INTERSCHOLASTIC DECLAMATORY CONTEST.

Friday Afternoon at 2:30.

Reserved Seats on sale at Co-op.

THE INTERSCHOLASTIC

PREPARATIONS FOR SATURDAY'S BIG EVENT NOW COMPLETE.

Madison High Seriously Crippled—
Bulletins Received From Inter-collegiate at Camp Randall.

Madison will be in a crippled condition at the meet Saturday and at present it seems that West Side will have an easy time of it. Fuller, who has thrown the hammer one hundred thirty feet, has been protested by the Milwaukee schools, because he is over twenty-one years of age, and his name has been withdrawn from the entries. Daniells, who was expected to win points in the quarter and half mile runs has injured his leg and will be in no sort of shape for the meet. This takes two of Madison's strongest men out of the meet, and she will thus not stand much of a show in the contest with West Side.

The total entries are now in, thirty-eight schools being entered with a total of 267 contestants, which exceeds both in number of schools and athletes the entries of any previous year.

A new feature will be introduced at the meet this year by the Wisconsin Telephone Company. The company will put up a large bulletin board on which the results of the Conference Meet at Chicago will be posted as fast as they are received over a special long distance wire. Those attending the Interscholastic will thus be able to know the results of the meet almost as soon as those who go down to Chicago.

The year book, which is being gotten out by George F. Downer of Milwaukee promises to be a great success. It will be a fifty page book, and will constitute a permanent record of high school athletics in Wisconsin.

There will be special articles by Coaches Kilpatrick and O'Dea, and Mr. Downer. The book will be profusely illustrated throughout.

Declamation Contest.

It nothing to the contrary occurs all the contestants for the Interscholastic Declamation Contest will be able to appear on the program next Friday afternoon. The contestants have now all been selected in all the seven districts. The committee in charge of the contest has made ample arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors, and Friday evening will tender them a reception at Chadbourne Hall.

The following is the program:
President—Professor D. B. Frankenburg.

Music—Ladies' Glee Club.
1. Lulu Pickering, Superior, "The Story of Patsy."

2. J. Roe Pfaffner, Stevens Point, "Description of Webster's Reply to Hayne."

3. Sadie Jeffries, Muscoda, "Madeline's Victory."

4. Florence Gray, Ironwood, Mich., "Pauline Pavlovna."

5. Mida Lawson, Hudson, "The Soul of the Violin."

Music—Vocal solo, W. G. Hamilton.
6. Robert Reed, River Falls, "Fight with Aurochs."

7. Emma Lewis, West Bend, "Dr. Carter and his Nephew."

8. Edna Ferber, Appleton, "The Story of Patsy."

9. Florence Copeland, Broadhead, "Eugene Aram's Dream."

Music—Cello solo, H. B. Beeson.
10. Eurette Kimball, Janesville, "Helene Thame."

11. David Jones, Bangor, "Supposed Speech of J. Adams."

12. Margaret Roberts, Milwaukee, "Eruption of Vesuvius."

13. Thomas Grey, South Kaukauna, "Connor."

Music—Banjo duet.

Hesperia's Banquet.

Hesperia held her annual senior banquet at the Avenue hotel last night. The banquet was a decided success. The members of the society were present in a body, and the number of Hesperia's alumni was particularly large. An excellent menu was served.

The toastmaster was Mr. William Ryan. Mr. Groves responded for the freshmen, Mr. Davies for the sophomores and Mr. Starks for the juniors; each of the seniors spoke briefly. Among the alumni who spoke were Judge Bardeen, ex-District Attorney A. W. Anderson, Professor Showerman and Messrs. Hart, L. A. Anderson, Harry Adams, N. S. Curtis, C. B. Edwards, W. Robertson and George Thompson.

Seaman and Helmholtz Defeated.

Seaman and Helmholtz were defeated yesterday at the Kenwood Country Club's courts at Chicago by a score of 6-3, 6-2, 6-3. They lost to the Michigan team and Chicago won from Northwestern. This leaves Chicago and Michigan to play out for the championship today. The singles will also be continued today when Seaman meets Zimmerman of Northwestern. Their match was begun but was unfinished on account of darkness. They played three sets, the third resulting in a tie: 6-4, 4-6, 5-5.

Dramatic Contest, June 6.

The date for the Dramatic Contest has now been set for June 6 at the Fuller Opera house. The three plays which will be given are, "Hector," "That Rascal Pat" and "To Oblige Benson." The contestants are now rehearsing daily under the direction of Mr. Walton Pyre and Miss Jennie Butt. The profits of the contest will be given to the Oratorical Association on condition that they use the money to clear up their outstanding deficit.

—Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Edsall received at their home, 524 North Henry street, yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6. Their beautiful home was profusely decorated with peonies, carnations, lilies-of-the-valley, and roses. Between two and three hundred guests were received during the course of the afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. Edsall were assisted in receiving by Madame Gregory and Miss Margaret Marshall of Trenton, New Jersey. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room. Punch was served on the north porch which was converted into a beautiful arbor for the occasion. The Misses Anne Scribner, Flora La Follette and Eleanor Bardeen assisted here. Others who assisted were Mesdames M. S. Slaughter, F. W. Allis, L. R. Head, L. M. Hanks, M. V. O'Shea, W. S. Marshall, A. D. Conover, A. E. Proudft, L. W. Claude and the Misses Gregory, Dorothy Hutchins and Ver Planck. Following the reception a supper was served to the above named and the husbands of the married ladies, besides Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Stevens, Prof. C. N. Gregory, Prof. E. K. J. H. Voss, Professor J. F. A. Pyre and Messrs. Robert Coe and J. Bartow Patrick.—Madison Democrat.

MEYER WILL COMPETE

MICHIGAN REMOVED HER OBJEC- TIONS THIS AFTERNOON.

Matter to be Voted on by Each of Colleges—The Controversy in Detail.

Serious difficulty has now come about over the claimed ineligibility of Meyer by some of the colleges, to take part in the Conference Meet next Saturday. The athletic board met last evening and members of the team have mutually agreed not to enter if the disbarment of Meyer is not raised. Professor Slichter has been wiring to get the matter straightened out but as yet no conclusion has been reached.

The difficulty arose from a protest by some of the colleges that Wisconsin had not carried out the letter of the constitution. Last April all the names of the contestants for Wisconsin were sent in including that of Meyer. But the constitution requires that a list shall be sent in twenty-one days before the meet. This was done but in some unaccountable way the name of Meyer was inadvertently left out. Then another clause of the constitution states that another list should be sent in six days before the day of the meet. This was done and the error corrected, the name of Meyer going in. But Michigan protested, claiming the ineligibility of Meyer on the grounds that his name was not in the list required to be sent in twenty-one days before the meet.

It was circulated that Poage's name had been left out, but his has proven to be an unfounded rumor.

Later.

Late this afternoon Professor Slichter received a telegram to the effect that Michigan had consented to Meyer's entry in the inter-collegiate. The telegram said that the matter would be voted upon by each of the colleges and as Michigan has been the only one objecting, no further trouble over the entry of Meyer is anticipated from any source.

Meeting of Athletic Board.

The athletic board of directors held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium. The question which has arisen as to the eligibility of Meyer to compete in the inter-collegiate meet at Chicago Saturday was discussed, but no final action was taken as it was believed that the matter could be satisfactorily adjusted. The men of the track team, however, have decided among themselves that in case Meyer was not allowed to enter, the team would not take part in the meet. It has been rumored that Poage was also objected to for the same reason as Meyer, but this is a mistake as no possible objection could be made to his entry.

The athletic board further took up the question as to the necessity of increasing the income of the Athletic Association. Other routine business was transacted by the board and a few minor matters were also brought up for discussion.

—An audience of six hundred gathered in Library Hall last night to attend the piano recital given by W. M. Fowler assisted by Miss Alice Walden, Miss Anna Gapen and A. C. Ehlman.

SPHINX VS. CARDINAL.

Great Contest at Camp Randall Tomorrow Morning at 9.

The climax of the spring baseball will be capped to-morrow at nine o'clock at Camp Randall when the newsmongers of the "Rag" and the pun-slingers of the "Spinach" will contest in seven rattling innings of the national game. The latter is understood to be loaded with hot shots. Stuntz will not be allowed to make remarks. On the other hand the Cardinals will be barred from indulging in "personals."

The Apollo club will attend in a body and no others will be admitted who are not Buffaloes. Admission will be eleven cents, change to go to the water-boy. Relays of printer's devils will hustle the pail. Cuts of "pi" will be vended on the grounds at a uniform charge.

After persistent effort John Hickey has been persuaded to act as umpire and will officiate clad in a suit of armor loaned by the Historical Museum and armed with six-shooters. No captains have been appointed but it is understood that Bobby Knoff is going to write a head to act in that capacity for the Ragtimes. Late yesterday evening a rumor went the rounds of journalistic circles that the Ragtimes had laid in a store of printers' sucks which are good for a home run each.

In order to prevent fatalities the following agreement has been drawn up:

"It is hereby stipulated, agreed, and mutually covenanted by and between the Cardinal as the party of the first part, and the Sphinx as the party of the second part, that during the continuance, progress, period and time of the contest, argument or game, no jokes, squibs, puns, anecdotes, roasts, obloquy or vitup, eration pertaining to or taken from, or out of the columns of the Sphinx shall be employed, used exercised, entertained or applied with the intent, purpose, forethought, hopes or malice premeditated of wilfully injuring the risory faculties of the Cardinal staff."

