Tofson and Bong to Reign Over Senior Ball Tonight

Queen Jerry Tofson, Badger beauty, and King Gerry Bong, senior class president, will reign from 9 to 12 to-night at the first and biggest summer formal of the season, the 1941 University of Wisconsin Senior ball, in Great hall of the Memorial Union.

Pinky Tomlin, author of "The Object of My Affection" and "The Love Bug," will provide the music for student dancers in the Union which will be decorated with Venetian lanterns in a Mardi Gras theme.

Coordinated with Senior ball to-night is Venetian night which begins at 8 o'clock on Lake Mendota. Colorful floats and decorated piers will brighten the lake shores. A freshman-varsity crew race will be held at 7 o'clock.

FLOAT AWARDS

During intermission at the dance, float awards for the best fraternity or sorority float, the best dorm float, and the best independent float will be presented by Ed Jones, chairman of Venetian night. Immediately following this the king and queen of the ball will present the court of honor.

Tickets for the ball are still on sale at the Dorm store, MacNeil and Moore, the Co-op, and the Union desk, and will also be sold at the door. Chairman Lachmund said yesterday that all student ticket sellers should return either the tickets or money or both to the Union desk by 5 o'clock this afternoon.

A huge sign, "Senior Ball of 1941," in Mardi Gras colors, will be displayed prominently on the back wall above the orchestra. Venetian lanterns will be lighted brightly from all angles and will fill Great hall, according to Chairman Schmitz.

Tomlin and his orchestra have just completed long engagements at the Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles, the Muehleback in Kansas City, the Tune-town ballroom in St. Louis, and the Trocadero club in Evansville, Ind. The versatile band leader has won many friends in New Orleans and the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles.

LAST SENIOR DANCE

"Senior ball is the last chance many of the June graduates will have to attend a university dance and get together with their classmates," Bong said. "Although it is Senior ball, the entire campus is invited to attend the big dance."

With a crew race, Venetian night, and Senior ball, tonight will be a full evening for Wisconsin students, Bong indicated.

Issues Too Great for Emotionalism, Hysteria

Invasion Is Ridiculous, Phil La Follette Insists

By MICHAEL A. HARRIS

Silver-haired Philip F. La Follette returned to Madison last night to make in his home town the plea for peace he has been reiterating throughout the country for the past several months.

"The idea of invasion is ridiculous," the ex-governor of Wisconsin insisted. "Our problems are at home. What we must do is show Mr. Hitler that the United States can answer his challenge of 'starvation or dictatorship' by having democracy and jobs as well."

"The issues we face are too great for hysteria and emotionalism," he continued. "The country needs clear thinking."

OVERFLOW CROWD

Awaiting him as he mounted the speaker's platform in Music hall La Follette found a sympathetic audience of 900 students and townsfolk, sufficient to overflow a dozen or so of its members into the aisles.

After pausing to pay tribute to the Young Progressives of the university who were sponsoring his address, La Follette, looking youthful as ever despite his graying hair, proceeded to deal with the matter at hand.

"This very week that great warrior (Continued on page 8)

La Follette Will Go To Miami to Speak

Whether the Miami, Fla., city council grants him permission to speak in that city on May 17, Philip La Follette intends to do so.

"I don't know whether sanction for me to speak will be given," he told a Cardinal reporter last night, "but I do know that I will be there and that I will speak."

He will remain in Madison, he announced, until tomorrow when he will leave to speak at the University of North Carolina before proceeding to Florida.

BADGER PARTY PUTS REYNOLDS IN PRESIDENCY

John Reynolds, junior, men's residence halls, was elected president of the Badger party for the coming year yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the party general council in the Memorial Union.

The council unanimously endorsed and promised to cooperate with the student board in making the first campus work day a success. Although no definite date has been set, a spring picnic, open to all members of the party, will be held within the next few weeks.

Reynolds is president of Gilman house of the residence halls, past president of the dormitory cabinet, chairman of the finance committee of the dormitory cabinet, and has been a member of the Badger party for the past three years. He succeeds Martin Ring as president of the party.

Other officers selected yesterday include:

Carla Waller, vice president; Margaret Schindler, secretary-treasurer; and Joe Van Camp, John Bettinger, Karl Stange, Anne Armstrong, Julie Milvo, and Arthur Vidich as members of the party's executive committee.

Law School's Activity Heads Named Tonight

New heads of the three most important Law school activities: Marvin Holz, Milwaukee, chairman of the Law School Association; Marvin Klitsner, Lancaster, editor-in-chief of the Law Review; and Alan Steinmetz, Milwaukee, chairman of Legal Aid, will be announced tonight by Dean Garrison at the law banquet.

The banquet at 9 o'clock in the Memorial Union climaxes the second annual spring program of the law school. Joseph C. Hutcheson, Jr., United States circuit judge since 1931, is banquet speaker. Edmond G. Toomey, '16, and William S. Kies, '01, will speak at the law luncheon at 12:15.

WILL ATTEND ROUNDTABLES

During the morning and afternoon the 150 guest lawyers will attend roundtables on the Fair Labor Standards act, law office management, planning of modern sized estates, Wisconsin land contracts, and the American Law Institute's Youth Correction Authority act. Prominent lawyers and law professors will speak.

Other student positions to be announced at the banquet are:

35 File Papers for Men's Halls Cabinet Elections

Thirty-five men from Tripp, Adams, and Kronshage have filed petitions for the Men's Residence Halls association cabinet race to be held May 13 in Kronshage and May 14 in Adams and Tripp. Petitions were filed with the election committee, Chairman Larry Halle, La Follette, announced Friday evening.

Applications have been received from 21 Kronshage residents, eight Tripp hall men, and six Adams dwellers. Each Kronshage unit will elect one representative to the cabinet, while Adams and Tripp men will select four representatives each.

DIVIDE VOTES

The election committee agreed to give Tripp and Adams residents three votes, each carrying equal weight, and Kronshage residents only one vote, at a meeting Wednesday night.

The candidates are: Kronshage—Arvid Anderson and Fred Steffen,

TRIPP HALL

Tripp hall—Leon Smith, Fallows; Dick Lemberg and Charles Curtiss, High; Neal Hundt and William Schuknecht, Gregory; Tom Murphy, Bashford; Charles Neumann, Vilas; and Alex Dworkin, Spooner.

