MORTAR BOARD CHOICE NAMED AT SWING-OUT

Senior Women's Honor Society Elects Eleven Juniors

The selection of 11 junior women to Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, was announced last evening at the Senior Swing-out on Lincoln terrace.

Those elected are: Marion Strassburger, Dorothy Ware, Auta Lyman, Mabel Winter, Ellen Correll, Esther Haven, Ima Winchell, Dorothy Dwight, Frances Beecher, Marjory Thomas, and Caryl Parkinson.

The impressive ceremony started with the long procession of seniors in cap and gown led by Dean F. Louise Nardin and Elizabeth Chandler '21 and followed by the sophomores and freshmen in white, slowly marching to stirring music in two double-breasted columns down the hill to the two garlanded pillars.

Here they were met by the juniors carrying the daisy chain and led by Dorothy Ware and Ellen Correll. An aisle was then formed through which the seniors and underclassmen passed. The juniors grouped themselves in a semi-circle with the seniors massed directly in front of the Lincoln statue.

A Maypole dance was given by a group of 20 girls dressed in white, who, in accord with the old English custom, gracefully twined the brightly colored ribbons about the pole while the simple melody played by violins supplied the music.

The torch of leadership, symbolizing the traditions and ideals of the graduating senior class, was handed down by Elizabeth Chandler, president of Blue Dragon, to the junior class, Dorothy Ware, Yellow Tassel president, accepting it in behalf of the class. Mortar Board elections were then announced by Margaret Crosky, president of Mortar Board.

PIPE OF PEACE WILL BE SMOKED AFTER SENIOR PLAY

Assovsky and Bergerman Will Conduct Traditional Ceremony

Impressive and beautiful, the Pipe of Peace ceremony, to be held on the lower campus after the Senior play, Monday night, June 20, stands out as one of the symbolic and historically interesting customs of Commencement week.

The ceremony will begin at 11:30 with Indian dances and songs around a small fire just below the Library steps. Later Charles D. Assovsky '21 will deliver the Pipe of Peace oration, and after closing he will smoke the traditional Pipe of Peace and then present it, with the senior colors attached, to Melbourne Bergerman '22, who in turn will smoke it and respond for the junior class.

The pipe, which has been used at every graduation, is an immense affair and bears on it ribbons in the colors of all past senior classes.

The Pipe of Peace ceremony is the revival of the ancient custom of early Wisconsin Indians, who, to honor a stranger specially, presented him with the calumet or great pipe in a solemn and impressive ceremony.

Verdant Lids to Burn Tonight in Cap Night Fire

Verdant headgear, worn and unworn, will be taken from freshman heads or the hat racks at home tonight and thrown into the blaze of the traditional Cap night fire to be burned on the lower campus at 7 o'clock. Cap night is the traditional end of freshman inferiority.

"The spirit of the class has been splendid," said James Powell '24, chairman of the committee on arrangements. "Enough money was realized from the sale of our tags on Wednesday to pay all the expenses which we have had to incur."

"We are counting on every member of the freshman class to be on hand all day today on the lower campus to man the trucks and to help guard the wood pile."

The committee has secured a great quantity of wood for the fire, including several small buildings. All of the material has been donated and is now in storage waiting to be gathered. It will be called for today by several large trucks which have been donated. Absolutely nothing will be stolen for the big blaze, according to the committee.

BALL TEAM TO MEET HOOSIERS

Game Called at 1:30 on Account of Track Meet

The Notre Dame baseball team arrived from Beloit yesterday afternoon and is ready again to cross bats with Coach Lowman's Badgers at Camp Randall this afternoon. The former game between the two nines ended in a 3 to 3 tie.

The game will be called at 1:30 in order to allow fans to witness the State Normal school track meet. This is the next to the last game of the season, and a large crowd will undoubtedly be present if the weather continues favorable.

The Wisconsin lineup will be the same as for the past few games. Rollie Williams, Captain Elliott, and Snow will cover the out-field. Jack Williams will handle first base and Cars Lyman will devote his attention to the keystone sack region. Farrington and Ruediger will complete the Badger infield array. Davey will be located in his usual position behind the bat, and will receive from either Christianson or Williams.

Coach Lowman will not select his hurler until immediately before the game. His selection will rest upon the weather and upon the goods displayed by each man while warming up.

