BREAKWATER IS NEEDED SAYS CAPTAIN ISABEL

"We need a breakwater as bad as we need a gym," said Captain Isabel when asked his opinion as to the need of a breakwater on Lake Mendota.

"The other night when there was a storm I almost lost both the Cardinal and the Isabel. The Cardinal did go on the rocks, the door of the boat house was broken, and a considerable amount of damage was done," he declared.

"When I first came here eight years ago, a breakwater was started but it was never finished. I can not say why it was not finished," the Captain added. "It may be because of the lack of money but it seems to me that something ought to be done to protect not only boats but lives. For instance, if a storm should blow up on Venetian night and if there was a breakwater I could tow all the boats into that. As it is I could not do much very quickly and some lives might be lost."

"If we could have a breakwater just twenty five feet out and seventy five feet long it would be a big help," Captain Isabel stated.

CHORAL UNION PRESENTS "FAUST" HERE TONIGHT

The Choral Union will present "Faust" an opera, in a prologue and three acts at 8:15 o'clock this evening at Music hall. The text is adapted from the Libretto of Carre and Barbier, by F. Flowers, Candy, Telegrams and Specials Sent in Mothers' Honor

Mother's day is fast becoming one of the most widely recognized and celebrated of days. Judging from the boxes of candy, telegrams, special letters, and flowers that were sent to and from Madison over the last week-end, the day has grown in popularity by leaps and bounds since last year, and is vying with such holidays as Christmas and Thanksgiving in the amount of small remembrances sent.

The local floral dealers report that there is no day in the year when so many flowers are bought. On Saturday and Sunday there were literally thousands of carnations and roses purchased in the city. The flower shops were crowded all day Sunday, and in the kind of people who remember Mother's day and neglect other days at least as far as the wearing of bowers is concerned, Mr. Fred Rentschler of the Rentschler Floral company says, "People of every age and every station of life, many of them did not even know the difference between a rose and a carnation, and who I know buy flowers on no other day, came to us Sunday for a flower to wear in memory of their mothers."

Mr. F. S. Choles, manager of the New York and Alpha Floral shops reports that he was entirely sold out except for a few white carnations. It was by far the best Mother's day that they ever had.

Hundreds of orders for flowers and hundreds of small Mother's day messages were sent by telegraph. Mr. A. G. Tappen, manager of the Madison Western Union company, said that their business increased 200 per cent over last year at the same time, and that their business was swelled more than 1200 per cent over the normal week-end.

It was the same at the post office. Everybody agreed that this was the biggest Mother's day that he had ever experienced.

CONCERT OPENS VENETIAN NITE

Fancy Driving and Fireworks Will Follow For Evening Program

A formal band concert will start the special feature stunts of Venetian night to be held on May 26, according to Thomas Morony '25, chairman of the special feature committee. Fancy diving will follow this and an immense fireworks display will be the crowning event of the evening.

The concert will be given from 7 to 8 o'clock by the University band from a specially constructed platform erected between the University boat house and the Y. M. C. A. The stand will be next to the lake in order that boaters and canoers may be able to hear the music from the water. Seats will be provided for those unfortunate enough to be without barks of some description that evening.

Men and Women Compete

Men and women students compete for fancy diving prizes from the University spring board and high dive tower off the University pier immediately following the band concert. The contest will begin about 8 o'clock and the divers will perform under huge spot-lights located in the tower of the boat house.

Fireworks Display

The crowning event of the evening will be an immense fireworks display to be given from a barge located near the center of the lake, and which will take place about 10 o'clock. Vari-colored bombs, star and explosion shells, roman candles, lighted balloons and many other types of show will be used in the display.

Men who are carrying out the arrangements for the special features are Thomas Morony '25, chairman, Orin Wernecke '26, John Bergstreser '25, Frank Stegeman '25, and Eugene Tuhtar '25.

WEATHER: RAIN

Rain and colder is the forecast for today. Tomorrow may be fair and warmer.

TRY FRESHMEN AS VIOLATORS OF TRADITIONS

Twenty-six freshmen who have violated frosh traditions will be tried before the student court on Thursday. The cases were taken up upon the recommendation of the sophomore traditions committee, and if the offenders are found guilty they will receive sentences which may involve the loss of credits. Another court session will probably be held some time next week at which time other offenders will be called to answer charges.

