IN MEMORIAM

SILENCE ALONE

There is no utterance for love or death;
Words cannot speak for grief or ecstasy;
They must stand by like impotent pale ghosts
When hearts are blest or strike verily.

No eloquence is adequate to tell
Of beauty; man is mute as any clod
Of earth before an elemental truth;
He has no word that gives a hint of God.
Silence alone is great enough to hold
A thing so real it never can be told.

HENRY ANGSTEN

1899-1953

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1954, proudly dedicate this, our Emerald Annual, to you, Miss Klemp, as a token of appreciation for the extra work you did to make your mathematics classes attractive and interesting; for your leadership as a sophomore adviser; for your willingness to participate as a leader in extra-curricular activities and most of all for your untiring efforts in the development of our Emerald Annual. To you, Miss Klemp, we gratefully make this, our annual, your annual.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Standing: Healy, Hansen
Seated: Jones, Horner, Hill, Kamper

Mrs. Violet Halbach

This year our school board was increased to five members to better represent our new and larger district.

SCHOOL SECRETARY

Secretarial work for both our school board and school was again very capably done by Mrs. Violet Halbach.

ADMINISTRATION

Pleasant and successful school experiences build a foundation for a pleasant and successful life after we are out of school. Let's not put any weak bricks in our foundation.

I wish to extend best wishes to the Class of 1954. All of us hope that you will come back and visit us whenever the chance presents itself.

Everett J. Hill

Mr. Hill and Mrs. Halbach check some of the many details that are involved in their daily work.

SENIORS

Mayer, Brown, Shanks, Michl

President-
John Michl
Vice-President-
Charles Shanks
Secretary-
Beverly Brown
Treasurer-
Nancy Mayer

The Senior Class swung into action by electing class officers. Margaret Mehring, Audrey Hegemann, Darlene Braund, and David Rebstock were elected as senior representatives to the Student Council. In the Homecoming parade, Mr. Daugherty's Homeroom float, We Don't Monkey Around, won third prize. While balloting for the Court of Honor, excitement ran high as two girls tied three times for the honor. Then, both Darlene Braund and Joan Scherbarth represented the class. The Homecoming King was Ronald Westerdahl, quarterback of the football team. During the year, several cafeteria luncheons were sponsored by the class as money-raising projects. King John Michl and his lovely queen, Margaret Mehring, were the royal pair at the Snowflake Serenade. Stranger In The Night, our thrilling mystery play, was our last major event before graduation.

HONORS

VALEDICTORIAN

To achieve the distinction of having the highest scholastic average in one's class is an honor in itself. Add to that the honor of being chosen by one's classmates to lead them as Editor-in-chief of the 1954 Emerald Annual and the honor of being selected by the faculty for the D.A.R. Award and you have a measure of the esteem in which Carol was held at Waterford High School. Throughout her four years, she gave her services to the school faithfully and cheerfully.

Carol Mattson

John Michl

SALUTATORIAN

Jack Michl, or "Mike" as he was nicknamed, was popular with one and all for his character, personality, and ability. Versatility was the keynote of his many activities which embraced all the sports, music, dramatics, journalism, and social events. The Class of '54 elected him to be president and also King of the 1954 Sno-Ball. The faculty selected him to represent Waterford High School at Badger Boys' State.

Principal E. Hill Carol Mattson

D.A.R. AWARD

Each year the faculty is called upon to select the most outstanding senior girl on the basis of such qualities as dependability, leadership, service, and patriotism. The girl selected this year to receive the Daughters of American Revolution Award was Carol Mattson.

The award-winner submits answers to ten questions. Upon these answers is based the selection of the winner who receives a $100 United States Savings Bond.

