GORGEOUS AFFAIR

MADISON CARNIVAL AND STREET FAIR THIS WEEK.

Special Features Each Day—City in Gala Attire—The Week's Program.

The Madison Carnival and Street Fair opens this evening with a blaze of electricity, a flood of music and the greatest political demonstration ever held in this part of the state. The city is gorgeously decorated in cardinal bunting, electric arches are erected at every forty feet in all the principal streets and Capitol Square is lined on either side with booths of the exhibitors.

Today is Republican day; Senators Mark A. Hanna, of Ohio, and W. P. Frye, of Maine, are to be the orators. Upon their arrival they will be escorted from the hotel to the University gymnasium. The procession will be headed by Phinney's U. S. band, followed by Gov. Scofield, the state candidates and the local and visiting marching clubs, including the University Republican Club.

Tuesday is to be Military day. Col. George H. Joachim has arranged for two parades, and the following companies will participate: Monroe, Janesville, Whitewater, Fort Atkinson, Beloit, Portage, Reedsburg and Madison. Headed by Phinney's band and accompanied by three other bands, the troops will pass in review before Gov. Scofield and his staff.

On Wednesday the Democrats will make another political demonstration. They have secured for their speakers George Fred Williams, of Boston, and John F. Finerty, of Chicago. Mr. Finerty will speak in the afternoon and Mr. Williams in the evening. Phinney's band will also play on this occasion.

Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock a floral parade will be held, which will be one of the most beautiful features of the Carnival.

Mrs. George W. Peck, Jr., of Milwaukee who has charge of the floral parade, has been here during the past week superintending the making of paper flowers and decorating of carriages for the parade. Miss Flora Gape, '02, will be the flower queen. Her maids of honor will be Misses Leeta Sherman, Helen Thompson, Ethel Houser and Grace Gape. The queen will ride at the head of the procession in a victoria drawn by four black horses and decorated with red poppies. Her escort will consist of six mounted Arabs dressed in costumes prepared for the occasion. About fifty carriages will be in line representing the most prominent society people of the capital. Among these will be the carriages of Gov. Scofield, Senator Spooner and ex-Senator Vilas. There will also be about thirty pony carts in the procession, all driven by school children.

In connection with the floral parade a bicycle parade has been planned by the committee in which the students have been asked to participate. Thus far the response to this invitation has been very discouraging and the committee is very much in hopes that the students will feel it their duty to take some part in the demonstration. Names should be handed to Dr. Elsom before tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The Carnival will close Saturday with the football game between the Varsity and upper Iowa teams.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Banquet.

The twenty-fifth annual banquet of Eta chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma was held Saturday evening at Guild Hall of Grace church. Sixty-four members were present. Miss Frances Holcombe was toast mistress and responses were made by Misses Bessie Morrison, Clara Froelich, Lila Bartlett, Nellie Lamoreaux, George Challenor, Ida Elliott, Bertha Sharp, Agnes Bassett, Mary Peckham, Almira Johnson and Helen Olin. Members present from outside the city were Mrs. Charles F. Harding, Chicago; Mrs. Charles P. Spooner, Misses Frances Holcomb and Frances Welles, Milwaukee; Mrs. Lucy Ware Hullinger, Peru, Ill.; Mrs. T. F. Cooke, Algoma, Ia.; Mrs. Arthur Kempton, Janesville; Misses Helen Warriner, Jefferson; Mabel Fietner, Oconomowoc; Bessie Morrison, and Leila Stevens, Dixon, Ill.; Grace Challenor, Oshkosh; Josephine Kimball, Superior; Anna Flint, Menominee; Georgia, Hayden and Katharine Post, Eau Claire; Isabelle Loomis and Meta Schumann, Portage; Agnes Bassett, Fond du Lac; Laura Barber, Watertown; Ada Griswold, Columbus; Katharine Rood, Martha Week and Katharine Pray, Stevens Point; Bertha Gardner, Monroe and Katharine Kennedy of Chi chapter, Minneapolis.

Vesper Service.

There was a good sized attendance at the Vesper service at Ladies' Hall yesterday afternoon. After a violin solo by Miss Stark, Mrs. C. K. Adams addressed the meeting on "The Inner Life." She discussed the heart life as being of the greatest importance, first in education and then in religion. After Mrs. Adams' address Miss McCauley sang a solo. These vesper meetings are held every Sunday at 5 p.m. under the auspices of the Self Government Association. They are intended for religious purposes in an ethical sense and are non-sectarian.