Professor Ross Talks to Press Club on Journalism

"My Views of Journalism" is the subject of Prof. E. A. Ross's address before the University Press club tonight. The meeting, which will probably be the last one of the year, will be held at the Delta Pi Delta fraternity house, beginning at 7 o'clock.

TEACHERS PLAN SUMMER STUDY

Many Noted Professors Come to Give Courses Here

Teachers, and prospective teachers of high schools are being offered unusual opportunities for study during summer school session.

Many fine teachers from outside the university are being brought here, among them Professor Pichel of the University of California who will give courses in dramatic production, Professor Kohs, psychologist in the court of domestic relations in Portland, Ore., lecturer in education, and Prof. The Svedberg of the University of Upsala, Sweden, who will lecture on chemistry.

There will be professors from the Universities of Minnesota, Texas, Oregon, Randolph-Macon North-western, Illinois, Wellesley, Ohio, California, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan, Grinnell, Pennsylvania, and La Crosse Normal.

G. H. Stuart assistant professor of political science will be in the university for the last time this summer as he will leave in the fall for Leland Stanford university.

Professors Gillen and Ross of the sociology department will both give courses. It is unusual for both these professors, who are big men in their field to teach at the same university in the summer. Professor Ross has always gone to another university previously.

The following courses deal chiefly with methods for high school: accounting, agricultural education and journalism, bacteriology, botany, chemistry, civics, classics, courses for commercial teachers, descriptive geometry, dramatic production, all courses in education, English, mathematics, home economics, industrial education, journalism, moral education, music, physical education, psychology, romance languages speech, plant diseases and zoology.

AGS, HOME-ECS PICNIC TODAY AT RAIMIER FARM

Students and faculty members of the College of Agriculture and the Home Economics course will lay aside their books this afternoon to join in the fourth annual Agricultural College Federation picnics at the Raimier Farm.

Parties are scheduled to leave Agricultural hall at 3:30 o'clock 4:30 o'clock, and 5:30 o'clock for the picnic site. Red arrows will be posted along the lake drive to guide the picnickers to the picnic grounds.

A committee on plays and games promises to meet the students at the Raimier farm to lead the group in group games. Indoor baseball, races, tugs of war, and other feats are among the attractions.

Under the direction of Elsie Hodgson '23, large quantities of refreshments have been prepared for those who attend. Tickets may be procured for the picnic on the campus at 25c each.

SENIORS APPLY FOR TICKETS TO COMMENCEMENT

More Than 200 File Requests

Approximately 200 applicants for tickets for the commencement exercises have already been received at George A. Chandler's office and placed on file.

The letters are all stamped with the date on which they are received at the office, and placed together. Letters to the seniors explaining the plan were mailed Friday and Saturday, and all of them should have been received by this time. Any senior who has not an application blank may secure one in 151 Bascom.

About 1,600 persons are expected to receive degrees at the exercises according to the registrar's advance figures.

Pavilion Holds 4,000

"The capacity of the Stock Pavilion as we have estimated it for the Galli-Curci concert is 3,500; although 4,000 could be seated with a great deal of crowding," said Dr. Charles Mills, head of the Music school when asked about the number of seats.

This is the second year that tickets have been given out for the commencement exercises. Before that people were admitted to the pavilion until the full capacity was reached and the doors were shut, regardless of who was shut out.

The tickets are not for definite seats in the pavilion and provide for general admission only. The seats are not numbered in any way for the event.

Letters Sent Seniors

The plan as outlined in the letter sent to the seniors allows two tickets for each senior for the use of immediate relatives. Seniors who will not need tickets for relatives are expected not to send in any application for tickets. This will provide a surplus of extra tickets for those seniors who will need more than the original two. No guarantee is made to seniors who fail to meet the exact requirements.

Reservations must be made on the regulation form and sent to

WOOD SATISFIED WITH ATTITUDE OF STUDENTS

Major Wood stated yesterday that the attitude of the student body as to courtesy to the colors and the national anthem was good and the errors were due largely to ignorance and not discourtesy.