Notre Dame had little trouble in disposing of Beloit yesterday by a score of 14 to 3, giving them a string of seven consecutive wins. They landed on the Beloit pitchers for 14 safe hits, while their opponents garnered but three. They have won from some of the strongest teams in the West, among which are Indiana, Northwestern, Purdue, and Michigan Aggies.

"We expect to give Wisconsin a nice run," Coach Hallas stated last night. "The boys remember the 3 to 3 tie at South Bend and are out for a win."

The Notre Dame lineup is as follows: Captain Mohardt, c. f.; Kane, 3b.; Miles, s. s.; Kiley, 2b.; Bliever, nict., c.; Fitzgerald, 1b.; Barry, l. f.; Prokop, r. f.; and either Solyer or Castner, pitcher.

NORMAL CINDER TEAMS MEET AT RANDALL TODAY

Record Breaking Number Will Compete in Sixth Annual Event

A record-breaking number of contestants will compete in the sixth annual Normal school track meet at 3:30 this afternoon on the Camp Randall track. Ninety athletes from eight normal institutions will meet in the 16 events carded this year.

Teams from the following schools will compete in the Normal school track and field games: Milwaukee, La Crosse, Stevens Point, Oshkosh, Superior, Whitewater, River Falls, and Platteville. Of these squads, Stevens Point, 1920 champion, La Crosse, Milwaukee, and Whitewater are expected to furnish the hardest battle for the title, with Oshkosh given an outside chance to finish in first place.

The team from Stevens Point has five veterans who scored 28 points in last year's meet, which they won handily. Oshkosh is pinning its hopes on Capt. McAndrews to bring it to the front in the final standings. McAndrews has won first places consistently in the dashes and the high broad jumps. Although his team was beaten by Stevens Point in a dual meet last Saturday, McAndrews proved the star of the contest. Other Oshkosh point winners are Solbraa, Brasher, Edich in the middle distance runs. Below in the weight events, and Doucette, discuss thrower.

Capt. Van Ells is the individual star of the Milwaukee aggregation. He leads a new team possessing only one veteran, Wojahn, who took third place in the dash last year. Van Ells works in the weight events. He has a record of 40 feet 4 1-2 inches in the shot put and 21 feet in the broad jump. Jenns and Mayer are two other Milwaukeeans who may capture markers for their team.

La Crosse is noticeably weak in the track events, but several field men of marked ability have been counting points for the La Crosse combination. Platteville will send only four entries to the Normal meet. Sixteen men will represent

CO-ED ATHLETES MEET TODAY IN ANNUAL CONTEST

The championship tennis match at 2:30 this afternoon will mark the beginning of the annual Field day program devoted to women's athletics, under the direction of W. A. A. Marjorie Severance '23 is in charge of the Field day program.

The scheduled events for the day are:

Tennis finals, 2:30 p. m.; track meet 3 p. m.; archery contest 3 p. m.; baseball game 4 p. m.; quoits 4:15 p. m. Box lunches will be sold on the field, so that the visitors may stay for the evening program, which includes a Maypole dance at 6:30 p. m. and folk dancing at 6:45 p. m.

The track meet promises to be record-breaking. Last year, three Wisconsin records were broken: Phyllis Hamilton '20, broke the javelin record, Esther Mainland '23 set a new 50 yard dash record, and Olivia Fentress '23, broke the high jump record. Hazel Wright '21 established the record for high hurdles, which were put in last year for the first time as part of the track work.

In the preliminary meet held last week, May 18 and 20, the junior class came out ahead. Jean Kilgour '22 is one of the strongest members of the team, and is certain

10 BADGERS QUALIFY IN BIG 10 MEET

Illinois is Predicted to Win Western Track Classic

(Special to the Cardinal)

CHICAGO, Ill. — With 10 men qualified in preliminary events of Big Ten and track and field games yesterday afternoon Wisconsin stock for high rating rose considerably on the eve of Middle West outdoor track classic. Although Badgers made strong showing in several events critics generally concede the championship to Illinois and give Wisconsin and Michigan outside chances to emerge victor.

Illinois, Conference indoor champions, placed 12 men in the preliminaries. Illini qualifiers were well distributed among various field and track events and predictions that Coach Harry Gill has the best balanced team in the country were justified. Michigan, which placed 10 men, will probably fight out with Wisconsin and Notre Dame for second place today.

