Meal Ticket Subsidy Discussed by Board

Dick Oberly Named
To Personnel Post

An unexpected motion was introduced in the student board meeting last night that sought to grant a subsidy of $20 in meal tickets usable in the Memorial Union to the president of the board. Barbara Mackey presented the idea, but the motion was tabled until legal aspects involved could be clarified.

Appointments of Dick Oberly as board personnel director and Martha Wells as head of the Campus Community Chest were made by C. P. Runge, president.

All members of the board were present at the meeting.

A final draft of the student court plan has been drawn up by the faculty discipline committee, Runge reported, and has been sent to Dean George Sellery. The committee will recommend that the faculty accept the plan when they meet to consider the question. Dean Sellery is to call a special faculty meeting. Prof. R. C. Emmons is chairman of the faculty discipline committee.

On a suggestion by Gorenstein, it was decided that freshmen should be educated on the court plan during orientation week next fall. If the faculty acts favorably, a referendum will be voted on by students in the fall.

Heffernan as chairman of the election rules survey committee named Bud Reynolds, and Carla Waller as committee members.

In answer to a suggestion by Bosshard that the student board pay its president outright, Miss Mackey declared that would be a violation of a state law forbidding paying directors of non-profit organizations. Until this could be ruled upon, the motion was laid on the table.

Miss Mackey said she felt any president of the board puts in so much time as the chief executive that he often must eat his meals at the

Black Elected To Alum Board

Raymond D. Black, Delta Upsilon, former president of the Wisconsin Union, was elected to the senior position on the Wisconsin Alumni association board of directors, following tabulation of complete returns in the all-senior mail ballot elections which closed Monday. Arthur Nielsen, senior council elections chairman, announced last night.

A total of 458 ballots were returned by the deadline Monday, according to Nielsen. Black polled 151 votes, winning over Ray Zahn, Delta Upsilon, by 18 votes. Other candidates were George Carlson, Eva Jollos, and William Baker, Delta Upsilon.

Ballots were mailed to all graduating seniors last week, together with membership blanks and information about the alumni association. The mail ballot election was the first of its kind to be held on the campus.

Black, a senior and first year law student, is former president of the Fraternity Stewards' association and of the Fraternity Buyers' cooperative, an elder at the Presbyterian student church, former vice president of Phi Eta Sigma, and a former member of the freshman and varsity basketball squads.

PLEDGES SELL WEEKEND TAGS

Working on the theory that one can't resist a pretty girl, sorority pledges will be approaching students all over the campus urging them to buy Parents' weekend tags today.

"Tag Day" today will wind up the sale of Parents' weekend tags which has been going on in all organized houses. The results have been very satisfactory, Co-Chairmen Ruth Brown and Herb Stone report.

Parents' weekend, May 23-25, is entirely self-supporting and is financed by this tag sale.

Partly cloudy and warmer. Showers today and tomorrow.

Herfurth, Day Awards Given To Seniors Today

The winner of the Kenneth Sterling Day award, given annually to a senior man chosen for his outstanding moral qualities and his influence in constructive forces in campus life, will be announced tomorrow.

The winner is to be chosen by a committee representing all divisions of the university including Prof. George S. Ryan, chairman, Prof. R. R. Aurora, Dean Baldwin, Prof. H. C. Bradley, Dean Holt, Prof. Guy Fowlkes and T. E. Jones, track coach.

The considerations for choosing the winner of the award, which was founded in 1923 in memory of Kenneth Sterling Day, an outstanding student who died in his junior year here, are listed as five: 1) the candidate's fine moral character, 2) his influences in constructive forces in campus life, 3) his interest in religious activities and his effective promotion of them in the university, 4) his high scholastic standing, and 5) his physical rating as evidenced by participation in sports, and in maintenance of superior physical well-being.

Eddy Howard to Help Pick Forestry Court

Eddy Howard, former Dick Jurgens vocalist; "Rouny" Coughlin, Madison columnist; Assemblyman Mark Catlin, Jr.; and Swimming Coach Joseph Steinauer will select the university's first forestry court of honor at 4:15 this afternoon in Great hall of the Memorial Union.

The entire campus is invited to attend the selection, Contest Chairman Paul Pohle announced last night.

Twelve sororities, Ann Emery hall, and Barnard will be represented in the finals today. The court will preside at the planting of a tree Saturday.

WILLIAM DEERHAKE

Deerhake Is New Interfraternity Board President

William Deerhake, Delta Tau Delta, a junior in the College of Engineering, was elected president of the interfraternity board for the coming year at the board's annual luncheon meeting Tuesday. Franz Dykstra, Delta Upsilon, newly elected junior member of the board, was chosen secretary. Robert Taylor, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, sophomore member of the board, will serve as treasurer.

Deerhake has served as treasurer of the board for the past year. He was a member of Pyramid and Mace, has served on orientation committees, and is a member of Eta Kappa Nu, honorary engineering fraternity. By virtue of his election, he will be king of Interfraternity ball next year.

Dykstra has been active on the crew, the Union directorate, and was an assistant chairman for Dad's day and Winter carnival. Taylor has served on orientation, and was the only undergraduate member of the committee which put on the recent interfraternity banquet.

Besides Deerhake, Dykstra, and Taylor, the interfraternity board for the coming year is composed of Ralph Mirman, Phi Sigma Delta, a junior, and Art Siedel, Delta Kappa Epsilon, newly elected sophomore member. Retiring board members who attended their last meeting yesterday are Hugh Jones, Alpha Tau Omega, past president, Warren Nelson, Sigma Chi, retiring secretary, and Art Voss, Phi Delta Theta.

Next meeting of the interfraternity council will be held Thursday evening. Rushing chairmen of all fraternities will attend to discuss rushing plans for the summer and next fall.

Song Tourney Prelims Held After Mortar Board Supper

Twenty campus groups will compete tonight in the preliminaries on the annual Tourney of Song, which will start in the Union theater at 7 tonight, immediately after the conclusion of the Mortar Board May Day supper in the rathskeller.

From the following array of competition six sororities, five fraternities, and two groups each from the men's

Robert Woolen, chairman of the tourney, urges the groups appearing early in the schedule to eat in the first shift at the Mortar Board supper. They are then to assemble at the Park street entrance of the Union and wait their turn. Woolen emphasizes the fact that any group not present at its scheduled time will be eliminated from the contest.

and women's independent organizations will be selected to take part in the tourney finals, to take place during Parents' weekend. The competitors will appear in the order listed:

Independent women—Barnard hall, Elizabeth Waters hall, Chadbourne hall.

Independent men—Badger club, Men's halls, Wesley Men of Song.