Adams hall—Bill Herwitz, Faville; Peter Turco, Siebecker; Hal Rades, Winslow; Herb Phillips and Dave Briggs, Ochsner; and Warren Williams, Tarrant.

Hoofers' Riding Club Will Sponsor Annual Spring Horse Show

The Wisconsin Hoofers' Riding club will again sponsor the annual spring horse show held the Sunday of Parents' weekend, May 25, in the stock pavilion, Jane Peterson, general chairman, announced.

The show will include two performances, the first set for 2 o'clock to allow both spectators and exhibitors to attend the orchestra and chorus concert to be held later in the Memorial Union theater, and the second at 7:30.

The afternoon show will be largely participated in by the university students, featured by the fraternity and sorority competition.

A feature of both performances will be the exhibition of the Madison Hunt club drill team made up of 16 high school girls.

Entry blanks can be obtained at either the Madison Riding club or the Fashion stables.

Reynolds, Lane, Varnum Judge Festival Parade

Profs. Robert Reynolds, W. H. Varnum, and J. Russell Lane will be the judges for the 1941 Venetian Night parade of floats, Chairman Ed Jones announced. This curtain-raiser on Spring festival will start at 8 tonight.

The 25 floats will assemble between the men's residence halls and Elizabeth Waters piers at 7:30, and will be towed past the campus as far as Carroll street starting at 8. Searchlights on the tower of the boathouse and the top of the Memorial Union will pick out the boats as they pass the Union terrace.

Immediately after the parade, and before the start of Senior ball, there will be a display of fireworks from a barge anchored off Picnic Point, Jones said.

Because of the preponderance of fraternity-sorority entries, there has been a change in the classifications of floats entered. Dormitory and independent houses will now be grouped into one class. Prizes for the winning floats are now on display in the Co-op windows.

In addition to the students and townspeople, the event will be seen by over 50 high school athletes who will be in Madison for the state high school track meet.

Colorful Opening Is Planned for Spring Festival Tonight

* A gala opening has been planned for the second annual Spring festival which opens on the University of Wisconsin campus tonight, Ray Black, general chairman, reported.

The program will be given its official opening with the unveiling of a Spring festival symbol on the terrace of the Wisconsin Union at 7:30, just before the fireworks of Venetian Night. The symbol has been designed this year to become a traditional part of the festival events in succeeding years.

Miss Virginia Bowden, Madison, president of Orchestis, campus dance group, and one of the members of the Spring festival directorate, will unveil the symbol.

TOMLIN'S ORCHESTRA

Crowds assembled for the Venetian Night spectacle to follow the unveiling will be entertained by Pinky Tomlin's orchestra playing "On Wisconsin" and other campus favorites.

All of the facilities of the Wisconsin Union and the university are open to those who are interested in the varied festival events which will cover the next two weeks, and climax in Parents' weekend, Black stressed.

DRAMA

Union: Haresfoot, tonight at 8:00.
Parkway: Time of Your Life, with Eddie Dowling, today at 2:30 and 8 p. m.

Dorothy Maynor's rise to fame is one of the rare success stories in recent musical history. A short time ago she was a virtually unknown singer. Today critics agree on the discovery of a new star on the musical horizon. Summer before last, she went to the Berkshire festival to hear the Boston Symphony, conducted by Serge Koussevitzky—and ended by making music herself for the great conductor. Two people, an enthusiastic friend and a music patron, persuaded Koussevitzky to grant her an audition, which he finally did during a morning rehearsal.

The great conductor became enthused, praised her voice in the highest terms, and invited her to sing the next day at a picnic which he gives each year for the members of his orchestra. Before an audience of 200 musicians, critics, and music lovers, the young Negro singer started with classic arias by Handel and Mozart, sang a group of German lieder and ended with the Wagnerian "Ho-Yo-To" from "Die Walkurie." The professional audience marveled at her versatility and tremendous vocal range. A brilliant New York debut a few months later, and engagements with the Boston Symphony, New York Philharmonic, Chicago and Philadelphia Symphony orchestras started her first season.

The daughter of a Norfolk, Va. minister, Dorothy Maynor received her first musical training in the choir of her father's church. She is a graduate of Hampton institute, which she entered at 14 and where she received her first vocal lessons. A few years later she toured Europe as a member of the institute's Negro chorus. Afterwards, she studied at the Westminster Choir school in Princeton, N. J., under the direction of Dr. John Finley Williamson who urged her to study to become a choral director.

Comments on the playwrights' competition plays will appear in a following column.

40 Lodging Houses Working on Festival

Over 40 men's and women's lodging house presidents met with chairmen of the Spring Festival Thursday night in the Memorial Union to plan the part of the lodging houses in the festival.

Ray Black, general chairman of the festival committee directorate, presented the general program of the festival and emphasized it as a recognition of the efforts of students in the fine arts field. "Spring Festival is the university on display to the students, to the parents, and to the state of Wisconsin," said Black.

Lutheran Students' Party at City 'Y'

The city YMCA on Washington avenue, will be the scene of a gala affair tonight from 8 to 10:30, when the Madison Lutheran Student association will sponsor a "Round Robin" spring party.

Tickets may be obtained from the presidents of the student groups at Bethel Lutheran church, Luther Memorial, St. John's Lutheran church, and Central Lutheran church, or they may be purchased at the door. All members and their friends are invited.

Transfer Orientation Committee to Meet

All who are interested in transfer orientation are requested to meet with Cochairmen Bud Grinde and Kay Schock in the Loft of the Union on Tuesday, May 13, at 4:30.

Guild Production Here Today

Eddie Dowling and Julie Haydon will appear this Saturday on the Parkway stage in the Theater Guild production of William Saroyan's gay, mischievous-mad comedy, "The Time of Your Life," which will be presented for two performances, matinee at 2:30 and evening at 8:15. Tickets are now available at the Parkway box-office.

International Club Will Hold Election

The annual election of officers of the International club will be held Sunday at 7 p. m. in the Top Flight room of the Memorial Union. Supper will be served in the Reception room at 6 p. m.

A constitutional amendment will be proposed stating that former members of the club, though not directly connected with the university, may continue to be active members.

