The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Upper Aquetongue Feb 25 1822

Dear Sir Within we send you the Petition received from you, not until the 23<sup>d</sup> by some cause or other not yet explained we regret that we not received it in time to have returned it to you by the time mentioned in your epistle but we embrace the first opportunity of sending it by mail and hope that you will not looke our fable endeavours to leave you by them delay
we hope you will get it and we will come and see you
Respy Yours Bartlett Griffing
