PEP SPEECHES WILL FEATURE MASS MEETING

To Present Startling Facts on University Needs at Lathrop Tonight

Spirited talks by men and women students who have studied university problems and music by the two university bands at the all-university massmeeting to be held from 7 to 8 o'clock tonight in Lathrop gymnasium promise to make the occasion one of the most inspiring and profitable get-togethers that has ever been attempted by the student body.

It is the second student mass-meeting held to discuss university problems in three years. The first was held the semester following the S. A. T. C. when students met to discuss self-government. The meeting tonight is intended to be a sequel to the mission of the varsity welcome and the first of a series that will be held to better the interests of the student body and the university in general.

Change Place of Meet

The change in meeting place from the men's gymnasium to Lathrop gymnasium was made necessary late yesterday when it became known that the men's gymnasium was to be used for basketball practice.

"Red" Weston '21, president of the senior class, will be the first speaker on the program. He will take as his subject "The University as Others See It," and will show how the institution has recently been wronged by articles that have appeared in some of the papers of the state. Isabelle Bacon '21 will answer the criticisms that these articles have made and will discuss from the student point of view the points which they have stressed.

Dean Sellery to Speak

The only non-student speaker will be Dean George C. Sellery who will attempt to create a more contented feeling in the student body by pointing out the fact that such things as the "sore eye special" and other student bugaboos are no more

MANY FILMED DAILY IN MOVIE TRYOUTS

Speed is the slogan of the Varsity Movie managers for the cast tryouts they are holding this week. Their object is to film as many applicants as possible before vacation, in order to select photographs of a few who film best, to use as a basis for judgment in the final choice of the cast. The photographs may be run, in addition to the regular picture, at one of the local theaters.

Each tryout takes about ten minutes, and consists of a general summary of the type of characterization for which the subject seems best suited. There are 150 names on the list for tryouts, but further applications will be received if sent in immediately, addressed to the Varsity Movie, at the Union building.

NEW SKIING SLIDE TO MAKE POSSIBLE JUMP OF 115 FEET

Will Be Opened by Ski Club
Two Weeks After Christmas

Ski-jumpers will have an ideal slide at the university this winter when the members of the Badger Ski club have finished their work, according to George Martin, president of the club.

The slide will be in the same place that it was last year, but will make a jump of 115 feet possible which will exceed last year's jump by at least 35 feet. This increase will be brought about by the building of a higher scaffold at the beginning of the slide.

The scaffold will be 36 feet high while the one last year was only 16 feet high. Owing to the increased height it will be set back nearly to the road. There will be two starting platforms on the scaffold, one being about half way to the top, making it possible for beginners to take half speed. Successful landing was difficult last year because the landing place was so rough. The members of the club have leveled off the landing place this fall.

A public opening of the slide by members of the club will take place the second Saturday after Christmas. The club, working in conjunction with Coach Thomas E. Jones of the athletic department, is planning a big season this year. Membership in the club increased 20 men this fall, making a total of 65 men in the club. Membership in the club is open to anyone interested in skiing. Among the new members there are a number of very good skiers, according to George Martin, one of whom the club expects to compete for the national championship.

"Wisconsin attracted some attention at the tournament at Chicago last year at which there were seven Wisconsin men," said Martin. This year we expect to send a cracker-jack ski-rider to every important tournament in the country, among these the national tournament at Denver."

CAST IS CHOSEN FOR FRENCH PLAY

The Junior French club will present a play entitled "Franches Lippes," by Tristan Bernard, about the second week in January.

The following people were chosen for the cast after the tryout held last Friday afternoon:

Joseph R. Sherr '21, John S. Irwin '23, Hannah Krome '22, Elizabeth J. Kenney '22, Nadia Levitin '22, and Marie Bielenberg '21.

The various roles for the play are to be assigned Monday evening.

PRESS CLUB MEETS FOR 5:30 SUPPER

The bi-weekly meeting of Press club will be held tonight at 5:30 in Lathrop hall. The club will meet for cafeteria supper in the S. G. A. room. The committee in charge of the annual Pi Night celebration will report at this meeting "Pat" Dennis '21, president, assures members that the meeting will be over promptly at 6:55 to allow everyone opportunity to attend the all-university massmeeting.