JUNIORS

Hoppe, Lewis, A. Hotz

President-
James Hoppe
Vice-President-
Arnold Hotz
Secretary-
Margaret Hart
Treasurer-
Bonnie Lewis

At their first class meeting, the juniors returned Jim Hoppe to office this year as president. Last year, Jim served as treasurer. These Student Council representatives were elected: Marjorie Kauppi, Janet Fletcher, Donald Migalski, and Donald Soward. At Homecoming time, Miss Fisher's homeroom again won first with their prize-winning float, "Heaven Help the Aggies". A junior girl, Janet Fletcher, reigned as Homecoming Queen in the parade and at the Homecoming dance. Their class play, Take Care of My Little Girl was the first big event of the year. During the year, the class accumulated money through their magazine sales, float prize, cafeteria proceeds, and class play. The reason for so much business enterprise? To present a successful and beautiful Prom.

FRESHMEN

Dean Banta, Leiskau, Michl, Kuntz

President-
Marlene Leiskau
Vice-President-
Richard Michl
Secretary-
Georgann Kuntz
Treasurer-
Dean Banta

On the first day of school, seventy-two frightened freshmen crossed the threshold of Waterford High School, breaking all previous enrollment records. They were eager and alert to their opportunities, for they supported the school by coming out strongly for games and school activities. Sondra Chic and Marlene Leiskau became cheerleaders. Many freshmen helped to round out the band and chorus. Others participated in athletics. Sondra Chic was the freshman representative in the Court of Honor which presided at the Homecoming parade and dance. Student Council members were chosen as follows: Harry Curnow, Mary K. Hoppe, Ronald Jolly, and Donna Kauppi. We salute you, the freshmen, for having made such a good start.

Myron C. Beckman

Mr. Beckman is our capable band director. The band has acquired fifty new uniforms, a tuba, flutes, a piccolo, and a bell lyre with the help of the hard working Band Mothers' Club. Three concerts paved the way for the annual Whitewater Tournament. Mr. Beckman has built up young talent with high hopes for the future.

COMMERCIAL

JAMES H. BRYS

Mr. Brys, our commercial instructor, taught shorthand, three classes of typing, and office practice. The office practice class took an interesting field trip to Milwaukee to investigate business procedures in big offices. The class learned to operate various office machines.

They were taught the correct way to apply for a job and how to ask for a letter of recommendation. Mr. Brys, with the help of girls from his classes, took care of all ticket sales to football and basketball games.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Mr. Daugherty, our industrial arts instructor, provides three years of shop, and one year of mechanical drawing to students. Under his excellent instruction, the boys turn out wonderful projects which are usually displayed very artistically at Open House. As a senior adviser, Mr. Daugherty's hard work and planning was a factor which contributed to the success of the Senior Sno Ball.

HOME ECONOMICS

CATHRYN FISHER

The leadership of Miss Fisher promises every Junior class a beautiful and successful Junior Prom. Home Economics I and II consists of cooking, sewing, and personal grooming.

Home Economics III teaches the advanced girls interior decorating, planning a home, sewing, and family relations. With Miss Fisher's guidance, the girls have made very interesting projects to display at Open House.

ENGLISH AND LIBRARY

ETHELYN A. HANDRAN

Miss Handran, in her first year as librarian, reorganized our library and formed the Library Club. She coached oratory and extempore reading.

As an Emerald Annual adviser, she did an excellent job in helping our annual to be a great success. Her freshmen English classes used the tape recorder which showed them their speech defects. They also gave talks on their hobbies and outside interest.

PHYSICS

Everett J. Hill

Mr. Hill, our principal, took time out from his busy day in the office to conduct the physics class, which was composed of junior and senior students. The principles of electricity, sound, and light were some of the things learned through experiments. Mr. Hill was a senior adviser and also in charge of two study halls each day.

