The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Mr. Nathaniel Dominie

Dear Sir

As. I understand you to be ~~to~~ one of the trustees for the town of East Hampton I take this method to ask your permission to let me try for scallops in the waters now claimed by the town. if scallops are plenty enough to make a business of taking them I am willing to do what is right.
