The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

The University League invites you to attend the first meeting of the 1930-31 season, which will be a luncheon at which Prof. Hugh A. Smith will speak. Subject: "American Students in France."

The place is the Tripp Commons, Memorial Union Building, the time 1:00 p.m., Wednesday, October 15.

All reservations must be in by Saturday, October 11. It would greatly assist the committee in charge if you mailed the attached card at once, with your check, to Mrs. C. D. Cool, 1921 Keyes Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin. Please make out your check to TREASURER, UNIVERSITY LEAGUE.

The University League

What It Is

The University League is an association of the women affiliated with the faculty and executive staff of the University of Wisconsin.

What It Does

It offers opportunity for friendly social meetings among women of the various colleges, departments, and organizations associated with university life.

It introduces new women to the faculty group and assists them to make friends.

It helps needy girl students in the university by supporting a loan fund.

What It Needs

Your interest, and suggestions which may widen the scope of the League's usefulness.

Your regular attendance.

Your membership fees which make possible the social program for the year and provide a contribution to the student loan fund.
