Reinard Werrenrath will make his second appearance in Madison in the university gymnasium at 8:15 o'clock tonight.

This concert is the first of a series to be brought to the university by the Union board.

A number of good seats still are available and may be purchased at the Albert E. Smith Music store, 215 State street, or at the gymnasium after 7 o'clock this evening.

Ticket sales have been going somewhat slowly for the past two days, but it is expected that a last minute rush will fill the house.

Werrenrath is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity, and always is especially glad to appear before college audiences.

SECOND UNION BOARD MIXER TOMORROW

The second all-university mixer of the year will be given at Lathrop hall gymnasium Friday night. It will be in the nature of an everybody-get-acquainted party, given under the auspices of the Union board.

At least 20 S. G. A. girls will be present to help persons get acquainted and to assist in the serving of refreshments.

Admission charge will be 25 cents, and fee cards must be presented in order that none but university students may get in. It is the intention of the Union board that all university functions be strictly for university people.

Thompson's special orchestra will play for the event. Dancing will start at 8:30.

Refreshments will be served in the gymnasium during the mixer. The Lathrop soda fountain also will be open.

RUN NO SPECIALS TO INDIANA GAME

C. M. and St. Paul Road May Provide Sleeper For Wisconsin Rooters

All chances of obtaining a special train over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, for the Indiana game, Saturday, are gone. Unless 25 or more students signify their intentions of going to Bloomington, the railroad officials announced yesterday, no effort will be made to run a special sleeping coach. However, if that number go through coach will be provided. The train will leave at 4:10 o'clock, Friday afternoon.

In case the required number is not obtained, the best schedule that can be arranged requires two changes one in the early morning. Leave Madison at 4:10 Friday afternoon, arrive at Chicago at 8:55 transfer to the Central station, leave Chicago at 11:45 p. m. via the Big Four, arrive at Indianapolis 4:55 a. m. A sleeper will be ready for occupancy on the Big Four train at 9 p. m. and may be occupied in Indianapolis until 7:30. Change to the Illinois Central at the Indianapolis Union station, leaving at 6:45 a. m. Saturday morning and arriving at Bloomington at 8:38 a. m.

Although the Monon railroad makes direct connection with Bloomington from Chicago, no trains are run to make good connections with Madison unless the traveler leaves here at 1 p. m. The fare by the Indianapolis route will be $26.62 round trip.

Returning rooters will leave Bloomington at 7 p. m. Saturday, arriving at Indianapolis at 9:15, leaving over the Big Four at midnight, and arriving in Chicago at 6:50 Sunday morning, leaving Chicago at 7:15 over Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, arriving in Madison at 11:35 a. m.

Mr. A. B. Batty of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul will meet Tuesday evening with two sororities who have planned to make the trip to Bloomington, and hopes to gain enough students to enable the road to furnish a through car for rooters. Further announcement will be made for the benefit of the travelers.

CO-ED RUN DOWN BY AUTO SERIOUSLY HURT

Mrs. Carolyn Armentrout '24, was perhaps seriously injured Tuesday afternoon when she was run down by a Ford coupe at the corner of Johnson and State streets.

Patrolman Patrick Burke, who was on duty at that corner picked up Mrs. Armentrout and called the police ambulance. She was taken to the General Hospital.

Mrs. Armentrout is the wife of Walter E. Armentrout, the university instructor who was killed last June when he was struck by a bolt of lightning at Camp Randall.

MEMORIAL UNION BUILDING PLANS UP TO REGENTS

Committee Approves Final Sketches; Drawings to Be Made Soon

Final sketches of the University of Wisconsin Memorial building were approved Tuesday night at a meeting of the building committee at Milwaukee. As soon as the sketches have been approved by the board of regents, complete drawings will be made up.

Subscriptions to the building fund have reached $880,000, it was reported at the meeting, and it is expected that excavation work will be started in the near future. Mean while, the Campaign among alumni to secure the balance of the funds needed is being pushed.

Style Like Library

The building, to be 260 feet wide, 176 feet deep and four stories in height, of Bedford stone in a style corresponding with the state historical library which it will face across Langdon street, will house several features needed for student activities.

A broad open terrace and lawn will be prepared on the Langdon street side of the building, while the principal rooms will overlook Lake Mendota.

Included in the building will be a large auditorium, a small workshop theater, banquet room, lounge with loggia, dining room, offices, and conference rooms for student organizations and publications, and about 25 rooms for transient alumni and other guests.

Lounge on First Floor

The workshop theater, with a seating capacity of 480 persons but with a stage 29 by 60 feet will be on the ground floor, as will a billiard room with 35 tables, a large common meeting room with fireplace, "Tap Room," and offices of The Daily Cardinal, The Badger, and other student publications.

