WISCONSIN HEADS THE "BIG NINE" PERCENTAGE COLUMN.

Beloit and Notre Dame Come Wednesday and Saturday—Varsity Expects to Take Both Games.

	W.	L.	P. C.
Wisconsin	4	0	1.000
Michigan	4	2	.667
Chicago	3	4	.428
Illinois	3	4	.428
Northwestern	1	4	.200
Minnesota	1	4	.200

The strings on the western pennant have untangled themselves considerably during the past week. The situation, in fact, has cleared up to such an extent that the leaders show themselves well ahead of the bunch while the toboggan favorites have commenced their annual slide.

Wisconsin still leads. Although but one championship game was played by the Badgers, they continued their grand-stand finish stunt and defeated the Maroons with a rush in the ninth inning.

Michigan wrested second place from Chicago by her victory over Illinois. There seems to be a hoodoo at every game the blue and gold play with the Wolverines. They had defeated Stagg's aggregation for the second time earlier in the week and were confident of a victory over Michigan. By this victory the Wolverines show themselves of championship timber and promise to be a strong factor at the finish. Chicago is on the downward slide with a vengeance. Out of three championship contests the Midway crew were unable to secure a single victory. Unless a brace is taken very soon Stagg's pets have a beautiful prospect of resting easily in the lowest berth.

Northwestern did nothing in championship circles since her defeat by Wisconsin. Her record continues the same, with a few more defeats to her credit from the second rate teams. Minnesota has again passed into oblivion since her decapitation of the Maroons after an otherwise disastrous trip.

The good standing of the Badgers must not make the team overconfident. The games thus far played have with one exception been on the home grounds before a friendly crowd and even then nearly all the games have been won by a close score. This week there are two of the hardest, although not championship games. Should the local team make a good showing in these, even if defeated, its supporters may well look for a favorable outcome of the prospective trip.

Saturday's Game.

The rooter's cup of joy was filled to overflowing Saturday when Captain Pierce took a fall out of the Midway aggregation. The game was close throughout, the teams see-sawing back and forth in their efforts to obtain the lead. From a baseball standpoint it was a poor game; errors were plentiful on both sides while both pitchers were generous in their passes to first. Mathews was even more wild than Smith but when he did cut the plate the Baptists could not find them and but five hits were harvested off of his delivery.

The game was not won until the last inning.

The men from the Windy City went out in one, two, three order in their half of the ninth and Wisconsin came to bat with the score tied. Harkin sent a liner into right garden which looked like a safe one but a Maroon gobbled it. Leighton could do no better and went out on a sharp fielding chance to Merrifield. The enthusiastic rooting of the crowd began to tell on "Tibby" Smith and he passed Pierce to first on four wild ones. Ware was next up and the crowd yelled with glee. With his usual nonchalance, he stepped to plate and picked out a ball to his liking. A safe hit to right field was the result and while fielder Place and third baseman Howe were juggling the ball, Pierce scampered home with the winning run. The crowd immediately surged on to the field and for the first time in years a jollification was held after a baseball victory. The players were lifted on the shoulders of the crowd and with the band in the lead, marched

FINAL CONCERT

CHORAL UNION WITH FINE SOLOISTS THURSDAY EVENING.

Mrs. Louise Auer, Soprano and August Hyllested, Pianist Will Appear—Both Excellent Artists.

The next Choral Union concert will be given in Library Hall Thursday evening and will be an excellent entertainment.

The program will open with a very timely number, Sullivan's "Song of Peace," which is especially appropriate just as hostilities are closbetter player, but more interesting in recitals."

Tickets will be fifty cents; reserved seats will be seventy-five. Seats can be reserved at Pickarts' bookstore beginning to-morrow morning at nine o'clock.

SACRED MUSIC.

Excellent Program Well Presented at Yesterday's Concert.

The Sacred Concert given by the Christian Association yesterday afternoon was remarkably successful and surpassed all previous events of its kind. The entire program was exceptionally good and included numbers by the most talented musicians in the University and city all of whom rendered their selections excellently. Fully nine hundred people were present and every available seat was filled.

After the doxology the Men's Glee Club sang "The Storm" by Durner. Miss Marjorie G. McCawley's rendition of Allah was well received. The productions of the trio: Mrs. Noble, Miss Pickarts and Mrs. Voss gave evidence of finished musical talent. Professor Olson who is recognized as an artist in German songs concluded the first part of the program with two selections from Beethoven. His interpretation of "Busslied" was especially fine.

The first number of the second part was furnished by the Girls' Glee Club and was received with great appreciation. Mr. W. M. Fowler's piano solo showed a great adeptness upon that instrument. One of the principal features of the program was the contralto solo by Miss Ella M. Helm with quartette accompaniment. Mr. Ehlman's performance on the cello was good.

The splendid program was concluded with a number by Anderson's Mandolin Orchestra which was presented in an excellent manner.

Naval Ball.

University society turned out in full force Saturday evening to make the Naval Ball at the gymnasium a thorough success. Fraternities and sororities did not entertain in anticipation of the affair, and as a result nearly two hundred couples were present. The gymnasium was simply but tastily decorated for the occasion. A strip of cardinal bunting circled the room, on which shields of blue and red, with the interwoven U. W. or anchors, were fastened. Oars of blue and red were crossed upon the walls at frequent intervals. At the north end of the great room was a daintily constructed nook of bunting with pillars of draped oars. There were sixteen numbers and five extras upon the program.