Prom Fox Trot Committee
Issues Call for Manuscripts

Let the Irving Berlins of the campus come out from obscurity and obtain fame and fortune!

Get out your score sheets and write down that melody that has been haunting you for the past month. Perhaps that's the one—the song that will be sung all over the campus.

A prize of $15 has been offered in the Prom Fox Trot contest this year, while the fame which the writer of the jazziest tune will receive cannot be counted in dollars.

Applications for entrance into the contest should be sent to Margaret McDowell, chairman, B. 661 or F. 65, from January 8 to 15. Tryouts will then be held sometime between January 15 and 25 in a specified place so that all contestants will have a chance to present their songs under the same conditions.

A committee of the best music critics in Madison will be appointed later to judge the scores and determine which composer shall have the honor of having his song played the night of the Junior Prom, February 11. All scores must be written out.

Rooms For 30 Now House 65

Sixty-five members of the instructional staff of the course in chemistry are at the present time attempting to carry on their work in offices and private laboratories that were provided for a staff of 30, according to Prof. J. Howard Mathews, director of the course. It is obvious, he says, that there are many who are without offices and proper facilities for the prosecution of their work.

In order to provide office room for the younger members of the general chemistry staff it has been necessary to sacrifice one of the small lecture rooms, and in this one place are accommodated 18 instructors and assistants.

Additional lecture and recitation rooms are also badly needed. It has been necessary to sacrifice a seminary room for lecture purposes. Seminaries are now being held in lecture rooms.

The departmental library, an unusually valuable one, is located on the third floor of a building which is anything but fireproof. It is desirable that the collection of books be housed in a safer place and one which is more accessible.

In a department giving instruction to about 2,500 students, rest rooms and rest rooms for women and study rooms should be provided. There are no such accommodations at the present time. A suitably equipped room should also be provided where first aid may be given a student in case of accident.

BADGERS BEAT RIVER FALLS BY 28-8 SCORE

Game With Ripon College
Cancelled—Play Marquette Dec. 18

BY C. J. L.

The Wisconsin basketball team showed a marked improvement in form in the second preliminary game of the season when it defeated the River Falls normal five by a 28 to 8 score.

Wisconsin took the lead in the first half and was never headed, while the River Falls squad could not break through the Wisconsin defense for a shot at the basket. The Badgers' defense worked like a well-oiled machine and prevented the River Falls forwards from getting close enough for a careful try for baskets. Coach Chandler's team played five men back when the Wisconsin forwards had the ball, but their defense was ineffective against the rushing Wisconsin attack.

Offense Shows Well

On the offense, Wisconsin worked the ball down the court with more regularity, but the old fault of too hurried shooting at the basket prevented the Badgers from running up a larger score. River Falls was unable to hit the mark with any consistency, and effective guarding held the normal squad to one basket in each period.

Coach Meanwell's short pass game carried the ball through the River Falls squad for the majority of the counters scored by Wisconsin, while Caesar and Tebell each entered the scoring column with pretty shots which dropped through the net.

Taylor Leads Scoring

Captain Taylor and Caesar set the scoring pace for the remainder of the Badger quintet. Taylor led the quintet in the floor game and threw the Badger free throws. Caesar came down the floor for three long shots, and shifted back for defense whenever the normal team threatened.

Tebell at the other guard position worked in nicely with Caesar and dropped in a long distance shot from the center of the floor.

Frogner and Fanning alternated at center. Frogner showed up well on the defense. Fanning, who is back in the game after a long lay-off, netted two baskets.

Rollie Williams, who played opposite Captain Taylor, displayed a

CAST TRYOUTS FOR JOINT PLAY TODAY

SANTA CLAUS WILL ASK STUDENT HELP

To remind university men and women of the spirit of giving that characterizes the Christmas season and to ask them to share their comforts with the students of central Europe, who are without sufficient food or clothing, students dressed as Santa Claus will patrol the campus on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The Mason jars to receive subscriptions for the fund will appear on the campus this morning, however. They will be placed in all university buildings and in cafeterias.

The campaign to raise funds for student relief is nation-wide. The University of Michigan has already subscribed 60 per cent more than its quota. Students at the University of Illinois are planning a campaign for $30,000.

