PATENT MOVABLE COVERS,

FOR

PRESCRIPTION BLANKS, NOTE HEADS, &C.

USEFUL, DURABLE,

FLEXIBLE, CHEAP.

We take pleasure in announcing to our numerous patrons and friends throughout the country, that we have purchased the above patent, which enables us to furnish them with the latest design and most improved cover ever introduced in the United States. It is in every respect durable, which, combined with the extraordinary low price and its utility, at once renders it desirable to every Physician and Druggist. The want of a cover for Physician's Prescription Papers without the heavy sides used on this class of goods heretofore manufactured has long been felt, and in our article we present a cover that is very flexible, light and finished in the latest design, at a price that has heretofore never been quoted.

As will be seen from above cuts, our Cover consists of the regular book of Prescription Blanks, bound with a piece of parchment or thin leather upon the back, and in the back of cover is a small metal tongue which slips under the parchment as the package of Blanks is inserted into the Cover from the side, thereby holding it firmly in place.

Figure 1 shows the packages of Blanks with attachment on the back as mentioned; and figure 3 the Cover with the tongue in back, which slips under the attachment when the book is inserted from the side, and thus held firmly in place as shown in figures 2 and 4

Price List of Prescription Cases:

STYLE 1—Is a plain finished, full leather cover,	price, 35 cts.
STYLE 2—Is bound in extra heavy leather,	40 cts.
STYLE 3—Handsomely bound, in heavy leather,	50 cts.
STYLE 4—Bound in full Russia leather or Morocco, and Physician's name handsomely finished in gill,	$ 1.00.

The Stationery Cases are well bound in cloth, with blotter on inside of cover and are very desirable to merchants in any line of business.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in presenting to the Druggists of America this edition of our SPECIMEN BOOK of designs, which we justly claim to be the most complete and elegant ever issued. We have reduced our prices on many classes of work, and not only guarantee that our work is equal to any produced in the country, but that our prices are as low as the lowest.

We have spared neither time or expense upon this work, and trust that our efforts will be duly appreciated, and we can assure our patrons that in every instance, their orders will meet with prompt and careful attention.

All prices in our book are for GUMMED AND CUT LABELS. When ungummed work is desired it must be so stated in the order, and on which we make a discount of 10 per cent.

Do not Cut or Mutilate this Book, but order by number of label, stating quantity desired and the reading to be inserted.

When labels differing in shape and size from anything shown in the book are desired, give us an outline of shape and size desired. And in ordering labels for panel bottles, give us the exact size. This can be done by pressing a piece of soft paper snugly to the face of the bottle and tracing the outline with a pencil. It is not sufficient to say "For 2 oz. panel" or "4 oz. ball neck panel," as the bottles of different manufacturers vary in size and form.

The attention of our customers is specially called to our new designs of stock labels for Toilet and Flavoring Extracts, Liquors, Essences, &c., &c., which have been designed especially for us by Artists of well known taste and skill.

We will cheerfully furnish estimates on large orders or on any special label in quantities.

Labels translated and printed in German, Scandanavian, Bohemian or French at an advance of 50 per cent. on list prices.

We furnish Imitation Glass Labels for bottles and drawers, in almost any desired style, at 5 cents each. When varnished as per directions, they are very handsome, and can be washed, and will last for years.

All round and oval labels trimmed to border without extra charge.

In ordering give name and address in print if convenient. In writing be careful to make the name and address very plain, and bring the capital J down below the line to distinguish it from the capital I.

We wish to call the attention of our old friends and patrons to our samples of Job Work, Seidlitz Powder Wrappers, Letter, Note and Bill Heads, Cards, and, in short, we execute every description of printing in first-class style, and at lowest prices.

Our facilities for printing Patent Medicine Wrappers, in any language, are unexcelled, and we would request manufacturers in this line, to write for prices before ordering elsewhere.

Prescription Blanks.—As will be seen by reference to our price list, our Prescription Blanks are now offered as low as any quoted by other Druggists' printing establishments in the United States. We shall be pleased to give special figures to parties desiring any blank in large quantities.

Prescription Cases.—We have now perfected arrangements for the manufacture of the most perfect movable cover ever presented to the public, (see preceding page,) and they supply a need long felt. We feel that our trade in this line will be very large.

Druggists' Label Cabinet.—By reference to inside of back cover, will be found a description of one of the most useful articles ever invented for Druggists' use, and upon reading its merits every Druggist will see its utility and feel his store incomplete without it. Highly recommended by Lord, Stoutenburgh & Co., Chicago, Meyer Bros. & Co., St. Louis, and other leading Wholesale Druggists throughout the country.

