Base Ball. CAMP RANDALL, To-Morrow Afternoon

DUAL MEET FRIDAY

VARSITY TRACK TEAM WILL MEET ILLINOIS THEN.

Date Changed From the 18th—Only Meet on Home Grounds This Year.

The Varsity track team will meet Illinois in a dual meet at Camp Randall Friday afternoon. By special contract the Illinois team was induced to come on this date instead of the 18th as originally scheduled.

Last year Wisconsin won the meet with Illinois by one point, and the contest this year promises to be equally close. Illinois is this year stronger than for several years and will be hard to beat. Bell and Doherty, who the last two years unaided won the Interscholastic for Bigsville, are with the team this year and are sure point winners. In the running broad jump Illinois has two men who do 22 feet 6 in.; their pole vaulter clears the bar at ten feet six inches, and in the other events they are also well represented.

Wisconsin, on the other hand is rather weaker than last year, for very little new material was found in the freshman class and several of the old men failed to return this year. She will, however, put up a good fight, and is given good support by the rooters, should be able to win. The meet last Saturday was no criterion of the team's strength, the rainy weather preventing any good work. The track will be in excellent shape for the meet Friday and Coach Kilpatrick promises that his men will make a good exhibition in the contest.

The bicycle races which were won by Illinois last year will be omitted, which is an advantage to Wisconsin.

The meet Friday will be the first and only dual meet held at Camp Randall this year, all the other contests being scheduled to take place at the different universities with which we will compete. This will be the only opportunity the students will have to see the track team this year, and all should turn out to see them compete.

FELLOWSHIP ELECTIONS.

University Faculty Holds the Usual Election.

Elections for fellowships in the college of science and letters were held by the university faculty yesterday afternoon. The elections in the college of engineering will be held later. The following were elected yesterday:

School of economics and political science—Jerome Dowd, A. B., Trinity college, class of '82, A. M.; Edwin Maxey, Ph. B., Bucknell university, '93, three years of graduate work at Chicago university.

American history—Orpha E. Leavitt, A. B., Loane college, '86, graduate student at Chicago and Leland Stanford university.

European history—L. M. Larson, A. B., Drake university, graduate, students two years; present scholar.

Greek—Marie McClernan, A. B., University of Wisconsin, '00.

Latin—Hattie J. Griffin, A. B., University of Wisconsin, '98.

Philosophy—H. A. Ruger, A. B. Beloit college, '95.

German philosophy—E. O. Eckelmann, B. L., University of Wisconsin, '98.

English—E. A. Cook, B. L., University of Wisconsin.

Physics—E. R. Wolcott, B. S., University of Wisconsin, '00.
Chemistry—H. E. Patten, A. B., Northwestern University, '94.
Pharmaceutical—J. W. Brandall, B. S., University of Wisconsin, '01.
Alumni fellowship—L. A. Anderson, B. L., University of Wisconsin, '99.
Scholarship—G. E. King, Ph. B., Baker university.

Sale of the Badger.

The first consignment of the 1902 Badger sold with a rush last week and the second lot was received yesterday. There are a very limited number on sale at the Co-op, College Book store, Menges Pharmacy and Pickarts and every student who wishes one of these valuable souvenirs should procure it at once as the supply will soon be exhausted.

Party at Chadbourne.

The young ladies of Chadbourne Hall have issued invitations for a dancing party to be given next Friday evening May 17. About eighty invitations have been issued. The verandas will be decorated and a regular "good time at the Hall" is expected.

BADGER VS. BADGER

VARSITY MEETS STRONG BELOIT TEAM TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

Adkins and Mathews Will Pitch—A Fine Game Expected—Teams Evenly Matched.

Wisconsin will meet the crack Beloit team at Camp Randall tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 in the third game of the series. This contest was originally scheduled at Beloit but owing to last week's game being postponed this one was shifted to Madison, so as to give local supporters a chance to see the game. Madison fans are unanimous in their desire for propitious weather to-morrow. The undisputedly high rank of the visitors coupled with the winning streak of the Varsity promise a game which will be exciting enough for the most exacting.