Sororities—Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Xi Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi

Gaffney Is Chief Civil Engineers Organize Staff For Work Day

Civil engineers under the supervision of Prof. R. S. Owen, have completed their working staff for the lake road paving next Saturday. Dan Gaffney, chief engineer of the staff, announced last night.

After 50 hours of work surveying the road and drawing profiles, the staff has been broken into units with an inspector in charge every 100 feet. The entire road will be broken into two divisions with two division engineers responsible for the section inspectors under him.

Following is the staff:

Dan Gaffney chief engineer assisted by Max Brokaw. Division engineers are Edward Kuenzi and Edmund Ryan. They will be assisted by Gerald Fintak and Willis Carpenter.

Resident engineers in charge of a quarter of the road are Arlie Dent, Melvin Ree, Willard Warzyn, and Duane Dixon.

Inspectors are Robert Joiner, Jim Lippert, Alfred Glenn, Myron Thompson, Roger Peters, Frank Sandner, Roman Berzowski, Carl Iverson, Al Ingerson, Walter Mutka, Robert Munson, and Lloyd Lang.

Seniors Get 1:30s

Betty Biart, WSGA president, announced at the student board meeting last night that the women's house presidents' council had voted to grant all senior women 1:30 nights during senior week. The measure was approved by the student life and interests committee.

The 22nd annual May Day supper, sponsored by Mortar Board, honorary organization for senior women, will be held in the rathskeller of the Memorial Union from 5:30 to 7 tonight. Proceeds of the supper will be awarded as scholarships to worthy junior women at Senior Swingout, Friday, May 23.

The supper precedes the preliminaries of the all-university Tournament of Song, which will be held in the Union theater. Tickets to the supper, now on sale at the Union desk, include admission to the song tryouts.

Beth Schuster, tickets chairman for the affair, announces that over 1,200 tickets have been sold, with many sororities, fraternities and dormitory blocks attending 100 per cent.

General chairman of the May Day supper is Florence Daniels, Alpha Xi Delta. The 20 members of Mortar Board will assist her tonight in ushering and ticket-taking, under the chairmanship of Mary Margaret Adams, Kappa Alpha Theta. In addition, Crucible, honorary organization for junior women, will act as ushers.

'Humanist Education Promotes Good Life,' Prof. Dillon Explains

By MICHAEL A. HARRIS

"The purpose of humanist education is not to teach a love of democracy or of tyranny or how to best earn a living or even good citizenship as such. It is to promote 'the good life,' or the making of 'sound moral judgments.'

Speaking last night in Tripp commons after he and John Kenyon, noted language authority now here on a Carnegie foundation fellowship, had been made honorary members of Phi Beta Kappa, Prof. Myles Dillon, head of the Gaelic department, explained to the 43rd class of initiates of that society in these terms his concept of what he called "the new humanism."

"There is a tendency to avoid difficulties, to avoid hard work, under the present humanitarian system of education," he said. "There is an effort to avoid competition or even of turning a first-rate performance for fear of leaving the crowd into which humanitarians escape."

"You," he told the 50 students elected to Phi Beta Kappa, "are the exceptions, and I congratulate you for it."

What the humanitarian seeks, Professor Dillon charged, is well-regulated (Continued on page 8)

Haresfoot Prexy For 1942 Will Be Fred Doerflinger

Fred Doerflinger, junior in the School of Journalism, and formerly assistant publicity director of the Haresfoot club, was named president of Haresfoot for 1942 at the annual banquet of the club last night in the Capital hotel.

Other officers are Frank Coyne, business manager; Jackie Segal, vice president; Wayne Rounds, keeper of the Haresfoot; Pete Blewett, production manager; Carl Stolper, secretary; and Chuck Figg, treasurer.

New members initiated at the banquet included Stan Grand, Newell Dunn, Emil House, Fred Gerber, Pete Blewett, Bob Lumsden, Jim Porter, Carl Stolper, Bob Lalk, Fred Doerflinger, Eugene Dettloff, Bob Kressin, Al Geigel, Dick Ambrose, Paul Trapp, Lee Imhoff, Phil Bowers, Ken Hobkirk, Jack Rael, Stan Ehlenbeck, Al Beaumont, Wally Barlow, and Bob Fleury.

Four honorary members were also initiated—Prof. Frank Thayer, for his great services to Haresfoot; Henry Rungar, who has followed Haresfoot for 26 years; Ed Twitchell, one of the stagehands for Haresfoot for five years; and H. R. Hauskey, trainmaster for Haresfoot tours for eight years.

The honorary members and initiates were introduced by Ray Hilsenhoff, student financial advisor, who has been with Haresfoot for five years. He outlined the purposes of the club, and told of its history, before inducting the new men into membership.

TWELVE TAKE CASH AWARDS IN ART EXHIBIT

Twelve students won awards totaling $130 yesterday afternoon at the Wisconsin Union galleries when the announcement of awards and purchase prizes for the 13th annual Exhibition of Student Art was made by William McCloy, instructor in the art department at the University of Wisconsin.

The 168 items in the student show were judged by an out-of-town jury which selected the works from those submitted by student artists. Awards were selected or recommended by the jurors also. The jurors were Alfred Hyslop, Carleton college; George Rickey, Knox college; and Fran Uptate, Wisconsin artist. The exhibition will be on view until June 8 in both the Union galleries.

Tripp Residents State Platforms For MHA Race

Residents of the men's halls will cast their ballots at Tripp, Adams and Kronshage today to select their representatives to the MHA cabinet, student governing body of the halls, for next year. The following Tripp hall men herewith present their platforms.

WILLIAM C. SCHUKNECHT,
Gregory House
Candidate for MHA Cabinet

"My platform for the election is based on three principles. 1. A closer unification in social affairs, in athletics, and in operation of club facilities. 2. An impartial representation of every resident and individual house in the men's halls. 3. A particular discretion in regards to financial expediency in all affairs.

"If I am elected I will do my best to see that every man in Tripp hall is duly represented at all cabinet meetings."

CHUCK NEUMANN,
Vilas House
Candidate for MHA Cabinet

"If elected to the cabinet of the Men's Halls association I will strive for the unification of the entire group of men's halls in social affairs, athletic activities, and club facilities; to represent every man in Tripp hall without partiality to individual houses; and to take particular care in regard to financial expenditures in all cases that are put before the cabinet."

THOMAS J. MURPHY,
Bashford House
Candidate for MHA Cabinet

"To act as representative of the whole body of men of Tripp hall, not only Bashford house, will be my primary aim, if elected as your representative in the approaching cabinet elections. I favor discussion and enactment of legislation which will bring an extended social program closer to the men of every house—the type of parties and dances you want. I also favor an increase in the club facilities and intramurals available to the residents of the men's dormitories."