The first floor will contain the memorial lounge, 50 by 100 feet, the main dining room seating 500 at tables, library, reading room, card rooms, a room for parties and offices for student organizations.

Auditorium to Seat 2,500

The large auditorium, 98 by 120 feet, capable of seating 2,500 persons, or 1,200 at banquet tables, more offices, meeting rooms and guest rooms will be on the second floor, while offices, conference rooms and guest rooms will be on the third floor.

The building committee includes: Fred H. Clausen, H. O. icon, president; Walter J. Kohler, of Kohler, vice-president; H. O. Seymour, Milwaukee, treasurer; G. L. Gilbertson, Madison, assistant treasurer; John D. Madison, secretary; Irving Seaman, Robert Mc Mynn, Milwaukee; John S. Lord, Israel Shrimski, Chicago, Illinois; H. J. Thorkelson, New York; Prof. E. H. Gardner, Prof. J. D. Phillips, Dean S. H. Goodnight, M. E. McCaffrey, and Carl A. Johnson, Madison.

Foreign Flashes

BERLIN, Oct. 17—Mobs estimated at 12,000 today besieged the Rathaus. A half pound loaf of bread cost today 480,000,000 marks—about 12 cents. It is estimated that there are now 174,000 unemployed in Berlin alone. The city fathers today opened 14 feeding kitchens for the free distribution of food and free allowances of wood and coal.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17—It appeared probable here today that the government would drop prosecution of war profiteering cases in connection with cantonment construction. $100,000,000 in cases of individual graft against the government is involved.

LONDON, Oct. 17—A dispatch from Munich today says that Dr. Ferdinand Sauerbruch, noted surgeon, has left by airplane to operate on Leon Trotsky, dictator of Russia, "who is suffering from cancer of the stomach."

ROSS TO SPEAK ON SOCIALISM TOPIC

Professor E. A. Ross will deliver an address on "Socialism and Social Revolution" at the Social Science club banquet in Lathrop parlors at 6 o'clock Monday October 22.

The keynote of Professor Ross' speech will be the role of capital as it affects the social question. The subject will be handled from all angles and traced up through history to the present.

A solution to the social problems of the day will be thoroughly explained. This means of solving the problem of a gradual public ownership to be effected a little at a time and cautiously, to prevent a recurrence of Russia's experience.

The speech should be of great benefit to anyone interested in the social problem and especially to new students. The dinner will cost 75 cents a plate. Reservations may be made in advance at 901 University avenue.

STAFF OF 1925 BADGER TO HOLD FIRST MEETING

Art Work For New Book to Be on Display There

Six of the artist's layouts for 1925 Badger plates will be on display, and the general plans for the book will be presented to all students who expect to do work on the staff during the year at a meeting to be held in 220 Bascom hall at 4:30 Thursday October 18.

Art Work Exceptional

"The art work so far submitted to us, including twelve of the eighteen principal plates, is of an exceptionally fine character," said Ellis Fulton, editor in chief. "The artist has caught the spirit of the Wisconsin campus and our ideals for the book in a way far beyond our expectations."

The object of this meeting will be to give everyone who expects to work on either editorial or business staff some idea of the aims of the book and the type of work which will be appropriate.

Have Definite Goal

"We are not asking people to work on an imaginary project this year," Fulton continued. "The material will be there to look at—editors will have a definite goal to work toward and something tangible to inspire their best efforts."

Attendance at this meeting will offer the first opportunity to see the actual material to be used in the 1925 book.

DUNLAP IS CANDIDATE FOR JUNIOR CLASS POST

Wes W. Dunlap yesterday announced his candidacy for one of the three positions as junior class representative on the Student Senate. Dunlap is conference editor of The Cardinal and has served on publicity committees for Venetian night, varsity jamboree, military ball, Homecoming, and horse show. He is a member of the senate elections committee at present. He is a member of Press club, American Legion, Square and Compass, Haresfoot, and Delta Sigma Phi fraternities.

DISPLAY HOME COMING POSTERS TOMORROW

The Homecoming posters will be on display in arts laboratory on the second floor of the Machine shops, Thursday night at 7:15 o'clock. They will be placed in the store windows Friday.

David Lloyd George received the degree of Doctor of Laws at a special convocation in his honor at the University of Toronto. This was a notable event in the history of the school.

FROSH TRIO FACE COURT TONIGHT

Must Answer Charges of Enacting Hazing; Trial Open to Public

Three freshmen against whom complaint of inciting hazing has been lodged, will be tried before the Student Court at 7 o'clock tonight. The trio are Jeff Burroughs, Henry Brooks and John Wilkinson.