When the "Star Spangled Banner" is played or the colors pass in review, rise, face the music or the flag, stand at attention and salute. The civilian salute is to hold the head-dress in front of the left shoulder. During rainy weather it may be slightly raised so as to protect the head.

The military salute is the customary one to superior officers. Women rise and remain silent when the colors pass or the anthem is played.

Sun Heat on Earth Is Decreasing; Reason For Present Cold Weather

Crop Famine Threatened By Meteorological Experts; Talk Of Spots

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Abnormal weather prevailing throughout the country is but a foretaste of what may be expected during the remainder of this year, and for several years to come, according to data just made public by a Senate Committee, headed by Senator McNary, that has been studying crop insurance.

This committee publishes testimony offered by meteorological and astro-physical experts advocating in addition to crop insurance, the inauguration of an extensive system of grain storage by the government, in anticipation of diminishing yields.

Some of these witnesses went as far as to predict that yearly crops would be smaller until 1926 and 1927, when there would be complete failure and famine, not only in the United States, but throughout the world.

Fortunately for the peace of mind of farmers and other citizens, experts are not united in their direful forecasts. There are two schools of weather prophets, one taking the position that the freakish weather of this spring results from a confusion of traffic rules in the air lanes, the other holding that sun spots are alone responsible.

Among the latter are Dr. C. G. Abbott, astrophysical expert of the Smithsonian Institute, who has been studying sun spots for nearly a quarter of a century. He says that the sun's heat has been shrinking for three or four years, until the loss to the earth amounts to between 3 and 4 per cent.

Prof. Ellsworth Huntington, of Yale University, has worked out estimates that are quoted in the Senate Committee's statement showing that a decrease of sun heat, equalling 4 per cent, if maintained for perhaps a hundred years, would bring a glacial period to the world.

Dr. Abbott declares that the loss of sun heat is the greatest ever noted since the Smithsonian Institution began making its studies in 1905.

Data compiled by Dr. Abbott has been used by Herbert J. Browne, meteorologist, in support of his appeal to the Senate Committee to consider the advisability of launching the government upon a great campaign of grain storage in anticipation of the evil day that one group of scientists say is ahead of the country.

Mr. Brown says that the nation is entering upon a period of short crops, and points to the recent federal crop report as proof of his contention that the yield is slowly but surely decreasing, and will end up with actual famine conditions. He declared that historic famines throughout the world can be traced to sun spot activity.

"The wheat crop in the United States this year will be the smallest we have had in twenty years," says Mr. Browne. "We are in the third year of a period of weather abnormality, and if this means an eventual famine, as I think it does, it also means that the government alone can intervene and protect the situation. Instead of providing a market for export, we should accumulate wheat in the United States."

Sun spots, said Mr. Browne, run in cycles of 11 years and 1 month, and the crisis of the present situation will come in 1926 or 1927. He quotes Sir William Beveridge, an eminent English meteorologist, as having worked out estimates showing that 1923 would be a famine year. Corrections have been made in Sir William's mathematics, Mr. Browne added, that advance the year of almost complete crop failure to 1927.

"We should remember," Mr. Browne told the Senate Committee,

"what occurred in the United States in 1914 and consider that that disaster was governed by the sun spot maxim period, a 55.6 year period, and that we will come into the second 55.6 year period in 1927-27. We are also running into an earthquake period, and that volcanic explosions will follow is reasonably certain."

Is Motor Vehicle Replacing Horse?

Is the horse out of date? In this world of ever-increasing numbers of autos, airplanes, and motor-driven vehicles some people claim that the horse is becoming a back number.

Not so very long ago when we were kids we remember that our biggest ambition was to be a cowboy sitting astride of a bucking broncho and grasping the world fairly by the horns.

Is the youth of today visualizing the same ambition, or is it a dream of grasping the wheel of a 90-mile-an-hour racer or to fly among the clouds at a 245-mile-an-hour clip?

Surely let us hope that the day will never come when we can view the horse only in a museum. The horse, man's noblest and best friend, let us cherish and admire him always.