Beloit may be expected to be on hand with the proper goods at the proper moment. In addition to her previous victories, the Congregationists took a decisive fall out of Notre Dame last Saturday while yesterday the Catholics in turn made the Illini look like selling platters. This is only one of many defeats which the Line City aggregation have administered to the so-called leaders in western athletics. If professionalism did not bar them from the pennant race, they would have to be reckoned with very strongly at the finish. Their record is equal to the best among the "big-nine."

Still Wisconsin has a chance to win, although it may be nothing but a fighting chance. The cardinal players are still smarting from their walloping at the hands of Adkins and his accomplices and will do their best to redeem themselves. If they can control that ubiquitous inclination of theirs to take balloon rides, there is considerable prospect that another victory may be nailed to the season's record. Reedal or Mathews will officiate on the central slab for the Varsity while Beloit's old Mainstay Adkins will do the twirling for Hollisters men.

CAST COMPLETE

FOR SENIOR PLAY "THE PROFESSOR'S LOVE STORY."

Edward D. Jenner in Leading Part—Drama by J. M. Barrie, the Famous Scotch Author.

The cast for the 1901 class play has been definitely decided upon. Rehearsals have been in daily progress over a week and will go on with increased rapidity. The cast is as follows:

Professor Goodwillie, an electrician—Mr. Edward D. Jenner.
Dr. Cosens, his physician—Mr. Arthur F. Beule.
Dr. Yellowless, a country doctor—Mr. John McMillan.
Sir George Gilding, M. P. for Tullochmains—Mr. Robert B. Holt.
Pete and Henderson, Scotch farmers—Mr. W. P. Vroman and Mr. Harvey O. Sargeant.
Dawson, a footman—Mr. Robert E. Knoff.

Lucy White, the Professor's secretary—Miss Elsie Ives.

Agnes Goodwillie, his sister, Miss Katherine Kavanaugh.

Lady Gilding—Miss Leta Sherman.

The Dowager Lady Gilding (aged 25)—Miss May Foley.

Effie Proctor, the Professor's housekeeper—Miss Clara Stillman.

"The Professor's Love Story," is the play made famous by E. S. Willard, the English actor. This is the first time that permission has been granted to produce it outside of Mr. Willard's own company. The story of the play is a charming pastoral of London and Scottish life. All of the members of the cast have had more or less experience in amateur dramatics and an excellent performance is assured.

Choral Union Concert.

The Choral Union Concert, which is to be given in Library Hall Thursday evening promises to be the best concert ever given under the auspices of the Choral Union. The soloists, Mrs. Auer and Mr. Hyllested, are both famous in their line of work and their selections will be a pleasing feature of the program. Mrs. Auer is a singer of wide operative experience, and Mr. Hyllested has played before most of the royal families of Europe and is at present court pianist to the King of Sweden.

The Choral Union chorus has been practicing for some time and is in excellent condition. Their selections will be accompanied by Professor Nitschke's orchestra. The following is the program as arranged:

Program.

1. Song of Peace, Sullivan, Choral Union and Orchestra.

2. Piano—Sonata, op. 27, C sharp minor, Beethoven, Mr. August Hyllested.

3. Three Songs—(a) Das erste Lied, Gramman, (b) Who'll buy my Laverden, German, (c) Snowflakes, Cowen, Mrs. Jane Stuart Auer.

4. Part-song—The Linden Tree Hauptmann, Choral Union.

5. Piano—(a) Ballade, op. 47, A flat, Chopin, (b) Valse Brillanté, op. 34, A flat Chopin, (c) Concert Polonaise, op. 27, E major, Hyllested, Mr. Hyllested.

6. Two Songs—(a) Midsummer Dreams, d'Hardelot, (b) Delight, Luckstone, Mrs. Auer.

7. Piano—William Tell Overture,

Rossini-Liszt, Mr. Hyllested.