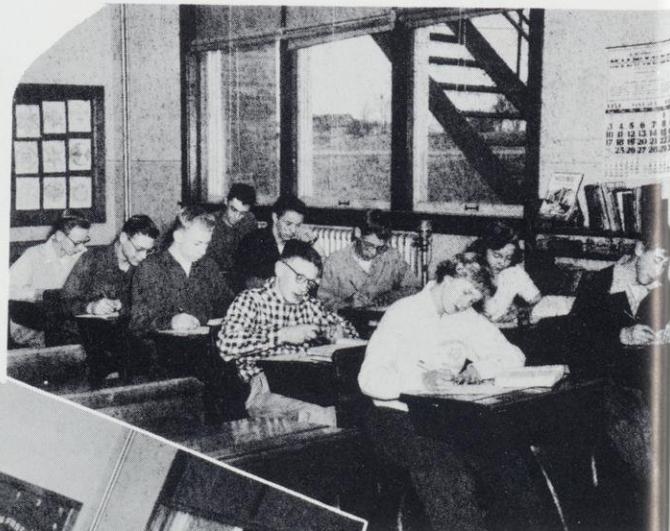

ESTHER M. KLEMP

MATHEMATICS

Miss Klemp's day was spent in teaching five classes: two general math, two algebra classes, and one advanced algebra class, in which students mastered the skills of a transit. Walking into her room at any time, you were sure to find an attractive bulletin board.

Miss Klemp, who was also an annual adviser, devoted many hours of hard work and planning toward the publication of the Emerald Annual.

CIVICS AND GUIDANCE

WILBERT LEYS

An added feature in our school this year was the guidance instruction given by Mr. Leys.

In this way, he helped us to choose the courses which would best fit us for our future life work. He taught three freshmen civics classes and sponsored the cheerleader groups.

DeEtta Lippincott

CHORUS

Our choir, composed entirely of girls, was heard singing scales and exercises every morning. The halls echoed to their carols just before the Christmas vacation. Miss Lippincott prepared the soloists and ensembles for their day at Whitewater on April 3. A combined band and chorus concert was presented at Christmas time and another in the spring.

Bottom Row: Miss Lippincott, D. Kauppi, Ray, M. Mattson, Mehring, Mitchell, Madden, C. Mattson, Greeley.

ENGLISH AND LATIN

MARGARET ROHAN

You can always look forward to a pleasant smile and a sincere interest from Miss Rohan. She teaches Latin, Senior and Junior English. Upon entering the classroom, you can always be sure of a beautiful and timely bulletin board. Miss Rohan is always bringing in additional information to add more color and interest to every class.

ERNEST O. RZEPECKI

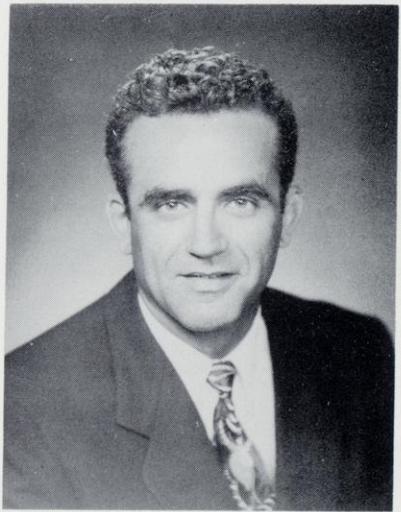

Mr. Rzepecki, a new member of the teaching staff this year, taught chemistry and biology. He taught physical education to the freshmen, junior and senior girls. He coached a strong "B" squad in basketball. His sophomore biology class designed and executed a life-size skeleton and made good use of the new solarium.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

ALEX STASNOPOLIS

Mr. Stasnopolis, who teaches U. S. History and Social Problems has added a semester of Economics to an interesting course to which reality is added by his many personal experiences.

Mr. Stasnopolis, as head football coach, has done a wonderful job in preparing our football team for future games.

