FRESHMEN WIN

1904 DEFEATS JUNIOR LAWS BY THREE LENGTHS.

Race Over Mile Course—Coach O'Dea Well Pleased With the Form Exhibited.

The freshman crew defeated the junior law eight by three lengths this morning. The race was over a mile course along the south shore of Mendota finishing at the boat house. It was a fine exhibition of rowing and the freshmen appear to have a crew that is fully the equal of the famous 1903 eight. The rumored unsteadiness of the '04 boat was scarcely noticeable after the first few lengths of the race; after that they steadied down and rowed in good form. The pace in the boat was good and there was little jerk between the strokes but a good steady run was maintained. Coach O'Dea's criticism in regard to the body form of the men seemed justified by this morning's race and it will take hard work to acquire the evenness of form which last year's freshmen had. It was a little after eleven when the two crews left the house and paddled slowly down to the starting place followed by the launch containing Coaches O'Dea and Sutherland, Commodore Haskin, Vice-Commodore Bergstrom and a Cardinal representative. The start was made about opposite the farm buildings. The law crew having the outer course took the water an instant sooner than the freshmen at the signal but the latter men were not much backward and the boats ran nearly even.

For the first quarter mile the contest was nip and tuck, first one boat and then the other poking its nose to the lead. Both boats were rowing about a thirty stroke. The freshman crew now seemed to take a brace; their boat rode steadier while there seemed to be more power in their strokes. The result was at once evident. Their shell began to steal away from the lawyers' boat and by the time the observatory was reached the bow of the law shell was but even with the freshman coxswain. From now on the lead was steadily increased and soon open water was seen between the two shells. The tugging crew of '04 gained steadily and made their lead three clean lengths by the time their craft crossed the finish line in front of the boat house pier.

The crews rowed in the following order:

Freshman—bow, Banta; 2, Hobbins; 3, Kimball; 4, Kieth; 5, Potter; 6, McComb; 7, Kruger; stroke, Thom; coxswain, Martin.

Junior law—bow, Loveland; 2, Sylvester; 3, Kralovec; 4, Boland; 5, Krug; 6, Palmer; 7, Abercrombie; stroke, Lyle; coxswain, Parks.

WISCONSIN FOURTH

Michigan Wins First Place in Northern Oratorical League Contest at Iowa City.

Iowa City, Ia., May 3.—The eleventh annual contest of the Northern Oratorical league composed of the universities of Chicago, Northwestern, Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan and Oberlin was held here tonight, each university furnishing a competing orator.

At the business session of the league held this afternoon the following officers were elected for next year: President, F. S. Merrian, Iowa; first vice president, E. J. Marshall, Michigan; second vice president, M. J. Seed, Northwestern; third vice president, E. W. Pettibone, Oberlin; fourth vice president, C. R. Rounds, Wisconsin; treasurer, E. G. B. Watson, Chicago; secretary T. D. Schall, Minnesota.

The programme as rendered was: Iowa, "Israel's Last Captivity," by Otto Brackett; Chicago, "The World's Orator," Betram G. Nelson; Michigan, "The Minister Plenipotentiary," C. L. Story; Minnesota, "A Hero's Mistake," Thomas D. Schall; Northwestern, "The Power of a Great Conviction as Illustrated in the Life of Garibaldi," Hasse O. Enwall; Oberlin, "The Battle of Saratoga," C. M. Woodruff; Wisconsin, "The Triumph of Altruism," Miss Louise Loeb.

The final rank as shown by the judges' markings was: Michigan first, Chicago second, Iowa third, Wisconsin fourth, Oberlin and Minnesota tie for fifth and Northwestern seventh.

Columbians Banquet.

The Columbian law society held their annual banquet last evening at the Avenue hotel. Covers were laid for forty and the gathering proved a huge success. During the time spent in consuming the bountiful repast provided by host Regan various Varsity and popular songs were rendered and a general social time indulged in.

After the nine courses were disposed of, a program of toasts was presented, among which were the following: Boynton, "Columbia;" Kelly, "Our Banquet;" Tscharner, "When Good Fellows get together;" McKesson, "It's up to Us;" Kemp, "Wisconsin;" Schwittay, "What do we care?"

"Faith and Reason."

By special request Professor Kahlenberg will present the above theme in his address to-morrow at the Y. M. C. A. meeting. The subject is one of which Professor Kahlenberg is eminently fitted to speak, being a scientist of rapidly growing reputation and at the same time a man of deep religious conviction. All men of the University are invited to attend the meeting which will be held in the Law Building at 4:30 p. m.

