The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

She Bent Over

One time there was a man who saw a raised butt. They say this was an old custom for when a woman pursues another woman's man and they use this on them so they change them. There were these two women who were neighbors and one was pursuing the other's man. He was going there just about every night.

Then this one night she asked him not to go but even more so he went out. So she made preparations and took a short cut and got herself there first. Then along the road where he had gone just a short ways around, she waited. In a little while he is coming whistling and she bent over and lifted her dress so only her eyes were showing. He must have seen the way it was ahead and he slowed down his whistling and nearby he retreated little by little. Then it got faster. So she went home and as she got back, she went to lie down.

In a while he returned and she said, "You're back so soon. What happened?" He said, "I saw something about three feet in size and with a great big face." He was so scared that never again did he go to see her.