Hamilton Stars

The best individual performance of the day was that of Brutus Hamilton, Missouri, who managed to qualify in every one of the five events he entered. Guy Sundt, Wisconsin, was close on the heels of Hamilton with places in three events. Sundt was one of the first six in the broad jump, shot put and javelin throw.

Two Badgers finished up in front in heats of the half mile run. Blodgett took second place after a hard battle with Yates, Illinois; and Captain Nash won the fastest heat in the half mile in the blanket finish over Higgins, Ames.

Vaulters Remain

Three Wisconsin pole vaulters withstood the elimination trials. Merrick, Wilder and McClure remain from a large field of entrants to battle for places in this event. Platten barely skinned over the bar in the high jump to qualify with men as Alberts and Osborne, Illinois, and Murphy, Notre Dame. Reget remains with Sundt in the running broad jump and their showing made yesterday indicates that both men will score in the finals.

Notre Dame had little opportunity to show ability, as the biggest point winners of the Indians are entered in the dashes and hurdlers. Ames displayed strength in the half mile by winning first and second places in heats, but the Iowans are more dangerous in the distance races. They are counted upon to cut in on points heretofore conceded to Illinois in the distances.

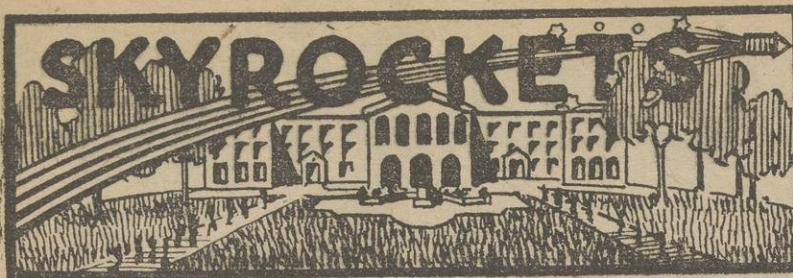

Because only nine entrants will compete in the hammer throw the preliminaries schedule for yesterday were called off and men will

FROSH GET BATH FOR BARE HEADS

Four freshmen, after a short negligee parade through the Latin quarter, were thrown into the lake from the Lake street pier yesterday noon. They were Wallace Babcock, George Kriz, George Gilland, and Philip Rogers.

They had been tried and found guilty of not wearing green caps by Sterling Tracy, judge of the Student Senate summary noon court held at the Union building.

Today we are perplexed. We do not know whether to begin or to start this column. It might be in keeping with this time of year to commence it, however. The column, then, will commence.

On second thought, though, we have decided to begin it.

No, we will start it.

But, having no ideas we are in a beastly fix—in almost as bad a fix as Jerry Crook, who having got nicely lathered up, recently, in anticipation of a shower bath, found that the plumbers had turned off the water. What do you suppose he did?

Which is reminiscent of the anecdote of how ye Duke saved a loydy from drowning. She had floated far out into the briny deep, when the Duke came along, and with quick presence of mind threw her a bar of soap. This soap promptly washed her back. It, we may add was the first time—first time she had ever been saved that way we mean, of course.

NOTES ON THE CARNIVAL
The Thetas had a very good representation thereat the other night. There were not very many of them, but the quality was good.

The Chi Psis called off chapter meeting to attend.

Kirk Avery laid aside his set of moral principles in order to dissipate in the revelry of the affair.

Dean Nardin was not there. (Goodness, we made a slip. We were not to mention her name here again.)

President Warren Harding also was not there.

Lloyd George wasn't either.

In the course of the most everyday existence many amazing things happen. For instance, just this afternoon about 3 o'clock the Carnival was going on. At the very same time—think of it—at exactly 8 o'clock of the same afternoon we were at a moving picture show. The coincidents that one observes from time to time make one wonder just what life is for after all. Whot?

The latest reports are that the $50 Marjorie Coe won in the beauty contest and invested in oil have borne much fruit. It is said her stock turned out to be invested in what became a gusher. Well, well, well!

John Runkel says that if all the hairs he has cut were placed end to end, they would reach completely around the earth 10 times. Now we are far from being a doubting Thom., but such statistics as these that statisticians are forever hurling at one seem just a bit foolish. We ask you did anyone ever try to make hairs reach around the earth? Did anyone ever attempt to pile all the spring wheat together to show it would eclipse the Woolworth

DEAN GOODNIGHT FIXES CALENDAR FOR NEXT YEAR

In order to avoid a conflict of events and to give each organization as favorable a date as possible for their major activities, Dean S. H. Goodnight, chairman of the Committee on Student Life and Interest, yesterday sent letters to the heads of all campus organizations urging them to help compile a calendar of events for next year, 1921-1922.