—Phi Rho Beta gives an informal party tonight at Keeley's hall.

BIG MEET JUNE 1

PLANS PROGRESSING FOR ANNUAL INTERSCHOLASTIC.

Souvenir Program to be Issued With Articles by Coaches King, O'Dea and Kilpatrick.

Preparations for the annual interscholastic meet, which takes place at Camp Randall June first, are going on very favorably and the meet will undoubtedly come far ahead of any previously held.

The latest innovation is a souvenir program which will be gotten out by Joe Downer of Milwaukee. The program will be in book form and will be made as attractive as possible. Coaches King, O'Dea and Kilpatrick have been asked to contribute articles in their particular branches of athletics and have given their assent. Such programs have been for several years a feature of the big eastern interscholastics and have proved so successful that it seemed well to try the plan here.

Coach Kilpatrick is receiving letters every day from outside schools which want to get into the league and so many applications have been received that some had to be rejected. There is a regular Interscholastic Association, of which Professor Dudgeon of the Madison High school is the head and any new schools which desire to compete in the meet must apply to him for admission to the association.

Among the schools recently rejected is St. John's Military academy. It was thought that St. John's having a professional coach, was not on a par with the high schools of the state and it would not be fair to allow her to compete. Several other schools have been refused admittance because of the distance from Madison. The gate receipts of the meet are divided among the various schools competing proportionately to the number of contestants they send and the distance they have to travel. Although the expenses are never guaranteed, there has generally been plenty of money and so it was not thought advisable to admit schools a long distance from Madison.

Good Prospects for Home Meet.

Plans are rapidly being matured for the home meet next Friday. This annual event serves not only as a public exhibition before the local track enthusiasts, of the abilities of the various candidates, but also as a try-out for the team which is to represent Wisconsin in the coming series of meets. This year Coach Kilpatrick is going to make a special effort to have the meet the big event of the spring athletic season. Besides the regular numbers on the program several distinctive features will be introduced. Among these will be the inter-sorority hundred yard dash in which the representatives of the girls' societies will compete, and the inter-fraternity relay which is always productive of great enthusiasm. It is uncertain yet whether there will be bicycle races or not. These numbers will not be on the inter-collegiate program, but Coach Kilpatrick may decide to have the wheel races as special attractions at the home meet.

Perhaps one of the most interesting events of the afternoon will be the relay race between the South Side of Milwaukee and Madison High school. This race will be for blood and fought to a finish.

Business Meeting of Y. W. C. A.

At the annual business meeting of the Y. W. C. A. last night the following officers were elected: president, Miss Jennie Sherill; vice president, Miss Ethel Redfield; secretary, Miss Olive Runner and treasurer, Miss Lelia Bascam.

The devotional, social, mission, music, hand-book, and membership committees submitted encouraging reports. The chairman of the membership committee, reported, an increase of about 55 active members during the past year. The work of the social committee under the chairmanship of Miss Thomas has been a strong feature of the association.

Installation of the newly elected officers will occur next Friday and the young ladies will hold a joint cabinet meeting with the Young Men's Association next Saturday.

FIRST BLOWOUT

Philomathia's New Members Present Excellent Debates in First Public Appearance.

Last evening Philomathia held her annual Freshman Blowout. The affirmative sildes of both debates won out. S. H. Wetzler and A. Breslau were the successful leaders. The Klondike gold nugget pin offered as a prize for the best delivered debate from an oratorical standpoint by Mr. Jesse L. Edgren, one of Philomathia's Milwaukee alumni, was awarded to Mr. D. G. Milbrath who appeared on the second debate.

The freshmen were favored with good attendance and the blowout was a most successful one. J. C. Silverthorn acted as president of the evening and made a few graceful remarks in opening. The orator of the evening was W. C. Reineking. His theme was "The Jingo in South Africa." He drew a strong contrast between the characters and surroundings of Joseph Chamberlain, the English statesman, and Paul Kruger, president of the struggling Boer republic.

The first debate was on the question, "Resolved, That the suffrage qualifications of South Carolina, North Carolina, Mississippi, and Louisiana are unjustifiable and will not be productive of good." S. H. Wetzler closed for the affirmative and Chas. A. Lyman closed for the negative. Mr. Wetzler put up an excellent debate and showed very thorough preparation. Mr. Lyman's debate was very clear and logical and his delivery was direct and convincing. The affirmative was further supported by Messrs. Selle, Ellis, Cowell and Paust. Mr. Lyman was supported on the negative by Messrs. R. D. Brown, Kelling, and Hoefer.

