigma Delta

Phi Sigma Delta will hold its spring formal dinner dance tonight at Frank Hoover's at Middleton. Lighting effects and decorations will be used to carry out the Mandarin atmosphere. Out of town guests will include A. Scheinfeld, Milwaukee, S. Miller and T. Zolla of Chicago. The Misses S. Chudkow, Milwaukee; Ruth Lippert, Milwaukee; J. Mann of Racine; H. Stein, Chicago; and R. Lurie, Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klitsner will chaperon.

Delta Zeta

A cabaret party is to be given by Delta Zeta at the Cameo room this evening. The hall will be decorated in black and white. Dinner will be served at quartette tables. Mrs. G. W. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. B. Glad-den are to chaperon.

Delta Upsilon

Delta Upsilon will entertain this evening at the chapter house at a formal dinner dance. The house will be decorated with roses and rose arbors. Leland Karas, Chicago, Bill Tellett, Neenah, and Lester Pasch of Milwaukee will be among the guests from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neill have accepted the invitation to chaperon.

Sigma Pi

Spring flowers and palms will be used in decorating the Sigma Pi house for the formal dinner dance to be given there this evening. Katherine Hanson of Manitowoc, Gladys Troxal of Hiemsville, Margaret Erbe of Green Bay, Eleanor Taylor of De Pere, Homer F. Tangney of Hiemsville, Lester J. Cappon, Milwaukee, John Holzbog of Wauwatosa, C. Herbert Lloyd of Milwaukee, Walter B. Franz of Milwaukee, Robert B. Atwood of Janesville will be guests from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Potter will chaperon.

Farm House

Members of Farm House are to give a formal dinner dance this evening at the chapter house. The house will be decorated as a pirate ship. Life savers, swords and pistols will be among the things which will be used in decorating. Prof. and Mrs. H. W. Stewart will chaperon the party.

Chadbourne

Members of Chadbourne hall will give a formal dinner dance this evening. Colored lights and spring flowers will be used to decorate the rooms. Miss A. Isabel Hunt and Prof. and Mrs. M. V. O'Shea will chaperon.

Banquet Follows
Installation of Chi
as Phi Beta Delta

Phi Beta Delta, which has granted a charter and chapter to Chi Fraternity, local, will install that group as CHI chapter on Saturday, May 17, 1924, at the Park Hotel. The initiation ceremonies will take place in the afternoon, and will be followed by a formal banquet in the evening.

Professor Saul C. Oppenheim of the University of Michigan, Western Vice-President, will do the installation. He will be assisted by teams from the chapters at the Universities of Chicago, Michigan, and Iowa.

The guests will be Dean Scott H. Goodnight, Professor Arnold Dresden, State Treasurer Solomon Levitan, and Governor John J. Blaine. Members of the Chicago, Iowa, and Michigan chapters of Phi Beta Delta will attend. Various other campus fraternities will be represented.

Last night was Mortar Board supper. There was a large crowd and the fact that it was one of the first really nice evenings made it all a lot nicer.

The first outdoor band concert was given last night on the campus. This is a most enjoyable feature of the springtime here, and the band gave a delightful program. More power to them.

Prof. Showerman Gives Account of "March on Rome" to Italian Club

"The Fascisti are Ku Klux Klansmen disdaining secrecy," declared Prof. Grant Showerman, of the Latin department in his lecture on "The March on Rome" Tuesday night in the Engineering building.

"Thousands of young men who are overflowing with the spirit of youth and patriotism are numbered among them. The Fascisti are for law and order but are trampling law and order under foot to obtain it," said Professor Showerman.

That the world will owe something to the Fascisti movement if the Fascisti ever come to an understanding of internationalism as they have nationalism, was the opinion of the speaker.

"Fascism is not a party," declared Professor Showerman. "It is above a party—it is the state."

The talk was given under the auspices of the Circoli Ausonia. Helen Brodd '25, president of the club, introduced the speaker. The program was concluded with the singing of a Fascist hymn.

POSTER SKETCHES HERALD SWINGOUT

Will Advertise Field Day,
Dance Drama and Senior
Event of May 31

Dancing figures in silhouette together with black and white sketches of tiny athletes engaged in field and track events appear on the art posters which advertise field day, the dance drama, and senior swingout. Over 200 posters are being made under the direction of the publicity committee for women's field day.