8. Barbara Frietchie, Jules Jordan, Mrs. Auer, Choral Union and Orchestra.

Freshmen at Training Table.

Eight freshmen were taken to the crew training-table today by Coach O'Dea. The men taken for the freshmen boat were: McComb, Christman, Thom, Potter, Keith, Krueger, Abbott, and Banta. The Varsity men at the table now are Gibson (cap't), Quigley, Gaffin, Stevenson, Levisse, Lounsbury, Trevarthen and Jordan. There will be four more men taken to the table soon, two for the freshmen boat and two for the Varsity. These men will be the substitutes for the two crews.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

LOCAL ANNUAL CONTEST OPENS TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

Good Field of Entries—Winner Plays Beye—Invitation Meet With Beloit.

To-morrow afternoon at 2:30 the Tennis Tournament of 1901 will be started. Greater interest has been shown this year than for four or five years and the men have been coming out regularly for practice. Up to this time the following players have entered: Beye, Gillette, Gates, Reineking, Seaman, Helmholtz, Turner. The other entries will be published to-morrow. The drawings will take place at the gun room of the gymnasium at 1:30 p. m. before the tournament. The former rule was that all entries must be made before May 10th, but this year all entries up to the time of drawing will be accepted. The management urges all men who have any ability to get out so that a line may be drawn on how they rank by playing in the tournament.

The preliminary games will be the best two out of three; the semi-finals and finals will be decided by the best three out of five, both singles and doubles. The winner of the semi-finals will play Beye, last year's winner, for the championship. The winners of both singles and doubles, will make up the Varsity team. Beloit has already written for a tournament, and as it has been the custom to play them in past years, one will undoubtedly be held. As so many good men are practicing this year it is hoped that three men may be sent to represent Wisconsin in the inter-collegiate at Chicago.

The managers of the club feel that they are somewhat discriminated against in that the men likely to compose the University team are not excused from drill, while those representing the cardinal on other teams are allowed the extra time. This fact interferes seriously with the practice, as the drill hour is the best time for playing and most convenient to the players.

A. R. Anderson, the present holder of the Wm. F. Allen scholarship in Greek and Latin, has been nominated to a Thayer Scholarship in the classics at Harvard. "Dad" Anderson was the winner of the Allan Hopkin's prize in Greek last year and also was captain of last year's Varsity crew.

Get a 1902 Badger before the price is raised to $2.00. The entire supply is nearly exhausted.

CONCERNING COMMUNICATIONS.

Unsigned communications will not be printed in the Cardinal, but it is always glad to print any communication the authorship of which is known to the editor, although the name need not be published unless so designated.

Only Home Contest.

Next Friday Wisconsin rooters will be given the first and only opportunity of the season to see the track men in competition with another college. Last year we succeeded in defeating Illinois by only a very narrow margin and they are not the people to give us a walkaway this time. However, Wisconsin has what appears to be the best team for several years and ought to defeat Illinois by a considerable margin. As the showing in the Illinois meet will to a great extent foreshadow our position in the inter-collegiate games a generous attendance ought to greet the spiked-shod athletes on Friday.

Base Ball Score Board.

The increased interest in baseball since the Chicago game Saturday promises a good attendance at the remaining local games. The management of the baseball team might score a hit with the students who patronize the games if they would furnish a score-board, on which the positions of the players might be written and a record of the game be shown to the grandstand. Since there have been no score cards this spring there has been some talk about the need of them. The cost of erecting a blackboard to serve as a score board would be almost nothing or could be reduced to nothing by the procuring of a little advertising. Some of the other universities use score boards and they have been found to increase the interest in the games. The innovation here would cost nothing and would be appreciated by the rooters.

The Weather.
Fair tonight and Wednesday.

Communication.

To the Editor:—

Considerable interest has been aroused of late in interfraternity baseball. The Phi Rho Betas, the Chi Psis, the Sigs, the Psi Us, and the Betas have all had games. These games, although one would hardly term them scientific exhibitions of the national sport, yet furnished much excitement and considerable amusement. Almost every inning had its home run; every inning its wild demonstration.

