Tradition Violators to Be Prosecuted

The Student court will try the cases of two freshmen tonight at 7:15 o'clock in the court room on the third floor of the Law building for violation of the green cap tradition. The trial is open to everyone.

The cases have been reported by chairmen of the Sophomore tradition committee. An investigation of the cases has been conducted by the court.

Werner is Prosecutor

Victor Werner L 2, will be the prosecuting attorney for the cases will preside. Other members of the Student court are Mendez Hanson '24, William Hartman '23, George Geiger '23, Martin Paulson L 3, E. Walter Anderson '23, Henrik Gregg '24, Rufus Phillips '23 and J. S. Packard '24.

"It is a matter of just what the constitution states. The wearing of the green caps must be enforced." Francis Lamb '23, secretary of the Student Senate said last night.

Court Given Authority

"The Student court is granted authority by the faculty and the Board of Regents to try all cases of discipline and to penalize in cases of conviction," Maynard Brown '23, president of the Student Senate said last night.

"On page nine of the senate charter granted by the faculty and the Board of Regents is the following clause 'The Student court is hereby constituted the judicial organ of the Student senate, to conduct all judicial proceedings and impose all penalties arising under an enactment of the Student senate.'

"The court tried the scalping cases last fall and convicted two. We know the freshman will be given as fair and as deliberate a trial as the scalpers were last fall," Brown concluded.

STUDENTS SEE MENDOTA CLINIC DEMONSTRATIONS

In order to see typical cases of mental disorder, students taking abnormal, premedical, or other advanced psychology, will visit the Wisconsin Psychiatric institute at Mendota today.

Every year, some time in May, Professors Joseph Jastrow and C. L. Hull of the psychology department, arrange for the advanced psychology students to observe clinical demonstrations at the asylum.

Dr. B. Sautoff, of the asylum staff, will be in charge of the demonstrations, which will be of groups of men having the same disorder. The women are not allowed to be seen in clinical demonstrations.

"This is to give the students an idea of real mental disorder, Professor Jastrow said.

"The remainder of the courses is devoted to interpretations."

More than 150 students will leave by boat at 1 o'clock and will return at 6 o'clock. Fred G. Mueller, of the psychology department, is in charge of the arrangements.

Law School is Invaded By Six Intelligent Co-eds

Law school has long been considered out of the co-eds realm and until this year that has been true at Wisconsin, but this year there are six co-eds in the law school. That is more than have ever been in it in former years, besides that the average of the co-eds is considerably above that of the school as a whole.

Amherst President to Talk

The public address on "Democracy and Excellence" to be given at 8 o'clock tonight in Music hall by President Alexander Meiklejohn of Amherst college is the first of its kind given by the local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa since 1914. President Meiklejohn is a man of exceptional speaking ability according to Prof. F. C. Sharp of the philosophy department.

Sharp Praises Meiklejohn

"We regard him as one of the best speakers in the United States," Professor Sharp said. "Much of President Meiklejohn's popularity comes from his very pleasing personality and the great friendship felt toward him by all students who have worked under him."

Leonard and Birge Talk

This is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa and is one hundred forty-seventh year of the fraternity.

Plans are now being made by Thorson and his staff to construct a novel and adequate setting in the open-air theater for the play, which is a costume and period play requiring both modern and medieval stage impressions.

Mail order sale for "The Road to Yesterday" will be opened in a week, according to Walter A. Frautschi, business manager. Tickets will be 75 cents and $1.

FLOAT ENTRIES DUE SATURDAY

Electrical Work Requires Early Registration For Venetian Parade

Registration of all the boats to be entered in the Venetian night contest and parade must be made by Saturday evening, according to an announcement last night by Helen Kingsford '24, chairman of the float committee.

The reason for the early registration deadline was declared to be because of the information needed by the electrical committee, headed by Sidney Thorson '24. The number of lights which each float will be allowed to use will be determined by the number of floats in the water parade.

The registration of fraternities and organizations must include a detailed report of the character of each float with the length, the number of lights needed, and the nature, whether a canoe or barge, accurately stated. A report of what each float will be allowed in the matter of lights will be published by the committee after the complete registration has been made.

Registration of floats can be made with Wills Sherman '25, F 830, Georgia Stanchfield '24, B 3212, or Helen McLandress '23, F 311. Arrangements for barges and canoes can be made with "Cap" Isabel at the university boat house, it was announced last night.

"More interest has been shown this year in the contest for best float than in any previous year. Many organizations are making extensive for decorated barges and effects," Miss Kingsford asserted.

WOMEN MAKE BUDGET OF LIVING EXPENSES

Budgets to indicate the cost of a semester at the university for a woman under-graduate student will be determined by a series of estimates which are being handed in to Alice Corl '25, by the end of the week.

Approximately 60 women will figure out their expenses for the semester and these will be computed and a fair average determined for use in the small booklet "If I Were a Freshman Again" which is issued by the S. G. A. and sent to all of the new women who register for fall work here.