TERMS.—Our terms to parties with whom we are unacquainted in a business way, are cash in advance, or first-class Chicago reference. All accounts not paid within 30 days subject to sight draft. Remittances must be made by Draft on Chicago or New York, or P. O. Money Order. When checks on local banks are sent us, the cost of collection must be added. We pay no exchange or express charges on remittances.

On orders amounting to $25.00 we make a discount of 10 per cent., and when cash accompanies order we prepay the transportation charges.

On packages sent C. O. D., the charges for collection will be added.

Respectfully yours,

O. P. BASSETT & CO.

ALKALINE Effervescent Aperient

For Biliousness and Urinary Disorders.

This preparation is a combination of the salts contained in several mineral waters. It has the immense advantage to act as an aperient as well as a diuretic. No preparation is therefore more desirable.

It takes the place of sedlitz powders for its cheapness and pleasantness. The surest cure can be expected in dryness of the throat, costiveness, heartburn, biliousness, piles, and ladies' sick headache. It is a very fine refreshment in small doses; keeps the blood cool, and prevents drinking too much water in summer.

Directions.—As a refreshment, a teaspoonful in half a tumbler of cold water. As an aperient or diuretic, a tablespoonful is required, from one to three times a day, according to circumstances.

BITTER WINE OF IRON.

This is the most valuable of all the varieties in use, and stands unrivaled as the most powerful Tonic and Febrifuge known. This preparation holds in solution all the soluble active principles as they naturally exist, and are combined with aromatics so nicely proportioned as to add effectiveness, and thus rendering the preparation absolutely delicious, differing greatly in this respect from all other preparations of Iron. It is particularly recommended to persons of delicate, languid habits, and weak stomach. It promotes digestion, improves the appetite, and gives tone and energy to the whole system.

DIRECTIONS.

Dose for an adult, a tablespoonful three times a day, half an hour before meals; children may take a teaspoonful three or four times a day, with a little water.

The Iron has no taste, and the bitterness is that of Peruvian Bark. It neither discolors the teeth nor induces headache.

WINE OF IRON

THIS is the most valuable of all the varieties in use, and stands unrivalled as the most powerful tonic and febrifuge now known. It is particularly recommended to persons of delicate, languid habits, and weak stomach. It promotes digestion, improves the appetite, and gives energy and tone to the whole system.

DIRECTIONS.

Dose for an adult, a tablespoonful three times a day, half an hour before meals; children may take a teaspoonful three or four times a day, in a little water.

The Iron has no taste, and the bitterness is that of Peruvian Bark. It neither discolors the teeth nor induces the headache.

PURE ESSENCE
JAMAICA GINGER.

This Essence is warranted to possess, in a concentrated form, all the valuable properties of Jamaica Ginger and will be found on trial an excellent Family Medicine. It is particularly recommended as a tonic, to persons recovering from fevers and other diseases, a few drops imparting a glow and vigor to the stomach equal to a wine-glassful of Brandy or other stimulant, without any of the debilitating effects which are sure to follow the use of liquors of any kind; and it is therefore especially serviceable to children and females. To the aged it will prove a great comfort, to the dyspeptic, and to those who are predisposed to gout and rheumatic affections, it gives great relief; and to the inebriate who wishes to reform, but whose stomach is constantly craving the noxious liquors it is invaluable, giving tone to the digestive organs, and strength to resist temptation, and is consequently a great agent in the cause of temperance.

DOSE.—For a grown person, one teaspoonful; for a child two to five years old, 15 to 20 drops. To be given in sugar and water.

☞ Dissolve a tablespoonful of white sugar in a tumbler of water, and add a teaspoonful of Essence, mix it, and you have a delicious drink. Try it.

MITCHELL'S

DRUGGISTS' LABEL CABINET.

PATENTED. (FOR) OCT. 22, 1878.

CONVENIENCE, SIMPLICITY,
DURABILITY AND TIME-SAVING.

IT STANDS UNRIVALED.