The charges grew out of the near riot staged October 9 on the lower campus, when parties of hostile frosh and sophomores met, after patrolling the streets early in the evening in search of lone members of each class.

The yearlings defied the sophomores and a riot was brewing when Theodore R. Hannon, chief justice of the Student Court came upon the scene and dispersed the mob.

Thomas Burke, senior law student, will be the prosecuting attorney at the trial tonight. No announcement was made as to who will defend the freshmen.

DIRECTORY GIVES RESUME OF LIFE

Royalty and Plebescite Appear in Democratic Mixture of Names

The 7,619 students making up the 1923 enrollment at the University of Wisconsin present a most formidable encyclopedia of names. In the 1923-24 student directory, which will be ready for distribution the first part of November, there appears almost every name known to any telephone book, according to the compilers.

Even Kings and Queens have their respective places in the lists, alongside Bishops, Popes, Earls, Knights, Chamberlains, Lords and Dukes. Being of a democratic nature the noble personages hold their places in common with Masons, Millers, Carpenters, Fishers, Bakers, Cooks, Farmers and Hicks.

And out of the 7,619 names there is only one Person! And the directory will have only two Pages!

Nature Lovers There

For the nature lovers there are Rivers, Parks, Pools, Woods, Forests, Groves, Glens, a Cave, a Lake, and for the romantic, Love. Various kinds of birds are found, including Wrens, Martins, Cranes, Speros and Crows.

There is Frost and Snow and Cold and also Merriweather. There is a Locke and three Keys. There are Rich and Poor. The lists have Sellers and Byers and many Prices.

History is represented with Washington, Lincoln, Madison, Lee, Grant, Hann, Jackson, McKinley, Monroe, Harrison, Hughes, Adams, Clay, Wilson, Taylor, Moses, Harding, Dempsey, Solomon and the James brothers, from Missouri. Some of the names are Large and Small; others are Little and one is Bigger.

The Smiths lead with thirty-nine representatives. There are thirty Johnsons, twelve Browns and seven Joneses.

Only One Person

Yes, we have no bananas, but we have Oranges and Apples, a Plum, a Peach, and two Mellons. On one page there are four Pecks, but sad to relate, there are no bushels. The book has several Rhymes, but no prose. Speed is evidenced on one page. And according to the directory, the city of Madison has thir-

LUUTHERAN STUDENTS PLAN PARTY FRIDAY

Lutheran students and their friends at the university are invited to a pep party to be given at 8 o'clock Friday night in the church parlors of St. John's Lutheran church, East Washington avenue and North Hancock street.

This is an annual affair given that the Lutheran students may become better acquainted.

The Young Peoples' society of the church has planned a peppy party with stunts, games, music and refreshments that will appeal to student tastes.

Katherine Kuehn, pupil of Mrs. Harvey R. Nichols, will read a humorous story, "Where But in America?"

Lillian Tucker '25 will play the flute.

Students helping plan the event are Eugene Meng '24, Harriet Jeager '24, Anita Walter '27, Raymond Rorfmacher '24, Gilbert Hoffman '25, and Edna Walter '25.

TWO FORMER STUDENTS PUBLISH TEXT BOOK

"The Pioneer Way of Living," a book written by two former students of the university, W. Ryland Bowma and Lowell R. Bigelow, will be used as a text book by the city Y. M. C. A. for their pioneer clubs. The writers are engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Chicago.

teen new Wards. There are also two Fords, but no Henrys. There is Dust and Dirth, but no brooms or vacuum cleaners.

Wisconsin has Baers and Foxes and Wolfs, and one Squerl, but no nuts. There is a Husband and one Widow, a Bride, a Benedict, and a couple of Bachelors. There is a freshman President, whose first name is Arthur, and the class rolls will list him as President Arthur. There is also a King whose first name is Richard, and similarly profs will call him King, Richard. There is Winter and Shivers, but Wisconsin need not worry. It has Coal.

Do You Remember Pat O'Dea's Famous Kick? . .

THAT'S quite a ways back isn't it? But then, as today, Varsity men who were considered "Best Dressed" bought their clothes at this store.

You see your fathers and older brothers always bought clothes where correct style and longer wear were assured.

That's why they liked to do business with us—and you'll find it to your advantage too.

CONFERENCE
WIRE SERVICEBURKE TO SEND
MEN INTO TRIAL
NEXT SATURDAYHarriers Work Over Five Mile
Course; Minnesota
Strong

With the first dual meet of the season scheduled for a week from Saturday with Minnesota, Coach Mead Burke intends putting his cross country candidates through the second time trial this fall the day after tomorrow.