The letter asks that the officers send to the office of the dean before Tuesday, June 7, the dates which they wish to have reserved for their activities.

"In former years," Dean Goodnight said, "there have always been conflicts. Big events have had to be scheduled for the same day simply because the dates were not arranged far enough in advance. Of course, dates in many cases cannot be set so early but for the most important it is quite probable that they are already known."

10 BADGERS QUALIFY IN BIG 10 MEET

Illinois is Picked for Winner of Western Track Classic

Start in with final throws this afternoon.

"It looks as if Illinois will win," declared Walter Eckersall, Chicago Tribune sport writer yesterday, as the last event was finished.

"Illinois is the logical choice for victor in the conference meet," said Coach Thomas Jones. Their four places in quarter and half mile runs and their eight places in field events make them the most formidable team entered. Wisconsin will battle with Michigan and Notre Dame for second place.

Summary of preliminary events follows:

440 yard run—First heat, winner, Butler, Michigan; second, Fields, Illinois. Time 51 seconds. Second heat, winner, Donohoe, Illinois; second, Lewis, Michigan. Time 51 2-5 seconds. Third heat, winner, Szold, Northwestern; second, Maxwell, Missouri. Time 53 2-5 seconds. Fourth heat, winner, Wetzel, Michigan; tied for second, Degay, Michigan Aggies and Schlappizzi, Illinois. CHAD WOMEN HONOR MOTHERS WITH FESTIVAL

The annual festival given at Chadbourne hall Thursday evening in honor of the mothers was exotic and beautiful enough to fully live up to the expectations one might derive from its name "Down from the Sky."

In the center of the room a fountain played, surrounded by ferns, and around this the entire action of the play took place. The lines of the play were written by Marion Thauer '24, and the music was composed by Jane Salisbury '21.

Flora Boddin '22, who played the part of the "Master of Madness," held the center of the stage and called forth the planets. First of the astral bodies to come were the star maidens who danced in, winding their way around the fountain and scattering flowers as they went. The scene was bathed in all the colors of the rainbow, gradually changing from rich rose to pale lavender.

Next to come was the comet whose bright robe and roving ways were looked upon with scorn by her pale sisters, the other planets, and who at the bidding of the master of madness danced her comet-like way among the star maidens.

The astrologer from Mars was now called forth and came accompanied by all the signs of the Zodiac, in a weirdly grotesque dance. In order to put the audience in the proper frame of mind to appreciate the horoscope read by the astrologer, brightly colored caps were distributed and the master of madness directed the audience to don them, giving the room the appearance of a gayly blooming flower garden.

After the entertainment was completed, the guests gathered in the parlors where a reception was held and refreshments were served.

MORTAR BOARD ELECTIONS

THROUGH the elections to Mortar Board, women's national honorary senior society, the women of the university do honor to those who by their outstanding achievements and efforts have been singled out for this coveted distinction.

Mortar Board standards embody the highest scholarship, service to the university, and the quality recognized as womanliness.

Mortar Board is unique among honorary societies to which undergraduates are eligible in that its members alone do not presume to select the women whose names are to be engrossed on the scroll of honor. All undergraduate women in the university are given the opportunity to express their choice of those who are to be thus signally honored.

The ceremonial which took place last night as part of Senior Swingout was nothing more than the announcement of the results of the solemn referendum of all women interested. Such a scheme of selection is the only one that can be properly and fairly representative of the consensus of opinion and judgment. Mortar Board's method of election is perfectly fair and entirely above criticism.

The fact that the number to be elected is so small makes the honor all the more valued, and it must of necessity deny recognition to a number of splendid women who have accomplished great things—those who were just on the very borderline of the circle of those elected.

The Cardinal wishes to express the felicitations of both students and faculty to the women who have won the great honor—a tribute extended to them by their peers—for the work they have accomplished in extra-curricular activities and for the high scholarship they have attained.

FIELD DAY

THIS week-end is dedicated to the Wisconsin co-ed.

Senior Swing-out and the Dance Drama last night supplemented by women's Field day this afternoon offer to the student body a diversity of important campus functions which merit the support of the entire student body.