Nurses' School Will Have Picnic Soon

The Nurses' school will hold its annual spring picnic this coming Thursday, May 15, at Vilas park. Guests will be 34 girls planning to enter school next fall.

If bad weather does not permit the picnic, the afternoon will be spent in showing the prospective students around the dormitory.

British Relief Lunch Planned

Young America Wants to Help, the national collegiate division of the British War Relief society, will sponsor a luncheon and movie this noon at the Wisconsin Union.

The purpose of the luncheon is to bring together the city and university divisions of the society, and to report on the work done by each group. Louise Brugger, chairman of the luncheon, will make the report for the student group. The city division will be represented by Mrs. W. W. Howells, chairman of the Madison branch of the society.

After the luncheon, at 1:15 p. m., a movie, "Thumbs Up," will be shown in the Top Flight room. This movie was produced under the sponsorship of the national British War Relief society, and shows actual work being done in bombed Britain.

Badgers Trounce Gophers, 10-0

On The

SIDE

COSTLY VICTORY

Wisconsin won a ball game yesterday afternoon—but it may prove to be a costly victory. Injured in two freak accidents were Co-captain Ken Bixby, short stop; Lloyd Schneider, center field; and Ed Scheiwe, right field, formerly of basketball fame.

At the latest report last night, none of the trio would be in condition to take to the field at Camp Randall for the final game in the Minnesota series. Their loss will be keenly felt, and may be a deciding factor in determining the winner of the final game of the series.

Bixby and Schneider were injured when they collided going after a pop-fly. Schneider received cuts on his left cheek and possible fractures in the bone of the upper cheek. Bixby was laid low with a severe wrenched knee and cuts on his forehead. Scheiwe was beamed above the eye by a ball when sliding into second. Aside from a huge swelling no other injury is apparent, but his vision will be impaired and he probably won't play this afternoon.

REPLACEMENTS?

Who Coach Mansfield will play in their place is not known, but he may have to do considerable juggling in this lineup to retain a semblance of the strength that brought the team through with a victory in yesterday's contest. Undoubtedly Leonard Sweet, a "switch-hitting" junior utility man, will replace Scheiwe in the right field position.

When it comes to replacing the veteran Ken Bixby there's quite some doubt. Bob Englebreton replaced him when the accident occurred and did a creditable job. Whether "Dynie" will see fit to use him today remains to be seen. When Schneider left the game draped over the arms of several teammates, the coach threw in Jim Haas, ordinarily a pitcher, to take his place. But it seems to this corner that a stronger man at the plate would be more desirable. Howard Guth, a sophomore utility outfielder, may fill the bill, despite his slowness in base running, because of the heavy stick he wields.

TITLE STILL WAITS

The Badger nine really proved that they were going out after these games in order to turn in victories. Their line of thought runs to the effect that the conference title is still waiting for the best team to prove itself. And with their play in the first of the Gopher series it looks as if Mansfield's boys are going out to stake a claim on that title.

The team was really hitting out there—make no mistake about that. In only one inning did the Badgers go hitless. Gopher pitcher Gene Flick must have had a headache last night from the steady ring resounding from the Wisconsin bats. Minnesota, looking very disorganized, was not the team which a few days back was hailed as of "championship calibre" and "brilliant."

SAXER HAS A JOB

The Gophers, on the other hand, still have their ace hurler in readiness to go today, namely Big Bill Anderson. Facing him will be Johnny Saxer—minus the three star fielders mentioned previously. So that means that Johnny has a real job ahead of him today.

Featuring Wisconsin's play in the series opener was the twirling of Bob Van Sickle. His curve balls were twisting all over the place, getting wider as the game progressed. Willing contributed a great deal with his all around play behind the plate. And then there was "Lefty" Smith, Wisconsin's defending Big Ten batting champion, who connected four times in five tries to the plate, scoring three runs.

Jonesmen Rated Over Hawkeyes Thinclads Play Host to Iowa

Fans will see Coach Tom Jones' trackmen romp to victory at Camp Randall today, is the opinion of most track experts, when the Badgers play host to the Iowa Hawkeyes in their initial home meet of the outdoor season. Starting time has been set for 1 o'clock to enable spectators to attend both the track meet and the Minnesota baseball game. Admission will be by coupon book or 30 cents.

BADGERS RATE AS FAVORITES

Because of the decisive 77½ to 26½ victory which Wisconsin meted out to the Hawkeyes indoors, the Badgers rate as favorites to win today. But the task will not be so easy this time. Coach George T. Bresnahan, Hawkeye mentor, will send a stronger team against the Badgers this time. Two outstanding newcomers, Ralph and Walter Todd, brothers from Henderson, Texas, will bolster Iowa in all the running events.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Coach Jones has announced the schedule of events as follows:

- 1:00 Pole vault, high jump, and shot put
- 1:15 Javelin
- 1:30 Mile run
- 1:40 440 yard dash
- 1:50 100 yard dash
- 2:00 High hurdles, broad jump, and discus
- 2:10 880 yard run
- 2:20 220 yard dash
- 2:30 Two mile run
- 2:45 220 yard low hurdles
- 3:00 One mile relay

Here is how the two teams compare:

HOW THEY COMPARE

Broad jump—McFadzean (W) and Foster (W), who won places in the Big Ten indoor broad jump, are favorites, both having leaped about 23 feet this year. Clay (I), Wilkerson (I), Novak (W), and Timmerman (W) all rate as possible thirds.

Discus—It is possible that the three powerful Badger weight men, Paskvan, Beierle, and Kabat, will slam this

Badger Crew Races Feature Traditional Water Extravaganza

After a lapse of many years, an old tradition will be brought to the front this evening when with a blaze of lights along Lake Mendota's shores the Wisconsin Venetian Night will be inaugurated.

Followers and exponents of water sports will find Venetian Night virtually a paradise as the Mardi Gras of floats passes along the lake shore from University bay to the faint outlines of Picnic point in the distance. Students and townspeople alike will utilize every known object that floats—canoes, rowboats, sailboats, motorboats, etc., to take part in what is planned to be Wisconsin's greatest water extravaganza.

