The DANE COUNTY MEMORIAL COLISEUM

Wisconsin plays its home games in the beautiful and spacious Dane County Memorial Coliseum. There are 8,000 theatre type seats and space for 662 additional seats and standing room making the capacity for hockey 8,662. It is the largest college hockey arena in the nation. The ice surface is regulation 85 x 200 feet.

RECORD ATTENDANCE

Wisconsin hockey has attracted record crowds to the Coliseum ever since the Badgers joined the Western Collegiate Hockey Ass'n in the 1969-70 season. Wisconsin fans have set college hockey attendance records for 9 consecutive seasons starting with 1970. The 1976-77 season total of 217,532 fans that saw 27 home games set an all-time collegiate record. The 1978-79 average attendance total of 8,654 is a school and collegiate record.

Wisconsin Hockey History

The "modern" era in Wisconsin hockey history began in March of 1962 when then-Athletic Director Ivan Williamson announced that the Badgers would return to intercollegiate hockey competition for the 1963-64 season — after a 28-year layoff.

Long-time Madison hockey backers John Riley and Art Thomsen coached the early Badger icers; and quickly formed a respectable hockey club. Wisconsin went on to post an 8-5-3 record in its first year, playing mainly teams from small colleges in Minnesota, Michigan and Illinois.

The following season the Badgers won 14 games and lost nine. That year, the Badger icemen, in an effort to upgrade the level of competition, added eight games against opponents from the Western Collegiate Hockey Conference (WCHA). They lost all eight.

Undaunted by their lack of success, the Badgers in 1965-66 scheduled six games against WCHA foes. True to form, they lost the first five; but the final margins were decidedly closer than they had been the previous year: 3-2 to Colorado College, and 3-1 and 5-3 to Michigan State.

Then on the evening of February 22, 1966, it finally happened. The Badgers had battled back from a three-goal first-period deficit to pull even with the Minnesota Gophers at the end of regulation time, 4-4. Barely two minutes into the sudden-death overtime period, junior wing Jim Petruzzates snared an errant Gopher pass and unmolested, fired a 20-foot slapshot past the sprawling Minnesota goalie. Wisconsin hockey had come of age.

John Riley retired as coach after the 1965-66 season and was replaced by 35-year-old Robert N. Johnson; a Minnesota native, a former professional baseball player, and the hockey coach at Colorado College. In his first season, Johnson expanded the Wisconsin schedule to 26 games.

The following year, led by national scoring champion Bert DeHate, the Badgers improved their season mark to 21-10. DeHate, a sophomore from St. Paul, Minn., finished the year with 77 points on 47 goals and 30 assists, including seven hat tricks. A mid-term graduate in 1969-70, DeHate still ranks as one of Wisconsin's highest scorers.

Wisconsin's hockey fortunes continued to improve as the Badgers won 22, lost 10 and tied two in 1968-69; including, for the first time, a winning record (11-9-2) against WCHA competition. With his team's record to show, Bob Johnson began lobbying for Wisconsin's admittance into the prestigious conference.

On March 30, 1969, the Badgers were admitted to the league, and quickly proved a worthy entry by placing fourth in the standings. All first-year teams previously had finished dead last. It was also the year the Badgers made their initial appearance at the NCAA Tournament in Lake Placid, N. Y. Led by the "Freshman Flyer" line of Max Bentley, Tim Dool and Norm Cherrey, the Badgers finished third in the tourney, and became recognized as a national power.

Following the tournament, defenseman John Jagger, from Sault St. Marie, Ontario, became Wisconsin's first hockey All-American.

In 1970-71, the Badgers again played well, finishing with a record of 20-13-1; but Wisconsin fans, who were packing the Dane County Coliseum in record numbers, had another goal in mind — a national championship. It was not to be that year; or the next, when Wisconsin again placed third at the national tournament.

With a blazing start in 1972-73, the Badgers won 10 of their first 11 contests. They finished 18-9-1 in league play and earned the right to travel to Boston for their third try at the NCAA title. In one of the most electrifying games in tournament history, Wisconsin beat semi-final opponent Cornell, 6-5 in sudden-death overtime. Sophomore Dean Talafous scored with five seconds left in regulation time, and with just 33 seconds left in the extra period, to send the Badgers into the championship game for the first time ever.

Although they fell behind league rival Denver early in the title game, the young Badgers were determined to leave Boston a winner. With workmanlike precision, the Cardinal and White came back to muster a 4-2 decision; and with it, the national championship.

The Badgers did not return to the NCAA meet until four seasons later. Those seasons were not failures by any stretch of the imagination. In 1973-74 the team finished with a fine 18-13-5 record and in '74-75 the Badgers won 24, lost 12 and tied 2 and Brian Engblom became the school's 3rd All-American defenseman. Even during the 1975-76 season, when the Badgers suffered through their first losing season of the modern era, a young and inexperienced team made a late-season surge and moved from 10th to 7th place in the WCHA to make the play-offs.