FARMING CONGRESS OUTLINED BY HATCH

Speaks to Agricultural Triangle Club on U. S. Agricultural Policy

That the winning of the World war was due in a great measure to the broad constructive policy of agriculture adopted by the United States over 50 years ago, was declared by Prof. Kirk L. Hatch, assistant director of agricultural extension, Sunday morning at the meeting of the Agricultural Triangle club in the Y. M. C. A. parlors.

"The United States was the first nation to adopt a real constructive program in agriculture," Professor Hatch asserted. "The government recognized the fact that the soil is the biggest asset to this country, and that agriculture is the only industry that is self-perpetuating. Interest in our posterity and future growth was shown by the establishment of agricultural colleges as early as in 1862.

"Another step in expanding the policy of constructive agriculture was taken in 1914 when the Smith-Lever bill, providing for extension work, was passed by congress. Although this measure was passed just before the opening of the recent war, the effect was great in helping the farmers of the United States successfully to increase the food supply in the crisis of the past few years.

"The county agent, as a part of this act, was established to inform the farmers how to apply science to agriculture and thus increase his crop yields. Agricultural experiment stations have been founded by the government as an aid in the big program."

Opportunities which students of agriculture now have upon entering this work were presented by Professor Hatch briefly. He declared that students with personality, leadership, and the proper training are constantly needed to carry on this work of the state and federal government. How county agents have actually increased the output of foodstuffs and given an impetus to cattle raising were cited in specific cases throughout the state.

BRANN OUTLINES LEGION PROGRAM

Marines, sailors and soldiers will take a more active part in the university affairs as a unit with the beginning of the new year, when the university post of the American Legion will resume its activities, according to an announcement Monday by Lester W. Brann, newly elected post commander. A new constitution will be submitted to the ex-service men at the first meeting in January. There are 1,800 men in the university eligible to be long to the post.

Co-operation in the work of preparing a fitting memorial in the Union building to the heroes of Wisconsin is part of the program to be undertaken. A petition is being prepared to be submitted to the board of regents asking that Armistice day be properly observed at the university on November 11, 1921. Last year the cadet corps paraded, and a convocation was held, but no observance was provided this year.

A campaign for more members will open Wednesday, when all bonus students will have an opportunity to join the university post at the Administration building. Men who are already members of another post may join as associate members, with full privileges.

MARSH RECLAMATION
Moving pictures of marsh land reclamation will be shown at 7:15 tonight in the agricultural auditorium by George A. Payne of Omaha, Neb., under the auspices of the agricultural engineering department. Mr. Payne has had extensive experience in marsh land reclamation. He developed 12,000 acres of marsh land at Albert Lea, Minn., and has done other work in Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota. The same pictures were shown at the national drainage congress at Atlanta, Ga., in November.

ALL-UNIVERSITY MASS MEETING

THE much talked of all-university mass meeting will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in Lathrop gym. Every loyal Wisconsin student is expected to be present.

The purpose of the mass meeting is twofold.

First, the causes and results of the anti-university propaganda that has swept the state will be set forth. A means of offsetting the false impressions that have been created will be outlined. True facts that will counteract the insidious anti-university propaganda will be given the students.

Second, the students at the mass meeting will be presented with the facts concerning the status of the university in regard to buildings, equipment, and finances.

Every student owes it to himself and to his university to be at this meeting. The propaganda must be met and met quickly with indisputable facts. The wrong impressions must be counteracted if the good name of Wisconsin is to stand. The people in the state must realize the exact condition of the university in regard to buildings, equipment, and finances.

Communication

To the Editor of The Cardinal:

We were implored to buy a homecoming button, we were urged to buy a program, we have contributed to send the band with the team. These causes were worthy in their way. But now a far larger, far worthier cause for voluntary contribution is before us. In Central Europe, whose plight Herbert Hoover has so vividly portrayed for us, our fellow students are starving. Men who have spent their lives in teaching are living on tea and black bread. Yet we, the robust, healthy students of Wisconsin, 7,000 strong, are not actively soliciting aid for these European students. We are merely passively collecting pennies in glass jars.

These facts, brought to the attention of the graduates at a meeting last night of the graduate club, have caused them to start this morning to raise in these four remaining days, a sum that may help, however little, our fellow students in Europe, where "spirits are crushed and courage is lost."

Graduate students, find the chairman of your department, bring him your contribution, and help us raise our share before we leave for home.

Names of chairman of departments will be published tomorrow.

Chairman of Graduate Club.