Until recently, the harriers were kept down to the three mile course, but with several weeks of practice a thing of the past, the course has been extended to the regulation length of five miles.

The first time trial, which was held last Saturday, was over the shorter course. Twenty-one candidates took part in this race, and the outcome gave evidence of some very promising candidates among the new men.

The second trial will be held for a two-fold purpose, namely: to pick the team which will represent the Cardinals against the northerners, and to compare the relative merit of the two competing squads.

The first eight men to finish in the coming trial will compete against the Gophers. The list of candidates for cross country were recently cut to eighteen men. Most of the remaining runners are very evenly matched, and an interesting race is assured before the final team is picked.

Candidates for the Gopher cross country team numbered 125, as compared with about 35 who reported for Wisconsin. Among the 125 candidates are three letter men from last year's squad and five others with previous experience. Ordinarily the northerners would be given the preference in the coming race because of the large number of candidates their coach has to choose from.

Records from the last two years would indicate, however, that the Badgers will be given the choice when picking the logical winners. Coach Burke's men have defeated the Minnesota team for the last two consecutive years. Especially was their victory an overwhelming one last year. Four of the Cardinal men crossed the line before the first Gopher appeared, and the following three places were also accorded to Wisconsin men.

That Minnesota is out to condole this year with a victory over Wisconsin is quite evident from advance reports from the Gopher stronghold. In a time trial held at the northern institution recently, it was learned that the first man to cross the tape over a three mile course covered the distance in 16 minutes. This is fast stepping and will give the varsity runners something to shoot at.

Lumber Co. Camp Is Destroyed By Blaze

HOUGHTON, Mich.—The Greenwood Lumber Co. camps ten miles west of Ontonagon were destroyed last night by forest fires. The large crew of men barely escaped. The fire travelled so rapidly last night that there was no time to save either horses or automobiles at the Greenwood camps. Sixteen horses and three automobiles were destroyed. Hunters who went out in the Union Bay district yesterday were hemmed in by fire and only escaped by lashing through.

First Hunting Accident
Claims Badger Youth

MILWAUKEE—Albert Betzler, 24, Menominee Falls, who was shot in the leg while hunting ducks on the Upper Fox river died in a hospital here shortly after the leg had been amputated.

While hunting ducks he crawled into a culvert to hide and the trigger of the gun caught on a projection.

Radiophone broadcasts of basketball games were features of the service of WHA, University of Wisconsin, this year.

Plans are under way to christen the new memorial gymnasium at Virginia university by holding an indoor track meet in which every college in the state will compete.

Scouting an Art?
Marines Use Planes
To Eye Wolverines

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 17—Scouting, a distinctive American trait handed down by the Indians, will reach the acme of civilization this week when Capt. Hunt and a party of seven Marines will come to Ann Arbor via aeroplanes to scout the Ohio State-Michigan football game in preparation for the U. S. Marine-Michigan game which is to be played here Nov. 10. The party will arrive Friday afternoon and will fly back to Quantico sometime Sunday.

FRAT BOWLERS ARE
IN SECOND ROUNDFour 3 to 0 Matches Feature Second Round of Tourney

The second round of the interfraternity first division bowling matches was played off Tuesday night, when four 3 to 0 matches were the feature of the evening. The bowling was a little better than in the first matches and the teams were all showing more form.

The results are: Phi Gamma Delta 3, Alpha Sigma Phi 0; Sigma Phi Epsilon 3, Alpha Theta Pi 0; Triangle 3, Delta Chi 0; Alpha Tau Omega 3, Psi Upsilon 0; Zeta Psi 2, Theta Xi 1; Phi Delta Theta 2, Delta Pi Epsilon 1.

Alpha Kappa Kappa has entered the tournament to take the place of Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the first division. The back games of Alpha Kappa Kappa must be played off immediately according to A. C. Bock '24, chairman of the bowling league. "If any team is unable to be represented on the night it is scheduled for, the men must roll off the match before then or they will have to pay for the use of the alley that night just the same," Bock concluded.

The first matches of the second division will be played tonight on the Wisconsin alleys. The pairings for tonight are:

At 7 o'clock
Chi Phi vs. Phi Kappa Sigma.
Beta Theta Pi vs. Phi Sigma Delta.
Alpha Chi Sigma vs. Acacia.
At 9 o'clock
Delta Upsilon vs. Delta Tau Delta.
Delta Sigma Pi vs. Kappa Sigma Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Tau Kappa Epsilon.

A light workout for the gang today!

Limebring up, passing, punting and dummy scrimmage constituted the Badger's workout yesterday.

It seems queer to see our boys knock so many of the men on the opposing teams out, and have hardly any injuries on our own squad, doesn't it? The secret of it all is, that Ryan got the men out early and conditioned them well. Right now they look like a gang of steam-rollers.