These figures are obtained to give the new women students an idea of what it will cost to attend the university for a semester.

Between $500 and $600 for one semester is the estimate obtained from the figures handed in for the first semester this year.

All of the women who have been asked to submit these figures are to give them to Alice Corl by tomorrow.

WEATHER: SHOWERS

Fair and warmer weather is predicted for today, with probable showers tomorrow or to-morrow night. The maximum temperature for the last 24 hours was 55.9 degrees at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the minimum was 43.9 degrees at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

WORK STARTED ON GRADUATION DIPLOMAS NOW

No Charges Made on Sheepskins

The sheepskins will be ready for all of the seniors who are ready for them when Commencement day comes according to Walter D. Hiestand, registrar of the university, who is in charge of the senior diplomas.

Sheepskins for all of the diplomas to be given out during this year have already been ordered from England and are now at J. B. Hassel company in Chicago where all of the engraving on the diplomas is done. Approximately 2000 sheepskins were ordered last summer a number large enough ample to provide for all of the degrees granted.

Sheepskins Measure 22 by 17

Individual sheepskins measure 22 by 17 inches. The wording on all of them is the same except for the name of the person receiving the degree and the type of degree. The special lettering on each diploma is done by the J. B. Hassel company of Chicago.

Seniors do not need to do anything about having their diploma filled out with the correct name, for a special system in the registrar's department handles all of this work.

The first list of names will be sent down to Chicago within the next two or three weeks to have them embossed onto the sheepskins. A special representative of the firm will come to Madison during the last week before graduation to put on the names of any person whose graduation has been uncertain until the last.

No Cost is Levied

No cost is levied on the seniors for the sheepskins by this university, although it is the custom in almost two-thirds of the colleges and universities in the country to charge from $5 to $10 for each diploma issued.

"I feel that when a student has spent four years and a great amount of money in the obtaining of such a degree that the university really owes the diploma to them without assessing them an additional amount for it," Hiestand said.

Duplicates are $5

Duplicate copies may be obtained for $5 by anyone who has lost his or desires an additional copy.

Until within the last 30 years the diplomas were printed in Latin, a custom which is still retained by many institutions. The exact form which will be used for the diplomas this year has been the same for the past 15 years.

PI TAU SIGMA HOLDS ELECTION AND INITIATION

Pi Tau Sigma, honorary Mechanical Engineering fraternity, initiated 11 juniors at a banquet at the University club last night. The initiates are H. J. Bentson, H. E. Czerwonky, H. V. Hayward, Norman Koch, C. J. Koskinan, W. A. Mason, Wm. Ritchie, Joe Rosecky, Wm. Schubert, F. Wandschneider, G. L. Zamzow.

Wisconsin Alpha chapter of Pi Tau Sigma was installed at the university in 1916. Election is based on high scholastic attainments and personality.

New officers elected for next semester are: president, F. J. Mollerus; vice president, Wm. Schubert; secretary, W. A. Mason, and J. Rosecky; treasurer, G. L. Zamzow; sergeant at arms, H. E. Czerwonky.

NAVAL RESERVE ORGANIZE HERE

Ensign Rose and Lieut. Ahlstrom to Call Meeting Soon

A meeting to organize a local unit of the United States Naval Reserve Force will be called tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the Madison armory over Bled's hardware store at Main and Carroll streets. The men who are interested in establishing this unit and who will conduct the meeting are Ensign R. A. Rose, of the College of Engineering, and Lieutenant R. V. Ahlstrom L 2.

"Young men will be afforded an opportunity to take a vacation this summer with pay and visit all the large ports of the Great Lakes on a regular gunboat or sub-chaser," Mr. Rose asserted yesterday. "Besides this, the young man may select their own lines of work and receive instruction in electrical, steam and gas engineering, radio, clerical work, cooking, pharmacy or seamanship.

"All expenses are paid, including a complete outfit of clothing, five cents a mile railroad fare to and from the point of embarkation, and full sea pay of the regular navy with, of course, board and lodging."

Five cruises, each two weeks long, will be offered and a man can select one or two. In other years units have been given the privilege of being sent to the Atlantic seaboard, cruising down the St. Lawrence past the Thousand Islands and back again. Longer cruises have also been made to the Panama Canal, the Mediterranean and China.

New requirements just issued are lenient for the recruit or ex-navy man to be confirmed in his rating and receive two months full pay free each year in addition to the pay he receives for the summer cruise.

"All young men interested in this sort of a vacation if they are 18 years of age or over and in good physical condition should attend the meeting Friday night," Mr. Rose urged. "Although all these opportunities are offered the recruit, he is placed under no obligations to take the cruise or report for service except in response to duty in case of war."

The recruit has always been given the opportunity to take examinations in rating during or after the cruise. Officers will be selected only from the ranks, so excellent opportunity will be given the men who get in early while units are being organized in the state. The base pay in a beginning rating such as fireman, third class, is $36 a month, which is all clear profit to the recruit."

INSPECTOR IS PLEASED WITH MILITARY DEPT.