NORTHWESTERN PLAYS TODAY

COLD WEATHER HINDERS CREW IN STEADY WORK

Coach Not Yet Sure of Line-up

The 1923 varsity crew is progressing slowly due to getting out on the lake late, and the bad weather that they have encountered since they have been out. The ice stayed on longer than usual and the lake has been so rough that in the past ten days the men have been able to practice only five days.

According to Coach "Dad" Vail the men are progressing as quickly as possible. It is too early a yet to pick any men for a definite position. The men who have been rowing will have to show their stuff in the long stretches before they can be assured of a place in the first shell. Changes in the tentative lineup will be made as soon as long trips can be taken on the lake.

Positions Not Sure

The men who have been rowing in the first shell so far this spring are Newcomb, stroke; Captain Johnson, 7; Crozier, 6; Schutz, 5; Okerstrom, 4; Bentson, 3; Kingston, 2; and Ely at number one. In the second shell Bacchus is at stroke, Art Platten, 7; Plettner, 6; W. S. Smith, 5; Klussendorf, 4; Jax, 3; Puestow, 2; Holmes, 1. Some of these men will undoubtedly be changed around as soon as they have an opportunity to show what they can do.

First Meet on May 22

The first meet of the season will probably be with Duluth on the twenty-second of this month. Coach Vail expects to have a fair crew developed by that time so that the men can make a good showing in the activities of the Venetian night week-end. Duluth has not definitely accepted, but acceptance is expected from them within the near future. At the same time the second crew will row against the St. John's eight. On the second of June there is a tentative meet scheduled with the Culver boatmen at Culver. The University of Washington may stop here on their way east for the Poughkeepsie Regatta. If they do the Badger oarsmen will row against them about the sixteenth of June.

The prospects for a crew to go east next year are slim according to the coach. About eight of this year's regulars will be lost and the available material will not be of such calibre as to warrant sending them to Poughkeepsie. Some new men may come up out of this year's frosh crew that can take the places of those who are graduating.

California Coach Sends 13 Athletes to Field Classic

Coach Christie of the University of California is banking heavily on his thirteen athletes which he is sending to this year's renewal of the intercollegiate track and field classic at Philadelphia, May 25 and 26, to retain the trophy for the third consecutive year.

CAMPUS ENEMIES WILL TAKE BAT

Engineers and lawyers will go far towards settling their long-standing feud when baseball teams representing the two colleges clash in a game on the lower campus at 4 o'clock next Thursday.

Shysters and plumbers have worked hard to develop strong nines and a good exhibition of the national game is expected to result. Neither outfit has announced batteries or line-ups, but both will be represented by the best players possible.

Fraternity ball games scheduled for the lower campus will be postponed until after the Engineer-Lawyer contest.

MAY 25 IS "W" DAY ON CAMPUS

All Letter Men Will Wear Emblems at Chicago Game at Randall

Friday, May 25, will be "W" day at Wisconsin, when every man who has won his "W" will be expected to wear it on the campus and at the Chicago baseball game in the afternoon at Camp Randall.

A special section of the bleachers will be reserved at the game for the wearers of the "W," who will be specially honored on the occasion, the day before the big interscholastic track and field meet. Members of the "W" club will attend the Chicago game in a body.

To earn a "W" a man must maintain a scholastic record better than is required of the average student, and at the same time he is required to spend many long hours in training for the particular branch of sport in which he is entered.

Wrestling to Be Added as Varsity Sport at Michigan

The University of Michigan is securing Richard Barker, present coach of all Cornell athletics at Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia., as head wrestling coach and assistant football coach. Alabama U. Man Wins Golf Title From Coast Champion

Jack Cranshaw, University of Alabama, defeated G. F. Lamprecht of Tulane, gulf coast champion, 4 and 4, last Saturday winning the southern intercollegiate golf title. Lamprecht went out in 43 and came in in 26. Cranshaw's figures were 38 out and 24 in. Lamprecht was left 1 up when the first eighteen holes of their thirty-six hole title match were played on Friday.

Frosh Take on Telegraphic Track Meet With Michigan

The Badger freshmen will enter the second telegraphic track meet of the spring season tomorrow when they encounter the strong Michigan yearlings. The Wisconsin men barely eked out a victory over Iowa last week and hope to repeat the performance against the Wolverine first year men.