This "no dating" rule laid down by Ryan is helping a lot too. The men are concentrating their efforts on football, rather than on some sorority girl's front porch.

It looked like rain during the last half of the Aggie game, but it panned out to be only a black cloud running on the field. He didn't go so big with the "Eight-ball" Club in the crowd.

When a runner knocks a man out in the open-field he sure must have some drive behind him—that's Harris.

Big hearted Referee Knight says, "Touch him, don't tackle", when the runner started off-side with the ball.

The two Badger mascots haven't yet learned what they represent, I guess. When the boys were play-

INTERSECTIONAL
GAMES ATTRACT
MUCH ATTENTIONNotre Dame Meets Princeton
and the Army Plays
Alabama

With the first three intersectional games of the year resulting in mid-western victories, football prospects in this section of the country are particularly bright.

Notre Dame, who met the Army last Saturday, will play Princeton this week-end. The Irish, although they were held to a 0 to 0 tie last year, swept the Cadets off their feet by a 13 to 0 count. The Army was on the defensive most of the time, and the game illustrated the tremendous offensive that Coach Rockne has developed. Although Princeton is counted as one of the strong teams in the East it is expected to fall before the open style of offensive that Notre Dame uses.

Army Tackles Alabama Poly

The Army, although beaten last week, boasts a strong aggregation and will engage in its annual combat with Alabama Polytechnic on Saturday. The Cadets won 19 to 6 last year and are expected to repeat the performance this season.

On October 27 Notre Dame will meet an old rival in the form of Georgia Tech. The Southerners defeated the University of Florida Saturday and are in prime condition, but can scarcely hope to cope with Knute Rockne's puzzling passes and dashing open field attacks.

They succeeded in holding the Irish to a 13 to 3 win and the score should be low this year.

Intersectional Game at Penn State

Georgia Tech will encounter a representative of the East on November 10, when it meets the Penn State. The Nittany Lions had little difficulty in defeating Gettysburg last week but their comparative strength is not known as yet and the outcome will be doubtful.

This is the first game that the two schools have played for some time.

Anxious to avenge its defeat of a year ago by Nebraska, 14 to 6, Notre Dame will travel to Lincoln on November 10 with every intention of taking the Cornhuskers into camp. Nebraska was the only team that succeeded in beating the Irish last season but it went down before Illinois two weeks ago and does not seem to have as powerful an aggregation as it had in 1922.

Another game of note on that date will be the Army-Arkansas Aggie combat. This will be the first time that the two have met in recent years, and, while the Aggies have a good team, they are hardly expected to take the kick out of the Army mule.

Centre vs. Alabama Poly Nov. 17

Centre, the dwarf Hercules of the gridiron, will clash with Alabama Polytechnic on November 17. Although Alabama defeated Centre last season, 6 to 0, its present strength is practically unknown, but a definite idea of its possibilities can be gained after it meets the Army Saturday.

Illinois, after engaging in four conference games in a row, will meet the Mississippi Aggies on November 17. The Aggies are better known in this section by reason of their baseball team, and, unless something goes wrong with Zuppke's fighting Illini, will have small chance of winning this game.

East vs. West

With every chance of repeating their last year's performance the Syracuse aggregation will journey to Nebraska on November 24 in hopes of again defeating the Cornhuskers.

The former won handily from Alabama last week, while Nebraska has been already beaten by Illinois. The game last year was very close, Syracuse winning by the narrow margin of a drop kick, but the Easterners have a good chance of defeating Nebraska this year by a larger count.

ing on the defensive during the first quarter, the Badgers started digging themselves into the soft ground.

Al Schneider didn't like that referee at all. Did you see Al get him by blocking?

More work tomorrow.

Fans and Mascots to Accompany Team
to Bloomington Camp

About 100 loyal Wisconsinites will be at Bloomington, Indiana to witness the football game between Wisconsin and Indiana. The greater number of these are going by means of autos. In most cases plans, for decorating the cars going, are in operation. The two Badger mascots will accompany the team, and wear the colors we know so well. A special car may be run on the Milwaukee to accomodate those going by train.

RECORDS MAY FALL

to Be Run Off Next Saturday

It looks as if a couple of school records will closely resemble Humpty Dumpty, after his shocking experience, when the annual class track meet is run off at Camp Randall next Saturday at 1:30.

This fall classic has ever been a bone of contention between the classes, and with the last year's strong frosh team back almost in its entirity, and the ex-sophomores representatives threatening the other entrants with their medley of stars, competition is bound to be keen. But the class that appears to be making the strongest bid for the honors is that which is making its first bow to varsity activities.