Major general H. C. Hale of the sixth corps area inspected the work of the military department yesterday. The regular morning drill classes and a class in signal corps drill were inspected. He was very much pleased with the work of the department.

Famous film dramas were recently donated by producer for use by the bureau of visual instruction of the Extension division.

LA VERN
STOCK CO.

BARGAIN MATINEE
SATURDAY

"East Is West" At The Orph All This Week

Ming Toy, as a Chinese "sing song" girl, didn't eat chop suey.

All the atmosphere and spirit of a Chinese setting, except chop suey was included, however, in "East is West," the latest production of the Dorothy La Vern Stock company now playing at the Orpheum theater.

But when we remember that chop suey isn't a Chinese dish, but quite American made by Frisco taste, the play is quite vindicated.

Dorothy La Vern was quite the leading lady this time although the play seemed quite restrained during the prologue and the first act.

The remainder of the play swung into action and feeling.

Prologues, however, are always difficult to "put over". They seem detached from the plot, vague and dreamlike, without definite feeling. Hence the playgoer is uneasy for awhile until he becomes accustomed to the Chinese setting.

Al Johnson as Charlie Yark carried a great share of the comedy part, and in his characterization of the Frisco chop suey "king", his actions and boastful conversation were especially good.

The race question of whether white blood and yellow blood should mix in marriage was one which held the interest of the plot in suspense until the final act. Love that knows no race, or color, is found in "East is West," which turns out quite happily to the satisfaction of everybody.

"Welcome Stranger", a play that was a huge success in New York City, will be given by the stock company next week, cooperating with city officials and civic organizations for the event.

Going To California Next Fall? You'll See Eclipse Of Sun There

"Persons who are in California next fall will be extremely lucky," said Prof. Joel Stebbins in a talk before the Men's club at St. Andrews church, on sun eclipses, "for on Sept. 8 there will be a total eclipse visible in San Diego, Los Angeles, and other points."

Prof. Stebbins has made a study of eclipses, having been on three expeditions to obtain photographs. In telling his experiences, he said that he had waited nearly 20 years for the eclipse in 1918, and it was over in ninety three seconds. In 1900 Prof. Stebbins went to Georgia to photograph the sun at the time of the eclipse, in 1905 to Labrador, and 1918 to Wyoming. He stated that he will be in California this fall by some means or other.

"It is well worth the trip to any place to be able to view the phenomena of an eclipse. Two minutes is the average length of time, although last year an Australian expedition were able to get a position where the eclipse lasted five minutes.

FORENSICS FRAT INITIATES FIVE

Two Juniors, Three Seniors Are Pledged at Banquet

M. B. Olbrich, Madison attorney, Wayne L. Morse '23 and Prof. J. M. O'Neil, of the department of speech, were the speakers at the initiation banquet of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity, Tuesday evening in the city Y. M. C. A.

The initiates were Wilbur G. Katz '24, Henry Blake '24, Charles Rawson '23, K. Frances Karel '23, and Arthur L. Thorson L 2.

The following quotation from an article by Pres. Alexander Meiklejohn of Amherst College was read at the meeting:

"I see it most clearly when I try to single out from a long line of students some one group which shall stand forth as intellectually the best—best in college work and best in promise for future intellectual development. Much as I should like to do so, I cannot draw the line around my own favorite students in philosophy, nor those leaders in mathematics, nor those successful in biology; nor can I fairly award the palm to the Phi Beta Kappa men who have excelled in all their subjects. It seems to me that stronger than any other group, tougher in intellectual fibre, keener in intellectual interest, better equipped to battle with coming problems, are the college d. haters—the men who, apart from their regular studies, band themselves together for intellectual controversies with each other and with their friends from other colleges."

New Plans Are Made By Frosh Commission

At a week-end party, held at the Y. W. C. A. cottage on Lake Mendota recently, the freshman commission drew up plans for its work next year when it automatically lapses into sophomore commission, and made recommendations for the freshman commission of next year.

It was decided that during the summer members of the commission should write to all women entering the university as sophomores and attempt to interest them in university activities and Y. W. C. A. work.

Next year the commission will edit a calendar similar to the one put out by this year's sophomore commission and will be active in all work among sophomore women.

Four hundred and ten men and women studied applied arts and industrial education at the 1922 summer session.

Spice of 1922 Is Scheduled For November

The first strong indication that theatrical managers of New York believe that the increasing prosperity of the country merits the attention of the largest of New York productions comes with the announcement that "Spice of 1922" which was the sensation of the New York Winter Garden last summer, has been routed for a transcontinental tour of a solid year's duration.

Arrangements are now under way to include this city in the itinerary of this superproduction of mirth and magnificence and the provisional date is November 3 at the Parkway theatre.

Edward L. Bloom, general manager of the New York Winter Garden Company, who is personally presenting "Spice of 1922," is firmly convinced that this continent has got the grips on itself by a gigantic upheaval and has thrown off the post-war period of depression.