The Badgers were determined to play in the NCAA meet in '77. They downed Colorado College and Minnesota in the 1st two rounds of the play-offs and then had to face Michigan in the WCHA's 1st play-off Championship series. Wisconsin had beaten the Wolverines 3 of 4 times during the regular season and once again the Badgers proved to be the better team by sweeping the total goal series 9-4.

Winning the NCAA meet for the second time was no easy task for the Badgers. It took two overtime victories in Detroit's Olympia Stadium before Wisconsin could claim its second title. In the first game against New Hampshire, it was Les Grauer and Mike Eaves who scored the tying and winning goals that enabled Wisconsin, once more, to play Michigan, this time for the NCAA Championship. Senior Steve Alley, scoring on a rebound only 23 seconds after the overtime began gave the final victory to the Badgers and triggered a celebration that lasted for days.

1976-77 was a season long to be remembered. The Badgers were the 1st team ever to win the NCAA Championship, the WCHA title and the Big Ten crown in the same year. Three players were selected to the All-American team, Julian Baretta, also MVP in the NCAA meet, Mike Eaves, and Craig Norwich, for the second year in a row. Bob Johnson was the WCHA's Coach of the Year and his son Mark Johnson was tabbed as the league's Rookie of the Year. All this, plus the school's best record ever of 37-7-1 and a total of 18 other school records that were established add up to Wisconsin's finest year in hockey.

The Badgers made a return trip to the NCAA tournament to defend their title in 1978, but lost both games and finished 4th in the nation. Mike Eaves, the Badger Captain for three years, ended his career as the school's all-time leading scorer. He was named to the All-American team for the second time, and, with Wisconsin's other All-American Mark Johnson, tied for the WCHA scoring title. Both Eaves and Johnson were named to every WCHA All-Star team.

The Badger fans got into the act when the city of Providence, RI, site of the NCAA '78 tournament, honored the 3,000 plus fans that made the trip by presenting them with a huge trophy. The trophy claimed the Badger fans as "The World's greatest Hockey Fans."

In the 1978-79 season, the Badgers compiled a 25-13-3 record, which included a win over NCAA runner-up North Dakota and a four game split with NCAA champ Minnesota. A new record crowd saw the Badgers play as games at the Coliseum drew an average of 8,654 fans. 21 of the 23 home games were sell-outs. At one point, seventeen straight games (home and away) were sold out.

Mark Johnson finished second in the league scoring, missing the title by one point. He became the Badgers' all-time leading goal scorer and moved up behind Mike Eaves in all-time scoring. He was chosen as the most valuable player in the WCHA and made every all-star team for the second year in a row. He was also named the College Hockey Player of the Year by Hockey News.

Bob Johnson

BOB JOHNSON Head Coach - 13th Season

The saga of Wisconsin Head Hockey Coach Bob Johnson continues. Now about to enter his 13th season as the Badger mentor, he has never coached a losing team while at Wisconsin. His career record at Wisconsin shows 290 wins against 130 losses and 20 ties, and there is no team in the WCHA that can boast a winning margin against a Bob Johnson coached Badger team. During the 1970's five Badger teams have made it to the NCAA tournament with the '73 and '77 squads capturing the national title. Badger teams have also laid claim to 5 of the last 8 Big Ten hockey crowns. Seven of Johnson's skaters have been honored by being named to the All-American squad ten times. Coach Johnson was honored by his peers in 1977 by being named the WCHA Coach of the Year.

Johnson took over the coaching reins at Wisconsin in 1966. For three years the team operated as an independent before joining the tough Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA) for the 1969-70 campaign. That young band of upstarts surprised the hockey world that year by finishing fourth in the league when all other first-year teams previously had finished last. The Badgers then went on to their first NCAA tournament and finished third.

From 1973 through 1976 Johnson coached the U. S. National teams and the U.S. Olympic team which took fourth place in the 1976 Winter Games held in Innsbruck, Austria. Johnson's teams gained respect of the hockey community around the world and received the 1976 Meritorious Service Award from the Amateur Hockey Ass'n of the United States. Currently Bob serves as a consultant to the President's Commission on Olympic sports.

The 48-year-old Johnson is a native of Minneapolis, Minn. He played hockey and baseball at the University of North Dakota in 1950-51; and at the University of Minnesota 1952-54. Bob started his coaching career in 1956 at Warroad, Minn., and started a three-year stint at Colorado College in 1963 as hockey and baseball coach. His hockey teams at CC compiled a 29-51-3 record. In baseball, Johnson was named the Coach of the Year for NCAA College division Rocky Mtn. District in 1964 and '65.