The rest of the Conference may not know it, but we at Wisconsin pride ourselves on the athletic inclination of the Badger co-ed.

Add to this the fact that the women's athletic department rates as one of the best in the country. If there is any school in the country which can consistently do away with the "co" in its co-educational activities, Wisconsin is entitled to take the lead.

Women's Field Day offers the only opportunity for the student body to show its appreciation for and interest in the athletic activities of the co-eds. We invariably find time to attend inter-class, inter-fraternity, and inter-college athletic matches among the men and it should be a relatively easy matter to apportion an hour or two for supporting an all-university athletic project of the women.

Plan to be a Camp Randall this afternoon.

DANCE CLASSES
END YEAR WITH OPEN AIR DRAMA

By A. B. M.

All natural grace and flawless beauty, the Dance Drama in the open-air theater last night was a fitting culmination of Miss Margaret H'Doubler's work in her dancing classes throughout this year, and all the years during which her methods have been taught.

The setting, with the stars for a roof and trees for walls, added much to the simplicity and effectiveness of the dances. The lighting and all the mechanics of the production were conspicuously successful.

The Dance Drama itself, "Orpheus and Eurydice," was the last piece on a program of 11 admirably selected dances of many and varied characters. In it were presented the unity of action and the moral beauty of an old Greek tragedy, in addition to the emotional beauty of the dancing, which was finished and faultless. Julia Hanks '21, and Janet Epstein '21, as Orpheus and Eurydice, interpreted their parts with great imagination and feeling.

"The Fairy Thorn," a dance suggested by an old ballad, had in it much of the bewitching quality and magic of the folk-tale by which it was inspired. Like "Orpheus and Eurydice," it was in a large degree dramatic.

One of the most charming and popular parts of the program were "Les Petites Etudes," four fantastic little studies, which included the martial and captivating "Soldiers' Chorus," the hilarious, playful "Sing a song of Six Pence," a colorful study called "Pas de Trois," and a characterful caricature which won everyone's hearts, "An Harlequinade." Eleanor Riley '21 stood out especially in these studies.

Wild and pagan, the legend of Pan occupied an unique place on the program with its unrestrained vigor and life. The ethereal, cold clarity of the "Danse au Clair de Lune," was caught and communicated to the audience by the graceful dancers.

IOWA FRESHMEN
BEAT BADGERS IN WIRE TRACK MEET

The Badger freshmen track team was defeated by the University of Iowa freshmen in a dual telegraphic meet held Thursday afternoon, by a score of 84 1-2 to 55 1-2.

Nohr, Sherman, Amory, Hammann, Benishuk, Gibson, and Stehr were the only Wisconsin men to place first in the events. Nohr tied for first with Brookins of Iowa in the 100 yard dash, both runners crossing the line in 10 1-10 seconds.

Sherman had an easy time in the mile run, leading Robinson, Iowa, by nearly half a minute at the finish. Amory won the two mile run for Wisconsin by covering the distance in 10 minutes 50 4-5 seconds.

Hammann took first in the pole vault, while Benishuk easily won the hammer throw. Stehr, Yandes, and Schraeder added to Wisconsin's points when they scored a slam in the javelin throw. Gibson placed first in the high jump by clearing the bar at 5 feet 10 inches.

Iowa gained most of her points by taking all places in the 440 yard dash, the 880 yard run, discus throw and the relay race.

The summaries are as follows:

100 yard dash—Nohr, W., and Brookins, I., tied for first; Cornwell, W., and Plato, I., tied for third. Time 10 1-5 seconds.

220 yard dash—Brookins, I., first; Plato, I., second; Nohr, W., third. Time 22 seconds.

440 yard dash—Morrow, I., first; Reed, I., second; Thompson, I., third. Time 52 3-5 seconds.

Whitewater, which has a team of unknown quality.

Normal school meets previous to 1920 were alternated between La Crosse and Whitewater, but with the success of the meet held last year in Madison, the state conference decided to make it an annual event at Madison. Two recognized intercollegiate events have been added to the program. The two mile run and the 16-pound hammer throw, which have not been held heretofore, will complete a list of 16 events.

University of Wisconsin athletic stars and coaches will direct the meet under Big Ten athletic rules. The system of scoring will differ from that employed in Western Conference tourneys. Instead of counting the first five men to place, only three places will be counted, first place earning five points, second place three points, and third place one point. A silver cup will be awarded to the school scoring the most points and a silver cup will go to the winning relay team. Gold, silver, and bronze medals are to be given to individual high point men.