"Theatrical producers," he asserts and I do not think I am premature have been awaiting this moment, in sending out such a large and expensive company as 'Spice of 1922' which was the biggest production on Broadway last summer and will be by far the greatest off Broadway this year. My coast to coast plans have been made to include practically all the original company who played at the Winter Garden. The few changes that have been made simply improve the various angles of the production."

CONFERENCE SPORT NEWS

LINDEN POINTS TENNIS TEAM TO FINAL GAMES

Next Game is With Purple

Coach Linden is pointing his varsity tennis team to the two final games of the year. The remaining games before the conference at Chicago are with Northwestern Saturday and Michigan on Monday of next week.

The team is in good condition after their defeat by the Maroons last Saturday, and are not going stale, although they came out on the short end of the score. The Chicago net men are considered one of the strongest teams in the conference, and with such men as Wilson and Frankenstein to overcome the manner in which the Badgers came through is remarkable.

Should Trim Purple

With the rest of the week in which to get in condition and to smooth out their defects the Wisconsin men should give the Purple racket wielders a trimming.

Little is known of the strength of Michigan, but with Captain Tredwell and Aageson in good playing form the Northmen will find some stiff opposition to overcome.

The team this year has been hindered by inclement weather, so that their playing form has been greatly set back, but in spite of this fact they have come through in a surprising manner and are considered one of the strong contenders for conference honors.

MINNESOTA WILL LOSE TANKMEN

Minnesota is losing seven first class swimmers from its tank team this spring, and will have but six letter men with whom to begin work in the fall, according to Niels Thorpe swimming coach. A number of reliable accessions from the freshman ranks are expected to strengthen the team, however, he said.

The men who will be lost by graduation include Murray Lanpher, captain; John Day, who was captain in 1921; Alex Gow, Hibbard Hill, Harry Dimore, George Sonnesy, and D. G. Brunner. John Farley, captain elect, Hugo Hanft, Al Holmes, Horace Nutting, Clint Merrill and Harold Bird are the six with whom Thorpe will begin work in the fall.

Interfraternity and interclass swimming matches are being conducted this spring in an effort to reveal new swimming material.

Indian Landmarks Exhibited at Museum All This Week

In order to give the people of Madison an opportunity to see what has been accomplished in connection with the marking of historical places and Indian landmarks, photographs and pictures are on exhibit at the State Historical museum this week. These pictures are of monuments and descriptive tablets which the Historical committee of the Wisconsin Federation of Woman's clubs, the Wisconsin Historical society, and the Wisconsin Archeology society are erecting at these historical spots throughout the state.

JUNIOR WOMEN WIN GAME WITH FRESHMEN

The juniors won over the freshmen with a 18 to 6 victory in the first game of the women's interclass baseball tournament played yesterday afternoon at Camp Randall.

The junior battery, Esther Bilstad, pitch and Leora Ellsworth, catch, and the corresponding positions on the freshman team Margaret Hoover, pitch, and Mary Brader, catch, played fast games. Margaret Hoover '26, was pitching with a broken finger through out the game.

The sophomore-senior game which should have been played Tuesday afternoon was postponed until Friday at 4:30 at the Camp Randall field.

GOPHER COACH SEEKS HURLER

Minnesota Needs Third Pitcher to Carry Through Spring

L. R. Watrous, head baseball coach at the University of Minnesota, is searching his squad with an eagle eye these days, hoping to discover the third pitcher that will be necessary to carry the team through its spring schedule. The first need for a third man will come at the end of this week when Minnesota faces the Kalamazoo Normal School at Kalamazoo, Mich., on Thursday and the University of Michigan team in a two-game series Friday and Saturday.

Both Hartfield and Friedl have shown winning form during the early season play despite the loss to Wisconsin by a 10 to 9 score last Saturday. These two will be sent to the mound in two of the three games, but whether either will be able to go through two of the three is doubtful. Major Watrous believes,

Minnesota now has a standing of .666 in Western Conference baseball, having beaten Northwestern and Iowa and lost to Wisconsin by one point. Free hitting and loose fielding have characterized all the games played so far this season. Two wins out of three games on the Michigan trip will indicate that baseball has come back with a bang at Minnesota.

S. G. A. TO HAVE NEW METHOD OF SECURING DUES

The discarded clothing, for which bags are to be placed in all sorority and room houses, is to go to the Near East Relief commission, not the Foreign Student Relief, according to Mary Atwood, chairman for the drive, speaking at S. G. A. Board meeting last night.

One bag will be placed in each house and all girls are urged to put in any clothing that they will not need especially winter garments.

Lois Jacobs, president of S. G. A., outlined a new method of collecting dues and getting all necessary information about members early in the year.

At fall registration each girl will be required to make out a card for S. G. A. exactly like the one for the Detan of Women. All activities will be listed there, in order to make it a convenient way of checking up on any who may be violating the point system by participating in too many outside organizations.

The sum of $50 was voted to the Student Relief fund.