AL DWORAK,
Spooner House
Candidate for MHA Cabinet

"In placing my name before the men of Tripp hall as a candidate for the cabinet in the election today I take full cognizance of the seriousness of the task which will confront me if elected.

"If elected I shall consider it my duty to see that Tripp hall receives equal consideration with the Kronshage dorms in the formulation of a social and athletic program, in club activities and special functions."

Heavy Advance Sale Going On for Formal Hall Dance—O'Neill

Tickets for the dorm formal on May 29 are going like "canoes on a night in June with the moon out," according to Jamie O'Neill, social chairman of the residence halls.

The social committee distributed tickets for the affair to house social chairmen last Friday, and by Monday afternoon several chairmen had come back for a "refill" on their supply of tickets.

"Fellows at the dorms have realized that you can't do better at any time during the social year in getting this dinner at Kronshage and dance at Van Hise for the price of a usual Great hall informal dance, and I'm glad to see they're wide awake," Chairman O'Neill stated.

"The department has promised us a fine meal for the affair, and I think the prospect of a formal by the lake with soft music is a factor in the advance sales returns," he added.

The dance, to be held on the Thursday night of a three day holiday, preceding Memorial day, will be furnished by the campus orchestra.

Committee chairmen for the dance include Bob Homuth, Gilman; Tom Linton, Swenson; and Bob Leonard, Spooner. Fellow advisor to the group is Bob Downes. Tickets are being handled this week through the individual house social chairmen.

Hoosiers' Campbell Kane to Answer U.S. Call; To End Running

The United States naval air corps is going to cut short by a year Campbell Kane's collegiate running career, but before the Indiana university mid-distance star reports he has some "unfinished business" to take care of in the Big Ten outdoor meet.

Indiana university runners have taken a liking to the conference mile championship, and it is Kane's job to keep it in the Hoosier family for the ninth time in 11 years. But winning the mile to uphold Indiana tradition isn't Campbell's only objective in the annual conference classic, to be held at Minneapolis May 16 and 17.

Last year Wisconsin's Ed Buxton outran Kane in the indoor and outdoor half mile, even though the Indiana university racer went on to win the 1940 national collegiate half mile title. Kane promised himself both events before the current racing season opened. He was successful at the indoor meet in February, and hopes to duplicate the double win at Minneapolis.

Golf and tennis have been rolling without much publicity. The fraternities are Alpha Tau Omega, Pi Kappa Alpha, Theta Xi, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Beta Theta Pi, Chi Psi, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Epsilon Pi, Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, Delta Theta Sigma, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Chi Phi, and Pi Lambda Phi.

TENNIS
Tennis second round entrants are: Phi Kappa Sigma, Delta Theta Sigma, Phi Epsilon Pi, Delta Chi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega, Alpha Chi, Delta Upsilon, Alpha Kappa Psi, Alpha Chi Sigma, Phi Sigma Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Pi Lambda Phi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon.

An unheralded independent tennis tournament with surprisingly few entries is also in progress. The list of entrants is headed by Chet Barrand who has won his four sets to date by 6-0 scores. Others still in the tournament include Orv Kurtz, Earl Reynolds, Harry Broquist, Dynamite Dan Hermes, Roger Robbins, and Jim Page.

Before going on to baseball and softball we may as well mention that the fraternities and dormitories each sponsor annual crew races, and the garsmen are working out under the tutelage of Jack Gunning. Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Showerman are defending champions in this sport. Chris Sherman and Mel Moskowitz have advanced to the finals of the handball singles.

Four of the five rounds of play have been completed in fraternity handball, and all the weak sisters have long since been eliminated, but have been contending themselves by upsetting supposedly strong rivals. In division I the Kappa Sigmas have four straight victories and have beaten Chi Psi, holder of second place, so they should have little trouble in winning the division title. Their only remaining game is with Alpha Delta Phi, loser of all four of their games.

Delta Tau Delta heads division II with four straight wins and Triangle holds second, losing only a 2-1 heart-breaker to the Deltas. Both teams should easily win the one game remaining on their schedule, and face one another in the playoff between the first and second place winners to determine the division entry in the title playoffs.

Alpha Gamma Rho with 4-0 and Delta Upsilon with 3-1, lead division III and will meet Friday in what should determine the best team in the division. The DUs were upset by Kappa Alpha, 3-1, so must be rated the underdogs because their hitting doesn't seem to be the type that can make much impression on a no-hitter like Winnie Jones of the AGRs. ## I-M Spotlight Focuses on Track

Since spring vacation baseball and softball have been sharing the intramural spotlight. However, as this column goes to press the dorm track meet is wresting the spotlight away from the I-M field, and the fraternity and independent track meets are on the way up. In the dorm meet now in progress, Jones B is defending the title and is odds-on favorite to repeat, having already annexed the indoor track crown a bare two months ago, with Botkin second and far behind.

Thursday night the independents will hold their annual outdoor meet, with the independent torchbearers in track and other sports, as well as campus politics, the Badger Club, in a good position to take the title still another time. Besides their string of indoor track titles, the Badger Club this year won the indoor track title and have practically the same team competing in the outdoor meet. Next Tuesday the fraternity meet will be held, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, practical monopolist of track and swim trophies is overwhelmingly favored to win this trophy also. It is rumored that the DUs in a last ditch stand to save off the SAE rush past them to the Badger Bowl, are planning to enter a team of Thetas in the meet in order to give the SAE's an incentive to slow their pace.

If the weather of the past few days continues through the week-long track-meet season, the records should be thick and fast as they have been in the past few years. In fact fame by track performances seems to be the most ephemeral of all types of fame and many who now see their

Badger Beauties Down Garford; Spikers Win

Behind Englebrecht's two hit pitching the Spikers defeated the Cuba Club 1-0 to take undisputed lead in their independent softball division. Rahn and Eller singled for Cuba Club in the first and last innings, but otherwise the Spiker hurler allowed no one to reach first base. Eller pitched his usual stellar form of hurling, allowing but six hits and bearing down in the pinches, but Sturmer's double and Englebrecht's single were his undoing in the fourth inning, and his mates didn't have the punch to win back that run.

The Badger Beauties nosed out the Garfords 2-0 to also take over undisputed first place in their division. Paul Huston pitched one-hit ball, that hit being Marshall's single in the first inning, and Mack Bennett's homer with Forsythe on base in the opening frame was enough to win the game for the defending champions.

Behind Jim O'Leary's two-hit pitching the Madisonians kept themselves in the flag chase with a 6-0 whitewash of the Timbers. Joe Ponty's single, double, and triple led the Madisonians' attack. Mitchell hit a homer for the Mercaups pounded the luckless 740 Club 12-5, in one of the games having no bearing on the pennant fight. Nine runs in the last two innings sewed the game up for Mercaups.