Following is the revised and authentic lineup (subject to change) passed upon in a general joint meeting of the Board of Regents and University faculty yesterday afternoon:

Sphinx		Cardinal

NO CARDINAL TOMORROW.

On account of Memorial Day the Daily Cardinal will tomorrow suspend publication. Regular publication will be resumed Friday.

Unsportsmanlike.

The difficulty in regard to the coming inter-collegiate track meet is most unfortunate, especially in view of the fact that such squabbles have been too frequent of late years. Just as affairs seemed to be in a way to being definitely adjusted and the meet harmoniously run off it develops that it is proposed on account of a slight technicality to bar one of Wisconsin's surest point winners, a man of undoubted amateur standing and scholarship qualifications. By a clerical error his name was omitted from the first entry-list although on the official faculty list. It seems like a small sort of enterprise and, although the protestors may be technically in the right, their action in thus seeking to cripple a prominent rival is anything but sportsmanlike. It is to be hoped that the objection will be withdrawn and the disagreeable consequences of a permanent dispute obviated.

In a Bad Way.

The attendance at the sophomore semi-public debates this spring has been very unsatisfactory. At Philomathia's debate Monday evening a Cardinal representative counted but fifty-seven people, including the judges and two teams. The members of the debating society themselves did not attend the contest in any numbers and there was no spirit shown during the evening. Hesperia fared no better in their attendance and Athenae did not even hold their sophomore contest. This attitude towards the work of the underclassmen will be fatal to future semi-publics unless there is a change in the manner of holding the contests. As at present looked upon, much more interest would be taken in the debates if they were held in the rooms of the separate societies in place of a regular meeting as then at least the members of the society would attend. If the societies themselves do not support their own men others could not be expected to show an interest in these contests. Previous to this year there has always been shown a strong interest in these sophomore debates as the joint debate teams are chosen from the men making the best showing in these contests. Should the debates be entirely discontinued it would greatly weaken Wisconsin's debating prestige as there would be less experienced men from whom to choose teams for inter-state and inter-society debates.

It does not seem as though the semi-publics ought to be permanently abandoned, but unless something is done and done soon, that is exactly what will happen.

The Weather.

Fair tonight and Thursday.

Local and Personal.

—Miss Mary Darrow, '04, is confined to her room at the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority on account of illness.

—Phi Delta Theta defeated Phi Rho Beta at baseball in the inter-fraternity series yesterday by a score of 15 to 14.

—Mrs. E. M. Darrow of Fargo, N. D., is visiting her daughter Miss Mary Darrow, at the Kappa house.

—The A. A. Bruce Law Club held its first annual banquet last night to close a year of successful work. V. I. Minahan was toast-master and introduced the following members of the faculty who responded to toasts, Dean Bryant, Profs. Gregory, Bruce and Smith. Mr. Parkinson spoke for the middles and Mr. Richardson represented the juniors.

DR. FRISBY A REGENT.

Woman Named by Governor La Follette to University Board.

Five new members of the board of university regents were appointed yesterday by Governor La Follette.

Among this number is the first woman member to be appointed under the law passed at the recent session of the legislature, Dr. Alma J. Frisby of Milwaukee.

Other appointments were:

First congressional district—H. C. Taylor of Orfordville, Rock county, succeeding Ogden H. Feathers of Janesville.

Second district—Dwight T. Parker of Fennimore, Grant county, succeeding J. E. Morgan of Spring Green.

Eighth district—James C. Kerwin of Neenah, succeeding C. A. Galaway of Fond du Lac.

Ninth district—E. W. Edmunds of Oconto Falls, succeeding Orlando E. Clark of Appleton.

Dr. Frisby is a graduate of the university, class of 1878, and was for several years preceptor at the same institution. Mr. Taylor is a wealthy stock man and farmer and was probably elected because of his prominence in agriculture. Dwight Parker, who is a farmer and banker is the only one of the appointees who can be considered an out and out La Follette man. Mr. Kerwin is one of the most prominent attorneys of the Fox river valley. Mr. Edmunds is from the enemy's country, politically speaking, being of a family known far and wide as stalwarts.

All the regents retired are men of recognized ability and attainments, and have long been identified with the best interests of the state.

RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE.

In Affiliation with the Univ. of Chicago.

Organized 1837.

The academic year of Rush Medical College is divided into four quarters, corresponding with those recognized with the University of Chicago, beginning respectively the first of July, first of October, first of January and first of April, each continuing for twelve weeks. A recess of one week occurs between the end of each Quarter and the beginning of the next following.

The general course of instruction requires four years of study in residence with a minimum attendance upon three Quarters of each year. A student may begin his college work on the first day of any Quarter, and may continue in residence for as many successive Quarters as he desires. Credit will not be allowed, however, for more than three consecutive Quarters. At least 45 months must elapse between the date of a first matriculation and the date of graduation. For further information, address