Lois Barry '25, Barry '25 Beatrice Rich (De Longe Studio) ardsen '26, Ida Gray '25, Esther Hawley '27, Beatrice Marks '26 and Kathryn Shattuck '25 are the members of publicity committee for field day which takes place Saturday, May 31, at Camp Randall.

Within the next week various members of W. A. A. will speak in all of the sorority houses, Chadbourne hall, and Barnard hall in order to arouse enthusiasm and interest in the field meet. A large banner will be hung at the foot of Murray street advertising the "On Wisconsin Women" field day, dance drama and swingout.

The dance drama and senior swingout will be held on Thursday, May 29. In case of rain these two events will be shifted to the following Saturday.

Campus Politics is Topic of Talk at Philomathia Meet

"Political Campaigning on the Campus," by Harry Alberts '24, and a short talk by Carl Ludwig '26 on "The Probable Effects of the Cancellation of Indebtedness due to the United States from her World War Allies," were presented at the Philomathia meeting last night.

Following the two talks, a debate was held on the following subject: Resolved that the University of Wisconsin should be made a senior and graduate school, and that a junior college should be established for the purpose of preparing students for that school.

George Mitchell '25, Morris C. Waterman '25 and H. Jordan '27 comprised the affirmative team, and U. A. Rothmal '26, Lester Mal-sahn '25, and Will Rahr '27, the negative team.

The statute knot, usually considered as a standard is 6,082.66 feet.

Movies Call; She Hesitates

It's a long and rocky road from Wyoming's cow trails to Hollywood's studios. But Elizabeth Baker, 16-year-old Casper (Wyo.) high school girl can make the journey easily, whenever she wishes. Pronounced the most beautiful girl in Wyoming, she has been offered three different movie contracts. She is undecided, though whether she will accept any of them.

TEGTMAYER GETS ONLY RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

"The rumor that Wisconsin is to have another Rhodes scholar in addition to Gamber Tegtmeyer '24 is wholly unfounded," Dean Scott H. Goodnight said yesterday.

"We follow the method of selection the same as the other states" he said. "Gamber Tegtmeyer was

Tickets For Blue Dragon's Banquet Go on Sale Monday

Tickets for the Blue Dragon banquet, which will take place Wednesday, in Lathrop parlors, will be on sale Monday from 9 to 5 o'clock. The price of the tickets is 75 cents.

At least 150 girls will attend the banquet this year, and extensive plans are being made in regard to the program of the evening, Nina C. Faris, 24, chairman of committees, said.

"One of the features of the banquet will be the distribution of the Blue Dragon rings. All the rings will be here by next week.

No ring is to be given out until we are all present at the banquet. Josephine Snow 24, said yesterday.

Committees for the banquet are as follows:

General chairman, Nina C. Faris '24; finance advisor, Mary M. Ball '24; sale of tickets, Ann E. Anderson, '24, Josephine M. Coates '24, Pauline L. Newell '24, and Ellen W. Harris '24; food, Margot E. Topp 24, and Janet M. Cumming '24; decorations, Harriette L. Greene '24, Dorothy Dodge '24, Dorothy T. Gay '24, Lila M. Ekern '24, and Rachel L. Haswell '24; publicity, Marie H. Kowalke '24, and Elizabeth L. Riley '24; speakers, Marcella C. Neff '24.

"Decorations for the tables and room are to be entirely of candles and flowers. We want to use large baskets of flowers as table decorations, with, perhaps, blue candles along either side. This idea will also be worked out for the room. If possible, I would like to have big candle abras at the ends of the fireplace at the door," Harriette L. Greene, '24 chairman of the decoration committee, said at a meeting of all committees, yesterday.

electd last fall as the Rhodes scholar for 1925. Next fall we elect another Rhodes scholar. The year after that we do not elect any. Wisconsin, just as the other states, elects a Rhodes scholar every two years out of three," he said.

UNEARTH RELICS OF INDIAN TRIBES

Archeological Survey Finds
Fragments of Earthenware in Milford

A large number of fragments of ornamented and unornamented earthenware vessels were unearthed north of Milford, during a recent trip conducted by the Wisconsin Archeological survey of Indian lands from which Charles E. Brown chief of the state historical museum, has just returned. This society is continuing its surveys in the Crawfish river region of Jefferson county, a part of the state in which many evidences of early Indian occupation remain.