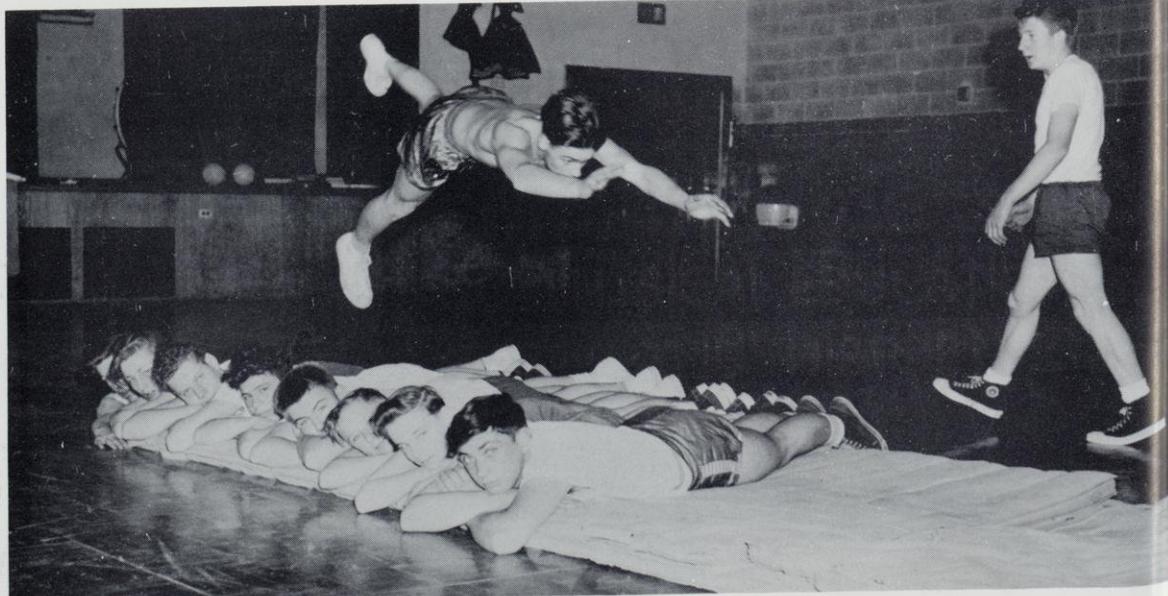

GEORGE STEFFEN

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND HISTORY

Mr. Steffen, our head coach also taught physical education to boys and girls. The classes consisted of basketball, baseball, tumbling, volleyball, and calisthenics. Mr. Steffen taught driver's education to the Sophomore boys and girls. His world history class had new text books this year, as well as the World Week newspaper.

GENERAL SCIENCE AND ENGLISH

WILLIAM D. UGLOW

Mr. Uglow taught general science to the freshmen and conducted many experiments, among which were food tests to prove the presence of starch, protein, or carbohydrate.

In English II, panel discussions were popular. The sophomores also edited the new printed Emerald Echo. Much credit is due Mr. Uglow who directed both class plays.

Quiet! As the second bell rang, each student was in his chair at one of the tables, his books open and ready for work. The next fifty minutes were dedicated to the books, before the bell announced the next class.

THE EMERALD ANNUAL

Standing: Rebstock, Huelskamp, N. Mayer.

(Not Pictured: R. Bazen, S. Hoover, J. Michl, A. Hegemann)

To join the Annual Staff, seniors were required to sell at least one advertisement. From that list, the class voted on nominees and chose Carol Mattson as Editor and Norma Mitsch as Business Manager. With their advisors, these two girls went to the High School Editors' Conference at the University of Wisconsin. They listened to lectures given by professors of journalism and representatives of different annual publishing companies. With Miss Klemp and Miss Handran as advisers, the group put in many evenings and extra hours in order to assemble our 1954 annual.

We give our thanks to all the sponsors and advertisers who made our annual possible. It is a book which will be priceless to us in years to come.

The Emerald Echo

Standing: D. Rademacher, C. Hayne, I. Raggio, Paulson, Holtz, Kopelke, Judy Scherbarth, Jensen, M. Mattson, Neitman, Madden, Roeglin, J. Brown, N. Waldron, Brunlinger, Hendricks, W. Staebler, Mr. Uglow.

Second Row: Boehles, J. Rademacher, Lewis, Chic, Barbara Schmidt, M. Hegeman, A. Raggio.

With Mr. Uglow as advisor, the first issue of our school newspaper, the Emerald Echo, surprised the student body by appearing in printed rather than in mimeographed form. The students approved of the change in style. Waterford's businessmen sponsored the venture through ads. Subscription rates were 50 cents per semester.