TELEGRAPHIC MEET OF FROSH RUN YESTERDAY

Michigan Frosh to Run Today

A heavy downpour which fell all day at Ann Arbor, Michigan, yesterday prevented the Wolverine freshman track men from running their scheduled telegraphic meet with the Wisconsin yearlings.

Despite the news from Michigan, the Badgers ran off many of the events yesterday afternoon at Camp Randall. A few remaining events will be run this afternoon here, while the Michigan team will run the entire meet today.

Results Wired Tonight

Final results will come over the wire and the time results will be checked over so that the winner of the meet will be known late tonight.

While the Badger frosh worked better yesterday in some events than they did against Iowa a week ago, the general time was somewhat slower. The Michigan frosh have a strong team which, if they work true to form today, has an excellent chance to cop from the Badgers.

Mile Run in 4:34

Cassidy, Badger distance ace, ran the mile yesterday in the fast time of 4 minutes 24 seconds, a record of some 12 seconds faster than he made in winning from Iowa last week. Reinke is the Michigan miler who has this time to beat in order to take first place in the event.

McAndrews, of Wisconsin, repeated his performance of a week ago and ran the 100 yard dash in 10 flat. He pulled a ligament in his leg in the 220, however, and was forced to drop out without finishing. McAndrews, who is one of the most promising men on the frosh squad, will be forced out of track work for a few weeks but he will be in good shape by next fall.

Aller Cinches Discus

Aller cinched a place in the discus event against Michigan when he tossed the saucer 116 feet.

With fair marks in other events and a possibility of a few points in this afternoon's work, the Wisconsin frosh have a fair chance of winning the meet and keeping their 1923 record clear without a defeat.

COMMONS SERVES ON ARBITRATION BOARD

Prof. John R. Commons returned Tuesday from Chicago where he had been serving on the arbitration board in behalf of the employers and employees of the clothing business of that city.

Last year an agreement was first made that at the first of every May an arbitration board meet and take up the questions of wages and unemployment insurance in that industry involving 37,000 persons.

This board is composed of Professor Commons, David Friday, and W. M. Leiserson.

This year the board decided that a wage increase of eight and a half percent should be allowed. One and one half percent of this amount should be paid into an unemployment fund, another one and one half percent to be contributed by the employers.

YOST RECEIVES MARKED HONOR

Michigan Names Field House In Recognition of Coach

Yost Field house is the name chosen for the new field house which is now being constructed on Ferry field at the University of Michigan. The request that this name be chosen has come from alumni, students and officials of the university who desire to recognize Fielding H. Yost for his great service to athletics during the 23 years he has been active as coach at Michigan.

The field house when completed, will put Michigan in a position to entertain other schools and colleges at indoor track meets, and will be the greatest single athletic building in the country.

This building will house all indoor athletics for both varsity and freshman teams. It is 342 feet long and 160 feet wide and has a seating capacity of 12,500, an eight-lap-to-the-mile track and 75 yard straightaway. Facilities are provided for indoor practice in baseball, football and basketball in the main activity room which will be 160 feet wide, 300 feet long, and clear of obstruction to a height of 63 feet.

Four floors at the north end of the building will be devoted to trophy rooms, store rooms, offices for the athletic association, drying rooms and locker and shower facilities for 4,200 persons.

WISCONSIN HIGH TO GIVE ANNUAL SPECIAL EXHIBIT

Everything from material on the Shakespearean stage to special demonstrations with radio will be shown at the annual high school exhibit to be held in the Wisconsin High school building this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Project material from all departments will be on display in the various rooms and in the halls. Visitors will be shown around by guides and are requested by placards strewn here and there to ask questions of the students demonstrating their own projects.

The projects for the most part are of the individual type, the students having been given a start in the work in class and then having developed it by themselves along lines which interested them most.

The special feature of the exhibit will be the projects in science. Students in chemistry, physics, biology, and general science have prepared charts, experiments, and so forth illustrating various scientific phenomena.

Thursday afternoon, the exhibit will be for students primarily while teachers, and interested townspeople have been invited for Friday afternoon and evening.

Prof. J. L. Gillin Attends Social Workers' Meet

Prof. J. L. Gillin has gone to New York to attend the National Conference of Social Workers which opened yesterday. The conference continues until May 23. Prof. Gillin is a member of the committee of law and government of the organization.

ILLINOIS NINE TO MEET WISCONSIN ON HOME FIELD

Varsity Plays at Evans- ton Monday

When Coach Ray Fisher's hustling Michigan ball players meet Ohio State's team it is probable that the championship of the Big 10 will be decided in one game. The Wolverines have overcome every obstacle in their path to the title, the latest bush to be cut down being Iowa. The Cornhuskers went down to a 7 to 2 defeat Tuesday.

Although Ohio State's team was regarded as strong, followers of Conference baseball did not expect it to shut out Illinois 1 to 0. Ollie Klee, who was largely responsible for the Buckeye's football victory over the Illini last fall, was hero of the game, stealing home in the sixth inning.

Ohio is Dangerous
Michigan defeated Ohio State at the beginning of the season, but since then the victims have steadily improved their game until they are regarded as dangerous for any title seeking team.