By means of the impressed, incised and roulette marked patterns on these shreds, the tribe which once occupied the site is readily identified. The party also located the remains of an old Indian fish trap in the bed of the river. This was constructed of large and small boulders in the form of the letter V with the point down stream.

Prof. West Writes New College Text on Public Speech

"Purposive Speaking," a college text book for courses in public speaking, is the title of the new book of R. W. West, assistant professor of speech.

The book is designed to be both disciplinary and practical. Its purpose is to aid young speakers to learn the control of their audience through the control of themselves.

"Public speech," Professor West states in his book, "is not a parlor trick with which you may entertain yourself and your friends. It requires all the mental alertness of which the speaker is capable."

The book brings out the possibilities of emphasis through action and the control of the voice.

PLAYLETS READ TO GERMAN CLUB

Faculty Members Read Comedies By Koerner at Meet Last Night

Two comedy playlets by Theodore Koerner were read by members of the German department at the meeting of the German club in the Engineering auditorium last night.

"The Nightwatchman," the story of an elderly man who wants to marry his ward was the first reading given. The night watchman, read by Prof. F. Bruns, aids the heroine, Miss Martha Nicholai, in her own love affair. The other character are read by Waldemar Groth, grad., and Prof. E. T. Mohme.

"The Bride" is a dialogue between a father and son who do not recognize each other after an absence of many years. The son falls in love with the bride-to-be of his father and a quarrel ensues. The dispute is successfully settled by the discovery that the bride is false to them both.

Prof. E. C. Roedder took the part of the unfortunate bridegroom and Prof. B. Q. Morgan read that of the son.

This program was the one faculty presentation of the semester, and was attended by a large group of members and others interested in German.

Montana Senator Prosecution Still Pressed By Stone

WASHINGTON — The department of justice will continue its proceedings against Sen. Wheeler, Dem., Montana, under indictment in his home state, despite the senator's exoneration by a senate committee.

Atty. Gen. Stone said today he saw no reason for a change in the department's attitude, and that no reason appeared for dismissing the proceedings.

A report exonerating Sen. Wheeler "from any and all violation" of the statutes under which he was indicted at Great Falls, Mont. has been submitted to the senate by Chairman Borah of the special committee which investigated the charges against him.

President Coolidge Vetoes Bonus Bill to Ease Treasury

WASHINGTON — The soldier bonus bill was vetoed by President Coolidge.

On the heels of his disapproval of the Bursum pension bill because he felt it would be an undue strain on the treasury, the president sent back to the capitol for the same reason the compensation measure which would give free life insurance policies to World war veterans.

Advocates of the bill immediately announced that an attempt would be made to pass it over the veto. On its original passage it received more than the necessary two thirds vote in both senate and house.

The veto message based on estimates of probable expenditures provided by the budget bureau, was addressed to the house, where the bill originated and where the first test of strength must come in the effort to over-ride the president's disapproval.

It was the second time in twenty months that a bonus bill had been returned to congress by the White House without presidential sanction. Late in 1922 President Harding vetoed a bill to give an optional bonus to former service men. It was passed over the veto by the house, but failed of re-passage in the senate.

Associated Powers Submits Another Bid For Muscles Shoals

WASHINGTON — Willingness of the Associated Power companies to submit another Muscle Shoals proposal to purchase power produced at Muscle Shoals by the government and distribute it under the federal water power act was expressed at today's senate agriculture committee's hearing by E. A. Yates, general manager of the Alabama Power Co.

Yates explained this proposal would depend on perpetual government ownership and operation and in effect would be a modification of the Norris bill, which provides for government operation of the property.

WEALTHY MADISON MAN SPLITS ESTATE

E. T. Brittingham Displeased With Park Action Reduced Gift to City

Madison leaders in civic and philanthropic work have commended the action of the late Thomas E. Brittingham who created two trust funds of $443,000 in favor of the University of Wisconsin and the city of Madison.

The will which was made on Dec. 3, 1923, indicated that the greater portion of his estate amounting to several millions of dollars in vast lumber holdings had been disposed of to the heirs, consisting of three children, Mrs. Mary Brittingham Reid, Riverside, Ill.; Harold H. Brittingham, Cleveland, O., and Thos. E. Brittingham, Jr. It is well known, according to Madison bankers, that Mr. Brittingham was extremely wealthy, probably the richest man in the southwestern part of the state. His wealth has been variously estimated at $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

It became known after Mr. Brittingham's death that he was greatly displeased with the action of the city in placing a pumping station in Brittingham park, one of his largest donations to the community. Residents of the section maintain that an unsightly condition has prevailed in the park for over a year. They declare that Mr. Brittingham dropped his interest in his park gift when plans for the station were announced. It is probable they declare that he might have announced some large civic bequest to the city had his interest been maintained.

