The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Barrel Makers

This is how it happened in the old ways maybe a few hundred years ago. They say there was this kind of person who repairs drums/barrels. He traveled around so that the white people got to know him. So they gave him the name of drum/barrel maker. That's how it began that people were called Cooper as their names.