The Casa Paloma Tigers, after several tough defeats, came back with a vengeance and pounded Chez 919 17-5. Palmer and Kirley led the Tiger batsmen to give hurler Bull a victory for a change.

champs, are undefeated in division IV, and the SAEs and Phi Sigma Delta are in second place with one defeat each. The leaders, though, shouldn't have much trouble in winning the title, since the other contenders have been winning due to opponents' weakness rather than their own strength. It looks like the Delta Thetas will have another title.

The independent softball schedule is fast drawing to a close and the pre-season favorites, Hillel, Madisonians, and Badger Beauties are still in the fight along with the Cuba Club, Spikers, Lutheran Students, Garfords, Badger Inn, and House of Bonner.

HILLEL LOOKS GOOD

Hillel has a stranglehold on division I, having won all their games by overwhelming margins, including the one over the second place Lutheran Students. It looks very much as if they will come all the way through to take the independent title this year, though any team that wins that will have a hard road to travel during the next couple of weeks.

Kappa Sigs Lead Play In Hardball Division; Phi Eps Upsets Chi Psi

Regular hardball play in division I came to a close yesterday afternoon. The Kappa Sigs won undisputed first place when they trounced the Alpha Deltas, 12-3, in four innings. The Kappa Sigs scored seven runs in the last of the third to take a 12-0 lead.

Final standings in the league were thrown into confusion when the Phi Eps upset the Chi Psis, 6-5, thus creating a three way tie for second place. These two teams and the Phi Deltas will have to have a preliminary Apparently taking it easy after Monday's 13-2 swamping of Bradley Tech, Wisconsin's baseball team was defeated, 4-3, in a suddenly-arranged practice game with Northwestern college of Watertown, Wis., at Camp Randall Tuesday afternoon.

Relief pitchers George Vopel and Fred Suchy, the latter a sophomore, hurled for the Badgers. Vopel gave up six hits and three walks, and gained two strike-outs in the first five innings. Suchy, twirling the final four innings, was touched for but two hits and two walks while striking out six batters.

SIX WISCONSIN HITS

Cardinal bats, which boomed so loudly against Bradley Monday to total 13 hits, were conspicuously silent Tuesday, getting only three safeties in the first seven innings off Northwestern's Ziesemer, and totaling but six for the game.

The Goslings of Northwestern, a member of the Tri-state league, drew two runs in the first inning on a walk by Peil, a single by Koehler, and Hoffman's double.

ELLISON ERRS

In the fourth, Staffel of Northwestern doubled cleanly and Scheel was safe on an error of his ground ball by Lefty Smith. Staffel went to third on Kujath's infield grounder, and came home when Eliison, incorrectly surmising Kujath had been called out at first, threw the ball into the infield.

Until the sixth stanza, only two Wisconsin batters had reached first base. In the sixth, however, Smith singled and scampered home on Roth's resounding double, bringing the score to Northwestern, 3; Wisconsin, 1.

The Goslings made it 4 to 1 in the seventh inning when Staffel, who had lined a two-bagger over first base, came home on Smith's error of Scheel's bounder.

In the Badger half of the eighth, pitcher Suchy went to first and then to second on Staffel's miscue, and scored when Smith singled.

The aroused Cards tried to make a last-minute save in the final inning, but could push across only one run. Sullivan's bunt and Forman's single brought "Sully" to third, from where he went home when the Goslings played for Forman stealing second.

STARTING LINEUPS:

Northwestern college: Albrecht, ss; Peil, lf; Koehler, c; Hoffman, cf; Staffel, 3b; Scheel, rf; Kujath, 1b; Birkhoff, 2b; Ziesemer, p.

Wisconsin: Smith, 3b; Sweet, rf; Roth, 2b; Sullivan, lf; Forman, cf; Ellison, 1b; Englebretson, ss; Winn, c; Vopel, p.

TER 171 FEET 6 1/4 INCHES ALREADY THIS SEASON.

Bill Williams, defending champion in the pole vault, is favored to take the pole vault crown again for Wisconsin, because of his splendid 14-foot jump last Saturday against Iowa. De Field of Minnesota, Decker of Michigan, and Thistlethwaite of Northwestern will provide his most stiff opposition.

Bob Beierle, who haunts Paskvan in the weights, also has a good chance to pick up points for Wisconsin in the shot put and discus. The strong-armed sophomore set a new discus record only last Saturday in a tune-up dual meet with Iowa.

Howard Schoenike, captain of the squad, will pick up points for his team in both the mile and half mile runs, on the basis of comparative times. The plucky little runner will face such men as Kane of Indiana, Breitenbach of Michigan, and Eisenhart of Ohio State.

Al Harrer, Badger high jumper and high hurdler, may place in one or both of his events. Wright of Ohio State is favored to take the high hurdles, and Canham of Michigan is almost sure to retain his high jump crown.

Don Timmerman is almost sure for points in the high jump if he can repeat his leap of 6 feet 2 inches which registered last week against Iowa.

James McFadzean or Roger Foster, who picked up points in the broad jump at the indoor conference meet, should score again for Wisconsin.

Larry Hadley, Badger sophomore, who will compete in his first Big Ten championships, is a possible point-winner in the javelin.

Delta Chi, DU's, Phi Sigma Delta, Triangle Win

Delta Chi continued undefeated in fraternity softball as they triumphed easily over Theta Xi, 6-0. It was all Krueger again as the Delta Chi southpaw came up with another pitching masterpiece, this time a one-hitter. Besides Derrick's double, the only Theta Xi to reach base was Koehl, who walked. Krueger struck out ten.

The Delta Chis got busy in the second inning after the side was retired in order in the first. Bokkan doubled to start the second inning, and he was in turn doubled home by Wollner, but the latter was out trying to stretch it to a triple. This proved costly, for McNamara followed with a double, Krueger and Johnson drew walks, but the threat died when Long fanned and W. Johnson grounded out.

In the third the Delta Chis added two more runs on Menzel's single, Gschwandtner's double, and an error. Then in the fourth inning the winners iced the game on Adamowicz's home run, which followed Krueger's single and Long's double.

Delta Upsilon finally cracked the win column with a 16-4 triumph over Alpha Epsilon Pi. Ray Bolger allowed six hits and walked only two. The DUs went to work in the second inning, scoring five runs on hits by Brodhead, Bolger, and McKinnon, wrapped around two walks and an error. They added four more in the third on successive hits by Holbrook, Olson, Orlady, Brodhead, and Wehrmann. The winners added six more runs in the fourth and two in the fifth.

The AEPs got three runs in the last inning after being held to one in the first four frames. Hits by Plotkin, Klayf, Lerner, and Zolo punched over the runs.