VARSITY-FRESHMAN RACE

Headlining the pre-Venetian Night festivities will be the rowing of Coach Allan Walz's Badger varsity crew against a highly capable freshman eight. Aroused at finding the yearlings had turned in a faster time for the course in the Marietta races, the Poughkeepsie-bound aggregation immediately issued a challenge for an intrasquad competition over a 2,000 meter course. Despite the spirit and enthusiasm of the varsity in attempting to prove their worth, it looks very much as if the great strength and

Football Squad Closes Spring Session Today

The curtain falls today on the 1941 spring training campaign as Harry Stuhldreher's varsity gridders battle the freshmen in the final scrimmage of the season.

With the opening of the 1941 season only a bare four months off, prospects are the brightest in years. The showing of the largest group of promising freshmen to report to Stuhldreher since he assumed the coaching reins in 1936 has boosted the chances of the Badgers to finish high in the Big Ten standings next fall.

VETERANS SHIFTED

Highlights of the spring drills were the shifting of several of last season's veterans to new positions. Dick Thornally who teamed up with Lloyd Wasserbach to give the Badgers a fine pair of sophomore tackles has been switched to center where he has rapidly become the outstanding candidate for the starting job in the fall.

Big Bob Baumann, who played last year and took care of a share of the kicking, has been coming along nicely at his new position of tackle. Baumann's size will add considerably to the front wall and his punting will be used to advantage.

ENDS STRONG
With Dave Schreiner, who bids fair to become one of the outstanding ends in the conference if not the country. Bob Stupka, Ray Kreick and Gene Lyons, who were busy with track this spring, Frank Milaue, and freshmen Bob Hanzlik and Jack Mead, the end situation seems to be well taken care of.

The guards are still a source of worry for the coaching staff as the only veterans are John Roberts and George Makris. However, freshmen event. Kuhl (I), who has done 135 feet, is their only threat.

880 yard run—Schoenike is favorite here, having won his event last Saturday in 1:56.8. Stafford (W), Pitts (W), Mahoney (I), R. Todd (I), W. Todd (I), and Wolf (I), are all two-minute half-milers and will battle it out for the other two places.

220 yard dash—Iowa holds the edge with W. Todd, R. Todd, and Schlauder, who have all run 22 seconds flat or better. Wisconsin pins its hopes on Soergel, Novak, and McFadzean.

Two mile run—Knox (W) and Pitts (W) have broken 10 minutes consistently this year and naturally rank higher than Iowa's best man, Hinrichs, whose best time is 10:10.

220 yard low hurdles—Bobber (W), Foster (W), Lyons, (W), and Eiel (I), are possible winners. Little is known about the other Iowa boys.

One mile relay—Iowa won it from the Badgers indoors and should repeat today.

DELTS OVER TRIANGLE

In the feature game of the day the Deltas beat Triangle 2-1, both teams making only three hits. Triangle filled the bases in the third inning with one out, but could only score one run. Howie Lehner the winning pitcher was wild in the early innings walking six men but was very tough in the pinches.

Ray Black pitched the DUs to their third straight win of the season beating PiKA 7-3. Black held the losers to two hits while striking out 13. The DUs pounded out all five of their hits in the first two innings when they did all their scoring.

The Pilams took the Sig Eps in a close game by the score of 2-0. Ralph Wyckoff, Sig Ep pitcher, had the questionable honor of losing a no hit game. On the other side Bob Goldsmith did a fine job, fanning 13 Sig Eps. The losers only hit was a long triple by Steve Connors, in the third inning.

740 CLUB WINNERS

The 740 Club at last broke into the win column in independent softball by upsetting the Timbermen 4-2. Buchanan gave up only three hits, one a homer by Laver and struck out seven. Thanks to Ristow's two homers and double, all of which figured in the scoring, the YMCA boys rewarded power of the freshman shell can be overcome.

Venetian Night and its associated water aquacades are a tradition of Wisconsin that few old grads forget. In fact, Athletic Director Harry Stuhldreher reports that in his trips throughout the country he is often asked about Venetian Night celebrations. The return of this highly enjoyable feature should please both the grads and the student body as well, and should begin another of the unbroken traditions of University of Wisconsin life.

Stellar Pitching, Poor Hitting Noted in Intramural Hardball

All the pitchers appeared in mid-season form in intramural hardball games yesterday afternoon. In the three games played a total of only fourteen hits were made.

him by scoring enough runs to win a game.

Babcock House ran over Wesley 11-2 in one of other games played. Dean and Price silenced the Wesley bats, and a seven run second inning gave Babcock an overwhelming lead. Spoehr homered for the winners. The Plumbers received a forfeit from Chez 9-19.

The Mills Street Wolves bested Schotzer's A. C. 3-1 in a pitcher's duel. The winners sewed the game up with 2 runs in the first inning, and added an unearned run in the third.

Ray Bolger of the DUs pitched a no-hitter against Phi Delta Epsilon as the DUs easily pounded out a 10-0 win. Ryan's single with the bags loaded in the last of the sixth gave Theta Delta Chi a 5-4 win over the Dekes.

Stidham Dreams Marquette Coach Has Hopes for the Future

"I can dream, can't I?"

That's what the song says, and that's what Coach Tom Stidham of the Marquette university football team may be musing as he eyes the future on the Hilltop.

Stidham, who came to Marquette this year after prominent successes at Northwestern and Oklahoma universities, is ambitious to build up his sport—and, thus, all sports—at the local school.

The new coach's dream for the future at Marquette includes a streamlined football team, and that's something which may soon be realized. He has taken steps to equip the 1941 Golden Avalanche with brighter, classier paraphernalia that will draw "Ohs" and "Ahs" from the stands before the game is actually under way.

Stidham sees no reason why Marquette shouldn't have a separate practice field for its team. The squad at present does all its training in the home stadium, but the new coach is eying nearby property and would like to preserve the stadium turf for game days.

Dreams? Maybe not!

Vogds, Dunn, Walgenbach, and Boyle have shown plenty of promise.

The tackle positions are well fortified with vets Hirsbrunner, Baumann, and Harter and newcomers Ross and Loepfe.

There are four centers who rate consideration now: Thornally, McKay, Henry and Ladewig.

A flock of good backs headed by veterans Hoskins, Farris, York, Damos, McFadzean, Ray, Rooney, Miller, Diercks, Bronson, Calligaro, will be on hand in the fall. The only worry seems to be the fear that the draft will catch Damos and Miller.