When the two teams meet, which will be in the near future, "Hog" Workman of football fame will probably oppose Gibson, a new man in the Michigan lineup. Workman proved his ability in the Illinois game when he held the hard hitting Illini to three hits in six innings, the game having been called on account of rain.

Gibson is a Senior but this is his first year in baseball. Trouble with the deans is said to have caused his absence in previous years. Gibson was on the mound against Iowa Tuesday.

Points To Illinois
In the meantime, Coach Guy S. Lowman is pointing his men toward the Illinois game which will be played Saturday at Urbana. The Badgers will stop off at Evanston on their return to tackle Northwestern Monday.

Yesterday's practice was the first workout for the baseball men since Monday, Tuesday's game with Northwestern having been postponed because of rain and cold weather. Coach Lowman sent Pitchers Radke and Shrenk to the frosh team and the varsity was given a merry battle. Bill Johnson and Pickford each worked a couple of innings for the first team.

Gibson to Be Out
Gibson, who played center field in the Illinois field, will probably be out of his uniform until next week as a result of a spill which he took after the Minnesota game. Gibson stumbled in going after a ball and ripped an ugly gash in his right hand.

In order to have his men acquainted with left handed pitching, Lowman had Mills, southpaw who was barred on pro charges feed the ball to the batters during practice. The Badgers might face a wrong-armed man at Illinois, O'Connor being that man. Another stiff work out is on the books for this afternoon, indicated Coach Lowman yesterday.

SCENARIOS MUST BE IN BY JUNE 30

June 30 is the new dead-line date set for the scenario contest, which is being conducted by the Universal Picture corporation, according to recent notification received from the company.

The prize is well worth trying for, Mr. Laemmle said in his letter. The person who wins the prize will receive $1,000, with $500 in addition for the manuscript. The university will also receive $1,000. If any of the scenarios can be used, $500 will be paid whether it wins the prize or not.

The conditions governing the contest and some hints for persons who will write their first scenario were printed in the Daily Cardinal on May 5.

NIGHT EDITOR—RENE J. HEMINGWAY

MEIKLEJOHN TODAY

Wisconsin students already know the work of President Alexander Meiklejohn of Amherst college, who will give a public address, "Democracy and Excellence," tonight at 8:15 o'clock in Music hall. For a number of years all students in freshman English have studied President Meiklejohn's "Inaugural Address" as a regular assignment in the course. The author of this important essay now appears in person as the principal speaker in the exercises marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Alpha Wisconsin chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa.

After serving for a decade or more as Professor of Philosophy and Dean at Brown university, Mr. Meiklejohn became president of Amherst college in 1912. During the ten years of his presidency he has led in a notable reorganization of the faculty and curriculum of the college. As a result, Amherst is now acclaimed as providing a singularly unified and stimulating course of study, encouraging its students in independent thought, and conferring upon its graduates a comprehensive and philosophical view of life.

President Meiklejohn's influence, however, has been felt far beyond the confines of his own institution. Acknowledged as one of the most effective public speakers in the United States, he has been heard widely throughout the country by colleges and business organizations. His finished prose style and his bold thinking have given wide currency to all his writings. During the last year his article on college athletics, published in the "Atlantic Monthly," has been generally accepted as the most incisive and courageous of recent treatments of the subject. The most notable of his publications is the volume entitled "The Liberal College."

In this volume is reprinted the Inaugural Address, especially well known to Wisconsin freshmen—an address in which a vigorous logic supports these two propositions: (1) "Knowledge and thinking are good in themselves," and (2) "They help us in the attainment of other values in life which without them would be impossible."

An Exemplary Departure

In his Phi Beta Kappa address tonight President Meiklejohn will treat an aspect of education of especial concern to a state university. We are glad to welcome him from the East, glad to have the opportunity of hearing his message.

His coming here at this time to deliver the Phi Beta Kappa address publicly has a particular significance that connotes further pleasure in that it is the first time in fifteen years that Phi Beta Kappa has extended to outsiders the opportunity of witnessing its exercises.

Phi Beta Kappa, in presenting to the public a speaker that affords the inspiration and the theme that President Meiklejohn does, achieves an exemplary departure from the traditional secrecy of its proceedings which is completely in harmony with its ideal of scholastic sponsorship.

This society, itself representing the pinnacle of scholastic achievement, can disseminate an immeasurable influence for educational good by the continuance of such public sponsorship.

THE FRATERNITY SING

From out of the somewhere has come the suggestion that fraternities compete in a lakeside song fest, the Interscholastic committee has picked up and fostered the idea, and it looks like we, together with five hundred prep school athletes, are going to have a unique bit of collegiate fun on the evening of May 26.

Traditions are built from modest starts like this one. What would the University of Chicago be, someone naively asks, without its annual singing demonstration and club competition in its quadrangle?

For Wisconsin this start may mean in the future something more than perpetuating an Interscholastic feature.