The Cabinet or casing is made in three different sizes, out of oiled walnut, and are made to suit the three first sizes of the general stock label. Size No. 1 contains 50, size No. 2 contains 75, and size No. 3 contains 100 compartments, respectively. The prices on cabinet made, as shown in cut figure 1 for No. 1, is $10.00; No. 2, $12.50; No. 3, $15.00. These Cabinets are also made to order and may be made of any size or desired shape to suit the convenience or wishes of the dispenser. Where the Cabinets are made to order, the prices will be for each Cabinet containing fifty compartments, and under, $10; and for each containing over fifty and under seventy-five compartments, $12.50; and for each Cabinet containing seventy-five and under one hundred compartments, $15.00.

In order to present an idea of the general appearance and mechanism of the device, we refer the reader to the accompanying cuts, one of which (fig. 1) represents a very desirable pattern, so constructed as to rest on the base shelf and reach to the shelf above, being entirely out of the way and furnishing a very attractive ornament to the store. This figure gives a front view of the Cabinet with several labels protruding from their compartment from which they have been partially extracted, simply to show the process. The manner of withdrawing them may be seen at once by the position of the hand, the first finger of which is moistened and inserted in the compartment, pressing gently against the gummed surface of the label and drawing it forward, when the thumb and finger removes it entirely from its place. By an examination of figure 2, which represents a transverse vertical section of a Cabinet, with desk attachment, the various novel parts and mode of operation will be better understood. The casing A is divided longitudinally by a vertical partition b, into two chambers, C and D, and its rear side is provided with a hinged door to give access to the various parts employed. The spring s is attached to a hook, t, and to the hook m a part of the lever M which hold the labels firmly to their place. This passes through the slot n in the partition b and rests on the follower K. The follower is made to fit each compartment neatly, pressing the label downward on the bars or cleat H. The plates J run across from right to left, upon which is marked the words or figures designating the contents of each compartment. The distance between the lower edge of this plate and the upper surface of the cleats or bars H at their front ends is slightly greater than the thickness of the label, allowing just sufficient space for the passage of a single label between said plate and bars.

In ordering a Cabinet to be made to order, give the size of the space in which you wish to place it, then attach to the order the different sizes of labels which you wish to place in the Cabinet, so that we know the exact size to make the compartments. No pains have been spared to make these Cabinets desirable in every way, and they will meet a want long felt by druggists. Being manufactured in quantities, and sold at a very small profit, they are rendered very cheap. Cabinet No. 1 (which contains 50 compartments) occupies a space 16x18 inches, and Cabinet No. 3, which is shown in cut, which has 100 compartments, occupies a space of 16x36 inches.

We would call the attention of our patrons to the newly devised "Druggist's Label Cabinet," which we claim is so great a convenience to the druggist or apothecary, that a casual glance at its general appearance will suffice to convince the most skeptical that it would prove a valuable adjunct to his business apparatus.

Heretofore it has been the custom, almost universally, for druggists to keep their labels in a drawer or drawers divided into compartments to accommodate the various kinds required, the inconvenience of which is apparent to every one who has passed through the annoying ordeal of trying to find just the right label, in a great hurry, in a vexatious mass which has become mixed through carelessness and inattention, and which becomes daily and hourly worse mixed from repeated ransacking, to say nothing of their rumpled or soiled condition from constant handling and with various substances that may be spilled upon them while the drawer is open, rendering them totally unfit for use, and if used, a very unenviable advertisement of the carelessness and untidiness of the vender. This may seem at first glance, a matter of but trifling consequence, but upon a little calm reflection, it will readily show itself of very great importance. There is perhaps nothing in the universe about which mankind generally are so particular as the medicines which sickness compels them to make use of, and after satisfying themselves as to the competency of the physician, the great desideratum is to feel assured that the apothecary fully understands the compounding of the prescription; and carelessness or slovenliness in the matter of the plainness or appearance of labels would be to the very precise or hypochondriac patient ample ground for questioning both the contents of the phial or package, and the reliability of the party compounding it.

The patentee having been in the drug business for a term of years and recognizing the importance of the above undeniable facts, he has, by a course of experiments, at last hit upon the device hereinafter described to remedy all the above annoyances set forth, with many more that could be mentioned and by having it in constant use in his own establishment, thereby fully demonstrating its practical utility and durability, was induced to take out letters patent and to enter into arrangements for their manufacture on a scale which enables him to offer them to the trade at prices within the reach of every druggist.

The Cabinet is not only an ornament but a great time saving institution, as under the old way of keeping labels, it takes longer to label a package than it does to put it up, but by using this Cabinet, a label can be procured in an instant; furthermore you will find no soiled or wasted labels, so in this alone you will save in one year, the price of a Cabinet.

Hoping to receive your order, we remain Respectfully Yours,