In order that more of the fraternities might participate, and that the greater rivalry and interest might be awakened, it has been suggested that an inter-fraternity league be formed, and that a regular schedule of games be played for the Hellenic supremacy. Chicago, Northwestern and other universities have such an organization, and the inter-frat. games in these schools furnish a great deal of the athletic life and interest.

There is no reason why such a league could not be formed here. Each fraternity could throw in a dollar or some such sum, and a handsome trophy could be procured as a prize for the victorious fraternity.

It is not yet too late in the season to organize the league. Not only would its contests stimulate the friendly rivalry between the fraternities, but they would contribute greatly to the life and sport of the University.

Local and Personal.

—Miss English of Kenosha visited friends in the University today.

—Miss Nellie Smith of Milwaukee is visiting her sister Dolly K. Smith.

—Philomathia defeated Hesperia yesterday afternoon at baseball by a score of 9 to 7.

—The joint committees of Christian Associations hold a cabinet meeting at Prof. M. V. O'Shea's home tonight.

—Lester D. Williams, '01, left this noon for Pittsburg where he accepts a lucrative position in the office of the chief engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

—Athenae's base ball team is out for practice at Camp Randall this afternoon. The men are getting in shape for the game to be played with Philomathia in a few days.

—Plans and arrangements for commencement week are not all completed as yet. The senior class will probably have a meeting the latter part of this week. Professor Olson, who has charge of the arrangements states that the program will be completed the first of next week.

—Athenae's semi-public men have met and have chosen sides for the teams. The teams will be Arnold, closer, Randolph and MacEachron; against Blackman, closer, Woledge, and Ludlow. The question is to be submitted before June 1st and all such preliminary arrangements made before the close of the semester.

Enrique Quinones del Rojas, adjutant and one of Gomez's trusted officers is a member of the freshman class at Brown.

Literary Club.

Prof. C. N. Gregory and Miss Gregory entertained the Literary club at Keeley's last evening, the meeting being one of more than ordinary interest, from the fact that Prof. Gregory, who is president of the club and who leaves to accept a deanship in the University of Iowa next fall, took occasion to bid a feeling goodbye to the club. Upwards of 150 persons were present. The paper was by Prof. W.
F. Giese and was a very finished and literary production on the theme of criticism. The impressionist form was disparaged in favor of the scientific. One of Scott's best known quatrains was exhaustively analyzed and ridiculed greatly to the enjoyment of the club and even Victor Hugo was subjected to criticism as well as many of the lesser poets. The discussion was led by Prof. Charles Forster Smith, the others participating being Prof. Arthur Beatty, R. E. N. Dodge,
J. W. Stearns and George R. Noyes.
Prof. Stearns struck a popular chord by denouncing the modern novel and the one read for pure enjoyment rather than for critical interest.

Annual Sale of Stock.

The first annual sale of the Short Breeder's Association occurred this afternoon at the University farm.
This is a new feature and the idea is meeting with approval by the prominent breeders of Wisconsin. Nearly all the states have an association of this kind, which results in an increased impetus in good stock breeding.

The sale commenced at one o'clock this afternoon at the dairy farm.
There were about sixty head in all sold from the various herds about the state. The Harding herd from Waukesha contained a good selection and also the Blodgett herd of Marshfield.

Many people throughout the state interested in short horn cattle were in attendance as were also some from the neighboring states. Mr. A. E.
Learned, president of the Union Stock Yards at Chicago, Mr. W. E. Skinner, general manager of the International Live Stock exhibit, Mr. Sadler, publisher of the Breeders' Gazette of Chicago, were present at the sale.

The auctioneers were Carey M.
Jones of Davenport, Iowa, and R. W.
Barclay of West Liberty, Iowa, who are professionals in live stock auctioneering. Mr. Jones during the past two weeks has been in Colorado and New York conducting sales and last year was in charge of sales in fourteen different states and Canada.

This noon a free lunch was provided for everybody at the farm.