Men, hundreds of them, will be brought together in genial competition on a common ground and seeking a mutual pleasure. Such friendly and leisurely commingling cannot help bringing the desire for further contact. A great centralization of the interests of Wisconsin men may sprout and grow to culmination in frequent men's mass meetings having a tremendous welding power, something Wisconsin needs and something the Memorial Union will make physically possible.

FROM THE SENATE

The Cardinal is informed by the president of the Student senate that the wearing of the green cap by freshmen is compulsory by rule, contrary to the statement made editorially by The Cardinal in last Sunday's issue.

Editor's Say

UNDESIRABLE PUBLICITY

(Purdue Exponent)

Chicago newspapers have been carrying big headlines and long front page stories on the finding of the skeleton of Leighton Mount, Northwestern university student, supposedly the victim of hazers. bureaus have jumped at the opportunity to play up this bit of news; and as a consequence newspapers all over the country have given space to the affair. The Toledo News Bee in commenting editorially upon the case and upon other examples of student sensational misdemeanors says that if such things continue the fond parent will find it necessary and wise to fix up a special padded cell in which to educate his offspring.

The publicity given this affair is only illustrative of the quickness with which the press and the outside world seizes the chance to play up the objectionable side of student life. The story is of interest to some people and of news value. As such it should be given some space in the newspapers.

The fact is, however, that it has been played up and given far more publicity than it rated as a news story. It is hard to see just why this should be. The majority of colleges and universities have seen the folly of class battles and hazing and they are placing a ban upon them. Reformers and ministers will continue the work of spreading this story and is giving the outside world a false impression of the modern college.

Why wouldn't it be possible for the press and the knockers to change over and play up the constructive work that is being accomplished by the institutions of higher learning. It seems that it would be a better plan to present the faults to the universities, the ones who are going to correct them, and to show the outside world the practical training which the universities are giving to the younger generation.

COURSE IN PHARMACY RECEIVES FELLOWSHIP

The results gained from an investigation of certain waste products in the production of cheese color by S. S. Aiyer, Bangalore, India, a graduate student, has led to the gift of a new fellowship to the department of pharmacy, according to an announcement by Prof. Edward Kremer, director of the Course in Pharmacy.

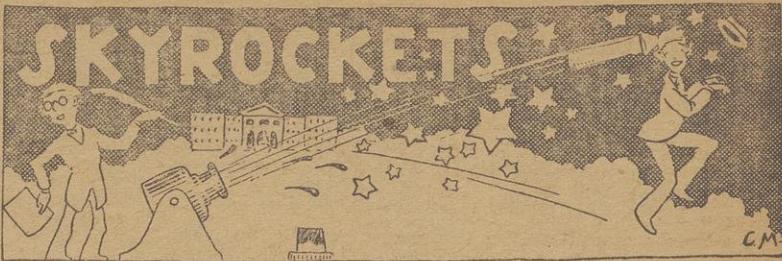

The fellowship, to be known as the A. J. Marshall Fellowship, will be available for the academic year, 1923-24.

It is the gift of A. J. Marshall, Madison, head of the Marshall Dairy laboratory. The holder of the fellowship is to investigate the waste products of Mr. Marshall's factory in connection with the Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Experiment station.

DEVEREAUX PLAYERS WILL PRESENT PLAYS

The Devereux players of New York will give several plays in the open-air theater July 18-21, according to Dean S. H. Goodnight, director of the summer session.

The custom of having professional players present plays each summer has been followed at the summer sessions for several years. Last year players from the Shakespeare playhouse, New York, gave four plays. The Devereux players have appeared during summer session several times in the past.

Much interest is being taken in the debate which is going to be held between the Delta Gammas and the Psi U as a part of Venetian Night entertainment. A very interesting topic has been chosen for discussion.

Pulitzer Prizes Awarded

Page, and Alva Johnson, New York Times, for the best example of the reporter's work during the year. A prize for the best work on American history was given Charles Warren, author of "The Supreme Court in United States History."

The annual prize for the piece of newspaper reporting given Mr. Johnston was for his account of the proceedings of the convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Cambridge, Mass. The novel "One of Ours" by Willa Cather was declared to meet conditions as the American novel which "shall best present the wholesome atmosphere of American life and the highest standard of American manners and manhood," and the play by Owen Davis as the "original American play performed in New York which shall best represent the educational value and power of the "Life and Letters of Walter H. Page," by Burton J. Hendrick, has been recommended as the best American biography teaching patriotic and unselfish services to the people, illustrated by an eminent example. For the best volume of American verse, for which $1000 is given, the recommendations are for Edna St. Vincent Millay's "The Ballad of the Harp Weaver," "A Few Figs From Thistles," "A Miscellany," and eight sonnets by Miss Millay, published in "American Poetry."

No awards were made for the prize offered for the best history of the services rendered to the public by the American press during the year, nor for the cartoon, which, in addition to its artistic merits, is required to serve some cause of public importance.