The Michigan team is reported to be a fast aggregation, however, and the best work of every Badger frosh will need to be enlisted to win the meet.

Methodists Lose Ball Game to Baptists at Annual Picnic

By a score of 18 to 16 the Baptists won the baseball game from the Methodists at the annual picnic of the Baptist students association Saturday afternoon at Vilas park. Special stunts were put on for the picnic besides the ball game. A picnic supper at 6:30 ended the festivities.

TEAM RESUMES TRACK WORK AFTER VICTORY

Difficult Season Seen Ahead

With two victories and no defeats to its credit for the outdoor season, the Badger track team resumed practice at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon.

While the Badgers have decisively put away their first two opponents, Chicago and Minnesota, by good scores, the most difficult part of the season is ahead of them.

Illinois, with her squad of winning track men, is next on the program and the dope has it that Wisconsin will taste defeat for the first time during the outdoor season when they toe the mark against the Illini.

Doing extremely good work in runs and receiving much unexpected support in the field events, the Badgers took the strong Minnesota team into camp last Saturday by an 81 to 54 score.

Pole Vaulters Slam

Three Badger pole vaulters upset the Gopher's plans and slammed the event. Where Minnesota was expected to win in almost all the weight events, Van Ells and Nichols, Badger heavy weight men, managed to slip in enough places to avert defeat easily.

Nichols took a first place in the hammer event, while Van Ells followed him with a second to let the Gophers in on only one point. Van Ells also worked well in the shot event when he heaved the pill 41 feet 3 inches to place second to the well-known Gross of Minnesota.

Jumpers Make Good

The broad jump also proved that the Badger team is not entirely devoid of distance jumpers. Johnson and Muzzy took second and third places in the event.

Wisconsin continued the excellent work it has shown in the runs by slamming in the two-mile and the mile runs, and taking the first two places in the half mile run.

The high jump ended with one Minnesota man and two Wisconsin men all tied for first place with the bar at 6 feet 1 inch. Tuhar and Donohue were both working in good form and they barely missed the bar when it was placed two inches higher.

While the meet with Illinois next Saturday on the enemy track is certain to be the stiffest of the year for Wisconsin, Badger coaches are looking ahead to the conference meet which will be held at Ann Arbor on June 2. The best material from all conference schools will be represented at this meet and Wisconsin looks forward to redeeming itself for the poor showing the men made in the indoor conference meet.

Man Killed When Head Strikes Against Pole

HUDSON, Wis.—Edward W. Johnson, 21, St. Paul, Minn., was killed near here early today in a peculiar accident. His automobile developed engine trouble and it was being towed to St. Paul. While a friend steered the machine, Johnson stood on the running board. As the car went around a curve in the road, Johnson leaned too far out and his head struck a telephone pole, fracturing his skull.

Attempt Is Made To Blow Up Troop Train

ESSEN—A French troop train with a brigade of artillery on board was stopped fifty yards short of disaster near Osterfeld where a big steel bridge across the Rhine-Herne Canal and the supports on both sides were blown up by a heavy charge of dynamite as the train was approaching. The explosion was apparently timed too quickly and the noise warned the engineer.

WAUKEGAN, Ill.—Arne Seldal, 31, Madison, and Frieda Zingg, 25, Verona, obtained a marriage license here today.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT GETS UNDER WAY

The annual spring inter-class tennis tournament is fairly well under way several matches of the first round being completed.

The winner of each class will be determined before the final inter-class competition is started. Competition is certain to be keen in the last few matches with several men of near varsity caliber in the lineup.

Campbell is a strong sophomore who is a possible tourney winner, but he has Hentzen, a fast senior to compete with before he carries away the honors.

Numerals will be awarded freshmen winners and runners-up.

London Labor Bodies Protest British Note

LONDON—Labor organizations held meetings yesterday in protest against the British ultimatum to Russia.

AY BE SO BUT—WE'D LIKE TO SEE THE 100,000 GRAN

"Babe" Pinelli.

Squire Charles Ebbets who owns a minor league ball club in the big league town of Brooklyn is said to have offered $100,000 to the Cincy Reds for "Babe" Pinelli, third baseman. It may be so but when Ebbets pays 100,000 grand for a ball player the Reds will have to throw in the Beertown city hall, a couple of breweries and the U. S. mint.