The second debate was equally as well prepared as the first. The question discussed was, "Resolved, that the United States retain permanent possession of the Philippine Islands." The affirmative was closed by A. Breslau who was supported by Messrs. Meisnest, Warner, and Milbrath. The leader of the negative was E. B. Tomlinson. He was assisted by Messrs. Wood, Bush and Wilson.

One of the most entertaining features of the evening, though not a part of the regular exercises was the unveiling by Mr. R. G. Plumb of the bust of Lincoln, recently won by Philomathia with her circus display.

—At last night's meeting of Athenae, Robert E. Knoff was elected president and Mr. Gillett vice president.

The Contest.

The big oratorical contest is now a thing of the past. The University of Michigan has again been successful in obtaining first place, a feat which she has achieved eight times out of eleven contests. Her victory was a merited one, and Wisconsin joins in congratulating her on her success.

For our representative nothing but good words have been reported. Handicapped, perhaps somewhat by her sex, our representative nevertheless made a showing that was a credit to herself and to the University. We have no excuse to offer, but if the interest in oratory at Wisconsin increases next year at as rapid a rate as it did this year, we may well warn Michigan and the other colleges to look well after their laurels.

Success of the Convocations.

Professor Turner's address at the convocation yesterday marked the close of these gatherings for the year. This has been the second year since these weekly meetings were started, and in all respects the convocations have been more successful than last year. The attendance has steadily increased. It was found necessary, however, in the first semester of the year to warn the students that absences here as in regular classes must be accounted for; but this one warning seems to have been sufficient. For the attendance the second semester has been all that could be desired.

The addresses have all been of an entertaining and instructive character and on account of the variety of topics discussed have always proven popular.

The advantages of these weekly convocations at first were not apparent to all the students, but it is believed that the old, prejudiced objections are no longer heard and that the convocations after all has been said, would be very much missed by the under classmen. Dean Birge deserves great credit for stimulating this healthy interest in these convocations, and in making them a popular part of our university life.

—The Chi Psis defeated the Phi Rho Betas this morning by a score of 20 to 19. The score up to the last inning was 19 to 12 in favor of Phi Rho Beta but their opponents piled up eight runs in the ninth and won the game.

—About 30 couples danced at Keeley's last evening at the formal spring party of the Delta Delta Deltas. Mesdames Dixon and Wentworth of Milwaukee were the chaperones. PAYS HIS COLLEGE DUES.

Clever Boy Transcribes Greek and Hebrew Manuscripts.

"One young man at our university, said a student in speaking of boys who were working their way through college, is earning his living in a rather novel way. It seems that inventions have been perfected by which typewriting can be done in any language, and this boy, having a knowledge of Greek and Hebrew, supports himself by typewriting manuscripts for professors. He sent word to them that he was prepared to typewrite in Greek and Hebrew as well as German text and the orders began to come in fast enough to fill his depleted pocketbook. The convenience of the thing as well as the young man's originality appealed to the professors, and when he last confided his financial status to me he had a comfortable surplus of several dollars a week.

"He is going to add Sanskrit to his list as he makes his way along, and he says he would attack Chinese if Mr. Wu would give him a job to report his honor's speeches for the Pekin press. Typewriting can now be done in any language desired. It opens a new field of usefulness for impecunious students and saves busy professors with erratic handwritings a lot of trouble—to say nothing of saving the compositor's disposition and relieving the drain on his vocabulary. The attachments for writing different languages are inexpensive, he tells me, and one machine can be used with them all."—New York Tribune.

Ripon Man in Second Place.

At the twenty-eight annual contest of the Inter-State Oratorical association held at Des Moines, Ia. Thursday night, Robert Loofbarrow of Baker University, Kansas, captured first place with his oration of "The True Republicanism." W. R. Davis of Ripon college, Wisconsin, was a close second, his oration on "Hamlet" being graded only two points below that of the Kansas victor. Third place fell to Clark M. Cavence, Iowa Wesleyan university.

Four thousand people attended the contest which did not close until after midnight. The annals of the association show no contest which can parallel this in point of close marking by the judges. The primary ranking tied the three winners at 24 points each while the summary of grades stood 517, 519 and 520 respectively.