At Ann Arbor Thursday, Democratic Presidential Candidate Bryan spoke to a large crowd composed principally of students from the State University of Michigan. Several of the students allowed their partisan enthusiasm to run away with them to such an extent that they were arrested for disorderly conduct. Mr. Bryan afterward asked that the disturbers be released from custody.

INTER-CLASS MEET

FRESHMAN AND SOPHOMORES ANNUAL EVENT WEDNESDAY.

Freshmen Have Many Strong Men—Sophomores Have Experienced Contestants—Exciting Contest.

Wednesday afternoon at Camp Randall will occur the annual Freshman-Sophomore track and field meet. At present all indications point to a very interesting contest. The members of both classes have thus far manifested a great interest in the result and have entered their best men in every event. This year the track and field athletes of both sophomore and freshman classes are an exceptionally well-trained lot of men and there is no reason why this year's meet should not be as closely contested as was the memorable contest of last year. The men of the freshman class who will compete are in most cases the winners of events at last year's interscholastic and are the men who established the many new interscholastic records.

The sophomores who have entered thus far are those who made it so uncomfortable for the class of 1902 at last year's meet and are now for the most part members of the Varsity track team.

From these well-founded statistics it seems probable that the meet Wednesday will not be such a "walk-away" for the sophomores as was at first predicted but will be a series of closely contested events beginning at the very best work of which each man is capable.

Among the sophomores who have entered are Bishop, the winner of the 100 yd. dash, shot put, and pole vault of last year's meet; Hahn, the champion mile runner of the Varsity; Saunders, the winner of last year's 220-yard dash; Helmholz who captured second in the 120 yard hurdles of last year and Cowley the winner of the "bike" races. Others have entered who have made creditable records for themselves at other meets, among whom are Chapman, Poage, Muckleson, Ross and Curry.

The freshman are especially strong in the mile run where Ellis and Benedict have made good records. In the board-jump Borrisson should be a winner and Race should be equally sure of the high jump although Bishop of the sophomores will doubtless do some excellent work.

Following is the list of entries of the freshmen: mile R. B. Ellis, W. J. Benedict, Ed. McEachron; half-mile, W. J. Benedict, Ed. McGillis; quarter mile, Borgh Borrisson, Ed. McGillis; 220-yard dash, W. J. Miller, W. B. Saunders, 120 yard hurdles, R. L. Race, R. McCrossen; 220-yard hurdles, R. McCrossen, W. J. Miller; running board jump, Borrisson, M. H. John; high jump, M. H. John, R. Race; hammer throw, P. Epstein; shot put, P. Epstein; bicycle race, R. G. Stotzer.

Every member of each class should turn out. This meet is where class rivalry culminates and here, in the presence of impartial judges is where the superiority of one class over the other is decided.

Miss Elsie Cady, '02, has returned to the University after a serious attack of typhoid fever.

FOOTBALL GOSSIP.

Review of Work of Western Teams for Past Week.

SATURDAY'S GAMES.

Northwestern, 12; Indiana, 0.

Chicago, 6; Minnesota, 6.

Wisconsin, 11; Beloit, 0.

Michigan, 26; Case, 6.

Illinois, 16; Knox, 0.

Pennsylvania, 12; Brown, 0.

Yale, 17; Dartmouth, 0.

Harvard, 24; Columbia, 0.

Princeton, 5; Naval Cadets, 0.

Cornell, 16; Washington and Jefferson, 5.

The unexpected happened again on the order of the day, in both the east and the west and if the season continues as it began, the strings on the western championship will be in a sadly tangled state by Thanksgiving.

Minneapolis was the scene of the greatest surprise. Chicago, although looking for a hard game, had few doubts about the final outcome. Minnesota's line proved exceptionally strong and from the present outlook will bring disaster to many of her western rivals. In judging the merits of Chicago's team the long trip and disadvantages of playing on the opponent's ground should be taken into account.

Illinois equalled Chicago's score against Knox and although the work of her men was distinctly ragged, there was great improvement since a week ago. This showing demonstrates that the Illini are sure to be important factors in the championship race. The present outlook indicates that Illinois and Chicago rank in about the same class.

Northwestern continues to grow better, Indiana being defeated on Saturday with comparative ease. Judging from the showing made by the purple last year at this time, the improvement is certainly marked. Michigan's work still continues weak for lack of heavy material, the doughty boys from Case College managing to cross the Wolverine's goal line. The result was quite dissatisfying to all as this is the last of the purely practice games. Coach Lea has plenty of hard work mapped out for the coming week. Notre Dame again ran up a large score and according to all reports "Pat's team" is going to give a good account of itself. As the boys from the Catholic school have as yet met none of the "big nine" a line can hardly be drawn on the comparative strength of their team.