PURPLE COMES FOR GAME WITH BADGERS TODAY

Contest Starts at 3:30 O'Clock

Northwestern comes here this afternoon to meet the Badgers in Wisconsin's sixth Conference baseball game. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Northwestern ranks seventh in the Big Ten percentage column, with two wins and five losses. They broke even with Indiana, Chicago and Purdue, and lost to Minnesota. They have been going stronger in every game. The Gophers had to extend themselves to win in a ninth inning rally. The Purple lost one and won one scrap last week in their invasion of the Hoosier state, losing at Prudue and winning from Indiana.

Should Be Hard Game

With good baseball weather, this should be one of the hardest games on the Badger schedule, as both teams have just found their stride. Coach Lowman would not predict a win in speaking of the game last night.

If the Badgers can turn the trick it will place them in a tie for third place in the standing with Ohio State and Minnesota. At present they rate fifth place.

Lowman sent his men through a hard batting practice yesterday afternoon, but otherwise the team took things easy. The four pitchers merely loosened up their arms and the infield picked up some grounders. The outfielders came in for lots of work catching grounders and chasing flies. They worked especially toward perfecting teamwork with the infield in relaying the hits in to the plate.

Pickford May Pitch

No choice has been made for slab work this afternoon. It is not likely that Johnson will open the guns, for he pitched hard Saturday, and the Badgers have an important contest this week-end at Illinois. Pickford or Radke may be sent to the mound, with Johnson in reserve.

Chuck Palmer will do the throwing for the Purple outfit. He has done practically all their pitching this year and is one of the mainstays in the batting order as well, being situated in the clean-up post. Palmer is also a famous Conference football man.

Stegmen is Good

Stegmen, catcher, is another important figure on Northwestern's team. He and Taber, second baseman count heavily with their bats. Bryant at shortstop is a heady player who strengthens the infield considerably.

One of the biggest upsets of the season came Saturday when Michigan kept her slate clear of a defeat by whipping Illinois at Urbana. Considering that the Wolverines had just lost Robert Knobe, their star first sacker, because of ineligibility, and that they were playing away from home against a team made up of experienced Big Ten players, it was an upset. This victory places Michigan in a good way to cop the pennant. At the present Ohio State seems to be coming strong. Michigan gave Ohio their only defeat.

Probable lineups for today's game:

Wisconsin	Northwestern
Williams lf.	Nelson lf.
Becker cf.	Johnson cf.
Servatius rf.	Stegmen c.
Aschenbrenner C.	Palmer p.
Tebell 3b.	Taber 2b.

Harold Cary In City For Mother's Day

Son Of Mr. and Mrs. C. P.
Cary Journeys Here
From New York

Of the numerous sons who made trips to Madison to be with their mothers yesterday, perhaps none is more interesting than the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cary, 529 West Washington avenue, Harold Cary, news writer of national reputation, who journeyed from New York arriving in Madison last Wednesday, and left for Tennessee last night.

While the major part of his time was spent with his parents, Mr. Cary was in Madison on a magazine assignment especially to gather material for a coming article on the advisability and administration of state labor laws for women and children.

Recent numbers of Collier's have carried many articles written by Mr. Cary on economy and beauty in building small homes, in which he has sympathized with Flagg, New York architect, who is attempting to solve the problem of the builder of small homes.

Mr. Cary graduated from the university with the class of 1913, and has been in New York and Massachusetts continually since that time. Formerly he was stationed on editorial staffs of New York newspapers, but now is "free-lancing" among the more prominent magazines of the country. He has been a regular contributor to the Saturday Evening Post, Scientific American, Success, and Collier's.

One of his latest articles, appearing a few weeks ago in Collier's, related to the ingenious methods employed by salesmen in selling "blue-sky" bonds.

Mr. Cary was not accompanied by his family, on this trip, one of the very few he has made to Madison since his graduation. His wife and children remained in New York City.

Scenario Contest Dead-line Date Extended to June 30

"The Ten Commandments" necessary for a successful movie scenario have been given to college students who are competing in the $1,000 scholarship contest conducted by Universal Pictures corporation. The contest will close June 30.