Phi Sigma Delta continued unbeaten, scoring a 4-2 win over the Alpha Deltas in a comedy of errors. Numerous misplays aided the Phi Sigs, who could garner but three hits. With two out in the first inning, the Alpha Deltas committed two errors to allow Botwinick and Bachman to scoot home on Larry Goodman's triple.

The Alpha Deltas came back with two runs in the third without a hit, but the Phi Sigs sewed up the game in the fourth on a walk, a hit by Murphy, and Lerner's fly.

Triangle outslugged Delta Kappa Epsilon to win, 12-7. An eight run rally in the second was enough to put the game in the bag for Triangle. Zoellner and Hoehn homered for Triangle. The Dekes scored three in the third on Starr's homer with two men on base. They also got three more on hits by Conant, Shaw, and Wilce in the fourth.

Wisconsin Strongest in Field Events for Conference Meet

By "RIP" PERUSSE

At least 10 Wisconsin trackmen should score at the 41st Big Ten track and field meet at Minneapolis Friday and Saturday.

As in the indoor conference meet, in which Wisconsin tied for fifth, Badger power is concentrated in the field events. At least one Wisconsin man should score in the discus, the shot put, the pole vault, the high jump, the broad jump, and the javelin throw. Unfortunately the cardinal trackmen are not so strong on the cinder path, and Wisconsin may not pick up more than five points from its runners.

George Paskvan, defending shot-put champion, should capture first place again in that event, and he may also score in the discus. Archie Harris, Indiana's big Negro ace, is the man for him to beat. "Roarin' George" may top him in the shot put, but Harris definitely holds the edge in the discus, having whipped the steel-rimmed plat-playoff with the winner entering the final playoffs.

The Phi Eps in winning this game pulled a Frank Merriweather finish, scoring three runs in the last inning. Len Mansfield scored the winning run with one out by stealing home. It was a heartbreaking game for the Chi Psi pitcher, H. Johnson, to lose. He had only five more men to retire to mark up a no-hit game, but

Blood Money

More than a few people have taken the recent announcement that the Soviet would allow no more war supplies to go across its territory as an indication that Russia is swinging its influence away from the Axis to the democracies. Unfortunately, in the face of the known facts, such an interpretation is more wishful thinking than shrewd analysis.

It will be noted that the announcement referred to materiels being shipped across Russian soil, and not to those that originated in communist industries. The only arms shipment passing across Russia, therefore, are rifles coming from Sweden via Leningrad to Turkey, and from Germany to Japan.

This means that with the Swedish source of supply blocked, the Turks, and the Allies in Asia Minor, will have to buy Russian-made munitions. Similarly, Japan and Germany will either have to do their trading by the overseas route, which might be rather dangerous now, or buy Russian goods. It does not mean that a source of supply will be completely stopped. It simply means that Russia intends to cash in to a greater extent than it has on the lucrative munitions trade.

Far from hurting the Axis powers, the new state of affairs makes it harder for Allied powers to transport guns and ammunition safely to the theaters of war, although it is still possible to do so by the longer and less secure sea route. Instead of being a proclamation of policy, the Russian announcement portends more blood money for the coffers of the communists.

Draft Wisdom

In answer to the most important difficulty of the National Selective Service Act—that it trains men for the army who could be of more value in the war industries—comes the proclamation that all draftees will fill out questionnaires indicating their vocational capabilities.

It was pointed out that the war industries were suffering from a lack of labor while men who could adequately perform other vital tasks were stagnating in the army ranks. Concretely, this may mean that college students will be allowed to complete their courses of study before being included in national defense.

The wisdom of this act is immediately apparent: in the case of medical students, for example, a man may be of infinitely greater worth to the army, perhaps, as a physician than as a soldier in the ranks. The same maxim, while particularly true for those in science courses, applies for liberal arts students. For just important as the training of our military resources is the conservation of our civil resources.

The administration is beginning at last to realize that there is more to national defense than military armaments.

Time of the Nation

The adoption of daylight saving time by the Chicago city council again brings up the question of whether Wisconsin should not adopt summer time. The answer, dictated by the numerous advantages of daylight time, is clearly yes.

Daylight saving is, as the name implies, an arrangement to conserve the hours of the day by setting the clocks an hour ahead. For Wisconsin students its value would be inestimable. The extra hour of daylight would do a great deal to take the pressure off an already crowded intramural program, as well as furnishing added social opportunities.

Townspeople could equally gain from the extension of the quiet summer evenings, and, while rural dwellers might conceivably experience difficulty in adapting farms to a change of time, this has not proved too serious in the majority of states that have adopted daylight saving.

As yet both the city and state governments have failed to take cognizance of the benefits that would accrue from the adoption of daylight saving time. This shortsightedness should be corrected, and D.S.T. should be made—possibly even this spring—the time of the land.

A Contradiction

Editor, The Daily Cardinal:

The very deliberate attempt of the Cardinal's new editors to stir up a fight by printing the so-called "fraternity man's" letter in the issue of Saturday, May 10, will not, I believe, be successful.

The fraternity reaction has not been one of anger, but of resentment—resentment of an unfair, ill-presented attack, revealing an attitude totally unfamiliar to any real fraternity man on the Wisconsin campus.

"The article is not meant as a condemnation of Wisconsin fraternities," says your editor's note at the outset. The last paragraph of the letter says:

"Not until the anti-educational and anti-democratic fraternity system is junked will the voice of the university be heard and understood."

A slight contradiction.

When J. S. (if he is a fraternity man, and not a Daily Cardinal staff member looking for trouble), submits a signed letter to the editor and makes himself known, yours truly or any other fraternity man will be glad to

A LINCOLN PENNY TEACHES A LESSON IN OBSERVATION

Cincinnati—ACP—Dr. Earle E. Eubank, professor and head of the department of sociology, University of Cincinnati, and Prof. Roscoe Ellard of the University of Missouri journalism department, are cited in the current issue of Reader's Digest for their ability to dramatize their teaching.

"At the opening session of Dr. Eubank's class in sociology," the article states, "each member is given a Lincoln penny; then Dr. Eubank writes on the blackboard the date 'A.D. 300' and says:

"This special meeting of the International Ethnological congress has been called to discuss a great discovery concerning the lost civilization of 1941. A thousand feet below the surface we have found some copper disks, one of which each of you holds in your hand. Using nothing but our knowledge of ancient languages, what can we deduce as to the civilization of that year?"

"The class is then given five minutes to examine the penny and jot down observations. Here are some of the things sharp eyes and minds can find:

"1. This is evidently a coin, so the

Until that time, dear editors, please don't present libel unless you allow those libeled to answer on the same page in the same issue. Don't present an article suggesting "junking" of one of the strongest parts of our university unless the "junker" is willing to have his name printed. Don't call more than 1,500 Wisconsin men highbrows, intellectual deadbeats, anti-social, and undemocratic in your headlines.