Bob received a Bachelor of Science degree from Minnesota in '54 and holds a Master of Education degree, also from Minnesota. Along with his coaching duties at Wisconsin, he is also a professor in the Physical Education Department.

Bob and his wife Martha are the parents of five children.

GRANT STANDBROOK Assistant Coach - 4th Season

Grant Standbrook has fast become an important part of Wisconsin's highly successful hockey program. Coach Johnson has given Grant the responsibility of the Badgers off-ice conditioning program and the seeking out of prospective hockey players who can fit the mold of past Badger stand-outs. Grant works closely with Coach Johnson in assessing the Badger talent and performances. Coach Johnson has stated that he feels "there is no better assistant coach in the country than Grant Standbrook."

Prior to coming to Wisconsin Standbrook was Johnson's assistant coach for three years with the U.S. National and Olympic teams. A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Standbrook graduated from the University of Minnesota-Duluth in 1961. He lettered in hockey two years and was an alternate captain in 1960-61.

Standbrook, 42, began his coaching career at Churchill High School in Winnipeg in 1961. In 1963, he took over the coaching position at Greenway High School in Coleraine, Minn., and in three years his teams posted a 56-21-2 record.

Grant entered the college coaching ranks in 1966 when he joined the Dartmouth College staff; he became that school's head coach in 1970—a position he held for five years. At Dartmouth Grant also coached soccer and lacrosse. Grant was a member of the Canadian championship soccer team in 1963.

Grant and his wife Joy have three children.

TOM OSENTON Administrative Assistant - 2nd Season

Tom Osenton serves the Wisconsin hockey program in a number of ways; he not only works directly with Coach Johnson on a part-time basis, but he serves as the new Executive Director of the Blue Line Club of Madison. Tom succeeds Fenton Kelsey, who helped form the club and served in that capacity for 8 years.

Tom came to Wisconsin after being the Public Relations Director for the Amateur Hockey Association of the U.S. in 1976 and 1977. Tom is a 1976 graduate of New Hampshire, where he played hockey and majored in journalism.

Tom is a native of Brookline, MA, as is his wife Mary Ellen.

COACH BOB JOHNSON LOOKS AT THE BADGERS . . .

GOALTENDING: This appears to be a strong position with sophomore Roy Schultz, who had the best won-lost percentage in the WCHA last year, returning. Backing up Schultz will be junior Jamey Gremore, who has waited two years for the opportunity. With the addition of two freshmen and two members of the varsity reserve squad, it should be a real interesting camp for the goaltenders.

DEFENSE: This seems to be a solid position. Theran Welsh returns after two outstanding years. Ron Griffin, our only senior at this position, is healthy again and should add a lot of experience. Sophomores Randy Keller, Gilles Hudon and Jay McFarlane all gained valuable experience last year and will play key roles this year. Freshmen Pat Ethier and Jeff Andringa will challenge for positions and transfer Bruce Wallace could be a key man and really help the defense.

CENTER: Center spot is a real question mark with the loss of Mark Johnson. Jim Scheid, the only returning senior at center, will be one of the centers, along with lettermen Pete Johnson and Ken Keryluk. Freshman Lexi Doner will be relied upon to fill the void. Traditionally the Badgers have been strong at center, with WCHA MVP's of the last two years, Mike Eaves and Mark Johnson. This will definitely be the question mark.

LEFT WING: Again we'll have to rely on newcomers. Dan Gorowsky, Brian Campbell and Ed Lebler were all in-and-out players last year. Freshman Todd Lecy and transfer Chuck Durocher will play vital roles in this key position.

RIGHT WING: The right wing position seems to be the strongest. Mike Blaisdell, a promising freshman last season who was hampered by injuries for most of the year, returns and we expect a great year out of him. Scott Lecy, our leading scorer on the right side, returns, as does Dave Speer, Ron Vincent and Jon Morgan. The entire right side returns and should be our strongest position this year.

Randy Keller helps Roy Schultz.

ALL-TIME WISCONSIN WCHA ALL-STAR TEAM

Ten years ago, Bob Johnson and the University of Wisconsin entered an age that changed college hockey—the Badgers became members of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA).

In those ten years, the Badgers have won 171 WCHA games, lost 102 and tied 15 times for the best winning percentage in the league over the past decade (62%). In nine seasons, Johnson's teams have never had a losing record, finished in the top five in final league standings every year and captured two national championships.

In order to commemorate the Badgers' ten years in the WCHA, fans voted for the all-time Wisconsin WCHA All-Star team. The list of 66 former Badger lettermen who participated in WCHA action included eighteen professional hockey players and five All-Americans.

The all-time team, as selected by the fans, includes two All-Americans and five members of national championship teams—four of which played on the 1976-77 squad.

Here then, is "the team"—the "class of classes" over the past decade that molded Wisconsin hockey and its prominence in United States collegiate hockey.