BADGER HUSKIES
LEAVE HERE FOR
HOOSIER CAMP

Squad, 25 Strong, Leaves After Hectic Week of Practice

A squad of 25 Badger huskies leave Madison this afternoon for Bloomington, Indiana, where they will go into action against the Hoosiers Saturday in their first conference tilt of the season.

In addition to the players, two coaches, a trainer, and a manager will make the trip.

Despite Jupe Pluvius' frantic attempts to keep the Badgers from their regular practice work during the past two days, Ryan has kept them at drill.

Scrimmage against the All-Americans, and drill on various formations which probably will be brought into use at Bloomington, have featured the week's practice. The Badgers have been playing in the black jerseys which they will use against the Indians in order to accustom themselves to the change.

Interest in the Indiana game has increased greatly during the past week, because of the excellent showing of the Indiana team against Northwestern last Saturday. The Hoosiers, with one conference game under their belts, will strive to keep their record clean, and Wisconsin, realizing the value of starting off with a win, will make the fight keen.

A 7 to 6 win over the Purple last Saturday places the Hoosiers in the title chasing class.

Just what lineup Ryan will confront Indiana with Saturday is a question. With the exception of Tom Nichols, all his veterans will make the trip and all are in good condition.

It is probable that the same team which faced the Michigan Aggies at the kickoff last Saturday will start against Indiana.

DARTMOUTH AND COLLEGIATE DRINKING

That there is a certain amount of drinking among the members of the university is not denied by anyone. That there are times when this drinking is done to excess and in an obnoxious and disconcerting manner is unquestioned. Wisconsin is no different from other colleges in this respect. Nor can the blame, as some people contend, be placed upon fraternities or organized groups. There is liquor consumed in rooming houses to as great a degree as by any fraternity men.

Technically the legislation against these infringements against both civil and moral law proceed from the Dean of Men. That he is not able to cope entirely with the situation, however, without the cooperation of the student body is evident. One man, aside from the fact that he dislikes to make out of himself, an obnoxious police with a brow of continued suspicion, can not conveniently learn of all the cases and then treat fairly with those in which he does come in contact.

With the approach of Homecoming, and its welcome inflow of genial and well-met old boys, the old brown jug is apt to be a little more in evidence. Where a few will revel in this type of expression of spirit, another group of disgusted persons, who cheered just as hard for the team, will idly sit by and watch.

Why not follow the excellent lead of Dartmouth where the student body has taken a decided stand against drinking of illicit liquors by college men?

A little more than three years ago a student there was killed as the result of a drinking brawl, and thus it came about that one of the most revered of America's institutions suffered harmful publicity.

Now the senior student council of the school, Palaeopus, has decreed in a quiet way that there will be no more drinking in the student body and that the organization will wage active war against it. In this way they reinforced the position of the president of the college who had long felt the disgrace but felt himself handicapped to cope with it.

Aside from the fact that Dartmouth the school which takes the leadership in this fight against student drinking, is the school which suffered a few years ago from unfortunate notoriety, it might be worth while for Wisconsin students to consider if here isn't an example of a piece of work which might well be undertaken on our campus.

SOPHOMORE HONORS

We hope that those students to whom sophomore honors have been awarded will fully appreciate the honor. There seems to be a tendency on the part of students in general to underestimate the value of this award. To be sure, there is no gin or key to decorate the shirt front and act as a reminder to beholders. The only outward and visible sign that the honor has been conferred is a line in The Cardinal, and, two years later, a line in the Badger. Nevertheless, the recipient has the satisfaction of knowing that for the first half of his college life he has adequately and laudably fulfilled the main purpose of that life. And this should be no small satisfaction.

Most of us hate to admit that we are here primarily to study. We are wont to ascribe more importance to the idle and vain accessories of student life. Everyone knows that prominence on the campus is much more easily achieved by membership on various functionless and superfluous committees, than by getting down to work and learning something. But prominence on the campus, honorable though it undoubtedly is, is of far less real importance than pre-eminence in scholastic work. The genuinely worth while honors are those awarded by the faculty for paying attention to business.

HARDING'S CREED

An examination of the late President Harding's creed of journalism which he put forward when he was editor of the Marion Star gives a character insight into our former leader and shows to what high aims this rapidly rising profession can point:

Remember there are two sides to every question. Get them both.

Be truthful. Get the facts.

Mistakes are inevitable, but strive for accuracy. I would rather have one story exactly right than a hundred half wrong.

Be decent, be fair, be generous.

Boost—don't knock.

There's good in everybody. Bring out the good and never needlessly hurt the feelings of anybody.