This I Know

I'm talking to you, doughboy.

I'm saying this to all you fellows who fought in France back in 1917 and '18.

You're getting old now, you know, but you can still remember the glamorous cause you fought for. You slashed around in the trenches, you saw your pals blown to bits, but you kept on, you kept on because you were saving the world for democracy.

That buoyed you up, didn't it? It made it easier to take the filth, the stench, and the death of the trenches. You didn't mind so much, did you, the festering wounds and the moans and the men in pain. You were fighting to save the world for democracy.

This was the war to end all wars. You were sustaining an ideal, an ideal that demanded sacrifice for its realization.

What was fighting, and killing, and being killed if it meant the end of all war. What were shell-torn battlefields, bombs hurtling downward, muddy trenches, and scarred bodies if it meant that war would be gone forever. That was something worth fighting for.

But what do you think about it today, soldier?

You weren't really fighting the war to end all wars. You weren't saving the world for democracy. A war to preserve democracy resulted in the destruction of more democracies than it preserved.

And I wonder what your buddies beneath those little white crosses would say today. The world needed them—Smith and Darcey and Miller and Edwards. They might be writing books and music, trading in the market, tilling the soil, or teaching, or preaching, or governing.

The world needed them. But the world needed them with pen in hand, in the laboratory, in the classroom, in the office, in the machine shop, on the farm. But now they're dead. They died to make the world safe for democracy. And they failed.

Again war stalks the world. It rages along a shell-torn battlefield that stretches from Europe to the deserts of Africa. Useless, senseless war.

But don't feel too badly, soldier. It seems the world doesn't profit by mistakes. Every generation must go about learning by experience the lessons taught in the past generation.

"There is a tremendous waste of human resources in this country because of poor health. It is estimated that we have 400,000 deaths annually which could have been avoided if proper medical care and healthful living conditions had prevailed. We do not enjoy the good health in this country that we are entitled to because millions of people are suffering from diseases that are preventable. Poor health takes its greatest toll in the families of the low income group. It is estimated that families with less than $2,500 a year income suffer a money loss of $2,500,000,000 annually because of poor health. Good health is not merely an individual matter. It is clearly a community problem and a community responsibility." —Dr. O. Myking Mehus, president of Winona (Minn.) State Teachers college, sees a people of healthful mind and body as essential to safeguarding our nation.

Upsets in Softball League Mark Week's Play; Spooner Climbs

With the close of softball competition just around the corner upsets in league play during the past week saw previously unbeaten Richardson and La Follette teams fall before Ochsner and Noyes to throw the Adams league into a two-way tie for first between Ochsner and La Follette, while Spooner house swept into an undisputed first place in the Tripp league by beating Gregory, 11-5.

A better attack was the chief reason the boys from Spooner brushed past the Gregory ten. Claire Longre, on the mound for the winners, held the Gregory clan in check in the pinches and led his team into the league lead. Gregory toppled into a second place tie with Vilas, Botkin, and High house.

OCHSNER BEATS RICHARDSON

In what might be called the toughest game of the year Ochsner eked out a 3-2 win over previously undefeated Richardson. Tight pitching by Vern Burch and Bob Dworshack kept the total of hits down to four.

Limiting Richardson to one hit, a triple by Remington, Burch struck out seven and was only in trouble in the fourth, when Remington's hit scored Richardson's two runs. The winners scored one run in the first inning when Hinchliffe tallied on Kindt's high fly. Hinchliffe, Burch, and Kindt grouped two hits and a Richardson error to score the final two runs for Ochsner.

NORRIS HOLDS LA FOLLETTE

Handicapped by the absence of star finger Les Christensen the La Follette boys lost their spotless record when they were handcuffed by John Norris' two-hit pitching, 6-3. The Orangemen feasted on the La Follette twirling and coasted to victory.

Other contests in the Adams league saw Winslow turn back Faville 14-6, La Follette whip Faville 4-0, Richardson drub Siebecker 6-2, and Ochsner humble Tarrant, 15-5. In this game Burch whiffed 12 Tarrant batters.

Standings in the Adams hall league follow:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Ochsner	5	1	.833
La Follette	5	1	.833
Richardson	4	1	.800
Noyes	4	2	.666
Winslow	2	2	.500
Tarrant	1	4	.200
Siebecker	0	5	.000
Faville	0	5	.000

In the Tripp hall league last week's competition saw Morrie Shovers hurl the league leading Spooner squad to a two-hit shut out victory over Bashford to the tune of 5-0. This Monday night's game enabled the Spooner boys to tighten their hold on first place.

BOTKIN FALLS BACK

Botkin was dropped out of contending position Monday by suffering its second defeat, a 10-2 trouncing at the hands of a fiery Vilas house squad. Roger Froemming pitched for the winners.

Luckless Fallows house closed its season Sunday with its sixth straight

DICK LEMBERG, High House Candidate for MHA Cabinet

As a candidate in the annual elections, I would like to acquaint every Tripp hall resident with my aims and platform. If elected: 1. I will promote greater participation in the clubs at no cost to the residents; 2. I will promote greater social contacts through intrahall and interhouse parties; 3. I will promote "Residence halls in everything and every resident in something."

It will be my avowed purpose to work for greater unity and coherency among the residence halls. It is not my wish to gain any compensation from the post, but merely to act wisely and to the best of my ability promote the specific ideas of my supporters. Their welfare will be foremost in my mind.

NEAL HUNDT, Gregory House Candidate for MHA Cabinet

As a candidate for election to a cabinet seat I promise if I'm elected to sponsor a much more extensive program of social activities with the keynote of efficiency.

Most important, I promise to represent Tripp hall justly and fairly in this entire dormitory enterprise.

KRONSHAGE COURT

The standings in the Kronshage court league still find the smooth-working Swenson team leading the field. Three teams are tied for second with four wins and two defeats. They are: Conover, Gilman, and Jones. Showerman won one and lost one during the past week and now has a .500 mark with three and three to rank fifth. Chamberlin is in sixth with two and four, followed by Turner with one and five and Mack with no victories and six defeats. Standings in the Kronshage back league were not available at press time.

Houses to Help Pave Lake Road Saturday; Co-eds Carry Water

Come along, and bring your buddy too! We can use you. If you aren't so strong, well, what's the difference? You can chat with the co-eds who'll be around. And if that's boring, you can always work!

What's this all about? Well, we'll let you in on the secret. Saturday has been definitely proclaimed as "Work-Day" by the student board, and the object of the work is the lake road. With your help and your next door neighbor's, we're going to pave the lake road with cinders, so come on along and enjoy the fun.

CO-EDS CARRY WATER

Campus co-eds and Badger beauties are going to be on hand to pour water and provide an inspiration, while meals will be served between Tripp and Adams at noon, and at the Union at night.