BADGERS WIN OVER RIVER FALLS, 28-8

fine exhibition of speedy dribbling and pivoting.

Coach Meanwell's charges scored five when Taylor dropped in a free throw. River Falls evened up the count, but Caesar followed with a long basket, and Taylor counted another free shot. Both teams were guarding closely, and although the forwards displayed some fast work, they could not get away for a clean try at the net. River Falls was fouled for running with ball, and Taylor scored another free throw, running the Badger score up to five. Taylor made a basket after a quick dash down the floor, and Tebell followed with one from the center ring. Caesar's basket made the score 11 to 2. River Falls scored on a free throw, and Rollie Williams spurted down for a speedy basket as the half ended with the count 15 to 4.

Second Period Slower

Wisconsin was unable to get started in the second period, and Taylor dropped in three free throws before the Badgers counted another basket. Coach Meanwell sent in his substitutes at this stage of the game, and the second string men pulled away from Chandler's men with three baskets. The normal team gathered in one more basket before the game ended with the Badgers leading 28 to 8.

The basketball game scheduled for Wednesday, December 15, with the Ripon college quintet has been cancelled because of the illness of Harold G. Olsen, Ripon coach.

The Badger team will go into action next against Marquette university at Milwaukee, Saturday, December 18, instead of Milwaukee normal as has been previously stated.

The Lineup:

Wisconsin	R. F.	River Falls
Capt. Taylor	L. F.	Carolan
R. Williams	C.	Guernoe
Frogner	L. G.	Marrow
Tebell	R. G.	Chenock

Substitutes—Wisconsin: Fanning for Frogner, Frogner for Fanning, J. Williams for Frogner, Horne for Caesar. River Falls: Johnson for Wright, Melvin for Guernoe, Guernoe for Carolan, Carolan for Melvin. Referee—Reynolds, Chicago.

TRACTOR COURSE STARTS

OF CONDITION IN STRICKEN CHINA

First-hand information of the famine stricken district in North China has reached the university through John L. Childs '11, Wisconsin's representative in Peking.

Letters written to his parents at Eau Claire, Wis., and reports sent to Prof. R. H. Whitbeck, this year's chairman of the Wisconsin in China committee, describe the terrible conditions existing among the 30,000,000 people of four provinces where the crops have totally failed. "It has grown suddenly cold,"

Mr. Childs writes under date of November 4. "We do not think of much but this awful famine these days. I see no hope but that several million people must die. They are already without food or fuel—only tree bark and the trees are not many in those parts.

"All the little babies are killed and the older children are sold for about thirty cents apiece if anyone will buy them.

"These conditions exist among the 30,000,000 people. If the government were strong it could get enough money by loans or taxes to take care of them all, but it isn't able to cope with the situation. What the final outcome will be no one can tell."

In the report to Professor Whitbeck, Mr. Childs has written of the relief work carried on by Americans and others.

"The famine situation of North China is of appalling dimensions," he says. "The people of four of the most populous provinces are in the area. The American Red Cross has made a subscription of half a million, but we hope that as large as is this amount it will not be the final measure of America's support.

"We are carrying on in Peking a canvass of all the colleges. The response has been generous. We are also giving one of our secretaries to the relief work. Others stand ready to go."

JAP QUESTION IS SUBJECT OF JOINT DEBATE

Philomathia to Meet Hesperia in Fifty-first Annual Contest Jan. 14

"Resolved, That all Japanese resident in the United States should be granted United States citizenship," is the question which has been selected for the fifty-first annual Joint debate to be held this year on January 14 at Music hall between teams representing Philomathia and Hesperia, literary societies.

Charles D. Assovsky '21, Sterling Tracy '22, and Robert B. Stewart '22, will support the affirmative for Philomathia. Ralph Axley '23, Fred A. Kraege '22, and Leo Kohl '22, will uphold the negative for Hesperia.

The Joint debate is ranked as the forensic classic of the year, and to the society returned the winner goes the championship of the campus plus a substantial quota of points toward the Vilas Banner. The best debaters in the two societies are chosen by the members to represent them in the contest and enthusiasm among the societies always reaches a high pitch.

Athenae Eliminated

Hesperia defeated Athenae last year, thereby causing the latter to yield its place in the debate until next year when it will challenge the winner of this year's contest. The members of the respective teams are elected at the last meeting of the societies in the spring and are kept constantly at work on the subject until the debate finally takes place late in the following semester.