Outstanding freshman backs during the workouts included Anderson, Pat Harder, Riewer, Granetz, Jefferson, and Mancheski.

All these players with the exception of Kriek, Lyons, Ladewig, and McFadzean will take part in the game which will be closed to the public.

Scheiwe, Bixby, Schneider Hurt During Contest

By DON OLMSTED

Wisconsin's valiant Badger baseball nine vanquished Minnesota's hapless Gophers, 10-0, at Camp Randall yesterday with the help of 15 hits, eight Minnesota errors, and seven-hit pitching by Badger Hurler Bob Van Sickle.

Wisconsin batters swarmed all over the offerings of Minnesota Pitchers Flick and Tepel, led by Third Baseman Lefty Smith with four safeties, Shortstop Ken Bixby with two singles, and two more by Catcher Bob Willding.

There was but one strikeout by a Card batsman all afternoon, and Badger hits were registered in every inning but the second.

INJURIES HALT GAME

The game was marred by injuries to three Wisconsin players. In the eighth inning Ken Bixby suffered a slight brain concussion and Left Fielder Bob Schneider sustained a large cut on the right cheek when they collided while going after a high fly. The game was halted while both men lay unconscious on the left field turf.

In the third inning, Right Fielder Ed Scheiwe was hit on the forehead by a thrown ball as he was running from first base on Smith's grounder. Ed now carries a large "egg" over his right eye.

These three players, all experienced regulars, form an important component of the Wisconsin team, and their loss for tomorrow's game with Minnesota is a big blow to Coach "Dynamite" Mansfield's hopes for a repeater over the northerners.

START OFF EARLY

In the first stanza Smith, Badger lead-off man, connected with a double, went to third on Scheiwe's out, and came home when Bixby grounded to the Gopher shortstop.

Badger bats clicked for two consecutive singles in the third inning by Smith and Scheiwe, and Smith came home for the second time on Bixby's fielder's choice.

WILD AFFAIR

The fifth inning was a wild affair as five Card hits and two Minnesota errors brought in three runs. Sullivan slammed a triple to deep center field as Forman, Willding, Van Sickle, and Smith each singled.

Bixby scored the Badgers' sixth run in the seventh inning when he and Roth laced out singles and the Minnesota centerfielder mishandled Sullivan's clout.

HECTIC EIGHTH

Four Badgers runners traveled the circuit in a hectic eighth inning on three hits and two Gopher errors. After two Wisconsin batters had been set down, Smith singled for his fourth hit out of five times at the plate.

Sweet's infield grounder was booted by the Minnesota shortstop, and on Englebreton's bunt, Smith raced home from third, knocking the ball out of the hands of the surprised Gopher backstop.

An error on Roth's right field fly brought Sweet and Englebreton into port, and Roth came home in his turn when Sullivan stole second, having made first on an infield error. The day's only Badger strikeout ended Wisconsin's batting for the day.

Have Fraternities Failed? This Out-spoken Article Says They Have

Here's Fraternity Life ...

A Saturday Column of Cardinal Open Letters

To the Student Board:

Last week we said that The Daily Cardinal was behind you in everything you would undertake to extend democracy on the campus. We didn't have to wait long for an answer, for the following Tuesday you indicated your intention to transform yourself from an administrative body to a policy forming organization.

There are a lot of people on the campus who can efficiently fill some of the administrative jobs emanating with the board but that are now filled by members of the board. The board has always been interested in getting more students interested in their campus government, and this method of distributing the responsibilities is one of the most natural that has yet come up.

To the Spring Festival Directorate:

You are to be congratulated for your work in bringing to the campus again this year a worthwhile program of the Spring Festival. Last year's festival was a definite contribution to the cultural activity on the campus, and there is no reason why this year's shouldn't repeat the success. Dorothy Maynor is a top-ranking soprano, and "Dark Victory" is a good play.

Wisconsin is one of the few campuses that has anything like a period devoted to the arts. Begun last year, the successful, smooth management of the festival indicated that it might become a Wisconsin tradition. Your efforts this year ought to confirm the beginning made last year.

To the Potential Draftees:

Professor Feinsinger's statement that students would be deferred until they had reached a "significant stage" in their courses is undoubtedly good news. It means that many of us can finish our courses and write our exams without a Damocles sword hanging over our heads. The nation will have to realize that there is a need for men well trained in other things beside those military.

Signed,
The Daily Cardinal

ARE PRESENT LIVING COSTS HIGHER AND CONDITIONS POORER?

The Frat Man Is a High-brow, an Intellectual Dead-beat, Anti-social and Anti-Democratic

Editor's Note: This article was not meant as a condemnation of campus fraternities. Rather it is a frank, out-spoken discussion of Wisconsin fraternities by a student who believes they are no longer fulfilling the ideals upon which they were founded. The Cardinal editorial page welcomes comment pro or con on this issue.

I am a fraternity man. Two years ago I was proud to be one. Today I am not. I want to tell you why I changed my mind.

You'll have to admit that fraternities aren't what they used to be. Costs are higher, conditions are poorer. Some have little to offer besides board and room.

But you say that fraternity men are leaders in every field of human activity. So are non-fraternity men. You argue that Grover Cleveland, William McKinley, William Howard Taft, Calvin Coolidge, and Franklin D. Roosevelt were fraternity men. But a dozen other presidents weren't.

Are fraternities helping the student to get the most from his university education. Are they helping him to learn to appreciate the cultural aspects of life, to cultivate a feeling for good literature, good music, good painting, and to carry that appreciation over into his future years? Are fraternities helping him to understand his fellow-men, and to learn to live beside them in a spirit of friendship and cooperation?

I say the fraternity has been a traitor to these ideals.

First, does a fraternity encourage its members to think? On the contrary. In two and one-half years I have heard active ask pledges the same question a thousand times: "What sort of average are you going to have? Are you going to make your grades?"

I have never heard: "What are you getting out of this course? Are you learning anything? Is it making you think?"

No, fraternity atmosphere isn't conducive to thinking.

Term papers are copied, accounting practice sets are copied, problems in economics and statistics are copied. Old exams are filed to make cramming for finals easier.

The result is that our thinking apparatus rusts from disuse. We get soft intellectually.

Oh, we have fun. There are parties, formals, and weekend dances. It's easier to get dates and a pin always makes an impression. But that is not important.