Gunther Heller, who sponsored the idea, organized the Richardson, Siebecker, and Tarrant manpower into one working unit at a meeting in the Pine room Monday night with co-eds from Unit 2 of Elizabeth Waters, the inspiration for this particular group, attending. Ross Crawford, Joe Green, and Bill Kantz were placed in charge of this group.

TRIPP ORGANIZES

According to Morrie Shovers, Spooner house fellow, the Tripp houses are all organizing, while the wheels are reputedly in motion in the Kronshage units and they are sure to respond with a real group of "workers."

Remember, a bit of work Saturday may save a wet foot next winter!

Giesen to Captain Rifles Next Year

The nominating committee of the three university Pershing Rifle platoons chose Bob Giesen of Gilman as the final candidate to captain the Rifles next year. After being nominated by the committee of thirteen, Bob was voted in by the members of the three platoons. Giesen, a first lieutenant this year, found competition for final nomination from Bob Scherr and Fred Knoch.

Ralph Ramaker, Sheboygan, a resident of Winslow house, Adams hall, has been missing since Sunday evening. He is approximately 6 feet 1 inch tall, and weighs around 165 pounds. Any information will be appreciated in Winslow house.

Mortar Board to Award Junior Women Scholarships at Swingout

At Senior swingout Friday, May 23, several worthy junior women will receive generous scholarships from the members of Mortar Board, honorary organization for senior women. The scholarships will be the result of the proceeds of the 22nd annual May day supper, which will be held in the rathskeller of the Memorial Union from 5:30 to 7 tonight.

The Mortar Board scholarship committee, composed of Dean Louise T. Greeley, Kathryn Frederick, president, Janice Neupert, and Mrs. Louise Bachhuber Lane, will select the recipients of the money, basing their choice on need and scholarship.

May day supper, a popular tradition on the campus, will serve over 1,200 students and faculty members tonight, in three shifts, at 5:30, 6, and 6:30. The preliminaries of the all-university Tournament of Song will follow, held in the Union theater under the sponsorship of Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia musical organizations.

The entire Mortar Board chapter will usher for the affair, under the direction of Mary Margaret Adams, chairman. The ushers include Kathryn Frederick, Elizabeth Davis, Virginia McCormick, Florence Daniels, Louise Bachhuber Lane, Marie Grumann, Mary Jane Samp, Betty Wells, Flo White, Betty Weber, Dorothy Roth, Sue Hadley, Beth Schuster, Peg Dana, Gertrude Burkhardt, Marjorie Stephen, Janice Neupert, and Mary Murphy.

They will be assisted by the members of Crucible, honorary organization for junior women.

Annual Style Show To Be Held May 17

"A Day at the Caryl-Jeanne Modeling Agency" is the title chosen for the seventh annual Wisconsin high school style show which will be presented May 17 at 8 o'clock at Music hall, to which the public is cordially invited.

The idea of the show is based on a day's activities in a modeling agency where professional models pose for commercial advertisement and fashion magazines against screen backgrounds and other props while two boys act as commercial photographers. The commentators are Betty Brannon and Jean Salter. The entire show is planned and produced by the girls of the clothing classes with the cooperation of the whole school.

The groups of clothes to be modeled will be Quiz Section Hits (campus outfits), Winter Witchery (winter formals), From 3 to 5 (tea and date dresses), Vagabonds of Spring (suits and coats), Cool Propositions (summer dresses), The Play's the Thing (active play clothes), and A Rhapsody in Moonlight (summer formals).

Harriet Cleland Will Marry Val Borger

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Cleland, Kaukauna, announce the engagement of their daughter, Harriet, to Val Borger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Borger, Monona Village. They will be married this summer.

While Miss Cleland attended the university, she was well-known for her singing, dancing, and acting in campus productions. At present she is a singer at the Governor Clinton hotel in New York city.

Mr. Borger was graduated last June from the university where he was active in Phi Kappa Sigma, Wisconsin Players, and Haresfoot. He is employed as a personal representative of the executive staff of the National Broadcasting Co. studios in New York city.

Events, Classes Announced for Weekend Show

The eight assistant chairmen and the list of classes for the Parents' Weekend Horse show, sponsored by the riding club of the Wisconsin Hoofers, was announced yesterday by Jane Peterson, Alpha Xi Delta, general chairman of the event.

Two performances of the Horse show will be given Sunday in the Stock pavilion. The first will start at 2 o'clock to allow spectators and exhibitors to attend the concert of the university chorus and orchestra. The second show will begin at 7:30.

The eight assistant chairmen appointed are:

Finance and tickets, Ted Bast; stabling, Larry Krakower; judging, Dorothy Kieckhofer, Kappa Gamma; awards, Marjorie Shearer, Kappa Gamma; program, Jeannette Berssenbrugge; entries, Jan Buckley, Kappa Delta, and Joan Adams, Chi Omega; and publicity, Jim Olson, Delta Upsilon.

Two performances of the show will be entirely different, with eight classes scheduled for the afternoon and 10 for the evening. Each will contain classes for both experienced and inexperienced riders.

In the afternoon: junior gaited class, university novice horsemanship, two-year-old class, intersorority horsemanship, three gaited combination class, children's horsemanship, over 12 and under 19, ladies' five-gaited horses, and interfraternity horsemanship.

The evening classes will include: fine harness class, bridle path, three gaited, open three gaited class, pair class, children's horsemanship, 12 and under, yearlings, adult equitation, persons 19 and over not enrolled in any academic school, open five-gaited class, open university horsemanship, ladies' three gaited class.

One of the features of both performances will be the Madison Hunt club's drill team. This team is made up of 16 Madison high school girls and is coached by Jane Peterson. It was one of the favorites of last year's show.

Though the entries already surpass any previous list, there is still chance to enter in any of the classes, either riding or horses.

AT THE ORPHEUM:

Eddie Howard, supported by Billie Baer's band, hit the Orpheum boards for a two day stay yesterday, singing the sentimental tunes that have made him nationally famous. Howard himself takes only a small part of the three-quarter hour show, the rest of the time being taken up by novelty arrangements by Baer's musicians, an acrobatic number by Claire and Hudson, a leggy blond and a powerful partner, a tolerably amusing ventriloquist act and Betty Atkinson, a jitterbug-tap-dancer.

The music was a rather varied mixture of hot swing and smooth commercial stuff, especially as accompaniment to Mr. Howard's vocals. The brass section of the group was its most outstanding feature, and the rhythm section gave out with a rather good exhibition. The boys in the band outdid themselves, however, with a coke-bottle rendition of "Sweet Sue." Later, three of the men did a satire on three women doing a fan dance at the same time.