The Japanese question was chosen because it is one of vital interest and is political rather than an economic question which the societies were desirous of avoiding this year. The teams will get together shortly to choose judges and arrange other details of the contest. It is planned to have five members of the Wisconsin Supreme Court as judges this year with Governor John J. Elaine presiding.

than myths and should not be too generally taken to heart.

Discussion of the needs of the university and their relation to the appropriation that is being asked of the state will be taken up briefly by Irwin Maier '21, who will outline the present status of the university in regard to buildings and equipment. He will present arguments intended to show that the university is justified in asking for the complete appropriation.

Lawrence Hall will be the final speaker and will give suggestions as to how best to secure a closer co-operation between the university and the people of the state.

STUDENTS ASKED TO MAIL UNION CHECKS

Students who failed to pay their pledges to the Memorial Union building fund, due November 15, are asked by the committee to mail checks or money orders to H. O. Seymour, treasurer of the committee, or take them in person to the office of the Memorial Union building committee on the second floor of the Alumni building, between the Phi Psi house and the Administration building, 821 State street.

Payments have continued to come in very well but the committee is anxious that the remaining ones be in as soon as possible. It is difficult to reach all the students by mail on account of changes of address.

ONCE TO EVERY WOMAN

ONCE in every woman's life comes a certain great moment. Once in her lifetime something comes to her on which her whole future depends. It has come—or will surely come to you, just as it came to Aurora Meredith. What do you think it is? You'll know when you see splendid Dorothy Phillips, the star of "The Heart of Humanity" and "The Right to Happiness" play this great part in a picture that every woman in the world will understand. A picture for which a whole opera was produced—in which the players sang just as they sing on the mighty stage of the Metropolitan—a dazzling production in which the social leaders of a great western city acted as the "extras"—a marvelous love story that you'll never forget. See it now. Don't miss it. Remember—"Once to Every Woman."

ADDED ATTRACTION

Miss Anne Douthat, Madison's popular contralto, will sing "BEN BOLT," the song Dorothy Phillips sings in "ONCE TO EVERY WOMAN."

This novelty will have a strong appeal to all Madison Theatregoers. It is something new in the exhibition of motion pictures in this city.

Dance Feature Takes Head-line
Honors Among Several Good Acts

You can go to the Orph this week, it has a bill that is away above par. Hilda Carling, prima ballerini and her six assistants have a repertoire of beautifully costumed and artistically set dances that unquestionably take headline honors. Oriental Bacchanale, a whirling vivid extravaganza, by Miss Carling, and her ballet wins most favor. The whole is an artistic production.

Phonograph famous Friscoe, the popular xylophonist, compares his music with that of a talking machine. So similar is the reproduced music to the original that if one closes his eyes he is unable to tell when Signor Friscoe leaves off and when he begins.

To the insistent call of "Humoreske" from the gallery, Signor Friscoe consents to play without the orchestra accompaniment. As an impromptu, Edward Skelton, director of the orchestra, accompanies Signor Friscoe with Swanee River. And for the ragtime version of Humoresque, the entire orchestra falls in.

Ishikawa Brothers, Japanese hand equipibrists appear last. They do difficult balancing stunts.

Nalle and Ball, a pretty girl with some pretty clothes and a bashful boy with a good voice have an act that is well liked.

Lawton who opens the bill beats a snare drum with three rubber balls, juggles iron weights and does lots of other just as difficult feats.

James H. Cullen, "The Man from the West," has some jokes that are good and some that are Featuring the first article of a series on the development, design, and construction of concrete ships. The Wisconsin Engineer is placed on sale today. The many Wisconsin men who were in the concrete section of the Emergency Fleet corporation during the war have been called upon to contribute to the series of papers that will describe the various phases of the work.

Other articles of interest are the review of the recent minstrel show, the account of the trip which the mining students took last summer to the mining region around Butte, and the story of the chemical engineers efforts at chemical manufacture during their summer course.

The latter article describes some effective work that demonstrates that it is possible to give college work a decidedly practical turn. The tribulations of a lot of "green" men, who were unexpectedly faced with the problem of taking waste material of various kinds and converting it into some useful product at a cost that would make it commercially practicable, is set forth.