If you aspire to be an author or scenarist, here are some of the "tips" which every successful movie writer, it is said, should follow:

1. Have you a theme or a thesis?
2. Does your story have a universal appeal?
3. Are the premises on which the story is founded logical? Then do the events which grow out of these premises develop logically, convincingly? Finally is the climax the logical outgrowth of everything that has gone before, or is there a deliberate, apparent, artificial manipulating and wrenching of events to make things come out the way the writer wishes? Do your characters work out their own destinies?
4. Does the story progress steadily to a climax, or is it just a series of incidents placed one after another without any relation to a theme or thesis?
5. Has it suspense, or can you see the end long before it comes?
6. Is there conflict, a clash of opposing forces, a battle of wills, a fight against conditions, a striving of one personality to dominate another?
7. Does it all lead to a definite, satisfying conclusion?

Fuller-Lauver

Announcement was made at the Kappa Alpha Theta house last Friday evening of the engagement of Mary Ellen Fuller, Detroit, to Harold Lauver, also of Detroit.

Severence-Hubbard

The engagement of Marjorie Severence, Milwaukee, to Edward P. Hubbard, also of Milwaukee, was announced Sunday at the Alpha Phi house.

Miss Severence is a senior in Letters and Science. Mr. Hubbard is a member of the class of 1908. He is a Phi Gamma Delta.

Members of Sigma Nu will give an all-day picnic next Sunday. They will go on trucks to the picnic grounds.

American Exports To Europe Show Decrease

WASHINGTON — Exports from the United States during March which amounted to $341,162,000 as compared with $329,970,317, during the same month of 1922, showed a considerable falling off to European countries. A department of commerce analysis made public today revealed that the United Kingdom, Germany and Belgium took considerably smaller quantities of American goods last March than they did during March, 1922. Italy and France increased their imports from the U. S., however, and the net falling off in European taking was more than offset in the export totals by the increased demand on the American continent outside of this country.

8. Are your characters real and human?

9. Have you contrasts of characters, scenic environment? Develop your story in action. Leave out all propaganda and try to avoid retrospect.

10. Is there something to "root" for? Will each member of your audience unconsciously project his individuality into the leading character, feeling his or her fears and hopes, despair and triumphs?

Badger Death Rate Boosted By Epidemics

"Flu," Measles, Scarlet Fever, Raise Total To Over 9,000

Influenza, measles, scarlet fever and whooping cough, which were unusually prevalent, accounted largely for a considerable increase in the state's death rate in the first quarter of 1923 over the corresponding period of 1922. Figures by the state board of health indicate a death rate of 13.2 per thousand population, based on 9,024 deaths, which total was 1,496 larger than the same period a year ago.

The rate is considerably higher than the average for the ten-year period. Nearly all of the communicable diseases were responsible for mortality increases. This was apparent with pneumonia and influenza. The measles epidemic which has been sweeping the state caused a large increase in deaths. For the first quarter of 1922 only 9 measles deaths were recorded, for the 1923 period 87 were due to measles.

The following cases of communicable disease for the three months were reported: Diphtheria, 1,046; influenza 9,493; measles 14,830; scarlet fever 4,365 whooping cough 1,601.

Deaths from important causes included the following. Pulmonary tuberculosis 372; other tuberculosis 72; typhoid fever 15; diphtheria 101; scarlet fever 100; measles 87; whooping cough 53; pneumonia 1,360; influenza 728; diarrhoea and enteritis under 2 years 113; meningitis 59; puerperal septicemia 21; cancer 607; violence 328. There was a decrease of 70 deaths from pulmonary tuberculosis, 4 from typhoid fever, 78 from diarrhoea and enteritis under 2 years, 16 from meningitis, and 21 from violence.

Sixteen deaths were reported as due to lethargic encephalitis (sleepy sickness), 30 from syphilis, 7 from accidental freezing, 7 from homicide, 6 from street car accidents, 3 from food poisoning, 4 from infantile paralysis, 4 from accidental smothering, 4 from moonshine poisoning, 3 from carbon monoxide poisoning, 4 from drowning, 3 from gas asphyxia, 2 from coasting accidents, 2 from dynamite explosions, and 1 from electrocution.

