A NEW FORMAT

Because of rising printing costs and the paper shortage, the QUARTERLY is assuming a new look this year. We have redesigned the format so that it can be printed in our own duplicating room thereby saving lots of money and paper. Let us know what you think of the final product.

NEW DIRECTIONS AT THE COMMONS ENTRANCE

Behind the temporary construction wall (recently embellished with super graphics) a new Commons entrance continues to take shape. In addition, the corridor will be widened and a new Commons desk will emerge, complete with delicatessen and sweet shoppe. The food service staff is now taking a survey of the items most wanted in the deli. Call Russ Leverenz, assistant food service director, at 263-3938 and give him your suggestions.

A RESIGNATION AND NEW APPOINTMENTS

Roger Rodzen, who has been associate director for the past five years, resigned as of the end of June. Assigned to fill the responsibilities he leaves are Tom Smith, formerly operations manager, who becomes assistant director - operations, and Bob Serrano, building use coordinator, who assumes the position of assistant director - Memorial Union. Tom will oversee such services as food, personnel, maintenance, fiscal services, Commons desk, games room, guest rooms and outing center. Bob will be responsible for central reservations, building use, building supervision, the main desk, info booth, travel center and craftshop.

MRS. CARYL MILLER RETIRES AFTER 45 YEARS

Holding perhaps one of the longest term service records in the history of the state and the Union, Caryl Miller, administrative secretary for the Union for more than 45 years, will retire September 15.

She started her Union service in the business office August 1, 1928, a month before the new Memorial Union building opened to the public. She became secretary to Porter Butts, Union director, on April 1, 1929 and has served continuously as his secretary until her retirement. She assisted in fund-raising for improvements in the Memorial Union building. Along with Director Butts, she has prepared a semi-annual newsletter mailed to more than 800 former student officers and staff members of the Union, and is well known to most of them -- many of whom come in to see her when they revisit the campus.

REAQUAINT YOURSELF WITH THE CAMPUS

Walking tours of the UW-Madison campus leave the Memorial Union information booth at the Park Street entrance at 1 p.m. daily during good weather. The free, guided tour lasts for approximately one hour.

A RECENT GRAD REMINISCES

Among the hundreds of recent graduates who took out life memberships this spring was Tom Oscar, a 1972 graduate living in Oshkosh. He wrote: "I would like to take this opportunity to express my enthusiastic support of the excellent facilities the Memorial Union has provided for the thousands of students over the years. While attending the University, my wife and I have enjoyed many lazy sunfilled afternoons lying on the gress in front of the Union, or a cold winter evening snuggled up in front of the big fireplace.

"I remember the relaxation I found during exam time by attending one of many movies offered at the Play Circle, or when I had my hands covered in clay up in the workshop.

"These and many other moments were a part of my life at the Memorial Union, that is why I wish to remain a member of this wonderful Association."

RIDE THE SHOPPERS SHUTTLE TO THE UNION

The 5¢ shoppers shuttle bus that started last year has expanded its service and now operates two buses from 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday. A third bus is added from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on weekdays. The route is around the square and down State Street, Lake Street to Langdon and Langdon to Park and back up State. The bus stops in front of the Union at the corner of Langdon and Park Streets.

QUICK NOTES ---

The UW Board of Regents has granted Professor Emeritus status to Porter Butts, retired Union director.

State .

The latest on parking around the Memorial Union is that lots 1 (between the Union and Red Gym) and 6 (first floor of Helen C. White Library) will be metered from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday. Lot 6 in the lower level of the Helen C. White will have attendant parking on theater nights. The lot at the corner of Park and Johnson streets will have permit parking but will be open at night to the public.

The popular Mini-courses, ranging from earth food cooking to sandal making, were an experimental program sponsored by the Union this past year. The response was so good that plans are underway to expand the program next year so it is possible for non-student Union members to participate. Members who are interested in receiving a schedule of the series (which will probably be available in late fall) should write or call the Program office, room 507, Memorial Union. Phone: 262-2214.

Salas

Mail orders for the 1973 series of Tudor Dinners will be accepted starting Monday, November 26 with open sale starting Monday, December 3 for any remaining tickets. Ticket orders received before Monday, November 26 will be returned. The dates for this year's dinners are December 6 through 10. The Madison Philharmonic Chorus will be featured.

dolok

Football Saturdays at Union South will once again feature a Badger Bash with Doc DeHaven from 4 to 6 p.m. A knackwurst and beer stand will be set up those days from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at South.

HOOFERS PLANNING A BIG YEAR

The six Hoofer clubs are getting into gear for the 1973-74 season and have announced a number of activities.

One area traditionally of interest to our annual and life members is the skiing activity. Among the highlights of the snow season for the Ski Club are: a trip to Kitzbushel, Austria scheduled for January 5 through 13; trips over Christmas break are being planned to areas such as Vail, Keystone, Jackson and Targhee; the traditional semester break trip to Michigan will leave January 11, 1974. Later in the season there will be day, evening and weekend trips. Beginning early in the second semester will be the popular Learn to Ski series. The Ski Club's annual kick-off meeting is October 10 in the Memorial Union.

The Hoofer Sailing Club, the largest and best equipped in the country, will have a fall sailing season and plans to have its opening meeting on August 29 at 7:30 p.m. in Great Hall.

Outing Club, which meets every Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Hoofers quarters, engaged in quietwater and whitewater canoeing, kayaking, bike trips, backpacking, dayhiking, cross-country skiing and snow-shoeing. And, you don't have to be an expert, they offer free instruction in all areas of activity.

Other Hoofer clubs are: Riding Club, which meets Wednesdays at 7 p.m.; Mountaineering, which holds meetings every Thursday at 7 p.m.; and the Ecology Club.

OUTING CENTER CLEARANCE SALE

A special clearance sale will be held on the Union Theater terrace from August 21 through 25 by the Union Outing Center. (In case of rain, it will move into 12th Night Room). The items on sale include tents, hiking boots, sleeping bags, camping accessories, back packs, and winter jackets. A large number of items will be marked down to ten percent above dealer's cost.