AT THE THEATERS

Vodvil, Drama
and CinemaORIENTAL PLAY
WILL RE-CREATE
SPIRIT OF INDIA

Scenes from an Indian jungle and an Eastern temple with all the atmosphere of the Orient will be reproduced in the play, "Chitra", by Tagore, which the students from India will present at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in Lathrop hall.

The players will re-create the spirit and mystery of the East itself—temple women worshipping—oriental diets in their ecclesiastical robes and head-dresses—warriors with bows and arrows. Costumes and settings are being made by the actors themselves.

Rabindranath Tagore, sometimes called the "archbishop of India," is known throughout the world as the poet-philosopher, and interpreter of the East. At one time known only in India, he has translated all of his works into the English language. He won the Noble prize in idealistic literature in 1914.

The play explains the place of woman in the world as being the helpmate of man rather than as a creature made solely for his pleasure. Ideal womanhood and ideal marriage are the theme of the play.

"The poet has given us the soul of the East disembodied of its sensuality and within its shrine the most perfect tribute to the true womanhood and its claims," a writer for the Pall Mall Gazette recently wrote.

Margaret M. McCarthy, of the speech department, and Mrs. Pitman B. Potter are directing the rehearsals.

Agnes Phillips will play the leading role, that of Chitra, the daughter of the king of Manipur who falls in love with a banished king. Rupchand Dhir, grad, will play the part of Arjuna, the banished hermit-king.

The God of Love, Madana, will be played by Mahindra Brahadr, grad, and the God of Spring and Beauty, Vasanta, will be played by Hans Raj Prasar '25.

D. P. Rupasingha Gunaivardana '25 and Veclav Strela '25 will take part of villagers.

The play will be given in English. Tickets will be 50 cents.

JANE COWL CONCLUDES

"JULIET" TOUR MAY 31

Jane Cowl has a new play which will be produced for her by the Selwyns, in association with Adolph Klauber, her managers. Neither the title nor the name of the author has been disclosed. Gossip has it that the production will be made after Miss Cowl's spring tour in "Romeo and Juliet" closes in Brooklyn, May 31. As Miss Cowl will be appearing in Newark, N. J., the week of May 19, she will be living in New York during that week and the week following, with all the facilities available for engaging a company and rehearsing it while acting in her present medium.

Upstage Bits

By TORMENTOR

Starting today this column will be a regular feature of the Daily Cardinal on Tuesdays and Fridays. You watch.

Zenobia hasn't been around for a long time. We went out looking for her last Tuesday and that's how come we didn't have this col. for you to read.

This is another one of those nice little dramatic week-ends. Last night we heard "The Younger Generation" at the gym and hoped that the Forensic board made expenses. Tonight we are intending to laugh and enjoy ourselves at Wisconsin Player's Comedy night, a few tickets for which are still available.

Last night some Haresfoot hangovers provided entertainment at the Mortar board supper. Rivers and Brine tried to show how much they could forget in a few weeks, but everybody liked it just the same.

It has definitely been decided that there will be a laboratory night next year when plays written by students will be produced. There is playwright talent in the university and it is glorious that at last it is to be developed.

Tryout for the senior play are nearing completion but anyone who wants to work on any department had better see Larry Hastings immediately.

Eliot Sharp has decided to do something in a dramatic way besides just criticism and so will be business manager of the senior play. Sid Thorson will produce the play.

A new Haresfoot song, "Haresfoot Sweetheart," a knock-out, will be introduced to the campus soon. Watch for it.

Well, Guess Tormentor will have to forego Zenobia for Eugene. Who's Eugene? Why our thesis of course. Got a date with him right away. So, so long.

New York recently. The substitution was by request of Lady Diana. Miss Daly was flattered and elated by the compliment, but she contracted pleurisy as a result of being a star for one night. Until Miss Daly recovers from her illness, her part in "Spring Cleaning" will be taken by Aubrey Bentham, general understudy of the company. Posing in wet draperies, required for a clinging effect to the figure for ten minutes only brought on a severe cold which quickly developed into pleurisy.