Beloit, as predicted, proved a hard proposition for the Badgers. Offensively Beloit could do little, first downs being gained only three or four times during the game, but the defensive work was strong, the poor team work of Wisconsin availled little during the first half. Wisconsin's defense was fully as good as it had been reported to be, but the work of the back field was ragged. Fumbles at crucial points marred the game while often the men were compelled to make their gains through individual ability. In the second half, however, the men got together and played much more consistently.

Notes on the Game.

The far famed "rooting" of the Wisconsin supporters was noticeable Saturday—for its weakness. Although the Cardinal colors predominated, the Beloit yell was heard above everything else during the entire game.

Students Wake Up!
Madison business men are very much disappointed that students are not taking a more active interest in this week's Carnival. The students have been asked to participate in the bicycle parade next Thursday and thus far only a very few responses have been received. The towns-people feel that the support which they invariably give the student enterprises should be reciprocated and that the students should assist in making this affair a success. It is to be hoped that such will be the case and that students will turn out in large numbers at this celebration.

A Regretted Incident.
Students and friends of the University unite in regretting the circumstances connected with the Chicago-Minnesota game last Saturday. It seems that the occurrence was due to a personal indiscretion on the part of the Wisconsin alumnus in question and that the athletic management had no part in it. He should not have consented to officiate and attempt to take notes at the same time. Wisconsin would be loth to have the incident mar in any way her friendly relations with any other college.

The Political Candidates and Wisconsin.

It may not have been noticed by every one that the University of Wisconsin is very well represented in the political struggle this fall, as far as the state election is concerned. The republican nominee for governor and the senate, both the republican and democratic nominees for congress and the assembly are all old Wisconsin men. This fact but illustrates the much-heard statement, that college men are prominent in politics.

But occasionally we hear some college-misanthropist say, "that college men live only in their dens and libraries and do not come out and participate in life itself." A study of the composition of our national congress and state legislature would at once convince such a pessimist, that college men do take an active part in civic life. And no college, considering its size and age, is as prominent in civic life as is our own university. Here our sons learn the duties of loyal citizenship and later when good government demands their enthusiastic co-operation, we see, as we see now, our sons make a practical use of their knowledge.

Dr. Bigler's Address.

The meeting of the Christian Association yesterday afternoon was well attended. The subject, "Our Nation's Mission to the World," was presented very clearly and forcibly.

Dr. Bigler said in substance: For over a century after the discovery of America the continent was lost to the world and settlements did not begin here till strong Christian people from various parts of the Old World were ready to come here and lay the foundation of this great nation. Today there are twenty-seven million professing Christians in the United States, owning four-fifths of the wealth of the nation.

Political parties agree that we ought to spread the beneficent influences of our civilization to all parts of the world. The greatest factor in making our country what it is, is Christianity. It becomes the duty of this wealthy nation to spread Christianity among the countless millions whose civilization is retarded and rendered almost impossible by the forms of religion which control them. We as students, ought to study the foreign mission field and become informed as to the marvelous work which has thus far been wrought and is to-day being carried on by our missionaries.

After the address steps were taken toward the organization of Mission Study Classes among the students. John R. Mott's new book, "The Evangelization of the World in this Generation," will be used as a text. Further particulars can be obtained at the Y. M. C. A. office or by speaking to the president of either association.

Dear Father:—After bucking hard all the week I took a constitutional around the pack up town and met several of the boys at the One Minute Coffee House. One fellow ordered "Adam and Eve on a raft" and a cup of fierce coffee. We all followed suit. It proved to be poached eggs on toast and the best Mocha and Java. Send me that V which ma is saving—that "calf money."

Artie.

A great many students are finding that a typewriter is almost a necessity. When we remember that one can get through with from three to ten times as much work on a typewriter as with a pen it does not seem strange that they are coming into almost universal use.

The Madison Cycle Co. at 113 State street rents all makes at very reasonable rates and also carries a full line of typewriter supplies.

Coach Hollister, in an interview after the game, said Wisconsin had improved greatly since the P. & S. game but that her team work was still ragged. The Coach was well pleased with Beloit's showing.

Jerry Riordan and Driver did the best ground gaining for the Badgers with Curtis a close third.

Cochens and Larson played out the entire game although neither had had two day's practice.

Before the game the general impression in Milwaukee seemed to be that Beloit would win; at least would score on Wisconsin.

The regular dose of King's tonic between halves had the desired effect, the play of the men in the second being much better.

One of the features of the game was of Griesel's punt in the end of the second half. Recovering the ball after fumbling a pass, he made the longest kick of the game.