The thing is that it is not important to a fraternity that its members appreciate Bach or Raphael or Emerson. The big questions are: "How many pledges do we have this year? How many star athletes do we have? Do we have the Junior prom king, the editor of the Cardinal, the business manager of the Badger?"

These are the things that really matter.

Second, does a fraternity encourage its members to learn to understand and to get along with other people? In a way, yes. Forty men cannot live together for four years without recognition and the rights of other people.

However, recognition of obligation toward any group ends when the fraternity man steps outside his house door.

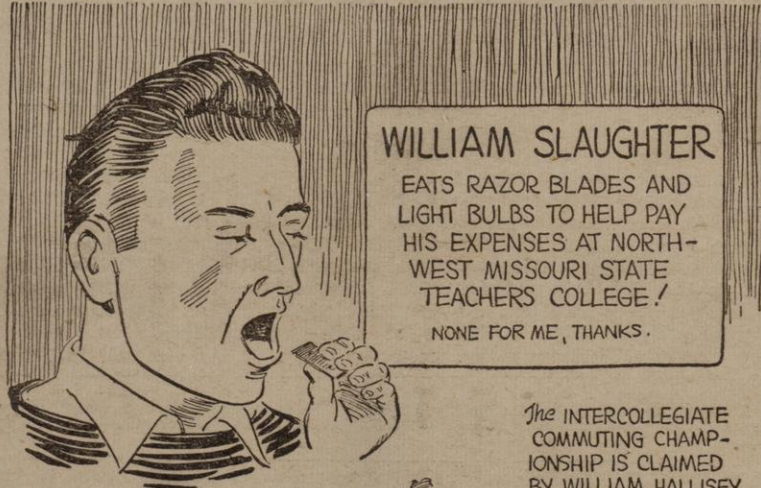

The feeling of superiority over men of other fraternities is nothing compared to the frat man's air of dominance over the non-fraternity man. An independent just does not belong.

Now what kind of men does this system produce? The fraternity man, typed for the most part when he graduates, is a high-brow, an intellectual dead-beat, anti-social and anti-democratic.

I do not believe that the abolition of fraternities will result in an educational paradise. Far from it. But not until the anti-educational and anti-democratic fraternity system is junked will the voice of the university be heard and understood. —J.S.

"These are grave times. Be careful of your speech and your actions in matters of public policy. Remember that a careless act or word by anyone on a university campus will be more misunderstood than if you had shouted your views in the main streets of your home towns. There are some so careless and unaware of the world they live in that they feel they need give no thought to what they say or do. They fail to recognize that wherever men live together, there is no such thing as unrestrained liberty, and that there is less of it when a nation is at war or living under the threat of it." Dr. Guy Stanton Ford, president of the University of Minnesota, sees need for a curb on words as well as a curb on deeds.

The Men's Halls

Halls Athletics Hold Spotlight;
Gregory Takes Botkin's Lead

By ART NATANSON

Unhampered by unseasonable weather and wet grounds, the close race for supremacy of the men's halls in softball still continues. Upsets were plentiful and thrilling matches could be seen on all sides, as the contestants slushed through muddy fields Wednesday and Thursday.

In one of the most startling upsets of the current season, the Tripp hall favorite, Botkin, met its match Thursday, dropping its league lead to Gregory, to the tune of 7-0.

This surprising yet well fought shut-out was pitched by Jim Payne, who garnered his third win of the year and his second shut-out.

On the other side of the grass, in Adams hall, La Follette maintained its lead by defeating Tarrant, 7-1, Tuesday.

Behind the 13 strikeout pitching of Vernon Burch, Ochsner defeated Noyes Tuesday, 3-2. Norris pitched for the losing side and Marv Gordon's home run won the game for Ochsner.

Thursday afternoon saw Noyes nose out Siebecker, 4-3, for the only other game played this week.

Four postponements in Adams hall will be played in the near future. The scheduled games for this weekend will see Siebecker meet Richardson, Ochsner vs. Tarrant, and La Follette against Noyes on Sunday, while Winslow will oppose Faville Monday afternoon.

The standings in the Adams league:

Team	W	L	Pct.
LA FOLLETTE	4	0	1.000
RICHARDSON	3	0	1.000
OCHSNER	3	1	.750
NOYES	3	2	.600
WINSLOW	1	2	.333
TARRANT	1	3	.250
FAVILLE	0	3	.000
SIEBECKER	0	4	.000

TRIPP LEAGUE

Besides the Gregory-Botkin get-together on Thursday, Vilas and Fallows met on the field of valor and the final result was the fifth defeat for the latter outfit, 18-7.

This leaves the Tripp league standings as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct.
GREGORY	3	1	.750
BOTKIN	3	1	.750
SPOONER	2	1	.667

BASHFORD	2	2	.500
HIGH	2	2	.500
VILAS	2	2	.500
FALLOWS	0	5	.000

KRONSHAGE LEAGUE

In the new halls both Swenson squads lead their individual leagues with perfect records. In the Back league, Conover and Turner are struggling for second place position, while Gilman, Jones, and Conover fight for similar supremacy in the Court league.

The standings in the Kronshage Back league are as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct.
SWENSON	4	0	1.000
CONOVER	3	1	.750
TURNER	3	1	.750
SHOWERMAN	1	2	.333
JONES	1	3	.250
MACK	1	3	.250
CHAMBERLIN	1	3	.250
GILMAN	0	4	.000

Following are the standings of the teams in the close race in the Court league of Kronshage:

Team	W	L	Pct.
SWENSON	4	0	1.000
GILMAN	3	1	.750
JONES	3	1	.750
CONOVER	3	1	.750
SHOWERMAN	2	2	.500
CHAMBERLIN	1	3	.250
TURNER	0	4	.000
MACK	0	4	.000

TRACK MEET

The annual track meet of the men's halls will be held on Tuesday, May 13, at 4:30 p. m. on the intramural fields. Points scored in the events will be added to the house scores for the cups to be awarded at the end of the athletic season.

The events are as follows:
100 yard dash, 200 yard dash, half mile, broad jump, high jump, 110 yard high school high hurdles, half mile relay (six men), shot put, and mile.

They let a slightly bewildered Wayne Jens out of the student infirmary Tuesday.