Now Showing at the Strand

Edmund Lowe and Claire Windsor, play the hero and heroine in "Nellie the Beautiful Cloak Model", the old stage melodrama, made into a motion picture by Goldwyn.

Band Will Present
Twilight Concerts
on Upper Campus

Providing the weather permits, the University Concert band will present a "twilight" concert every Thursday evening at 6:30 on the upper campus, near Music hall.

The first concert will be given next Thursday according to the plans of Maj. E. W. Morphy who is in charge of the band.

The band is made up of 70 instruments in all. Special instruments not possessed by similar bands in the country permit the Concert band to produce effects similar to those of the large American symphony orchestras.

"The Concert band is not the same organization which plays at the football games and at other athletic events," said Maj. E. W. Morphy recently in outlining the new band program. "The Concert band is more like a symphony orchestra than like the ordinary brass band," he said.

It has been a custom for the past several years for the band to include in its program a special concert for the University president on Alumni day, June 2. The concert is given on the back lawn of the president's residence.

Movie Snap Shots

A Guide to The Week's Shows

"NELLIE THE CLOAK MODEL"
At the Strand

If "Nellie the Cloak Model" is a faithful representation of life in New York it's safe bet to stay here and enjoy the quiet of State street.

This picture holds the current record for things happening. There are two kidnappings, a peach of a fight, a fast "L" train running wild, a girl on the tracks.

Seriously, the picture is just what it purports to be—melodrama after the fashion prevalent a few years ago—enjoyable, unbelievable, and fast.

"LOYAL LIVES"
At the Majestic

It is too bad that a picture dedicated to such a worthy group of citizens as the U. S. postal employees should be more or less of a failure—but that is what this picture is. The plot is dull, the actors are indifferent, and the few humor

"GIRLS SHY" ON TOP OF LIST OF
GOOD PICTURES

By H. E. R.

An assortment of good plays are booked for Madison theaters next week, and had truly ought to please all movie fans.

The Strand is changing its usual procedure of having two shows a week and will present Harold Lloyd the entire week in "Girl Shy". They tell us that Harold shows the details of conducting a perfect love-scene, and we are going to see if he omitted anything, or has something on us.

"Daughters of Today", a melodrama concerning the wickedness of the 'younger generation' will be featured by the Parkway. Patsy Ruth Miller, the new "stares", Ralph Graves, and Zazu Pitts hold down the leading roles in this production of youth, beauty and love.

Ramon Navarro and Barbara Lamar, the perfect lovers, will appear at the Madison the entire week in "Thy Name is Woman". Sounds warm, and worth seeing.

The Majestic is digging an old picture out of the scrap pile, and is going to present Rudolph Valentino in "A Society Sensation" one of his best productions. Along with that play "Buck" Jones will feature in a circus melodrama named "The Circus Cowboy". These two pictures will fill the bill the first part of the week, and will then give way to "The Satin Girl" a melodrama with Mabel Forrest and Norman Kerry.

The Dorothy Lavern Players will change from mystery comedy and will enact to our pleasure a play, concocted from the short stories by Peter B. Kyne, known as "Cappy Ricks."

That's all for this time, as Mae Tinee says.

MRS. FISKE WILL GIVE SERIES OF OLD PLAYS

Mrs. Fiske is planning to revive a whole series of the old classics according to Charles L. Wagner. Beginning with a Boston engagement she will play Mrs. Malaprop in an all-star production of "The Rivals" a role which she has never acted before. Other productions contemplated for the coming season are "Candida", "Hedda Gabler", "Ghosts", "The Pillars of Society" and "Becky Sharp."

elements are pathetic in their weakness. What action the film contains is short-lived. William Collier is the only member of the cast whose work is at all interesting. In short, the show isn't worth 30 cents.

Here's the Reason, Read!

This store has been conducted here for over ten years without the need of a special sale of any kind. Recently, one of the partners died. Now, it is necessary to reduce the stock of shoes to a minimum in order to settle the estate and pay the widow her share. Consequently everything goes on sale Friday morning at nine o'clock with prices slashed to the bone—in order to raise the cash necessary to settle the estate without any more delay.

Not for a long time has Madison witnessed a sale of shoes made necessary by such circumstances. Always known as a store handling good quality shoes at prices lower than elsewhere in the city. That is your guarantee that the public will benefit by these prices.