New style provided a new incentive for the study of journalism. The sophomores, especially, made a study of the various forms of news-writing in their English classes. Among other added features were "Recipes from the Faculty" and "Meet the Faculty".

At the beginning of the second semester, a permanent staff was selected as follows: Dick Franke, editor; Ronnie Baldwin, assistant editor; Dick Mittlestaedt, boys' sports editor; Daryl DuFrane, assistant boys' sports editor; Joanne Rademacher, girls' sports editor; Jim Hintz and Louis Noll, business managers; Martha Brunlinger, circulation manager. A large group of feature writers and reporters assisted in meeting the deadlines for copy.

Standing: Jolly, Curnow, D. Rademacher, D. Kauppi, Madden, M. Kauppi, Fletcher.
Second Row: Migalski, C. Mattson, Peterson, Mr. Hill, Sarno, Shanks, Franke, D. Soward
Bottom Row: J. Brown, M. Hoppe, Mehring, Braund, A. Hegemann, Rebstock.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At the beginning of the year, the election of officers was held with Bob Peterson being elected for a second term as president, Chuck Shanks as vice-president, Joyce Sarno as secretary, and Carol Mattson as treasurer. Throughout the year, the Student Council represented the student body by sponsoring the homecoming parade and dance, setting up a driving council to regulate noon driving, and planning for noon-hour recreation and other activities. At the end of the first semester, Bob Peterson resigned as president after doing a fine job, and Chuck Shanks stepped in to replace him for the remainder of the year.

AWARDS

Rockrohr-Skarie

The beautiful athlete's trophy to Jim Rockrohr and Hans Skarie of the class of '46' is annually engraved with the name of the outstanding boy of the year in character, scholarship, and athletics. Chuck Paulson and David Rockrohr jointly received the award last year.

Scholastic

Each year, the Scholarship Award Trophy is engraved with the name of the senior whose scholastic standing throughout the four years is the highest in the class. On Commencement Night this year's award was given to Carol Mattson.

Rader

In the spring of 1953, a trophy was presented to the school in memory of Bill Rader by some of his fellowclassmates, his family, and the "W" Club. Every year on this trophy is to be engraved the name of the most valuable player in the sport in which he excelled. The recipient of this award will be announced on Commencement Night.

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

Top Row: Mr. Steffen Westerdahl, Meyer.
Second Row: Shanks, Schwartzman, Johncox.
Third Row: J. Michl, W. Johnson, Leibundgut.
Front Row: Rebstock, P. Staebler, Migalski, Franke, Choinski

In its second year of existence, the W-Club carried on its traditions of good sportsmanship and fellowship among members. The officers were Jack Michl, president; Ronald Westerdahl, vice president; Paul Staebler, secretary; and David Rebstock, treasurer. The club financed letterman jackets for the thirteen seniors by selling candy and pop at football and basketball games and during the noon hour.

PROJECTOR CLUB

Standing: Geif, Satterstrom, Rockwell, G. Bakke, Noll, R. Polak, A. Schmidt Shanks, Johncox, Schwartzman, R. Bazen, Mr. Daugherty.

Second Row: Peterson, Rebstock, J. Michl.

Front: Curry, Meyer.

All of the boys in the Projector Club had excellent training in running the tape recorder, the film projector, the slide projector, and the opaque projector, under the guidance of Mr. Daugherty. The boys learned about the parts of the projectors in case they failed to operate. The club was composed of juniors, seniors and two sophomores. The president was Charles Shanks and the secretary-treasurer was David Rebstock.

FORENSICS

First Row: Prager, Horner, Hayne, Boehles, Marian Murray, Hintz, Lewis, Shirley Hoover, A. Hegemann, N. Mayer.

Elimination contests in forensic events at Waterford High School were scheduled for March 2 and 3, with Miss Fisher, Mr. Uglow, and Mr. Brys acting as judges. The following contestants were selected:

These eight people were chosen to represent us in the inter-school competition at Pewaukee on March 9. Those rating an A on their speeches were Shirley Hoover, Bob Peterson, David Rebstock, and Naomi Paulson.