"Model Wife," the feature picture of the bill, starred Dick Powell and Joan Blondell in an amusing piece about married people who work, have to keep their marriage a secret, and who save money to have a baby. Although there is practically nothing in the picture to justify its title, there are some rather enchanting pictures of buxom Miss Blondell. The dialogue is snappy and has a series of double entendre cracks somewhat detached from the context of the picture. Dick Powell does not sing in this effort, but he does manage to look like the adult Jackie Cooper.

Flying Cadet Board Will Meet May 16

Two traveling flying cadet examining boards will convene in Madison, May 16 to 19, and May 29 to June 2, all dates inclusive, to provide examinations for the expected increasing number of flying applicants.

These boards, covering more cities in the Milwaukee recruiting district than ever before, will also meet in Milwaukee, La Crosse, and Oshkosh.

Applications for Civil Service Now Accepted

The U. S. civil service commission announced yesterday that applications are being accepted for examinations to fill positions in the fish and wildlife service of the department of interior and in the office of education of the federal security agency. Applications will be accepted at the commission's Washington office not later than June 12.

The position of junior fishery marketing specialist, with a salary of $2,000 a year, is open to applicants with one year of appropriate experience and 90 semester hours of college work, or two years of experience. Applicants will be required to pass a written test. Completion of an appropriate college course and successful experience in fishery research are required for a higher position with salary up to $4,600. No written test is required.

Completion of a four year college course in agriculture and five years of experience are the requirements for the position of specialist in vocational education in agriculture, with a salary of $3,800 a year. Two years of the experience must have been in teaching vocational agriculture, and two years in supervision of teacher training in a program of vocational education in agriculture, below college level. Applicants will be rated on their education and experience, as no written test will be given.

Information as to examination requirements, and application forms may be obtained at the Madison post office.

Dr. J. M. Steadman, Jr., professor of English at Emory university, has met an eight o'clock class every morning for 17 years.

Production of motor fuel in 1940 totaled 614,459,000 barrels, against 611,043,000 barrels.

Senior Invitations Deadline Is Soon, Says Chairman

Seniors who have not yet ordered their commencement invitations are asked to do so as soon as possible, Mary Jane Samp, chairman of the senior council invitations committee, announced yesterday. Deadlines for orders will be announced soon, she said.

The University Co-op, which is taking orders for the invitations, now has a complete list of all June graduates, and seniors should check the list for correct spelling immediately, Miss Samp added.

Three types of announcements, ranging from a simple paper invitation to leather covered programs containing the names of all recipients of degrees, are available this year.

All profits from the sales will be turned over to the senior council to make up the class deficit, and to be used for future class reunions.

College, University Business Officials Had Meeting Here

Leading American colleges and university business officials who took part in the 31st annual meeting of the Central Association of University and College Business Officials held on the University of Wisconsin campus are:

A. W. Peterson, comptroller of the University of Wisconsin, the host university this year; William J. Mather, bursar of the University of Chicago, president of the association; Shirley W. Smith, vice president and secretary in charge of business and finance at the University of Michigan, one of the speakers on the program; R. B. Stewart, comptroller of Purdue University, who spoke on "Student Housing"; Harry L. Wells, business manager of Northwestern University; and Dr. Thomas N. Barrows, president of Lawrence College, whose address climaxed the conference on Tuesday.

Officers of the central association this year are W. J. Mather, bursar of the University of Chicago, president; W. H. Cobb, business manager of the University of Iowa, vice president; and T. E. Blackwell, comptroller, Washington University of St. Louis, secretary-treasurer.

Student Board--

(Continued from Page 1) Union. These funds come out of his own pocket and if the individual should be supporting himself as a student it becomes very expensive, she said.

"It's a fine idea but $20 a month amounts to 66 cents a day," Sherwood Gorenstein pointed out. "I think that is too much just for meals."

In an attempt to delay any action, Gorenstein tried to have the motion tabled almost immediately. He was unanimously overruled.

"The president does $20 worth of work and he deserves it," was the opinion expressed by Bud Reynolds.

Supporting the contention that the president earned that amount were Nat Heffernan and Bosshard.

A second attempt to have the motion tabled was made by John Bosshard. It was accepted and Dick Oberly, treasurer, was asked to clear up the legality of the situation and report at the next meeting.

A budget of $250 for expenses in promoting work day was passed on favorably by the board. Meals at noon for about 1,500 persons amounting to $180; $30 for promotion, and $90 for beer to be served in the afternoon were indicated as necessary expenditures. Totaling $200, an additional $50 was voted for use if needed.

Tickets will be distributed to workers so that there will be a check on persons receiving the free lunch the student board is providing.

Runge announced that members of the Co-op and Forensic boards would be chosen at the next meeting of the student board. As personnel director, Oberly and a committee will interview candidates.

Students interested in applying for positions are to meet in the activities office at 3:30 Friday afternoon, Oberly announced. Members on the boards now seeking reappointments are to file briefs stating their activities.

Wages and hours committee report by Bosshard showed four businesses had signed the committee's demands. The committee has been working two weeks and will continue to work

"It was Greece's adherence to its humanist traditions," he concluded, "which made its people not hesitate in their choice between death and dishonor, and it is this philosophy that we of Phi Beta Kappa must uphold."

Prior to Professor Dillon's address, Margery Shale, a junior elected to the society, and John Meek, a senior, delivered short speeches accepting for their classes the honor which had been bestowed upon them.

Following is a list of those students initiated into Phi Beta Kappa last night:

Campus Opinion Differs on Effect Of Hess Landing

That the landing of Rudolf Hess in Scotland Monday will be of great benefit to England in its battle against the Axis powers is the opinion of three out of four students interviewed by a Cardinal reporter Tuesday morning.

On the other hand, Anita Gottesfeld, Brooklyn, N. Y., physical education major, "smells a mouse," and believes that Hess was sent over by Hitler to make the British "relax so Germany can easily over-run and conquer England."

That Hess is "fed up with Hitler and his policies, and that he will be of great aid to England in disclosing Nazi secrets," is the explanation given by both Paul Ziener, Waukesha journalism student, and Herbert Podlasky, Milwaukee economics major.

Carl Adam, Madison journalism student, went even further to say that the incident is the start of the eventual overthrow of Hitler by the dictator's aides. He also believes that Hess is the bearer of important Nazi secrets.

That Hess' dramatic appearance in Scotland is both perplexing and astounding is the only observation that we can make at present, said Prof. John D. Hicks and Prof. Robert L. Reynolds of the department of history Tuesday afternoon when asked about the parachute entrance of Hitler's personal deputy into enemy territory.

"The possible reasons for such actions by Rudolf Hess are so many and so varied that any guess would be merely a gesture," said Professor Reynolds.