Dr. Oran Raber Writes Article Describing Burning of Smyrna

A winsome little Chinese singing girl with her curious instrument, singing a quaint love song on a love boat in China; a little girl who is to be sold to a merchant with several wives; a young American who is being taken about China by a merchant from San Francisco. There is the starting point of the love story in "East is West", the big attraction that is holding the stage all this week at the Orpheum theater.

"East is West" ran for two years in New York, where thousands witnessed it, and it was afterwards produced in London. It is filled with the element that the stage calls atmosphere. It swings from the mysticism of the Far East to equally fascinating color of San Francisco's Chinatown and then to the home of a typical, wealthy American family on the coast of California. It is filled with romance, wonderful comedy, and under it all a wistful note that brings a choke to the throat or forces a tear to the eye now and then. "East is West" is more than a play. It is a famous dramatic work and to miss seeing it will be to lose one of the greatest entertainments that has ever been offered at a local theater.

There isn't a man or woman who doesn't love a play that deals with the vital things of life, the things that come close to home. That is the thing that has made "Welcome Stranger," the Aaron Hoffman comedy that is to be presented by the Dorothy La Vern Players next

ENGINEERS HEAR NICHOLS SPEAK

"Community heating plants save coal, reduce labor, and make for less dirt, since they can afford mechanical devices for the removal of the ashes," G. B. Nichols, Designing and Consulting Engineer of New York City, said in his lecture on "Community Heating as Illustrated at Cornell University and Marcy State Hospital" to a group of junior and senior mechanical engineers in the Engineering auditorium.

"Block heating in which whole city blocks and even whole communities are heated by a central plant is to be a thing of the near future," declared Mr. Nichols.

He then pointed out with the aid of slides the problems experienced in the construction of the two plants under discussion.

Mr. Nichols is making a lecture tour under the auspices of the American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers, and is delivering this lecture at a number of our leading universities.

CHORAL UNION GIVES

GOUNOD OPERA "FAUST"

Absence of scenery and costumes did not detract from the splendid presentation of the opera "Faust" by the Madison Choral Union, at Music hall Tuesday evening.

The entire opera was portrayed without costume or dramatic action and with the entire cast and chorus on the stage at all times. Nevertheless this did not make the opera a mere series of songs, choruses, and speeches. It demonstrated the power of a group of singers to portray a spectacle by means of their natural talents alone.

The principles roles were taken by Noel H. Stearns grad, as Faust Prof. E. E. Swinney as Mephistopheles, Florence Bergendahl as Margarita, Whitford L. Huff '23, as Valentine, Earl Oldright '26, as Siebel, Edward N. Otis '24, as Wagner, and Martha Chandler grad, as Martha. The remainder of the Choral Union supplied the chorus of villagers and soldiers.

Peter W. Dykema directed the production, and George K. Hibbets was accompanist.

Music hall was filled to its capacity, and the response of the audience demonstrated their approval and appreciation.

U. SINCLAIR IS UNDER ARREST

Socialist Held in San Pedro
California, For Charges

LOS ANGELES—Upton Sinclair, 33, is under arrest by Los Angeles police on charges of unlawful assembly and suspicion of criminal syndicalism. It was announced today by Chief of Police Louis D. Oaks. The chief said the prisoners were being held in San Pedro but declined to say whether they were in jail. "Sinclair will be brought to Los Angeles this afternoon," Chief Oaks said. "In the meantime I shall confer with the district attorney's office concerning the charge against the men."

LOS ANGELES.—An attempt by Upton Sinclair, author, to conduct an outdoor meeting at Liberty Hill Tuesday night by reading aloud the preamble to the constitution of the United States, was interrupted by Chief of Police Louis D. Oaks, who broke up the gathering and escorted Sinclair and three companions to a waiting automobile and the machine rolled away to a destination unknown, early yesterday.

The action of Chief Oaks came as a climax to efforts by Mr. Sinclair, his brother-in-law, Hunter Kimbrough, Prince Hopkins and Hugh Hardyman to obtain a permit from the Los Angeles authorities to conduct a meeting at Liberty Hill where assemblies were prohibited since the strike of the Marine Transport Workers, branch of the Industrial Workers of the World has been under way.

Upton Sinclair is well known in Madison, having spoken to a large crowd in the University gymnasium last year after personally fighting for the right to the platform before the board of regents. His son, David Sinclair, is a student at the University.

Boy Scouts, Troop 20 Aid Putting Out Blaze South Of Lake Forest

Boy Scouts from Troop 20 helped in putting out a fire Saturday that threatened to burn the woods west and south of Lake Forest. In the morning a farmer had attempted to burn off a piece of marsh. The fire, due to a changing wind, had spread beyond control, and by noon clouds of smoke were hanging in the air just south of the woods in Lake Forest where the troop was in camp. They were pressed into service by the farmers. They sent back a messenger for the rest of the troop at camp, and got into the fight. For about three hours they fought the blaze. Hands were blistered, lungs filled with smoke, and arms and legs ached, but this was adventure, and this was a sure enough good turn. Troop 20 is connected with Christ church.