Seated: Fremming, M. Schmidt, Miss Handran (Not shown-S. Hoover, Robel, Schattner-Nancy Mayer at magazine rack.)

The library club has been newly organized this year by Miss Handran. With the help of the staff, she has taken inventory of all the books in the library, which hasn't been done in recent years. File cards were made for fiction and biography, which was quite an undertaking. The staff received library pins to show they belong to the club, which is shown above.

The officers of the club are: president, Nancy Mayer; vice president, Jean Ketterhagen; secretary, Shirley Hoover; and treasurer, Judy Scherbarth. The library club has joined the Teen-Age Book Club and the Literary Guild, through which several books have been purchased.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Take Care of My Little Girl" was the play presented by the junior class on November 14. It was about a girl who went to college and when she tried to join a sorority, found that there can be snobbery in a college.

The Cast was as follows:

Liz.....	Marcia Murray
Becky.....	Marjorie Kauppi
Adelaide.....	Jackie Roeglin
Merry.....	Donna Fremming

Sylvia and Mable are owners of a hotel gift shop. According to Grant Terry, a newspaper reporter, the owners are to figure in a possible murder plot. Hidden in a gift is a slip of paper with the name of the person in the hotel who is marked for murder. Swift action presented in three acts of chills and laughs have an unexpected and thrilling climax.

"Stranger in the Night" was presented on March 31.

SNOWFLAKE SERENADE

The very beautiful Senior Formal, "Snowflake Serenade", was held on January 23, 1954. A senior couple, John Michl and Margaret Mehring, were elected by the class to reign as royalty for this big event. We danced to the music of "The Knights of Rhythm". Our snowflake-covered tables, combined with candlelight created a very romantic atmosphere.

JUNIOR PROM

"Garden in the Rain" was presented May 7, 1953. King Robert Peterson and his pretty Queen, Nancy Mayer reigned at the traditional Junior Promenade. The gym was beautifully decorated to suit the theme and a bubbling fountain highlighted the center of the gym.

DRIVERS EDUCATION

Step on the starter,
Shove it in low,
Come on, sophomores,
To Drivers' Ed. we go.

Taught by Mr. Steffen, this course for sophomores emphasized the rules of the road.

BOYS' HOME EC

GIRLS' SHOP

Again this year, Miss Fisher instructed a course in Home Economics for the senior boys. They were taught how to prepare many delectable tidbits. They all subscribed to the theory that the "proof of the pudding was in the eating."

Under the direction of Mr. Daugherty, about sixteen senior girls signed up for a course in shop and enjoyed the work tremendously. They made lamps, shadow boxes, and other items of handicraft.

HOOMEARING

Football atmosphere prevailed from the moment one entered the high school gymnasium for the Homecoming Dance. The decorations included life-size figurines of cheerleaders along the sides of the room and megaphones on the windows above. A miniature football field with an artificial bonfire and miniature football players served as a centerpiece, around which the dancers circled to the strains of the Merry Mixers. King Ronald Westerdahl and Janet Fletcher, his charming queen, happily reigned over the festivities. After the Grand March, cake was served to all the guests.

Standing: Mr. Beckman, J. Hunter.

Top Row: Haas, Leiskau, Marian Murray, Laux, Luedke, Mueller, Port, Bollom.

Second Row: Albee, Tindall, Curnow, Nalepinski, Schneider, Callen, J. Schroeder, Meronek, Ray, Warner, M. Schroeder.

CHEERLEADERS

B-SQUAD

Allard, Kempken, Gruenwald, DeBack, Fletcher, Fremming

A-SQUAD

Under the direction of Mr. Leys, the cheerleaders proved to be a great asset at the games. They sold booster pins and sponsored dances after the games to obtain money for uniforms.

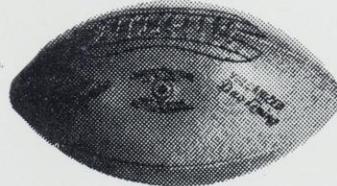

Standing: Coach Stasnopolis, Johnson, Reeves, Rudzinski, Curnow, Modrak, J. Robel, Don Banta, Dean Banta, P. Staebler, Mr. Rzepecki.