The entries for the meet follow: Milwaukee—Van Ells, Tyre, Foley, Regan, Jenks, Wojahn, Thiessenhusen, Jung, Smithyman, Eggert, Jones, Mayer, Read, Brown, Katz, Mecker, Sorenson, Maasch, Jackson, Zaluski, Stoll, Larson.

La Crosse—Schrader, Reget, Knutson, Thompson, Dahlgren, Hansen, Royal, Field, Nutting, Sanford, Spalding, McConnell, Rippe, Dean, Wrench, Moran, Gautsch, Glassbrenner, Kiesler.

Whitewater—Watson, Amos, Cramer, Richardson, Fellows, Rupple, Lawrence, Carlson, Olson, Larkin, Myer, Tice, Mumbrus, McMasters, Wagener, Van Duser.

TOMORROW IS ZOO TAG DAY

Final Preparations Made For Drive; Exhibit Animals

Tomorrow is Zoo Tag Day.

A part of the Zoo will be on display for the children up-town on Saturday. Grown folks are urged to take a look at the famous "Jiggs." A large number of taggers could not be made available so everyone is urged to come up-town and kindly consent to be tagged. The Girls of the Civic League have volunteered to do the tagging and they will report for duty at their office early Saturday morning and receive their assignments.

F. W. Hoyt, First National Bank, is treasurer and advance contributions may be made to him. Three other stations have been established, Kroncke Hardware store, Wolf, Kubly and Hirsig's Pinckney st. store, Blied and Sons, opposite Park Hotel. There will likewise be taggers at the tents. Checks put in the taggers boxes should be made out to F. W. Hoyt, treasurer.

A great deal of encouragement has been given the movement by many people including Mayor Kittleson, officials of the Park and Pleasure Drive Association, members of the Common Council, the newspapers and individuals connected with business and industrial concerns.

Superintendent of Schools Meek, and those in charge of all of the parochial schools, have instructed each teacher to read a statement to each class Friday encouraging the children to see the animals on exhibit on Saturday and secure the official tag button.

It is the desire to have all school children wear the button and keep it to remind them that the animals at the Zoo belong to them. No collection or tagging will take place in the schools.

It will be impossible to announce the final results until Monday night, as the counters will be busy on Saturday counting the moneys received and a check up cannot be secured from the treasurer until Monday.

WISCONSIN WOMEN
HONOR MME. CURIE AT NEW YORK MEET

Badgers Contribute $147.50 to Fund for Radium Gift

A large Wisconsin banner hung among those of the eastern colleges at the Marie Curie welcome meeting recently held in New York by the American Association of University women. The occasion was the arrival in America from Paris of Madame Marie Curie, the co-discoverer of radium.

The occupants of the Wisconsin box were nine alumnae, who, at the request of Dean F. Louise Nardin, represented the university. The alumnae were the Misses Harriet O'Shea, Alice Van Hise, Bernice Campbell, Herminie Haller, Henrietta Brown, and the Mesdames H. H. Scott, Florence Bemis Reed, Marion Hartley Joys, and Mary Sain Bontzall.

The contribution of the university toward the $100,000 fund raised by the women of America to purchase a gram of radium for Mademoiselle Curie was $147.50. Of this amount, the S. G. A. contributed $25, the women students interested in science $20, and the faculty $102.50. The Wisconsin committee for the raising of this money consisted of Miss Abby Marlatt, chairman, Mrs. M. B. Rosenberry, and the Misses Margaret H'Doubler, S. I. Morris, F. Louise Nardin, Elizabeth A. Smith, F. M. Bachmann, and H. J. Wakeman. The radium was presented to Mademoiselle Curie by President Warren S. Harding in Washington two days after the meeting, and will be used by her in research work in medicine.

Since the death in 1906 of her husband, with whom she shares honor for the discovery of radium, Mademoiselle Curie has been a teacher in the Paris Sorbonne and has had no means to purchase the radium necessary to further research. In the bestowal of this gift, the women of America have gratified a long-cherished wish of Mademoiselle Curie, and have honored her in a way which is peculiar ly fitting, and which will be a further aid to science, future aid to science.

After a brief tour of America, Mademoiselle Curie will sail for France, June 25.