CO-EDS CALLED BEFORE JURY

Northwestern Girls Will Face Quiz in Mount Probe

CHICAGO—Reconvening today, the grand jury will resume its investigation into the sudden and mysterious disappearance of Leighton Mount, Northwestern university freshman. For the first time since the grand jury began its sessions last week, co-eds at the university will be questioned.

The finding of the skeleton under a pier in Evanston believed to be Mount's has remained a mystery in so far as efforts to explain how and when it came to its resting place are concerned.

Scores of witnesses have failed to throw any light on Mount's disappearance.

The state's attorney's office has delved into the death of Louis Aubere, Northwestern University freshman, who was killed about two weeks ago in an automobile accident and announced that today it is prepared to ask the grand jury for manslaughter indictments in connection with his death. Assistant State's Attorney Sbarbaro said he had evidence that Aubere's death occurred during a hazing episode when the car in which the student was riding was deliberately driven at another car for the purpose of ramming it.

Roscoe Conkling Fitch a former roommate of Mount's is among the witnesses to go before the grand jury and repeat his story.

Fitch, the state's attorney's staff said, first told them that he knew all about the Mount case, but later became hysterical, repudiated that statement and then said he referred to Aubere's death.

An admission that he was sponsor of a movement to "hush up" the talk of the Mount case among the university students came yesterday from James Paterson, athlete and president of the senior class. He said he consulted officials of the university in regard to the plan and received their approval, it is reported.

Terrorize European Travelers

Chief Officer Shot; Buccaneers Disguised As Passengers

HONGKONG—European passengers were among those terrorized and robbed when the Chinese steamer Taishun was seized near Swatow, Saturday by pirates, who, disguised as passengers overpowered the crew, sailed the ship for nearly 24 hours, at night without lights and finally left her yesterday at the mouth of a small creek, transferring to a junk looted valued at $60,000.

The Taishun, which was bound from Hongkong for Shanghai, returned to Hongkong yesterday afternoon. The chief officer, wounded in the forearm by a pirate, was taken to a hospital. Most of the passengers had lost all their money and personal effects. The vessel's cargo, a valuable one, was not disturbed.

The steamer left Hongkong with more than 100 passengers. The pirate passengers numbered about 40. When a point near Swatow was reached, the buccaneers had spread into small parties, as pre-arranged, worked suddenly and systematically. Soon they had the ship at their mercy.

The pirates had no difficulty in handling the ship. They reached the small creek that was their rendezvous, about 100 miles from Swatow, yesterday morning. A junk slipped alongside, the loot was lowered into it and the pirates vanished.

"Batter Up" Shouts Umpire Hyde as Cubs and Cubesses Battle at the 1923 Pi Picnic

"Batter up!"

The pitcher threw the ball, and the catcher, nervously waving her hands as the huge round sphere came over the plate, caught it.

"Fine catch," called the umpire. A ball? A strike? No one knew. Professor Hyde, acting director of the Course in Journalism, was only umpiring at the University Press club's annual outing-frolic, the "1923 Pi Picnic" held Sunday afternoon and evening at Bernard's park. Approximately 40 attended.

Sport-attired co-eds matched wits and speed with blood-thirsty males in a spectacular baseball game that ended in a dubious score.

"It was 17 to 11, or 7 to 11—er something like that," Professor Hyde maintained after the game. In a six inning game the score was a tie until the last inning when it soared up dizzily.

"Cupid" Lawton '24 was catcher, while "Kibby" Hansen '24 was the south-paw on the mound. Gertrude Adelt '23, Dot Bowlby '24, and Dorothy Heller '25 starred on bases.

Herb Brockhausen '23 and Gene Allman '24 formed the battery for the "Cardinals," captained by "Uncle Joe" Lawler '24, Chester Baily '24, Wilfred Wille '24, held down bases. Jack Weimer '25 was official score keeper.

A picnic lunch of hot weinies, potato salad, sandwiches, pickles, olives and coffee was served by Dot Bowlby and Gertrude Adelt. "Colonial" games and a "guessing" contest followed the dinner. A camp-fire song fest preceded the return trip by launch at 9:30.

Prof. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson acted as chaperons. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Little also attended.