First Row: Mr. Steffen, M. Soward, Kruse, G. Polak, A. Hotz, Lancaster, DuFrane, J. Hoppe, Bob Boelter, Witty, G. Mittlestaedt.

FOOTBALL

The Wolverines opened their 1953 season by playing St. Mary's of Kenosha on the Green and White's home field. The game was a battle from beginning to end with the Wolverines leaving the field as losers by a heartbreakin score of 7-6. After our first game, hopes were high, but as the year progressed, the team found they were unable to win a game. Their fighting spirit remained high throughout the year, however.

Touchdowns during the season were scored by Ronnie Westerdahl, David Barnes, and Jack Michl. Jack scored two touchdowns and Ronnie and Dave each scored one apiece.

Ronnie Westerdahl was chosen as captain of the team by his fellow players.

The team lost only six seniors through graduation, so the team next year should be a winning one.

BASKETBALL

Our 1953-54 basketball team was not a full success in winning games, but we feel it was a great success in fighting spirit. The team was composed of eight seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores. The starting five was composed of Jack Michl, Wayne Schwartzman, Chuck Shanks, Bob Olson, and Dick Franke.

In one of the best games of the season. Waterford upset third-place Hartland. We also beat Pewaukee, Salem Central, and East Troy.

Jack Michl, center for the Wolverines was the team's leading scorer with 303 points. He was followed by Wayne Schwartzman with 245 and Dick Franke with 222 points.

Waterford's season record was four wins and fifteen losses. The conference record was two wins and ten losses. Although the season record was not what we wanted, we feel the team tried hard. We are already looking forward to our 1954-55 basketball season.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Our 1953-1954 B squad basketball season was an exciting one, for they never slowed down at all. The season record showed 10 wins and 9 losses. In the opening game at East Troy, Waterford lost by a very close Margin. In the following game with Union Grove, they lost again, but by a score of 22-21. From there on the team was mostly winning ball games.

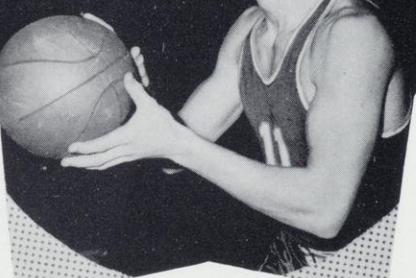

The starting five was composed of Bob Olson, Dave Carew, Ronald Baldwin, Frank Chervenka, and Charles Kuzmic. Bob Olson was later moved up to the A squad, so Ronnie Dahl then was on the starting five. The substitutes composed a very strong bench and in many games proved themselves. They were Bob Neitman, Harry Curnow, Tom Bissonnette, Dale Lueneberg, Daryl DuFrane, Fred Witty, and Dean Banta. Congratulations to Coach Rzepecki's B squad on their fighting spirit and good record.

BASEBALL

Our 1953 baseball season was not as successful as we hoped it would be. The main team was composed of Gene Boettcher, a senior; Don Barthel, Jack Michl, Ronald Westerdahl, Chuck Shanks, juniors; Don Migalski, Charlie Meyers, Jim Leibundgut, sophomores; and Dick Franke, Dick Mittlestaedt, Ronald Baldwin, freshmen.

Two of our consistent hitters were Don

Barthel and Jack Michl. The main pitchers were Jim Leibundgut, Dick Mittlestaedt, and Dick Franke.

The Wolverines were always on the edge of victory but did not quite make it. Mukwonago took the championship. With a number of the boys signifying their desire to participate in the sport, we are looking forward with high hopes to our 1954 season.

NOON ACTIVITIES

Our new custodian, Dave Halbach, took up his duties immediately after the Christmas vacation. Dave is an alumnus of Waterford High School with the class of '49, and he served in the air force as a corporal.

In early fall, students could be seen hurrying downtown for dinner at the local business places. The noon hour diversion was especially appreciated when the weather was favorable.