Wayne had been lying in the white-walled room of the infirmary since last Saturday afternoon, not knowing where he was, not remembering anything that had happened to him.

Last Saturday Wayne, a husky, 200-pound engineering sophomore, had decided to watch his team play baseball with another halls team. He thought that it would be a good way to spend the afternoon.

Stretched out on the grass behind first base, Wayne enjoyed the game very much. That is—he enjoyed it until the first baseman of the opposing team, running hard after a foul ball, tripped over Wayne, hit him on the temple with his knee, and knocked him out cold.

He was taken to the infirmary with a slight brain concussion. When he was turned over to the doctor, he struggled hard to get away.

"Leave me go," Wayne shouted. "I've got to strike this last man out."

Later, the doctor asked him, as he lay between the clean white sheets of the infirmary bed, if he knew where he was.

"Sure I do," Wayne roared. "I'm up to bat. The count is three balls and two strikes on me. But don't worry. I won't strike out."

As the time went by, and as the dizziness slowly left him, Wayne gained strength. His talk became more intelligible, and soon the paramount thought running through his mind was of getting out of the infirmary.

Whenever a nurse or a doctor walked by the door to his room, they were sure to be greeted by a loud "When are you going to let me out of here?"

Well, Tuesday Wayne came home. Happy to get out of the quiet, unexciting infirmary, but still bewildered and not sure of himself.

The Saturday of May 3 was just a day on the calendar that he couldn't account for. He is still asking the fellows in the house to tell him what happened on that day.

ious houses, expansion of the present tutoring system, and an increase in the facilities available to the men's halls, especially in the clubs and the library are foundation planks of my platform.

"I will do my best to regard with equality all business and affairs involving the men's halls and the houses I represent if elected."

Elections Set for Wednesday; Many
Apply for Cabinet

With the dates of election slowly approaching and the last day for filing petitions already past, the voting for cabinet members promises to be one of the heaviest in history.

Members of the Kronshage units will vote for one man from each house on Tuesday evening, while members of Tripp and Adams will be allowed to cast three equal votes for their choices on Wednesday of next week.

All residents are urged to vote and to do so as soon as possible on the days allotted.

Larry Halle, chairman of the elections committee of the Men's Halls association, announces that the number of candidates shows prospect for a close race in all three halls.

Winslow Arranges
Annual Picnic Party
To Climax Season

Climaxing a highly successful social season, Winslow house has made preparations for two functions to be held in the near future.

A house picnic has been arranged for May 14 and all the members will attend. The Van Hise refectory will prepare the refreshments and athletic games will feature the entertainment of the afternoon.

The final social function of the year for Winslow will be a dance in the Pine room. This event will take place on May 23. Preparations for both the picnic and the Pine room party are in the hands of House President Bob Ferguson and Social Chairman Bryant Melendy.

Queen Jerry Tofson, Sophomore Badger Beauty, Will Reign Over Seniors Tonight at Annual Ball

*Will Lead White-Gowned Court Tonight

To be a Badger Beauty is a real tribute to any girl. To be queen of the Senior ball is a great honor. To be both in one year is almost unbelievable, but it's true about Jerry Tofson.

Jerry, who is from Wisconsin Dells, is a charming and versatile person. Her interests center around art, classical music and photography. She is very happy that the boating and swimming season has arrived, for she is a water sport enthusiast. "I think spring and Madison are lovely," she said. Although it's not definite, Jerry thinks she would like to do vocational guidance work, or perhaps enter the field of child psychology. A sophomore at present, she is majoring in psychology and sociology.

QUEEN FOR A NIGHT

Tonight Jerry will reign as queen of the Senior ball with the king, Gerry Bong, president of the senior class. Her beauty will be accentuated by a white silk jersey gown fashioned in Grecian lines. With a gathered bodice and low waistline, the dress has a very full skirt. Pearl accessories and a short maribou jacket will complete the outfit.

The guests of the four assistant general chairmen will comprise Jerry's court of honor. Barbara Morey, Pi Beta Phi, who will attend the ball with John Bendyk, in charge of arrangements, has chosen to wear a formal with a white chiffon bodice shirred down to the waist, long full sleeves, and a full black organdy skirt with white embroidered organdy stripes. Her accessories will be black and white, and her wrap will be white quilted taffeta.

WHITE GOWNS VOGUE

A white faille dress embroidered with gold stars and fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and tiny sleeves will be worn by Jody Jacobi, Delta Gamma. She will be escorted by Bob W. Henning, in charge of program.

Irving Miller, in charge of promotion, will escort Betty Boyd to the ball. Betty will wear a white net gown which has a very full skirt. Shirred down the front of the fitted bodice, it has a sweetheart neckline and tiny shoulder straps. Gold accessories, white satin slippers, and a long white wrap trimmed with gold braid will complete her ensemble.

Elinor Scott, Delta Gamma, has selected a gay multi-colored jersey print with a white background. The gown will be accentuated by a green jacket and silver accessories. Her escort will be Art Nielsen in charge of the program.

Art Sorority Holds Dinner Wednesday

Sigma Lambda, professional art sorority, held its annual formal spring dinner Wednesday evening in the Old Madison room of the Memorial Union. Guests of honor included honorary members and members of the faculty.

Miss Jean Mathews, artist and interior decorator, was the speaker of the evening. She spoke of an artist's impression of Guatemala. Miss Mathews illustrated her talk with pencil sketches made on her trip. She also displayed fine pieces of Guatemala weaving from her extensive collection. Virginia Callies, president, introduced the speaker, and told of the highlights in the sorority's program during the past year.

Wesley Group Holds Dinner

Dr. Fred Eastman, professor of biography, literature, and drama at the University of Chicago, will speak, and Thelma Grey Dittich, Sheboygan soprano, will be the guest soloist at a banquet and program to be sponsored by Gamma chapter of Wesley players at 6:30 p.m., today in Blakeman hall at Wesley foundation. Dr. Eastman will speak on "Drama as a Social Force." Mrs. Dittich will sing, "Pretty Mocking Bird," Bishop; "Love, Fly on Rosy Pinions," Verdi; "One Fine Day," Puccini; "The Blue Danube," Strauss; "Swiss Echo Song," Eckert; "Roses from the South," Strauss.

