The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Nathaniel Domingy Sr

Dr. Sir

I am about publishing a History of East Hampton & would like to insert therein the Genealogy of the Domingy Family - If within two months you could prepare for insertion this Genealogy or procure some one of the family to do it I will incorporate in the History. I can afford space for say 6 pages manuscript to also cap. Size written on one side only.
It is now or never. Please write as soon as possible if you will do this work which my age & other labors prevent

I am yours Truly
