The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Dear Frank:

We are wondering how in the world you are. We think whiskers must be complicating the situation rather crucially. Just hope you have medicine that helps.

The boats — I don't see the man o'war on Rock River. The other boats were fished up out of subconscious-Milwaukee. For a moment one year I thought I might become an artist. Better stick to my pen-Routing.

We had a touch of winter — how terrible.

My very best to you and Annie Laurie. — Lorne