The banquet and program will be open to all university students, and other drama groups are especially urged to attend. Reservations at 40 cents per person are available at the Wesley foundation office, 1127 University avenue.

Queen's Banquet Will Highlight Festivities

Highlight of Senior ball festivities is the queen's banquet tonight at 6:30 at the Capital hotel to which are invited all the Senior ball chairmen and five special guests. King Gerry and Queen Jerry will be at the head of the table.

CHAIRMAN AND DATES

Ball general chairmen and their dates attending the dinner will be John Bendyk, arrangements, Barbara Morey, Pi Beta Phi; Irving Miller, promotion, Betty Boyd; Robert W. Henning, finance, Margaret Jacobi, Delta Gamma; and Arthur Nielsen, program, Elinor Scott, Delta Gamma.

Also at the queen's banquet will be the following assistant chairmen and their dates: George Carlson, advertising, Joan Roegge; Newell Smith, tickets, Margaret Nepper; Danton Lake, publicity, Jeanne Cavanaugh; Robert Schmitz, decorations, Kay Kennedy; Elliott Resneck, arrangements, Dory Block; and Ed Lachmund, refreshments, Helen Polcyn.

1940 Prom King Will Enter Marine Corps

Last year's Junior prom king, John Howell, and six other university students signed up yesterday for service in the United States marine corps. Howell was also leading lady in last year's Haresfoot production.

Other students who will go into the corps are Milan Johnson, Lowell Rich-festival celebration opening on the campus this weekend," Black said. DISPLAY ACHIEVEMENTS

"The best of the university's achievements in music, drama, art, and the dance, plus a concert by the Negro soprano, Dorothy Maynor, will be on parade for visitors. The full facilities of the Union and its unique community theater, center of festival events, will be thrown open for the entertainment and enjoyment of all who come.

"Hundreds of students will participate in the programs and a holiday atmosphere, with colored lighting, special displays, and social gatherings on the lake shore terrace, will prevail from May 10 to 25.

"This is the time of times to visit the university, see the Union theater, and watch the student body in action." More than 17,000 people from all parts of the state and surrounding areas attended the 34 festival events of last year.

Fourteen students head the directorate for the festival. In addition to Ray Black, general chairman, the following students have been at work on the two-week parade of campus talents in music, art, drama, and dance: Norman Lofthus, Donald Stopplet, Virginia Bowden, John L. Bruemmer, Edward Jones, Gerry Bong, Gunther Heller, Wayne Hugoboom, Robert Lewis, Myrtle LaPidus, Joseph Barnett, Mickey Schiff, and Joe Bradley.

Cooperative Groups Will Combine to Hold Sunset Point Picnic

The student eating co-ops will hold a combined picnic today at Sunset point, starting at 3 o'clock. Keith Baumeister, of the YMCA co-op, heads the picnic committee.

Festivities will start promptly at 3 p. m. with the Green Lantern co-op playing the Catholic co-op in softball. The girls will play volleyball, and a tug-of-war will be held with the ag boys pulling against the engineers.

After dinner, Chester Graham, Co-op Corner writer of the Capital Times, will lead the group in songs and folk dances.

The affair has been arranged to end at 7 o'clock, but picnickers may stay longer if they wish.

Prizes will be awarded for the athletic contests.

Play Circle Variety Show Will Feature 'Abe Lincoln' Today

"Abraham Lincoln" will appear on the Play Circle Variety show at 3:30 this afternoon broadcast from the Memorial Union, Alan Beaumont, production manager, said last night.

No admission is charged for the weekly all-campus broadcast. Doors open at 3:15 for the show and close promptly at 3:30.

The show will feature Don Voegeli and the Play Circle orchestra with Jean Lappley, vocalist. Guests on the program will be the WHA Riot Squad and the Firemen's Trio.

Midwestern Federation of Campus Co-operatives will meet next year at the University of Minnesota.

ardson, Ray Kehoe, John Jenswold, Robert Bobber, and Martin Reinemann.

Kehoe, Richardson, and Reinemann begin training July 1 at the officers' training school at Quantico, Va. After three months they will receive commissions as second lieutenants. The others will go into service about Oct. 1.

from Wall street, the great secretary of war, asked for convoys," he protested. "The war party wants us to help not just to have England defend herself but also to help her reconquer Europe and reestablish the British empire."

Because Europe has increased in population to 460 millions since the industrial revolution, it cannot continue to feed all its inhabitants if it remains divided in 20 countries, he explained.

HAS CONFIDENCE

"But I have a lot of confidence in the old Yankee strain of trading and I believe it will be able to best whom ever we shall have to compete with," he added. "However, we shall have competition. That's their privilege and right."

The war leaders have been playing on our fears as well as our sympathies, he charged. Besides economic methods, they charge that Hitler will try an actual invasion.

"That's ridiculous!" he commented. "Germany with all its advantages has not yet crossed 22 miles of water into Britain, and I have an idea they want to cross that water."

"The way they would do it, say the war party members, is through South America. All right, suppose the German expeditionary army of one million men (that's half of what they needed to invade Poland) in Africa—"

Here he was interrupted by laughter and applause. He continued:

"To equip them we would need terrace for a 9 o'clock breakfast and discussion hour. Mrs. Phil La Follette, guest speaker, will address the group in the Reception room of the Union following the breakfast.

40,000 field guns, 100,000 vehicles, 9,000,000 pounds of food a day, 10,000 airplanes, oil and other supplies, and 9,000,000 tons of shipping to shuttle the material across the ocean (we are having trouble raising 2,000,000 tons, but that is only a technicality). We then send them through the jungles of the Isthmus of Panama, the mountain passes of Guatemala, and finally they reach the Rio Grande after a journey of 10,000 miles, catching the United States by surprise."

Another excuse given, he said, was that the United States was "buying time" against the inevitable Nazi thrust. This he dismissed as dishonorable.

'DON'T BE DISCOURAGED'

"Don't any of you become too discouraged," he concluded. "What I should like to tell the president, if he would listen to me, is to dismiss the 'two colonels' from his cabinet, get on the radio and reiterate his promise of all aid short of war rather than sending us to war."

"I won't consider the fight lost until congress actually declares war, if it does, and then, of course, I will participate as a citizen of the United States to help win the war."