To a great extent the affair was informal, and ball dresses and evening suits were in the minority. The patrons and patronesses were Gov. and Mrs. R. M. La Follette, Prof. and Mrs. Julius E. Olson, Miss Mayhew, Messrs. and Mesdames E. A. Birge, J. B. Johnson, Fred M. Brown, R. M. Bashford, A. L. Sanborn, B. J. Stevens, E. M. Fuller, C. F. Spensley, Carl A. Johnson and H. B. Hobbins.

ing in the Philippines. The closing number will be Barbara Fritsche, music by Jules Jordan, and the poem by J. G. Whittier, recalling a celebrated incident in the civil war. The remainder of the program will be miscellaneous. Professor Nitschke's orchestra will accompany the chorus.

The soloists of the evening will be Mrs. Louise Auer, soprano, and August Hyllested, pianist. Mrs. Auer is a favorite Milwaukee soprano, and has had thoroughly operatic training and wide experience. For several years she did not appear in public, but last February was engaged by the Orion club to take the place of an artist who had disappointed them. Her success in this appearance was so great that she was immediately engaged to take the leading part in their next concert.

The violinist, Mr. Reuter, who is scheduled on the bill boards, will not be able to be here. The Choral Union has been especially fortunate in securing in his place the famous Scandinavian pianist, August Hyllested, a man of wide European reputation. Mr. Hyllested is unquestionably one of the world's greatest pianists. He has played before nearly all the royal families of Europe, was decorated by the Italian government and at present holds the position of court pianist to the King of Sweden.

In a recent number of the magazine, "Music," the editor, Mr. W. S. B. Mathews, in his comments upon Mr. Paderewski says: "I have heard it maintained stoutly that a Chicago pianist, Mr. Hyllested, is not only a

We Need Some More of It.

The Cardinal is pleased to note that its discussion of the fee question is stimulating thought on the matter, and it will be glad to publish any further contributions to either side of the discussion. It is a vital question and one that not only merits but absolutely requires the fullest and freest consideration by those most directly interested.

The Right Spirit Again.

The enthusiasm of the rooters both during and after the game with Chicago Saturday, was a sight to warm the cockles of anybody's heart. Rooting, as every one knows, has won many a game for Wisconsin on the gridiron, but the same could not be said as regards base-ball, up to the time of the Minnesota game a week or so ago. Consequently, the enthusiasm which the rooters have manifested at the last few championship games, although tardy is emphatically the right thing and augurs well for the success of the team in the remaining games.

Victory over Chicago is always a matter of rejoicing but the team is to be especially congratulated on the plucky fight it made last Saturday. The team deserves the support of every student, and nothing but big crowds should greet them at all the remaining games.

The Weather.
Warmer Tuesday.

To the Editor:—
Communication.

The question of the abolition of University fees, as it came before the legislature recently, is one about which, as it seems to me, there should be no disagreement among the friends of the University. The appropriations for the next two years were already made, and were made with reference to the fact that the University is already receiving an income of thirty thousand dollars or so in the shape of fees. To abolish fees, therefore, simply means a reduction in the University appropriation by so much, and this in the face of the fact that the attendance of students is increasing steadily. Such a move as that is not progress, it is retrenchment and retrogression, and I do not see how it could fail to result in harm to the University.

As to the question of the abolition of fees, on general principles, it may be of benefit to the University, providing the state will make up the deficiency by appropriations.

The present writer, however, has always felt, considering the expense borne by the state, that a fee of twenty dollars or so was not a very heavy burden. As to the proposition that a technical or professional education should be furnished absolutely free to all, it seems to be a rather strong doctrine.

In any case, to take away from the Board of Regents all power to prescribe fees for students living in the state, seems to me to be a radical step, one that need not be taken, and one that should not be taken until the regular income of the University is on a firmer basis than at present.

Receptions to Co-eds.

The last in the pleasant series of receptions given for the young women of the University by a number of ladies of the faculty and city was held Saturday afternoon and between four score and a hundred of the girl students availed themselves of this opportunity of enjoying an afternoon and extending their acquaintance. Refreshments were served at each place and the hostesses were in each instance assisted. Receiving with Mrs. Burr W. Jones were Mesdames R. W. Wood, L. D. Harvey, Misses Helen and Gladys Harvey, Lillian Fox, Lois Main and Marion Jones; with Mrs. M. V. O'Shea, Mesdames F. H. Edsall, H. B. Hobbins, H. W. Hillyer, Julius E. Olson, W. A. Scott; Misses Bostwick, Pfisterer, Stillman, Curtis, McEvine, Seiber, Simonds and Millington; with Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mesdames E. R. Maurer, E. D. Jones, F. E. Turneaure and D. C. LAST BLOWOUT.

Hesperia's Freshmen Present Good Debates—Semi-Public Team.

Hesperia held her Freshman Blowout last Saturday night and two very good debates were presented. The first one was upon the question—Resolved, That an offensive and defensive alliance by treaty between the United States and England would be for the best interests of mankind. It was upheld on the affirmative by Pomeroy, Hyland, Bommersheim, Grove, and Steinbrecher (closer); on the negative by Cunneen, Freeman, Eggum, Fuller, and Yager (closer). The jury decided in favor of the negative.

The second debate was very closely contested on both sides. The question was: Resolved, That the government ought to construct an extensive system of irrigation works. On the affirmative were Rossing, Pease, Allen and Sargent (closer); and on the negative Edwards, Drew, Van Hagen and Larsen (closer). The decision was given to the affirmative.

After the debates the following men were elected to constitute next year's Semi-Public team: Yager and Sargent (closers), Allen, Larsen, Pease and Steinbrecher.