In reporting a political gathering give the facts. Tell the story as it is, not as you would like to have it. Treat all parties alike. If there is any politics to be played we will play it in our editorial column.

Treat religious matters reverently.

If it can possibly be done never bring ignominy to an innocent man or child in telling of the misdeeds or misfortunes of a relative.

Don't wait to be asked, but do it without the asking, and above all be clean and never let a dirty word or suggestive story get into type.

I want this paper conducted that it can go into any home without destroying the innocence of any child.

Other Editors Say—

(Chicago Sunday Tribune)

Prof. Scott, director of the school of commerce, University of Wisconsin, discussing the prevailing ignorance of economics, says we see the present and the obvious but do not foresee consequences. We saw certain benefits we expected from sharply graduated income taxes, such as increased revenue and what we considered a better distribution of the tax burden. We did not foresee the diversion of capital from essential industries. In arbitrary regulation of commodity prices we saw the defeat of profiteers and the stimulation of production of war materials.

"What we did not see was a remote consequence—the disturbance of the normal price and profit relations upon which the successful and smooth operation of our entire economic mechanism depends, interference with the normal flow of investment streams, the overequipping of some industries, the underequipment of others, and the fostering of the belief that the government is omnipotent in economic matters and can arbitrarily adjust prices and profits to suit its own ideas of justice or expediency, or to meet the desires of blocs or classes that may chance to be politically dominant."

But foresight into the often baffling play of economic forces is naturally a very rare quality. What is more discouraging than our lack of it is our refusal to see consequences after they have arrived. Resistance to amendment of the ineffective income tax schedules, proposal for a restoration of the excess profits tax, price fixing for wheat are all being clamorously demanded by self-styled friends of the people. It is said experience is the best teacher, but there are many minds incapable of or unwilling to learn even from experience.

GRAD CLUB WILL HOLD BIG HALLOWE'EN HOP

"The Graduate club will hold its second informal party Saturday, October 20, in the concert room at Lathrop," announced Claude Kennedy, president of the club at a meeting of graduate students in the S. G. A. room last night, "and if each grad would take it upon himself to inform all in his department of the Hallowe'en Hop, the success of the party will be assured."

Music will be furnished by Thompson's Orchestra, and the social committee already has completed plans for the entertainment.

The real object of the club, as outlined by Dean Charles Sumner Slichter in a short address at the meeting, is for the practical value of getting acquainted, and he said that he felt that the success of the club was due to the fact that it was without a serious purpose, merely for the idea of having a good time.

FIRST MEETING VESPER CLUB HELD YESTERDAY

"Y. W. C. A. board has been changed to Vesper Club because we feel we can reach a larger number of girls through having Y. W. representatives in each house," said Margaret Campbell, '25, chairman of Vesper club at the first meeting, yesterday.

"The club will not only have charge of the vespers services but of all the Y. W. activities in the university."

Vesper services will be held in Lathrop at 4:30 every Sunday afternoon. Goldine Sterling will have charge of music, and Lenore Luenzman of tea. Speakers are scheduled to speak every Sunday.

Miss Lelia Bascom of the English department who is a member of the Y. W. advisory board will speak on "Sources of Power," on October 21.

UNIVERSITY ADVERTISING CLUB

The University Advertising club will hold a regular business meeting Friday at 12:15 in the dining room of the University Y. M. C. A. All members are expected to be present.

METHODIST FRESHMEN
A hike for all Methodist freshmen will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, leaving Wesley Foundation at 3:30 o'clock.

PLAN GREATEST HOMECOMING HOP

Big Event Will Be Held in Lathrop Gymnasium Oct. 26

The "Homecoming Hop" has been planned by the dance committee, headed by Norman C. Clark '24, as the big event for Homecoming night.

The hop will be held in Lathrop gymnasium and music will be furnished by Thompson's ten-piece orchestra. Lathrop parlors have also been turned over to the dance committee to be used for lounging purposes.

Special features, consisting of dances, banjo acts, singing and the like are to be bright lights in the evening's entertainment. University musical artists are now hard at work to make the event a success, and the show promises to rival Haresfoot in entertaining value.

All other university functions and social activities for Homecoming evening have been discouraged in order to make the hop a gathering for everyone. The big gymnasium at Lathrop will accommodate between 700 and 800 couples, but ticket sales will be limited to a much smaller number; this will eliminate overcrowding.

The gymnasium is to be decorated in some manner appropriate for Homecoming.

It has not been definitely planned as to whether the dance ticket will be made to include a lunch. If not, there will be refreshments and light lunches on sale at the Lathrop cafeteria.

The Homecoming Hop is expected to be the biggest affair of its kind ever held at Wisconsin. Inasmuch as all social events for that night have been dispensed with, the dance will be the big drawing center for both visitors and students. Last year's Homecoming ball was a big success, and this year's will undoubtedly be bigger with a greater Homecoming in sight.

The dance committee is headed by Norm Clark who is aided by L. B. Frazier '26, L. Halls '26, N. Graven '24, S. Thorsen '24, and W. Kohler '24, will make final arrangements the first of next week; and tickets will be on sale the middle of the week at the University pharmacy and other convenient places.

Considerable trouble was caused at the University of Toronto when the sophomore class ordered the first year men to wear their socks "on the outside of their trousers and to suspend them with red and white ribbon."

SPICY VARIETY IN "ORPH" BILL

"Thank You Doctor," a Farce,
Heads List of Entertainers

Headlining the Orpheum bill will be a farce "Thank You Doctor." "Thank You Doctor," is a clever story, fast moving, and having all the requisites of a good farce. The theatre has tired of the crook play where the clever schemer outwits everyone until the last act. This is a crook play, the crook played by a young girl who has an accomplice who has no idea that he is an accomplice, and the situations created are very funny and supported by a smart dialogue.

Dave and Tressie with their syncopating Gingersnaps are presenting a whirlwind program of original steps, fast acrobatic dancing and syncopated music. The Gingersnaps in addition to accompanying the dancers, play several popular selections.

Missouri is no the habitat of all of the "show me" folks. They are to be found anywhere. That is the reason that Tilyou and Rogers are on the stage. They want to "Show You."

"Three Feet of Dancing" is the title of the act put on by Bennington & Scott. One of them furnishes the two feet and the other only has one.

Edwin George is seen in a comedy of errors. He terms himself "Almost a juggler." He attempts the execution of difficult feats but invariably misses them and the burlesque stamps him as a comedian par excellence.

Mr. Swain has collected a number of rats and cats and have them working together in his act called "Friendly Enemies."

RAIN CALLS FORTH YELLOW SLICKERS

Damp Weather Brings Out
Large Flock of Water
Proofs

Why is a yellow slicker? No, not "slicker than what?" We're not discussing the merits of taxis. We mean these isinglass affairs done in chrome yellow that come out on the hill in juicy weather.

If you haven't a little yellow slicker in your home it's probably because your roommate has one. If so, stop calling it (the slicker) names and be consoled by the fact that we'll all flop sooner or later.

Because they tell us that it threatens to become a varsity tradition, and predictions are that on rainy days the campus will look like an autumnal sunset or a lemon pie. If you want figures to prove it, here's them:

Co-op statistics say last year 150 were sold. Now, here comes the k.o. blow—in the last month they've sold almost 300 of 'em!

And co-eds have bought about a quarter of the supply of them.

Of course, it isn't absolutely necessary that your slicker be yellow. A few custom-built ones are green or purple. Any way the effect on your neighbor is equally striking.

Cuss Words Banned In Student Newspaper

EVANSTON, III.—The words "hell" and "oh God" have no place in a college newspaper.

That was the decision of the Northwestern university publication board Tuesday when it suspended James Weber, editor of The Daily Northwestern, for two weeks. The editor had published a story about dateless nights on the campus. One student was quoted as saying, "It's a hell of a thing," and another remarked, "Oh, God, I don't see why it's done."

Zane Grey, author of many western stories, graduated from Denver university as a dentist. He was a four-letter man in baseball and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

PRESS CLUB MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED SOON

Applications for membership in the Press club will be received until Sunday noon. All students actively interested in journalistic work, except first semester freshmen, may apply. Applications should be mailed to Chester W. Bailey at 501 N. Henry St., or presented to any one of the members of Press club.

"A much smaller number will be admitted to the club this year, although elections will be based on merit rather than number," Chester Bailey, chairman of the membership committee, stated.

"We want every member of the organization to be active and really interested in the affairs of the Press club. Present journalistic activities on the campus will determine elections more than past work although these, too, will count," Bailey said.

Champion Ton Litter To Be Picked Oct. 2

Wisconsin's champion ton litter will be selected here on October 25 when the contestants in the state contest weigh in their competing entries. A special premium fund of $500 has been hung up to reward the efforts of the most successful swine feeders.

More than 160 feeders have entered litters in the county contest and it is expected that the tops of these events will be penned in the state round-up which has been developed under the auspices of the Wisconsin Live Stock Breeders Association and the College of Agriculture. H. J. Prandt, extension specialist in animal husbandry, has served as fieldman in stimulating the production of Wisconsin's ton litters.

There are 618 universities, colleges and professional schools in the United States. Fifty of them are in New York state, 48 in Pennsylvania and 40 in Ohio. Texas the largest state has 20.
